Your request for Bureau authority to conduct a minor survey of the offices of Curran and Friedman, Providence, Rhode Island, attorneys, is not being approved by the Bureau. From information contained in your letter of 12-19-62 the association between Patriarca and Saul Friedman is basically that of client and attorney rather than that of it being one of criminal association.

For your information the Bureau has in the past favorably considered an occasional survey on a member of the bar but only in instances where the basic relationship between the top hoodlum and the attorney was one of criminal associations rather than being an attorney-client relationship. In the event additional information comes to your attention indicating justification on the basis of criminal associations, you may desire to resubmit your request.

FROM : SAC, BOSTON (92-118 SUB 2)

SUBJECT: RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka.

J U N E

SAUL FRIEDMAN, an attorney at Providence, R. I., who is in the law firm of Curran and Friedman, Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R. I., is the attorney for RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and has been for several years. It appears from investigation and from contacts with BS 837-C* that PATRIARCA has FRIEDMAN handle all of his legal work; that FRIEDMAN also handles all business deals and financial ventures for PATRIARCA; and whenever anyone comes to PATRIARCA in order to have PATRIARCA invest money or discuss a possible business venture, PATRIARCA refers them to his attorney, SAUL FRIEDMAN, who will listen to the proposition and then discuss it with PATRIARCA.

It appears from investigation and from BS 837-C* that SAUL FRIEDMAN would be the person who is aware of PATRIARCA's complete business transactions, both legal and illegal, and may be the person who would be in a position to furnish information as to where PATRIARCA would have his money.

SAUL FRIEDMAN has three smaller offices within his office space in Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R. I., and CHARLES CURRAN, another attorney, is associated with him in this law office. CHARLES CURRAN is the attorney constantly mentioned by BS 837-C* in regard to defending hoodlums in the Rhode Island area, and it is also Mr. CURRAN who is making arrangements for the attempted parole of [redacted] who was recently returned to the Massachusetts Correctional Institution at Walpole, Massachusetts, for violation of his parole, which information has previously been furnished the Bureau. CURRAN is the attorney who is defending RUDOLPH SCIARRA who is accused of murdering JACKIE NAZARIAN, a local hoodlum from Providence, R. I.

In this regard, the Bureau's attention is directed to the fact that BS 837-C* has furnished considerable information concerning the NAZARIAN murder and has furnished information that PATRIARCA is very interested in this matter and has had consultation with CURRAN regarding it. The Bureau, at this time, is vitally interested in attempting to determine the identity of the notary public from New Jersey who is being retained by PATRIARCA to be a defense witness and act as a gun expert or fingerprint expert to discredit Bureau Agent's testimony when this case comes to trial in Providence, R. I.

Bureau authority is being requested to conduct a misur survey of the offices of Curran and Friedman, Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R. I., in an attempt to develop a highly confidential source so that the Bureau can further expand its knowledge in the Criminal Intelligence Program.

It is to be noted that the [REDACTED]

Re Boston Airtel to Bureau dated 12/27/62.

On 12/27/62 BS 837-C* advised that TEDDY FUCILLO told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he took care of PETER (LIMONE). It is believed that this related to a certain cutting up of a game being operated somewhere in Massachusetts, exact location unknown. While FUCILLO was there, another UNMAN entered and told PATRIARCA that they needed one other vote on the racing commission to reinstate JOSEPH LOMBARDI as a trainer in the State of Rhode Island. They only have two days left and UNMAN is trying to line up that vote to obtain the license.

FUCILLO also mentioned a game, probably in Brockton or Randolph, Mass., as there was mention of both towns. He also mentioned the Chief in Randolph; however, the significance of this was not clear to the informant. It appeared as though the game has not yet started in one of these two towns; however, they are going to start it to see how it makes out.

FUCILLO further explained to RAYMOND PATRIARCA that the Eastern Hotel Supply Corporation has a $40,000 job in Cambridge, Massachusetts; another one in Scollay Square (Boston); and another in Easton, Massachusetts.

FUCILLO stated that their potential business as of this time is $210,000. Their business at the Eastern Hotel Supply Corporation for the past year lost $36,000. They have $56,000 in Accounts Receivable and $76,000 in Accounts Payable. FUCILLO said that when they get their good credit rating back there is a possibility that the company will flourish.

Another individual, believed to be [] (LNU), spoke of gifts given out by him and the fact that a trooper, [] brought the money back and would not take it. He did not mention anyone else; however, there was mention of sending someone $100 to come home. The significance of this was not known to the informant.

HENRY TAMELEO gave RAYMOND PATRIARCA a letter. He told him to read it and tear it up. PATRIARCA apparently read same for there was nothing said for a minute or two. TAMELEO continued, "Everything is set but we can't find where he went after." There was talk of a [] (LNU) and the fact that he did not show up Friday. TAMELEO said that they went to the Ambassador which was taken over in September by a new owner as the old owner, a Mr. OVERTON (ph), died and that they could not talk to []. The significance of this is unknown to informant, but it appears to relate to some alibi for some unknown person who was arrested.

Another UNMAN entered and talked about the same case and said that [] does not recall if that was the night or not. There was mention of one [] (ph) there at eleven and also at one, and the fact that they talked to FRANK FRAZZANO, Assistant Attorney General, Rhode Island. The significance of this conversation was not known to the informant.

On 12/28/62 BS 837-C* advised that UNMAN discussed with RAYMOND PATRIARCA a case in which Assistant Attorney General FRAZZANO was trying. Most of this conversation was not heard by informant; however, RAYMOND PATRIARCA said that he sent $100 to the mother and wife for Christmas, and that the mother called to thank him. There was considerable talk about the Rhode Island State Police Superintendent and there was mention of [] (Former Special Agent recently retired), and also the fact that the papers state that (WALTER) STONE has the job.

RAYMOND PATRIARCA mentioned that he would go into the hospital about the 15th of January for the operation.

[] (LNU) and RAYMOND PATRIARCA had a conversation relative to beach property, location unknown but probably around Narragansett Pier (Rhode Island). [] was going to see [] today about this. [] also mentioned that PELL was behind [] who is the Woonsocket (R. I.) man. PELL is Senator CLAYBORNE PELL, Rhode Island democrat. PATRIARCA said that he gave $4,000 to the NOTTE campaign, and that [] gave $1,500 to [] of Pawtucket (R. I.).

On 12/31/62 BS 837-C* advised that UNMAN, in conversation with RAYMOND PATRIARCA, mentioned a statement given by someone, apparently referring to the case involving []. The significance not known by the informant. UNMAN also talked about a restaurant in which one of the owners has a 50% interest and is willing to sell this interest for $20,000. UNMAN is going to get a couple of individuals to front for him. This UNMAN, whose first name is LOUIE, also said that there was approximately $30,000 in liabilities which he is willing to take over. Further conversation this matter not heard by informant.

TAMELEO then discussed with PATRIARCA the RUDY SOLARRA murder trial which commenced in Providence, R. I., just recently. TAMELEO was attempting to find out who was present at the lineup when RUDY SOLARRA was brought in at the time of his arrest. RAYMOND PATRIARCA suggested that he contact [redacted] of the Providence, R. I., Police Department, Juvenile Division, and he could probably find out. TAMELEO mentioned that he has contacted (FNU) [redacted] (ph), presumably with the Providence Police Department, to ascertain this information. TAMELEO said that he had contacted Defense Attorney CURRAN and was to see him at 3 p.m. that afternoon. PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that "SID has two good men," apparently referring to prospective members of the jury. They then discuss the number of challenges to the jurors that CURRAN has. TAMELEO said that everything seemed to be ironed out.

Another individual entered and HENRY TAMELEO instructs him to see [] and advise TAMELEO if he can find out who was behind the screen when SCIARRA, [] (LNU) and the two detectives were in the lineup at the police Department. TAMELEO then discussed a juror, name unknown, who lives in Gloucester (ph). The informant was unable to ascertain the comments TAMELEO made concerning this prospective juror.

On 1/7/63 BS 837-C* advised that [] (LNU), who owns a restaurant, location unknown, told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that his partner, [], has acquired a 50% interest in the restaurant with no capital. [] has 2 or 3 other places and [] (LNU) derives no income whatsoever from this restaurant. He is seeking PATRIARCA's assistance in helping him obtain money from the business.

LOUIE (TAGLIANETTI) mentioned to RAYMOND PATRIARCA a number of names which he is apparently reading from a paper. The names of ROBERT E. GAINES (ph), Director of Personnel; LEO (BLANK); RICHARD O'HARA; and RICHARD O'CONNOR were all referred to as "the kind of guys that you need." LOUIE said that he had to talk to [] today and it was too bad "we can't place [] in the restaurant." He mentioned [] as being very strong and that [] has been talked to already. They further mentioned the names of [], [] (ph) and [] (ph) but the comments concerning them were not obtained by the informant.

The name of [] was mentioned, at which time RAYMOND PATRIARCA said "We got him." [] was mentioned as being the wife of an individual named [] who is employed in the Purchasing Department in the State House.

LOUIE told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he has checked all the names with CURRAN. PATRIARCA suggested that he put it in some sort of a code so that he would know what juror to pick.

UNMAN told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that HAROLD INGRAM (ph) owes him $2,700 and has not paid for a long time. INGRAM apparently recently inherited some money and UNMAN desired to have PATRIARCA intercede for him to obtain the money. PATRIARCA told UNMAN to tell HAROLD INGRAM that he, PATRIARCA, was interested in the matter and wanted the money paid.

Two UNMEN discussed with RAYMOND PATRIARCA the current court case concerning defendant RUDY SCIARRA. UNMEN told PATRIARCA what occurred on 1/7/63 and the fact that three jurors had been picked.

Another UNMAN told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that [] (ph) in Maine owed $400. He was paying $10 a week and now they have him paying $20 a week. The informant did not ascertain the rest of the conversation.

UNMAN referred to someone getting a large truck from the Commercial Leasing Company in Hartford, Connecticut, and obtaining whiskey from a legitimate wholesaler in Conn. There was mention made of 300; however, the informant did not know whether it was 300 cases. UNMAN stated a mixup was [redacted]'s fault. The whiskey was described as stolen and was mentioned as being Canadian Club and that all numbers had been taken off the cases and bottles. UNMAN gave four bottles of this Canadian Club to the "Chief," location not stated, but the Chief was unaware the whiskey was stolen. According to UNMAN, the whiskey described as stolen was being stored in a garage, the name and location of which was not stated. The informant was unable to ascertain any further information.

Two UNMEN discuss with RAYMOND their various loans to each other. RAYMOND instructs these men how to settle this debt.

TAMELIO again discusses various witnesses and their possible testimony at the trial of RUDOLPH SCIARRA.

On 1/9/63 BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA and another UNMAN discuss the recent illicit alcohol trial in Portland, Maine, in which [redacted] and others were convicted. UNMAN states that they are going to appeal the sentences as he does not believe the identifications were substantial enough in a conspiracy case.

Another UNMAN enters and sneaks of [redacted] named [redacted] who is a former [redacted] who works at the Navy Yard. This individual was fired from the [redacted] and he was questioned by authorities concerning the ANGIULOS and asked whether he ever did any [redacted] work for them. [redacted] denied doing any work for them.

Same UNMAN said that FRANK FERRARA sent a letter to the effect that he had not received any money from [redacted]. He also stated that [redacted] was aggravated concerning his legal situation.

Another UNMAN discussed the appointment to be made by the present head of the Rhode Island State Police, WALTER STONEY. UNMAN indicated that legislation has been submitted making it a law that all superintendents be named from within the ranks of the Department. RAYMOND said that he did not think that this would pass the Legislature. UNMAN said that Governor NOTTE lost the Rhode Island election because of his association with racketeers.

Same UNMAN desired to have RAYMOND arrange a meeting with some UNMAN concerning the restaurant he owns. It appears that this individual owes some money to the other individual he desires to meet, and the other individual has complained to RAYMOND about the debt owed by UNMAN.

The same UNMAN said that he is losing 54 or 58 every week, but he did not indicate further the exact amounts. He stated that the finance company has been a $59,000 "winner" for the past two years. RAYMOND at this point said, "[redacted] (or [redacted]), just for the record in round figures, you got $75,000." UNMAN replied, "That's right, $75,000 and the money from the (blank), I'll start paying on that." He then mentioned the numbers business, but the informant was unable to obtain the significance of same. It appeared that the UNMAN also operates a numbers business.

Same UNMAN mentioned receiving a call from New York and mentioned that [redacted] (ph). He said that he gave [redacted] (ph) $11,000 but never got the stock back. He also mentioned 32 acres being worth $25,000 and the fact that the Meadow Brooke Bank called him and was giving him either $17,000 or $117,000 that they owed him. He then mentioned that he had $113,000 tied up in Wilmington, Delaware. The significance of this was not known to the informant.

Re Boston Airtel to Bureau dated 1/10/63.

On 1/11/63 BS 837-C* reported that [redacted] to be [redacted] the Blue Moon Cafe in Newport, R. I.) discussed with RAYMOND PATRIARCA the problem of settling a $1,000 debt in connection with a gambling debt. During this discussion, [redacted] volunteered the information that [redacted]. The first incident he did not report to the police in which a gun had been stolen. The second incident he did report to the police because there had been a loss of $78. [redacted] then related to PATRIARCA that he ascertained that the gun was located on the person of the brother of a Newport police officer, believed by [redacted] to be named [redacted] and that the Police Department had hushed the matter up and had not prosecuted the officer's brother because [redacted] did not desire to lodge a complaint.

Subsequently, Chief of Police JOSEPH A. RADICE, Newport, R. I., called [redacted] in for questioning concerning the burglary. [redacted] related to PATRIARCA how he went along with the police in keeping the gun incident quiet and offered the facilities of [redacted] to the police for social functions free of charge. He did not indicate that the police had taken him up on this offer.

On 1/11/63 and 1/12/63 BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA continues to be vitally interested in the outcome of the trial of RUDOLPH SCIARRA who is presently being tried in Providence, R. I., court for the murder of JOHN F. NAZARIAN. Persons visiting PATRIARCA, in particular HENRY TAMELEO, have discussed with PATRIARCA various ways in which the prosecution's principal witness, ANTHONY RICCI, might be discredited concerning the testimony he is giving for the prosecution.

For example in this regard, PATRIARCA was disturbed and thought it stupid that someone had approached the mother and [] of SCIARRA trying to influence them to give testimony. Also, there was discussion that the defense could produce testimony that RICCI had attempted to obtain $5,000 in order to keep him from testifying for the Government. This was PATRIARCA's suggestion, but apparently this plan was discarded.

HENRY TAMELEO apparently is representing RAYMOND PATRIARCA in discussions with Defense Attorney CHARLES CURRAN in order to determine what CURRAN might need in the preparation of his defense.

On 1/12/63 BS 837-C* reported that WILLIAM MARFEO, who had been named on the witness stand by ANTHONY RICCI as a person who was present at the time of the slaying of NAZARIAN, was being sought by the police but that MARFEO would surrender with his attorney on 1/13/63. The Rhode Island press of 1/14/63 announced that MARFEO did, in fact, surrender with his attorney on the evening of 1/13/63.

Re Boston Airtel to Bureau dated 1/15/63.

On 1/15/63 BS 837-C* advised that an individual believed to be ANDY (LNU), aka "BOSTON," told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he was having trouble with his wife and believed that [redacted] (ph) was fooling around with her. He was also of the opinion that [redacted] had him, ANDY, marked for a hit. Arrangements were made to bring another individual in from New York to settle the matter. There was also an indication that ANDY might be on the lam from New York. He originally is from Atlantic City and later New York City.

HENRY TAMELEO discussed with PATRIARCA the SCJARRA-NAZARIAN murder trial in Providence, R. I.

JERRY ANGIULO advised RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he invested another $30,000 in the Indian Meadow Country Club (Westboro, Mass.) which now makes a total of 75% ownership for ANGIULO. He complained that [redacted] was robbing the till at the Indian Meadow Country Club in the amount of $25,000. JERRY also stated that he is considering taking a loan through a [redacted] (ph), [redacted] order to consolidate all the debts of the Country Club. JERRY said that on another business transaction he had with [redacted] he gave [redacted] "$30,000 under the table."

It appeared that ANGIULO was aggravated with [redacted] local Boston hoodlum and bookmaker, but the informant did not know the reason for same. [redacted] local Boston hoodlum, asked permission of RAYMOND through JERRY to allow him to go to Providence to see RAYMOND. RAYMOND told JERRY to make sure that [redacted] is not surveilled.

TEDDY FUCILLO asked JERRY ANGIULO to seek permission of RAYMOND PATRIARCA to put up $10,000 bail for [redacted] who was arrested and convicted of illicit alcohol. RAYMOND told JERRY that they should not get mixed up in this at this time.

JERRY ANGIULO also told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that SAM GRANITO told him that a New York agent arrived in Boston who was friendly with SAM. He asked SAM who JERRY ANGIULO was and told him that the heat is really on ANGIULO. JERRY said that he has an appointment with former U. S. Attorney [redacted] who he is going to give a retainer to to handle the IRS investigation. He also hired [redacted], IRS, as his tax consultant. (ass't) //

[redacted] (INU) (possibly [redacted]) told JERRY ANGIULO that the [redacted] have been propositioned to "whack this kid," [redacted]. JERRY related to RAYMOND how the [redacted] had been talking to the Feds "to hang these people." [redacted] JERRY theorizes that the proposition to kill [redacted] came from [redacted] JERRY claims he told [redacted] to go out to Worcester and get a hold of [redacted] and that on the "Q.T." he and RAYMOND are interested to know if this kid in Worcester is willing to cooperate. JERRY says in the beginning [redacted] was working with the FEDS (relating to postal inspectors re MAILROB) but then he, [redacted] started to realize that something was going to happen and he, [redacted] was going to be on the losing end, so then [redacted] went to Attorney [redacted] (who is also the attorney for [redacted])

RAYMOND states that he wants to know who offered the $15,000 to kill [redacted] as RAYMOND believes that the person who made this proposition is the one who got the money (from MAILROB). JERRY suspects that [redacted] made the proposition and states that [redacted] has money, and JERRY further indicates that he knows [redacted] has money because he works with the guy.

JERRY and RAYMOND continue to discuss aspects pertaining to MAILROB, particularly about the Postal Inspectors tearing [redacted]'s house apart. JERRY and RAYMOND discuss [redacted] acting as attorney for [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted], and RAYMOND stated that you couldn't give a lawyer $50,000 to stick his neck out like [redacted] has. RAYMOND stated that he doesn't think [redacted] will succeed if he attempts to sue the Government (regarding the destruction of his house by Postal Inspectors), and JERRY states that [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] "were on the score," and "that they went in on it," and that they told [redacted] that [redacted] had no money and that they would handle the money (possibly for attorney's fees).

RAYMOND states that [redacted] is going through [redacted]'s background. JERRY then states that a year ago [redacted] was picked up in a girls' dormitory at Boston University. The detectives (Boston PD) got a call that there was a prowler in the Boston University dormitory for girls who was later identified as [redacted]; however, allegedly, this matter was hushed up.

JERRY then states that the FEDS were going to the Federal Grand Jury to indict [redacted], [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted]. Then, according to JERRY, the word got out that the FEDS were going to indict [redacted] for the Essex Trust. JERRY stated to RAYMOND PATRIARCA, [redacted] was at the Essex Trust. I know, because I handled the money, twenty-seven two forty-two ($27,242) to be exact."

RAYMOND states that [redacted] is going to go to the can with these four individuals as an accessory. JERRY states that [redacted] sure had a lot of nerve to which RAYMOND replied SAUL (FRIEDMAN) (PATRIARCA's attorney) would jump out a window for him, indicating SAUL's loyalty to RAYMOND. RAYMOND states maybe [redacted] is money crazy, and JERRY says "Don't underrate these kids."

On 1/17/63 BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA introduced [] (LNU, last 2 syllables of which are [] to ANDY "BOSTON," and told ANDY to tell [] the whole story. ANDY said that his wife was fooling around. Because of this he put out a few stories to the wife to see if they would "bounce back." He said that when he did this he got "trapped in their balloons." He said that he thought that [] (ph) was the person fooling around with his wife. There was mention of [] (ph), [] (LNU) and [] (ph). [] was of the impression that these individuals know what CARL and CARMINE are doing, but he, himself does not know them. [] is giving $500 to this guy and $600 to that guy and it appeared that ANDY was angry because [] was giving this money away from their operation in the numbers business.

It appeared that ANDY is of the impression that the above group knows every move of CARMINE and CARL and probably are out to do CARL harm. There was detailed conversation relative to a few members of the "Commission" and the groups that these individuals belong to. All these groups are apparently in the New York area. A verbatim copy is being prepared and will be forwarded to the Bureau and New York Office under the case entitled, "The Criminal 'Commission,' et al."

During the conversation, [redacted], who apparently is the arbitrator of some sort for the "Commission," pointed out that he is extremely busy in arbitrating "Commission" disputes. He said that one group is disbanding and a new "Commission" is being formed, and there are meetings day and night relative to this situation.

After listening to ANDY "BOSTON" present his case, [redacted] indicated that he is not marked for assassination and that everything will be straightened out. [redacted] also went through a detailed discussion explaining to ANDY the manner in which he settles "Commission" disputes.

On 1/18/63 BS 837-C* advised that 2 UNMEN requested RAYMOND to make an appointment for them to see [redacted] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, R. I.

On 1/21/63 BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA stated that he intends to enter the hospital next week for a minor rectal operation.

PATRIARCA and an UNMAN discuss the SCIARRA-NAZARIAN murder trial in Providence, R. I., and the fact that the witness, one [redacted] did not get home until 6 a.m. according to his mother and, therefore, could not have actually observed the killing of NAZARIAN by SCIARRA which he, [redacted] testified to. PATRIARCA stated that the defense intends to call 2 fingerprint experts, "one from the Army and one from Boston," but he did not further identify them.

Another individual, possibly [redacted], told PATRIARCA that he was sorry that he still owes [redacted] (LNU) the money, but he is opening a place on 3/1/63 and intends to pay this money immediately thereafter.

On the same date, the bondsman who arranged the bail for PATRIARCA in the Connecticut illicit alcohol trial approximately 3 months ago received payment from PATRIARCA for his services.

Patriarca is the ranking member of the underworld "Commission" and principal racketeer in the New England area. This misur has furnished very valuable information concerning Patriarca's activities and the over-all control which he exercises over the criminal element in the New England area. This misur has furnished information concerning corruption which exists between Federal, state and local officials and the underworld and has given a clearer picture of the tangled web of criminal activity which exists in that region. On a day-to-day basis valuable intelligence information of interest to both Federal and local authorities is developed and it is highly recommended that this misur be continued for an additional ninety days.

19. Recommendation by the Assistant to the Director:

(A) On November 28, 1962, the informant advised that GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO, top lieutenant of PATRIARCA in the Boston, Massachusetts, area, heard that the [redacted] Commonwealth of Massachusetts, was being investigated by Internal Revenue Service. ANGIULO inquired of [redacted] Internal Revenue Service, if he could ascertain some facts concerning this investigation so that ANGIULO could go to [redacted] and relate to him what information Internal Revenue Service has concerning him. ANGIULO was of the opinion that he could ingratiate himself with [redacted] for this favor.

On November 16, 1962, the informant advised that NATHAN COLSIA, recent gangland murder victim, had previously instructed [redacted] in the shylocking operation, [redacted], to arrange for the death of [redacted], another Boston hoodlum. [redacted] went to New York to arrange for this murder. However, an unknown longshoreman in New York learned of [redacted] purpose and contacted [redacted] in Boston and informed [redacted]. [redacted] with 2 Charlestown, Massachusetts, residents, followed COLSIA to the Dolphin Motel, Quincy, Massachusetts, where they murdered COLSIA in the parking lot.

On October 31, 1962, the informant advised that JOHN DE ANGELIS of Boston, Massachusetts, advised TEDDY FUCILLO that [redacted] had just returned from Italy where he was with the old man, probably referring to PHILIP BUCOLO, PATRIARCA's predecessor in the New England area.

On the same date, another informant advised that [redacted] was acting as a courier for the Boston group who were closely allied with BUCOLO, now residing in Italy.

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystalize information which may lead to prosecution.

On 1/16/63 a surveillance of JOSEPH ZERILLI by Bureau Agents at Detroit reflected that ZERILLI was in the Detroit area working at his legitimate enterprises on that date.

On 1/17/63 in response to New York radiogram referenced above, the Detroit Division, which has maintained stops on Subject with all major airlines, again recontacted these airlines to put them on alert again for the possibility that Subject might leave the Detroit area. These stops are still in effect and no airlines thus far has advised the Detroit Office that Subject has made reservations to depart from the Detroit area.

On 1/17/63 [redacted] was contacted and requested to be especially alert for the possible departure of Subject.

On 1/18/63 [redacted] advised that as far as he could determine, ZERILLI was still in the Detroit area.

Reurairtel dated 1-29-63.

It is noted in referenced airtel that Gennaro Angiulo in discussion with Raymond Patriarca indicated that the National Mechanics Bank does not have a true financial picture concerning the Indian Meadow Country Club in Westboro, Massachusetts. It is further noted that the reason given for the submission of this false statement to the bank was in order that such a statement would be available in order to get a loan from the Small Business Administration.

You should immediately review this entire matter with the thought that a possible Fraud Against the Government violation may exist arising from the financial dealings of the Indian Meadow Country Club. If your investigation indicates a violation does exist, you should immediately open a Fraud Against the Government case. Keep the Bureau advised of all pertinent developments.

 FROM: SAC, BOSTON (92-118) - P -

Re Boston airtel dated 1/24/63.

On 1/24/63, BS 837-C* advised that HENRY TAMELEO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA discussed the SCIARA murder trial presently being conducted in Providence, R. I. They spoke of photographs and discussed the various lighting aspects within these photographs.

An unman mentioned an individual, identity unknown, who recently was released from prison. Unman thought that the FBI might be using this individual as a stool pigeon.

GENNARO ANGIULO told RAYMOND that two FBI Agents desired to see him concerning an unknown matter, but that he is going to refuse to see them.

He stated that former AUSA [redacted] Boston, Mass. requested a $15,000.00 retainer fee plus $6,000.00 per month for representing ANGIULO in the pending IRS investigation. ANGIULO thought that this was an excessive amount of money. RAYMOND told him he would be better off getting a young new attorney whom he, ANGIULO, could direct in dealing with IRS.

It should be noted that [redacted] desired the above monthly payments from ANGIULO in amounts of $5,000.00 under the table plus a $1,000.00 check for record purposes.

JERRY told PATRIARCA that [redacted] (Boston Police Detective) told [redacted], a Boston racketeer, that [redacted], alias [redacted], was going to kill [redacted]. JERRY, when he heard this, told [redacted] that [redacted] works for IRS Intelligence and the FBI and that all he is doing is planting a story to get them upset and aggravated.

JERRY also stated that [redacted] [redacted], former Charlestown political figure and presently [redacted] for the City of Boston, came to see JERRY to ask him a favor. [redacted] said that two tough kids by the name of [redacted] and [redacted] who had no previous record, were arrested for grabbing some money in a joint. [redacted] told JERRY that they are willing to return all of the money they took, however, there was a matter of identification that had to be straightened out. [redacted] stated a fellow from Providence, R. I. was in the joint by the name of [redacted] (a close associate of PATRIARCA). [redacted] desired that JERRY fix it so that there would be no identification made. JERRY said that he would see what he could do about this matter.

JERRY then told RAYMOND that the Indian Meadow County Club in Westboro, Mass. is a financial "monster". He then proceeded to discuss various financial developments regarding this club. He stated that the National Mechanics Bank does not have a true financial statement regarding this club. He did not find out that there were two financial statements until he became interested in purchasing same. However, he ascertained that the reason for the untrue statement at the National Mechanics Bank was that they had to have such a statement in order to get a loan from the Small Business Administration. He went on to explain that they, meaning the original owners of the club, said they purchased the property for $25,000.00 and the rest of the conversation was inaudible.

JERRY said to RAYMOND that [redacted] (PH) came into his barroom and introduced himself as the fellow he saved from investing money in the joint in Dorchester. [redacted] wanted to open up a gambling establishment within the confines of Station 19, Boston PD which covers part of the Dorchester area. JERRY told him that he did not think it was possible, but that he would find out for him.

JERRY also told RAYMOND that the crap game lost some money last week. They now have $17,400.00 bank roll. Last week they had to sent to New York for the dice and they now have five good ones and five bad ones. There was mention of JIMMY PASTORE and [] (PH) but the significance was not known to the informant. b6 b7C

PETER LIMONE told RAYMOND that [] told him that he got the money from Mailrob. There was also mention of $100,000.00 coming to him, meaning []

PETER LIMONE also told PATRIARCA that he never used that stuff before referring to "bomb stuff". He said that [] or [] used the big fat wire the same as PETER used on the bombs. PETER said that on fires he uses the black stuff if its smaller. He said "we use the big stuff on the bombs in Somerville" (probably referring to the bombing of the [] automobile several months ago).

On 1/26/63 HENRY TAMELEO discussed with RAYMOND the SCIARA murder trial. He apparently is attempting to obtain the services of some individuals who will testify on behalf of SCIARA in that SCIARA was not present in the vicinity of the murder on the night it occurred.

It is noted that Patriarca in discussing possible candidates for political office in the State of Rhode Island indicated that one [] would be the best candidate for Governor and that one [] (LNU) would be a good lieutenant Governor. It would appear from information received concerning this that [] (LNU) has been in contact with hoodlums both in Rhode Island and Miami and in fact appears to be attempting to ingratiate himself with Patriarca.

Boston should identify [] and [] (LNU) who apparently are possible Patriarca choices for political office in Rhode Island.

On 1/29/63, BS 837-C* advised that PATRIARCA had a discussion with an unknown individual and the figure of $2,300 was mentioned, however, the informant was unable to obtain the significance of same.

HENRY TAMELEO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA discussed the previous day's testimony in the RUDOLPH SCIARRA murder trial presently being held in Providence, R.I. There was a suggestion by TAMELEO that they contact [redacted] (phonetic) and ask him to leave town for a few days. During this time defense counsel would subpoena Commander HEALY of the Providence Police Department and request the identification of all individuals in the lineup at the time SCIARRA was identified as the person who killed NAZARIAN by [redacted]. [redacted] was in the lineup and they felt that if [redacted] could not be located after being subpoenaed, it would cause some embarrassment to the Providence Police Department. This plan was later decided against.

RAYMOND also talked with another UNMAN and told him to tell his daughter to mind her own business. It appeared that she intends to be or was a witness for the prosecution in the SCIARA murder trial.

Another unknown individual tells RAYMOND about a "beef" concerning a gambling operation, location of which was not described, nor the exact "beef". RAYMOND said that he gets all the troubles around here, but that he would send for him, not identified, again, and straighten the matter out once and for all.

RAYMOND discusses with another unidentified man the amount of bail of persons convicted in Connecticut and the price paid by him to [redacted]. It appeared that [redacted] overcharged RAYMOND for the bonds.

On 1/30/63, RAYMOND and HENRY TAMELEO again discussed the SCIARA trial and various testimony concerning same. They are of the opinion that the trial is going very well for the defense.

TED FUCCILLO told RAYMOND that he is working on the thing in Brockton. He also said that the kid, [redacted], is having trouble with [redacted]. It appeared that [redacted] had a "joint" in Hopkinton, Mass., and [redacted] moved in on him. [redacted] threatened [redacted], telling him that he knows [redacted] (RAYMOND PATRIARCA) and a call to him would end up with [redacted] being buried. FUCCILLO stated that [redacted] came to him to find out what he could do with [redacted], after taking over a portion of the joint, which cost approximately $48,000.00, told [redacted] to get up $3,000.00. [redacted] was only able to get up $2,500.00 and when he offered this amount to [redacted] told him it was too late as he had given it to [redacted] and [redacted] from Dorchester. [redacted] has 32% of the joint, he gave the lawyer 16% and the kid 25%. He did not indicate who held the other 27%. [redacted] wanted the joint back and RAYMOND told FUCCILLO that the next time he sees [redacted] to tell [redacted] that he also knew [redacted] and suggest they both come down and settle the matter before [redacted] or RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

FUCCELLO also stated that the FBI is investigating SAMMY GRANITO and that inquiry had been made concerning [redacted] (phonetic), who allegedly was close to GRANITO.

RAYMOND discusses the SCIARA trial with another unknown individual. Nothing pertinent was noted during this conversation.

He then discussed politics with this individual and pointed out that they have to become more interested in politics as that is the method of power today. He said that [redacted] (phonetic) would be the best candidate for the Governor of Rhode Island, and that [redacted] (LNU) would be a good Lt. Governor. He pointed out that [redacted] sometime ago paid more attention to RAYMOND at a party than he did to the Governor and thus he feels that [redacted] would be an excellent candidate.

He also pointed out that [redacted], when he went to Miami, was wiped and dined by [redacted], Miami top hoodlum, on behalf of RAYMOND PATRIARCA. [redacted] thought that this courtesy afforded to him by RAYMOND could not be bought for any money. He went on to state that they would have to unseat the Kennedys because BOBBY KENNEDY is the cause of all their trouble. He pointed out that the people in Chicago are the ones who actually put MOHN in the Presidency, and when he got in, turned his back on them and blamed everything on his brother BOBBY. He said that the people in Chicago are dead set against him and are going to try to defeat him in the next election. There was mention of SINATRA, but informant was unable to obtain the significance of same.

RAYMOND also stated that inquiry by the FBI has held up the parole of [redacted] and LARRY BAIONE.

RAYMOND also advised that he was going to the hospital for a rectal operation on Friday next, and would be about 4 days in the hospital.

On 11/15/62 BS 837-C* made reference to the fact that HELEN PATRIARCA, wife of Subject, had contacted her husband and was quite concerned over an article in the Providence, R. I., newspaper at which time PATRIARCA told his wife that he was not the only person engaged in the vending machine business.

The article possibly referred to by Mrs. PATRIARCA would be on page 29 of the "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper in Providence, R. I., which carried a picture of NATHAN COLSIA, age 46, owner of a vending machine business in Boston, Mass., as being found dead in the back of a pickup truck in Dorchester, Mass. The article said he was a former bookie who still had many contacts in the underworld.

On 11/15/62 and 12/10, 17/62, conferences were held with United States Attorney RAYMOND J. PETTINE, Providence, R. I., at which time a general discussion of the PATRIARCA matter was had. During these conferences, no information was developed which is not already known by the Bureau.

TAMELEO has obtained a Photostat of the list of prospective jurors for the coming trial and according to informant this list was obtained through an unknown source at the Providence Superior Court.

This list of names was obtained by TAMELEO for the express purpose of conducting preliminary surveys on these names; that TAMELEO had enlisted the aid of the hoodlum element to perform this task. This survey is to be made in an effort to determine what person would know the prospective juror so that in the event the person was selected for this jury they could be readily contacted and offered money to come in with an acquittal verdict, or at least have them vote for an acquittal and possibly have a hung jury in the case.

The informant stated that he would attempt to obtain additional information concerning this matter and would contact this office in the event he obtained any additional information.

On 1/11/63 a conference was had with United States Attorney RAYMOND J. PETTINE, Providence, Rhode Island, at his request, at which time a general discussion was had with Mr. PETTINE concerning this matter. No information was developed during this conference which is not already known by the Bureau.

DETAILS:

On October 3, 1962, BS T-1 advised that a [redacted] at [redacted] Danbury, Connecticut, had a list of names in his possession and among the names on this list was the name, "RAY, Providence, R. I.," telephone number PL 1-2752 (home) and telephone number GA 1-5605 (office).

The informant advised that [redacted], who is more commonly known as [redacted], has long been associated with the gambling element in Bridgeport, Connecticut, which is a hangout for the gambling element. [redacted] is also considered to be a "shylock" and reportedly operates above the level of the general bookmaker.

It is noted that PL 1-2752 is the home telephone number for RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and the telephone number GA 1-5605 is the telephone number for Coin-O-Matic, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, the hangout for RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA.

On October 18 and 22, 1962, and November 14, 1962, BS T-2 advised he had no information concerning RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA which would indicate that he is involved in any illegal activities at this time which would be the basis for investigation.

On October 22, 1962, BS T-3 advised that he was unable to develop any information concerning RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA.

On October 23, 1962, [redacted] Detective Division, Providence, Rhode Island, Police Department, advised that he resides in the general area of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and that when he passes the residence of PATRIARCA on Lancaster Street, Providence, Rhode Island, he [redacted] usually takes notice of any activity or cars in the area.

[redacted] stated he has never noticed any unusual activity around the residence of PATRIARCA and has never observed any of the hoodlum element in or around this area.

On October 23, 1962, and December 3, 14 and 17, 1962, BS T-6 advised that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA continues to reside at 165 Lancaster Street, Providence, Rhode Island, and continues to hang out at 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, where he operates a cigarette vending machine business with [redacted].

The informant stated that he has heard that PATRIARCA is concerned over the recent defeat of Governor JOHN NOTTE in Rhode Island as PATRIARCA feels that the new governor elect, JOHN CHAFEE, may put considerable pressure on gambling activities in the state when he takes office on January 2, 1963.

The informant stated that PATRIARCA had told someone that he could control Governor NOTTE and through NOTTE and [redacted] of the Rhode Island State Police he, PATRIARCA, could be advised whenever a gambling raid would take place by the Rhode Island State Police.

The informant also related that PATRIARCA and the hoodlum element from the Federal Hill Section of Providence, Rhode Island, are concerned over the pressure and investigation by the FBI, and gambling activities by the hoodlum element are being curtailed somewhat.

On October 24, 1962; November 14, 1962; and on December 3 and 17, 1962, BS T-7 furnished substantially the same information as BS T-6.

She stated she was in poor financial condition and manages to support herself through her job as [redacted] and through an allotment check which comes to her by virtue of a prior marriage. She said there had been some delay in receiving her most recent check as a result of which she had been served with an eviction notice by her landlord. However, she felt she would receive her check in time to pay her current rent. She said very frankly that JOHN BUCCELLI has been "wonderful to her" while he was alive. She said that he was killed shortly after he was released from jail. It was her opinion that although he had been friendly and highly regarded by the persons involved in gambling and related activities in the Boston area that they had become tired of him and decided to eliminate him.

She said that even if she knew certain things that BUCCELLI might have done during the time she was associated with him she would not reveal this to anyone. She said, however, that he actually did not discuss any of his business with her. She said on numerous occasions she had driven with him to the airport to pick up individuals, and she had also driven him to various hotels around Boston where he attended a meeting of sorts but that she never knew the identity of the persons whom he was meeting.

She said following his death no one came forward to offer her any financial assistance and that she does not see any of his former associates. She said occasionally some of these people drop in to the Caruso Lounge and she thought SAM GRANITO was the one who had offered to give her a ride home from work one night. She also mentioned the fact that JOHN WILLIAMS lived fairly close by to her present residence and that [redacted].

[redacted] However, she said she had no contact with him. She said she was unable to furnish any information concerning BUCCELLI's alleged association with RAYMOND PATRIARCA and again indicated that if she were in possession of such information she would not furnish it.

The following investigation concerning CARMINE RUGGIERO, also known as MINNY STEW, of Providence, Rhode Island, was conducted inasmuch as previous investigation had indicated that CARMINE RUGGIERO had cashed a mutuel ticket, valued at $19,000, at Lincoln Downs Race Track. This ticket was actually owned by a friend of RUGGIERO's, identity unknown.

On November 13, 1962, [redacted] Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau (TRPB), Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, telephonically contacted the Providence Resident Agency at about 8:15 a.m., November 13, 1962, to advise that during the evening of November 12, 1962, he was contacted by [redacted] at the track and was told that for the past five or six days mutilated $50 and $100 bills were coming through the $50 mutuel window of CARMINE RUGGIERO.

[redacted] stated that he saw these bills and they appeared mutilated and appeared that they had been hidden somewhere as the color of the bills were turning a bluish color and were torn and frayed on various parts of the bill.

[redacted] was contacted by the writer, SA [redacted] at Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, and stated that he had the following background concerning CARMINE RUGGIERO:

RUGGIERO has been employed at Narragansett Race Track since 1941 and is presently in window number 201 located on the first floor of the clubhouse; that he lives at 38 Swiss Street, Providence, Rhode Island; and has Social Security Number 035-01-2476; and that he is also employed at Lincoln Downs Race Track as a seller of tickets and has been employed there, during that racing session, for a number of years. He is also reported to own the Swiss Tap on Swiss Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

[] stated that after seeing the mutilated $50 and $100 bills he contacted RUGGIERO at the race track on the evening of November 12, 1962, inquired about the money and was told that the same person had been to his window for the past five or six days and had given him this money when this person purchased $50 tickets on the horses. RUGGIERO also told him that he would recognize the person again but did not know his name and he did not think it strange that a person would be giving him a sizeable amount of money of this nature.

On November 13, 1962, [] [] Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, advised that for the past five or six days he has been receiving from CARMINE RUGGIERO, seller at the $50 window, a sizeable amount of mutilated $50 and $100 bills. At first the amount of money received by RUGGIERO was small but as each day went by the mutilated money, in $50 and $100 denominations increased to the point that on Monday, November 12, 1962, the amount received by RUGGIERO was over $6,000, mostly in $50 bills with the remainder in $100 bills.

[] said that RUGGIERO has his [] [] and can be located at [] He also said that when this mutilated money first came in, he, [] went to [] at the clubhouse and told him to tell RUGGIERO that he was taking mutilated money and not to do it, but RUGGIERO did not heed this advice and still took in this mutilated money.

[] stated that he has been handling money for a great many years and it was his opinion that this money must have been buried or hidden somewhere as it was torn and changing to a bluish color, especially on the back of the bill. He said that he did not have any of the money in his possession at this time as it was all sent to the payroll department of the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, main office, Providence, Rhode Island, during the evening of November 12, 1962.

[] said that he has not discussed this matter with RUGGIERO.

On November 13, 1962, [] [] Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company, main office, Providence, Rhode Island, made available the deposit of the Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, for November 12, 1962. This deposit was made available through [] and therein that deposit was noted numerous $50 and $100 bills that were mutilated and which had turned bluish in color, especially on the back of the bills. One of the packages contained a deposit notation of $5,000 and the other contained a notation of $5,076.

These packages were taken by [] who made available the services of [] and [] [] in his office who made recordings of the serial numbers appearing on these mutilated $50 and $100 bills.

The serial numbers of these bills were checked through the indices of the Boston Office and the Bureau with negative results.

On November 14 and 15, 1962, [] TRPB, Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, advised that he had maintained contact with [] concerning additional mutilated money coming through CARMINE RUGGIERO, but since Monday, November 12, 1962, no additional mutilated $50 or $100 bills had been taken in by RUGGIERO.

[] said that he had talked to [] [] of the [] both at Lincoln Downs Race Track and Narragansett Race Track and [] told him that he does not like RUGGIERO and that RUGGIERO was involved in a twin double payoff at Lincoln Downs Race Track during the night racing season that amounted to about $19,000. According to [] RUGGIERO had gone behind the windows and cashed a twin double ticket for someone and that RUGGIERO wrote in the name of the person and later admitted that the person who had the ticket did not sign his name on the slip of paper in order to collect the $19,000 that had been won on the twin double. RUGGIERO was brought before [] and [] an official of Lincoln Downs Race Track, and admitted that he had done this and that later RUGGIERO came into the office with a man who then signed the slip of paper showing he was the owner of the twin double ticket.

On November 14, 1962, [] both at Lincoln Downs Race Track and Narragansett Race Track, advised that during the night racing season at Lincoln Downs, Lincoln, Rhode Island, a twin double payoff of approximately $19,000 was made and the payoff in this case was rather unusual and for that reason he conducted an investigation into the matter and determined the following facts:

CARMINE RUGGIERO, a seller at the $50 window at Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, and presently a seller at the $50 window at Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, went into the back of the windows of the twin double cage after the 8th race and told the ticket man that a friend of his had won the twin double and that for income tax purposes he did not want to go to the outside window to collect his money and that CARMINE RUGGIERO told this friend that he would collect it for him, which RUGGIERO did by showing a social security card for some man, name not recalled as the record has been destroyed. RUGGIERO, in obtaining this money, signed the man's name to the required slip which is contrary to the rules of the track.

When this was discovered, RUGGIERO was called into the office about it and furnished the story that when he was leaving his window, after the beginning of the 9th race, he ran into a friend, name not mentioned, who told him that a friend had hit the twin double for $19,000 but did not want to go to the window to collect because he did not want to sign his name for income tax reasons. RUGGIERO volunteered to go into the cage and collect the money for this person, which he admitted he did and also admitted that he had signed this person's name to the slip of paper.

RUGGIERO was told that this was a violation of track rules and that the signature on this piece of paper was not a legal document as the person who had the ticket did not sign it and RUGGIERO agreed to find the man and have him sign the paper in person. RUGGIERO came back later the same day with a person named [redacted] who produced a Rhode Island registration certificate and who signed the paper as the person that had won the twin double for $19,000. When this was done the incident, according to [redacted], was dropped as he does not have the authority to dismiss employees and none of the track officials felt that RUGGIERO should be dismissed or punished for violation of track rules.

On November 14, 1962, [redacted] both at Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, and Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, advised that he recalled the incident of a $19,000 payoff on a twin double at Lincoln Downs Race Track during the latter part of August 1962, which was during the night racing season.

He said that the rules for the payoff of the twin double are set out and one of the requirements for this payoff is that he is to be present after the last race when the payoff or payoffs are made to the individuals that hold winning tickets on this type of twin double. The twin double consists of picking the winning horses for the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th races and the selection of the horses has to be made well in advance of any of these races. On this particular night, there were numerous tickets sold on the twin double, but out of the tickets sold no one had made a selection in the 9th race which means that the twin double for that evening would be paid off on the basis of horses winning in the 6th, 7th and 8th races.

CAR/rk

The procedure for payoff would be to go to the window of the twin double seller, after the running and completion of the 9th race and at that time the holder of winning tickets would be paid off and would be required to sign papers for the Internal Revenue Service. On this night, he went to this window after the running and completion of the 9th race; that he met [redacted] there, the ticket seller at this window, and told [redacted] that he was ready to make the payoffs and that there was only one winner for the twin double. At that time [redacted] told him that the payoff had already been made and continued by explaining that CARMINE RUGGIERO, better known at the track as MINNY STEW, had come into the cage, presented him the winning ticket and a social security card as identification for the man who had won. MINNY STEW told [redacted] that the winner of the twin double was a friend of his; that he had won $19,000 and did not want to collect it at the window as it was too much money to collect in public. Since MINNY STEW was an employee of the track and has been for many years, [redacted] cashed the ticket and gave MINNY STEW the $19,000 and MINNY STEW signed the person's name to the ticket as required by the track.

[redacted] then contacted MINNY STEW about this incident and was told by MINNY STEW that after the running of the 9th race he left his $50 sellers window and was leaving for home when he ran across a friend of his, name not mentioned, who told him that another friend had hit the twin double for $19,000 but did not want to go to the cashiers window to collect because of the large amount of money involved. This friend asked MINNY STEW if he would collect the money, which he agreed to do and which he did by bringing the man's social security card with him and signing the man's name to the required slip of paper. [redacted] stated that he was unable to recall the name that had been signed on this paper by MINNY STEW, but stated that it was not the same name that was signed later on. He explained this by saying he was unable to take any action on this matter at that time as [redacted] the [redacted] and [redacted] and stock holder of the track, were out of town at the time. He told MINNY STEW that this matter would have to be taken up with these individuals.

CAR/rk

Shortly thereafter, [] received a telephone call from [] of Lincoln Downs Race Track, inquiring into the trouble concerning MINNY STEW and [] explained the trouble to []. At that time, [] wanted to know why the matter was not discussed with him in the first instant and [] explained that [] was an attorney and would know the legal ramifications of the problem and that both he, [], and [] were not attorneys and would possibly make the wrong decisions in this matter. He said that [] seemed satisfied with this answer.

Upon the return of [] and [], the matter was brought to their attention and MINNY STEW was called into the office for a conference on the matter at which time MINNY STEW told them that same story he had told [] and again admitted that he had signed the name to the first slip. [] told him that the paper would not be legal as the man holding the winning ticket would have to sign his own name and MINNY STEW agreed to find the man and have him sign a slip of paper. On the same evening, of the conference, MINNY STEW returned with a man who exhibited a Rhode Island driver's license who called himself [], first name not recalled who signed the second slip of paper as being the person who collected the $19,000. When this second paper was signed the first paper that had been signed by MINNY STEW was destroyed.

[] said that the man who signed the paper was about 40 years of age, 5'10" - 6', white, male, and he thought he lived in Cranston, Rhode Island, but was not certain of this. He said that the paper that this person signed has been forwarded to the Internal Revenue Service at Providence, Rhode Island.

On November 14, 1962, [] [] [] at the turf club at Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, [] [] Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, [] stated that he was the person at the twin double

[] during the night racing at Lincoln Downs Race Track when one person won the twin double for approximately $19,000. This incident occurred during the latter part of August 1962.

He said that selections for the twin double are made on picking the winners of the 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th races, and that payoffs are made after the running and completion of the 9th race so that [] can state how many winners are involved in this type of win pool. Payoffs are made after [] comes into the room and when payoffs are made the track rule calls for the person collecting such money show proper identification, i.e., a social security card being considered proper identification.

On this night, the people who participated in this pool did not make any selections on the 9th race and for that reason winners in this pool could be determined after the running and completion of the 8th race.

After the start and while the running of the 9th race was in progress, CARMINE RUGGIERO, better known to [] as MINNY STEW, came into his cage and said that a friend of his had the winning ticket on the twin double; that his friend did not want to wait until the completion and final official results of the race to collect as there was too much money involved and he did not want to be paid off in public. MINNY STEW produced a social security card under the name of [] and at that time [] examined the ticket, saw that it was legitimate and since he knew MINNY STEW as a track employee for a number of years gave him the $19,000 after MINNY STEW agreed to sign the paper, required under track rules. He signed the paper as [], first name he could not recall and then MINNY STEW left the cage with the money.

At the completion of the 9th race, [] came into the cage, said he was ready to make the payoff on the twin double and that only one person was the winner. At that time [] said that he had already made the payoff and explained to [] how he had made the payoff to MINNY STEW. [] became angry over this payoff and quoted the rules of the track and [] stated that he would have to look into the matter, which he did and subsequently [] was called into a meeting with [] and [] of the Mutuel Department, along with [] and MINNY STEW. At this conference, MINNY STEW told them the same story he told [] and then suggested that if he was able to get the man who gave him the ticket to come in and sign a new paper would that meet the track rules. It was agreed that this procedure would meet the track rules and [] later heard that night that MINNY STEW had someone come into the office, produce identification and sign for the $19,000.

CARMINE RUGGIERO, 38 Swiss Street, Providence, Rhode Island, advised he is better known as "MINNY STEW" and that he is presently a part owner in the Swiss Tap, 38 Swiss Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

He said that for the past 27 years he has been employed as a mutuel ticket seller at the fifty dollar windows at both Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, and Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island. Having been there for this period of time he has become acquainted with numerous race track followers and many of them he does not know by name, but knows them by sight.

He said that around the latter part of August 1962 during the night racing season and after the completion of the 8th race he was approached by a person, who he does not know by name, but knew by sight. This person told him that he had the winning ticket, in the amount of $19,000, on the twin double; that he did not want to go to the window to cash same and this person asked him if he would cash it for him and he would give him a percentage of the money.

He agreed to do this and he said that he went to the back room of the window for the payoffs of this twin double, saw the cashier and told him that a friend had won the twin double and that he was collecting the money for this friend. He said that this person had given him a social security card with the name [redacted] on it and when he received the money, he (RUGGIERO) signed the name of [redacted] to the form which is required to be signed for the Internal Revenue Service. b6 b7C

He said he heard nothing further about this incident for several days at which time he was called into the office of Rhode Island [redacted] one of the owners of the track. On this occasion he was asked about cashing the twin double ticket of $19,000 and he told them the same story that he had related above.

He said that he was told that he would have to locate this person and have him sign another form as he could not sign this form for someone else. He said that he looked

He said that this man did this and he has not heard from this matter again. He again stated that he still does not know the identity of this person and has not seen this man around the tracks since that time.

He also stated that while he was at Narragansett Race Track, Pawtucket, Rhode Island, during November 1962, a man came to his fifty dollar window and played some horses; that this man gave him several fifty and one hundred dollar bills during the day's races that were somewhat mutilated and discolored.

He said they appeared odd to him and that he took them to one of the head cashiers, showed him the money and was told that it was good money and that he could accept it through his mutual window. He said that he did this and that this person, on various days, came to his window and played various horses giving him this mutilated fifty and one hundred dollar bills. He said that he would estimate that he took through his window about $15,000 to $20,000 worth of this money. He said he did not know this man and only knew him by sight; that he has never seen this man at his window again and has not seen him in the Rhode Island area.

He admitted knowing RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, HENRY TAMELEO, FRANK FORTE, FRANK "BUTSY" MORELLI and DANA RICCI, stating that he was born and raised with them in the Federal Hill Section of Providence, Rhode Island.

He said that he had seen RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA as recently as the morning of 12/18/62 but did not talk to him because he was busy at his office at 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, dated January 17, 1963, page 36, carried an article captioned, "Berkshire Shows Deficit of $16,110.00."

This article stated that the Berkshire Downs Race Track in Hancock, Massachusetts, operated last year at a loss of $16,110, according to a financial statement filed by a Rhode Island accounting firm.

Glass, Dittleman and Company filed the report with an application of Hancock Raceways, Inc., for 1963 racing dates. The State Racing Commission will hold hearings on the application in Hancock, Massachusetts, Monday (January 21, 1963).

The Raceway has again requested summer dates in June and July; however, for the past three years the track has been given September and October racing dates.

BS T-10 advised on November 28, 1962, that [redacted] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, owned stock at the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Massachusetts. This stock, according to the informant, is stock actually owned by RAYMOND PATRIARCA, and PATRIARCA is endeavoring to obtain this stock from [redacted]. PATRIARCA allegedly sent JOE KRIKORIAN, alias JOE KIRK of Providence, Rhode Island, to [redacted] to obtain the stock, but KIRK was unsuccessful. [redacted] sent word to PATRIARCA that he would not turn the stock over to him until all bills had been paid by the corporation which owns Berkshire Downs Race Track.

BS T-11 advised on December 12, 1962, that Massachusetts Senate President JOHN E. POWERS departed for Washington, D. C., with [redacted] State House, Boston, Massachusetts, to make a speech in Washington, D. C., on parliamentary procedure. On December 14, 1962, POWERS planned to travel to New York City where he intended to meet SAM RIZZO, President of Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Massachusetts. This informant also advised that he was of the opinion that POWERS has a financial interest in this track and that his interest is in the name of RIZZO.

It should be noted that previous information has been obtained reflecting that PATRIARCA, through his associates in Boston, Massachusetts, has contacted POWERS in an attempt to obtain additional racing dates for this race track, and recently a bill was filed by Senator JOHN E. POWERS on behalf of RIZZO of Scarsdale, New York, requesting additional days of racing for 1963, for a total of 66 days.

BS T-12 advised on January 24, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA has a financial interest in a crap game operated in the Massachusetts area, exact location unknown to the informant.

BS T-13 advised on October 12, 1962, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA and GENNARO ANGIULO of Boston, Massachusetts, had rendered financial assistance, exact amount unknown, to the campaign of FRANCIS E. KELLEY, democratic nominee for Attorney General for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. PATRIARCA had also sent word to [redacted] of Worcester, Massachusetts, and also unknown individuals in Springfield, Massachusetts, to render assistance to KELLEY.

On November 7, 1962, BS T-14 advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was vitally interested in the results of the trial of [redacted] of Portland, Maine, and [redacted] of Boston, Massachusetts, and others concerning their participation in an illegal still in Maine. It should be noted that [redacted] and [redacted] subsequently were found guilty in the U. S. District Court in Portland, Maine, and they have appealed their conviction. It was not known to the informant whether PATRIARCA received any remuneration from this still, but the informant was of the opinion that PATRIARCA did receive remuneration; otherwise, he would not have been as interested in the outcome of the trial.

BS T-15 advised on December 27, 1962, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was interested in obtaining the reinstatement of JOSEPH LOMBARDI, Boston racketeer, as a horse trainer in the State of Rhode Island. However, the informant did not know what efforts PATRIARCA was expending to enforce this reinstatement.

BS T-15 also advised on January 8, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is vitally interested in the murder trial of RUDOLPH SCIARRA at Providence, Rhode Island. However, the informant did not know what efforts PATRIARCA expended for the defense of SCIARRA although the informant believed that PATRIARCA did expend some money for the defense of SCIARRA.

On October 31, 1962, BS T-16 advised that [redacted] Brookline, Massachusetts, was acting as a courier for the Boston group who were closely allied with PHILIP BUCCOLO, who is presently residing in Italy. [redacted] allegedly has made three trips to Italy, but the informant did not know how he was operating as a courier for this group. The informant stated that prior to [redacted] being used as a courier, [redacted], BUCCOLO's nephew, was being used in this capacity. The reason for the change from HOGAN to PEARLMAN was to prevent Federal authorities from becoming suspicious of these trips. They felt that an individual who is not of Italian ancestry or related to BUCCOLO would make it more difficult for authorities to become aware of this clandestine operation.

BS T-16 also advised on November 16, 1962, that he had received information that the bookshop which [redacted] operates actually is a front for the headquarters of the Italian lottery and that PEARLMAN's visits to BUCCOLO in Italy relates to this lottery.

BS T-17 advised on October 31, 1962, that he informed RAYMOND PATRIARCA that [redacted] had just returned from Italy where he visited BUCCOLO. According to BS T-17, BUCCOLO is the predecessor of RAYMOND PATRIARCA in New England but he had no further information of value.

BS T-18 advised on December 12, 1962, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was interested in the parole of [redacted] [redacted] alias LARRY BAIONE, and [redacted] from the Massachusetts Correctional Institution, Walpole, Massachusetts, where they are serving time for extortion. The informant stated that PATRIARCA has sent emissaries to [redacted] Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to attempt to assist in this parole.

[redacted] of the Massachusetts Board of Parole, stated that he would go along with the parole of [redacted] and [redacted]; however, they needed the vote of [redacted], a member of the Massachusetts Parole Board. PATRIARCA, through ABE SARKIS, allegedly arranged to have LANE contacted by a friend of SARKIS and he, [] stated he would go along in voting for the parole.

The informant stated that PATRIARCA was also concerned about the letter District Attorney GARRETT BYRNES, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, had written to the Massachusetts Parole Board opposing the parole. The informant advised that PATRIARCA was disturbed at GARRETT BYRNES and considered sending an emissary to [] Suffolk County, Massachusetts, and have him persuade BYRNES to change his vehement opposition to this parole. The informant stated that PATRIARCA had given [] a large amount of money when this extortion case involving [] and [] was originally tried in Suffolk County Court in Boston, Massachusetts.

BS T-19 advised on November 28, 1962, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was somewhat angry in that FRANK FERRARA, former Boston ex-convict who was recently released from the U. S. Penitentiary, Leavenworth, Kansas, had not contacted him as yet. It should be noted that FERRARA was convicted in Federal Court, New Haven, Connecticut, for his participation in receiving stolen Canadian bonds. FERRARA also allegedly has an interest in the Sportsday Weekly, Boston, Massachusetts, which is a wire service in the Boston area. PATRIARCA allegedly sent word through contacts in the Boston underworld to have FERRARA contact him in the near future.

BS T-20 advised on December 11, 1962, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA indicated to him that bookmaking generally is becoming more difficult in the Rhode Island area because of various police activity. The informant advised that PATRIARCA was of the opinion that when Governor elect JOHN CHAFFEE takes office as Governor of the State of Rhode Island things will become more difficult than they are now. The informant stated that PATRIARCA had donated a large amount of money for the campaign of former Governor JOHN NOTTE, and when NOTTE lost by a few hundred votes, PATRIARCA was very disheartened.

[redacted] Lane Distributors, Inc., Warwick, R. I., appeared before PATRIARCA at PATRIARCA's request. [redacted] (LNU) was also present. [redacted] apparently is representing former Governor NOTTE of Rhode Island inasmuch as NOTTE allegedly owes [redacted] the sum of $17,000 which he loaned the former governor during the recent campaign. PATRIARCA told [redacted] to cease writing the governor any more letters demanding the payment of this money, whereupon, [redacted] told PATRIARCA that he was a confidant of the former governor from 1959 until his recent defeat for re-election. [redacted] said that NOTTE has plenty and is not broke as many people think. He pointed out that during the last campaign NOTTE did not turn over any cash donations to the treasurer of the campaign fund and kept it all for himself. HARRY told PATRIARCA that he recalled one night where HARRY carried $27,000 out of a hotel room for NOTTE, and apparently gave it to him later the same evening. He also pointed out that he fixed NOTTE up three times a week with [redacted] at the Old Colony Motel. He said that NOTTE must be a pervert in that the bed never appeared used. On 1/23/63 BS 837-C* advised that UNMAN told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he wants to obtain a "joint" under somebody else's name and use it twice or three times a week (probably for gambling). This individual told PATRIARCA of several investments he has but pointed out that he is having a hard time obtaining the money he has loaned out. PATRIARCA told him to collect as much as he could and take a loss on the rest of the money. This individual, who is in partnership with a [] (LNU) in a welding company in Revere, Mass., told PATRIARCA that he is in with the president of the union, and that they are supposed to get a contract at the Electric Boat Company in Connecticut, whereupon they would pay off apparently to the president of the union 5% off the top of the price.

This same individual also mentioned that the State Police have tipped him that the gambling game which is operating in a house behind the Charter House Motel in Portland, Maine, is being watched by authorities. He asked PATRIARCA if he had anything to do with this game; however, the answer was not heard by the informant.

HENRY TAMELEO discussed with PATRIARCA the SCIARRA-NAZARIAN murder trial and said that it looks good for SCIARRA.

JOE KRIKORIAN, alias JOE KIRK, told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he talked to [] recently convicted in the illicit alcohol trial in Portland, Maine, and told him that he wanted the family of one of the defendants who was convicted with [] taken care of financially while he was in prison. A highly confidential source of the Boston Office who regularly furnishes information concerning the activities of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, leading hoodlum in the New England area, advised that former Governor John Notte of Rhode Island, who was recently defeated for re-election, is not as broke as many of his associates believe but in fact has monies obtained during his recent unsuccessful campaign. As you are aware this source and other informants have indicated that Patriarca and Notte have been closely tied together with regards to political corruption in the State of Rhode Island.

According to the informant, [redacted], a Rhode Island businessman, appeared before Patriarca at Patriarca's office at the Coin - O Matic Distributors, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence. During this conversation it was ascertained that former Governor Notte owes [redacted] approximately $17,000 which [redacted] had loaned to Notte during his recent campaign. Patriarca ordered [redacted] to stop writing the Governor letters demanding the payment of this money and [redacted] in explaining this matter stated Notte was not broke. [redacted] told Patriarca that he had been a confidant of the former Governor from 1959 until the election in November. He stated that during the last campaign Notte did not turn over any of the cash donations obtained to the treasurer of the campaign fund and kept it all for himself. He further told Patriarca that he carried $27,000 out of a hotel room one evening which he subsequently gave to the former Governor. [redacted] told Patriarca that at the present time he knows where every nickel is that Notte has but that he would never divulge this information to police authorities.

[redacted] also advised Patriarca that on numerous occasions he had "fixed Notte up" with a woman at the Old Colony Motel and it was his opinion that Notte must be a pervert in that the bed never appeared used.

Re Boston airtel to Bureau 1-24-63, copy to New Haven.

In connection with information indicating a possible payoff to a union official, (page two, paragraph 2, reairtel), appropriate inquiry should be made during your continuing intelligence investigation of Patriarca to identify the parties involved in such information. As you know, it is a violation for an employer, or anyone acting for him, to make illegal payments to a union official under the Labor - Management Relations Act.

Identification of Unman and the individual named [redacted] (LNU) should lead to identification of the welding company in Revere, Massachusetts, through public records. The union involved would probably be that which represents a majority of workers at the Electric Boat Company in Connecticut. If the unidentified welding company is of considerable size, it is also possible the union involved may be that which has a contract with the welding company.

In any event, further inquiry should seek to determine whether this reported deal of 5% of the contract being paid to a union official could possibly take place and, if so, independent investigation should be instituted to develop a possible violation in accordance with existing instructions.

Keep Bureau advised of your progress in this matter.

Remyairtel 1/31/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 1/31/63 that RAYMOND told Unman, who apparently was being investigated by IRS to claim that his parents who recently died had given him $10,000 prior to the time they passed away. In that way he would be able to claim the $10,000 as inheritance and thus pay a lesser tax on it and not be involved in a criminal violation. He said that the Grand Jury, in his opinion, would not indict him for this type of violation.

RAYMOND discussed the SCIARRA murder trial being held at Providence, Rhode Island, with several individuals throughout the day.

PATRIARCA told another Unman the amount of bail he paid the bondsman in the Connecticut illicit alcohol trial which was held recently. It appeared that the bondsman had overcharged PATRIARCA.

HENRY TAMELEO told RAYMOND that he had spent between $700 and $800 for the defense of SCIARRA and he took an additional $2,000 from PATRIARCA which he was going to deliver to CURRAN, the defense attorney.

On 2/1/63 Unman told RAYMOND that "the kid", not identified, will get in trouble as he is talking too much. He pointed out that "the kid" is stealing liquor from what appears to be a warehouse where he is employed and that he is talking to other employees within the warehouse concerning same. Unman said that they expect to get fifteen or twenty cases a day for the next thirty days out of the warehouse before the owners can ascertain that there is a shortage. Location of the warehouse unknown.

Same Unman told RAYMOND that there is a fellow selling tickets in the Brockton - New Bedford, Mass. area and that he wanted to clear with RAYMOND first to make sure that it is all right. The identity of this individual was not made known but it apparently concerned [redacted]. These tickets were insured by [redacted] who, according to RAYMOND, was [redacted] with JOHNNIE WILLIAMS and JOSEPH LOMBARDI. RAYMOND told him it was all right by him "to make a week's pay."

GERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA told them that [redacted] called him and told him that "some friend of [redacted] wants to see him Tuesday night at 6 p.m. at Patsy's." [redacted] said that [redacted] knows who he is talking about. PATRIARCA issued instructions to ANGIULO to contact [redacted] and informed him of the above.

ANGIULO then discussed [redacted] whom he considers possibly to be an informant of [redacted] of the Boston Police Department. He reiterated that he had planted a story with WIMPY and that it came back through [redacted].

ANGIULO told him that [redacted] recently convicted in the illicit alcohol trial in Portland, Maine, and presently on appeal, has stated that he has made a lot of money for that guy, "CHICHI" (FRANK CUCCHIARA), and that he wants to stay on the street. ANGIULO indicated that he did not like the attitude of [redacted] attempting to "put the heat" on CUCCHIARA. He explained to [redacted] that he was beyond any help as far as confinement was concerned if the appeal was not successful. ANGIULO stated that [redacted] (ph) is afraid CUCCHIARA will die and will stop the whole deal. The significance of this was not known by the informant.

ANGIULO stated that TOMMY RYAN and the Jew (possibly [redacted]) are opening a new office in his building above Jay's Lounge, Tremont Street, Boston. ANGIULO said that he is taking the paper back and will build it up to a large amount by taking 2% a month.

PETER LIMONE told RAYMOND that he went to Worcester with TEDDY FUCCILLO and looked over the arson job, location unknown. It consisted of a building of four floors and the only floors they are to burn out are the middle two. It had a sprinkler system and PETER was of the opinion they could burn out the two floors by bringing in a compressor so that they would keep the sprinkler system cold until the fire got "going good." In this way they believe that the fire would be more or less contained in the middle two floors providing the sprinkler system was cooled sufficiently by the compressor.

ANGIULO stated that there is a bill in the State Legislature regarding the Boston Police Department which would make it mandatory that the Commissionership be dissolved and that a police chief from within the ranks be appointed. ANGIULO attempted to contact an unknown lobbyist but as yet has been unsuccessful. He stated that when he does contact him he will "back the bill" financially and attempt to have it pass the Legislature because of his dislike for Commissioner EDMUND L. McNAMARA.

He also advised that he has issued instructions to his brothers to "keep on the move." He said that the only problems he has now are two, namely, the two brothers who work in the office. The other brothers are being surveilled constantly and that if they can keep the Agents busy on all seven brothers they will not have sufficient manpower to concentrate on any one or two of the brothers. He told the brothers to move about the city constantly and not remain in any one place, even at home, for over one hour so that they will use up the IRS Agents' time. He pointed out that he might be able to get rid of one of these problems by putting ~~the name of~~ one individual, whose name he did not disclose but whom he considered honest, into one of the office spots which one brother now holds. That would then leave him with one brother to be worried about.

He also advised that during the last thirty days he has dissolved three corporations through a "kid in the State House." He intends to dissolve within the next thirty to forty-five days a number of his other corporations in which he has an interest. If he is successful in this, he will thereby hinder the IRS investigation.

He then discussed the Indian Meadow Golf Club with RAYMOND. He has intentions of using Judge KILE (ph) of Syracuse, New York, and [redacted] as his front men in this venture.

On 2/2/63 RAYMOND talked to Urman concerning $800. owed by another individual but the informant was unable to ascertain any further information concerning this matter.

On page 4 of re airtel it is set out that Jerry Angiulo told Patriarca that he intended using Judge Kile (ph) of Syracuse, New York, and [redacted] as his front men in the Indian Meadow Golf Club near Worcester, Massachusetts. Considerable information has been received previously establishing that this golf club is an enterprise in which Angiulo is interested and in which Patriarca may also have an interest.

If your office has not already done so, you should request the Albany Office to endeavor to identify Judge Kile (ph) and develop his association with Angiulo, Patriarca and others in the hoodlum element.

ARRe Boston letter dated December 19, 1962, and Bulet dated December 31, 1962. 92-2961-523

The following additional information is being submitted for the Bureau's consideration in re-evaluating the authorization of a MISUR survey of the offices of [] and FRIEDMAN, Providence, Rhode Island.

As was previously pointed out, Attorney SAUL FRIEDMAN, Providence, Rhode Island, is the attorney for RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA. FRIEDMAN's associate, [] also handles most of the important criminal matters for the associates of PATRIARCA and is often recommended by PATRIARCA to his associates. Am. Ind. Bank Prob.

From information developed through BS 837-C* it appears that there is not only an attorney-client relationship between [] and PATRIARCA but also it appears that [] is the person who handles all of PATRIARCA's investments which are numerous.

BS 837-C* pointed out that there have been several conferences held in the office of attorney [] concerning the Hancock Raceway at Berkshire Downs in Hancock, Massachusetts. This is a race track in which PATRIARCA has a considerable amount of money invested and PATRIARCA's name does not appear in any of the records of this track, although [] of the track and also has a large amount of stock in same. It appears thus that [] is fronting for PATRIARCA in this enterprise.

BS 837-C* has also advised that on several occasions when individuals have contacted PATRIARCA in an effort to have him invest some money in enterprises, he refers them to SAUL FRIEDMAN and on numerous occasions has made appointments to be present in FRIEDMAN's office when this individual discusses the business in which he desires PATRIARCA to invest money.

Because of the above, it appears that FRIEDMAN may very well handle most of PATRIARCA's financial problems and it is felt that if a MISUR could be installed in his office, it would be possible to accurately determine to what extent FRIEDMAN is handling PATRIARCA's finances. b6 b7C

Bureau authority is again being requested to conduct a MISUR survey of the offices of [] and FRIEDMAN, Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, Rhode Island, in an attempt to develop a highly confidential source so that the Bureau can further expand its knowledge in the Criminal Intelligence Program and to carry out the Bureau's responsibilities in this field.

A thorough review of the facts as set forth by your office concerning relationship between Patriarca and Saul Friedman is basically that of a client and attorney in that Friedman acts as the advisor for Patriarca and at this time it does not appear that Friedman is acting as a criminal associate of Patriarca.

Your request to conduct a misur survey of the offices of Curran and Friedman at Providence, Rhode Island, is not being approved by the Bureau.

Re: Boston airtel 2/7/63.

On 2/7/63, BS 837-C* advised that GERRY ANGIULO, PETER LIMONE and an unidentified individual contacted PATRIARCA at his place of business. GERRY discusses the purchase of some "joint" for $10,000 but the facts concerning same were not known to the informant.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he was in New York Wednesday and figures of 617 and other figures were mentioned. Money was counted, but the informant was unable to determine the details surrounding same. The name of CHI CHI (FRANK CUCCHIARA) was mentioned in connection with this conversation.

ANGIULO then discussed the TV commercial "jingle" business with PATRIARCA and explained that salesmen, when they sell a contract for $400.00, obtain $200.00 down payment and $200.00 when the jingle is finished. For this, they receive $100.00.

ANGIULO then told PATRIARCA that he told "the Jew", identity not further known, to sell Indian Meadow Country Club for $600,000. He said that [redacted] was interested as well as [redacted] (LNU).

ANGIULO stated that he now has [] (PH) working for him as an attorney, and they are thinking of taking him "under their wing".

He also stated that [] (PH) was put on the payroll for $100.00 a week; GERRY intends to change his habits, and work him in to the organization.

On 2/8/63, JOHNNY (LNU) and JOE DE CARLO and two other unmen appeared before RAYMOND upon request. PATRIARCA told JOHNNY in no uncertain terms that he was to leave DE CARLO alone and not cause him a beating as he, PATRIARCA, heard DE CARLO was in line for.

It appeared DE CARLO worked in a wholesale liquor company, location unknown, and he arranged for the periodic theft of several cases of liquor for [] and [] DE CARLO apparently got friendly with [] (PH), and tipped her off as to what was occurring. JOHNNY tried to explain to RAYMOND that [], who was involved in this theft, was a "rat".

JOE was told to quit this job by [] on a Friday night as it appeared that there would be a warrant issued for the arrest of JOE for the theft of this liquor. JOE did quit the following Monday morning, thus avoiding the criminal complaint and warrant.

During the discussion, there was mention of unions, but the informant was unable to ascertain the significance of same. Towards the end of the conversation, PATRIARCA said that word had come to him from HOFFA in New York that [] of Local 25, Teamsters Union) did not get along with PATRIARCA, and HOFFA wanted to know what PATRIARCA had against [].

PATRIARCA said that the word came to him through JOE LOMBARDO and JOHNNY WILLIAMS. Informant did not know what PATRIARCA answered, but it appeared to informant that PATRIARCA did not have anything against [].

During this conversation, HENRY TAMELEO came in and told PATRIARCA that he talked with Attorney [redacted] concerning the [redacted] case. They do not know whether [redacted] will be tried for the murder of NAZARIAN in Providence, Rhode Island.

At this point, TAMELEO left. GERRY then said that he was going to Fort Lauderdale, Florida and then probably to California in relation to the jingles business. He pointed out that the salesmen are signing their contract with [redacted] (PH) and GERRY ANGIULO." He was a little concerned that they put his name on the contract, as he is afraid of an inquiry by the U. S. officials.

GERRY then stated that he liked TOMMY's methods, probably referring to TOMMY RYAN of New York. He said that [redacted] was supposed to be like that, but he did not like the way [redacted] did some things.

Unman then said that TOMMY was acting boss as VITO (probably GENOVESE) put in the representation for him. When VITO went to the case, they got together and TOMMY was voted boss. They then discussed the VITO GENOVESE family in New York and activities of FRANKIE COSTELLO in this family. GERRY said that it was better to have a good small family than the one down there in New York City. They mentioned the Boston family from the time PHIL BUCCOLO became the power in 1932. They mentioned several incidents which occurred from that time to the present. A verbatim copy of this portion is being prepared and will be forwarded to the Bureau and New York under case entitled, "THE CRIMINAL COMMISSION, ET AL".

PATRIARCA advised that he is having his headaches with the Hancock, Massachusetts Race Track in Hancock, and that he hopes to get ten per cent on his investment of $50,000.00.

There was mention of TOMMY's end, and this might possibly refer to TOMMY RYAN of New York.

PATRIARCA said that they have to come up with $285,000 in show money. During the conversation, he said that he had to give the Judge $20,000 to lift the restrictions so that the track

BS 837-C* advised on 2/12/63 that [] told RAYMOND they haven't been doing too well but finally made a little score in Boston, details of which were not explained.

[] also told RAYMOND that [], interceded for an unknown bookmaker and called JOHNNY WILLIAMS direct. It appeared that [] went into the bookmaker's establishment to shake him down and the bookmaker complained to [] who in turn contacted WILLIAMS. It was not clear to the informant whether WILLIAMS straightened this matter out.

Informant also advised that [], who is a shylock and [], location unknown to the informant, had a "bust out" game on []. He said that JOHNNY WILLIAMS knew about this game and [] sent in a man to be taken in the game.

Another individual handed RAYMOND PATRIARCA a list and said "here's the list that [] sent!" There followed some discussion, part of which was inaudible but it appeared it was a list of individuals who would donate $25.00 a month and run this fund up to $25,000. RAYMOND said there were 17 or 18 guys in Providence who would do this too. The reason for the fund was unknown to informant.

Another Unman discussed with RAYMOND, an ALBERT DeCARREA (ph.). [redacted] brought some kid to Unman and was taken for some money. Significance of this was unknown to informant.

On 2/13/63 the informant advised that RAYMOND, in a discussion with Unman concerning bets placed on various horses and numbers by Unman. The numbers were given to [redacted] Providence, R. I.

TED FUCCILLO said he tried to get in touch with [redacted] last week but he, [redacted] was in Florida. [redacted] is appearing before the Parole Board this week. There was counting of money during this conversation. FUCCILLO stated that [redacted], Somerville, Mass., received a note from FRANKIE PERRERA, of Miami, Florida, and that FRANKIE promised to send $100 per week to repay the loan.

JERRY ANGIULO advised that SAM CUFARI, Springfield, Mass., wants to see him on a matter unknown to JERRY. He will see him sometime next week when he returns from New York. He said that TOMMY RYAN sent a message that everything was OK, "don't worry about it." ANGIULO mentioned two guys who went to JOE BURNS (true name JOSEPH CONSELMO), Chelsea, Mass., and said they were connected. JERRY said he tried to find out from RYAN and RYAN sent this message: "As far as JIGGS, JOE and [redacted], do anything you want. As far as the other guy, forget him completely." JERRY said he was going down to see RYAN to get an explanation of this. At this point PATRIARCA mentioned JOE BANANA, in Tucson, Arizona, but the significance was not understood by the informant. JERRY said that if TOMMY has the time he would be there, same place, same time.

JERRY then mentioned that [redacted], recently convicted in the [redacted] trial, Portland, Maine, and presently out on appeal, is complaining about FRANK CUCCHIARA because FRANK is not doing anything to help him on his appeal. [redacted] told the ANGIULOs that CUCCHIARA has a side deal which apparently is unknown to either ANGIULO or PATRIARCA. ANGIULO told PATRIARCA he was just telling him this, for his own information.

JERRY also mentioned that the dice they are now using at the crap game are much better, in that they last several hours longer than the dice they had been using. No further information was obtained by the informant relative to this game.

JERRY said that two kids out of New York approached him for the purchase of a package of jewels, but the price was too high. JERRY later found out that the kids had approached [redacted] (true name [redacted]) with the jewels prior to contacting ANGIULO.

JERRY advised that [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] called about two weeks ago to arrange a meeting with RAYMOND; however, he has not heard from them since.

JERRY said that the kid [redacted] (ph.) said that [redacted], former Charlestown, Mass. bookmaker, was in an argument in Pilseners Cafe with two guys from New York. During the argument one of them said to [redacted]: "If you don't give us all the money we'll blow your brains out." Since then [redacted] has not been seen around Charlestown.

JERRY advised that a kid from Milford, Mass., was in and has not yet split up the take, although he has given JERRY $1,100 in layoff money. JERRY told him that they better whack the profits up when he returns from New York next Monday or Tuesday. He then stated that 25% of it goes to RAYMOND, 25% to [redacted] and "25 and 25" but did not explain the last 50%.

JERRY said that [redacted] came in Saturday night. JERRY suspected him of being a stoolie for the Post Office authorities as he complained that [redacted] and [redacted] (lmu) who worked for [redacted] (true name [redacted]) of Revere, Mass., had grabbed [redacted] and told him the Feds were working on him, [redacted]. Two days later the Post Office authorities did grab him and questioned him concerning MAILROB. RAYMOND told JERRY to find out from [redacted] what the reason is, for the above episode.

HENRY TAMELEO entered RAYMOND'S place of business and he, JERRY and RAYMOND discuss [redacted], the individual who loaned $5,000 at 4% a week to an owner of a bar in Hopkinton, Massachusetts. [] later took over this bar when the individual was not able to pay off the loan, and gave a percentage to [] of Boston, Massachusetts.

RAYMOND and JERRY then discuss an individual who apparently was arrested in possession of two revolvers and shotgun shells. The search, according to JERRY, was not legal as it did not stipulate the articles expected to be located at the time the search was conducted, nor the exact apartment number of the house where the search was conducted.

On 2/13/63 a teletype was forwarded to the New York Office reflecting that ANGIULO contemplated visiting TOMMY RYAN in New York. A surveillance was instituted the morning of 2/14/63. ANGIULO was placed on the 2 PM shuttle, Eastern Air Lines plane to New York, arriving at LaGuardia airport at 3:10 PM. Agent WILLIAM T. BOLAND accompanied ANGIULO and person believed to be PETER LIMONE to New York. New York advised to pick up surveillance in New York.

The following investigation was conducted to identify Judge KILE (phonetic) of Syracuse, New York, one of two alleged front men intended to be used in connection with the Indian Meadow Golf Club near Worcester, Massachusetts.

The New York Telephone Company Directory for the Greater Syracuse Area does not contain any listings for the spelling KILE. It was noted that there were ten individuals named KIEHL, two individuals named KILLE and five individuals named KYLE. None of these individuals were listed under the title Judge nor were any listed in the attorney section in the yellow pages.

A review of the Syracuse City Directory for 1962 likewise disclosed no one by the name of KILE and there were numerous individuals with the names KIEHL, KILLE and KYLE. It was noted that one individual bore the title Judge ARTHUR KYLE, 753 James Street, Apartment 201. There was no private phone listing for this individual in the Syracuse telephone book. There was no employment designation in the City Directory. It is noted that 753 James Street is the address of the Skyline Apartments, an exclusive resident apartment house at Syracuse, New York.

Clerk [redacted] Credit Bureau of Greater Syracuse, Inc., provided the file on ARTHUR C. KYLE, JR., who has been on file since September 14, 1949. On August 1, 1962, credit report indicated he is married, age 52, wife named [redacted] with [redacted] and has been a life-long resident of Monticello, New York. (It is noted that Monticello, New York is approximately 175 miles east of Syracuse, New York and located within the New York field division).

Report further disclosed he was a Dartmouth College graduate in 1932 and was in the newspaper field until 1948 at which date he was the publisher of the "Sullivan County News." In 1948 he became the manager of radio station WNDR at Syracuse, New York and as of August 1, 1962, was the General Manager and Vice President of the corporation owning the station. It was noted that the station had consistently lost money over the years and its current status was unknown in banking circles, although it was not believed to be operating at a profit.

KYLE was noted as having had personal financial difficulties in the past and it was alleged that he had paid off some of the indebtedness of his father, a former prominent attorney at Monticello, New York who met financial reverses during the depression. His father is believed deceased.

Report indicated there were no records of mortgages, loans or bank accounts at Syracuse, New York. Public records indicated 14 judgments filed against KYLE between September, 1949 and June, 1959. Twelve of these 14 judgments were still open and unsatisfied as of the August 1, 1962 report. The amounts of the open judgments ranged from $109.99 to $12,452.75. The report also indicated that releases of tax liens were filed on the following dates in favor of the United States Government:

February 15, 1962, dated May, 1950, $88.03
February 15, 1960, dated January 27, 1960, $770.19
February 15, 1960, dated March 7, 1960, $2,327.98

There was one collection as of January 21, 1955 in the amount of $11.05. There was one record of a charge-off to profit and loss by a department store account on April 13, 1954 in the amount of $45.04.

AL 92-205

A November 16, 1961 credit report indicated the current address of KYLE as 27 Hammond Street, Monticello, New York, a former resident of 2 Hammond Street, Monticello, New York. This report indicated that station WNDR was operated by the Syracuse Broadcasting Corporation, the employer of KYLE.

A January 3, 1951 credit report indicated that KYLE continued to be a resident of Monticello, New York and spent three to four days per week at his employment at Syracuse, New York. His address at Monticello, New York as of that time was Bushnell Avenue. The report indicated it was understood at the Syracuse Credit Bureau that KYLE had 27 judgments against him in Sullivan County where Monticello, New York is located. The credit bureau card records indicated an additional previous address on an unspecified date at Monticello, New York of 203 Broadway.

It is noted that the current 1962 Syracuse City Directory discloses that ARTHUR C. KYLE, JR., as General Manager of Radio Station WNDR.

Since [redacted] mentioned in referenced airtel, is not identified with the Albany Division area and no leads were set forth to identify him, the Albany Division is conducting no investigation pertaining to this individual unless advised to the contrary by Boston since it would appear that this person's identity was known to the office of origin.

No contact is being made with "Judge" ARTHUR C. KYLE, JR. and any further investigation is being left to the discretion of the office of origin.

Re: Bureau airtel dated January 31, 1963, in the case entitled,
"RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka; AR."

As per Bureau instructions in referenced airtel, an FAG case has been opened and preliminary inquiry made at Small Business Administration (SBA), Boston. This disclosed that Indian Meadow Country Club, Inc. applied for SBA loan of $200,000. by application dated August 31, 1961, with the loan being approved by SBA and disbursed by Mechanics National Bank, Worcester, Massachusetts, on January 10, 1962. SBA then purchased 75 per cent or $150,000. of the $200,000. loan. The loan is for ten years with payments quarterly and is fully secured by first mortgage on the golf course and the buildings, and the loan is being serviced by the Mechanics National Bank. Payments are current on the loan and SBA feels loan adequately secured.

In loan application Indian Meadow Country Club, Inc. shows value of fixed assets as follows:

Land	$283,991.24
Buildings	154,800.00
Machinery & Equipment	21,538.00
Auto and Trucks	1,200.00
Total Fixed Assets	$461,529.24

ORIGINAL FILED IN 92-47415-1

BS 46-3729

Under loan agreement between Indian Meadow Country Club, Inc. and Mechanics National Bank, the corporation has the obligation of furnishing financial and operating statements for each twelve-month period beginning August 31, 1962.

No indication from SBA file that ANQUILLO or PATRIARCA has any connection or interest with the country club.

Bureau refer to Pages 24-26, report SA [redacted] at Boston, dated July 30, 1962, in PATRIARCA case, for additional background information regarding loan and principals of corporation.

SBA files indicate that the corporation's records are maintained by [redacted], a Worcester, Massachusetts accountant, and that he submitted a balance sheet and operating statement on June 30, 1962, showing a net profit on the restaurant operation at the club of $3,921.28 and a net profit from golf course activities of $4,278.78, making a total profit from the beginning of operations in 1961 until June 30, 1962, of $8,200.06.

However, BS 837 C* indicates that the country club was not doing well at all and was referred to as a "monster" and it actually was losing money. Also, that the Mechanics National Bank did not have the true picture of operations at the club.

Based on the above, there are potential false statement violations to SBA on the part of the [redacted] and the [redacted] both with respect to the value of the fixed assets, which are security for the loan as set forth in the original loan application of August 31, 1962, and also as to profit figures in the operating statement submitted on June 30, 1962. There also is the possibility of tying ANQUILLO into this case as a conspirator in connection with statements submitted by the club after the loan was disbursed in January, 1962 as there is every indication that ANQUILLO has knowledge of this.

This case was discussed with U. S. Attorney W. ARTHUR GARRITY, Jr. and Assistant U. S. Attorney [redacted] Boston, on February 13, 1963. They were advised it had been learned from various sources that racket money, namely, that of ANQUILLO, may possibly be behind the Indian Meadow Country Club and the possibility exists that there are false statements to SBA, both on the original loan application and on subsequent operating statements.

U. S. Attorney GARRITY indicated that he would consider prosecution in the event that such false statement violations could be established and he noted that this case presents a good opportunity for an investigation into the financial affairs of ANGUILO. U. S. Attorney GARRITY asked, however, that open investigation at the Mechanic National Bank in Worcester, as well as interviews of the principals and the club's [redacted] be held in abeyance as he wanted to discuss the matter with [redacted] of the Organized Crime Section of the Department in light of the impending net worth investigation by IRS on the ANGUILLOs. b6 b7C

Close contact will be maintained with U. S. Attorney GARRITY and a report reflecting investigation to date will be submitted forthwith.

Newspaper articles this date reflect that Massachusetts Attorney General EDWARD W. BROOKE has commenced investigation of the Massachusetts State Racing Commission. This investigation is in addition to that conducted by Massachusetts Governor ENDICOTT PEABODY's office and also by a special House committee. These investigations concern the inquiry into additional racing dates by "phantom" fairs, in particular, the 12 racing days awarded in this fashion to the Hancock Raceway, Hancock, Massachusetts.

As you will recall, BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA has a considerable financial interest in the Hancock Raceway. This interest is held by [redacted] of Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, R. I., and SAUL FRIEDMAN, PATRIARCA's [redacted] according to BS 837-C*. This informant also advised that according to a associate of PATRIARCA, Senate Leader JOHN E. POWERS, Massachusetts State Senate, brought [redacted] of the Hancock Raceway, to Governor VOLPE (former Governor of Massachusetts) to lay the foundation for obtaining additional racing dates for this race track.

On October 5, 1962, Agents of the Boston Office surveilled RAYMOND PATRIARCA in a car bearing Rhode Island registration SF which was issued to SAUL FRIEDMAN, his attorney, to the Eddy Darling Highway at which time the surveillance was dropped at 1:34 p.m. This car was driven by a person believed to be SAUL FRIEDMAN. At 2:30 p.m., the same car was picked up by Worcester, Massachusetts, Agents and was surveilled to the Edgebrook Motel, Lenox, Massachusetts, where the occupants of the above car entered the motel. It should be noted that SAM RIZZO was a guest of the motel at that time.

Another informant advised that on 12/12/62 Senate Leader JOHN E. POWERS, accompanied by [redacted] of the Capitol Building, Boston, Massachusetts, went to Washington, D. C., where POWERS made a speech on Parliamentary Procedure. On 12/14/62 POWERS intended to return via New York City where he was to contact SAM RIZZO. The informant did not know the reason for this contact.

In view of the above, it is recommended that I furnish to Attorney General BROOKE the following information: that information has been received that RAYMOND PATRIARCA has a substantial interest in the Hancock Raceway, Hancock, Massachusetts; that the stock owned by [redacted] and SAUL FRIEDMAN may actually be owned by PATRIARCA; and that PATRIARCA, accompanied by a person believed to be SAUL FRIEDMAN, traveled in FRIEDMAN's car from Providence, R. I., to the Edgebrook Motel in Lenox, Massachusetts, on 10/5/62, at which motel RIZZO was registered as a guest. Information was also received that Senate Leader JOHN E. POWERS intended to contact SAM RIZZO in New York City on or about 12/12/62; however, the informant did not know whether this meet ever took place or the reason therefor.

This information will be furnished to Attorney General BROOKE UACB 2/21/63.

From information furnished in referenced airtel, it would appear that Patriarca and his associates have a concealed interest in the Dunes Hotel at Las Vegas. It is noted report captioned, "Dunes Hotel" 10/12/62 at Las Vegas, a copy which was furnished to Boston Office, mention is made that one [redacted] who was originally from the Providence, Rhode Island, area, had a 9% interest in the Dunes Hotel. Boston should attempt to ascertain who [redacted] (LNU) mentioned in referenced airtel might possibly be and further attempt to ascertain any information which would indicate that Patriarca has an interest in the Dunes Hotel with [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] as mentioned in referenced airtel.

Boston should as previously instructed furnish the Bureau the possible identity of individuals meeting with Patriarca in order that the intelligence information gathered from Boston can be properly evaluated in conjunction with information already received from your office and other Divisions.

Advise by return mail whether or not the above-mentioned [redacted] is possibly identical with [redacted] leading Boston hoodlum.

On February 19, 1963, BS 837-C advised that RAYMOND had a conversation with two unknown men concerning bookmaking action; however, the informant was unable to ascertain full details concerning same.

[redacted] (LNU) told RAYMOND that [redacted] (ph) took them to court last week, reason not stated. He said that the court stenographer advised him that he ought to either attempt to settle the case or get a postponement as the "Jewish Judge" would decide against [redacted]. He settled for [redacted], [redacted] of which he gave to the person who was also Jewish, who was suing him and [redacted] to be distributed to charities. to line up the top players around New York and the last time he set up the trip they made one-half million dollars playing. It appeared that [] is setting up the trip for gambling interests in Nevada and they were the ones who made the half million dollars. [] got [] and [] was getting a check, but has not as yet received one. He said that he has got [] coming and [] is got [] but did not indicate the purpose for these funds.

[] complained that he was not taking his expenses off, such as telephone calls, trips, etc., to which [] stated that he should take this money off the top.

[] also stated they have [] in the Dunes Hotel, and it appeared that PATRIARCA might have an interest in these [], in addition to [] LNU and []. According to [] the Dunes is the most successful hotel out there and they bought the [] when this new deal started".

[] said that he is positive they will give us [] to settle and probably a larger amount when they make the deal with the owner of the hotel now. The significance of this was not known to the informant, but [] went on to explain that "it there at no interest. He mentioned that there should be 5% on [], which would be [] interest per year and 5% on the unpaid balance. He said that it would take him five years to pay it off. He said "this money comes to pretty good, except one thing, that's how JIMMY BLUE EYES (true name JAMES ALO of New York), stepped in". He continued by saying "we got [] from everybody when JIMMY BLUE EYES stepped in for that guy". Then he said to RAYMOND "remember that story, remember [] (ph)". It appeared that ALO stepped in to settle a dispute about $50,000., which according to ALO "had to come off the interest". Significance not known by the informant.

[] then said that they had a bonafide offer for the sale of the land in Vegas, which had nothing to do with the Dunes. [] wanted his money, apparently from his investment in the Dunes, for his "big outfit in Boston".

There was mention of [] and he was asked by the individuals in Las Vegas whether or not he knew [] to which he replied that he knew of him.

[] indicated that he has got approximately [] in the Dunes, of which he pays 2% a month. He said he is financially able to borrow this money from a bank at standard rates and wants to dispose of the loan.

He made mention that yesterday he heard that the two brothers might go to the can, but did not identify same. He was going to New York and suggested that RAYMOND and he go to New York, to which RAYMOND agreed, but no time was specified. RAYMOND said that he would go to New York with [] and sit down at a table and settle the thing.

There was mention of a [] (ph) and that [] (ph) owns [] of the stock. He said that the land consists of 40 acres and is worth about $32,000.

At this point he mentioned that he, [] of RAYMOND in this venture. RAY said that "when we want to get moving, we'll move". It appeared that the [] were not in the names of the individuals who actually owned them as [] said that [] (ph) "can't say no for our []", referring to the sale of the []. [] again mentioned that when he gets ready he'll move and get the money that is coming to them. They mentioned that they couldn't sell the 40 acres because the 40 acres have been transferred to "his" name, identity of this individual not known.

[] also then mentioned the numbers business and stated that [] owes $3,100. in lay-offs; [] owes $3,000.; [] who recently went to Florida, owes money, amount not specified, and [] has $7,000. to make up. Referring to [] [] stated that he used to lay-off to them before, but now in order to get out of the hole he is keeping the lay-off money, in order to attempt to get in the hack again.

[] said that it takes him $7,000., time not specified, to run the office and $7,000. additional which comes off the top, of which "$3,500. is charged to us". RAYMOND told him to cut down on everything and stop all the deals. There was also mention of [] being mixed up in this business, but exact details not known by the informant.

There was mention of [] and RAYMOND going to Las Vegas, to which RAYMOND agreed, but no time was specified. They were going to stop at St. Louis to pick up somebody that RAYMOND knew, but did not mention. There was no further conversation relative to this phase.

Two other UNMEN entered, one of whom was named []. They talked about the vending machine business with RAYMOND and it appeared that were attempting to ease another individual out of business in a particular locale, probably in the Worcester area, as the town of Milford was mentioned as being one spot they moved in on.

[] explained to RAYMOND his actions in obtaining new spots for the vending machines, after which RAYMOND told [] that it was all right to keep up what he was doing in obtaining the new spots.

HENRY TAMELEO told RAYMOND that he received a call from [] and was told to call back a Stadium number. Not knowing who [] was, he called the number and [] put [], noted Boston [] ON THE TELEPHONE. [] told TAMELEO that he had to see him immediately in order to relay a message to his friend, apparently referring to RAYMOND PATRIARCA. [] said that the meet was most important and TAMELEO was to meet him at 3:15 P.M. at the Blue Hills Country Club, Milton, Mass., where [] allegedly has a [] on the same day. RAYMOND said it must be very important and instructed TAMELEO to see [].

On February 20, 1963, UNMAN asked RAYMOND for a loan of $2,300. to save his business, which apparently is a restaurant in which he has already invested $20,000. RAYMOND told him he would talk to somebody about the loan.

Another two UNMEN discuss with RAYMOND the setting up of a dice game in which they would be able to run seven days a week, including Sunday afternoon, for a period of four ~~more~~ hours a day. They expected to obtain crap players from Framingham, Milford, Worcester, Fall River and New Bedford. At the present time they operate a game, but because of the fact they have to move every night the game is not too profitable; however, they have obtained a site which is adjacent to a restaurant, where they figure they can run seven days a week without being entered by law enforcement officials.

During this conversation PATRIARCA did not make any comments, but there was an appointment set up between the two individuals for one o'clock that afternoon.

For the information of the Miami Office, BS 837-C* advised that Patriarca in discussing politics and future candidates for office in Rhode Island indicated that one Gallogly would be the best candidate for Governor and that Tommy (LNU) would be a good Lt. Governor. Gallogly was subsequently identified as Edward P. Gallogly currently Lt. Governor for the State of Rhode Island.

It was noted in this conversation concerning future candidates Patriarca indicated that Tommy (LNU) had been wine and dined by Pasquale Erra, Miami top hoodlum, on behalf of Patriarca when Tommy (LNU) visited in Florida. Boston has indicated that the Tommy (LNU) could possibly be D. Thomas Testa, former Chairman of the Commission on Horse Racing and Athletics for the State of Rhode Island or Thomas R. DiLuglio, a State Senator in Rhode Island.

Miami should discreetly ascertain the identity of any politician from Rhode Island who has been entertained during the past year by Erra who might possibly be identical with Tommy (LNU) mentioned above.

GALLOGLY mentioned in referenced airtel is EDWARD P. GALLOGLY present Lieutenant Governor for the State of Rhode Island. EDWARD P. GALLOGLY was born in Providence, R.I. 9/28/19, educated at Providence College, Providence, R.I. (AB December, 1942) and Boston University Law School, LLB, (1949). He served in U.S. Navy, 1943-1946 as Lieutenant. Served as law clerk to Honorable ROBERT E. QUINN, Chief Judge, U. S. Court of Military Appeals. Served in R.I. Senate from fifth senatorial district, Providence, R.I., 1958-1961, when elected Lieutenant Governor of State of Rhode Island as a Democrat.

It is noted that JOHN A. NOTTE, Jr., former Governor for the State of Rhode Island, a Democrat, was defeated by JOHN H. CHAFEE, Republican candidate for Governor in November, 1962, and that CHAFEE is only Republican in state office.

Since NOTTE's defeat several names have been mentioned as the possible successor to NOTTE to lead Democrats in elections two years hence and Lt. Governor GALLOGLY prominently mentioned among political circles to succeed NOTTE to win Democratic endorsement to run for Governor two years hence.

Rebosaairtel dated 2/28/63.

On 2/28/63 BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND told an unknown individual that [redacted] took the 5th Amendment upon being questioned by USA RAYMOND PETTINE at Providence, R. I. before the Federal Grand Jury. RAYMOND says that he could be indicted himself for tax evasion relative to the Sherwood Manufacturing Company case in that he used the Cadillac for 3 years at which time it was registered in the name of Sherwood Manufacturing Company.

Another individual told RAYMOND that he would attempt to assist him in obtaining his Massachusetts Driver's License. Unman said that JERRY ANGIULO has 3 joints, the 63 Club, The Kenmore and one in Worcester.

On 3/1/63 informant advised that LOUIS TAGLIANETTI told RAYMOND that upon being indicted for an IRS violation he refused to be fingerprinted but subsequently was fingerprinted by U. S. Marshals on condition that if the Judge rules later that fingerprints were not necessary he would have the prints returned to him.

RAYMOND told TAGLIANETTI that the Judge to whom the case is assigned is Republican and he therefore would not have to worry too much about him. He reiterated the questions asked of [redacted] by USA PETTINE in the FGJ. TAGLIANETTI told RAYMOND that his defense is that he was living on money that he borrowed. RAYMOND suggested an attorney named [redacted] who he, RAYMOND used in the Sherwood Manufacturing Company case.

Another Unman and RAYMOND discussed a list of individuals in Providence and in Boston who would donate $5.00 a week for a fund. According to RAYMOND if all the individuals gave to this fund and JERRY puts the money to work they would have $25,000.00 in approximately two years.

HENRY TAMALEO is in charge of this fund and it is to be used in the event any member becomes sick or gets into any trouble whatsoever that he needs financial assistance. The names of the members were not mentioned.

RAYMOND told another Unman that the figures that he is O. K. in the Hancock Raceway because DARIO has control over everything. RAYMOND made the remark that POWERS (Massachusetts Senate Leader JOHN POWERS) "is holding up like a (obscene)". RAYMOND is of the opinion that they will make money in the long run and that if it was not for the recent publicity caused by the civil suit they would have obtained the additional racing days and thus the stock of Hancock Raceway would be more valuable.

RAYMOND told HENRY TAMALEO that KEYSTONE LEPORE, true name ALBERT LEPORE went to collect the money at the Bowie Race Track, Maryland for someone who died. Relatives of this individual's contacted JOE SULLIVAN and KEYSTONE went down to collect the money. He was supposed to receive $42,492.00 but IRS was furnished a check for $39,764.00 from this winning ticket until the income tax due on them could be paid.

He told HENRY TAMALEO about his sister and the accountant of the Sherwood Manufacturing Company being subpoenaed before the FGJ at Providence and that both took the 5th Amendment.

[] LNU told RAYMOND that he owes an individual believed connected with the Worcester Mills $6300.00 and that he, [] is in trouble with IRS. [] needed money several months ago and the individual in the Worcester Mills sent him $8800.00 worth of material which he, [] sold. He returned to this individual only $2500.00 leaving a balance of $6300.00. He is attempting to obtain a paid bill for the $6300.00 to assist him in the IRS investigation.

On 3/2/63, [] and RAYMOND discussed the Sherwood Manufacturing Company tax case. RAYMOND said he might be involved because of the auto that he was using which was paid for by the Sherwood Manufacturing Company even though he was on the payroll of the Sherwood Manufacturing Company. [] told him about the raid on a jockey club in West Virginia by Federal authorities. RAYMOND asked [] to keep abreast of the situation as it is his understanding that if a person went to a club to bet and had to travel interstate it would not be a violation. However, if this same person was picked up by a limousine or cab paid for by the club it would then be a violation on both parties namely the club and the individual gambler. [] gave him two envelopes one with "5" in it and one with "6" in it and said that the reason for the two envelopes was that he would not be there next week.

[] told him that he received a letter from [] Massachusetts Correctional Institute, Walpole, Massachusetts. He told [] that, he would furnish him a job so that he could obtain his parole.

On 3/4/63, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI again discussed his recent indictment for tax evasion. He is attempting to obtain the services of CHRISTOPHER DEL SISTO, former Governor of R. I.

RAYMOND warned TAGLIANETTI not to let DEL SISTO know anything as he is not like some lawyers with whom you can discuss things. He said you cannot discuss jurys with him. RAYMOND told TAGLIANETTI to say that he worked for National Cigarette Company. RAYMOND said that DEL SISTO is very expensive.

He said that he should tell DEL SISTO that the only reason he is associated with the National Cigarette Company is to obtain the benefits of the health insurance.

On 3/9/63, BS 837-C* advised that two UNMEN discussed TAGLIANETTI's tax case in which he has recently been indicted. RAYMOND thought that if they obtained the proper attorney, and that he pointed out to the judge that TAGLIANETTI has a young family, no criminal record, and has a good employment record, that he might get a suspended sentence. RAYMOND suggested that TAGLIANETTI ought to attempt in some way to have the USA recommend a light sentence because of the above facts. If the USA does recommend a light sentence, PATRIARCA believes that the judge would go along with the recommendation.

19. Recommendation by the Assistant to the Director:

(A) On February 7, 1963, an unknown individual told RAYMOND that TOMMY RYAN (THOMAS EBOLI) was acting boss for VITO GENOVESE at New York City and when VITO went to jail they, not identified, got together and TOMMY was voted boss. They discussed the VITO GENOVESE family in New York and the activities of FRANKIE COSTELLO of NYC. GENNARO ANGIULO who was present said that it is better to have a good small family than a large one like they have in NYC. They conversed about the Boston family from the period of 1932 and mentioned several incidents which occurred from that time to the present.

On the same date, PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that he was having his headaches with the Hancock Raceways, Hancock, Massachusetts, and that he hopes they get 10 per cent of his original investment of $50,000.

On January 17, 1963, an individual known as ANDY BOSTON appeared before RAYMOND and another individual whose first name is [redacted], and whose last name ended in the syllables [redacted]. It appeared that BOSTON was marked for assassination by individuals in NYC. He presented his comments and after a lengthy discussion, the individual known as [redacted] and RAYMOND told him that he was not marked for assassination and that everything would be straightened out.

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystalize information which may lead to prosecution.

Re: Boston airtel to Bureau dated 3/5/63.

On 3/5/63 BS 837-C advised that HENRY TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that he talked to [redacted] and told [redacted] that he will give him until 5/1/63 to start paying off the debt of $35,000.00 which they invested in a cab business. If he does not commence paying this debt they will force him to sell the cab business in order to be reimbursed with the money they invested.

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that JERRY ANGIULO went to Florida to pull his money out of the Johnina Hotel.

JERRY ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he met JONE PAGANO (ph) in Florida and asked him if he knew about [redacted] PAGANO told him that he just left New York and that they had not heard anything concerning [redacted]. There was mention of four Italian and four Irish kids and two of these kids were with PAGANO then. PAGANO said everything was going to be all right. The name of [redacted] was mentioned but the significance was not known to the informant.

PAGANO told JERRY that he was going to have [redacted] of Boston killed seven or eight years ago because he thought [redacted] was wrong. However, he later learned that [redacted] was okay and cancelled the "hit" on him. JERRY pointed out that [redacted] is moving money for them and that if he had anything on [redacted] he (JERRY) would like to know. PAGANO told him that they had [redacted] wrong at the beginning.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that Friday morning (3/1/63) [] called him at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach, and asked him if he was alone, to which ANGIULO replied in the affirmative. He then came to the room with [] (LNU). [] turned on all the faucets and kept flushing the toilet while [] told ANGIULO that the FBI was surveilling him, that he was driving a Lincoln which was registered in the name of [] and further that the local police were going to pick him up "if they got a shot at it".

It should be noted that ANGIULO was in Florida with [] [] PETER LIMONE and [] [] told JERRY to check out of the hotel at that time, which was 1:00 a.m., and go to the Americana Hotel. JERRY told him that he was at the Fontainebleau long before they ever thought of Florida and refused to transfer hotels. He then discussed the reason that [] would tell him the above facts. He concluded that it was one of two reasons.

First, the day before he met a "lamster" in the lobby of the Fontainebleau and asked him for the $2,500.00 he owed to the group in Boston. This individual, who was Jewish, gave him a fresh answer, after which PETER LIMONE took him just off the lobby and "knocked him dead" when no one was looking. He thought then that because [] and [] are "powerful" in this hotel that the Jew put in a complaint to [] which resulted in the above story.

The other reason being that the Jew put in a beef with the local law enforcement officials and that, in turn, contact someone in the hotel.

ANGIULO said he talked to SAMMY GRANITO the previous night and got $250.00 from ten individuals which would pay them for the month.

PATRIARCA said that HENRY TAMELEO had already talked to JOE BURNS, true name ANSELMO, about it. JERRY said that he would see [] and the other guy in Worcester the following day. This concerns a fund in which the members are assessed $5.00 a week or $25.00 a month to be used for sickness, legal expenses or when a member is in dire need of financial assistance. It is being formed apparently by RAYMOND PATRIARCA and previous information from the same informant states that when they reach a sum of $25,000.00 they will give it to JERRY ANGIULO so that he can "put it out on the street" to increase in value.

JERRY gave the following sums to PATRIARCA which consisted of half of the profits in the town mentioned, $813.00 from Worcester, $527.00 from Milford, (inaudible) $513.00. Another town, not heard, made $810.00 but was "hit" for $1,200.00 and therefore PATRIARCA had to pay $390.00. ANGIULO also mentioned that they whacked up $4,700.00 which, from previous information from the same informant, indicated that PATRIARCA received 25% of same from the crap game.

ANGIULO asked him whether the testimony of RIZZO (President of the Hancock Raceway), as reported in the Boston paper, was correct. This testimony reflected that RIZZO purchased stock from [redacted] and paid $220,000.00 for it. PATRIARCA became angry, picked up the phone and called SOL FREEDMAN. He asked FREEDMAN if this was true. FREEDMAN's answer was not heard by the informant. However, PATRIARCA made the remark "why the hell is he talking like that for then".

JERRY then stated he was going to Worcester tomorrow relative to the Indian Meadow Country Club. They have had a loan in the amount of $100,000.00 ~~owed~~ at the Union Federal Savings Bank apparently to use for new construction on the country club.

PATRIARCA called [redacted] into the room and JERRY told him to stop harassing [redacted] Milford, Mass., as he, [redacted], had borrowed $5,000.00 from JERRY and still owes $4,000.00 of this loan. He told [redacted] that when the loan is fully repaid he [redacted] will have 25% of the numbers and horse business of [redacted]. [redacted] is [redacted] Milford, Mass.

PATRIARCA then told JERRY that he had to leave for an appointment at Howard Johnson's in Attleboro, Mass.

A surveillance was maintained by agents of the Boston Office of both PATRIARCA and ANGIULO. PATRIARCA was observed to contact [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] in Attleboro, Mass. The reason for this meeting was unknown at time.

On 3/6/63 BS 837-C* advised that PATRIARCA told TAMBLEO that he believes he was surveilled the day before when he had the meet in the Howard Johnson's Restaurant in Attleboro, Mass. They discussed the possibilities of the surveillance and PATRIARCA was of the opinion that his telephone at his residence was probably tapped because he talked to the parties he met from his home phone. There was also a discussion about the possibility of agents just happening to observe on Route #1 which is a main road from Boston to Providence, the possibility that the individuals he met were surveilled and the possibility that JERRY ANGIULO was surveilled. They came to no definite conclusion.

[] (LNU) told PATRIARCA that he believed he was past-posted on a bet and that the bettor's wife threatened to call PATRIARCA to have the payment of the bet made. [] had laid off part of the bet to another bookmaker who refused to pay it. PATRIARCA told [] to resolve the bet with the other bookmaker and pay the person off.

Another man, whose first name is believed to be [], paid PATRIARCA an undisclosed sum of money. He said that another individual tried to borrow $2,500.00 from JERRY who refused the loan and he wanted PATRIARCA to loan to this unknown person the $2,500.00. PATRIARCA refused to do so. This individual said that [] called him and told him to say hello to PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA said that the Logan Airport Motel is not doing as well this year as last. He said from what he heard the chef left the diningroom and that the bartenders were stealing money. He indicated that he received this information from [], who is employed as a [] at the motel. [] said that he would get in touch with [] (former Mass. Senator [] East Boston, Mass.), who allegedly has an interest in the Logan Airport Motel.

[] in his contact with RAYMOND, stated that he had received a telephone call from a public phone in New Orleans. BOBBY told him that with him at the time of the call was a close friend of his; however, [] did not know whether this friend was one of those on trial with him. BOBBY said that a friend of his friend, who was with him, got "snatched" by a guy from Chicago in Florida. They got in touch with BOBBY's friend and told him that they were "going all the way" unless his family comes up with $65,000. This friend came up with the $65,000, which he obtained from an individual in Baton Rouge, La. who was very friendly with the victim. BOBBY stated that although the victim's family could well afford to pay the $65,000, the victim refused to contact his family for the money.

RAYMOND stated at this time that the victim might possibly have been working together in a scheme to obtain money from his friend in Baton Rouge.

BOBBY requested [] to contact RAYMOND in order to see whether there was any way they could get a piece of the $65,000, and suggested that if they were able to derive any money from this, BOBBY would give them half.

RAYMOND said that he will have JERRY ANGIULO contact [] in Miami, Fla. to determine whether or not it would be worthwhile before "it's done." If it is not worthwhile, they could get a line on "this [] guy" (possibly the victim in this case) and "shake him down."

RAYMOND asked whether BOBBY's friend was Italian, to which [] replied, "I don't know." RAYMOND then said, "there was a big family down there in Baton Rouge and they all got money."

UNMAN furnished RAYMOND and HENRY TAMELEO $500 each. This was the proceeds from a crooked crap game in which they won $12,000 from an individual whose father was a multimillionaire. This individual owes $10,000 of the $12,000 lost, and when it is received, they both will receive 25% of the $10,000.

[redacted] of Milford, Mass. asked RAYMOND for permission to set up a crap game in the Americana Hotel, NYC, on 3/16-19/63, at which time there would be a large insurance convention there. [redacted] told RAYMOND that his friend, [redacted] of Worcester, Mass., is going to the Convention with his wife and if they are not able to get a room in the Americana, he will ask [redacted] for the use of his room. [redacted] has already agreed to steer patrons into this crooked crap game.

On 3/13/63, an UNMAN asked RAYMOND if he was interested in purchasing the Flower Garden, a nightclub on the waterfront in the Virgin Islands, for the sum of $45,000 to $50,000. UNMAN stated that the only reason RAYMOND might be interested in it is if he had a contact whereby he could operate a game. RAYMOND did not appear interested and said he had no contacts in the Virgin Islands.

Raymond Patriarca is leading hoodlum in New England area. We received information in the summer of 1962 that Miami gambler Hershie Laff and another unidentified Miami gambler had been kidnapped and held for ransom. They were allegedly held for 24 hours until ransom of $170,000 was paid. Laff was interviewed and denied that he had ever been kidnapped. Laff may be identical with the Hirsh referred to in this teletype. The trial referred to in the teletype in New Orleans possibly is the Internal Revenue trial involving major gamblers now in session in New Orleans.

This is a Jew guy. He laid the money out. His name is [redacted]. He lives in Florida and he is not a bum. The money can be gotten from him if somebody wants to get it and if the money is there unless, of course, you are not suppose to get it.

[redacted] Took down $170,000, this kid told me $65,000.

PATRIARCA: Who came up with the rest?

[redacted] [redacted] I know him. He came up with 25 and there has got to be something wrong here. FAT TONY was suppose to come up with $45,000, so now that (obscene) the whole story.

PATRIARCA: Yeah, I didn't want to stick my nose in this.

PATRIARCA: If TONY came up with it, he is more capable down there than I am to get it back. You don't have somebody coming here from Miami. It is none of their business.

[redacted] This [redacted] has got money. It can be gotten from him but because of FAT TONY it changes the picture. That is what I told [redacted] right away.

PATRIARCA: (inaudible)

[redacted] Some guy [redacted] and some guy [redacted] from Chicago are with HIRSH.

PATRIARCA: When JERRY is going down, I will have him see [redacted] to find out if they have their nose in it and find out the story. If [redacted] sees we can do something with it, we will; otherwise, forget about it. If FAT TONY put his nose in it and was suppose to put up $45,000, you can rest assured they know what it is all about. Then they would have grabbed the money.

[redacted] discussed with RAYMOND the kidnapping of an individual in Miami, Florida last July. This information is set out in a separate letter.

Unman asked RAYMOND whether or not he remembered [redacted] (PH) whom [redacted] brought up here from New York City some time ago. He told RAYMOND that [redacted] called him recently and told him that he had left New York some time ago and apparently took residence in or near Los Angeles. While in Los Angeles he took a fall, which he attempted to straighten out through a fix. While waiting for the fix to take place, he went to New York City for 2 or 3 months, where he ascertained that he needed $15,000. to fix the case. He was able only to raise $9,000. and they "cut up 2 a piece." [redacted] told him that he later observed an individual following him who apparently was the law. He was picked up on the Los Angeles charge. It was not clear to the informant whether the following took place in New York or Los Angeles, but in any event informant stated that a person believed to be a law enforcement officer was paid off to allow [redacted] to escape. According to Unman, [redacted] told him that this individual, when he was driving him back, told him that he was coming to a light and that he would approach it when the light turned red which would enable [redacted] to jump out of the car and escape, which [redacted] did. At the present time they have a warrant out, presumably in Los Angeles, and also a "pickup flyer."

Unman told RAYMOND that [redacted] is very concerned now because he has two sisters whom he has been taking care of for many years, and that he has to "scratch" because of this. Unman then asked whether RAYMOND had any contacts in Los Angeles where he could "square" the case away. RAYMOND replied that all of his contacts are in the "can", naming a [redacted] (PH). At this point, the informant was unable to ascertain any further information because of an interruption.

HARRY TAMELEO told RAYMOND that he had collected monies in the amount of $50. from [redacted] and another individual, whose name the informant did not hear. [redacted] Providence, R.I., paid his $50., but LEO TAGLIANETTI has not paid as yet. These payments concern a group of racketeers in Boston and Providence who are setting up a fund for legal or any other necessary expenses such as illness, etc. for members of the fund. The assessment is $25. per month.

TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that he had talked to PAPINO, true name JOE MODICA, the day previously concerning the $3600. MODICA owes GERRY ANGIULO. PAPINO indicated that he did borrow the $3600. but it cost him $30 - $50 per week to entertain customers in the joint and that this amount should be deducted from the $3600. PATRIARCA pointed out that the license used in the joint was ANGIULO's license which he sold to them for $10,000. to be paid at the rate of $75. per week. TAMELEO explained that he knew nothing concerning this and that he was only doing ANGIULO a favor in attempting to collect the $3600. from PAPINO.

TED FUCILLO, on 4/3/63, advised that [redacted] of Somerville, Mass., had received a letter from an unknown individual requesting $3,000. to go into business. [redacted] refused the request. He then discussed the parole of [redacted] and [redacted]. RAYMOND stated that the pressure by the FBI is going to keep them in jail for their full sentence. FUCILLO then explained that he thought he could still do some good in effecting their parole. RAYMOND told him to attempt to make the necessary contacts along these lines.

RAYMOND loaned Unman $3,000. to be repaid in the amount of $50. per week to assist this unman in his numbers and horses business. Unman explained that he had lost $10,000. in numbers in the past several months.

JOE KRIKORIAN told PATRIARCA of the Condado (PH) Beach Hotel, location unknown, which is [redacted] by a [redacted] (PH) of New York. This hotel has 352 air-conditioned rooms. [redacted] was described as owning the Shenandoah in Virginia, a Cadillac agency in New York City, and a race track near the Condado (PH) Beach Hotel. [redacted] had already talked to IRS concerning the hotel and KRIKORIAN indicated to PATRIARCA that there was a possibility that he could invest some money in this hotel. He inquired of [redacted] whether a friend of his, referring to PATRIARCA, could invest some money in the hotel. [redacted] told him that it would be permissible as far as he was concerned and inasmuch as he had talked to IRS concerning the corporate setup, it would be necessary for him to change the corporate setup, and have a [redacted] (LNU) front for PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA indicated that he would be interested in this and asked KRIKORIAN to ascertain further details concerning the same.

KRIKORIAN stated that [redacted] of Narragansett Race Track, was going to give KRIKORIAN $10,000 and also another individual $25,000 the reason not mentioned. PATRIARCA was going to obtain $5,000 of this money.

[redacted] (LNU) told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that this thing in New York is a "rough and tumbled affair" and no one knows who is going to survive and who is not going to survive. [redacted] was probably referring to the trouble among the New York families of the commission. PATRIARCA stated that he saw TOMMY (EBOLI) three months ago and EBOLI said that if they mind their own business, no one will bother them.

Both [redacted] and PATRIARCA spoke highly of EBOLI and agreed that any trouble among the families should be ironed out among themselves. RAYMOND PATRIARCA said that "SALLY THE SHEIK" was the instigator of all the trouble and should have been killed. [redacted] according to RAYMOND, was originally sponsored in the family by RAYMOND and that he allowed [redacted] to go down there to become a member of another family several years ago. He told

[] that if he, [] ever wanted to return to this area, PATRIARCA would gladly accept him back. Both [] and RAYMOND PATRIARCA spoke highly of FRANK COSTELLO. RAYMOND PATRIARCA mentioned that when he came out of jail in 1946, he, RAYMOND, was a member of a New York family. At this time, PHIL BUCCOLO wanted RAYMOND transferred back to Boston which transfer was made. When PHIL was ready to retire they put RAYMOND in charge of this area.

[] and RAYMOND discussed various family situations which portion will be transcribed verbatim and copies of same will be forwarded to the Bureau and New York.

New York will conduct necessary investigation to ascertain the identity and location of the Condado (PH) Beach Hotel and background of [].

Re Boston airtel 3/19/63.

On 3/19/63, BS 837-C* advised that JOE KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK and PATRIARCA he had two propositions in which PATRIARCA might be interested. The first one being the operation of a night club, lounge and casino of a hotel in San Juan, Puerto, Rico. KIRK had contact with the owner of this hotel who is a multi-millionaire. The owner has purchased all gambling equipment necessary to open the operation, which operation is to take place on the entire sixth floor of the hotel. The only stipulation that the owner desires is that the operators of the night club, lounge and casino use local help with the exception of count down men and other key personnel. He desired a percentage of the profits from the three operations. The amount of the percentage he did not stipulate, however. According to KIRK the hotel will be ready in ten days and overlooks the ocean and the bay. PATRIARCA said that the situation looks good to him and instructed KIRK to go down and ascertain further arrangements concerning same.

KIRK mentioned another hotel in the Mediterranean area which would be the only "joint" on the island that has gambling and that the same individual who owns the above mentioned hotel in San Juan has some connection with this "joint" also and is willing to make the same type of deal. PATRIARCA instructed KIRK to make all arrangements concerning same at which time PATRIARCA will make a decision as to whether he is interested in these ventures.

KIRK said that he had met TOMMIE BROWN (LUCHESE) down there, probably meaning Florida as there was mention of the Eden Rock. BROWN introduced him to [redacted] LNU. [redacted] (PH) was also there. BROWN told KIRK that they gave [redacted] $200.00 a week from the game, not further described.

They discussed the Hancock Raceway and the Franklin Fair in Hancock, Mass., in which PATRIARCA has a financial interest. PATRIARCA told KIRK to do exactly what he says regarding this and not to do anything unless he says so. He said that RIZZO has fouled the whole deal up by fooling around the Franklin Fair and there was no further discussion relative to this matter. KIRK told him that [redacted], a noted Boston [redacted], was worried about the Rehoboth Fair which the State Legislature is investigating for payoffs. [redacted] also [redacted] the Brockton Mass. Fair. [redacted] is of the opinion that [redacted] of the Rockingham Race Track, Rockingham, N. H. "let everything out" concerning the Rehoboth Fair which information started the investigation presently being conducted by the State Legislature.

[redacted], Providence, R. I. complained to PATRIARCA about LOU TAGLIAZUETTI because TAGLIAZUETTI was cutting in on his carnival business. He pointed out that TAGLIAZUETTI, [redacted] and a Rabbi went to [redacted] concerning one fair and offered almost twice as much money for the operation of this fair or carnival. The amount offered by them was $35,000.00. [redacted] asked permission to do something about [redacted] and to "cripple him or something" as he was getting out of hand. RAYMOND told him to go ahead.

Re: Boston airtel 4/11/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 4/11/63 that [redacted] of Providence, R.I. contacted PATRIARCA. [redacted] stated that JIMMY D. told him that the contact had been made at the Florida Race Track with the law enforcement officials, and they were paid off to permit bookmakers to operate at this track, name of which was unknown. Because of this, [redacted] booked at this track for several months. He lost $8,000 in this bookmaking operation, plus an additional $7,000 on personal bets.

[redacted] also stated that when he recently cashed the winning ticket at the Maryland Race Track in the amount of [redacted] he was questioned by IRS officials. He told PATRIARCA that this ticket actually belonged to a friend of [redacted]'s, a bookmaker from Providence, R.I. [redacted] asked [redacted] to cash this ticket for an individual whose first name was believed by the informant to be HARRY. After obtaining the ticket from [redacted] at the track, he attempted to cash same. He was questioned by IRS officials and they kept approximately $38,000 of the total ticket amounting to about $40,000.

[redacted] later contacted HARRY and told him what had occurred. He left HARRY at the airport in Maryland shortly before HARRY boarded the flight on his return to Providence. [redacted] took the 6:00 PM flight for Florida. Later, he received a call from HARRY's brother who told him HARRY dropped dead at the airport, and that the brother thought he was robbed because he did not have very much money on him. brother that he did not have the winning receipts from the tickets because he was unable to cash same. [] also told RAYMOND that he had made arrangements with [] (LNU) to surveil area from the plane in Providence and rob him of the receipts of the winning ticket.

[] stated that because of his attempt to cash the winning ticket, IRS is investigating him thoroughly, and in order not to pay too many taxes, he will have to prove he bet large amount of money throughout the year on races which he lost. In the event he does this, he will then again have to prove how he obtained this money to bet on the races he lost.

He told RAYMOND that he was in a quandry as to what to do.

On 4/15/63, HENRY TAMALEO told RAYMOND that he would not be able to do anything on the insurance deal in New York without the list. By 4/16/63, TAMALEO will know whether the guy, name unknown, in New York is going to handle the deal. He has been assured by another unidentified person that this individual in New York is "okay". HENRY stated that the place was insured for a million dollars, and that the insurance company ought to be willing to give up $300,000.

He stated he was going to meet [] at the Night Owl Diner, Route 9 and 20, Massachusetts, at 9:00 AM on 4/16/63. It was not clear to the informant whether the meet with [] was in relation to the above insurance deal.

Agents of the Boston Office conducted a surveillance at the Night Owl Diner from 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM on 4/16/63, and neither TAMALEO nor GEORGE KATTAR were observed at the diner. BS 837-C* advised on 4/16/63 that PATRIARCA took his wife to the New England Baptist Hospital, Boston, Mass., for an operation.

On 4/17/63 RUDOLPH SCIARA, who was recently acquitted in State Court on a charge of Murder, was told by PATRIARCA that he is doing too many favors for people and that he should discontinue doing same as it will lead him into trouble. SCIARA had mentioned that he had arranged the bail for three individuals, not identified.

PATRIARCA instructed him that, when arranging bail for any individuals, he should make sure that the bondsman does not know his (SCIARA's) identity, as he believes that all bondsmen are stool pigeons.

He then was very critical of an individual believed to be a dentist, who had just visited him. He stated that this dentist is a stool pigeon for the FBI. This statement not true. He pointed out that the last time he had taken his wife to the hospital in Boston, the dentist, whom he had not seen for several months, had stopped in and inquired about her health. When RAYMOND told him that his wife was in the hospital in Boston, he apparently notified the FBI because they surveilled the hospital and observed PATRIARCA meeting with various individuals, including _____ [redacted] Commonwealth of Massachusetts. PATRIARCA said that he was contacting [redacted] in an effort to obtain the parole of [redacted] and LAWRENCE BATONA.

He also told SCIARA that today the criminals are fighting scientific crime detection and, therefore, have to be very careful.

RE MASS. R.I.
LOUIS TAGLIANETTI told RAYMOND that he, LOUIS, and his attorney, [redacted] who is a [redacted] of Rhode Island Supreme Court Judge THOMAS PAOLINI, contacted Federal Judge SUGARMAN in New York recently concerning TAGLIANETTI's tax case. TAGLIANETTI is under indictment for income tax violation at Providence, R.I. TAGLIANETTI said that he was present with his attorney at this meeting and that SUGARMAN took them to a law library to look up recent tax decisions in recent income tax cases. After perusing the brief on TAGLIANETTI's case and asking questions of TAGLIANETTI, SUGARMAN told them that he did not think the Federal Government had a good case on TAGLIANETTI and, further, that, if TAGLIANETTI could state where he borrowed the money and prove same, there would be no doubt that he would obtain an acquittal. SUGARMAN advised that they should go to trial and not accept the deal of U.S. Attorney PETTINE, who offered that, if TAGLIANETTI pleaded guilty, he would recommend a $500.00 fine only. SUGARMAN stated this would indicate to him that PETTINE did not have a good case. During the conversation, TAGLIANETTI said that SUGARMAN knows [redacted] (phonetic). SUGARMAN also told them that PETTINE was in a bad spot, in that he had already obtained an indictment and also some publicity and that, if he lost the case, bad publicity might result for PETTINE.

JOHN PASTORE R.I. D.C.
PATRIARCA stated that many years ago when the now U.S. Senator JOHN PASTORE was Assistant District Attorney in Rhode Island, he got plenty of money from PATRIARCA and his associates and particularly when he, PATRIARCA, was concerned with a jail break which resulted in a murder charge. PATRIARCA said that after that they helped PASTORE become Governor for the State of Rhode Island.

When PATRIARCA and his attorneys were in Washington, D.C., apparently referring to the time he testified before the McClellan Committee, they attempted to see PASTORE in the U.S. Senate Chambers. PASTORE apparently found out they intended to visit him and took a plane to New York before they arrived. PATRIARCA was very critical of PASTORE because of this.

~~JOHN E. FOGARTY - A.I. DC~~
At the same time, they happened to meet U. S. Congressman JOHN FOGARTY and described him as a very nice fellow because he, FOGARTY, at this time invited PATRIARCA and his attorneys to a party. PATRIARCA declined the invitation because of possible bad publicity. However, his attorney CURRAN and CURRAN's associate did attend the party.

They then continued to discuss Rhode Island politics and RAYMOND stated it would be a long time before an Italian is again elected to the Governorship of Rhode Island.

RAYMOND told Unman that if he was questioned concerning his visits to PATRIARCA in R.I., that he only came down to see [] concerning the purchase of cigarette vending machines. Unman asked what the results of his contact with ex-Senator MICHAEL LOPRESTI of East Boston, Mass. was. PATRIARCA advised that he sold him some machines.

Unman told RAYMOND that they are attempting to buy 80 acres of land in Maine, 30 of which they will use for a trailer camp. They are also trying to purchase a warehouse on Dudley St., Roxbury, Mass. Unman said that they are okay with Governor REED of the State of Me. and [] who is associated with Unman, says that [] is a good fellow.

JOE KRICKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, told PATRIARCA that he talked to FRANK CALGAGNI and instructed him, [] to pay the Doctor the $950. KIRK told RAYMOND that the bill to obtain additional racing dates at the Hancock Raceway, Hancock, Mass., looked good. It appeared that some individual, name not stated, was attempting to obtain 10 per cent of the track but did not want to put the money up until the additional racing dates were secured. RAYMOND stated that if he did not put up the money before the dates were secured, it would not be worthwhile for them to give up the 10 per cent. KIRK stated that he, SOL FRIEDMAN, RAYMOND, and a person not mentioned, would split the 10 per cent and obtain 2½ per cent additional interest in the track.

KIRK stated that [] of Lincoln Downs Race Track, R.I., instructed KIRK not to go to Boston and also to tell SOL FRIEDMAN not to go to Boston, as their names had been mentioned in the hearing concerning the Hancock Raceway, and that they might be served subpoena if in Boston.

RAYMOND told KIRK to tell DOC (FURCOLO) to come up with the money, and mentioned the fact that no matter what he, the Doctor, does they would be protected because they have the shares and SOL has the note. RAYMOND did not think that [] turned over any of the shares of stock belonging to [] and []. KIRK said that [] had told him that he would do nothing concerning this until he heard from RAYMOND.

[] was criticized by RAYMOND for using his name in Worcester, Mass. [] denied same and explained it was probably LOUIS LOMBARDI who used his name. On 1/17/68, BS 834-C advised that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA introduced ANDY BOSTON to one [redacted] (LNU). It appeared from the information received that [redacted] was apparently an arbitrator of some sort for the "commission." ANDY, upon instructions from PATRIARCA, told [redacted] the story concerning his wife fooling around. During this conversation ANDY indicated that he believed that [redacted] (PH) was fooling around with his wife, and there was mention of [redacted] (PH), [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] (PH). ANDY was of the impression that these individuals know what CARL and CARMINE are doing, but he, himself, does not know them. It appeared to ANDY that the above group know every move of CARMINE and CARL, and are probably out to do CARL harm.

Mass;
After listening to ANDY BOSTON present his case, [redacted] (LNU) indicated that he was not marked for assassination and that everything will be straightened out. [redacted] also discussed with ANDY in detail the manner in which he settles "commission" disputes. During this conversation [redacted] pointed out that he is extremely busy in arbitrating "commission" disputes, and he said that one group is disbanding and a new "commission" is being formed, and there are meetings day and night relative to this situation.

The Bureau, on 1/24/63, advised that a review of the above matter would indicate that CARL and CARMINE might be identical with CARLO GAMBINO, a "commission" member from New York, and CARMINE LOMBARDOZZI, a caporegime in the GAMBINO family, and MIKE SHANZ is possibly MIKE SANDIFIA, who is also a member of the GAMBINO family.

A verbatim copy of information obtained by BS 837-G* on 1/17/63 has been forwarded the Bureau.

By letter dated 2/1/63, the NYO furnished the following information concerning the above matter:

NY 2412-2 advised that "BOSTON" ANDY PARILLA (PH) was working for [redacted] in Brooklyn, N. Y., wherein PARILLA was handling policy action and dice games. Further efforts are being made by the afore-mentioned informant to develop background information re PARILLA.

This record describes PARIILLO as being born 6/1/09, Providence, R. I., 5'7", 165 lbs., medium build, mixed gray hair, hazel eyes, address 100 Caton Ave, Brooklyn, N. Y.

It is to be noted that in reairtels (Buairtel 1/24/63 and Bosairtel 1/22/63) the name MIKE SKANTZ (PH) was mentioned, possibly referring to MICHAEL SCANDIFIA. It is to be noted that SCANDIFIA operates a garage on Coney Island Avenue near Caton Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.

By letter dated 2/18/63, the Albany Office advised the following investigation was conducted to identify Judge KILE (PH) of Syracuse, N. Y., one of two alleged "front" men intended to be used in connection with the Indian Meadow Golf Club near Worcester, Mass.

The New York Telephone Co. directory for the Greater Syracuse Area does not contain any listings for the spelling KILE. It was noted that there were 10 individuals named KIEHL, two individuals named KILLE, and five individuals named KYLE. None of these individuals were listed under the title Judge, nor were any listed in the attorney section in the yellow pages.

CAR:po'b

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

A review of the Syracuse City Directory for 1962 likewise disclosed no one by the name of KILE, and there were numerous individuals with the names KIEHL, KILIE and KYLE. It was noted that one individual bore the title Judge 27 Hammond St Monticello, N.Y. ARTHUR KYLE, 753 James Street, Apartment 201. There was no private phone listing for this individual in the Syracuse telephone book. There was no employment designation in the City Directory. It is noted that 753 James Street is the address of the Skyline Apartments, an exclusive resident apartment house at Syracuse, N. Y. B. App 1911

[redacted] Credit Bureau of Greater Syracuse, Inc., provided the file on ARTHUR C. KYLE, JR., who has been on file since 9/14/49. On 8/1/62 a credit report indicated he is married, age 52, [redacted] name [redacted] with [redacted] and has been a life-long resident of Monticello, N. Y. (It is noted that Monticello, N. Y. is approximately 175 miles east of Syracuse, N. Y. and located within the New York field division).

The report further disclosed he was a Dartmouth College graduate in 1932 and was in the newspaper field until 1948, at which date he was the publisher of the "Sullivan County News." In 1948 he became the manager of radio station WMDR at Syracuse, N. Y., and as of 8/1/62 was the General Manager and Vice President of the corporation owning the station. It was noted that the station had consistently lost money over the years and its current status was unknown in banking circles, although it was not believed to be operating at a profit.

KYLE was noted as having had personal financial difficulties in the past and it was alleged that he had paid off some of the indebtedness of his father, a former prominent attorney at Monticello, N. Y. who met financial reverses during the depression. His father is believed deceased.

Report indicated there were no records of mortgages, loans or bank accounts at Syracuse, N. Y. Public records indicated 14 judgments filed against KYLE between 9/49 and 6/59. Twelve of these 14 judgments were still open and unsatisfied as of 8/1/62 report. The amounts of the open judgments ranged from $109.99 to $12,452.75. The report also indicated that releases of tax liens were filed on the following dates in favor of the United States Government:

2/15/62	dated 5/50	$ 88.03
2/15/60	dated 1/27/60	770.19
2/15/60	dated 3/7/60	2,327.98

There was one collection as of 1/21/55 in the amount of $11.05. There was one record of a charge-off to profit and loss by a department store account on 4/13/54 in the amount of $45.04.

An 11/16/61 credit report indicated the current address of KYLE as 27 Hammond Street, Monticello, N. Y., a former resident of 2 Hammond Street, Monticello, N. Y. This report indicated that station WNDR was operated by the Syracuse Broadcasting Corporation, the employer of KYLE.

A 1/3/51 credit report indicated that KYLE continued to be a resident of Monticello, N. Y. and spent three to four days per week at his employment at Syracuse, N. Y. His address at Monticello, N. Y. as of that time was Bushnell Avenue. The report indicated it was understood at the Syracuse Credit Bureau that KYLE had 27 judgments against him in Sullivan County where Monticello, N. Y. is located. The credit bureau card records indicated an additional previous address on an unspecified date at Monticello, N. Y. of 203 Broadway.

It is noted that the current 1962 Syracuse City Directory discloses ARTHUR C. KYLE, JR. as General Manager of Radio Station WNDR.

At about 12:26 p.m., February 5, 1963, Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] observed a black Buick, 1954 or 1955 model, bearing Rhode Island Registration XY 928, coming out of Indian Lake Shores. This car turned left onto Tower Hill Road and headed north. The driver of this car was observed to be RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA. There were no other passengers in this car besides the driver.

This car continued in a northerly direction on Tower Hill Road to Route #2, traveling Route #2 through the localities of North Kingston, Warwick, and Cranston, Rhode Island. In Cranston, this car continued on Route #2, being Reservoir Avenue, and then turned right onto the Huntington Avenue Expressway heading in the direction of downtown Providence.

This car followed the Huntington Avenue Expressway to the area of the Harris Lumber Company on Harris Avenue near Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island where at about 12:55 p.m., this car was observed having been stopped by a Providence Police Officer in a Providence Police Department cruiser bearing Rhode Island Registration Police 50.

It appeared that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was given a ticket or summons by this officer.

At about 1:03 p.m., February 5, 1963, PATRIARCA was again observed driving this Buick bearing Rhode Island Registration XY 928 and he was followed to the Dean Auto Body, 62 Dean Street, Providence, where he was observed parking the car across the street from 62 Dean Street.

On February 6, 1963, Captain [redacted] (WA), [redacted] of the Traffic Bureau, Providence, Rhode Island Police Department, advised that his traffic records reflect the following information for RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA:

At 12:55 p.m., February 5, 1963, RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was stopped by Police Officer [redacted] who was driving the Providence Police patrol car bearing Rhode Island registration "Police 50."

PATRIARCA was issued traffic violation summons number 36372 for "driving 45 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone"; was clocked at this speed by Officer [redacted] and PATRIARCA was stopped on Harris Avenue, in front of the Harris Lumber Company.

At the time that Officer [redacted] issued this summons, PATRIARCA was driving a Buick sedan bearing Rhode Island registration KY 928, which car is registered to ANTONIO URSIULO, 14 Fairmont Street, Johnston, Rhode Island, and that PATRIARCA produced a registration certificate for this car under the name of URSIULO.

PATRIARCA is scheduled to appear at the 6th District Court, Providence, Rhode Island, on February 15, 1963 to answer this summons.

On February 15, 1963, Detective [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island Police Department, advised that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA appeared in the 6th District Court on this date and pleaded guilty to a "speeding charge" on February 5, 1963 and paid the Court costs.

A check of the records of the Massachusetts Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Boston, Massachusetts, on February 7, 1963 reflected that 1963 Massachusetts registration L73-537 is listed to GENNARO ANGIULO for a 1962 black Cadillac.

"The name of a Rhode Island man once described by a congressional committee as 'king of the rackets' in Providence, R. I. was injected yesterday into a legislative investigation of a controversial Massachusetts race track.

"State Rep. Wallace B. Crawford, R-Pittsfield, had said he would ask witnesses at the public hearing on the Berkshire Downs Track whether they knew Raymond L. S. Patriarca was connected with Hancock Raceway, Inc., operators of the track.

"Those testifying before the special Massachusetts House investigating committee Friday night and yesterday denied Patriarca had any connection with Berkshire Downs. Salvatore A. Rizzo of Scarsdale, N. Y., president of Hancock Raceways said he didn't even know who Representative Crawford was talking about. Mr. Crawford did not say why he had inserted Patriarca's name into the hearing."

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper at Providence, Rhode Island, dated March 5, 1963, carried an Associated Press (AP) release from Boston, located on page 6, which was captioned, "DR. FURCOLO SAYS TRACK RECORDS WERE FALSIFIED."

This article said that Dr. CHARLES FURCOLO has accused officials of the Hancock Raceway of lying and falsifying financial statements.

LOUIS G. RINEBOLT, accountant for the track, said the Raceway's books showed current assets of $1,213,270 and liabilities of $1,400,000.

This article made reference to the fact that SALVATORE A. RIZZO of Scarsdale, New York, President of the Hancock Raceway, testified that Hollywood star FRANK SINATRA was one of the three voting stockholders in the Hancock track.

Mr. RIZZO said he owned 85 percent of the Class A stock and the rest was owned by SINATRA and SAUL FRIEDMAN, a Providence lawyer. RIZZO would not specify how much SINATRA owned.

The newspaper described SAUL FRIEDMAN as a resident at 115 Detsy Williams Drive, Cranston, Rhode Island, who recently was re-elected Judge of the Cranston, Rhode Island Probate Court.

FRIEDMAN was quoted by this newspaper as saying he would not say when asked how much stock he owned in the Berkshire Downs Track. He said he had been out of town and preferred not to comment until he determined to what Mr. RIZZO had testified.

The newspaper also quoted FRIEDMAN as saying that he had owned the stock in the track since before Mr. RIZZO, SINATRA and actor DEAN MARTIN became connected with it, but said he has had nothing to do with its operation.

FRIEDMAN further said he has not been called to testify at the hearing.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, dated March 6, 1963, carried a UPI release from Boston, on page 6, captioned, "NOW CLAIMS HE'S SOLE OWNER. RIZZO TESTIFIES TRACK IS LOSING MONEY."

This article mentioned that SALVATORE A. RIZZO of Scarsdale, New York says he is the sole owner of the Hancock Raceways, Inc. and that the horse race track is losing money.

Mr. RIZZO's testimony, yesterday, in the Superior Court apparently contradicted what he told a special Massachusetts House investigating committee during a public hearing earlier this week in Pittsfield.

At that time Mr. RIZZO said he owned 85% of the Class A voting stock with the remaining 15% held by singer FRANK SINATRA and SAUL FRIEDMAN, a Providence lawyer.

Mr. RIZZO's testimony was in answer to earlier charges by Dr. CHARLES L. FURCOLO, father of Democratic former Governor FOSTER FURCOLO; that figures showing Hancock Raceway sustained a total loss of $137,000 last year.

Mr. RIZZO said there was no question in his mind that the track is operating in the red.

Mr. RIZZO testified that the track owes him $509,535, and that the track suffered a "pocket loss" of $62,000.

Mr. RIZZO also denied that he conspired with Hollywood stars SINATRA and DEAN MARTIN, Mr. CHARLES R. GARSON and E. A. DARIO, operator of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, to cheat Dr. FURCOLO of the stock in question.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, carried an article on page 26, dated March 18, 1963, captioned, "RAGING PROBERS LIST R. I. MAN AS WITNESS."

This article in substance stated that a Providence man, identified as JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, also known as JOSEPH KIRK of 42 Tenth Street, is scheduled to be questioned in Pittsfield, Massachusetts within the next two weeks by the Special Committee of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, which is investigating horse and dog racing in that State.

During the recent Suffolk County Court hearing in Boston on ownership of the Hancock Raceways, Inc., which operates the Berkshire Downs track, the Corporation President, SALVATORE A. RIZZO, said Mr. KIRK represented him during 1961 negotiations for acquisition of 50 shares of stock.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin" called the home of Mr. KRIKORIAN, 42 Tenth Street, and a woman who answered the telephone said that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN is the same JOSEPH KIRK whose name was mentioned in the Massachusetts court matter. This woman described KIRK as a diamond salesman now in Florida.

One of the developments in the court case involves the contention of Dr. CHARLES L. FURCOLO, father of former Governor FOSTER FURCOLO, that 50 shares of stock he acquired were improperly sold to Mr. RIZZO.

According to newspaper sources, on February 27, 1963, a high Massachusetts state official battered the door leading to the office of House Speaker JOHN F. THOMPSON in the State House. These newspaper reports indicated that a fight had occurred inside. On February 28, 1963, according to newspaper reports, THOMPSON was a "missing man" and not scheduled to report to work until March 4, 1963. Massachusetts Attorney General EDWARD BROOKE announced that he would investigate this violence in the Speaker's office.

BS T-5 advised on March 9, 1963, that [redacted] whom BS T-5 described as the person in charge of [redacted] in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, approached THOMPSON's office with a gun on February 28, 1963. The office door was locked as THOMPSON had been warned that [redacted] was on his way up to his office. It should be noted that on March 5, 1963, RAYMOND PATRIARCA was observed meeting [redacted] HAROLD HANNON and [redacted] at the Howard Johnson's Restaurant, Attleboro, Massachusetts, by SAs [redacted] and RONALD J. WEAVER.

JFK/rk

BS T-20 advised on February 14, 1963, that he learned from RUDOLPH SCIARRA, Providence, Rhode Island, who was recently acquitted for the murder of JOHN NAZARIAN of Providence, Rhode Island, that SCIARRA, HENRY TAMELIO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA are financially interested in a loan shark business operated by an individual who operates a furniture store in the Providence, Rhode Island, area. The informant did not know the identity of this individual, nor the location from which he operates.

BS T-21 advised on February 19, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA has an interest in the Dunes Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada. The informant did not know the amount of interest PATRIARCA has or in whose name this investment is listed.

BS T-9 advised on March 1, 1963, that ALBERT KEYSTONE LEPORE, an associate of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, attempted to collect the sum of $42,492 on a winning pari-mutuel ticket at the Bowie Race Track, Maryland, a short time prior to that. When LEPORE attempted to collect this money, Internal Revenue Service kept the sum of $39,764 from the winning ticket until the income tax due on them could be paid. According to the informant, LEPORE cashed the ticket for a friend of [redacted] from Providence, Rhode Island. [redacted] furnished LEPORE the ticket at Bowie Race Track. When LEPORE cashed the ticket and received only approximately $2,700, he told the owner of the ticket what had occurred. The owner of the ticket and LEPORE left for the airport in Maryland. LEPORE

The President of the company is giving the franchise to an individual from Orlando, Florida. [redacted] is very friendly with the Vice President and gave the Vice President's daughter $2,000 when she was married recently.

[redacted] again reiterated to PATRIARCA that he is having trouble collecting money on the numbers and that he lost $5,400 last year in this business.

[redacted] (INU), [redacted] (INU), and [redacted] (INU) appeared before PATRIARCA at which time he admonished them because they had not paid [redacted] for money owed in the numbers business. All three complained that they were hit hard on various numbers and that they are losing money in their operations. RAYMOND instructed them to pay each week the money they owe and also by September pay all money that they owe [redacted].

The individuals who have a piece of this operation have been contacting Unman and threatening him. He, therefore, is appealing to PATRIARCA in order to have PATRIARCA request these individuals to stop bothering him until such time as the booking operation again becomes successful. RAY told him that the next time [redacted] or anyone else comes to see him, that he should tell them to see GEORGE (RAYMOND PATRIARCA) in Providence.

The name of [redacted] was mentioned and Unman stated that he used to babysit for [redacted]. It appeared that IRS had questioned [redacted] regarding Unman as he, [redacted], had cashed one of his payroll checks. Unman operated a diner in this town and either he or one of his associates also worked in a hospital in the town.

On 5/14/63, Unman requested assistance from PATRIARCA to get his daughter into Bayview Academy, an exclusive private school in Rhode Island. PATRIARCA stated he would contact THOMAS PAOLINO, Rhode Island Supreme Court Judge and have him make the necessary contacts. R5

An individual from Connecticut discussed the situation referred to above. There was mention of a DICK WALLACE (PH) and the other kid who works for [] (PH) and also the old man who works in the hospital. RAY told this individual that [] (LNU) was in and that he believed his story to the effect that they were not making any money. RAY instructed Unman to let him know as soon as they go back into action because when they do, he will make the necessary arrangements. b6

[] was accompanied by HENRY TAMELEO, PATRIARCA's chief lieutenant in the Providence area.

After [] left, TAMELEO told RAYMOND that some individual had stuck [], a Providence [] for $1,400. RAYMOND stated that [] was a close friend of his and to have TAMELEO make sure that this individual pay the $1,400 to [].

Another individual contacted PATRIARCA, accompanied by HENRY TAMELEO. This individual asked RAYMOND to take layoff bets in his numbers operation in the amount of $2.00 and over. PATRIARCA asked him what his weekly layout business would be in this case to which the individual replied $300 or $400. PATRIARCA stated that it would not be enough as the risk would be too great. The individual stated that he could build it up to $800 or $900 by taking another individual in with him. RAYMOND stated that it would still be too great a risk.

He pointed out that [] would not accept the layoff action because it was interstate and that the only one who might handle same would be GENNARO ANGIULO at Boston. TAMELEO stated that the operation would be expensive in that today they do not furnish the office telephone number to any of the writers and that on an interstate operation, the bookies contact the layoff man once a week and set up five or so public phone booths where the person receiving the layoff can be reached.

When the bookie calls, he calls a different number each day and the person who takes the layoff action has an agent there to accept the action. PATRIARCA pointed out that this involves more personnel and a large telephone bill.

The name of [redacted] is mentioned and RAYMOND asked about the [redacted] who books there. The informant was unable to determine the answer. RAYMOND also said that it is not possible to get any consideration (probably remuneration) for layoff action as it is getting tougher to place this layoff action because of the high financial risk involved. RAYMOND told this individual that he will contact ANGIULO and called Unman relative to this request. Unman stated his home phone number was Jackson 8-0637, the last digit may be inaccurate, and his club number is Chapel 6-3135. This last number may possibly be inaccurate also. This individual stated he goes to the club every day between 2:00 and 2:30. b6 b7C

On 5/15/63, TED FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that he tried to get [redacted] (Waterville, Maine) interested in the crap game. [redacted] who takes only horses and sports action, did not want to become involved in this operation as it would be in Waterville, Maine, but did suggest Lewiston, Maine as a base of operation. [redacted] wanted to have a large crap game involving 100 or 200 people. However, FUCILLO wanted only 18 or 20 business or professional men as players. [redacted] told FUCILLO that he would let him know his decision as to whether he wanted a piece of this action.

FUCILLO stated that [redacted] has told the fellows in the crap game up there, probably referring to some location in Maine, that PATRIARCA was getting 10% on the game and did take out 10% for PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA told FUCILLO that he has received approximately $1,200 from this game, but he has not seen [redacted] for approximately a month. He requested FUCILLO to discreetly ascertain what the gross on this game was so that he could double check [redacted] as to the amount of money he, PATRIARCA, receives.

FUCCILLO told RAYMOND that [] (LNU) and his brother-in-law can show $300,000. [] alone can show []. It appears that these individuals are involved in the operation of a relatively new [] in Maine, which is making a lot of money. The individual who originally started this firm was a [] (PH). The mayor of the town and his son-in-law also have a piece of this firm. An individual named [] (LNU), who was having trouble with his wife, was unable to originally invest $9,000 but was promised a piece. The other individuals are now trying to squeeze [] out of this firm.

RAY received a call relative to this firm two weeks ago from somebody's sister. He suggested to FUCCILLO that he, FUCCILLO, bring the individual believed to be [] down to see him so that he, RAYMOND, could straighten out the situation.

FUCCILLO stated that he has made contact with [], a millionaire who owns half of Maine. He [] a $2,000,000 shopping center in Waterville, Maine, a bowling alley, and other enterprises. TEDDY is building a trailer camp there. TEDDY suggests to RAYMOND that they build a motel in this area and have [] front for them as the individual who invests the original money.

FUCCILLO has been meeting with the head of the Vice Squad, probably Waterville, Maine, who is a [] and whose name is [] (PH). FUCCILLO has been giving him small presents and is trying to cultivate him. When the big crap game opens, he feels he will have the [] "in his hip pocket".

[] (LNU) requested RAYMOND for assistance in the obtaining of a cafe license through the Narragansett Brewery. It was not clear to the informant how this was possible. However, RAYMOND said he would talk to DEWEY BENNETT, who has a responsible position with Croft Ale which is made by Narragansett Brewery and who is a close friend of his.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, according to RAYMOND, was a close friend of [REDACTED] (PH) of the Narragansett Brewery and that they would probably be able to assist [REDACTED].

HENRY TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that he had just received a telephone call from an individual who refused to furnish his identity. It is to be noted that this call was a call under suitable pretext, made by agents, to cause some friction between GENNARO ANGIULO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

TAMELEO said that the individual told TAMELEO to tell PATRIARCA that ANGIULO was very critical of PATRIARCA and said that he, PATRIARCA, was getting soft, and was a cry baby, particularly since his wife was ill with a terminal disease. This individual, according to TAMELEO, said that ANGIULO was probably getting ready to make a move to take over PATRIARCA's position as leader in the New England area. TAMELEO said he was very upset at the call and attempted to guess as to the identity of the caller, but they reached no conclusion.

PATRIARCA said that he could not understand this, as JERRY was very fond of HELEN, his wife. However, they agreed not to mention anything about this call to ANGIULO because they believed the individual would call again and furnish them more information by which they hope to identify the caller. It appeared that both TAMELEO and PATRIARCA were very upset.

Within 10 minutes after TAMELEO left, ANGIULO came in and there was no mention of the above-mentioned phone call to ANGIULO.

Prior to the time TAMELEO left, he stated that [redacted] of Boston was going to see PATRIARCA in the near future concerning the money he owes different individuals. [redacted] told TAMELEO that he is unable to pay off these individuals at the present time. The debts amount to approximately $60,000. TAMELEO further told PATRIARCA that he obtained some phony diamonds and that they, not further identified, are trying to set some unknown individual up in a swindle by use of the phony diamonds.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that they will only be able to "grind" $400 or $500 a week out of that business until they get their original investment back. He was probably referring to the "T. V. jingle business," as there was mention of JOE CATALDO, BLACKIE and JIGGS, who were involved in this business.

During the course of the conversation, ANGIULO stated that [redacted] of Miami, Fla. is in TONY's family but has never "spoken up." ANGIULO said that [redacted] who fronts for him in the [redacted] namely, [redacted] is now operating from above Jay's Restaurant which ANGIULO owns. He put him in this office because he is able to watch him more closely. He pointed out that it cost him $8,000 to $10,000 a year to furnish a car, an apartment, and living expenses to this "Jew" and he wants to hold on to him because if he fired him he would not be able to trust him.

ANGIULO stated that he was at the Indian Meadow Country Club recently and talked to [redacted] an accountant from the Worcester, Mass. area. He questioned [redacted] concerning the "Feds" who were inquiring as to where the sum of $20,376 came from in the Indian Meadow account. JERRY, after questioning [redacted] and [redacted] who is [redacted] of this club, determined that the "Feds" went to [redacted] first who, in turn, were sent to [redacted] an officer in the corporation, who, in turn, sent them to [redacted] the [redacted]. They wanted to know from [redacted] where he got the $20,376 to pay the January, 1963 bills of the Indian Meadow Country Club.

During the course of the conversation, JERRY stated that he gave to [redacted] the $20,000. [redacted] denied that he told the "Feds" that $20,376 was paid in January, but did show them the receipts received by this Club which he obtains from the cashier at the club every week. The "Feds" questioned both [redacted] and [redacted] as to whether or not PATRIARCA had an interest in the club. Both replied in the negative.

RAYMOND PATRIARCA then called an individual, whom he referred to as [redacted], and JERRY said that he had received a letter concerning [redacted] or [redacted]. [redacted] owed $1,500 to a group in Miami. He lived with [redacted] while in Miami and, thereafter, [redacted] took him to live with him in Providence, R. I. inasmuch as he, [redacted] was broke and was threatening suicide. After several weeks [redacted] asked him to leave as he was "getting on his nerves."

JERRY was apparently asked by [] (PH) (probably from the Miami area) to locate [] for the Miami group. [] said that he did not know where he was at the present time but suggested that the Miami group contact []'s girl friend in Las Vegas. JERRY said that he is not going to give them any information as to how to locate this fellow but he did not want to have them believe he would do nothing : to locate [].

This individual, [] was arrested down in Florida, probably on a gambling charge, and that his lawyer was GILMARTIN, a former USA. [] used the services of a Psychiatrist in order to avoid detention and was subsequently released on bail. Informant had no further details concerning this. JERRY said that [] called concerning his attempt to obtain money for HIRSCH from [] which he, [], "owed.

[] refused to give the money which amounted to $3,600 to []. He stated he would pay TONY, probably TONY RUSSO, who was then in New York. [] attempted to put the pressure on [] for this money which necessitated [] calling RUSSO in New York, at which time he received orders from RUSSO to wait until he, RUSSO, returned to Miami, at which time [] would pay him the $3,600.

JERRY indicated he was going to Florida in a few days and would talk to [] about this transaction.

JERRY said that the kid in Milford, probably [] with the numbers business, owed $4,000 of the original $5,000 he borrowed. He pays JERRY $900 or $1,000 a month in lay-off bets on numbers, plus $50 a week interest. The Milford individual asked JERRY if he could turn the numbers business over to [] of Milford, Mass. and have [] assume the $4,000 debt.

JERRY did not appear to go along with this suggestion, at which time the individual from Milford asked JERRY if he could give him $2,000 in cash and lay off all numbers to ANGIULO on a " 50% makeup.

When an additional $2,000 was made, he then would take over the numbers business on a straight 50% commission.

This individual derives 90% of his numbers business from a factory and where his brother is a Foreman, it appeared that the brother is the individual who collects all the bets in this factory, location unknown.

An ITAR case is being opened on [redacted].

This individual from Milford also asked JERRY if it was alright to go after a guy by the name of [redacted], a big bettor from Manchester, N. H. At the present time [redacted] is betting $20 on a horse, but they believe if they increase his bet to $200 or $300 on a horse, they will be able to beat him for $4,000 or $5,000. The individual from Milford was not taking the bets but indicated the other fellow, not identified, was doing same.

JERRY stated that [redacted] who apparently indicated he had made a loan to the original owners of Walsh's Cafe, Boston, Mass., which is now owned by ANGIULO, broke up the entire deal. It appeared that JERRY had some buyers lined up but [redacted] stepped in and requested the buyers to pay off the original loan. During the conversation JERRY said that [redacted] of the Boston Licensing Board, Boston, Mass., stood up 100%. He came to him after hearing and told him that he knew what MODICO (JOSEPH ANSELMO) was up to concerning this sale and that he, [redacted], knew that [redacted] did not lend any money to the corporation. PATRIARCA told JERRY to tell MODICO that he, JERRY, was to settle the whole thing.

PATRIARCA then asked JERRY that when he was in Florida, to attempt to locate a [redacted] who borrowed a 1961 Eldorado Cadillac from BOB CADILLAC (from New Haven. CADILLAC, who is "a legitimate guy" wants his car returned but does not want to put in a "beef" to the cops to locate the Cadillac. PATRIARCA said that CADILLAC is a friend of MELUCCI and that [redacted], originally from Lowell, Mass. and presently in Miami, Fla., was a friend of [redacted] s.

JERRY said that he would contact [redacted] in Miami and attempt to locate the car.

JERRY stated that the word was out that the Massachusetts State Police were going to raid Chelsea the previous Saturday. He, JERRY, pulled out everything from Chelsea but indicated he did not have much there. He stated that [redacted] (LNU) knew about the raid but did not call until 1:00 p.m. He stated that SAM GRANITO, who has an operation in Chelsea, did not know of the impending raid by the Massachusetts State Police and, as a result, his associate, [redacted], was arrested. GRANITO was critical of ANGIULO in that ANGIULO did not tip him off on the raid. ANGIULO stated that GRANITO probably thought that he received the word from the same guy (apparently referring to [redacted] of the Uniform Branch of the Massachusetts State Police). ANGIULO pointed out to PATRIARCA that he has not seen [redacted] for over six months.

ANGIULO also told PATRIARCA that there are indications that GRANITO was running a crap game in Saugus, Mass., as he heard that [redacted] had lost $5,000 at the game. PATRIARCA immediately wanted to know how long the game was going, who was operating same, and all the details concerning it.

PATRIARCA pointed out that GRANITO was down to see him about a month ago and did not mention anything about the game.

ANGIULO explained that he checked this game and found it had only been in operation for about two weeks and, further, that [redacted] probably did not lose the sum of $5,000. GRANITO had checked with other players in the game and found out there was not that kind of money in the game.

PETER LIMONE, who accompanied ANGIULO, told RAYMOND that he settled that thing in Worcester for him. It appeared that there was a past posting in which CECIL (probably [redacted]) was involved with PINKY PANARELLI and CARLO [redacted] in addition to [redacted] an [redacted]. The informant was not clear but it appeared that LIMONE settled the "beef."

ANGIULO then gave PATRIARCA $999, saying that he got $453 from Milford, $346 from Worcester, plus $200 in craps.

JERRY then was very critical of MICKEY NAPOLITANO from Maine, stating that if he ever mentions that $100,000 "I'll break his back." The informant did not know the significance of this remark.

ANGIULO then stated that he had read the article in the Boston newspaper by [redacted] of IRS, Boston, Mass. He also read that [redacted] one of the bosses of IRS in Boston, had cleared [redacted] ANGIULO thought that it was a trap for [redacted] by [redacted] as [redacted] is an appointee of ROBERT KENNEDY's and he is certain that KENNEDY will not stop the investigation on [redacted]

Concerning the raids in Chelsea, Mass. recently, ANGIULO said that they got one of [redacted] joints in Chelsea. He said that he heard another raid is contemplated in the near future in the North End section of Boston. He told RAYMOND that the crap game now has a bank of $22,600 and that they are going to take $400 a piece from the game until such time as the bank reaches $15,000.

JERRY stated that within the next two or three weeks he is going to release his brothers from the business. He pointed out that the numbers business is getting very tough. He said that he had about $30,000 in the numbers business and the only way to operate at the present time is to take the bets between 1:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. He pointed out it is very difficult to lay off numbers. He said that if you get $250 on a number you cannot hold it very well, as if you get "hit," it will cost you $80,000 or $90,000. At the same time you cannot lay off even to DOC because if he gets hit you owe him a makeup of $73,000. He said that Worcester got hit real hard ~~on the summer~~ 1910 during the recent past. During this conversation JERRY mentioned to PATRIARCA, "Take your office now with J. L." The rest of the conversation was inaudible.

JERRY asked permission of RAYMOND to take over the numbers business of the Revere Jews, as it is very lucrative. He said that [] (LNU) and [] have the business at the present time. RAYMOND told him to go ahead and take it over.

On 5/10/63 UNMAN asked PATRIARCA if he was interested in investing $2,500 in a new 100-unit motel. PATRIARCA told him that he was not interested at this time.

HENRY CAMELEO advised that everyone is mad at [], as he owes over $50,000, and J. L. (JOSEPH LOMBARDO) has called him in on this borrowing.

IN VIEW OF PATRIARCA'S PAST INVOLVEMENT IN CRIMES OF VIOLENCE, HE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE INFORMANT'S POSITION NECESSITATES THAT EVERY EFFORT BE EXERCISED TO MAINTAIN HIS SECURITY.

Miami, will attempt to identify "[]" as mentioned above.

ReBS airtel, 5/23/63.

On 5/22/63, BS 837-C* advised that TEDDY FUCCILLO gave $400 to PATRIARCA. FUCCILLO stated that he was looking at molds which cost $7,000 each for the business but would not mention the type of mold. He further stated that Hub Electric Company is merging with Certified Pharmacists. PATRIARCA apparently knew that the merger was in process as he mentioned that he had to take some cash down with some stock.

FUCCILLO stated that they needed more cash in the Eastern Hotel Supply Company. [redacted] and [redacted] refused to put any additional money in this business. FUCCILLO mentioned that he had made contact with a 24-year old Jewish millionaire, a graduate of Colby College, Maine, who was willing to put $50,000 in the business. FUCCILLO states that when he puts this sum in he will reimburse PATRIARCA the amount he has invested in same and also repay [redacted] and MC DONALD and himself for the money they have invested. FUCCILLO stated that the millionaire is going to marry a 32-year old barmaid in Maine, and that his family is opposed to this. FUCCILLO states that he has conned the barmaid into believing that it would be better for her to reside in Maine away from the fellow's family in New York. He believes that he can control this millionaire if he remains in Maine.

FUCCILLO also brought an individual to PATRIARCA who told PATRIARCA that he can show the sum of $100,000 as being available to him in cash from the early 1950's. PATRIARCA told him that he had to show the sum of $20,000 in the year of 1956 for a friend of his not mentioned, who is under investigation by IRS. This individual stated that he would do anything PATRIARCA wanted him to do in relation to a paper loan but he thought that PATRIARCA had a business venture that he could invest his $100,000 in. PATRIARCA told him that at this time he had no possible business venture in which he could invest but he would keep him in mind. This individual was in the restaurant business. Further identification was not known to the informant.

RAYMOND mentioned to PUCCILLO that the Irish Kid from Pawtucket had $3,500 in old bills that he wanted to get rid of for $750. RAYMOND thought that the bills were hot. The Irish Kid was described as owning the Gaslight in Pawtucket, Rhode Island. This is believed to be Frank Murray.

HENRY TAMALEO told PATRIARCA that the guy in Maine had not furnished the list of jewelry to GERRY ANGIULO as yet. The Jews in New York are anxious to purchase this jewelry but HENRY will not sell until he has obtained the list.

On 5/27/63, the informant advised that DAVID RICCI discussed with RAYMOND the IRS investigation concerning the woman who accompanied HELEN PATRIARCA to Arizona some time ago. This woman was interviewed by IRS and stated that HELEN PATRIARCA did not give her any aid and that she lived on the little amounts sent to her by her sisters and also very small sums furnished her occasionally by Mrs. PATRIARCA. RAYMOND instructed RICCI and his brother DANA to have the sisters contacted to make sure they furnished the same story to IRS investigators concerning payments to their other sister while in Arizona.

RAYMOND discussed this with [redacted] the possibility of purchasing the Ace Dumping Company in which PATRIARCA owns.

Unman told RAYMOND that he is trying to collect the sum of $5,000 from a Jewish fellow in Florida--identity unknown. The Jewish fellow told Unman to contact [redacted] (probably [redacted]) and obtain the $5,000 from [redacted] as he, [redacted], owes the Jewish fellow that amount. Unman figures that the Jewish fellow is doing business with [redacted] and requests RAYMOND's intercession to help him collect this money. RAYMOND told him to set up a meeting with [redacted] [redacted] and that he would settle the matter.

Another individual present, whose [redacted] was [redacted], whom he described as probably being the next Democratic Chairman, stated that he has ascertained that the Post Office is building post offices in Johnstown (probably Rhode Island) and another location not specified. He is attempting to find out what location the post office is desirous to build on and he then plans to purchase the land from the present owner and lease same to the Post Office on a long-term basis.

Access has been obtained to the books of the corporation at the office of [redacted] Worcester, Mass., and review thereof began on 5/15/63, with additional work being performed at his office at intervals of three to four days to the present time.

[redacted] the general ledger and the general journal of the corporation as well as his work papers which are voluminous at his office with all supporting records consisting of canceled checks, bank statements, invoices, etc., at the country club in Westboro, Mass. As yet, no contact has been made at the club to obtain access to supporting records there, but [redacted] states [redacted] will make these records available.

It was found that the corporation's general ledger was not set up by [redacted] until about April or May, 1962, at which time transactions from 1959 to that time were summarized in [redacted]'s work sheets and then journalized in total and then entered in the general ledger. From work done thus far it appears that as of 8/31/61, the date on which the SBA application was filed, fixed assets were shown in the application at $461,529.24, whereas copies of the corporation's State and Federal tax returns showed fixed assets at only $337,503.64 for a difference of approximately $124,000. It was found further that fixed assets were arbitrarily written up by an entry made under date of 6/30/62, in the amount of $167,908.76, and the entry was made by [redacted] in accordance with instructions received from [redacted]. It is not clear from the records as to the date that the write up was to be effective, but this will be further explored during interview with [redacted].

NOT RECORDED

ORIGINAL FILED IN 46-47415-8

The credit side of the fixed asset write up was used in part to create a liability of the corporation to the four principals and supposedly a second mortgage running to these four principals in the total amount of $193,306.64 has been issued and recorded. Thus it would appear that based on the accounting investigation to date that no consideration for $167,903.76 of the total of the second mortgage of $193,306.64 was ever received. [redacted] stated that [redacted], the attorney, should be contacted for all details concerning the arbitrary write up of fixed assets as he, [redacted] has no further information other than his instructions from [redacted] to do so.

The accounting investigation at this point is being directed in an attempt to establish a false statement violation with respect to this write up of fixed assets and issuance of the second mortgage for which there appears to be no consideration at least in part.

The fact that there is no consideration for the second mortgage and the fact that it may be a fictitious loan would seem to be borne out by ANGIULO's conversation with PATRIARCA as set forth on page 3 of reairtel in which GERRY ANGIULO claimed that [redacted] "dreamed up a figure of $193,000 made up of second mortgages from the officers of the corporation".

From investigation to date it appears this case offers an excellent opportunity to harass ANGIULO in his operation of the country club through periodic appearances at [redacted] office to review the records and also through requests for records at the club itself in Westboro.

In this connection on page 4 of reairtel it is set forth that GERRY ANGIULO in talking to PATRIARCA said he did not "want the Feds reviewing these books at the Indian Meadow Country Club and observed fellows like CHAMP (SANTELLO) NICK (INU), possibly CAMMEROTA of Springfield, Mass., and guys like that coming into the club".

The accounting investigation at [redacted]'s office has been conducted at intervals of three to five days with the thought in mind that something of interest to this investigation would come from either of the Boston sources, BS 837-C* or BS 856-C*. The effectiveness of this approach has been borne out by information in reairtel, and it has given us an area of inquiry which should be productive insofar as developing a false-statement violation as well as directing the course of the investigation against ANGIULO and PATRIARCA which is the primary purpose of this case.

It would appear that there is no indication that ANGIULO was involved in any way in the country club at the time the SBA application was made, namely, 8/31/61, as the earliest conversations involving the club did not occur until 8/62. However, we do know from the source, BS 837-C*, that ANGIULO has knowledge of the so-called fraudulent statement submitted to the SBA.

[redacted], assigned to the Organized Crime Section, was in Boston on 5/23/63, and he, as well as USA N. ARTHUR GARRITY, JR., at Boston, Mass., was informed of the current developments in this case and the fact that the books and records of the corporation were made available voluntarily and that the accounting work necessary in this case has been initiated.

They both expressed interest insofar as the involvement of ANGIULO with the club is concerned.

A report reflecting preliminary contact with [redacted], and [redacted] as well as additional information in the files of the SBA is being prepared and will be forwarded to reach the Bureau by 5/30/63.

Re Boston airtel dated May 16, 1963.

On 5/16/63, BS 837-C* advised that HENRY TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that an unknown individual had propositioned him to invest some money in a motel for truck drivers at an unknown location. PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that he was not interested in investing in same.

TAMELEO also stated that they (not identified) had stolen over $500,000 of gold and silver out of Attleboro, Massachusetts over a long period of time and recently an individual named [] (INU) was grabbed by the Feds in possession of $100,000 of this gold and silver. TAMELEO surmised that [] was fingered by the individual whom the thieves gave the stuff to and who, in turn, sold it to []. No other names were mentioned by TAMELEO.

TAMELEO also stated that [] (LNU) was trying to sell some automobile radios for a guy in Boston, not identified. [] who is acquainted with FRANK GAGLIARDI of Brooklyn, New York, had indicated that TAMELEO that he wanted to buy the radios and that GAGLIARDI would OK the deal. TAMELEO found out that there are 2,000 radios ~~that~~ were taken about a year ago and the thieves were stuck with them inasmuch as they were not able to sell them in the New England area because of the heat generated by law enforcement officials. TAMELEO said that the asking price was $13,000 although he thought he could get same for $10,000.

He asked [] to have GAGLIARDI call him to OK the payment and that he, [], would have to pick up the radios in Boston for transfer to New York. TAMELEO stated that they would fit Fords, Chevrolets, Dodges, etc. According to TAMELEO, [] hangs out at the Mohegan (probably diner).

These radios probably are the radios stolen in case entitled, "UNSUB, Theft of Trailer Containing Car Radios Antennas, and Parts, Property of the Automatic Radio Mfg. Co., Boston, Mass., 3/12/62, TFIS" (Bufile 15-47007, Boston File 15-7492).

TAMELEO indicated to: PATRIARCA that when FRANKIE "The Wop" GAGLIARDI OK'd the deal, he would attempt to make further arrangements for the purchase of same.

On 5/17/63, GERRY ANGIULO told RAYMOND that a meat company put a keeper in Indian Meadow Country Club because of a meat bill owed by the club in the amount of $3,200. ANGIULO called [] and was very critical of him for allowing this situation to occur. ANGIULO then made arrangements with [] a bondsman, to issue a bond covering the debt and thereafter the keeper was removed from the premises of Indian Meadow Country Club.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that the Feds walked into the Indian Meadow Country Club and demanded the books of an alleged fraudulent application in obtaining an S.B.A. mortgage. ANGIULO checked with attorneys and found out that because of this mortgage, Agents can go in and examine the books at any time.

ANGIULO called [redacted] and ascertained from him that the books are OK. GERRY ANGIULO surmised that when the original owners of the Indian Meadow Country Club submitted the application for the S.B.A. loan, they had $60,000 in capital stock which consisted of $15,000 apiece from the four original investors, namely, [redacted] Attorney: [redacted] and [redacted] s stock was held in trusteeship by [redacted].

At this point, [redacted] (LNU) entered and GERRY said that he was sending [redacted] to Worcester with a summary of figures for what he desires. This probably pertained to the figures of Indian Meadow Country Club, but there was no discussion of actual figures by ANGIULO.

GERRY stated that [redacted] instead of placing the value of the land at $200,000 in the application for the mortgage, dreamed up a figure of $193,000 made up of second mortgages from the officers of the corporation. In other words, according to GERRY, it was a fictitious loan. He pointed out that even though they got away with it, they would still have a capital gains problem.

He said that according to the books he saw, they put down the land as valued at $25,000. He mentioned that he now had control of 50% of this "besides what you (RAYMOND) have," and this amounts to $97,500 and "that's a capital gain".

GERRY pointed out that when the officers of the corporation changed, the bank holding the mortgage called the Feds and told them and this necessitated the bank obtaining life insurance policies on the new officers of the corporation. He said that he had to get a $100,000 policy on "The Jew", [redacted] who is fronting for ANGIULO in this operation.

GERRY said that he called [redacted] and instructed him not to mention to the Feds the names of the new officers. He pointed out that [redacted] gives [redacted] only the figures for the joint on a weekly basis. He instructed [redacted] to take the corporate books from [redacted] and give them to Attorney [redacted] who is representing ANGIULO in Worcester. This will leave [redacted] with only the figures that [] gives him on a weekly basis. ANGIULO conjectured that the Feds will contact [] and ask for the books. He will refer them to [] and []. He then instructed [] to take all the books out of the Indian Meadow Country Club, whether, they are legitimate or illegitimate because he did not want the Feds reviewing these books at the Indian Meadow Country Club and observed fellows like [] (LNU), possibly CAMMEROTA of Springfield, Mass. and guys like that coming into the club.

There was mentioned [] of the books of the corporation that [] girl keeps for []. However, the significance was not obtained by the informant.

ANGIULO asked [] about the trustee stock owned by [] that was held by [] as he wanted [] to endorse same and turn it over to []. [] indicated that he hadn't decided what to do with it, but indicated to GERRY that [] still had the stock in his possession. GERRY, upon checking with [], found out that [] has had this stock in his possession for a considerable length of time.

ANGIULO became enraged at [] and ordered him to turn the stock over to [] after endorsing same. He indicated that [] did not have any money of his own in the club.

[] told ANGIULO that [] told the Feds that ANGIULO had purchased an interest in the corporation. He instructed [] to find out exactly what [] had told the Feds, but pointed out to RAYMOND that he did not care whether the Feds knew this as he had $43,000 on paper. ANGIULO said that he gave [] his money on paper and he put $30,000 ---- (rest inaudible).

He said that he gave the doctor $20,000 down and owes him $36,000. GERRY then went out with [] to discuss the summary which he was giving him on paper.

During the time GERRY was gone, PETER LIMONE discussed with RAYMOND an individual named [] (PH) who was a [] Massachusetts and who used to attend the Barboot games in Woburn, Mass.

It appeared that [] owes LIMONE a large sum of money and that [] was ordered to bring [] before ANGIULO and LIMONE in an effort to obtain the money owed them.

They also discussed an individual who was beaten up by ANGIULO and his group for failing to pay a loan shark debt. The debt amounted to $5,500. This individual was a friend of [], the Boston sports bookmaker. After he was beaten up, the victim's father came to ANGIULO in an attempt to ascertain the reason for the beating. In addition to the $5,500 owed by this individual, there was a sum of $16,000 that he had previously owed to PATRIARCA's former lieutenant, TONY SANTANIELLO (deceased). At this time, the victim was not supposed to be able to obtain any more loan shark money, however, he did obtain the sum of $5,500 without ANGIULO's knowledge.

RAYMOND told GERRY that the kid, [], was brought to his office by HENRY TAMELEO concerning his taking over of an unknown joint. PATRIARCA indicated that TAMELEO should not have brought this individual down, but it should have been handled in Boston as it was not important. He sent [] back to JOSEPH LOMBARDI in Boston who was to take care of the situation.

When discussing ELLIOT PRICE, RAYMOND said that he has to find out what JOHNNY WILLIAMS has to do with []. He indicated that at one time, he, PATRIARCA, had 50% of [] that was going back to TONY SANTANIELLO's days. It should be noted that SANTANIELLO died on 9/30/60.

When discussing this situation, GERRY said "This has become a lion among the Jews". The significance of this was not known to the informant.

GERRY said that he tried to get [] "in the box" but [] was too shrewd.

GERRY said that [] a [] assigned to the Office of District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE, Suffolk County, visited him the night previous, after five months. [] told ANGIULO that the Feds were talking to [] and they reached the conclusion that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was the boss and "it used to exist that JOSEPH LOMBARDI was boss downtown Boston, TONY SANTANIELLO boss uptown Boston, and MIKE ROCCO was the intermediary."

[] further stated that LARRY BAIONE killed JOHN "FATS" BUCCELLI, but the police could never prove it. [] stated that he heard LARRY BAIONE was getting out soon. At this point RAYMOND indicated that he does not think either BAIONE or [] is getting out of prison.

[] further told him that PETER LIMONE, according to [] and the Feds, has taken over all of BAIONE's stuff. When GERRY asked him what he meant, he said the Sunday games and all that. He further stated that when BAIONE comes out of the can, there's going to be trouble between LIMONE and BAIONE.

[] was very critical of BAIONE, and ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he told [] off for being critical of BAIONE.

[] further told him that [] who is a detective assigned to District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE's office, was in the hospital with bleeding ulcers and that another individual, name not mentioned, is taking his place.

[] requested money for this individual so that he, [], could obtain some confidential information from him for ANGIULO.

It should be noted that previous information has indicated that [] has furnished confidential information to ANGIULO and has kept the ANGIULOS apprised of SCANLON's activities. SCANLON is considered above reproach.

ANGIULO stated that he only believes about half of what [] says. He also pointed out that he gave [] $4,000 sometime ago so that he, [] could open up a nursing home (it is known to this office that [] has some interest in at least one nursing home.)

ANGIULO instructed [] to find out more about the information in the District Attorney's possession concerning crap games and general gambling and also issued orders to him that he find out who is being considered for indictment by the Federal Grand Jury.

ANGIULO complained that JOE BURNS (ANSEIMO) has not paid his $25 a month since March, 1963 and that he has not been around. RAYMOND instructed that he, GERRY, make a point to collect this fee. This fee is used to defray personal expenses such as medical, legal fees, etc. for members of the group.

ANGIULO stated that two kids, not identified, were propositioned by [] ([]) from Maine to go on a $200,000 cash score. One of the kids is believed to be [] or [] (PH). [] instructed the kids not to tell anybody in Boston the facts concerning this score which is to take place in the near future. However, they did come to ANGIULO and relate the facts to him. This concerned a robbery of a man approximately 80 years old who has $200,000 in cash in the house and which one of the individuals, probably [], has actually observed. There was also mention of an island, but the informant was unable to determine whether the individual actually lived on an island.

ANGIULO instructed the kids to go up there and have one of them stay at a hotel which according to RAYMOND, "must be opened by now".

RAYMOND also told GERRY to warn the kids of a possible setup because he couldn't understand how a man 80 years old would have $200,000 in cash laying around. GERRY said the kids "are nothing" in stature. GERRY instructed them to split the money up with [] immediately after the robbery and take the back roads down to Boston. There was an indication that []'s son might also be involved in this robbery.

GERRY then claims that [] has not furnished any of the proceeds of the shylocking business to his partners, AMATO SANTANIELLO and [], and that both AMATO and [] were complaining to GERRY. It appears that [] has 50% of the operation, part of which goes to LARRY BAIONE and AMATO and [] have 25 %. The original money to set up this shylocking business consisted of $25,000 borrowed from ABE SARKIS and $10,000 from ANGIULO.

PATRIARCA instructed ANGIULO to bring [] and AMATO down to him so that he could straighten it out.

GERRY stated that he saw [] in Miami recently, but that he was unable to obtain the money owed to them from []. [] indicated that he might go to the Bahamas to run a gambling operation for a New York group.

ANGIULO complained about [] in that he was building a swimming pool and spending over $15,000 on his property in Florida.

RAYMOND commented that he can't understand ERRA because he is spending so much money with IRS following his activities very closely.

ANGIULO stated that he might go to Florida in the middle of June and asked permission from PATRIARCA to "put it on" [] for the money. RAYMOND gave his permission.

GERRY said that he talked to [] about [] and asked [] why all the commotion over a relatively small debt of $1,500. [] explained that he wanted to show his authority in collecting this debt for another group. ANGIULO couldn't understand this.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to have [] (LNU) make an appointment for him with [] a noted Boston []. The reason for this was not known to the informant.

GERRY stated that the [] game has again started in Lawrence, Massachusetts and he asked permission of RAY to take over the game. RAYMOND gave his permission. He said that the game on Saturday night is good for $8,000 or $9,000.

ANGIULO and PATRIARCA discussed the Commission for approximately 14 minutes.

ANGIULO stated that AMATO SANTANIELLO went to the crap game, probably in New York, which [] (LNU) was probably running. [] belongs to []'s family. AMATO borrowed $8,000 which he lost and the New York group is pressing him for the money. ANGIULO was very critical of AMATO for losing this amount and would not loan him the $8,000 to repay the New York group. ANGIULO told him to "get a pistol and go out and steal it".

Information concerning [], Boston PD, assigned to the District Attorney's Office, Suffolk County, will be furnished to District Attorney GARRETT BERNER and Boston Police Commissioner EDMUND L. MC NAMARA in approximately one month in order to protect the source of the information.

Re: Boston airtel to the Bureau dated 6/4/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 6/3/63 that [redacted] Providence, is complaining to PATRIARCA that his booking business is going bad as he has experienced a number of hits in the recent past. [redacted] brings [redacted] (LNU) to the office where [redacted] discusses his booking business with RAYMOND. [redacted] is paying an unknown individual $100.00 a week for taking care of the bets. RAYMOND, who apparently has a piece of this business, tells [redacted] that he is paying too much for this type of service, and suggests that [redacted] and he use the same individual and split the cost of $100.00 per week. It appeared to the informant that both agreed to this suggestion.

[redacted] stated that he has signed a contract with the bible distributors, but as yet has not obtained the contract for distribution.

RAYMOND tells [redacted] that the Providence Journal is attempting to obtain something on him so that he will be agreeable to dismiss the suit he has against the Journal for one million dollars.

PATRIARCA told him that the Hancock Race Track will be a good investment when they get the additional racing days. He said that the stock which was purchased from [] actually belonged to former Governor FURCOLO's father, and that those individuals who have possession of the stock now will probably have to return same inasmuch as he believes FURCOLO will win the suit to recover the stock.

He told BAREORIAN that he wants to see SALVATORE RIZZO, but has not as yet made arrangements for the meet. RIZZO is President and Managing Director of the Hancock Race Track, Hancock, Massachusetts. When PATRIARCA mentioned this, he said that the deal has been made with TOMMY BROWN. The informant was of the opinion that BROWN might be interested in purchasing stock in the Hancock Race Track.

[] aka. [], was called in by PATRIARCA concerning his outstanding debts, and his failure to repay same. [] explained that he owes $17,000, some of which is owed to PATRIARCA. He pointed out to PATRIARCA that he has not been able to make any money during the recent past but that he did pay the $5,000 owed to JOE LOMBARDO. PATRIARCA asked him whether or not he was able to raise any money on his house, which PATRIARCA heard was worth $50,000. CHONG explained that the house is in his mother-in-law's name, and that he is going to New York to have her sign some papers so that he will be able to get some money on the house. He explained that he has already borrowed $10,000 from his mother-in-law, and he does not know whether he will be able to obtain more money on the house.

He stated that JOE LOMBARDO had called him in and asked for the $5,000 owed by the end of April 1963. [] made a score for $4,000 and on 4/17 or 18/63, he was able to pay this to LOMBARDO. JOE forced him to obtain the other thousand from a loan shark, for which he is paying two per cent a month. He borrowed the thousand dollars from [] (ph). This story appeared to satisfy PATRIARCA, and he instructed him to pay the rest of the money as soon as he is able to.

[] then told PATRIARCA that he is attempting to reopen his joint, which was closed some time ago by local authorities in Boston. [] has the okay from the "locals" to reopen, and has contacted []. He believes that [] is stalling him off as he has been saying that everything is all right with the law, but as yet he has not produced the license with which [] could operate this joint. He asked PATRIARCA to find out through a close associate of LANGONE whether he, LANGONE, is just stalling []. PATRIARCA told him that LANGONE was down for a donation when he was running for office, and an individual named either [] (PH) or [] (PH), knows LANGONE. PATRIARCA will send this individual to LANGONE to ascertain whether he is stalling []. LANGONE is a Massachusetts State Representative.

[] also stated that he has a business proposition with an individual not named who owns a machine shop. This individual desires to meet JIMMY HOFFA in the worst way. [] asked PATRIARCA to make the necessary arrangements for this meet as if they are able to get in on it, they will both make some money on it. Informant was of the opinion that this individual might deal in the sale of air-conditioners.

PATRIARCA told [] that he would make the necessary contacts and request that [] call him in three or four days. During the conversation, RAYMOND told [] that he put up $10,000 for the parole of LARRY BATONE and [], but that inquiry by the FBI ruined the whole setup.

On 6/4/63, informant advised that JOE KRIKORTIAN, aka. Joe Kirk, told PATRIARCA that [] (INU) and KIRK just returned from San Juan, Puerto Rico where they were interested in a hotel. The hotel is for sale for $2,600,000. [] is attempting to contact [] noted Boston [] to ascertain whether he, [], is interested in investing some money in this hotel. PATRIARCA indicated that he might invest some money in this venture, but desired all details before making his decision.

KIRK stated that he contacted [] and JUDGE BARRY the previous evening concerning the Hancock Race Track, and that he was told the case the state has on KIRK is weak. KIRK stated that if they obtain the 42 days of additional racing dates, it would be advantageous to PATRIARCA to hold his investment in this track.

When talking concerning the Puerto Rican Hotel, KIRK stated he met [redacted] (Revere, Mass.) at a location unknown. He described [redacted] as being very close to [redacted] the [redacted] (of Revere), and described [redacted] as a fix man.

He also stated that House Speaker JOHN THOMPSON, Massachusetts, stated in the past that he was against the 42 days of additional racing at Hancock. He was told, however, that THOMPSON was on their side and that he just made the statement to the papers to "put on a show".

HENRY TAMELEO advised that he called PETER LIMONE regarding the purchase of a jade. He also called [redacted] (of Maine) last Saturday and warned him to be cautious in any dealings with the Chinaman, who was to look at the jade for possible purchase. He stated that this is the type of setup the "Feds are now using to trap us". He later heard that they wanted to bring an interpreter with the Chinaman when they looked at the jade. He called LIMONE and said that it would be impossible to allow an interpreter to accompany the Chinaman.

LIMONE subsequently called off the meet with the Chinaman. HENRY TAMELEO then stated that he would get a hold of his man in Boston to see if he wanted to take a look at it, and if he did, he would make arrangements for the antique dealer to "come in here". PATRIARCA cautioned TAMELEO to be real sure in this setup.

TAMELEO also stated that he had contacted [redacted] who took him through his, [redacted]'s factory. [redacted] indicated that he would sell the stuff to the fellow that TAMELEO knows and that both PATRIARCA and TAMELEO will make five per cent of the total sales. TAMELEO will bring this individual right to the factory to make his purchase.

It should be noted that the Massachusetts Attorney General's Office had in their possession a warrant for JOE KIRK for larceny of over $100.00 in connection with the Hancock Race Track. They had conducted investigation for several weeks in an effort to locate KIRK with negative results.

Agents of the Boston Office surveilled KIRK after he left PATRIARCA. The Attorney General's Office was notified, and subsequently the arrest of KIRK was made by a Massachusetts State Policeman assigned to the Attorney General's Office at a location where the agents had surveilled KIRK.

On 6/5/63, KIRK told PATRIARCA that he had been arrested the day previous, but did not suspect in any way that the FBI was implicated in his arrest.

PATRIARCA spoke to several unmen concerning bookmaking and loan shark activities.

An unidentified individual called a party on the phone and then turned the phone over to PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA commenced the conversation by saying, [REDACTED] and he stated that he would try to get that fellow over there and that he, PATRIARCA, would arrange to have him moved. The significance of this was not known to the informant, but PATRIARCA did also address the individual as "[REDACTED]". He also told the individual to whom he was talking that he thought he could do it again, and wished him luck. The individual to whom PATRIARCA was talking could be [REDACTED]

On 5/29/63, THEODORE FUCILLO requested PATRIARCA to obtain from GENNARO J. ANGIULO a ring similar to the one he furnished RAYMOND. FUCILLO wanted this for TOM DI SILVA of Somerville, Mass. FUCILLO gave RAYMOND a sum of money believed to be $325. FUCILLO stated he plans to open a private club in Maine in the near future, having obtained a charter for this club from somebody not mentioned. He intends to have 10 or 15 charter members and operate a crap game there.

On 5/31/63, BS 837-C* advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO told RAYMOND that "SKYBALL" (FRANK SCIBELLI of Springfield, Mass.) sent $300 to RAYMOND through ANGIULO. JERRY said that SKYBALL still owes him $2,500 from the original $5,000 that he, SKYBALL, borrowed some time ago.

ANGIULO has asked SKYBALL for this money. SKYBALL has told him that the other $2,500 went to SAM CUFARI and that SAM is the one who owed this money to JERRY.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to see CUFARI and find out who owes it and collect same.

HENRY TAMELEO then entered the room and conversed with ANGIULO concerning an apparent swindle of an unknown person.

TAMELEO has a lot of fake diamonds which appear real. He has lined up, through another individual, a person who is a buyer for Zayre's Department Store, location unknown. This individual is a Jewish person and is interested in obtaining $40,00 worth of jewelry for $30,000 in cash. TAMELEO's contact has been "wining and dining" this individual in an effort to line him up for the swindle. TAMELEO's contact, whose name could be [redacted], has brought the Jew to New York where he has wine and dined him.

TAMELEO's contact's [redacted] location unknown, and his [redacted] the Aetna Finance Co., location unknown. The jewelry consists of cuff links, necklaces and earrings.

TAMELEO stated that they are still trying to line this Jew up to buy this merchandise, but, as yet, they have not succeeded.

After TAMMICO left, ANGIULO told PATRIARCA, in the presence of his chauffeur PETER LIMONE, that [redacted]

MASS [redacted] had contacted ANGIULO's brother NICK. This is the first time that ANGIULO has heard from [redacted] for six months and he felt that [redacted] is in need of money.

b7D

[redacted] told NICK that if [redacted]

give them only information concerning politicians and not of criminal characters.

[redacted] told NICK that he knew the ANGIULOS were interested in Revere, Mass. only and if something happened down there that he, [redacted], would get a hold of either NICK or JERRY. He stated that when he desires to see JERRY he will call NICK and tell him that "he will see that fellow" at the time specified.

JERRY ANGIULO said that because of this they should have no more worries about the crap game. He said that he plans to pay [redacted] $200 each month, retroactive to 12/62, which was the month in which ANGIULO last contacted [redacted]. He was of the opinion that [redacted] must be short and if he gave him this sum of money they would be able to obtain more information from [redacted].

[redacted] told NICK he contemplates cultivating the friendship of "a Fed" and, in that way, he will know what "the Feds" are up to. In this way he can relay the information he obtained from "the Feds" to the ANGIULOS, which information he considers to be very valuable.

JERRY ANGIULO pointed out that six or seven days after June 1st he will meet him in [redacted]'s apartment in Newton, Mass. He said that [redacted] is a cute s.o.b. and that he would not meet anyone except JERRY.

JERRY then stated that KELLY (possibly Major KELLY of the Massachusetts State Police - Retired) "is okay," but we might as well forget him as he just retired.

JERRY states that he will put it on [redacted] to operate a crap game in Chelsea, Mass. every Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. He will, in turn, obtain $500 a month from the Chelsea group and furnish same to [redacted]. He also contemplates asking [redacted] to promote [redacted], who is a [redacted] of [redacted] a numbers and horses agent for JERRY ANGIULO in Boston. MASS.

MAS [redacted] told ANGIULO that he "would guarantee" his brother if JERRY could have him promoted to a better spot. JERRY is thus going to ask [redacted] to put [redacted] under [redacted] who is [redacted] of the Intelligence Unit of the Massachusetts State Police. In this way JERRY feels they would have a close contact with [redacted]'s Squad and be able to obtain all raiding information prior to the time action is taken on it.

During the conversation it appeared that [redacted] promoted [redacted] at the request of JERRY ANGIULO.

At this time they thought that [redacted] would get a desk job and thus not be in a position to hurt the gambling element. However, after obtaining the desk job he obtained the [redacted] and thus is very active in raiding various gambling establishments in the Massachusetts area. MASS.

AMATO SANTANTIELLO borrowed $2,000 from JERRY ANGIULO to pay up the dice game debt to the individuals in New York. He gave the $2,000 to TOMMY RYAN in New York, but borrowed $1,000 of this back from RYAN to enter the crap game. He lost the $1,000. ANGIULO and PATRIARCA were very critical of AMATO and called him a "degenerate gambler."

ANGIULO told SKYBALL to tell the New York crew to not allow AMATO in the crap game until he has paid his debt and, further, to tell them that he is with the people in Boston but they have shut him off financially because he is a "degenerate."

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to contact [redacted] ^{MASS.} the ex-fighter, and have him get a hold of SAL RIZZO, the racetrack guy, and have RIZZO call FRIEDMAN as he, RAYMOND, wanted to see RIZZO at FRIEDMAN's office the following week. ANGIULO was very surprised that [redacted] should be contacted but RAYMOND said that [redacted] is a member of TOMMY BROWN's family. It was not clear to the informant whether [redacted] was also a member of any family.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that recently [redacted] PINKY PANARELLI, and [redacted] were at the Indian Meadow Country Club recently in the company of SAM CUFARI. PINKY and [redacted], who are not too friendly to each other, started to needle the [redacted] but the [redacted] took the "heat" and said things to PINKY and [redacted]. Some of the things said were of interest to CUFARI in that he had something to do with them. CUFARI became extremely mad at [redacted] but realized that [redacted] is [redacted]. ANGIULO was attempting to defend [redacted] in the event RAYMOND received "a beef."

PATRIARCA then explained to ANGIULO that in the late 20's TONY RAVELLO of Hartford, Conn. and [redacted] were on a score. During the score RAVELLO fell down, at which time [redacted] ran away with the escape car. RAVELLO was arrested. When he came out of the can he wanted to kill [redacted] but, because of intervention by NICKY CAMEROTA and SAM CUFARI, the killing never took place. Later, at a wedding, SKINNY JOHN from Philadelphia was in attendance. Sometime during the wedding KI KI KUYLER pushed SKINNY JOHN. [redacted] and JOHN teamed up against KUYLER and wanted to kill him. PATRIARCA was called in and settled the dispute. KUYLER is believed to be DI NICOLA of Connecticut. KUYLER at one time was making a lot of money in Worcester, but when RAYMOND came out of the can he sent him back to Hartford.

At this time SAM CUFARI, NICKY CAMEROTA and JIMMY COLLARO wanted to make PINKY and [redacted]. However, RAYMOND, who said that he organized Worcester, Mass. with the assistance of [redacted], told them that if they make PINKY and [redacted] without [redacted], he, himself, would make [redacted]. At this point ANGIULO asked whether SAM CUFARI brought them to New York to make them out of their family.

PATRIARCA told him that he made them and turned them over to the New York family. He also did this for SKYBALL when he was made.

JERRY pointed out that he remembered all those fellows being made at the Monte Christo (a restaurant in Worcester) but that he did not know what was going on at the time.

RAYMOND said that he made a half dozen guys out of New York and he also made MARIO (LNU).

DANNY's (possibly RAYMOND's) father contacted PATRIARCA and PATRIARCA asked if he knew [redacted] who was on the lam. SKINNY SAL was supposed to be with BONANNO. The father did not remember who SKINNY SAL was, and RAYMOND asked him to find out and contact either he or JERRY. [redacted]'s brother is named [redacted] and he just came up here. The father was to call his son, [redacted], after contacting the guy in New York. [redacted] was supposed to have been out on bail in an assault case and, during this time, the victim died. SAL then jumped bail and has been on the lam since.

JERRY stated he received a call from [redacted] who told him that "the Feds" were in looking for the books of the Indian Meadow Country Club. He told them that he did not have them, whereupon JERRY made arrangements to obtain the books from [redacted]. JERRY gave these books to [redacted] who is fronting for JERRY in the Indian Meadow Country Club. [redacted] stated that he is having trouble with his wife and has decided to put the shares of stock, which he owns, in his own name. JERRY told him to either do that or put them in the name of a person he can trust.

When JERRY obtained the books he sat down with his two attorneys to straighten the books out. He ascertained that there was approximately $12,000 missing from the original investment and he has told [] to check the figures and make sure that they come up with the proper figures to coincide with all other records. JERRY stated that the loan of $193,000 was strictly a phony and he believes that the original investors might be in trouble on it because of the SBA loan.

JERRY indicated that one of the investors took $7,500 under the table out of the Indian Meadow Country Club and that is the reason he is afraid of any investigation.

MASS. [] HENRY TAMELEO told ANGIULO and PATRIARCA that [] from Maine had a China man lined up who was interested in purchasing the jade. The China man wanted to see the jade to make sure of its value. [] was to call TAMELEO and arrange to meet him with PETER LIMONE to exhibit the jade to the China man. The jade is that apparently stolen from the case entitled "UNSUB; Theft of Jade and Ivory from Estate of BYRON D. MILLER, Falmouth Foreside, Me., 4/5/63, ITSP - ME," (Bosfile 87-7788). TAMELEO said that he would call LIMONE as soon as he heard from []. He asked LIMONE if the jade is still in the same place it was when he and LIMONE saw it. LIMONE replied in the affirmative.

(See "B")

Unless advised to the contrary by the Bureau, this surveillance will continue for an additional 90 days.

18. Recommendation by Assistant Director:

BS 837-C* continues to furnish excellent information concerning the operations of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, New England racketeer, as well as the activities of his associates and underlings in the New England area. This highly confidential source has furnished very valuable information concerning La Causa Nostra and has identified members of this criminal conspiracy. Recently BS 837-C* has furnished information which would strongly indicate that Patriarca is attempting to be a "peace maker" in the current Gallo-Profaci feud in New York City. Recommended that this very productive source be continued for an additional 90 days.

As per [signature] and [signature]
old [signature]

19. Recommendation by the Assistant to the Director:

(A) On May 17, 1963, the informant advised that GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO advised RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA that [redacted], a [redacted] assigned to the Office of District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE, Suffolk County, Massachusetts, visited him the night previous, after five months. [redacted] told ANGIULO that the Feds were talking to BYRNE and they reached the conclusion that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was the boss and "it used to exist that JOSEPH LOMBARDI was boss downtown Boston, TONY SANTANIELLO boss uptown Boston, and MIKE ROCCO was the intermediary."

[redacted] further stated that LARRY BAIONE killed JOHN "FATS" BUCCELLI, but the police could never prove it. [redacted] stated that he heard LARRY BAIONE was getting out of jail soon. At this point RAYMOND PATRIARCA indicated that he does not think either BAIONE or [redacted] is getting out of prison.

[redacted] further told him that PETER LIMONE, according to GARRY BYRNE and the Feds, has taken over all of BAIONE's stuff. When JERRY ANGIULO asked him what he meant, he said the Sunday games and all that. He further stated that when BAIONE comes out of the can, there's going to be trouble between LIMONE and BAIONE.

[redacted] was very critical of BAIONE, and ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he told [redacted] off for being critical of BAIONE.

[redacted] further told him that [redacted], who is a [redacted] assigned to District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE's Office, was in the hospital with bleeding ulcers and that another individual, name not mentioned, is taking his place.

[redacted] requested money for this individual so that he, [redacted] could obtain some confidential information from him for ANGIULO.

It should be noted that previous information has indicated that [redacted] has furnished confidential information to ANGIULO and has kept the ANGIULO brothers apprised of [redacted]'s activities. [redacted] is considered above reproach.

ANGIULO stated that he only believes about half of what [] says. He also pointed out that he gave [] $4,000 some time ago so that he, [], could open up a nursing home (it is known to this office that [] has some interest in at least one nursing home.)

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystalize information which may lead to prosecution.

Reference is made to your airtels dated 6-4-63 and 6-11-63.

BS 887-C* has recently furnished information which would indicate that [redacted] had been in contact with the Anguilo brothers and has indicated a desire to meet with Jerry Anguilo, top lieutenant of Patriarca. It is noted that [redacted] has indicated that he is attempting to cultivate the friendship of "a Fed" and, in this manner, will be in a position to know what Federal investigators are doing in connection with the Anguilo operation. You should insure that Agents of your office are appraised of this action contemplated by [redacted] in order that information developed by our investigations is not made available to the hoodlum element and to make certain that Agents who contact the Massachusetts State Police are aware of this situation.

You should closely follow the assignment of personnel to [redacted] since Anguilo has reported that [redacted], one of his numbers agents, has a [redacted] currently assigned as [redacted] and is endeavoring to have him assigned [redacted]

You should thoroughly review all the information pertaining to [redacted] and submit your recommendations to the Bureau as to whether or not this information concerning his [redacted] association with the Anguilo operation should be brought to the attention of responsible state officials at this time.

Re Boston airtel 6-4-63.

Referenced airtel includes information regarding an individual, identified only as "Skinny Sal," who appears to be in the Boston area as a fugitive in an assault case in which the victim later died. It would also appear from discussion concerning this matter that the assault case in question may well be in New York.

New York should explore the possibility that this individual may be identical with Salvatore Celebrino, also known as, "Skinny Sal," a "caporegime" in the Vito Genovese "family," or any other individual known to your office who may be known as "Skinny Sal," and who may logically be in touch with the Patriarca group. Boston and the Bureau should be advised of your efforts in attempting to identify this individual, both for our interests in contacts between the Patriarca "family" and New York "families" and in view of the UFAP potential.

Rebosaairtel to Bureau, 6/6/63.

On 6/6/63, BS 837-C* advised that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN (aka KIRK) discussed with PATRIARCA the stock transactions of the Hancock Race Track, Hancock, Mass. No pertinent information was developed by the informant concerning the Hancock Race Track.

KIRK at one time stated that he was going to give [redacted] a box of cigars for not looking for him when the warrant for KIRK's arrest was issued.

On 6/7/63, PATRIARCA asked [redacted] to obtain some champagne for his, RAYMOND's, [redacted] s wedding on 6/28/63.

[redacted] (LNU) complained to PATRIARCA about [redacted], an Attorney from Providence, R. I. [redacted] stated that [redacted] is scared and was not handling the case correctly. Informant had no information as to facts of this case.

[] (LNU) told RAYMOND that they can obtain the machines for $90,000 and bring them up one at a time and set them up. [] (LNU) would like to get the machines running in 30 to 90 days. It appeared that the machines are in an estate and there is a court order which will allow [] (LNU) to purchase these machines. The informant was unable to ascertain any further information concerning this.

JERRY ANGIULO told RAYMOND that the meet with CHAMP (SANFELLO), [] and SAM CUFARI was all set up for the same day as last week, but did not mention the day. JERRY stated that he had called CUFARI at CUFARI's girl friend's house and told him that the meet was off. ANGIULO stated that CUFARI does not stay around Springfield any more, with the exception of staying at his girl friend's house. He spends the remainder of his time at the Hearthstone Restaurant in Hartford, Conn. It appeared that a meet had been set up between these individuals to take place probably in the Worcester or Springfield area. However, [] or [] (both phonetic), who is friendly with "a Fed," asked NICK ANGIULO whether his brother (JERRY ANGIULO) was going on the trip. JERRY ascertained that [] was acquainted with "a Fed" who works in []'s office [] of the Racket Squad, IRS, Boston).

JERRY immediately called off the meet. Thereafter, RAYMOND issued specific instructions to JERRY to relay to other members of their group to cease using the telephones as they are all tapped and that any time messages are to be delivered they are to be delivered in person or by an emissary and, under no circumstances, are they to use the phone unless proper code has been set up beforehand.

JERRY told PATRIARCA that [] was in the previous day. He said that NICKY (CAMMEROTA), [], [] and SAM CUFARI are hanging around the Indian Meadow Country Club. PATRIARCA said that he met NICKY last week at the Chalet Restaurant, North Providence, R. I.

Dissemination of the above is not being made to IRS until such time [] or [] is identified. It is believed that this informant will furnish more descriptive data concerning [] in the near future.

It should be noted that ANGIULO conjectured that "the Feds" heard something over the phone and misinterpreted the facts and, as a result, obtained the above story.

JERRY said that [] (PH) had just come in from [] and contacted JERRY. [] wanted to see PATRIARCA. JERRY asked him the purpose of the visit. [] stated that [] (PH) was furnished the construction job on his house by [] and did not complete the job to []'s satisfaction. ANGIULO conjectured that this probably was not the real reason for his desire to see PATRIARCA. JERRY pointed out that [] wanted to reside in New England, complaining that those guys in New York are jealous and he wanted to move out. PATRIARCA said that he is waiting for a phone call from New York and that he might have to go to New York on Tuesday, June 11th (This information furnished to New York by teletype). PATRIARCA stated that he would meet him at his house sometime later during the week as []'s wife knows PATRIARCA's wife and that they probably would get together.

PATRIARCA advised that he will see TOMMY BROWN, apparently pertaining to the Hancock Race Track.

RAYMOND instructed JERRY to contact JOE BEANS (true name PALLADINO) and have him repay the loan of $1,600 to [].

JERRY then gave ^{PATRIARCA} ~~ANGIULO~~ $461 from Milford; $804 from Worcester; $1,000 from a location not known to the informant; and $100 from the crap game as PATRIARCA's share.

JERRY stated that the crap game is now running in Chelsea, Mass. and has been for 10 or 12 weeks. The crap game is operated by PETER LIMONE. When the crap game started JERRY went to [redacted] who told him that it was OK to start the game. When ANGIULO offered him money [redacted] told him that it was not necessary. Recently [redacted] told LIMONE that they would need some money as they have to appoint a new Chief of Police and it is going to cost some money.

JERRY indicated that he would furnish the unspecified sum of money to [redacted].

It is to be noted that the [redacted] of Chelsea, Mass. is [redacted]. The individual who would probably oppose [redacted] in the permanent selection of Chief is [redacted] (NA). The informant was unable to determine which candidate [redacted] desired to have made permanent Chief.

ANGIULO stated he had contact with Deputy Chief PHILIP GALLO, Revere, Mass. PD. ANGIULO was very critical of GALLO, pointing out to him that GALLO had agreed to allow ANGIULO to operate crap games in Revere, Mass. after elections. However, after the elections GALLO has gone back on his word and refused to allow them to operate. GALLO gave as his excuse that IRS is investigating him and that he will probably be indicted in a few months and wanted no further trouble.

JERRY stated that [redacted] called his brother (NICK ANGIULO) and met with him at a place not stated. [redacted] told NICK that if the Crime Commission gets the money things will be real tough on the racketeer element. The Crime Commission has indicated that they are going after SEN. JOHN E. POWERS and democratic House Speaker JOHN THOMPSON. NICK ANGIULO asked [redacted] if he could use some money. [redacted] said that he did not need it but he would like to see JERRY as he has a few personal things he would like to discuss with JERRY. He told NICK that he would call him and say, "Hi yah! Will that guy be around tonight?"

ANGIULO will then meet him that night between 5:00 p.m. and 5:30 p.m. at the place he had met him during 1962. In the event ANGIULO cannot make it [] will then make another call when he, [] is available for the meet. PATRIARCA warned JERRY to be very careful of [] in that he might have had a change of heart and is trying to set ANGIULO up.

JERRY obtained RAYMOND PATRIARCA's permission to tell JOSEPH MODICA to lay off the situation concerning the sale of a care license in Boston, Mass. His concern with MODICA is that he, MODICA, had furnished a loan on the license. ANGIULO does not feel that he actually furnished the money but that it was only a paper transaction. Because of this, he wants MODICA to lay off so that he, ANGIULO, can sell the license.

RAY called MODICA "The Italian Con Man."

JERRY stated that the crap game in Boston has a bank of $22,500. RAY stated that his game in Rhode Island has $35,000 in the bank. PATRIARCA stated that he has not, as yet, seen [], noted Boston [] as he is not expected to return to the Boston area until next week.

During a conversation with [], Boston [] assigned to the office of District Attorney of Suffolk County, [] told ANGIULO that [] of the Massachusetts State Police had been checking in the Suffolk County DA's Office. [] inquired of [] as to what he was checking and [] told him that he got a rumble that RAYMOND PATRIARCA attended a meeting at one of the motels in the vicinity of the Hancock Raceway and he is running a check on all the motels in that area.

[] also requested ANGIULO to contact JOSEPH LOMBARDO who, in turn, would contact [] of the Rockingham Race Track and ask a favor of him (not specified) for []. ANGIULO was very surprised that [] knew that LOMBARDO was close to [] and was attempting to conjecture how [] was able to learn of this friendship. ANGIULO stated that [] was always broke and talking about his wife and kids and needing money. ANGIULO felt a little sorry for [].

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that JOE KRIKORIAN, aka KIRK, persuaded [] to sell his stock to SAM RIZZO, now President of the Hancock Raceway. ANGIULO mentioned the fact that [] Boston Bondsman, was friendly with a Judge, name not recalled by ANGIULO, in the Springfield, Mass. area. ANGIULO thought that possibly this Judge might handle the proceedings against JOE KIRK and others indicted in the Hancock Race Track scandal. PATRIARCA thereupon requested ANGIULO to contact [] and request [] to contact his friend who is the Judge in the Springfield area. [] would request the Judge to postpone the trial until after September and also reduce the bail, contemplated for KIRK to be $25,000, to the sum of $5,000 or $10,000. The purpose of the postponement would be to allow SEN. JOHN POWERS to push through the bill of 42 days of additional racing for Hancock Raceway. PATRIARCA was of the opinion that if it continues having bad publicity concerning those indicted in the Hancock Raceway, it might hurt their chances of obtaining the additional days of racing.

JERRY made mention of the fact that JOE KIRK, PATRIARCA, SAM RIZZO and JERRY ANGIULO attended a meeting relative to Hancock Raceway at a place not mentioned.

JERRY stated that he thinks he may have [redacted] backed against the wall. He explained that "the kid" who is in the shylock business with him owes him $17,000 in loan shark money. ANGIULO advanced this money for a construction business in which the UNMAN was associated. [redacted] has recently demanded that UNMAN return the $10,000 [redacted] furnished him to go in the shylock business and suggested that he obtain same as a loan from ANGIULO. He warned UNMAN not to make known the fact that he, [redacted], was in the loan shark business. UNMAN told JERRY the complete story. ANGIULO had UNMAN return to [redacted] and indicate to him that he was marked for murder unless he got the original $17,000 up. [redacted] is very upset and UNMAN suggested that he, [redacted], give UNMAN $17,000 to get "ANGIULO off his back."

[redacted] has not, as yet, given UNMAN the $17,000, but JERRY figures that he might.

[redacted]'s reason for desiring the $10,000 was the fact that he had to "bring $80,000 to New Orleans," $70,000 to a location not mentioned, and, otherwise, had heavy expenses.

JERRY stated that they had loaned some money to an individual whose father-in-law owns a Pawtucket insurance company. ANGIULO advanced the money through [redacted] (PH). "The kid" has borrowed $4,800. "The kid," in order to repay the loan, suggested that he make out false claims on the company and have [redacted] cash same. JERRY is attempting to obtain one of these checks to ascertain whether they can be cashed without any possibility of arrest and, if so, they will "milk the kid dry."

RAYMOND asked JERRY to make sure that the cripple kid who is a close friend of RAYMOND in Worcester, Mass. does not become involved and lose money in the Ol Sol-O-Mio Restaurant in Worcester. It appeared that the new owners "are movers" and RAYMOND was worried that his friend would be taken for any money he might have.

Re: Boston airtel, June 11, 1963.

BS 837 C* advised on June 10, 1963, that DANA RICCI discussed with RAYMOND PATRIARCA various aspects of the IRS investigation being conducted on RICCI. This information has been previously reported.

Unman, whose first name was probably either NICKY or MICKY, contacted PATRIARCA at his Providence office. Unman said that they (probably referring to the GAMBINO family) had hit one of their legitimate businessmen who "never had nothing, had a good family, and had a brother a doctor." Because of this, members of unman's family want to hit their business friends and start an all-out war. Unman is against this and requested PATRIARCA to attempt to intercede in the feud to bring about peace. PATRIARCA told him that he is going to New York within a week or ten days to contact TOMMY LUCHESE concerning the Hancock Race Track, Hancock, Mass. While in New York, he will also contact TOMMY RYAN and attempt to effect a peace between the New York families.

Unman mentioned the names of [] and [] but informant was unable at this time to ascertain significance. Unman is going to send for [] LNU in order to attempt to effect a peace treaty but does not believe that [] will show up. PATRIARCA, when he contacts LUCHESE and RYAN, will call unman's brother, [] and tell him that everything is satisfactory. This means that it appears that a peace treaty can be effected. If it is in doubt, PATRIARCA will so indicate to his brother, who will relay the message to unman. RAYMOND said that if he is not successful, unman should be careful as there would be an all-out war.

The New York Office was advised of the above by teletype.

On June 11, 1963, unman reported that the numbers in the Rhode Island area had a good, profitable week. PATRIARCA gets $1,000. a month from the numbers operation in this area. He told unman to get rid of any of the agents who were not operating at a profit.

JOE KRIKORIAN, aka Joe Kirk, told RAYMOND that he had received a call from the Springfield, Mass. paper. The reporter asked KIRK why he had not shown up for arraignment on that day, to which KIRK replied he did not know he was scheduled to be arraigned on June 11, 1963. KIRK later stated that [] had told him to stay away from the arraignment and go into hiding for a month or so. [] was of the opinion that if no publicity was reflected in the newspapers, they would have a good chance of getting the additional 42 days of racing at Hancock Race Track, Hancock, Mass. PATRIARCA contradicted []'s request or order and told KIRK to appear for arraignment and get the publicity over with as the case probably will not come up for trial until September. RAYMOND was of the opinion that they will get the additional 42 days of racing dates.

During the conversation, PATRIARCA stated that POWERS (Senator JOHN E. POWERS) received a substantial amount of money, probably for a payoff, to attempt to obtain the 42 days of additional racing for this track. He further stated that [] (phonetic) and [] (probably State Senator FLEMING) will receive at least $25,000. from this payoff.

KIRK then told RAYMOND that [] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, owed him, KIRK, $10,000. and owed $25,000. to JOHN NOTTE, former Governor of the State of Rhode Island. RAYMOND corrected him by saying that NOTTE has already got $5,000. for the year so he, [] only owes NOTTE $20,000. KIRK asked how [] is able to pay this "black market money," to which PATRIARCA replied, [] takes it from [] (probably [] noted Boston [] who gets it from the extra days on the concession." Informant was unable to obtain additional information concerning this.

Unman advised that he left there (location not mentioned but probably referring to a wedding) at 7 o'clock. Further, that [] was there with his wife. Unman received a call from [] the house." As a result of the call, he made an appointment in Worcester where he met a FNU [] (Phonetic) who used to run a body shop (probably in Worcester, Mass.). [] told unman that a friend of his has a factory, the Bay State Shoe Company, located on Hammond Street. The company occupies the third floor of a manufacturing building and the owner requested [] to find someone who would burn same for insurance purposes. The owner has $500,000. worth of fire insurance on his equipment. Unman told PATRIARCA that he explained to [] that it would be necessary for the owner to put up money prior to the time of the fire. He told [] that he would call him on the evening of June 11, and let him know.

PATRIARCA stated that PETER (probably LIMONE, lieutenant of GENNARO J. ANGUILO) was coming down Thursday or Friday to his office and that he would speak to LIMONE about this and let unman know. PATRIARCA mentioned to unman that everything must be "advanced" (probably referring to payoff).

The above has not been disseminated at this time; however, when LIMONE appears in Providence, Rhode Island on June 13 or 14, 1963, additional facts will be obtained from BS 837 C* and thereafter proper dissemination will be made.

BS 837-C* advised on 6/13/63 that UNMAN told RAYMOND that he is making 10,000 sheets of paper in four hours, and he sells same for 20¢ a sheet. UNMAN is obtaining a half ton of paper the following day, and he explained to RAYMOND that he will now be able to make a large profit on the manufacture of this paper. He pointed out that [redacted], a Providence, R. I. bookmaker, uses this paper.

GENNARO ANGIULO, accompanied by SAM GRANITO, met with PATRIARCA for a short while before they went to a meeting on the second floor of the Canteen Restaurant, Providence, R. I. During the time they met at Coin-O-Matic ANGIULO told RAYMOND that [redacted] went to JOHN E. WILLIAMS and JOE LOMBARDO. WILLIAMS and LOMBARDO told GRANITO to appear at Providence "to iron the thing out." ELLIOT was to attend the meeting at the Canteen Restaurant.

ANGIULO was very disturbed because [redacted] had asked the kid for $200, which the kid had given him. [redacted] thereafter said he would deduct the $200 from the $10,000 the kid owed ELLIOT.

The kid explained that it was ANGIULO's loan shark money and that he could not touch it. [] told the kid to take it out of the profits.

ANGIULO claimed that the kid was actually using this money for shylocking purposes on behalf of ELLIOT and explained to RAYMOND that []'s partner, [] had contacted the kid every week while [] was in Florida and instructed the kid to report the portion of shylock money he had out of the $10,000.

[] recently went to Jay's Cafe and angrily demanded to see ANGIULO, who did not happen to be there. ANGIULO was very incensed and sent PETER LIMONE and his brother to the Sherry-Biltmore Hotel to contact ELLIOT "in front of all the Jews and give him hell for having the audacity to act tough in front of JERRY's associates."

JERRY said that [] has been "instrumental in every Jew in town" and that he wanted [] to agree to allow the kid to pay back the $17,000 of ANGIULO's money which the kid uses also for loan shark money.

PATRIARCA warned ANGIULO not to holler, swear, or abuse [] as no one is going to be abused in his, RAYMOND's, presence. [] was to explain his side of the story and, immediately thereafter, ANGIULO was to explain his version. RAYMOND would then make the decision as to what would happen.

GRANITO was acting as an emissary for JOHN E. WILLIAMS and JOE LOMBARDO.

RAYMOND stated that [] was in Springfield the day previous and explained his version to SAM CUFARI.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that they had purchased Morello's Cafe in the Market district in Boston for the sum of $15,000. They intend to use this location for an after-hours joint in Boston. The owner of Morello's originally asked $18,000 and when they agreed to the price he reneged, stating his brother did not want to sell. GRANITO was then called in and settled the price for $15,000.

JERRY told RAYMOND that a couple of Jews asked him if it was alright to transfer their cafe license in the immediate vicinity of Jay's Lounge which ANGIULO owns. ANGIULO agreed, but later found out that ABE SARKIS was behind the move and was very incensed. He did not indicate what he intended to do. RAYMOND indicated during the conversation that he "might like JERRY to whip the business from [redacted]"

On 6/14/63, RAYMOND discusses the appeal of several Providence individuals who were arrested and convicted in New Haven, Conn. for possession of a still. RAYMOND stated that the lawyers fouled the case all up. He told UNMAN to get the important stuff out of the still, such as tanks, columns, etc.

JOE KRIKORIAN, aka Joe Kirk, told RAYMOND that SAM RIZZO asked him to wait two weeks to surrender to Massachusetts authorities on the charge of "larceny" in connection with the Hancock Race Track, Hancock, Mass. RAY was against this. KIRK said that he went to JOE NUGENT, Assistant Attorney General's Office, Providence, R. I., and stated "I hate to put you in the bag but I am not going to return to Massachusetts next Tuesday."

It appeared that KIRK had given his word to NUGENT that he would appear on that date in Massachusetts. NUGENT told him to call his attorney, WALSH, in Springfield, Mass. and have the arraignment postponed for two or three weeks. PATRIARCA instructed KIRK to get a hold of Senator JOHN E. POWERS and have him tell the Governor "not to sign that thing," apparently referring to rendition papers for KIRK.

UNMAN states that his nephew was lured into an automobile by [redacted] for failure to pay a loan shark debt. [redacted] interceded and saved the nephew from a beating. RAYMOND said that he will tell [redacted] that, in the future, before he slugs anyone he should find out who his relatives are.

[redacted] (LNU) attempts to obtain financial assistance from RAYMOND in [redacted] the AAAA Acceptance Corp., 293 Mineral Spring Ave, Pawtucket, R. I. RAYMOND stated to bring all the books in and he and CARROZZA will show them to their accountant the following Monday, and he will then decide whether he desires to invest money in same.

On 6/17/63, two UNMEN asked RAY's assistance in placing some records in various juke box machines and on radio programs in Boston and Rhode Island. RAYMOND suggested they come tomorrow to meet ANGIULO who would probably assist them in this venture.

[redacted] of Providence, R. I. stated that the bookmakers all made money except [redacted], who is $2,000 short.

UNMAN introduced [redacted] (PH) to RAYMOND. [redacted] apparently was swindled by four youths, two of whom are named [redacted] and [redacted] (both phonetic). They both asked RAY's assistance to get their money back. RAYMOND said he told LOUIS TAGLIANETTI to talk to the four youths and the first score they make they will reimburse [redacted] and UNMAN.

JOE KIRK advised RAYMOND that his house was broken into recently and $312 taken. KIRK desired RAYMOND to have someone contact [redacted] for the "Boston American," and have him set out in his racing forms the entries and identities of jockeys at the Hancock Race Track.

[redacted] This information was disseminated in the above-mentioned report of SA [redacted] to the United States Attorney at Providence, Rhode Island.

The information concerning [redacted] tie-in with ANGIULO has been disseminated by letter dated 4/4/63 to the United States Attorney at Boston and the Internal Revenue Service, also at Boston. This information obtained from a highly confidential source reflected that [redacted] was obtaining $400 per month from the ANGIULO brothers for furnishing protection for their crap games.

On the basis of this information, IRS is presently conducting an investigation relative to [redacted].

The information set out in referenced Airtels of 6/4/63 and 6/11/63 reflecting that [redacted] had been in contact with NICK ANGIULO and indicated a desire to meet JERRY ANGIULO again has not been disseminated outside of this Bureau. A surveillance was maintained at the residence of [redacted], Newton, Massachusetts, from 6/5/63 to 6/7/63; however, it was discontinued as a highly confidential source indicated that the proposed meet between JERRY ANGIULO and [redacted] was not to take place at [redacted]'s apartment. There is no indication at the present time that the meet has taken place.

Agents of the Boston Office have been alerted of [redacted] indication of possibly attempting to cultivate the friendship of "a Fed" for the purpose of being in a position to know what Federal investigators are doing in connection with the ANGIULO operation.

Dissemination has not been made to any state officials. As the Bureau is aware as set forth in report of SA DONALD V. SHANNON dated 11/7/62 at Boston captioned "Crime Conditions in Boston, Massachusetts," page 44, information is set forth that Commissioner FRANK GILES, head of the Massachusetts Department of Public Safety,

[redacted] told PATRIARCA that HOFFA sent two kids to him to put to

ANGIULO stated that they wanted $650,000. for the Indian Meadow ever, the Worcester banks queered it. Two Boston banks had agreed to invest a third of this portion, providing a local bank part ownership of the club. Dreyfus Corporation would only give them $300,000. They could not afford this interest rate.

JERRY stated that the $193,000. original mortgage was a phony. JERRY has laid out $70,000. and RAYMOND has at least one-third of the $56,000. [] has invested in same. JERRY and RAYMOND finally agreed that they will accept a minimum $300,000. loan, plus $100,000. for construction purposes but they do not know whether they will be able to obtain the same.

JERRY said he has made a net worth for the Jew ([]) which would indicate he is worth $600,000., and "he is not worth three dollars." He wanted accountant [] to submit a phony statement to the bank reflecting the club is making a profit of $10,000. a month but [] "did not have the courage."

JERRY is of the opinion that if they are able to obtain a loan before the Government steps in and forecloses the SBA loan, they will be all right. However, once the SBA forecloses, it would be very difficult for them to obtain any loan from any bank. An association from Washington, D.C. which strictly deals in the sale of golf clubs offered $450,000. "lock, stock and barrel" but they did not feel there was sufficient money to enable them to obtain their original investment.

JERRY mentioned that [] drew $5,000. out of the checking account made out to himself and gave it to someone for obtaining the loan, and that this was a fraud.

JERRY stated that PAPINO (true name JOSEPH MODICA) broke his leg. He contacted MODICA to obtain a release from the mortgage on the cafe license. JERRY obtained permission to contact [] (phn) to arrange discharge of this mortgage.

JERRY asked for, and received permission to have NICK (probably CAMEROTA) make a direct appointment with [], noted Boston [] NICK is to come in with the two kids from Springfield. The reason for this was unknown to the informant.

JERRY said he looked for JOE ANSELMO but was unable to locate him. He left word with [] (probably []) to tell BURNS to get up the $1,500. for RAYMOND PATRIARCA. [] LNU told RAYMOND that there was a release on television concerning the dump owned by PATRIARCA and classified it as a "rat hole."

RAYMOND instructed RICHARD to see his councilman and have these releases stopped.

JERRY said that the FBI made inquiry at Chelsea, Mass. concerning JERRY's crap game which was operated there. The Chief went to [redacted] and told him that if he was running a crap game, to get it out of the City of Chelsea; therefore, the game has ceased. //

HENRY TAMELEO came in and told JERRY that the stone was cracked. JERRY could not understand how a diamond would crack. Someone offered $5,000. for the stone as is, but JERRY wanted $10,000.

HENRY said he brought the guy up there and that only four or five pieces are antiques. It appeared they were talking about the jade and ivory stolen on April 5, 1963, from the estate of BYRON D. MILLER, Falmouth Foreside, Maine. JERRY pointed out that inasmuch as they were only offered $5,000. and it would be at least a five-way split, it would not be worth it for them to get mixed up in the sale of same. He asked for, and received permission from RAYMOND to call the kid up and return the stuff to him as it was not worth getting involved. He said he would give it back to [redacted]. //

He said that EDWARD "WIMFY" BENNETT has made peace with [redacted]. [redacted] is now shylocking on BENNETT's money for 2 per cent a month. Some Italian kid who has accepted some money from [redacted] is being pressed by [redacted] to return the money. The kid came to JERRY and asked for help. JERRY sent for BENNETT who denied loaning money to [redacted] for shylocking purposes. Informant was of the opinion that [redacted] also had some money of JERRY which he was using for shylock money. To resolve the situation, JERRY received permission from RAYMOND to bring [redacted] in and have him explain his side of the story as he, JERRY, did not believe BENNETT.

[redacted] of Maine had two kids burn a joint for him and promised them $1,800. The kids have not been paid by [redacted] and JERRY is incensed that [redacted] keeps telling these kids not to report their activities to JERRY ANGIULO. JERRY stated they should get back their $6,000. which [redacted] owes. PATRIARCA became angry and said he was thinking of taking a ride to Maine himself and pulling the $6,000. right out of the hotels he owns. //

JERRY said that [redacted] was involved in a jade theft and described him as [redacted] 's [redacted]. //

BS 92-118

At this point, JERRY asked RAYMOND to ask PETER LIMONE to leave the room, which LIMONE did. JERRY told RAYMOND "off the record" that SAMMY GRANITO had returned from the [] meeting and told everyone in Boston that he, JERRY, was severely criticized by RAYMOND because of his actions against []. A heated discussion took place between ANGIULO and PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA stated that the only reason he criticized ANGIULO before they went to the meeting with [] was to make sure that he, JERRY, did not abuse [] in any way as JERRY has a tendency to do. RAYMOND said [] is connected. He pointed out that he has only met him on three occasions and he realizes now that when he first met him on the deal, he should have asked for more than he is getting now. He said that what [] does in Boston is their business, but outside of Boston he does not care what [] does.

JERRY stated that [] expected a beating when he was approached by PETER LIMONE but fortunately, although he criticized [] in front of the Jews at the Sherry Biltmore Hotel, he did not "whack" him. JERRY said that SAM had spread the story in Boston that [] "came out of this meeting stronger than ever and that he is going to be trouble." JERRY said he had issued instructions for PETER not to whack [] but to chastise "him in no uncertain terms that he is not to act tough with ANGIULO."

During this period, PETER interrupted the conversation and told JERRY his brother had just called and told him that thirty guys just went out of town. JERRY asked, "The Feds?" PETER said, "must be because it wouldn't be the other guys."

Patriarra/Consult

JERRY told RAYMOND that he has asked SAM GRANITO whether he had a horse book going. SAM replied in the affirmative but added "only for accommodation." JERRY stated that this was a lot of nonsense as he has got five or six of the best guys in town.

Re Boston Airtel dated 6/20/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 6/20/63 that PATRIARCA conversed with two unidentified individuals concerning an arson job at a location not mentioned but probably the Bay State Shoe Company, Worcester, Mass. These two individuals wanted the sum of $5,000 from the owner prior to the time they even looked at the job. An additional $25,000 or $30,000 was desired by them before they actually set the building on fire. RAYMOND told them that they could take the stock in the joint and that probably JERRY ANGIULO would have an outlet for it. The two UNMEN stated they knew the name and address of the joint. It was not clear to the informant whether the two UNMEN did make direct contact for the $5,000 through an intermediary other than PATRIARCA.

On 6/24/63 the informant advised that UNMAN, possibly DANA RICCI, advised PATRIARCA that he lost a substantial amount of money on horse betting and desired to have a check cashed without endorsing same. RAYMOND sent him to JOE "PUPPY DOG" MOLLICONE to cash the check without endorsement. RAYMOND stated that he uses "PUPPY DOG" for this purpose quite a bit.

TONY (LNU) discussed with PATRIARCA a deal where $15,000 a year is guaranteed. He mentioned that there are three owners now. RAYMOND inquired as to whether it was the shop in Attleboro to which TONY replied in the negative that it is in New York. TONY Stated that POGGY TORIELLO "and them" have it in New York. RAYMOND stated that they are good people and instructed TONY to see LOUIE TAGLIANETTI. The informant was unable to state exactly what this concerned but believed it to be possibly a payoff by unions as RAYMOND was heard to say, "Because when we had the unions over here, [redacted] (ph) and them, I turned it over to JOE STRETCH. This is the only thing I wind up with, with all my work and it costs me over $10,000." TONY told PATRIARCA that they are getting 100 a week from the other union; LOUIE gets 30; JOE, possibly PATRIARCA, gets 40; and he, TONY, gets 30.

Later TAGLIANETTI was told by RAYMOND to call [redacted] and set a meeting with the kid TONY for 11 a.m.

LOUIE told RAYMOND he received a call from New York as a result of which he went to New York. He met POGGY and the name [redacted] (ph) was mentioned, but the informant did not know the significance of this conversation.

[redacted] (LNU), possibly a [redacted] from the [redacted] R. I., area, discussed RAYMOND's dump. It appeared that the Smithport residents are up in arms over the prospects of further dumping at PATRIARCA's location. PATRIARCA explained to [redacted] (LNU) that he has taken care of most of the residents and does not feel that he will have any trouble with the dumping problem. [redacted] said that Attorney General NUGENT of Rhode Island called [redacted] and told him that he had information that two [redacted] and [redacted] (LNU), had received a payoff to permit this dump to operate. RAYMOND indicated that it was not true. RAYMOND said that [redacted] of North Providence, [redacted] "is OK."

BS-837C* advised on 6/25/63 that HENRY TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that he called [redacted] (possibly [redacted] of American Finance Inc., concerning the American Finance business. He also made reference to PAPINO TN JOSEPH MODICO as having an interest in this but the informant was unable to ascertain the significance of same.

TAMELEO stated that he had sent [redacted] LNU to [redacted] in the hospital. It appeared that [redacted] was beat up by JERRY, NICK and the rest of them. He instructed [redacted] to tell [redacted] to keep his mouth shut. The significance of this was not known to the informant.

TAMELEO said that he had seen NICKIE (CAMMEROTA) from Springfield Saturday afternoon but did not indicate the reason therefor.

SAM CUFARI was sick according to NICK.

JERRY ANGIULO discussed the beating of [redacted] LNU referred to above. It appeared that [redacted] who was [redacted] the Peppermint Lounge by ANGIULO to effect some sort of a swindle refused admittance to the nightclub of another member of ANGIULO'S group. An argument ensued whereupon [redacted] was called in. A fight ensued whereupon somebody jumped on [redacted] S back. [redacted] ran to ANGIULO.

ANGIULO, PETER LIMONE, NICK ANGIULO all proceeded to the Peppermint Lounge. They observed [redacted] on the street outside and beat him up. [redacted] who has only one lung was beaten so severely that an immediate operation was necessitated. Thereafter [redacted] TN [redacted] contacted JERRY and took side of [redacted]. [redacted] unbeknown to JERRY had given [redacted] some shylark money to be let out. When JERRY learned of this he became angry as [redacted] was one of his group.

JERRY accused [redacted] of saying less than a month ago that he wanted to kill [redacted]. [redacted] denied this statement and said to LIMONE who was in the room "I did not say that did I PETER". ANGIULO was of the opinion that [redacted] was calling him a liar to his face and became enraged. He was explaining his position in the matter to RAYMOND. RAYMOND agreed that he was right.

[redacted] had recently contacted JERRY to obtain $3500.00 he needed for retribution in a case he was convicted of. ANGIULO denied the loan. [redacted] asked permission to contact [redacted] and the others who were the actual recipients. [redacted] was convicted of swindling $40,000.00 and needed the additional $3500.00 to pay restitution to the victims.

RAYMOND told JERRY that it was alright for [] to attempt to obtain this money from [] and the others.

JERRY said that [] and JOE BURNS TN ANSELMO had been grabbed in their gambling operation by IRS.

IRS got everything in the raid including their daily and weekly. They are in trouble now because of this raid. JERRY sat down with [] and ANSELMO who want him to take over the "patch" of their business on a fifty fifty basis which was formerly owned by PAPINO. JERRY refused same stating he never took anything on a fifty fifty basis. They then wanted to lay off on bets to ANGIULO and also offered him the business to run himself. RAYMOND told him that because of the heat generated by IRS and the fact that they know practically everything about the operation including the identities of the agents and pickup men that it would be foolish for JERRY to accept this proposition.

JERRY thought that he might take the business and give it to a couple of very trustworthy kids who he did not identify. RAYMOND stated that he could do this if he wanted to but that he still advised against it.

JERRY said that he had given [] $5000. to go into the used car business. He ascertained that [] did not own any cars and asked permission of RAYMOND to call [] and demand the $5000.00.

JERRY stated that [], ANGIULO'S [] recently had 7/8ths of his stomach removed. He has cancer and JERRY is now attempting to obtain all his ANGIULO'S securities that are now in [] name.

JERRY mentioned this "connection for this guy of [] S (IRS) Squad came down and told us". At this point the conversation was interrupted by a phone call and the informant was unable to ascertain the significance of same.

JERRY referred to a [redacted] who allegedly made a move in paying $600.00 to the police chief. He apparently referred to the [redacted] Massachusetts but did mention the Chief at Everett, Massachusetts. He said that he has given [redacted] $2400. to pay the chief to run the crap game whereas there was nowhere else to go. The chief sent word back that if the Feds do find out about the crap game they will come to him first and he in turn will contact them before he raids the game.

The informant was not positive but believes that this refers to the [redacted] Massachusetts rather than Everett.

On 6/26/63 the informant advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA inquired of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad as to the times the trains leave Grand Central Station, NYC for Providence in the late afternoon or early evening. Later PATRIARCA told his attorney that he would not be available Friday as he had to go away.

New York was notified of the above by teletype.

Every effort will be made to conduct a discreet surveillance of PATRIARCA on the 28th.

Surveillances have been conducted on PETER LIMONE and HENRY TAMELEO. However, these surveillances were non-productive. These surveillances were conducted on June 6, June 11 and June 17, 1963. PCI [redacted] furnished substantially the same information concerning the arson job as did BS 837-C*. In addition, he stated that the arson job consisted of burning [redacted] Maine by the same individuals who allegedly [redacted], namely [redacted] and [redacted]. It was done for [redacted] who in turn had contracted same for the owner of the Diner. On 7/1/63, informant advised that unman told RAYMOND that the police in Worcester, Mass., learned of the possible arson of the Bay State Shoe Co., Worcester, Mass.

RAYMOND questioned this individual closely as to how the police might have ascertained that arson was being considered. He instructed unman to not even talk to either of the above-named individuals in the future and to forget the arson job.

Same unman mentioned PINKY (PANARELLI), but the significance was not obtained by the informant.

Unman stated that [redacted] (probably [redacted]) has a new Cadillac and apparently is being checked by the Feds. He said that if anyone gets in trouble they are on their own. He stated that they (did not identify) got in trouble a few years ago, and he, unman, straightened them out for $2,000.

RAYMOND then added, "Yeh, if these guys are foolish enough to file for less than they are spending, it is their own fault." [redacted] pointed out that in this way they will find out how powerful [redacted] is with the Police Commissioner. JERRY discussed the possibility that [redacted] would bolt when he heard that the ANGIULOS would be in back of it but still they did not feel they would lose much if he did. JERRY stated that the OK would come from [redacted] but they would not be certain whether they had the OK from [redacted]. They would have to be alert to the possibility that if an OK did come that they were merely being set up for an arrest. They discounted this somewhat because they felt it would only be a misdemeanor and they themselves wouldn't be present and be involved in the arrest.

JERRY said that he had contacted [redacted] ([redacted]) [redacted] told him that there is a situation in the city which did not warrant the operation as yet, whereupon ANGIULO offered him $1,000 a month. The indications were that [redacted] did not accept at this time. ANGIULO also felt they could check with [redacted] to see whether [redacted] actually gave the OK for this operation before they started same. JERRY left the conversation with the understanding that [redacted] was to approach [redacted] and report back later on the results.

On 6/25/63 BS 837-UX advised that JERRY reported to PATRIARCA as follows concerning the above incident:

[redacted] contacted JERRY the day previous and said he saw [redacted] himself. The latter, after hearing [redacted]'s alleged proposal, said that if it pertained only to him to go ahead but [redacted] would have to understand that if there was any report to him by an official of IRS or the FBI he would take every action to raid the operation. JERRY told [redacted] not to give up on his request for the crap game as "money goes a long way." JERRY and RAYMOND again discussed whether or not [redacted] is that close to [redacted]. ANGIULO said he told [redacted] to make another approach to [redacted] and mention the fact that they would put $2500 in an envelope to give to [redacted] and when he, [redacted], gave it to him, [redacted] was to tell him that it was from the ANGIULOS.

If he accepts the $2500 JERRY stated, "We will have him where we want him."

On 6/26/63 [] during the course of a regular contact, advised as follows:

As a result of the [], he has lost [] that his [] has fallen off and that he has been trying to find some way to recoup some of his losses or develop other activities which would increase his present income. He said that he had a conversation with an individual who is associated with the Darbury Room in Boston (a night club and restaurant) and this individual expressed dissatisfaction with his present connection. [] said this gave him an idea of trying to obtain a liquor establishment in association with the above individual and see if it could be profitable. He said he also considered the feasibility of probably operating after hours and he contacted NICK ANGIULO, with whom he has been associated for many years in connection with the bail bond business. He failed to give any reason why he contacted NICK ANGIULO and in order to protect the source of the original information he was not pressed along this line. He said that NICK ANGIULO referred him to his brother, JERRY, and the three of them got together and JERRY suggested that there was not too much money to be made in an after hours place and suggested to him that he try to get an OK to run a crap game. He said it was obvious to him that JERRY figured he was very close to [] and this probably resulted from ANGIULO's previous knowledge that [] operated tow trucks in connection with the Boston Police towing activities. [] said that as a matter of fact he has had absolutely no contact with [] since that time and it is this lack of contact with McNamara that is actually hurting his bail bond business. However, [] said that because of the type of business he is in he does not readily admit to anyone that such a contact does not actually exist. He said that when ANGIULO made this suggestion to him he did not want to give ANGIULO the impression that his relationship with [] was not close so he went along with ANGIULO's suggestion of contacting [].

[] said that it was his intention to forget about the whole incident but ANGIULO recontacted him a short time later and asked him if he had seen []. [] said in order to carry out his deception he told ANGIULO that he had seen [] and to make it appear that [] did not completely resent such an approach, gave Angiulo the story that [] would be willing to go along, except that it would be almost impossible in view of the activity of IRS and the FBI, and that they would undoubtedly hear about the crap game and give him official notice and that if that happened he would have no choice but to raid. [] said he felt in this manner he would retain the impression with the ANGIULOS that he was still friendly with the Boston Police Commissioner and that the [] he receives from them would not be in any way lessened, and he also felt that they would not want to press the source any further in view of the type of answer he attributed to []. [] said that as far as he is concerned the matter is a closed issue.

[] was not questioned closely regarding this contact with ANGIULO because of the sensitive nature of the information from the original source.

It should be noted that [] furnished the above information voluntarily and without prompting of any kind nor was there any suggestion made to him which would indicate that we had previous information concerning this.

Rebosaairtel to Bureau, 7/9/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 7/10/63 that UNMAN advised PATRIARCA that he went to Los Angeles to collect the $100,000 from an individual who is a celebrity now and his (celebrity's) mother died recently. IRS is investigating this individual for fraud. UNMAN requested $75,000 in cash and $25,000 by check from the celebrity. He is cutting up profits from a "partnership." Informant had no further information concerning this.

An individual named [redacted] desired to see RAY, according to the informant, concerning an argument over a crap game. RAY furnished instructions through UNMAN to [redacted] that he was not supposed to be in that territory and, therefore, did not furnish permission to [redacted] to operate the crap game.

Same UNMAN stated that they ran a crap game in Scituate, R. I. The "high" Sheriff told them to break this game up because of possible State Police activity. They gave the "high" Sheriff $200 and also a [redacted], probably a [redacted] $200. They won $1,930 in the crap game. [redacted] (INU), the [redacted] who is under the "high" Sheriff, was described as "excellent," in that he tipped the operators of the crap game off every time a State Police representative entered the premises.

[redacted] (INU) told PATRIARCA that [redacted] was very sick in jail. FRANK SCIBELLI of Springfield, Mass. suggested he obtain a Doctor for [redacted] RAYMOND agreed that he should. [redacted] also stated that he was in a position to assist in obtaining the parole of [redacted] and LARRY BAIONE.

RAYMOND told [redacted] to tell "SKYBALL" to do everything he can for him and whatever it costs RAYMOND would pay. [redacted] stated that [redacted] who is friendly with [redacted] the President of the Teamsters Union in Boston, Mass., was asked by [redacted] to give [redacted] a job. Because of the fact that MC LEAN is marked for assassination by the MC LAUGHLIN brothers, [redacted] did not want to get mixed up in it.

[redacted] asked [redacted] to intercede for him with RAYMOND PATRIARCA in an attempt to straighten out the argument between [redacted] and the MC LAUGHLIN brothers. According to [redacted] [redacted] refused to set up two individuals who beat [redacted] up at Salisbury Beach a few years ago. They then tried to kill [redacted] by placing a bomb in his car. [redacted] observed the placing of the bomb in his car by BERNIE MC LAUGHLIN and, thereafter, killed him in daylight.

GENNARO ANGIULO, accompanied by PETER LIMONE, advised that they checked the incident concerning the arson job at the Bay State Shoe Co., Worcester, Mass. They ascertained that [redacted] presumably of Worcester, Mass., was asked by the owner of the building to burn the building down. [redacted] told him that he would contact PATRIARCA for this purpose. Because of this, PATRIARCA's name was mentioned in connection with the arson.

They then concluded that the owner of the building or [] must have tipped somebody off concerning PATRIARCA's interest. They were amazed that both the owner of the building and the owner of the Bay State Shoe Co. were both interested in burning the same building. PATRIARCA said that he was not contacted on behalf of the owner of the building.

RAYMOND stated that [] is booking at Rockingham Park.

JERRY ANGIULO advised that the FBI is after him "like an animal." They cannot move any more. He surmises that they are trying to scare their operation out of the North End.

Concerning his appearance before the FGJ in connection with the Indian Meadow Country Club, ANGIULO called in three attorneys, [] and []. They got the corporate books straightened out.

ANGIULO contemplates that when he takes the 5th Amendment before the Grand Jury, AUSA [] will bring him before a judge, at which time he will have his lawyer claim intimidation and harassment by the FBI.

ANGIULO complained that JOE BURNS's business was supposed to be $18,000 a week; however, after the first week the business only totalled $10,000 or $11,000.

He said that [] (LNU) wound up with JOSEPH MODICA's batch and that it does not appear that this operation will be financially successful. Therefore, they are contemplating giving the lay-off action from [] up; however, they might keep BURNS's batch.

JERRY mentioned PETER DI CARLO's shooting the previous day by an individual named []. He pointed out that DI CARLO or his sons testified against [] concerning the robbery of the Surf nightclub in Revere, Mass., which is owned by DI CARLO. [] son is presently serving a 15-20 year sentence for this robbery.

PATRIARCA stated that DI CARLO was made even before BUCCOLO, but described him as being very weak, even while he was active. RAYMOND wanted to kill him several years ago because of this weakness. Informant did not ascertain why DI CARLO was not killed at this time. PATRIARCA, however, stated that DI CARLO was in with Chief GILLIS and tipped GILLIS off as to their operations in the city of Revere.

ANGIULO, upon learning of the shooting of DI CARLO, went to the hospital and ascertained from DI CARLO's [redacted] that he, DI CARLO, thought he was going to die. He told [redacted] where his money was in the house. ANGIULO and LIMONE indicated an interest to steal the money from DI CARLO's house, although [redacted] did not tell them exactly where the money was located.

ANGIULO stated that the kids handling the crap games in the Newton, Belmont, South End section, and East Boston, all Massachusetts, were told by ANGIULO to close the crap games as all of them were getting a little too big. The crap game in the South End was operated by "SHIMKY, THE JEW," who had 25% and two kids, not named, had 25% a piece. The other 25% was not specified as to ownership.

[redacted] attempted to obtain 25% of this crap game because of $2,000 owed to him by one of the principals. JERRY called him in and criticized him for his audacity and attempt to take over any portion of the crap game without his permission.

ANGIULO commented talking again about the Indian Meadow Country Club and stated before they actually took over ownership of the Indian Meadow Country Club his brother NICK called him and told him that he was asked by the kid [redacted] (PH) whether his brother JERRY was interested in the Indian Meadow Country Club. NICK told him, "yes." [redacted] told him to be very careful for the feds know RAYMOND had some money in this club.

ANGIULO stated that because of RAYMOND's interest in the club, investigation concerning Indian Meadow Country Club was commenced by the feds. Efforts are being made to identify [redacted].

ANGIULO stated that they are attempting to sell the Indian Meadow Country Club for $300,000 "escrow" and a $100,000 construction loan. He pointed out that [redacted] has again requested cash. ANGIULO had recently given him $27,000 in cash to pay back bills, and he was at a loss to understand how [redacted] is losing so much money in the operation of this club.

ANGIULO gave PATRIARCA the sum of $3,775, which he collected from various individuals, including SAM GRANITO, [redacted], CATALDO, PEPINO, [redacted] and others, for their contribution for the fund they are raising. This fund is to be used for emergency purposes in the event any members are in need of financial assistance.

ANGIULO stated he has attorney [redacted] on the payroll for $500 a month. [redacted] was involved in the [redacted] escape, according to JERRY. He stated that NEIL knew beforehand that [redacted] was contemplating escaping from the jail. He had asked [redacted] (LNU) whether he wanted to go with [redacted] when he escaped sometime prior to the actual escape.

JERRY said that [redacted] is learning fast.

Re: Boston airtel 7/2/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 7/2/63 that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka. JOE KIRK, discussed the Hancock Raceway with PATRIARCA. The informant was unable to obtain all of the information concerning this but did state that there was mention of a $25,000.00 payment to _____ of Lincoln Downs Race Track, Rhode Island, which was not declared.

RAYMOND is apparently interested in selling his interest in the Hancock Raceway, and mentioned _____ of Suffolk Downs Race Track, as a possible buyer. He instructed KIRK to contact SAL RIZZO and tell RIZZO that he had a buyer for the track.

JOE KIRK stated that the hotel in San Juan was selling for $9,200,000.00 and they needed a $100,000.00 down payment. _____ Boston _____, was allegedly interested in investing the money in the purchase of this hotel.

Unman refers to another unman in New Haven, Connecticut, and stated that he called _____ last week to see if he could be "forgiven". [] (LNU), who is probably from the Miami area, told PATRIARCA that he was with FAT TONY and [] [] asked [] to contact PATRIARCA and tell him that the Feds had a photograph of [], PATRIARCA and JERRY ANGIULO apparently taken at the Brook Manor Restaurant, Attleboro, Mass. It appeared that "the Feds" had exhibited the picture in the Miami area.

PATRIARCA was upset at this, and discussed with ANGIULO the method in which the Feds might have obtained this photograph in detail. They both agreed that they did not recall being in a standing position with [] at this meet, it being noted that [] described the photograph as all three individuals being in a standing position. ANGIULO stated that it was impossible for the Feds to be at the restaurant, as he had cased the place before and after PATRIARCA had been there, and that there were no Feds in the vicinity. It should be noted that agents of this office took the photograph from a truck. PATRIARCA then concluded that it was possible that the picture was made up from trick photography.

[] (LNU) also asked RAY's intercession to line up delegates in the New England area to back [] in the Longshoremen's Union Convention in Miami later this month. [] was particularly interested in the Fall River, Boston, and New Bedford areas. PATRIARCA advised that he could not do anything with [] in Boston ([]), [] in Boston. PATRIARCA said he had made a deal through a fellow in New Bedford on the cement docks, and if they were still okay with him, he would be able to assist []. He also mentioned that he was very friendly with [] of the Teamsters Union in New Bedford, and that he is close to the individual in the IIA in that city. PATRIARCA will contact [] and attempt to have [] intercede for him with the boss of the IIA there.

He mentioned that [] from Worcester, Massachusetts visited him, PATRIARCA, on July 1, 1963.

JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA. ANGIULO told him that he, [] and [] were served with subpoenas by FBI Agents for their appearance before the Federal Grand Jury in connection with their interests of the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Massachusetts. JERRY is of the opinion that this action is only for harrassment, and that once the FBI gets the books they will attempt to ascertain the true financial picture of this club.

According to ANGIULO's information, the FBI knows that [redacted] RAYMOND PATRIARCA's interest in this club. He surmised that they know this because of the fact that COSMO J. PANARELLI, [redacted] SAM CUFARI, [redacted], and [redacted] hang around the club. JERRY intends to take the Fifth Amendment before the Grand Jury, but upon advice of two attorneys, and particularly [redacted] Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Boston, Massachusetts, they are of the opinion that both [redacted] and HAMMELL will have to testify concerning the books and records.

He mentioned that there were two different statements drawn up on the Indian Meadow Country Club by accountant [redacted] and also that [redacted] the club, had paid $5,000.00 to someone to obtain the loan. He states that these two incidents constitute fraud.

[redacted] will testify that his friend, JERRY ANGIULO, told him about the possible sale of the Indian Meadow Country Club, and that he invested money he had just received from an inheritance into this club, and that JERRY has no interest whatsoever in same.

ANGIULO stated that DAVE IACOVETTI (New Haven top hoodlum) has [redacted] at Bridgeport. IACOVETTI called SAL CESARIO at Boston and wanted to know what kind of a kid [redacted] was "and all this". SAL asked IACOVETTI why he was calling him. IACOVETTI replied that [redacted] told him that CESARIO and ANGIULO "kept him pretty good". CESARIO told him that he would call IACOVETTI back. CESARIO contacted ANGIULO who instructed him to return the call and tell IACOVETTI "the kid is no rat but he is a nut. What you do with him is your own business". Also, if there are any changes, ANGIULO would contact IACOVETTI the following day. CESARIO apparently returned the call and so instructed IACOVETTI. ANGIULO then asked PATRIARCA whether it was okay to tell him that and whether there are any changes PATRIARCA wanted to make. PATRIARCA replied, "No, but if they could help him, okay".

ANGIULO and PATRIARCA are of the opinion that IACEVETTI "had [redacted]", otherwise he would not have made the calls. [redacted] escaped from the Suffolk County House of Correction, Charles Street Jail, on June [redacted] 1963.

JOE ANSELMO contacted ANGIULO in reference to the booking business in Chelsea, Massachusetts, and ANSELMO desired to sell his patch to ANGIULO. ANGIULO made certain demands concerning the sale. ANGIULO finally took over ANSELMO's "patch". It appeared that ANGIULO intends to allow two kids to run this patch; however, the names were not mentioned.

ANGIULO gave RAYMOND a sum of money not known to the informant. He said that the crap game was losing money lately because of the weather, and the only kid that is making money is the kid from Milford.

RAYMOND told ANGIULO that [redacted] was indicted by IRS last week. [redacted] is the [redacted] For Sherwood Manufacturing Company, in which company PATRIARCA formerly held an interest. PATRIARCA was surprised that his sister was not indicted, as she is also a member of this corporation. He feels that this investigation is only to cause harrassment of PATRIARCA. u.s.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he is still having trouble with the cafe in Boston. ANGIULO talked to [redacted] of the Boston Licensing Board concerning this. ANGIULO attempted to buy the building in order to place the license.

ANGIULO said that [redacted]'s attorney had talked to him concerning financial help to obtain a ballistics expert on behalf of [redacted]. The expert, if possible, would testify that the bullet that came from the victim in the murder case actually was that of a police gun, and not a bullet from [redacted]'s gun. It appeared that ANGIULO was interested in this until [redacted] escaped from jail. He is now no longer interested in [redacted]. checked and done

On July 5, 1963, the informant advised that unman told RAYMOND of a possible hoist at the Rhode Island Hospital Trust Co. and asked if RAYMOND would be interested in same. RAYMOND said he is no longer interested in this type of activity as he cannot trust anyone. Unman said that at the end of each month, there is a large amount of cash transferred at the Rhode Island Hospital Trust.

Re Boston airtel dated July 18, 1963. REC-12012

BS 837-C* advised on July 18, 1963, that [redacted] (ph) was interested in purchasing the Ace Dumping Company, Providence, R. I., from PATRIARCA for $20,000 per year. MASS.

On July 22, 1963, [redacted] (LNU) requested PATRIARCA to assist two unknown women to obtain the winnings from a number pool hit they allegedly made from an unknown bookie. PATRIARCA called the unknown bookie and instructed this individual to pay both women off.

PATRIARCA complained of harrassment by Federal Agents, pointing out that the Agents constantly surveilled his house and checked the activities of his son who is not involved in any illegal activities. PATRIARCA was of the opinion that the legal action taken by SAM GIANCANA in Chicago will cause Federal agencies to cease their harrassment program.

An UNMAN thanked RAYMOND PATRIARCA for calling W. J. and arranging for him to get into the game. UNMAN told PATRIARCA that the Hartford mob was there. The informant did not know where the games in N. J. were located.

Same UNMAN discussed the purchase of flash paper to be used by bookmakers. UNMAN complained that there have been instances where this flash paper has ignited accidentally causing damage to bookmaking offices.

[redacted] discussed the purchase of flash paper with PATRIARCA. [redacted] stated that on a recent raid of one of his operations the flash paper with all the daily numbers on it was destroyed leaving him with no records of the numbers to be paid. He believed that he may have lost two to five thousand dollars because of this incident.

It appeared that [redacted] was interested in obtaining flash paper sufficiently heavy to use for lottery tickets but after a lengthy discussion, they ruled same out. [redacted] desired to have flash paper inserted in each lottery ticket to be returned with the number on it when the ticket was sold. When the ticket was returned, he would place the tickets in a refrigerator so that they would not accidentally ignite. PATRIARCA did not think much of this idea. UNMAN, who is manufacturing flash paper, pointed out that his flash paper contains no glue so that there was no possibility of accidentally igniting this paper.

[redacted] pointed out that a representative of a bonding company in Pittsburgh, Pa., desired that he complete his job there under another name for $110,000. Representative would receive a kickback of $10,000 from [redacted] in the event this does happen. [redacted] stated that the number pool racket in Pittsburgh is very good.

SUBJECT: RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka.
AR

ReurAirtel 6/21/63.

The information concerning the possible arson at Bay State Shoe Company, Worcester, Mass., was furnished former SA [redacted] National Board of Fire Underwriters, Boston, Mass., in order to protect the informant.

On the basis of this information, he conducted investigation in conjunction with representatives of the Massachusetts (MSP) State Police (Fire Marshal's Office), Worcester Fire Department, and Worcester Police Department.

Investigation reflected the building is owned by the Hammondson Realty Corp. [redacted] and [redacted]

The building is occupied by five small businesses in addition to the large scale operation of the Bay State Shoe Company. Two of these are operated by the [redacted] interests who own the building and the other three are independently operated. All, with the exception of Bay State Shoe Co., deal in metal specialties and machinery.

The possibility that there is well over a million dollars worth of insurance covering this building and its occupants and the fact that a serious fire, in addition to being extremely expensive, could result in a loss of lives, it was decided that of paramount importance was the prevention of this fire if possible. Toward that end, the following steps were taken.

On Tuesday, June 25, 1963, a thorough inspection of the premises was made by Worcester Police Department and National Board of Fire Underwriters. The owner or superintendent of each of the businesses was contacted and advised that authorities were in possession of information indicating the possibility of a planned fire at that location. No secret was made of the purpose in the building but no accusations were made against any one occupant.

and [redacted] Bay State Shoe Company, was told of information as to the alleged planned fire as were all other occupants. He stated that he certainly did not want to see a fire occur as his business was improving every day. He produced, without being asked, a ledger showing costs, expenditures and profits for the past two months which reflected a net profit of about $1,000 per month. He seemed most eager that this ledger be examined. [redacted] then conducted investigators on a tour of his plant where notes were taken of the various locations of flammable cleaning fluids, bonding cements, etc. At the conclusion of the inspection the Worcester Police Department directed [redacted] to remove all containers of flammables to a safe location within a concrete vault and there to be dispensed to the working stations in safety cans not exceeding one quart capacity. He was also advised that periodic inspection of the premises would take place to ascertain that local safety and fire regulations were being adhered to.

Before leaving the building, investigators were intercepted by [redacted] who stated, "Let me get this straight, did you say you heard that someone was going to burn my factory?" He was informed that this was not necessarily true, that information directed authorities to this building. He then said, "Well, I was wondering because you know my insurance would never begin to cover my loss." In answer to questions put to him he stated that he had about a quarter of a million dollars insurance with an 80% clause but that his dies, patents, machinery and stock was worth double that amount. He also volunteered the information that [redacted] of Worcester, Mass.

In view of the tremendous loss that could result from a fire in this building, it is felt that the action taken was best under the circumstances. Prevention of this fire by any other means would have been most difficult to accomplish. Successful prosecution of those responsible if the fire did occur would still possibly result in a sizable loss to other innocent parties.

BS 837-C* subsequently reported that PATRIARCA's associates had cancelled plans to set this building on fire because of above inquiry. According to BS 837-C*, the owner of the building had also asked an unidentified person to burn the entire building without knowing [REDACTED]

Re: Boston airtel 7/25/63.

On 7/25/63 BS 837-C* advised that [redacted] noted Boston philanthropist, is assisting RAYMOND PATRIARCA in his efforts to [redacted] Rhode Island University to Boston University.

On 7/29/63 UNMAN told PATRIARCA that he was asked to beat up a kid. Before he did so, he ascertained from other people that PATRIARCA was interested in the kid and therefore he could not beat him up. PATRIARCA told him that it concerned a burglary of the Outlet, a discount house in Providence, R.I. RAYMOND stated that [redacted] (ph) asked RAYMOND whether it was all right to hide the kid out. This occurred the day after the burglary and apparently the police were looking for him. RAYMOND gave the okay to hide him out. Subsequently, [redacted] asked PATRIARCA's advice as to the attorney the kid might hire. He suggested Attorney [redacted] of Providence. [redacted] handled the case and obtained $500.00, plus a $2,500.00 under-the-table payment. The rest of the money obtained from the burglary, which, according to PATRIARCA, amounted to over $2,500.00, was put away for the kid by RAYMOND. PATRIARCA did not indicate where he has the money at the present time. It was not clear to the informant whether the kid to be beaten up was identical with the kid who was responsible for the burglary. [redacted] is allegedly the person responsible for the above-mentioned burglary, having been arrested by the Providence, R.I. PD.

Re: Boston airtel, July 23, 1963.

On July 23, 1963, BS 837 C* advised that unman told PATRIARCA that he gave $1,500. to another unknown individual for a loan on his barroom. The loan is to be repaid at $100. per month.

On July 24, 1963, unman told PATRIARCA that they need approximately $4,000. for the printing bill for the appeal. They also will file the necessary papers, including the index, with the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals. This probably concerns the case of EDDIE ROMANO and others who were recently convicted at New Haven, Connecticut for possession of a still.

TED FUCILLO gave PATRIARCA an unknown amount of money. FUCILLO purchased the building in Maine, which was previously mentioned by the informant, for $40,000. under the name of Tip Toe Realty Corporation. [redacted] and the "kid", unidentified, desires to obtain an interest in this venture. FUCILLO has talked to either [redacted] (ph) or [redacted] (ph), who is close to [redacted] and [redacted] concerning the gambling situation in Maine. FUCILLO contacted [redacted] and desires to have [redacted] from Maine lay off the sports action to [redacted]. There was no definite decision relative to this.

FUCILLO stated that one of the counties in Maine might vote legalized gambling in the near future. He is close to Senator NOYES of Rangley County. NOYES is also president of a bank there. FUCILLO is of the opinion that if legalized gambling is voted favorably, they will be in a position to get in on the ground floor as they have a couple of individuals making application for a chartered club.

Re Boston airtel dated 7/30/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 7/31/63 that HENRY TAMELEO had gone to the home of [redacted] LNU near [redacted] Massachusetts and looked at the jade with another individual believed to be [redacted]. The last offer for the purchase of this jade was said by [redacted] LNU (probably [redacted] to be $20,000 to $22,000 but TAMELEO did not believe this was a true figure. He knows that they were offered two figures of $5,000 and $10,000. TAMELEO is of the opinion that if [redacted] will purchase the jade for $17,000 he will hold it for a week and tell the thieves that he has an offer of $12,000. He believes that the thieves will then take the offer and he could pocket the difference of $5,000 plus whatever small amount they give him for selling the jade. He stated that [redacted] (ph) looked at the jade and said there are only eight or ten unidentifiable pieces. These could be sold instantly but the others would have to be buried for a period of approximately two years. At the end of two years [redacted]

PATRIARCA suggested that the stuff should be moved from [redacted] house inasmuch as too many people have already looked at it and the law will soon find out about it. He suggested to TAMELEO that he make a definite price to the thieves and warn them about walking into a trap. During the conversation TAMELEO stated that [redacted] was not involved in the theft of the jade. [redacted] also suggested that TAMELEO might walk in on [redacted] and get the stuff inasmuch as he was not involved in instant case. TAMELEO stated that he is going to take [redacted] up to JOE MODICA's office (American Finance Company of Boston, Massachusetts) and meet [redacted] there relative to the possible purchase of the jade. He said that [redacted] would probably be able to answer any questions concerning the value of [redacted].

[redacted] approached [redacted] and offered to loan him a large sum of money for a shylock business. ANGIULO told [redacted] to arrange a meet with [redacted] in order to ascertain who [redacted] sponsor was. [redacted] showed up with an individual believed to be [redacted] Massachusetts. [redacted] offered to give $100,000 and 6% interest rate. PATRIARCA and ANGIULO attempted to ascertain why [redacted] would put out a sum of money with no collateral at such a ridiculously low price. RAYMOND knew [redacted] and called him a very shrewd individual.

PATRIARCA told [redacted] and ANGIULO that he is willing to sell his interest in the Hancock Raceway pointing out that he had half a million dollars in this business. [redacted] apparently has an individual who is interested in the track and desired to know from RAYMOND exactly what his price was. RAYMOND told him that he would obtain a price after reviewing his records and let him know in about a week. PATRIARCA also has a possible buyer for the track through THOMAS LUCHESE of New York.

An unknown individual, apparently from New York, told ANGIULO that he desired to become a member of the "family" that ANGIULO was in. ANGIULO professed ignorance and said that the New York group is talking too much. ANGIULO said the individual is "in" with the group in Boston and that if he is in any kind of trouble they will help him.

ADMINISTRATIVE

This case has been afforded close, continuous investigative attention and the Bureau has been notified of all pertinent developments during the course of this investigation.

Careful consideration has been given to all sources concealed and "T" symbols were utilized only in those instances wherein it was necessary to conceal the identity of the source.

On 3/12/63 BS 837-C* advised that [] (LNU) told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he received a telephone call from [] (LNU) who is in New Orleans, calling from a public phone.

[] (LNU) is still on trial and expects the trial to last another month and according to [] did not seem too pessimistic as to the outcome of the trial.

BS 837-C* said that [] in his contact with PATRIARCA, said that [] told him that at the time of his call a close friend of [] was with [] however, the name of this close friend was not mentioned and [] did not know of this friend or if he was one of those on trial with []

[] also told [] that a friend of his friend, who was with him, got "snatched" by a guy from [] in [] and they got in touch with [] friend and told him that they were "going all the way" unless his family comes up with $65,000. This friend came up with the money, which he obtained from an individual in [] who was very friendly with the victim. [] said that although the victim's family could well afford to pay the money, the victim refused to contact his family for the money.

b7c

According to informant, PATRIARCA stated at this time that the victim might possibly have been working a scheme to obtain money from his friend in [redacted] [redacted] then asked [redacted] to contact PATRIARCA in order to see whether there was any way they could get a piece of the $65,000 and suggested that if they were able to derive any money from this, [redacted] would give them half.

Informant said that PATRIARCA told [redacted] that he will have JERRY ANGIULO contact [redacted] Florida, to determine whether or not it would be worthwhile before "it's done." If it is not worthwhile, they could get a line on [redacted] possibly the victim in this case and "shake him down."

PATRIARCA asked [redacted] if [redacted] friend was Italian to which [redacted] did not know. PATRIARCA then said, "There was a big family down there in [redacted] and they all got money."

The above information was furnished the Bureau, Miami and New Orleans by teletype dated 3/14/63.

The New Orleans Office, on 3/15/63, advised that [redacted] referred to above, may probably be identical with ROBERT IASSOFF, Cincinnati gambler on trial at New Orleans for violation of IRS regulations as a result of obtaining free telephone service, case entitled Criminal Indictment #28247, U. S. vs. IASSOFF, Eastern District of Louisiana.

[redacted] defendants are [redacted] and [redacted]

[redacted] has been sick in [redacted] at his residence, approximately two weeks and has not been at the trial, and he has been under the care of [redacted] in [redacted] Florida, but he is expected to return to trial [redacted] [redacted] has been in attendance at this trial in [redacted] residence. Evidence taken from residence on 2/15/63 included an "Autodex Telephone Index" which included the following notation: [] Nev - 01 - WE 7-2016."

On 10/18/62 [] advised that it had been rumored about and that he had heard from two different sources that approximately four months ago HERSHIE LAFF had been kidnapped and held for ransom.

[] advised that he had heard the story from two different sources, both reliable, and their stories varied somewhat in details. One source stated LAFF knew the identity of his kidnappers and was afraid to discuss the matter with anyone. The other version of the story was that he had been kidnapped by some young hoodlums with no underworld connections and strictly for monetary gain.

[] stated further that LAFF himself was not able to raise the ransom money and several of his friends in Miami were "scurrying around town" attempting to raise the money for him. The money was raised in adequate time and LAFF was released unharmed, although [] commented that it was his opinion that LAFF would have been killed if he had not been able to come up with the money.

On 10/18/62, [] advised he heard LAFF was kidnapped about the middle of June, 1962, by "the mob" and held until LAFF paid them over $100,000. LAFF is alleged to have been a bookmaker at Chicago, Illinois, prior to moving to Miami, Florida, about 1956.

HERSHIE LAFF may possibly be identical with "this []" but no information available concerning his being kidnapped except as set out above.

By Airtel dated 4/5/63 the New Orleans Division furnished the following information:

Boston Airtel to Bureau dated 4/11/63 contained the following information:

On 4/10/63 BS 837-C* advised that HENRY TAMELEO had been in contact with RAYMOND PATRIARCA and told PATRIARCA that he (TAMELEO) has a good proposition in Bethlehem, New Hampshire, and an individual named [redacted] from Atlantic City, New Jersey, had something to do with the [redacted] there. Informant was not certain whether [redacted] recently purchased [redacted] but TAMELEO desired the identity of an individual in Atlantic City, New Jersey, with whom he could check concerning [redacted] and ascertain from the contact whether TAMELEO could get him to go along "on the thing." Informant did not know what TAMELEO referred to when he made this comment relative to the "thing."

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO to contact SKINNY (LNU) of Atlantic City to obtain this information.

The following investigation was conducted by the Newark Division in an effort to identify [redacted] and SKINNY as mentioned in Boston Airtel to Bureau dated 4/12/63:

By Airtel dated 4/23/63 the Newark Division furnished the following information:

[redacted] "referred to is undoubtedly [redacted] also known as [redacted] subject of an intensive investigation by the Newark Office and subject Bufile 92-2840.

"SKINNY" referred to is probably PAUL EMELIO D'AMATO, also known as SKINNY, owner of the "500" Club, 6 South Missouri Avenue, Atlantic City, New Jersey, and a close associate of FRANK SINATRA, with whom he is affiliated in the operation of the Cal-Neva Lodge, Lake Tahoe, Nevada. D'AMATO is subject of an AR investigation by the Newark Office under Newark file 92-949, Bufile 92-5044.

In view of the above information the following investigation was conducted at Bethlehem, New Hampshire, by SA [redacted]

On 5/8/63 [redacted] Bethlehem, New Hampshire, advised that [redacted] is unknown to her and she has no knowledge that a person by that name may have an interest in any of the hotels in the town. She also said that [redacted] is also unknown at the local town office.

On 5/10/63 an examination of the records of the Secretary of State, Concord, New Hampshire, reflected that the New Maplewood Operating Co., Inc., was formed under the laws of the State of New Hampshire on 5/28/62 to operate the Maplewood Hotels and properties at Bethlehem, New Hampshire.

b7c On 4/18/63 [redacted] reported that JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE, top lieutenant for ANGIULO, were talking about a person believed to be RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA because they discussed the wife of this person as now having cancer and ANGIULO does not know how this person takes this as the cancer is malignant. ANGIULO was surprised that PATRIARCA would let his wife's illness upset him like it is and ANGIULO said that PATRIARCA has been "jumpy" for the past three weeks and in the last five years he has only been able to get PATRIARCA to Florida with him on one occasion.

- I -

BS 92-118

Informant said that ANGIULO was very critical of PATRIARCA being so affected by his wife's illness and ANGIULO referred to PATRIARCA as a "cry baby" in connection with his running to ANGIULO.

According to informant, ANGIULO wondered who PATRIARCA was going to tell his troubles to now as he would not be able to tell them to his wife any longer.

ANGIULO was also reported to say that he could see this problem in connection with PATRIARCA coming for some time but no one else could see it. Informant said ANGIULO indicated that PATRIARCA's wife had cancer of the lung and the cancer was malignant.

On 5/2,3,13/63 general conferences were held with MICHAEL CORTESE, head, Intelligence Division, Internal Revenue Service, Providence, Rhode Island (IRS). No information was developed during these conferences which is not already known by the Bureau.

On 5/13/63 a general conference was held with ARTHUR MC DEED, Group Supervisor, Intelligence Division, IRS. No information was developed during this conference which is not already known by the Bureau.

On 5/16/63 and 6/10,12/63 conferences were held with RAYMOND J. PETTINE, United States Attorney, Providence, Rhode Island, at his request, at which time a general review was made of this matter. No information was developed which is not already known by the Bureau.

By letter dated 5/8/63 the Newark Office furnished Boston a copy of a letter to the Bureau entitled, "LA CAUSA NOSTRA, AR - Conspiracy," Newark Division, Bufile 92-6054.

This letter made reference to RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and is as follows:

On 4/22/63 [] advised that ANTHONY RUSSO (LITTLE PUSSY) contacted ANGELO DE CARLO (RAY) and during this contact they discussed the CAUSA NOSTRA. Informant was unable to obtain all of the information, but he did furnish whatever information was available. DE CARLO in talking to RUSSO asked RUSSO if he had seen RAYMOND (PATRIARCA) when he was in Boston at which time RUSSO told DE CARLO that he was very close with RAY.

RUSSO, in discussing RAY, attempted to give DE CARLO some examples of his close association with PATRIARCA and mentioned that PATRIARCA told him a story about "FAT JOHN" with whom RUSSO was friendly. DE CARLO was not acquainted with "FAT JOHN" so RUSSO identified him further as "the guy they hit, JOHNNY DEL MAURO (ph), he's dead."

At this point, informant was not in a position to obtain any additional details; however, informant was of the opinion that PATRIARCA participated or was responsible for "FAT JOHN's" demise. "FAT JOHN" is believed to be JOHN J. BUCCHIELLI, who was killed in 1958.

The results of RUSSO's visit and contacts in Providence, Rhode Island, have been furnished the Bureau. It is noted that RUSSO was in Providence, Rhode Island, around March 1963.

By letter dated 6/4/63 the New Haven Division furnished the following information in regard to Boston Airtel to Bureau, dated 5/16/63, wherein the New Haven Division was requested to attempt to identify individuals from the Connecticut area, which people were mentioned by PATRIARCA to BS 837-C*:

that [redacted] probably in Wallingford, Connecticut. This [redacted] may be identical with a [redacted] in Wallingford, which according to a confidential source of this office [redacted] [redacted] It is known that the police are aware of the existence of this operation involving at least the [redacted]

It would also appear from the information supplied by the Boston source that BILL is identical with WILLIAM GRASSO, also known as BILLY, who is currently subject of an Anti-Racketeering investigation, New Haven file 92-237. The WHITEY referred to is obviously identical with RALPH WHITEY TROPIANO who is GRASSO's boss and TROPIANO is subject of current investigation, New Haven file 92-156.

BS 837-C* also makes reference to an individual named [redacted] and this individual is believed to be identical with [redacted] who is a known associate of several Connecticut top hoodlums, namely FRANK PICCOLO of Bridgeport, Connecticut.

Several New Haven informants recently furnished information regarding the activities of [redacted] and it would appear he has recently joined forces with one [redacted] [redacted] better known as [redacted] and several other hoodlums in New Haven. These individuals, according to the informants, have been shaking down some of the other hoodlums in this area and have also been attempting to apparently [redacted]. Reliable informants have advised that [redacted] has the backing of RAYMOND PATRIARCA and [redacted] is known to have had some associations with PATRIARCA in the past.

It will be noted that on 5/14/63, BS 837-C* indicated that an individual from Connecticut had contacted PATRIARCA and referred to DICK WALLACE and the [redacted]

DECK WALLACE is identical with GEORGE D'AURIA, subject of New Haven file 92-157, and WALLACE [redacted] the latter also is the subject of investigation of New Haven file 92-155 and [redacted] in New Haven, Connecticut. Informant of the New Haven Office recently reported that he overheard an argument between [redacted] and [redacted] a [redacted] who operates a bar in New Haven and these individuals were arguing about vending machines in [redacted] establishment. [redacted] and [redacted] have been hanging out at a cigarette vending machine company in New Haven, Connecticut, operated by one [redacted] and it appears probably that these individuals are attempting to steal away from the [redacted] some of their customers.

With respect to the individual referred to by BS 837-C* named [redacted] it is pointed out that [redacted] in the Hartford, Connecticut, area. He is the subject of investigation by the New Haven Office.

The individual who furnished his telephone number as Jackson 8-0637 with his club number as Chapel 6-3135 is apparently identical with [redacted] who is the subject of an Anti-Racketeering investigation in Hartford, Connecticut, New Haven file 92-318. The Jackson telephone number is known to be the home phone number of [redacted] and the Chapel number is listed to a [redacted] in Hartford at which it is known [redacted] frequently visits.

Appropriate investigation will be conducted in an effort to identify the [redacted] and appropriate consideration will be given to possible interstate gambling violations which may arise as a result of the foregoing information.

New England area; that those present were greatly upset over the present situation concerning the wire service operations in this area and Boston, Massachusetts.

According to informant, TAMELEO mentioned that PATRIARCA is considering the idea of doing away with Sportsday Weekly at Boston, Massachusetts, and the Hillroad Publishing and News Company in Cranston, Rhode Island, and that PATRIARCA is most dissatisfied with [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] PATRIARCA and this group discussed the fact that PATRIARCA is considering moving the wire service headquarters to some location just outside of New York City area, place not mentioned to informant by TAMELEO.

If PATRIARCA moves the wire service to this new location, PATRIARCA mentioned that he had a Providence man in mind to head up this office, but no name was mentioned at this time. The name of FRANK FERRARA, now in Miami, Florida, and who was recently released from Federal prison, was mentioned; however, PATRIARCA was not impressed as he has a "beef" with FERRARA in that FERRARA owes PATRIARCA over $30,000 from the trouble that FERRARA was in when he was sentenced to prison. Since then, FERRARA has been very slow in making his payments to PATRIARCA.

According to TAMELEO, if the plan goes into effect the setup will be as follows:

Sportsday Weekly at Boston, Massachusetts, and Hillroad Publishing and News Company, Cranston, Rhode Island, will be closed and one main office set up outside the New York City area.

This main office will have no more than two men in it and the race results will be given to this main office and from there telephone calls will be made to designated public telephone booths in Boston, Massachusetts, and the Providence, Rhode Island, areas. The person receiving the calls, in these areas, will then make local calls to a central location in both areas and that person in turn will make the local calls to the local bookmakers, thereby eliminating long distance calls that can be checked through telephone records.

According to PATRIARCA, this system will cut costs in telephone calls and reduce the overhead and thereby eliminate numerous people who have to handle calls and man the offices.

Informant said that TAMELEO indicated that the wire service operations are going underground because of the inroads made by the FBI in its investigations of both services at Boston, Massachusetts, and Cranston, Rhode Island, and they feel that by keeping these wire services in the open and claiming that they are sports services will not be a suitable defense in the future.

Informant also said that TAMELEO indicated that the men at this meeting were dissatisfied with the results being furnished by these wire services and they want some positive action to be taken by PATRIARCA.

Informant will endeavor to keep abreast of this situation.

BS 92-118

On March 12, 1963, BS T-3 advised that there is no question in his mind that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is in control of the Hancock Race Track, Berkshire County, Western Massachusetts.

Informant said he was not certain about the purpose of the present suit involving Dr. CHARLES FURCOLO, father of former Governor of Massachusetts, and [redacted]. Informant said that from past experiences that any dealings opposed by [redacted] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island, would be on behalf of RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

Informant speculated that it is possible that Dr. FURCOLO obtained the fifty shares of stock in question to be held for PATRIARCA and that FURCOLO was guaranteed a payment of a certain amount of money. Informant felt that FURCOLO, in order not to be disclosed as the actual holder of the stock, utilized the services of [redacted] as a "straw" and when it came time to turn over the stock to the PATRIARCA interests, FURCOLO, still being desirous of remaining anonymous, used [redacted] the PATRIARCA group. The PATRIARCA group paid [redacted] the $150,000 and [redacted] in turn [redacted] FURCOLO. When, and if, FURCOLO complained to the PATRIARCA interests, they undoubtedly told him that they had paid the money in accordance with their agreement to a person whom FURCOLO designated as his agent and that any complaint FURCOLO had was against [redacted] and not the PATRIARCA group.

Informant said he doubts that FURCOLO would ever take any action which would involve or disclose the interest of the PATRIARCA group, even if he was unsuccessful in obtaining his interest from [redacted].

The "Providence Journal," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, carried an article dated June 11, 1963, page 1, captioned, "Judge Rejects Dr. Furcolo's Claims to Stock, Note, Bond." The article is as follows:

"Superior Court Judge Frank E. Smith dismissed yesterday all claims of Dr. Charles L. Furcolo to ownership of 50 shares of stock in Hancock Raceway, Inc., a $25,000 note and a $100,000 U. S. bond.

"Judge Smith denied the claim of Hancock Raceway to ownership of the bond, which he ordered kept in custody of the court. He ruled that the money paid for the bond and the note belonged to Salvatore A. Rizzo, president of Hancock Raceway, and not to the corporation.

"He said it would be inequitable to allow Hancock to recover the bond.

"In his summary of the testimony given during the lengthy equity suit over ownership of the stock, Judge Smith said, 'It was characterized by rank perjury, convenient lapses of memory and a weird and bizarre tale by Carson (Springfield accountant Charles R. Carson) about hiding a $100,000 U. S. bond under a rug in his sitting room for safe keeping and its subsequent disappearance.'

"He said, 'I find that Dr. Furcolo (the father of Democratic former Gov. Foster Furcolo) exercised his real or supposedly political influence with his son and members of the racing commission in effecting the sale of Hancock stock from Murphy (former state Sen. Joseph L. Murphy, D-Boston) and in obtaining racing dates.

"I find that Furcolo's conduct was inequitable, unconscionable and illegal and was directly effective in bringing about the consummation with others of a general scheme to obtain control of Hancock and secure racing dates by the improper exercise of political pressure emanating from his relationship to his son, the governor."

"Judge Smith said Dr. Furcolo dropped his medical practice after his son's election and became an unofficial public relations man for the governor."

"He said Dr. Furcolo, under the pretext of advancing health and welfare programs for employees of Bernard Goldfine Enterprises, received $5,000 from Goldfine, and also $5,000 from Majestic Contractors, Ltd., of Toronto to turn out a welfare plan for that company."

"Judge Smith said it never was intended by Dr. Furcolo to produce such plans."

"Judge Smith noted that Dr. Furcolo testified his income was $50,000. He said the testimony was a gross misstatement because federal tax returns at the trial showed he got greatly below $20,000."

"Reviewing the testimony in his 19-page decision, Judge Smith said Mr. Murphy alleged that Bernard E. Francis, a Harford attorney, told him that he (Francis) represented a group with a political import and he should sell the track because he would not get any racing dates."

"Mr. Murphy sold the stock for $37,500 on March 25, 1960, turning it over to Judge John A. Barry, in whose Pittsfield law office he allegedly had been warned by [redacted] Judge Smith said there was an agreement that Dr. Furcolo would hold 50 shares of stock for [redacted] but when [redacted] asked for the stock, he was refused.

[redacted] started court proceedings, suing Dr. Furcolo for the stock. The elder Furcolo then sued Hancock Raceway for the stock.

"Judge Smith said that when [redacted] dropped his suit, Dr. Furcolo and [redacted] were the [redacted] over ownership of the money and the stock.

"He said that Dr. Furcolo claimed the $25,000 note in [redacted] name really was his since he had advanced the money to get the track started. [redacted] testified he sold the note and stock to Mr. Rizzo for $150,000 at a New York hotel in December, 1961. Mr. Carson said he used part of the purchase money to buy the $100,000 bond in question.

"Among the others introduced into the judge's ruling was [redacted] of the Massachusetts Racing Commission.

"Judge Smith said that during the negotiations for the sale of stock by [redacted] 'was an errand boy who carried certain certificates to [redacted] and was aware of what was going on.'

[redacted] was recently indicted by both Hampshire and Hampden County grand juries which investigated agricultural fair racing at Berkshire Downs, operated by Hancock Raceways. He was indicted for larceny of more than $100 in Hampden County and for soliciting funds for the campaign of Governor Furcolo on Sept. 4, 1959.

No listing was found for any of these businesses in the Miami City or Telephone Directories.

On May 8, 1963, Investigative Clerk [redacted] checked the records of Miami Beach Police Department, Miami Police Department, Dade County Department of Public Safety, Credit Bureau of Greater Miami, and Municipal Court with no record found identifiable with D'ALESSIO.

BS T-4 furnished the following information for the Green Thistle, Inc., a holding company located at 1693 N. E. 123rd Street (North Miami), Miami, Florida.

President is listed as SALVATORE A. RIZZO and [redacted] listed as [redacted] and the directors are the officers with one vacancy.

Green Thistle is a Florida corporation allegedly formed in 1958.

The president, SALVATORE A. RIZZO, is 46 years of age, married and born in New Jersey, date unknown. In 1935-1942, RIZZO was the superintendent of Wood Iathers, Inc., Bronx, New York; 1944-1946 in the U. S. Army; February to May 1946 he was secretary-treasurer of M. R. M. Homes, Inc., New York City. He was also secretary for Guild Homes, Inc., Peekskill, New York. In March 1949 he incorporated C & N Construction Corporation under New York laws, acting as a general contractor for the affiliates it had. In February 1952 he moved to

Since that time, RIZZO has been active in a number of homes in the south Florida area.

[redacted] reportedly holds no interest in the Green Thistle, Inc., and is listed for corporate purposes only.

RIZZO is currently active in the following:

KE-RI-LA Development Company and the R & K Investment Company, Inc., both of which are active in building homes in West Hollywood, Florida, area.

Green Thistle, Inc., is a holding company owning title to several homes and an undisclosed number of mortgages and there are no employees. In 1962 the [redacted] was a [redacted]

On May 1, 1963, BS T-5 advised that [redacted] Ace Dumping Company, North Providence, Rhode Island, was attempting to obtain payment from several customers who were not paying for the privilege of dumping material at the above dump, which is owned by RAYMOND PATRIARCA. Subsequently, PATRIARCA called in some of these customers, identities unknown to the informant, and demanded payment for bills owed. The informant advised that PATRIARCA desires to obtain at least $100 per week from the operation of this dump.

BS T-5 also stated on May 6, 1963, that PATRIARCA sends various individuals to JOSEPH MOLICONE of the County Loan and Finance Company, Providence, Rhode Island, in order to borrow money and also to cash checks which are not endorsed.

On May 7, 1963, BS T-6 advised that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, alias JOE KIRK, of Providence, Rhode Island, was interested in the purchase of the Condado Beach Hotel, Ashford Avenue, Santurce, Puerto Rico. This hotel is allegedly being sold for a figure of over nine million dollars. According to the informant, KRIKORIAN attempted to interest RAYMOND PATRIARCA in purchasing a share of this hotel. PATRIARCA indicated to the informant that he might be interested in purchasing a share of this hotel.

BS T-7 advised on June 3, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was attempting to sell his interest in the Hancock Raceway, Inc., Hancock, Massachusetts. The informant advised that [redacted] the Suffolk Downs Race Track, Boston, Massachusetts, was possibly interested in the purchase of this track; in addition, THOMAS LUCHESE, alias BROWN, of New York was also interested in purchasing stock in this race track.

The informant also advised that Massachusetts House Speaker JOHN THOMPSON indicated that he was against the 42 days of additional racing at Hancock Raceway on the record. However, THOMPSON had made the statement that he was against the 42 days to the newspapers "just to put on a show."

The informant also advised on June 11, 1963, that Senator JOHN E. POWERS, Massachusetts, received a substantial amount of money for his efforts in attempting to obtain the 42 days of additional racing for the Hancock Raceway, Inc. It was alleged by the informant that Massachusetts State Senator FLEMMING would also receive a substantial amount of money in connection with the obtaining of the additional days of racing at Hancock Raceway, Inc.

On May 7, 1963, BS T-8 advised that [redacted] of Providence, Rhode Island, [redacted] business in the Rhode Island area. He was having trouble in collecting payments from his Agents and requested PATRIARCA's assistance in collecting such debts. [redacted] of Revere, Massachusetts, allegedly had a woman Parole Board member contacted by PINKY PANARELLI at Worcester, Massachusetts. PATRICK J. "SONNY" MC DONOUGH, Massachusetts Governor's Councillor, has told PATRIARCA's emissary, THEODORE FUCILLO, that the parole was going through. However, it is to be noted that the parole of [redacted] was recently turned down.

BS T-9 also advised on May 8, 1963, that TEDDY FUCILLO had received an okay from PATRIARCA to open a crap game in Maine. This crap game was to run two or three times a week. According to the informant, FUCILLO was to get in touch with [redacted] in Maine in order to obtain the proper locations.

It should be noted that it was the informant's opinion that PATRIARCA will obtain a piece of these crap games. The informant pointed out that [redacted] is operating a game in Maine at the present time and PATRIARCA derives an income from same.

BS T-10 advised on May 9, 1963, that SAM GRANITO, Boston, Massachusetts, was running a crap game in the Saugus, Massachusetts, area for approximately two weeks. He did not inform PATRIARCA of this game and subsequently PATRIARCA learned of same. PATRIARCA sent GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO to ascertain how long the game had been going on, who was running it and all details concerning same. The informant believed that because of the fact GRANITO was only running the game for two weeks and further that it was only a small game, RAYMOND PATRIARCA took no action against GRANITO.

On May 16, 1963, GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO, Boston, Massachusetts, told BS T-11 that he had received an okay from RAYMOND PATRIARCA to take over the crap game in Lawrence, Massachusetts.

BS T-12 advised on June 3, 1963, that [redacted] alias [redacted] Boston, Massachusetts, owed over $15,000 to various individuals, including RAYMOND PATRIARCA. He was ordered by PATRIARCA to pay off his debts as soon as possible.

BS T-12 also advised on June 4, 1963, that FREDERICK LANGONE, Massachusetts State Representative, requested a donation for his campaign expenses during the last election from RAYMOND PATRIARCA. The informant did not know whether PATRIARCA furnished this donation.

BS T-13 advised on May 22, 1963, that the Eastern Hotel Supply Corporation, Boston, Massachusetts, in which RAYMOND PATRIARCA is financially interested, needed more cash to continue business. PATRIARCA, [redacted] of Somerville, Massachusetts, and [redacted] would not furnish any additional capital. TEDDY FUCILLO was attempting to raise the necessary capital through a Jewish millionaire whose identity the informant did not know. FUCILLO intended to reimburse PATRIARCA with the money the Jewish individual would invest.

BS T-14 advised on May 22, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is financially interested in the Hub Electric Manufacturing Company, 523 Medford Street, Charlestown, Massachusetts. The extent of PATRIARCA's interest was not known to the informant.

The informant also advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA has a financial interest in the booking operations of JOSEPH LOMBARDO of Boston, Massachusetts. PATRIARCA receives large amounts of money monthly from the gambling operations in Worcester and Milford, Massachusetts. PATRIARCA also receives income from a crap game in the vicinity of Boston, Massachusetts.

b7C

In connection with this crap game, the informant advised on June 7, 1963, that the game was operating in Chelsea, Massachusetts, and was being operated by PETER LIMONE, JERRY ANGIULO's top lieutenant. Before they commenced the operation of the game in Chelsea, Massachusetts, ANGIULO went to [redacted]

[redacted] in Chelsea. At this time, [redacted] refused any money. Later, however, [redacted] told LIMONE they needed some money to appoint a new Chief of Police in Chelsea, Massachusetts, and JERRY ANGIULO told the informant he was going to furnish some money, the exact amount not determined by the informant.

It should be noted that the acting Chief of Police in Chelsea, Massachusetts, at the time was ABE BERGIN. The individual who would probably oppose BERGIN in the permanent selection of Chief is [redacted] (NA). The informant was unable to determine which candidate [redacted] desired to have made permanent Chief.

BS T-14 further advised that prior to 1960 PATRIARCA had a 50 per cent interest in the gambling operation of [redacted]. The informant did not know whether PATRIARCA still holds this interest.

BS T-15 advised on June 11, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA derives the sum of $1,000 a month from the numbers operation in the Rhode Island area.

BS T-16 advised on June 10, 1963, that NICK BIANCO, New York City Police Department Number B-482171, had contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA in an effort to effect a peace treaty between the New York families. BIANCO was concerned with the fact that the GAMBINO family of New York City had killed a friend of his, BIANCO's, family. He was thus concerned with the possibility that members of his "family" would start an all-out war in New York City. RAYMOND PATRIARCA, according to the informant, was to meet THOMAS LUCHESE, alias BROWN, and THOMAS EBOLI, alias RYAN, both of New York City, in order to effect a peace treaty.

b7C

BS T-17 advised on July 2, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was interested in lining up the New England delegates to the longshoremen's convention in Miami in July 1963 and have these delegates back [redacted] in the election. PATRIARCA was unable to accomplish anything with [redacted] in Boston, Massachusetts, but did attempt to intercede on behalf of [redacted] with the [redacted] from New Bedford, Massachusetts, through his friend, [redacted] of the Teamsters Union of that city. The informant did not know whether PATRIARCA was successful in obtaining the backing of this delegate.

BS T-18 advised that PETER DI CARLO, who was recently shot in Revere, Massachusetts, at the Surf night club, was made a member of the "family" several years ago. PATRIARCA considered him very weak even when he was active in La Causa Nostra. Because of this weakness, PATRIARCA wanted to kill him, but the informant did not know why DI CARLO was not killed at this time. He assumed, however, that the reason for not killing DI CARLO was at that time he was in with Chief of Police COLIN GILLIS of Revere, Massachusetts, and used this contact to avoid the killing.

BS T-19 advised on July 10, 1963, that [redacted] was recently released from prison. [redacted] is marked for assassination by the [redacted] because of the fact that he, [redacted] allegedly killed another [redacted] several months ago. [redacted] heard that RAYMOND PATRIARCA might be interested in his killing and contacted [redacted] Somerville, Massachusetts, and requested that he intercede for him with RAYMOND PATRIARCA in an attempt to straighten out the argument between [redacted] and [redacted]. PATRIARCA was contacted by an individual unknown to the informant who relayed a message through [redacted] to the effect that PATRIARCA had no interest whatsoever in the argument and that he would take neither side. He wished [redacted] good luck.

On July 18, 1963, BS T-20 advised that [redacted] Springfield, Massachusetts, racketeer, is attempting to obtain the parole of [redacted]

On July 25, 1963, BS T-21 advised that [redacted] was assisting RAYMOND [redacted]

BS T-22 advised on July 29, 1963, that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was holding the money derived from [redacted] at the [redacted] in Providence, Rhode Island. An individual named [redacted] of Providence, Rhode Island, was arrested for this crime and through PATRIARCA's intervention obtained the services of attorney [redacted] of Providence, Rhode Island. After [redacted] had taken his fee from the proceeds [redacted] PATRIARCA kept the remainder of the money to be returned to [redacted] when he is released from custody.

BS T-23 advised on May 31, 1963, that sometime ago [redacted] had borrowed the sum of several thousand dollars from RAYMOND PATRIARCA of Providence, Rhode Island, the reason of which was unknown to informant. He recently sent several hundred dollars to PATRIARCA for payment of this loan. At this time [redacted] still owed approximately half of the original loan.

When PATRIARCA requested that he pay the other half, [redacted] indicated that he had only received half of the loan and that [redacted] had received the other half. It was, therefore, [redacted] opinion that he had completed his debt to PATRIARCA, and that [redacted] owed the other half of the debt. PATRIARCA sent one of his representatives, probably JERRY ANGIULO, to see [redacted] to find out who owed the other half of the loan and to collect it. Informant did not know whether this money has been collected as yet.

Informant also advised that AMATO SANTANIELLO of Boston, Massachusetts, took part in a crap game in New York City area a few months ago, at which time he lost $8,000 to $10,000. The New York individuals started to press SANTANIELLO for repayment of this loan. SANTANIELLO borrowed two or three thousand dollars from ANGIULO, went to New York and gave the sum to THOMAS EBOLI, alias THOMAS RYAN, for part payment of the crap game debt. SANTANIELLO borrowed approximately $1,000 back from EBOLI and again got into a crap game where he lost the thousand dollars.

EBOLI made inquiry concerning SANTANIELLO and was told that he was a degenerate gambler. [redacted] was told to tell the New York individuals that SANTANIELLO is a member of the PATRIARCA family, but they had shut him off because of the fact he was a degenerate.

BS T-24 advised on May 31, 1963, that recently [redacted] PINKY PANARELLI, [redacted] and [redacted] were at the Indian Meadow Country Club at Westboro, Massachusetts. An argument ensued because of the fact that PINKY PANARELLI and [redacted] were needling the [redacted]. And the [redacted] in retort to the needling, made some remarks which concerned [redacted] who became angry. [redacted] finally excused [redacted] because of the fact that he realized that [redacted] is not very intelligent.

BS T-25 advised on June 6, 1963, that he learned that in the late 1930's one [redacted] of Hartford, Connecticut, and [redacted] were involved in a "score" of some type. During the act, [redacted] fell down, at which time [redacted] ran away with the escape car. [redacted] was arrested. When he was released from jail, probably in 1944, [redacted] wanted to kill [redacted] but because of the intervention by NICHOLAS CAMEROTA and [redacted] of Springfield, Massachusetts, the killing never took place. BS T-25 said that later on [redacted] and NICHOLAS CAMEROTA of Springfield, and [redacted] of Worcester, Massachusetts, wanted to have PANARELLI and [redacted] members of the "family."

b7D

RAYMOND PATRIARCA, who reportedly had organized Worcester with the assistance of [redacted] told these three individuals that if they made [redacted] and PANARELLI without [redacted] being made, he himself would make [redacted] [redacted] According to BS T25, PATRIARCA subsequently made all three and they were turned over to the New York "family."

PATRIARCA also made [redacted] and turned him over to a New York family. These individuals were made [redacted] Worcester, Massachusetts.

GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA. ANGIULO has been up since 6:30 a.m., and on his way to Providence, R. I., stopped and read the article in the "Saturday Evening Post" pertaining to Cosa Nostra. It should be noted that the informant stated that this is the first time to his knowledge that ANGIULO was not accompanied by PETER LIMONE. They discussed the article about Cosa Nostra in the "Saturday Evening Post." ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he had talked to a Federal man from Washington the previous night who told ANGIULO it was a program by the KENNEDYS to obtain Federal legislation against gambling and racketeering.

According to ANGIULO, it is a known fact that the KENNEDYS control the "Saturday Evening Post," pointing out that they were bankrupt a few years ago and the KENNEDY family purchased a sizable share of the stock. PATRIARCA questioned ANGIULO in what state he could sue the "Saturday Evening Post." ANGIULO explained that it was the Curtiss Publishing Company and that the headquarters located in Philadelphia, Penna.

At this point, PATRIARCA called his attorney, CHARLES CURRAN, and told him that the main office of the "Saturday Evening Post" is in Philadelphia and indicated that CURRAN was preparing a letter to send to the Curtiss Publishing Company.

BS 837-0* advised on 8/6/63 that RAYMOND told UNMAN that he may have to go to Washington concerning the article appearing in the "Saturday Evening Post." He added that it will be a big headache but that no one will go to jail. All the government could prove is dates, etc.

Referring to VALACHI, RAYMOND said he seems to know everything but thinks the trouble with New York is "talk, talk, talk, all the time." He added that no one in this vicinity ever knew La Causa Nostra existed until this investigation.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI told RAYMOND that he hopes to have the money he owes RAYMOND in three days. He then discusses with PATRIARCA a possible bookmaking operations at the Biltmore Hotel, but they concluded that it would not be possible at this time.

Referring to VALACHI, RAYMOND added that he heard of VALACHI about a year ago; that he is not in jail at the present time but the Feds have him. RAYMOND stated that he did not think he was even a soldier.

RAYMOND discusses the Hancock Raceway with UNMAN and there is apparent reference to the additional 42 days they think will be granted to this racetrack. [redacted] name is mentioned in connection with the Hancock Raceway, but the informant did not obtain this significance.

RAYMOND told UNMAN that he sent $5,000 to the attorney in Connecticut, apparently in connection with the illicit alcohol appeal of EDWARD ROMANO and others. This money was to be used for the appeal purposes. U.S.A.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, discussed with RAYMOND the possibility of obtaining 20 acres of land, plus two small hotels, on St. Martin's Island in the Caribbean. KRIKORIAN indicated he is going to fly to St. Martin's in the near future concerning this possible purchase for $800,000. U.S.A.

KIRK told PATRIARCA that the 42 days of additional racing for the Hancock Raceway passed the Senate Ways and Means Committee, but that it was "a lot of work."

KIRK refers to the "Saturday Evening Post" article, to which RAYMOND replied that it was just harassment; that he would probably have to go to Washington again and testify. RAYMOND stated that "the people in Washington have been stealing millions every year, but no one bothers them." He also stated Supreme Court Justice DOUGLAS, who is 64 years old, just married a girl 23, and that he should be arrested.

HENRY TAMELEO discusses two diamonds he purchased in New York, one of which he is giving to RAYMOND. He furnished RAYMOND with the "Saturday Evening Post" article.

An individual, possibly [redacted] of Springfield, Mass., asked RAYMOND if he knew VALACHI. RAYMOND said he knew him years ago in Miami and used to see him with [redacted]. He added that VALACHI was a torpedo.

RAYMOND tells [] that all the phones are tapped 24 hours a day and warns [] to tell everyone not to use the phones under any circumstances. He points out that one day [] called him and the next day [] Suffolk County [] knew all about him. He added that [] got all the phones tapped. RAYMOND told [] and [] (LNU) to go ahead with the attempts to obtain the parole of []. [] said they are working on the [] Parole Board and have "SONNY" MC DONOUGH on their side; further, that they will see the Judge in connection with this parole. RAYMOND tells him that when they try to obtain the parole they did not have [] but finally got to him to vote for the parole.

Because of the fact that [] put [] on the spot by accusing him of getting money for the parole, "SONNY" MC DONOUGH was also put on the spot by interview by the FBI.

[] wants to get a Judge who is friendly with [] to see if he can work the parole for []. RAYMOND replied that if it takes money to do it, we have got it here.

RAYMOND also instructed [] that all future meets should be in Italian neighborhoods where there will be little chance of detection by feds.

He also cautioned the use of phones again and pointed out to [] that when [] wants to contact him he, [] calls PATRIARCA's lawyer and the lawyer lets RAYMOND know the time and place [] wants to meet him in New York.

Concerning the Hancock Raceway, RAYMOND said that he is going to have [] Rockingham Race Track, contacted and that either he or [] will have to buy the other out, as the two tracks, namely the Hancock Raceway and the [] in Vermont, cannot operate at the same time.

RAYMOND added that the mistake the members of La Causa Nostra made years ago was that they did not get into legitimate businesses as a "front." He was of the opinion that things will get worse under the KENNEDY regime.

On 8/2/63, BS 837-C* advised that [redacted] (LNU) (not TAMELEO) and LOUIS (possibly TAGLIANETTI) told PATRIARCA that [redacted] contemplated visiting PATRIARCA in the near future. [redacted] stated that [redacted] was upset over the incident that occurred sometime ago. He stated that at that time [redacted] went to [redacted] from FRANK FERRARA (former owner of the Sportsday Weekly, Boston, Mass.). When he returned [redacted] took [redacted]. He later found out that some of this money belonged to PATRIARCA, but at the time he did not realize same.

During the conversation PATRIARCA mentioned that the reason he had not seen [redacted] in New York was that when he goes there he is very conscious of a tail and does not visit anyone in New York, with the exception of those whom he is going there expressly to see. [redacted] got $25,000 in fees, apparently from FERRARA every year.

PATRIARCA mentioned that he gave [redacted] $75,000 that he had "laying around for this thing." It was not clear to the informant whether he was referring to the race wire service or some other venture. However, he said that FRANK FERRARA, [redacted] and himself had a piece of it. He mentioned that FRANK FERRARA was not a member of "the family."

LOUIS stated that years ago [redacted] put up $40,000 for bookmaking at a track in New England. [redacted] was supposed to participate for a share but refused without [redacted] knowledge. [redacted] later asked for the $10,000 back, and LOUIS explained to him that he never did accept the share offered to him by some other individual.

[redacted] asked LOUIS to contact [redacted] aka [redacted] in Boston and have him return the money he owes. [redacted] borrowed this money from [redacted] while in Florida this past winter.

HENRY TAMELEO had approached [redacted] of the American Finance Co. who said that he would pay $15,000 for the jade.

TAMELEO called PETER LIMONE who had talked to the kids who stole the jade and offered them $12,000. He did not know whether they would accept the sum of $12,000 as yet. [redacted] offered $15,000 and he expected to make a profit of $3,000 himself, part of which he would give to PATRIARCA. He would also give [redacted] $100, [redacted] (PH) would get $100, and [redacted] would get $100. TAMELEO commented that [redacted] made two trips in connection with the jade and that "we can use him in the future."

He explained that [redacted] would also receive approximately $2,600 from the individuals who stole the jade as he, [redacted] had fingered same. PATRIARCA then attempted to have TAMELEO obtain the entire $2,600 from [redacted] for money owed PATRIARCA.

TAMELEO explained that approximately four or five years ago [] borrowed $4,000 from [] for a period of 30 days. He returned $1,000 at one time and later was called in by JOE ANSELMO and told to pay the balance of $3,000 off in $50 a month payments.

Recently [] indicated to [] that he had paid the $4,000, with the exception of possibly $300 or $400. [] told TAMELEO that this was not true; that he still owes approximately $2,000.

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO to instruct ANSELMO to get [] together with [] aka [] and the [] and settle their dispute.

TAMELEO stated that he was going to get [] to force him to pay the money he owes the American Finance Co.

According to TAMELEO, [] said that the American Finance Co. has approximately $86,000 out "under the table." [] was to draw $100 a week and "TAMELEO and PATRIARCA" were also supposed to draw a certain amount of money not known to the informant.

[] has approximately $160,000 to $180,000 on the street and he is paying some Jew 2% a month for a loan of $60,000. TAMELEO told [] to go and collect the amount of money out, apparently loan-shark money.

TAMELEO has made arrangements with [] for [] the American Finance Co. himself and "pick it up." He said that [] HENRY TAMELEO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA have "Panarama," or "whatever the name of that company is." It appeared that this might be some sort of a finance company. [] is presently looking over the books to determine what money can be collected.

PATRIARCA advised that he gave $100,000 to [] legitimately sometime ago, probably to the American Finance Co. He spoke of a [] (PH) who has apparently borrowed from the company $160,000 to $170,000. RAYMOND is of the opinion that [] has gotten some of this money back from [] and has made no record of it.

RAYMOND has instructed TAMELEO to get a hold of the Jew because he believes the Jew would implicate [redacted]. At this point RAYMOND said that he would never forget the words that PHIL BUCCOLO said to him when he was made. The words were, "Be very careful of [redacted] and [redacted]. They will put you in a lot of trouble; they will put you in a swindle and leave you there without ever knowing you were implicated until the roof falls in."

HENRY TAMELEO mentioned that he, probably referring to [redacted] said that they ought to kill [redacted] because he is two-faced and that they never know what he is doing in the business.

RAYMOND mentioned that [redacted] was against JERRY ANGIULO when JERRY was made.

PATRIARCA said that MAXIE BEAR should never have gone into a place where someone else had been operating, but should have taken a clean place. LIMONE said that he advised BEAR that he should move every month in the future, like he does, (meaning the ANGIULO operations).

ANGIULO talked with PATRIARCA about [redacted] aka [redacted] and he was critical of [redacted] ANGIULO told PATRIARCA about some difficulty between JOSEPH ANSELMO, aka JOE BURNS, and [redacted] with an individual named [redacted] who is associated with another individual named [redacted]. In the course of the contact, ANGIULO reported to PATRIARCA that [redacted] who [redacted] for ANGIULO, is always referred to by [redacted] as [redacted]. He told PATRIARCA that he, [redacted] had better stop this nonsense in that "my man" are only people who are "friends of ours" and "my man" cannot be applied to "suckers" who we have around us. ANGIULO also indicated that [redacted] was not a member of the "family."

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that it is his understanding that when a "man" had some difficulty, he should go to his "caporegima." PATRIARCA agreed and said when the "caporegima" disagrees with the man, the man can then go to the "Consuleri." The "Consuleri" can only give advice, but cannot make a decision. The "Consuleri" can then sit down with the boss and they can iron the matter out or bring the "man" in.

It was noted in this conversation that ANGIULO said that the reason that he and PETER LIMONE are here with RAYMOND is because "we belong to you."

ANGIULO indicated to PATRIARCA that this came up about JOE BURNS going out of the area without advising RAYMOND PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that JOE BURNS should have told these people who made the comment about him leaving the area without advising RAYMOND, "I'm responsible to Unman visited RAYMOND PATRIARCA and counted out $223.00, which was RAYMOND's share from Unman's booking activities. Unman and RAYMOND then discussed how Commissioner STONE, Rhode Island State Police, was very much disturbed when the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. took out some telephones of a bookmaker who was being investigated for the past six months by the Rhode Island State Police.

RAYMOND PATRIARCA told Unman that he will be at his office tomorrow only until 9:00 or 10:00 AM, and that he is going away for two or three days. RAYMOND advised Unman that he would be at his office from 10:00 to 12:00 noon on Saturday, and that Saturday afternoon he was going to attend the [redacted] at the El Morocco in Johnston, R. I.

On 8/21/63, BS 837-C* furnished the following information:

TED FUCILLO visited RAYMOND PATRIARCA at his office, and tells RAYMOND that approximately a month ago, he saw J. L. During the conversation, J. L. said to tell RAYMOND that he was contacted by a guy who told him there was a lot of talk about lotteries and the thousands of dollars that are being spent on gambling. This individual told J. L. that he can get [redacted] for $1500.00. J. L. made a commitment to this man if [redacted]

J. L. stated that he told [redacted] close associate, this story, and that they wanted everything kept quiet. FUCILLO told LOMBARDO that they knew all about [redacted] and how it isn't going to cost him any money. LOMBARDO then stated that SONNY MC DONOUGH (Governor's Council, PATRICK MC DONOUGH) had sent word to him when he was at Tiffany's Restaurant stating that he wanted to see FUCILLO. J. L. stated that when he sees MC DONOUGH, he should not make any reference to the $1500.00 commitment that he made.

RAYMOND PATRIARCA and TED FUCILLO are both of the opinion that this commitment was made to Attorney [redacted]

FUCILLO stated that [redacted] recently visited the Board of Parole and they expect [redacted] within the next ten days. FUCILLO stated he made an appointment to see SONNY MC DONOUGH at 2:00 PM on 8/22/63.

ANTHONY CATALDO joined FUCILLO in conversation with RAYMOND PATRIARCA. CATALDO told RAYMOND that he received a telephone call about ten days ago from New York in which the caller mentioned RAYMOND PATRIARCA as being a friend. CATALDO told this individual that he should call the individual he just named and that that individual would get in touch with him. He stated the telephone call was the result of a contract that he has with [redacted] who was supposed to [redacted]

[redacted] CATALDO in Revere. [redacted] will not appear, and does this trying to break the contract, which will cost [redacted] $5,000.00. The telephone caller was saying that he was a friend of [redacted] from Chicago.

RAYMOND PATRIARCA stated he knew nothing about the telephone call, and that he intends to go there (New York) today, and while there, he will look into the matter and endeavor to ascertain who the individual was who used his name in making the call to CATALDO. He told CATALDO that unless the caller is someone real big, he thinks CATALDO should endeavor to collect his $5,000.00, but if it is someone who can do them a favor, that would be a different story.

We have developed information through our highly confidential coverage of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, who is a leading hoodlum figure and the commission's representative in the New England area, is represented by attorneys Saul Friedman and Charles Curran and in fact Curran is often recommended by Patriarca to his associates concerning criminal matters.

By letter dated January 30, 1963, Boston requested authority to conduct a survey to determine the feasibility of a microphone surveillance on the office of Attorney Saul Friedman, Providence, Rhode Island, which request was denied at that time inasmuch as a thorough review of the facts as furnished by the Boston Office concerning relationships between Patriarca and Saul Friedman was basically that of a client and attorney in that Friedman and Curran acted as the advisor for Patriarca and at that time it did not appear that they were acting as criminal associates of Patriarca.

As you recall, Curran recently defended [redacted] on a first degree murder charge in Rhode Island which defense was largely financed by Patriarca.

LBI

We have information that Friedman is fronting for Patriarca at the Hancock Raceway in Hancock, Massachusetts, and Friedman is listed as the director of the track and holds a large amount of stock in this raceway, whereas Patriarca's name does not appear in any of the records. Patriarca on many occasions has instructed individuals who visit him in an effort to have him invest money in various enterprises to see Friedman and it would appear that Friedman very well handles most of Patriarca's financial interests. It would appear that Friedman is active as a front for Patriarca's financial involvement in various businesses and a misur installed in his office would possibly accurately determine to what extent Friedman is actually involved in Patriarca's racket activities.

Memorandum to Mr. Belmont
RE: RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

The Boston Office advised by airtel dated 8-8-63 that BS 837-C* reported that Patriarca in a discussion with an individual believed to be [redacted] of Springfield, Massachusetts, cautioned [redacted] all of the phones are tapped twenty-four hours a day and warned [redacted] to tell everyone not to use the phones under any circumstances. Patriarca told [redacted] that when Thomas Luchese (the notorious Three Fingers Brown) a New York member of the commission, wants to contact Raymond, he calls Patriarca's lawyer who we have determined to be the law firm of Friedman and Curran and the lawyer lets Raymond know the time and place Brown wants to meet him in New York.

ACTION:

Despite the fact that Friedman and Curran are members of the Bar, it is recommended that Boston be authorized to conduct a survey to determine the feasibility of a microphone surveillance in view of the fact that it appears that Friedman, acting as an associate of Patriarca, not only handles the financial interests of Patriarca, but in fact is a contact point for members of the commission to arrange meetings with Patriarca. A microphone surveillance at this location could well provide excellent criminal intelligence information, not only of value concerning Patriarca, but as well a criminal picture throughout the eastern United States.

The attached airtel authorizes Boston to conduct a survey and, if possible, to install a microphone surveillance provided full security can be guaranteed. The authorization to install as well as survey is being granted at this time in order to lessen the risk of a second entry into the premises.

Two unmen mentioned dice game which they are operating and which they state they give [redacted] $100.00 and realize they should give him more, but cannot do so because of the limited profits. RAYMOND agrees that this is satisfactory.

JOSEPH KIRKORIAN mentioned to RAYMOND a totalisator machine which he had discussed with [redacted] Lincoln Downs in Rhode Island. He stated that an individual named [redacted] the Totalisator Company, who has been with the company for 25 years, had thought of this machine which, if put into operation at various race tracks, could net them approximately $175,000.00. [redacted] told KIRKORIAN that he would use this machine as such if perfected immediately at his Lincoln Downs Race Track, and they could then put it in at Berkshire Downs Race Track, as well as approaching [redacted] the Taunton Dog Track, Taunton, Mass.

KIRKORIAN stated that if the deal in which RAYMOND would be cut in goes through, it would cost them nothing, and if it fails it would only cost a few dollars for expenses.

KIRKORIAN told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he talked with [redacted] who stated that possibly they could steal one of the totalisator machines at the Lincoln Downs Track; photograph it; examine it, and give the information to [redacted] (PH) who mentioned this deal originally to [redacted]. KIRKORIAN stated that the deal would be unsuccessful without [redacted] assistance.

KIRKORIAN would like to set up a corporation concerning this enterprise, and that he could possibly get $15,000.00 from [redacted] (INU), and $15,000.00 from some other individual, name not mentioned. KIRKORIAN stated that there are approximately 112 race tracks throughout the country that could use this machine.

KIRKORIAN stated that he met [redacted] Massachusetts Racing Commission) recently and [redacted] told KIRKORIAN that he does not think KIRKORIAN's case relating to his arrest by Mass. State Police recently in connection with the Berkshire Downs Race Track would ever come to trial since the Massachusetts authorities have not got a good case against him. RAYMOND agrees with this statement.

KIRKORIAN states that he endeavored to get in touch with State Senator JOHN POWERS but was unable to do so since POWERS was still in Hawaii, and that the Legislature is waiting for POWERS to return before they take any action concerning the additional racing dates for Berkshire Downs Race Track. KIRKORIAN stated that [redacted] will back POWERS in endeavoring to have the Legislature pass the additional racing dates.

KIRKORIAN stated that [redacted] at the State House, is creating a lot of trouble for them. [redacted] is the [redacted] Wonderland Dog Track, (Revere, Mass.)

RAYMOND PATRIARCA inquires if [redacted] works for [redacted] and KIRKORIAN replies that [redacted] does.

KIRKORIAN mentions about a deal in St. Thomas and St. Martin Islands, Puerto Rico. He states that he has pictures of a location consisting of 20 acres of beautiful land and beach, where they can build a 2400 room hotel for approximately $600,000.00 to $800,000.00. He stated that the Dutch Government wants to be associated with this business venture, but KIRKORIAN feels that he can get the money from bankers in that area. He stated that they would not have to pay any taxes if they build this hotel, and could obtain large crowds for the gambling casino since it is only 35 minutes from Puerto Rico; 20 minutes from Miami, and the KLM Airlines flies to Puerto Rico twice a week from New York.

RAYMOND appeared interested in this business venture, and told KIRKORIAN to obtain additional details.

KIRKORIAN states that [redacted] is complaining about a large amount of bookmakers operating at the Lincoln Downs Race Track, which is presently running a night race meet, and states that business is very bad. RAYMOND mentions that he will get together with [redacted] on Monday, 8/26.

Unman (possibly HENRY TAMELEO) discusses with RAYMOND the recent killings in New York, and RAYMOND states how the "kids" are killing one another while the other guys are up in the farm with all their money. RAYMOND states that he will go to New York on Wednesday and will meet with TOMMY RYAN. Unman states that it is very dangerous to go there, but RAYMOND says that he must go.

Unman states that he heard they threw out that "big fellow" to which RAYMOND replied, "Yes, [redacted] (inaudible)", who is one of the bookies in New York. RAYMOND refers to TOMMY RYAN as a nice guy.

Unman continues that he tried to get $5,000 prior to the gypsy cab situation developed in Boston (individual he tried to obtain this money from not mentioned). This situation relates to "gypsy cab drivers" being barred from the Logan Airport in East Boston.

RAYMOND tells unman when he goes to Boston Tuesday that he should contact J. L. (JOSEPH LOMBARDO) to see if he can contact [redacted] to have him contact [redacted] so that [redacted] will stop fighting against additional racing dates for Berkshire Downs Race Track. [redacted] for Wonderland Dog Track and is a close associate of [redacted] for the Wonderland Dog Track).

RAYMOND suggests that if money has to be paid to [redacted] that this be done. He states that he would like to know the results of J.L.'s efforts to have [redacted] stop his lobbying against the bill.

Unman states he will see J.L. and if he returns early enough Tuesday evening, he will drop by RAYMOND's home or see him at his office before RAYMOND leaves for New York. RAYMOND states he will be at his office Wednesday between 8:30 and 9:00 AM. RAYMOND desires this information inasmuch as he wants to make it available to someone in New York who telephonically contacted RAYMOND and made this request.

ReBuairtel 8-22-63.

From recent newspaper publicity the legislature of the State of Massachusetts by voice vote defeated a bill to grant an additional 42 days of racing to Berkshire Downs Race Track at Hancock, Massachusetts. Immediately following this legislative action, Massachusetts State Senate President John E. Powers, who sponsored the above measure, according to newspaper sources, reported he would make every effort to revive Governor Peabody's racing reform proposals which were before the Senate Ways and Means Committee for study, and if successful, he would predict that the study committee of the Governor's proposals would recommend next year the same recommendations which Powers and the House Committee investigating racing made this year.

In view of the above stand taken by Powers, you should continue to pursue the investigation outlined in reBuairtel concerning Powers' association with Massachusetts Senator Flemming and an individual named [redacted] as well as their association with the criminal element in Massachusetts. Following completion of this investigation, Boston will submit recommendations to the Bureau concerning dissemination to the Massachusetts Governor or other responsible state official concerning the background of Berkshire Downs Race Track and the control which the Patriarca group exerts behind the scenes.

This matter is to receive preferred investigative attention and the Bureau kept advised of all pertinent developments.

House Vote Bars More Days Of Racing for Hancock Track

By JOE ALBANO and FRANK THOMPSON

The House in a series of lightning maneuvers Tuesday defeated a bill to grant an additional 42 days of racing to Berkshire Downs in Hancock—a smashing victory for Gov. Peabody. The bill was killed on voice vote. Reconsideration was moved immediately—and defeated—and the measure was killed for this session.

The defeated bill contained a House Ways and Means Committee amendment which would have permitted granting the extra dates to tracks now getting the maximum 66 days. This means no flat racing track in Massachusetts will be able to get additional dates this year.

Rejection of the bill came less than 24 hours after Gov. Peabody vowed he would veto the measure unless the Legislature acted affirmatively on his recommendation to clear up the "cloud of suspicion hanging over Massachusetts racing."

Rep. James J. Craven, Jr. (D.) of Jamaica Plain played a major role in defeat of the bill.

It represented a dramatic defeat for Senate President John E. Powers, who sponsored the measure, passed earlier in the Senate, and House Speaker John F. Thompson who sided with him in the effort to get it through the Legislature.

Thompson left the State House immediately after adjourning the day's session. Gov. Peabody also was not available for comment.

Powers took the defeat gracefully.

"The House in its wisdom," he said, "because of the position the governor had taken when he referred to 'a cloud of suspicion over the racing industry' . . . went against it for that reason."

"I did not interfere with the House action, made no attempt to dissuade them. They felt they didn't want it. And I accept their decision."

He said he would not file the measure again, that "I could never fight the forces lined up against this bill. Your intentions are almost impugned for doing so."

He said he would make every effort to revive the governor's racing reform proposals which are before the Senate Ways and Means Committee for study. "If successful," he said, "I will predict that the study committee of the governor's proposals will recommend next year the same recommendations that I, and the House committee investigating racing made this year. There's no getting away from it we are losing revenues and a further study will prove us right."

The House action lasted only 25 minutes when the bill finally came up as the leadership, apparently aware it lacked the votes for passage, fought a delaying action. Thompson was closeted in his office for most of the afternoon, meeting with members in an effort to win their votes.

As it reached the floor the bill contained a House Ways and Means Committee amendment permitting granting of extra dates to tracks now getting the maximum 66 days.

Rep. Wallace B. Crawford (R), Pittsfield, raised a point of order on this. Thompson agreed. The amendment was eliminated.

Then the bill itself was defeated.

Boston is to be constantly alert, particularly through contact with BS 827-C*, for the mode of travel to be used by Patriarca and Tameleo with regard to their trip to New York City, probably on 9/23/63. Every effort, in keeping with complete security of the above source, is to be made by Boston to be in a position to turn Patriarca over to New York Agents, in order that his place of abode in New York City can be established and plans thereafter made by the New York Office for coverage of his activities in New York during ensuing week.

With regard to discussion concerning "making" one Nick or Chick a member of the "family" on Wednesday, 9/25/63, "in case they want to make peace Thursday," it is possible that Patriarca is referring to Nick Bianco, a Brooklyn, New York, hoodlum who is known to be associated with the [redacted] and who recently visited Patriarca in an attempt to have Patriarca intercede in the Gallo-Profaci warfare. New York should consider Bianco a definite possibility as the individual to be "made" on 9/25/63, and appropriate investigation should be conducted by New York, particularly with selected informants, such as [redacted] in a position to be aware of Bianco's activities, and to assist you in attempted coverage of the ceremony in which this new member of La Cosa Nostra is to be "made." It is noted that Patriarca indicated that this is to take place at 4:00 p.m. on 9/25/63 in New York at "the Roma." New York is to conduct logical inquiry in an effort to identify the location referred to by Patriarca as "the Roma."

This situation offers an unusual opportunity to establish coverage of one of the most significant and secret functions of this organization. The successful establishment of coverage of such a ceremony could be of great value in the future in substantiating the formality of this organization, and in supporting our efforts to obtain new legislation to more adequately cope with La Cosa Nostra.

Boston and New York are to closely coordinate your efforts in this matter and both offices are to keep the Bureau advised of all pertinent developments.

PATRIARCA told HENRY TAMELEO of Providence, R. I. that he is going to NYC, probably on Monday, September 23rd. It should be noted that the informant was not positive about this date but did learn the following:

PATRIARCA is going to New York with HENRY TAMELEO and that they are going to make NICK or CHICK a member of the "family" Wednesday night, 9/25/63, at the Roma. The reason they are going to make NICK on Wednesday night is "in case they want to make peace Thursday." If they did, he indicated that he (PATRIARCA) would be tied up trying to effect the peace. PATRIARCA has obtained permission from the Commission to make NICK because it was an emergency and pointed out that if it were not an emergency, the Commission would not recognize him as a member. He obtained the permission from [] (LNU) to make NICK a member and the ceremony is to take place at 4:00 p.m. on 9/25/63.

RAY indicated he talked to [] only for a short time because [] was coming down and [] did not want to permit the boy to see PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA does not like to hang around New York when he is conducting business there but only stay a sufficient amount of time to allow him to conduct his business.

RAYMOND was unable to understand [] completely "as he juggles his words all the time." [] did tell him, however, that some guys are coming tomorrow, meaning 9/14/63, and [] (LNU), [] and another individual (not known) went there on 9/12/63. Informant was unable to ascertain the significance of this but was of the opinion that it concerned the selling of points in some gambling casino. The sale is a legitimate sale and the person investing would obtain at least 6% on his investment legitimately.

PATRIARCA instructed TAMELEO to go to Boston and tell JERRY ANGIULO what is going on and the Commission has OK'd the making of this kid (NICK). PATRIARCA is going to turn NICK over to an individual, whose name the informant could not ascertain, or "whoever they put in Chicago."

PATRIARCA advised that the other kid, [] (LNU), called [] (LNU) and he, [] is going to string him out. Informant was unable to ascertain the significance of this.

RAYMOND said that the other 24 guys are not made, but the informant did not ascertain the significance of this.

PATRIARCA then told TAMELEO to tell JOE (possibly JOSEPH LOMBARDO of Boston) that the boss and underboss in New York are out; that right now that "family" is under the Commission. PATRIARCA did not know who they were going to make as boss of this "family" as they have not picked the person as yet. He specifically warned TAMELEO to give this information to JOE and JOE alone; if he wants to tell it to anyone else that is his business. He also told TAMELEO to tell JOE that the kid will be made at 4 o'clock on September 25th.

On 9/16/63, [REDACTED] Providence, R. I., has been summonsed to appear before IRS for a formal interview inasmuch as he has not reported correct income. Consideration is being given to possible criminal action.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI discussed his income tax case with RAYMOND. The Judge recently allowed a bill of particulars to be answered by the government.

RAYMOND explained to TAGLIANETTI the court procedure in Federal Court.

On 8/17/63, BS 837-C* advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO discussed with RAYMOND PATRIARCA the Indian Meadow Country Club in Westboro, Mass. JERRY told RAYMOND that the future of the club looked bad, and there was discussion of a possible receivership. The discussion also concerned the possible payoff of the Small Business Administration first mortgage loan which has a balance now of $170,000, and the second mortgage on the club would automatically become the first mortgage. JERRY told RAYMOND that [redacted] was left out of the second mortgage and that the [redacted] (meaning [redacted]) controls the second mortgage, but 50% of the second mortgage belongs to JERRY. JERRY claimed that no one knew that the [redacted] and [redacted] had registered a second mortgage in the amount of $200,000 (actually $193,306.64) in order to protect themselves.

JERRY claimed that all the banks know that the Club is under investigation by the Feds; also, that he was talking to [] (PH) (believed to be []) a Boston real estate company headed by [] concerning the obtaining of a $500,000 loan.

ANGIULO then told RAYMOND that he had built up [] net worth statement and also had done the same for the []. ANGIULO also told RAYMOND that [] was telling everyone he had no money.

In discussing the Club, generally, ANGIULO said part of the problem is that [] and the [] are both golfers and, because of this, they are "mental." ANGIULO then said that he wants to tell the [] that if he wants out to get up the money and then they would tell the [] what they wanted.

ANGIULO said that he had talked to [] at the Club, who is also [] and she told him that every month they end up with $3,000 more in Accounts Payable and now owe $55,000. ANGIULO said that all [] has there is one square building and there is nothing to show for the amount of money that he spent. He said that only a folding door separates the dining room from the area where guys are running around with sweatshirts.

ANGIULO said that in the next 30 or 60 days they will have to make a move or [] will let all the creditors move in and take over. ANGIULO said that [] told him that they needed $50,000 to $60,000 to advertise the Club, and ANGIULO told him it is impossible to get up that kind of money.

Informant advised that [] gave [] $20,000 for loan-sharking purposes and told [] not to mention this fact to anyone. [] mentioned same to ANGIULO for whom he shylocks. ANGIULO told [] to go back to [] and tell [] that he, ANGIULO, found out about the $20,000 and took it from []. It appeared that ANGIULO will not return this money to [].

JERRY stated that JOE MODICA attempted to sell him a machine which he, MODICA, obtained in New York. This machine is placed on the telephone and records all conversation, in addition to acting as an answering service. MODICA asked $700 or $800 for this machine. ANGIULO and PATRIARCA both were critical of the machine and stated it had been out for two years.

ANGIULO stated that Worcester, Mass. has a makeup of over $12,000 since last month.

On 9/17/63, THEODORE FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that he met NICK, who was in a hospital in the Bronx, concerning the possible investment of land and building in the State of Maine. At the time NICK had with him a [redacted] (PH) who is the [redacted] and [redacted] told FUCILLO what to do in order to develop this land. [redacted] will represent NICK, and FUCILLO will have to obtain an attorney in Maine to represent them, apparently meaning PATRIARCA, and FUCILLO. The land was appraised for $85,000; the building, $100,600; and this, together with personal property, amounted to approximately $235,000. They desire to get a $200,000 loan on this property and building; however, the loan company will only give them approximately two-thirds of the appraised value. FUCILLO will keep PATRIARCA advised of this situation.

PATRIARCA asked FUCILLO to see MICHAEL LOPRESTI, former State Senator from East Boston, Mass., in order to get either his [redacted] or [redacted] a job as a hostess at the Logan Motel, Boston, Mass.. She had previously worked in a place which the owners lost, and it is now being run by an ex-State Trooper.

FRANK CUCCHIARA saw FUCILLO in Maine the day previous. He was with [redacted]. According to FUCILLO, he did not look too good.

FUCILLO stated that [redacted] although he had a good winner the other day, failed to pay his debt of $600.

UNMAN stated that [redacted] has gotten an OK to run a game. [redacted] desires to open a barboot game with no opposition; however, UNMAN wants to move in on [redacted] and has obtained a Massachusetts license bearing a Massachusetts address to prove that he is not a resident of another State, if apprehended. He stated that he hired an apartment in Massachusetts and sublet it to [redacted].

Another UNMAN who owns a "joint" and had leased same out to [] (LNU) for $20 a day complained to RAYMOND that he was not receiving his payment of $20 per day. This joint, which is actually a booking operation, does $3,500 a week and UNMAN asks RAYMOND to intercede for him. This UNMAN had worked the joint for 15 or more years and derived a yearly income of $20,000 to $25,000. RAYMOND said that he will get a hold of [] and talk to him concerning this.

Further, it is to be noted that under case entitled, "LA COSA NOSTRA; AR, CONSPIRACY" the Boston Office by airtel dated 6/20/63 furnished New York a verbatim transcript of a conversation between RAYMOND L. In view of the previous conversation that RAYMOND PATRIARCA had with NICK BIANCO it appears that this NICK is also NICK BIANCO and that RAYMOND is affording him protection by making him a "button". It appears also that by making NICK a "button" it would show good faith to the [redacted] faction and would probably assist in making peace within the MACLIOTTO family.

New York does not know who the [redacted] LNU is that RAYMOND got permission from to make NICK a member. Further, New York is presently conducting an extensive file review to determine if there is any restaurant, business, social club, coffee house, etc. compatible with the name ROMA and RAYMOND PATRIARCA, in an effort to determine the location of the proposed meeting on 9/25/63 at 4 PM.

Boston should conduct a file review to determine if at any time PATRIARCA has ever referred to the ROMA before and indicated what type of business or where its location might be in an effort to assist New York in locating this establishment.

RAYMOND L.S. ^(S)PATRIARCA, AKA, AR.

BS 837-C* ADVISED ON SEPTEMBER 21, 1963 THAT RAYMOND PATRIARCA TOLD HENRY TAMELEO THAT THAT THING IS OFF UNTIL FRIDAY, NOT ON ACCOUNT OF THEM BUT ON ACCOUNT OF ME (PATRIARCA).

PATRIARCA SAID HE WAS AT THE LAWYERS AND HAS TO GO TO COURT ON WEDNESDAY MORNING. THE LAWYER SAID THAT THEY CANNOT POSTPONE IT ANY LONGER. THIS APPARENTLY REFERS TO A HEARING CONCERNING THE TEMPORARY INJUNCTION PATRIARCA RECENTLY OBTAINED WHICH PERMITTED DUMPING OF MATERIALS AT HIS DUMP, THE ACE DUMPING COMPANY, IN NORTH PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND. ACCORDING TO NEWSPAPERS, THE HEARING IS SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY MORNING AT THE SUPERIOR COURT, PROVIDENCE.

PATRIARCA ALSO TOLD TAMELEO THAT SAM RIZZO (PRESIDENT OF THE BERKSHIRE DOWNS RACE TRACK, HANCOCK, MASS.), WAS IN THE PREVIOUS NIGHT. HE TOLD RIZZO TO GET HOLD OF TOM AND TELL HIM TO PUT THE THING OFF UNTIL FRIDAY. IT IS STILL SCHEDULED FOR "THE SAME WAY, THE SAME TIME, BUT ON FRIDAY INSTEAD OF WEDNESDAY." THIS, MORE THAN LIKELY, RELATED TO THE MAKING OF NICK OR CHICK AS REFLECTED IN BOSTON AIRTEL SEPTEMBER 17, 1963. PATRIARCA AT HIS PLACE OF BUSINESS THIS DATE.

[redacted] was offered some coins. He stated that he could purchase same for $5,000 and probably sell same to [redacted] (PH) for $8,000. He is still working on this deal.

RAYMOND said that VALACHI was "nuts"; that when he was incarcerated it was necessary for them to put him in the "bug house" and there is a record of same at his place of incarceration. The defense attorneys, according to PATRIARCA, will use this evidence of insanity to contradict the statements of VALACHI.

On 9/21/63, [redacted] told RAYMOND PATRIARCA that he had made $11,000 in two weeks selling equipment from his [redacted] [redacted] a crane, which crane, after being wrecked, he removed all the parts from and is using same in other equipment.

HENRY TAMELEO was told by PATRIARCA that the thing was put off until Friday, September 27th, because he, RAYMOND, had to go to court. RAYMOND mentioned that it was the same way, the same time, but on Friday instead of Wednesday. He sent word to New York through SAM RIZZO, who was in the previous night, to get a hold of [redacted] and put the thing off until Friday.

TAMELEO advised that [redacted] who used to be connected with the Great Eastern Finance Co., is friendly with WALTER BENNETT. It appeared that [redacted] was implicated in some way in the assisting of a loan to [redacted] and [redacted] who [redacted] Park Square, Boston. These individuals owed JERRY $5,000; [redacted] $5,500; two other unknown people, $2,000 and $4,000, respectively, in addition to the $3,000 loan that [redacted] probably assisted in obtaining. These individuals also owed PAPPINO $4,900.

TAMELEO advised that Attorney [redacted] (PH) dug up $17,000 and gave it to [redacted] who, in turn, gave it to [redacted] and [redacted] JERRY, in collecting the debt from [redacted] asked for and received $20,000 not realizing that they owed PAPPINO an additional $4,900. TAMELEO was complaining to PATRIARCA that [redacted] did not tell PAPPINO or JERRY that the $4,900 was outstanding.

[redacted] made a deal with [redacted] to receive $130 a week from the [redacted] School Street, Boston. PATRIARCA said that they have to go along with the deal that [redacted] made, and JERRY cannot press them at this time for the $4,900 because of the deal made by [redacted]

PATRIARCA asked TAMELEO how SAM GRANITO was doing in the after-hours joint, namely, Merullo's Cafe, Park Square, Boston. TAMELEO did not know he was even opened.

[redacted] TAMELEO did not appear to be too enthused with this but did indicate that they should try it out and, if successful after the first three or four races, they would then bet heavily on the horse. TAMELEO did ask [redacted] whether he could do anything with dice.

[redacted] stated that he could take the black paint off the dot on the dice, paint same with a magnetic paint and cover again with the black substance. He then, through an electronic device, would be able to control the dice through a closed circuit television in the next room. TAMELEO told him to commence working on this project.

TAMELEO stated that if this project was successful, they could obtain $40,000 to $50,000 a year from [redacted] (PH).

On 9/23/63, JOE KIRKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, told RAYMOND that SAM RIZZO had an appointment with [redacted] [redacted] is supposed to speak with [redacted] concerning Berkshire Downs Race Track. Re Bureau Airtel 9/19/63.

Surveillance instituted this date on RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA. At 11 a.m., PATRIARCA and HENRY TAMELEO left PATRIARCA's place of business, Providence, Rhode Island, and proceeded to Route 6.

When approximately 18 miles out of Providence on Route 6 heading for the Connecticut Turnpike, TAMELEO pulled their car into a parking area and looked up and down the highway in an apparent attempt to observe surveillance. Thereafter, they turned around and headed back to the vicinity of PATRIARCA's place of business, where they made several unusual turns.

In order to protect the source, the surveillance was temporarily discontinued. Efforts to reinstitute surveillance negative. All logical locations checked in effort to locate TAMELEO and PATRIARCA with negative results. All main highways leading from Providence to New York were being covered and TAMELEO's car not observed. All transportation facilities were covered with negative results.

New York and New Haven alerted, TELEPHONE CALL

BS 837-C* in early afternoon advised that PATRIARCA was not at his place of business this date, nor was he expected.

Rebosairtel, 9/26/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 9/26/63 UNMAN told RAYMOND that he was being followed and he also saw a car following [redacted] on Atwells Ave, Providence, the previous day.

RAYMOND thereupon related the above story to [redacted] UNMAN then discusses purchase of records for juke boxes.

RAY told UNMAN, when discussing the VALACHI hearing, that "they (meaning the government) have got nothing" and did not appear concerned with same.

On 9/27/63, informant advised that PATRIARCA was not at his place of business.

On 9/28/63, informant advised that PATRIARCA told UNMAN that he had to make a quick trip to New York the previous day.

On 9/30/63 another UNMAN requested the loan of a few hundred dollars from PATRIARCA. RAYMOND refers him to JOE MOLLICONE of Providence, R. I.

[] told PATRIARCA that the guy he is operating with in New York is not too good as he does not know how to operate. He speaks of obtaining a contract for building a garage and stores attached (locality probably in New York) but told RAYMOND it was still a year off but he hoped to make some money on this contract.

RAYMOND tells [] that he is considering a purchase of land from the boy scouts, which land is adjacent to his dump. He will use this land for the extension of his dump. The recent complaint concerning his dump was caused by [] of Providence.

[] has recently been manipulating his records and taking money from the checking account of the company. Because of this [] including the [] He does not desire to [] in the near future, [] the representatives of the State of Pennsylvania who are presently making inquiries concerning these records will not be able to obtain them. They will not become suspicious, according to [] This building is a small building where he maintains his records in Pittsburgh. He mentioned that Pittsburgh is "a liberal city for fires" and its equipment is old.

Another UNMAN told RAYMOND that someone was taking pictures in the neighborhood, to which RAYMOND replied, "They cannot do anything about it." He mentioned that some individuals were taking pictures in the vicinity of his residence but did not indicate who these individuals were.

He pointed out to UNMAN that last Friday he was driving to New York. He said on the way he stayed behind a truck that was going about 10 miles an hour up a hill. He observed a Rambler behind that was following him and said, "This is the new car they got." He, thereafter, pulled in to the Colonial parking lot and the Rambler pulled in to a gas station. He stated, "They have a green Falcon, too." He then went back to Providence and was going to take the train but they (TAMELEO and PATRIARCA) went up to [] home and got another car. Because of the delay, they were a half hour late getting in to New York.

It should be noted that at the time PATRIARCA pulled in to the Colonial parking lot he was observed by a Special Agent in a helicopter and that no other Bureau cars were in the immediate vicinity. It also should be noted that no Ramblers or Falcons were used on this surveillance.

[] (LNU) asked PATRIARCA whether he knew anyone in the Bahamas, to which PATRIARCA replied in the negative. [] then states that the future of the Bahamas is great. He told RAYMOND that he met an individual in Florida who was with RAYMOND last year in Florida. RAYMOND stated this was not so because he had not been in Florida for three years. RAYMOND stated that the guy must be a phoney and was probably an FBI agent because "there are a million of them around."

NICKY (probably BIANCO, NYC) told RAYMOND that he wanted to discuss the situation generally with him. NICKY's reason for contacting PATRIARCA was to seek his (PATRIARCA's) permission to make some members of his group. NICKY was probably the individual who was made by PATRIARCA last Friday in New York.

There is no boss of NICKY's group now and, according to RAYMOND, a boss will be made in a matter of a month or so. In the meantime NICK will act like the captain.

RAYMOND stated, "The main thing was to make peace, which was done."

NICKY explained to RAYMOND that prior to the time he was made he (NICKY) was loyal to the GALLO faction. Now that he was made and took an oath, he will keep his word to RAYMOND. NICKY is afraid that although he wants a good peace, that when the GALLOS come out they could get out of line.

NICK states that if the GALLOS come out and they do something it will be he (NICKY) against them.

RAYMOND at this point tells NICK that when they come out they will be brought in and told.

NICK stated that he is afraid of JOEY GALLO and some of the men under him, because some of the men under him know GALLO better than they know him (NICK).

RAYMOND instructs him that if they come out, and it appears they are going to make trouble, for NICK to go along with the GALLOS and consult RAYMOND concerning this. If he makes trouble "he (GALLOW) got to go."

RAYMOND tells NICK that at the present time the books for membership of La Cosa Nostra are closed and that there is no way of making the individuals who are with him (NICK). However, they should show respect to NICK and that when the books open he (RAYMOND) will allow NICK to make a certain number of men.

RAYMOND has intentions of making two individuals from Boston when the books open up, and any quota that he receives from the commission above two, he will give to NICK.

RAYMOND stated that it took two or three weeks to obtain permission from the commission to make NICK and again repeated that the books are closed for new members.

RAYMOND tells NICK that the first individual in New York that gives him any abuse "to kill him," and that he (RAYMOND) would back NICK up.

In explaining his position to the men in the GALLO faction, who are supposedly to work for NICK, RAYMOND tells NICK that if one of these individuals does not believe what NICK says, to bring him to Providence where RAYMOND will explain the situation to the individual.

NICK is to arbitrate for these individuals, even though they are not members. NICK continues to state that he is concerned with the men when GALLO comes out. RAYMOND tells him to remember that he has thousands of people on his side. RAYMOND describes the love for La Cosa Nostra is "In this thing of ours, your love for your mother and father is one thing; your love for the family is a different kind of love." NICK interrupts and states that he took an oath with RAYMOND and that he wants to do the honorable thing.

RAYMOND explains that when the boss comes in, a new underboss, a new capo regime will be made, and they will start off new and everything else will be forgotten.

He cautions NICK to beware of toughness alone in a man when he is picking the individuals to be made in the future; that he must also look for guys with brains and guys who don't talk a lot. He cautions him to be very careful of whom he brings in to the organization. He adds, "Together we survive, alone we die."

RAYMOND mentions he knows of eight who belong to the New York group who are transferred to Boston and some of whom belong to the Boston group and who were transferred to New York. He told NICK that all over the country he is recognized and that he will get help and advice everywhere. RAYMOND added that it looks black now but not to worry.

A verbatim transcript of the above conversation with NICK is being prepared and will be furnished the Bureau and New York.

Re Boston airtel 10/3/63.

It is noted that information received from BS 637-C*, as set forth in re Boston airtel, indicates that Jerry Angiulo is having a dispute with [redacted] over the handling of a Shy-locking operation. Angiulo has contacted Patriarca concerning this matter to alert Patriarca to the possibility of violence when Angiulo catches up with [redacted] and attempts to straighten him out on certain collections. Patriarca has okayed such violence, if Angiulo finds it necessary, telling him in effect if it is necessary to shoot [redacted] in order to straighten him out, it was all right with Patriarca.

Boston should be in a position to capitalize on this situation by devising an approach to [redacted] to develop his discreet cooperation against Angiulo and Patriarca, appreciating that [redacted] is in danger of death in this dispute with Angiulo. Unless there are reasons not known to the Bureau which would preclude this approach, you should immediately arrange contact with [redacted], insuring at the same time the complete security of the above-mentioned source.

Keep the Bureau advised of developments in this matter.

Re Boston airtel 10/3/63.

Information from BS 837-C*, as quoted in re Boston airtel, indicates that Sam Granito of Boston sent word to Patriarca, through Jerry Angiulo, that an unnamed individual from New York wanted to meet with Patriarca. Patriarca replied that "Tony the Sheik" was going to call and arrangements would be made to meet near the Edison Hotel with Sam Granito. Patriarca inferred that this meeting was planned during the next few weeks and that if a phone call is received to the effect that the meeting is to occur at 2:30 p.m., they will realize, through prearrangement, that the actual meeting time would be 2:00 p.m., or a half hour earlier than the time specified on the telephone.

The "Tony the Sheik" referred to is probably Antonio Corillo, a leading member of the Vito Genovese "family" in New York, with whom Patriarca is acquainted, and it is entirely possible that the meeting referred to would be in the vicinity of the Edison Hotel, New York City. Boston should be particularly alert for a further contact received by Patriarca in line with the above-mentioned telephone code and be in a position to arrange coverage if Patriarca proceeds to New York City to meet with Corillo. This matter should be closely coordinated between the New York and Boston Offices, and the Bureau should be kept advised of pertinent developments.

Another UNMAN discusses a loan with RAYMOND. UNMAN borrowed $5,000 and RAYMOND was very critical of him for borrowing any money without consulting him, PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA told another UNMAN that he has never seen VALACHI and that he, PATRIARCA, was never at the track in his life. He stated that VALACHI claimed to have seen him at the track during the periods of 1938 - 1944 and he, VALACHI, could not have seen him while PATRIARCA was in jail.

On 10/4/63, RAYMOND sent HENRY TAMELEO to RAU's (PH) Auto Body Shop, 22 Church Street, near Brook Manor, probably Attleboro, Mass. RAYMOND said that a kid who looks like a college kid is waiting there to see TAMELEO. TAMELEO said that he would meet him prior to meeting PAPPINO.

Another UNMAN told RAYMOND that he bought various amounts of clothing at auction and that he intends to sell same at a profit. This individual owes RAYMOND money and stated that he would repay part of the loan when he sold the above clothing.

On this same date he telephonically contacted SAUL FRIEDMAN about the "Boston Record-American" article which set forth VALACHI's testimony. RAYMOND said that the Senators put words in VALACHI's mouth. RAYMOND told FRIEDMAN that the "Boston American" said he was the head of the Cosa Nostra. He said that BOB BLAZER called him but he refused to talk to BLAZER. They put the above article on the bulletin board, apparently at Rhode Island State University, so that his kid could see it. SAUL said that VALACHI did not know RAYMOND but was told to say he did by the Justice Department. RAY told FRIEDMAN that he was in jail when VALACHI said he met him at the track.

RAY called [redacted] a liar and said he is not a member of Cosa Nostra. RAYMOND indicated he would like to go to court now and not wait for any length of time.

On 10/7/63, RAYMOND and [redacted] Providence, R. I., discussed the VALACHI hearings. RAYMOND said he may be subpoenaed before the Committee in Washington. RAYMOND said that SAUL FRIEDMAN told him that [redacted] formerly of the Rhode Island State Police and now employed by the Massachusetts Crime Commission, said that VALACHI was going to mention both PATRIARCA's name and [redacted] name prior to the time of the actual testimony of VALACHI. PATRIARCA said that he must have been mistaken and meant [redacted] instead of [redacted]

[redacted] stated he did meet VALACHI in Miami sometime ago "when [redacted] was sitting down there - at that time VALACHI was there."

HENRY TAMELEO did not locate the individual who took bets from the automobile fellow in Attleboro, as mentioned previously. He did locate an individual who stutters and believes this was the individual who said he was working for [redacted] in taking action. The man that [redacted]

RAYMOND asked him whether or not he had seen JERRY, to which TAMELEO replied in the negative.

RAYMOND then pointed out that "We have some numbers in Malden. Maybe he'll know him." RAYMOND also mentioned that the individual who had placed the bet and won $12,000, but was not paid off, was [redacted] and all he wanted was his original investment back.

UNMAN, 18 years of age, told RAYMOND that [redacted] was running around with a lot of beatniks and could be mixed up in narcotics because of his association with the beatniks. One of the beatniks [redacted] brought to his home has stated that he has seen $100,000 in RAYMOND's house. UNMAN, who appears to be very close to [redacted] mentions the fact that when [redacted]

UNMAN spends considerable time discussing [redacted] actions and the individuals with whom he is associating. RAYMOND is very appreciative of this and states that he will send a couple of fellows to the place where [redacted] is hanging out and "bust a few heads."

BS 837-C* continues to furnish excellent information concerning the activities of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, New England underworld leader, as well as information concerning his associates in the New England area. This source has furnished extremely valuable information concerning La Cosa Nostra and has identified members of this organization. Source reported that Patriarca and his lieutenant, Henry Tameleo, were going to drive to New York City to attend a meeting at which time a new member of Cosa Nostra would be made. Source also reported that this trip was postponed from 9-25-63 to 9-27-63. Source regularly furnishes such information as Tameleo being instructed by Patriarca to advise Jerry Angiulo, Boston hoodlum, that they had the okay from the commission. Significance of this not known to source.

In view of the past performance and the excellent potential of this source to furnish information regarding the top level of organized criminal activity in New England, it is recommended BS be authorized to continue this source for an ninety day period.

(A) On 9/19/63, informant advised that HENRY TAMELEO told RAYMOND that he was at JOE MODICA's, aka PAPPINO's, office the previous night because he heard a story that [] made a jewelry store. He made a pretext call to [] in Miami at approximately 6:00 p.m. During the course of the conversation he asked [] if there were any furs around Miami, to which [] replied there had been, but they were sold as they go fast in Miami.

He inquired about "ice," to which [] stated he did not have any. It was TAMELEO's opinion that [] did not recently make a score because, if he had, he would sell the jewels either to TAMELEO or []

HENRY was offered some coins. He stated that he could purchase same for $5,000 and probably sell same to [] (PH) for $8,000. He is still working on this deal.

RAYMOND said that VALACHI was "nuts"; that when he was incarcerated it was necessary for them to put him in the "bug house" and there is a record of same at his place of incarceration. The defense attorneys, according to PATRIARCA, will use this evidence of insanity to contradict the statements of VALACHI.

Informant advised that [] Boston racketeer, gave [] $20,000 for loan-sharking purposes and told [] not to mention this fact to anyone. [] mentioned same to ANGIULO for whom he shylocks. ANGIULO told [] to go back to [] and tell [] that he, ANGIULO, found out about the $20,000 and took it from []. It appeared that ANGIULO will not return this money to []

UNMAN stated that [] has gotten an OK to run a game. [] desires to open a barboot game with no opposition; however, UNMAN wants to move in on [] and has obtained a Massachusetts license bearing a Massachusetts address to prove that he is not a resident of another State, if apprehended. He stated that he hired an apartment in Massachusetts and sublet it to []

Informant advised on 9/13/63 that PATRIARCA advised HENRY TAMELEO that the GALLO brothers' family are now under the jurisdiction of the commission. RAYMOND also added that "25 guys are going to get hurt." In connection with this, TAMELEO and RAYMOND are going to drive to New York to attend a meeting, 9/25/63, at 4:00 p.m., location unknown, but presumably in New York.

HENRY TAMELEO was instructed to contact JERRY ANGIULO at Boston and tell him that they got the OK from the commission. Informant did not know what this pertained to.

On 9/27/63, PATRIARCA did go to New York.

Information was furnished by this informant that the trip was postponed from 9/25/63 to 9/27/63.

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystallize information which may lead to prosecution.

REC. 12

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka

Re your airtel dated 10-3-63.

A review of the investigation conducted concerning captioned individual indicates a good possibility exists that potential ITAR violations could be opened on Patriarca and his employees, identified as couriers. In this regard it is to be noted that information developed concerning couriers should be thoroughly explored and further developed since persons traveling interstate with the intent to, and who thereafter distribute the proceeds of any unlawful activity further described in the Statute as a business enterprise involving gambling, are in violation of the ITAR Statute. An example of this information is set forth in referenced airtel wherein it is alleged that Patriarca received a total of $4,447 in numbers, $1,344 of which came from Worcester (assumed to be Worcester, Massachusetts).

Boston is instructed to thoroughly review this case, particularly information periodically received from BS 837-C*, to determine and fully evaluate information received concerning Patriarca and his associates which indicates potential ITAR violations. Promptly submit your recommendations to the Bureau as to what action and investigative steps you plan to take to insure all facets of Patriarca's gambling activities are being penetrated and the Bureau's responsibility under the gambling statutes is being met.

On 10/1/63, BS 837-C* advised that PATRIARCA is attempting to purchase a small grocery store in Providence, R. I., to be operated by [redacted]

TEDDY FUCCILLO advised RAYMOND that the Massachusetts Crime Commission has been conducting investigation at the Logan Airport, East Boston, Mass. They have questioned former State Senator [redacted] and [redacted] of SAUL FRIEDMAN. SAUL FRIEDMAN is PATRIARCA's attorney.

The Crime Commission asked as to how [redacted] obtained a concession at the airport and how [redacted] also obtained the concession of the bar there. Both [redacted] and [redacted] allegedly stated that [redacted] "just came off the street" asking for a job and they gave her the concession. FUCCILLO did not indicate what type of concession [redacted] had.

[redacted] was also asked as to his knowledge of PATRIARCA and whether PATRIARCA had any interest in the Logan Motel Bar which is located on airport property. [redacted] was also asked and denied any interest on the part of PATRIARCA.

The Crime Commission also asked [redacted] about [redacted] of Providence, R. I. and [redacted] Mass., both of whom [redacted] advised he did not know.

RAYMOND advised that because of the inquiry by the Crime Commission, he will obtain the stock of the Maine deal from [redacted] return the stock to FUCILLO and have it changed over so that they cannot link PATRIARCA or [redacted] as being part owners of this thing in Maine.

PATRIARCA stated that he did not intercede on behalf of [redacted] to obtain any concessions at the Logan Airport or the Logan Motel.

FUCILLO advised that [redacted] called FUCILLO from Washington and stated that [redacted] of Miami, Fla. was going to be indicted by the Federal Grand Jury (FGJ) in Boston. [redacted] had testified before the FGJ in connection [redacted] According to [redacted]

FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that they had offered [redacted] before this FGJ. [redacted]

GENNARO J. ANGIULO discussed at length his appearance before IRS recently. He invoked the 5th Amendment at this time. He stated that he got his advice from [redacted] former [redacted] of the Intelligence Division, IRS, and a fellow named [redacted] a former Intelligence Agent for IRS. He described [redacted] as being very capable.

During the questioning by IRS they specifically asked questions concerning his association with [redacted] and whether he had lunch with him in the New England area.

b7

He continually invoked the 5th Amendment, but the questions asked by IRS indicated they were spotted at Brook Manor where the photographs were taken.

At this time JERRY rehearsed the incidents leading up to the meet at Brook Manor and pointed out that the reason for the meet was for [] to pay $10,000 to JERRY and RAYMOND for their interest in the hotel in Florida. The questions by IRS indicated that IRS knew this to be his reason; however, they were wrong in that the money was passed at Brook Manor. They recalled that the money was actually given to JERRY in Boston prior to the lunch meet at Brook Manor.

JERRY stated that [] shylocked a loan of $5,000 at 2 1/2% and another of $2,000 at the same interest. The individuals are behind in their payments and JERRY is attempting to obtain the original loans of $5,000 and $2,000. Informant stated that JOE LOMBARDO released [] to JOE BURNS.

Also involved in the shylock business is [] and []. It appeared that [] was possibly a [] finance company and now [] has taken over.

When JERRY attempted to obtain repayment of some of the loans, [] told him that if JERRY were not satisfied he, [] would have his people see JERRY's people. JERRY became infuriated and told [] that there are "no people backing him." JERRY could not understand why [] would make such a statement. He attempted to find out who was backing [] and arrived at the conclusion that it was [] originally of NYC, as [] is around with [] all the time.

JERRY intends to contact [] to find out the background of this association and pointed out to RAYMOND that because of the fact that neither [] nor [] will come to him, he intends to go out looking for them to settle the issue. [] is carrying a gun and was described by JERRY as being "a crazy kid." JERRY stated that in the event he catches up with [] there would probably be a shooting and wanted to advise RAYMOND before any shooting took place. RAYMOND stated that if it was necessary to shoot him in order to straighten him out, it was alright with RAYMOND.

During this conversation the name of CALLAHAN was mentioned, probably referring to THOMAS CALLAHAN of Dorchester, Mass. It appeared to the informant that JERRY will use CALLAHAN or [redacted] or both, to set up [redacted]

SAM GRANITO of Boston sent word to PATRIARCA through JERRY that a person from New York, whose name was not heard by the informant, wanted to meet with RAYMOND. RAYMOND advised that TONY, THE SHEIK is going to call and arrangements will be made to meet this individual near the Edison Hotel with SAM GRANITO. RAYMOND indicated that it could be next week or the week after, and pointed out that if a meet is to take place at 2:00 p.m. SAM will be notified that the meet will take place at 2:30 p.m. or a half hour earlier than the time specified on the phone.

The Edison Hotel could be the Edison Hotel in Lynn, Mass.

JERRY stated that [redacted] came in to see him concerning some shylock money. Informant was unable to ascertain all information concerning this.

JERRY also stated that they could use HENRY REDDINGTON, who is a friend of SAM GRANITO's, to get a hold of [redacted] and arrange a meeting.

JERRY then gave PATRIARCA $4,437, broken up as follows:

Winnings, Numbers - Teachers	$ 398
[redacted]	2,264
	1,029
	TOTAL $4,145 in numbers

Of this amount, RAYMOND obtained half, or $2,073 for the numbers; $1,000 for the book; $600 for the crap game for a two-week period; $1,344 from Worcester, making a total of $5,017.

JERRY then deducted $580 for "the balance for the month," leaving a total of $4,437. He also stated that Worcester owes another envelope which he will obtain in the next few days.

JERRY stated that JOE ANSELMO, aka JOE BURNS, went to New York and will not return until tomorrow. JERRY stated that he would like to tell him, "Make up your mind whether you want to stay in New York or stay here," indicating that BURNS spends a considerable amount of time in New York. RAYMOND made no comment at this time.

JERRY stated that he had an offer of $470,000 for the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Mass., from [redacted] who formerly [redacted] Worcester, Mass. JERRY stated that if they received the $470,000 they would have to pay $170,000 to the SBA, leaving a balance of $300,000. The amount of $100,000 would be used for bills payable; $100,000 would be furnished JERRY for the amount he has invested; $50,000 would be furnished to [redacted] which money [redacted] borrowed from PATRIARCA; $37,000 would be for the [redacted] who has a note reflecting same, and an additional $15,000 would go to JERRY for additional capital he put in to the golf club and indicated there were other debts which would result in he, JERRY, losing $15,000 or $20,000.

[redacted] stated he would only buy the golf club if they (meaning JERRY and [redacted]) would make a deposit of $25,000 and lease the club back to be operated by them (JERRY and JERRY). JERRY plans to sell the club to [redacted] and have [redacted] sign a personal note for debts incurred by the club and operate same as the front man. They will then increase the debt of the club, go into bankruptcy, at which time [redacted] will sue [redacted] for the personal note.

JERRY stated that [redacted] is of the opinion that [redacted] is worth over $300,000 when in actuality, he is not worth $3. JERRY stated that he had made a networth statement for [redacted] reflecting his assets as over $300,000, but that his net worth is "not $3." They then figured that [redacted] will sell the club out to "get out from under," and they might be able to buy the club back at a real low figure.

JERRY stated that the Feds claim that the club is a corporation when he, himself, states it is a trust. He intends to destroy all records reflecting that the club is a trust and draw up new records dated 1/1/63 which would reflect a partnership instead of a trust. He states that they would then not have to have as many records - it being a partnership.

October 5, 1963

According to our highly confidential source, Patriarca last week travelled to New York where he participated in ceremony "making" a member of La Cosa Nostra. He has also participated in arbitration of gangland dispute between Gallo faction of old Profaci "family" and current leadership of that "family," headed by Joseph Magliocco.

Another UNMAN, who is apparently unnamed by STONE in his testimony, told RAYMOND he got a hold of [redacted] that day. RAYMOND told him to tell [redacted] to deny everything, particularly "about the company." It appeared that UNMAN and [redacted] were financially interested in the same company. They bitterly condemned WALTER STONE for his testimony, and RAYMOND stated that he intends to sue STONE for the remarks that he made. RAYMOND also intends to contact the paper and have a retraction published by the Providence papers concerning some of the testimony by STONE.

[redacted] discussed the testimony of STONE with PATRIARCA. Both stated that STONE was a liar. RAYMOND also issues instructions to [redacted] to keep denying it. Informant is of the opinion that he is to deny that he is associated with PATRIARCA or a member of La Cosa Nostra.

HENRY TAMELLEO told RAYMOND that the "Providence Journal" called him and he stated the testimony by STONE was a lie. He asked the "Providence Journal" to print that he, TAMELLEO, has not been arrested in 43 years. He pointed out to them that the innuendoes as set out by the paper, indicated that he is a person who has been arrested several times for major crimes when, in fact, he has not been arrested very often.

TAMELLEO mentioned AMERICO BUCCHI's name and, according to the informant, there appeared to be laughter immediately thereafter, indicating to the informant that possibly BUCCHI is not a member of La Cosa Nostra.

TAMELLEO was at a loss to understand why the papers did not carry photographs of many individuals, including TAMELLEO himself. RAYMOND said that maybe Chief PARKER of Pawtucket, R. I. would not release any pictures for this purpose. They both condemned the testimony of STONE and they called him a liar. They compared MC NAMARA to STONE, and MC NAMARA's statement was "good" and that he was not biased or prejudicial in any manner. They said that he was "fair and honest" as compared to STONE. RAYMOND was particularly disturbed that STONE testified concerning his hijacking of liquor trucks and his criminal activities several years ago. RAYMOND stated, "It was just like the last time. STONE has nothing and is trying to make a reputation for himself."

The "Providence Journal" also called PATRIARCA and he told them that STONE was a liar. He reminded the representative of the paper that STONE should have been tried for murder himself when he set up the four kids in a burglary several years ago and killed them while they were about to perform the burglary at a Howard Johnson's restaurant in Rhode Island. He told the reporter that at that time the four kids did not have guns and, if STONE were a good police officer, he would have captured the four individuals prior to the time they went in to the restaurant instead of waiting until they got in and shooting them down in cold blood.

Throughout the day PATRIARCA told different individuals that they should not contact him at his place of business because of the "heat" caused by STONE's testimony.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin" dated 10/18/63 on Page 1, carried caption "Rhode Island Grand Jury Will Hear Both Next Week". This article in substance advised RAYMOND PATRIARCA was subpoenaed today to appear next Friday as a witness before a State Grand Jury.

Col. WALTER E. STONE, Rhode Island State Police has agreed to appear before the same Grand Jury a day earlier, on Thursday.

This announcement was made by Attorney General J. JOSEPH NUGENT of the State of Rhode Island. Mr. NUGENT stated "They have both been making statements and in my opinion the proper tribunal before which they should make statements is the Grand Jury, where the statements can be made under oath".

This article also stated that Mr. NUGENT had sent Col. STONE a letter in which he stated "In view of your statements made before the Senate Sub-Committee on October 15, I am hereby inviting you to appear before the Grand Jury for Counties of Providence and Bristol on Thursday, October 24 at 10:00 a.m., to present to that body such evidence as you may have relative to the violations of any of our State laws."

Rebosairtel, 10/8/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/8/63 that UNMAN told PATRIARCA that [] (PH) called him and asked UNMAN how RAYMOND and RAYMOND's wife were feeling. He told UNMAN that whatever he needed he would send to UNMAN, and gave him a telephone number where he, [] could be reached. According to UNMAN, this was a Quebec, Canada telephone code. [] said that he was up North, but UNMAN did not realize it was Quebec until he obtained the phone number.

[] is with [] (PH), [] (PH), and [] (PH). [] was the brains of this gambling outfit and did all the betting. According to PATRIARCA they are out West now.

[] told PATRIARCA that he has quit

RAYMOND counsels [] pointing out that a Detective, the only friend he has left in police circles, told him that [] was hanging around with a couple of junkies, namely [] (PH) and [] on the east side of Providence.

[] admits going around occasionally with these individuals, after which PATRIARCA cautioned him about his activity. He told him to cease association with these individuals. He recommended that he hang around with [] (LNU) who is a thief. He pointed out to him that he, RAYMOND, knew how to make money like a man; that is, rob a bank or something like that, and that every place he ever robbed he never hurt any poor people. [] that he had to be a man to rob but that he should never get mixed up in narcotics.

He continually cautioned him throughout to dis-associate himself with the kids on the east side of Providence and stay away from narcotics.

JERRY ANGIULO, accompanied by [] and PETER LIMONE, contacted PATRIARCA. JERRY ANGIULO and [] explained their loan-shark deal to PATRIARCA. It appeared that PAUL INTISO, [] and AMATO SANTANIELLO had borrowed $15,000 from JERRY to go in to the loan-shark business. AMATO had borrowed $5,000 of the $15,000 and has not paid any of the interest or principal back. The loan is over a year old and JERRY was attempting to collect it.

JERRY also pointed out to RAYMOND that several months ago [] came to JERRY and gave him $10,000 in principal, plus the interest, for repayment of the $15,000. [] told him that the other $5,000 was a loan to SANTANIELLO.

JERRY at this time asked [] how he obtained the $10,000 to pay off the debt, at which time [] told him that they had made a profit of that much on the original investment. JERRY did not believe him but [] stuck to his story.

RAYMOND then broke in and told [] that he has known him for years and that as far as he, RAYMOND, is concerned, he is 100% OK. However, he is a liar in this instance in that he, RAYMOND, knows that another group gave him the $10,000 to pay off JERRY and take over this loan-shark business. [] finally admitted same and RAYMOND told him that his big mistake was not telling JERRY at the time he returned the $10,000 that he had obtained ~~other~~ backing. He sent JERRY out of the room and furnished advice to [] to the effect that he should never do such a thing again, and, further, that he should furnish all money made by SANTANIELLO in this loan-shark operation to ANGIULO for repayment of the $5,000 loan. [] agreed.

RAYMOND gave permission for [] to contact him anytime in Providence and stated that he knew that he, [] was OK.

JERRY also mentioned that [] of Boston was 14 weeks behind on his loan-shark debt, which debt amounts to $200 per week payment on interest alone. JERRY stated that he is going to go after this loan from []

JERRY told RAYMOND that SAM GRANITO will call him the night before and say 2 o'clock, or some other time. Whatever time is mentioned it will indicate to RAYMOND that he is to meet SAM at the Coffee Shop at the Edison Hotel (probably Lynn, Mass.) the following day.

JERRY stated that J. L. (JOSEPH LOMBARDO) called him recently and stated he was approached by someone in Boston to contribute to Mayor COLLINS' campaign. JERRY told J. L. that he never played politics but did give him $1,000 and told him to tell COLLINS that "It was from us." He said the reason for the donation was that COLLINS is still over MC NAMARA.

JERRY added that he got a hold of [] (LNU) who contacted "PUNCHIE" MC LAUGHLIN, who, in turn, sent HENRY REDDINGTON to SAM (probably GRANITO). (This apparently was in relation to the tentative appointment mentioned above of the meeting between SAM GRANITO and PATRIARCA.)

JERRY stated that [] JOJO LANGONE, State Representative from the North End section of Boston, told him that [] was collecting money from COLLINS and raised $1,000. [] asked support for COLLINS from JERRY and reminded JERRY that COLLINS had taken [] out of the North End.

JERRY was concerned because he was the one who had given the $1,000 to LOMBARDO and, although he said nothing to

[redacted] he wanted to find out whether the $1,000 he had given was the same $1,000 that [redacted] had given to the campaign.

RAYMOND told him to immediately go down and see LOMBARDO and find out who he had given the $1,000 to and to tell LOMBARDO that RAYMOND is the individual who wants to know whether the money is going to do any good.

RAYMOND said that [redacted] (also [redacted] the city of Boston) is OK.

They then point out that all of them are going for [redacted] even though they gave money to the COLLINS campaign. JERRY states the only one not going for [redacted] is JOE LOMBARDO. RAYMOND points out that the reason LOMBARDO dislikes [redacted] is "because of that old Sicilian hatred and jealousy."

JERRY complained to PATRIARCA that [redacted] has not, as yet, carried out that contract to kill. Informant did not know who he was referring to but did hear the name of [redacted].

It should be noted that [redacted] originally had the contract "to kill" [redacted] of Charlestown, Mass. and [redacted] of Somerville, Mass.

JERRY stated that he is going to get [redacted] "steamed up" by saying that he (referring to the individual he is going to kill) had gone to New York to get help to kill [redacted]. In this way he thinks that [redacted] will immediately set out to complete the contract to kill this individual.

JERRY mentions that [redacted] and "them" lugged a truck carrying $100,000 worth of underwear, etc. to West Springfield, but that [redacted] has not gotten his money as yet (this apparently refers to the theft of the Akers Transportation Co. trailer stolen from South Boston, 9/28/63).

JERRY then mentioned that they have gone over the place "to hit the individual" and found out he goes to his sister's house in Medford frequently and, "this is the place to get him."

In discussing the VALACHI testimony, PETER LIMONE found out that [redacted] (PH) used to act as [redacted] VALACHI and that VALACHI [redacted] were actually owned by JOE BRUNO from New Jersey.

JERRY states that MC NAMARA (Boston, Mass. PD Commissioner) has a file on JERRY, RAYMOND, PAUL INTISO, NICK GISO and JOE LOMBARDO. He has all the background, including photographs of houses they live in, the fronts they use and other background information. RAYMOND states that they must have access to income tax forms in order to obtain all this information. He pointed out that someone has been taking pictures of houses in Providence recently.

JERRY gives an unknown amount of money to RAYMOND which he stated he obtained from Worcester.

JERRY states that AMATO SANTANIELLO is running a small crap game, location unknown, to the informant. He also stated [redacted] gave $20,000 to the kid and the kid is trying to get $20,000 more. They are going to string [redacted] along until such time as they are able to make additional money and at which time they are going to refuse to repay the loans.

JERRY stated that [redacted] failed to pay the payment due on the SBA loan in the amount of $7,500. JERRY became incensed and had a meeting with [redacted] and [redacted]. He ascertained from [redacted] that when ANGIULO bought in to the Club [redacted] told [redacted] that there was no need to worry about money any further as any time the Club is in need of additional capital ANGIULO would put same in.

After a considerable argument he told both [redacted] and [redacted] to put up $2,500 a piece for the payment of this loan and that he would also invest an additional $2,500 to make up the $7,500 due on the loan. He was fearful that the SBA might foreclose on the mortgage and that they would lose a considerable amount of money.

He further told [redacted] and [redacted] that the time has come for either [redacted] and [redacted] to buy him out or vice versa. He has given them a few weeks to decide whether they want to purchase ANGIULO's interest.

In the event they are not able to raise the money ANGIULO is considering buying their share and placing [redacted] in the Club as Manager. In that way they will be able to control the membership and keep out such undesirables as [redacted] and others of the Worcester hoodlum element. They believed that [redacted] will be able to increase the membership by catering to the Jewish element and thus be able to make the Club a success.

RAYMOND told JERRY that they (possibly referring to the Massachusetts Crime Commission) had interviewed ex-Senator MICHAEL LOPRESTI of East Boston, Mass. concerning the employment of PATRIARCA [redacted] at the airport and Golden Dome restaurant located near the State House, Boston. LOPRESTI has a financial interest in both establishments.

LOPRESTI denied that he knew PATRIARCA and, further, that [redacted] had answered an ad in the paper and he, LOPRESTI, had given her the hat check concession, probably at the Golden Dome restaurant.

On 10/9/63, TED FUCILLO advised RAYMOND that [redacted] is being watched very closely. RAY told FUCILLO that he gave JERRY the check but did not indicate the purpose of the check. RAYMOND told FUCILLO that [redacted] the Federal Grand Jury (in connection with [redacted] Boston, Mass.).

TED told PATRIARCA that he has to obtain the books from the accountant and take the books to the lawyer in Maine. Informant did not know what these books concerned.

He stated that [redacted] (PH), who is an officer in the Union regarding Maintenance Employees, is coming in to Boston and he, FUCILLO, will take him from the airport to Maine to look over the property. [redacted] is coming Thursday also to look over the property in Maine. Informant did not know when [redacted] is coming.

RAYMOND asks whether [redacted] can get young [redacted]

[redacted] as he quit [redacted]

BS 92-118

HENRY TAMELEO told RAYMOND that [redacted] had called him and told him that the fellow (not identified) wanted to see HENRY at the Black Hawk restaurant, Worcester, Mass. HENRY is to meet this individual at 3:00 p.m. on 10/9/63.

[redacted] conversed with PATRIARCA concerning [redacted] thereafter, attempted to make arrangements for [redacted] to be accepted at local colleges.

UNMAN asks RAYMOND if he knows [redacted] (PH) and it appeared that [redacted] used RAYMOND's name frequently in order to obtain loans. [redacted] borrowed $3,500 on UNMAN's house and when he, UNMAN, learned of it from the bank he complained to the bank. However, [redacted] commenced making the necessary monthly payments to repay the loan. He subsequently defaulted. The bank is now suing UNMAN in an attempt to obtain the balance of the loan. UNMAN pointed out that the bank was told that he did not sign the necessary papers for the original loan and stated the bank knew it was in error, but they did not make any "noise" until [redacted] defaulted on the loan.

He Is Branded New England's Gangland Boss

By PAUL HEALY

Washington, Oct. 15 (News Bureau)—Raymond Patriarca, a Providence strong-arm man and associate of Frank Costello, is the "controlling force" behind organized crime in New England and wields underworld influence all the way to Florida, Senate rackets probes were told today.

Earlier, Tampa, Fla., Police Chief Neil G. Brown testified before the committee that a national Mafia board, sitting in New York, calls the major shots in the syndicate's activities in Florida and takes a percentage of Mafia profits there.

Brown said the local Mafia boss in Tampa is Santo Trafficante, who succeeded his father, the boss there from 1945 until his death in 1954. The police chief said there was growing suspicion that Trafficante's power extends into other parts of the state.

Col. Walter E. Stone, superintendent of the Rhode Island State Police, testified that the 55-year-old Patriarca's police record includes, among other things, arrests for safe cracking, adultery, armed robbery and being an accessory in a murder case.

Stone said Patriarca used strong-arm tactics in gang wars of the 20s and now supplies "strong-arm men to straighten out situations" that arise in labor union troubles. Patriarca also has "the controlling interest of lotteries, bookmaking, dice games and the provision of wine service in this area," he said.

Rebosairetel, 10/17/63.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/17/63 that PATRIARCA had numerous discussions concerning the newspaper articles dealing with Col. WALTER E. STONE's testimony before the Senate Crime Committee in Washington, D. C.

PATRIARCA was incensed at STONE's statements. He said that the statements by STONE have caused his neighbors to take a different attitude towards him in that they do not talk to his wife [] any longer. He threatened to sell his home to a colored family because of this.

PATRIARCA left shortly before noontime to appear at his lawyer's office where he furnished a statement to the press. This has been furnished to the Bureau by separate airtel.

In the early afternoon, NICK BIANCO of New York contacted HENRY TAMELLEO in PATRIARCA's absence. BIANCO stated that he had talked to LARRY (presumably GALLO) concerning the two guys whom he (BIANCO) thought were "with" GALLO. GALLO, as yet, has not furnished him a definite answer as to whether these two individuals were with him. He explained that the two kids whom he identified as the [redacted] were travelling around with GALLO, and he is of the opinion that they were members of the GALLO family. He cannot understand why GALLO will not give him a definite answer. Because of this, he is attempting to contact PATRIARCA to ascertain what he should do to ascertain this fact.

BIANCO said that things were terrible in New York; the thieves and bookmakers are "ratting" on all the cops who have taken dough in the past.

BIANCO was of the opinion that the heat was off his group as every other family was mentioned in New York newspapers and over 300 were named in the New York newspapers; however, his family was not mentioned.

During the conversation he stated that "they" (not identified) are going to try to "rig up the AUGGIE PISANO case." He added that they went to England and "took a witness." They have already gotten [redacted] (LNU) who was out on $15,000 bail. Informant was of the opinion that [redacted] is connected in some way with the PISANO case, but is not positive of this fact.

NICK is of the opinion that they will indict him [redacted] but does not think they will be able to convict him, as he does not see how they will be able to get witnesses to this killing "not already dead."

BIANCO said he did not know who performed the killing and that they had no eye-witnesses. [redacted] apparently has one witness who will testify that he [redacted] was with him at the time of the killing.

BIANCO stated that "everything is in low taste around New York" and there is no further respect for anyone connected with La Cosa Nostra. He added that there was too much talk, particularly by girl friends of members. He stated that at one time GALLO had a banquet at a local restaurant or barroom, and he was with a Puerto Rican girl.

The reason for the banquet was not known to the informant, but after the banquet, the Puerto Rican girl told BIANCO, "That's what it is I'll bet," apparently referring to the actual reason for the banquet.

He also told TAMELLEO that "they" (probably referring to the FBI) have got a mike now that they can install right in the phone and that the mike is in operation even while the phone is on the hook. TAMELLEO did not appear concerned at all with this statement.

TAMELLEO told BIANCO that things are also rough in this area. He was asked by BIANCO whether or not they still have the numbers, to which TAMELLEO replied, "that the numbers were split up five years ago and that the agents get the cream of the profits." PATRIARCA and TAMELLEO get little now from the numbers. TAMELLEO stated that he has made a considerable amount of money betting on football games. He bets with [redacted] of Providence, R. I.

TAMELLEO is of the opinion that it would be very difficult to meet anyone at the present time, probably for several months, because every meeting of over two people will be regarded by law enforcement authorities as "another Apalachin." BIANCO agreed.

On 10/18/63, PATRIARCA complained to various individuals that he had gotten a double-cross regarding the statement he made to the press because of the fact that he had described Col. WALTER E. STONE of the Rhode Island State Police as a murderer because he supervised a raid at a Howard Johnson's restaurant several years ago in Providence whereby three or four unarmed kids were shot and killed by the Providence, R. I. PD. He claims that STONE, if he had been a good police officer, could have captured these individuals without killing them, while they were committing a burglary.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI and PATRIARCA discussed the State Grand Jury being called by Attorney General JOSEPH NUGENT of Rhode Island. Both STONE and PATRIARCA have been subpoenaed. PATRIARCA hopes that STONE will make the same statements as he did before the Crime Committee hearing in Washington, D. C. and he, thereafter, will contemplate suing him for $100,000.

[redacted] invited PATRIARCA and his wife to dinner at his house. Also to be in attendance were [redacted] and [redacted] and [redacted] who owns a joint on Empire Street in Providence, R. I. RAYMOND refused because of his wife's ill health.

TAMELLEO and NICK BIANCO contacted PATRIARCA. After discussing PATRIARCA's statement to the press, BIANCO repeated the information set out above as told to TAMELLEO the day previous. BIANCO stated that he had attended a wake and then came from New York in order to avoid the "heat." He pointed out that the cops are picking up everyone in New York who might be associated with La Cosa Nostra and "throwing them in the tank."

Concerning BIANCO's inquiry of LARRY GALLO and the two brothers who might be with GALLO, PATRIARCA advised him to contact TONY, THE SHEIK or TOMMY RYAN and requested that either one of the two ascertain from GALLO just what position these individuals hold in GALLO's mob. RAYMOND is of the opinion that they were not made but are "with us."

BIANCO claimed that [redacted] (PH) talks a lot when he is drunk and is, therefore, dangerous. PATRIARCA, according to the informant, did not make any reply to this comment. BIANCO has got a meet with [redacted] this week. He believes that the VALACHI thing will die in a couple of months and everything will return to normal.

RAYMOND also advised BIANCO to stay out of sight because of the numerous arrests by police authorities. BIANCO complained to PATRIARCA that he is not allowed to sit in on "consultations" as they do not think that NICK knows what he is talking about. BIANCO complains that his group are having trouble making money and, because of the "heat," they have nothing to do and, according to BIANCO, he considers this dangerous. He is of the opinion that he has his men under control but he does not know how long he will be able to do this, as they have too much time on their hands. BIANCO stated that one man they want to take in is [redacted] but the [redacted] are crazy, and he does not desire that they be taken in.

RAYMOND said that VALACHI is doing a lot of damage, but he is fortunate that VALACHI does not know him.

On 10/21/63, PATRIARCA spoke to various individuals concerning STONE's appearance before the Rhode Island Grand Jury. He blamed ROBERT KENNEDY for causing STONE to testify the way he did against PATRIARCA. He pointed out that he had previously testified in the KEFAUVER Hearings many years ago and was not as severe as he was in the present hearings.

He mentioned that "PEANUTS" BROCCOLLI of Providence, R. I. was fired by [] and that [] had no right to fire him because of STONE's testimony.

One of the individuals he conversed at length with concerning his testimony was [] who sympathized with RAYMOND and said that he would testify for him as a character witness, if necessary.

[] (LNU) told RAYMOND that he has made $1,500 in the past two weeks by the sale of Columbia Records (which were stolen probably in New York City.) It appeared that these records were stolen from the main plant of Columbia Records, and although they have a contact within the company, they did not use him on this recent theft.

RAYMOND told [] that BRUNO of Philadelphia has been indicted concerning some interstate shylocking operation and that "some guy is shooting his mouth off." He stated that bail would be in the amount of $100,000. He also told this individual that VITO GENOVESE was upheld by the Supreme Court and would probably get out of jail.

He told [] that an individual who claimed to be his brother-in-law was involved in a knifing.

BS 837-C* advised as follows:

On 10/22/63, JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, of Providence, R. I., contacted RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA at Providence, R. I. KIRK had received a call from [] (LNU) (believed to be [] of Brookline, Mass.). [] desired to know whether PATRIARCA was interested in taking over a hooking business in [] which grossed $180,000 a week. The individual who owned this business was going to jail for income tax violation in the near future. (This individual was probably [])

According to KIRK, the operation should earn $6,000 a week. He pointed out that they lay off $50,000 to $60,000 of the total volume every week.

There are two locations there, and at two o'clock all play comes in to one of the two locations.

After some hesitation, PATRIARCA told KIRK to tell [] that he did not desire to take this over at the present time because of his own difficulties, but that if he could help him in any way, he would.

It appeared to the informant that JOSEPH KIRK intended to take over this operation with another unidentified individual after PATRIARCA's refusal.

On 10/22/63, HENRY TAMELLEO told PATRIARCA that he saw [] According to TAMELLEO, [] did not mention that "thing" at all but did mention that they had taken a poll on it.

[] sent his regards to RAYMOND and stated that he was awfully sorry (apparently referring to his being named as "Head of La Cosa Nostra in this area").

According to the informant, TAMELLEO said that [] told him that [] calls him every day and it appeared that [] furnished information to [] is on the payroll of the White House, according to the informant. A separate communication was sent to the Bureau relative to this matter.

According to JOSEPH KIRK, there was a big conference last Sunday night between JOHN NUGENT, Attorney General for the State of Rhode Island; Col. WALTER E. STONE of the Rhode Island State Police, and other members of law enforcement in the Rhode Island area. STONE was very bitter towards NUGENT in that he called a State Grand Jury to investigate the crime situation in the Rhode Island area, particularly in reference to PATRIARCA. According to KIRK, USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE was upset that NUGENT called this grand jury and subpoenaed both Col. WALTER E. STONE and RAYMOND PATRIARCA. Informant did not know whether PETTINE attended the above-mentioned conference.

According to the informant, PATRIARCA learned that Col. WALTER E. STONE was in possession of at least one photograph showing RAYMOND with other individuals. They expect PATRIARCA to testify to the effect that he did not know this other individual prior to the time the picture was introduced as evidence. PATRIARCA thinks that the picture might be one of two, namely, one taken with FRANK COSTELLO in New York many years ago while attending a fight there. The other picture is a picture of JERRY ANGIULO and [redacted] which was taken, he believes, in Miami, Fla.

In order to avoid a perjury charge, PATRIARCA has decided to testify regarding his acquaintance with any individual that he might have seen on some occasion but does not recall same, thereby eliminating any possibility of perjury.

The information concerning this was obtained by [redacted] a Pawtucket, R. I. bookmaker, through an individual named [redacted] for Col. STONE. [redacted] is friendly with [redacted]. According to [redacted] there is a tape that they are going to present in the State Grand Jury but [redacted] source does not think it pertains to PATRIARCA.

Two UNMEN were advised by PATRIARCA that one should fake a heart attack before trial, as the Judge hearing the case is very severe in his sentences. By faking the heart attack they will be able to get the trial postponed until a new Judge is sitting. [redacted] noted Providence, R. I. bookmaker, has attempted to reach the District Attorney for a fix but was unable to do so.

PATRIARCA discussed his proposed testimony with several individuals on 10/22/63.

An unknown individual was interviewed by representatives of NUGENT's office relative to this grand jury. It appeared this man sent a letter from the jail indicating that PATRIARCA was "the boss." PATRIARCA sent [redacted] Providence, R. I., to this individual and told him to admit writing the letter, but that he was only writing to PATRIARCA as he did to others in order to "shake him down" for $5,000. This individual's (in jail) first name is [redacted].

[redacted] after contacting [redacted] indicated that he was successful in persuading [redacted] to make the above statement when and if he appeared before the Grand Jury.

On 10/23/63, TED FUCILLO advised that he had been subpoenaed by either JOE NUGENT of Rhode Island or the Massachusetts Crime Commission. SAM (probably GRANITO) was seeing a member of the Massachusetts Crime Commission on 10/23/63. He was also to see NUGENT on this date.

RAY instructed FUCILLO to tell everyone in Boston that if they are subpoenaed to hire good lawyers, not cheap ones, as there are many differences between State and Federal Grand Juries, particularly in reference to procedure. PATRIARCA is of the opinion that after the elections the whole thing (meaning the investigation of La Cosa Nostra) will be forgotten.

FUCILLO asked RAYMOND if he remembered [redacted] of IRS, to which RAYMOND replied in the affirmative. He further described him as a friend of Springfield's [redacted] [redacted] is employed as an Accountant to the Eastern Hotel Supply Co. of Boston, Mass., in which company PATRIARCA allegedly has a financial interest.

[redacted] who is a good friend of [redacted] of Somerville, Mass., told [redacted] that the Italian photographer of the "Boston Herald-Traveler" told him that the Herald-Traveler are very concerned with the million dollar libel suit RAYMOND PATRIARCA has brought against them. A separate letterhead memorandum will be forwarded to the Bureau relative to this information.

PATRIARCA is of the opinion that if he can beat Col. WALTER E. STONE in the State Grand Jury, it will be only a matter of how much the Herald-Traveler will give him in the above-mentioned suit.

FUCILLO stated that JAMES HOFFA, through [redacted] are interested in purchasing a golf course 100 miles north of Boston, which is owned by Bell Oldsmobile of Revere, Mass. It includes an 18-hole golf course, a club house, and all the necessary equipment. The asking price is $350,000, but FUCILLO is attempting to buy same in behalf of [redacted] for $300,000.

PATRIARCA advises UNMAN how to testify in reference to his testimony before the State Grand Jury. He tells him not to deny positively knowing anybody as they might have a photograph showing the association between he and the man he is queried about.

PATRIARCA was very critical of [redacted] as some woman was calling up the PATRIARCA house claiming that [redacted]

ReBulet 10-17-63.

The Agents assigned to the investigation of captioned case have been constantly alert and will continue to be alert to the possibility of ITAR violations concerning PATRIARCA or any of his associates.

A complete review of the file in this matter has been made with particular reference to information received from BS 837-C* and [redacted] in an effort to develop potential ITAR violations. This review reflects that GENNARO J. ANGIULO, subject of Bufile 92-558, is the only individual who regularly contacts PATRIARCA and furnishes him monies from alleged illegal enterprises in Massachusetts. This, of course, if it could be proven, would constitute a violation of the ITAR Statute.

Efforts have been made in the past to develop cases of this type on both ANGIULO and PATRIARCA. ANGIULO has been surveilled several times, either from Massachusetts to Rhode Island or vice versa when it is believed he would be in contact with PATRIARCA. On one occasion, ANGIULO was surveilled by agents from Boston to Providence, Rhode Island, at which time, according to BS 837-C* ANGIULO furnished to PATRIARCA $813 from Worcester, Mass.; $527 from Milford, Mass., $513 from another town, not known by informant and money from a crap game, presumably in Boston. This surveillance reflected that PATRIARCA, as well as ANGIULO, came back to Massachusetts in separate automobiles, where PATRIARCA contacted EDWARD BENNETT, [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON at Howard Johnson Restaurant in Attleboro, Mass. At that time ANGIULO was observed to go to a nearby restaurant where he apparently waited for PATRIARCA to finish his conversation with the above named three individuals.

Agents on this surveillance were unable to develop any evidence which could be utilized in court against either PATRIARCA or ANGIULO.

ANGIULO has been surveilled on several occasions, either from or to a meet with PATRIARCA at the latter's place of business in Rhode Island. However, to date, no evidence has been obtained which could be utilized as evidence in court.

The only other known courier to take money to PATRIARCA is THEODORE FUCILLO, of Boston, Mass. FUCILLO contacts PATRIARCA approximately once a week and on occasions furnishes him money without indicating the source of the money. Investigation thus far has not indicated any other couriers utilized by PATRIARCA. The Boston Office will continue to be alert to any possible violations of the ITAR statute and where there is any possibility of developing a case of this nature surveillances will be instituted immediately, either in Providence or Massachusetts in an effort to prove the violation. It should be borne in mind that it is apparent that ANGIULO is the principal courier for PATRIARCA collecting monies from various individuals, thereafter taking them to PATRIARCA on an irregular basis. The problem of proving the transportation of any monies entails the establishing of the identity of the monies and the continuity of interstate travel of the same monies.

This matter will continue to receive my personal attention.

At approximately 3:35 p.m., at 125th Street Station, Agent boarded southbound New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad train headed for Grand Central Station. A few minutes thereafter Agent consulted with SAS [redacted] and [redacted] of the Boston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The above two Agents pointed out an individual whom they stated was RAYMOND PATRIARCA of Providence, Rhode Island. This individual was described as a white male, age 55, 5 feet 6 inches tall, 155-160 pounds, black hair, and wearing a dark blue suit, white shirt and tie. This individual was observed to depart the train at Grand Central Station, proceed south through the terminal, and, at approximately 3:37 p.m., was observed to hail a green and white Checker Taxicab, bearing New York License number 014328.

At 3:38 p.m., Agent, accompanied by SAS [redacted] and [redacted] observed this cab to proceed west on 42nd Street, head north on Sixth Avenue and west on 55th Street, where the above individual was observed to depart the cab and enter the Park Sheraton. Agent previously informed the above two Agents as to the identity of this individual.

The "Providence Journal," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, dated August 28, 1963, carried an article on page 1, captioned, "Racing Dates Bill Defeated."

This article was a UPI news release from Boston and in substance stated that the Massachusetts House yesterday killed a controversial bill to grant 42 additional racing dates to Berkshire Downs in Hancock, Massachusetts.

The move came after 15 minutes of debate largely taken up by complicated parliamentary maneuvers in a last-ditch attempt by supporters of the bill to keep it alive.

The bill was allowed to be defeated on a voice vote and reconsideration of the bill was then denied on another voice vote, a parliamentary move which precludes further reconsideration of the measure this session.

The bill was sponsored by Senate President JOHN E. POWERS (D-Boston) and it had passed easily in the upper branch on a 23-13 roll call three weeks ago.

House action on the bill had been delayed out of "legislative courtesy" to Mr. POWERS who spent two intervening weeks at a legislative conference in Hawaii.

This article made reference to the fact that the defeat of this bill was a swift victory for Governor ENDICOTT PEABODY who said on television Tuesday night that it would be "irresponsible" to vote additional racing days to any track while a "cloud of suspicion" hung over racing in Massachusetts.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," a daily newspaper in Providence, R. I., dated August 30, 1963, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "N. Prov. Restrained On Closing of Dump."

This article in substance said that a Superior Court order today restrained the Town of North Smithfield from preventing the dumping of rubbish at the Smithfield Road dump in that town by HELEN and RAYMOND P. PATRIARCA and their customers.

The PATRIARCAS, who own land on the site leased to the town had been told by the North Providence Council earlier in the week to stop dumping or the permitting of dumping.

Before the court action by Presiding Justice LOUIS W. CAPPELLI, an eight-hour extension of the dump's shutdown was granted on August 29, 1963, at a secret town Council meeting. Judge CAPPELLI set September 11, 1963, as the hearing date for a request by the PATRIARCAS for a preliminary injunction.

The "Providence Evening Bulletin," dated September 11, 1963, on page 36, carried an article captioned, "Hearing Postponed On Dump Controversy." The article is as follows:

"A hearing on a preliminary injunction being sought by RAYMOND P. and HELEN PATRIARCA to prevent the town of North Providence from halting dumping on a lot they own was continued to Sept. 25 today by Judge WILLIAM M. MAC KENZIE in Superior Court.

"The continuance was granted following a conference in the judge's chamber with [redacted] and SAUL FRIEDMAN. Mr. FRIEDMAN and CHARLES A. CURRAN are counsel for the PATRIARCAS.

b7c

"Judge MAC KENZIE said the hearing was continued two weeks at the request of [redacted] to allow him time to file special pleas.

"North Providence resumed its town rubbish collections today for the first time since the town council ordered the dump closed. Permission has been given by Smithfield for North Providence to use the portion of the dump which is in Smithfield, for a 30-day period.

"The Smithfield council last night set a maximum penalty of $50 for anyone who takes a truck with more than 3,000 pounds capacity along a section of Ridge Road to the town dump. The closing of that section to heavy trucks was done by the town traffic safety commission Monday night.

"The PATRIARCA's obtained a temporary restraining order Aug. 30 preventing the town from banning dumping at the Smithfield Road site which they own. Less than one-third of an acre in size, the site has been used as a town dump under a lease agreement with Mr. and Mrs. PATRIARCA.

"The town council late last month ordered the dump closed and informed the owners that no dumping would be permitted.

"In recent weeks, trucks of the Rhode Island Incinerator Service, Inc., had been observed disposing of Pawtucket rubbish at the Smithfield Road site. Prior to the dump closing, numerous trucks from other firms were seen dumping in the general area.

"The portion of the site which had been used as a town dump is part of a lot which straddles the Smithfield-North Providence town line. Smithfield officials have banned dumping by outside firms in their community.

"Several residents from Smithfield Road, North Providence, were seated in court today when the continuance was granted."

This article in substance states [redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, said he plans to fight a civil suit in which Emprise Corporation of Buffalo, New York, formerly Sports Service Corporation, is trying to collect $124,000 remaining on a $150,000 promissory note involved in the financing of Berkshire Downs in Massachusetts.

Emprise Corporation claims the trio, [redacted] and [redacted] owe the unpaid balance on the promissory note executed November 16, 1960.

[redacted] said that he and the other two individuals feel the promissory note is not their responsibility. When SALVATORE A. RIZZO of Scarsdale, New York, took over as president of the track, he accepted all obligations. According to [redacted] Emprise Corporation accepted Mr. RIZZO's $25,000 check in part payment of the note.

[redacted] also said that "we" would not have accepted RIZZO unless he assumed these obligations.

[redacted] contended that he was suppose to receive a release from the firm but never did. He said he was told the others in the case were mailed releases, but neither [redacted] nor [redacted] could be reached for comment.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

On August 2, 1963, a confidential informant advised that [redacted] of Maine owes Patriarca a considerable sum of money, which Patriarca was attempting to collect. Informant did not know the exact amount of money but assumed it would be several thousand dollars.

On August 6, 1963 the informant advised that Joseph Anselmo, [redacted] and Joseph Modica had a dispute involving money owed by [redacted]. According to the informant, the facts were brought to Patriarca's attention, and he instructed that the above three individuals get together and settle their dispute. Anselmo is also known as Burns.

Another confidential informant advised that Patriarca spent $4,000 to $5,000 for attorneys fees in connection with the illicit alcohol trial appeal of Edward Romano and others who were convicted in the Federal District Court, New Haven, Connecticut.

On August 6, 1963, another informant advised that Patriarca, together with Joseph Krikorian (also known as Joe Kirk), were interested in real estate on St. Martin's Island in the Caribbean. Informant did not know the details concerning this but did know it concerned the purchase of two hotels there.

The same informant advised that Joe Kirk was "fronting" for Patriarca in an effort to obtain 42 days of additional racing at the Berkshire Downs Race Track located in the western part of Massachusetts.

On August 6, 1963, another informant advised that [redacted] (also known as [redacted] of Springfield, Massachusetts, was attempting to effect the parole of Lawrence Zammino and [redacted] from the Massachusetts State Prison. [redacted] was working on this parole with the permission of Patriarca.

On August 7, 1963, another informant advised that Joseph Anselmo, Jerry Angiulo and [redacted] were involved in an argument caused by Lamattina's financial troubles and the fact that he owes several thousand dollars to Burns and Angiulo. Inasmuch as they could not settle this dispute in Boston, they contacted Patriarca who indicated that if [redacted] is proved to be a liar in connection with the loans, he should be killed. Informant did not know the details concerning the loans [redacted] made.

In connection with the opening of a store in Boston which would specialize in the sale of obscene literature, Patriarca made arrangements through Jerry Angiulo to obtain a license for this store, which was to be fronted by pinball machines and other amusement devices. According to the informant, Angiulo was to contact his friend, [redacted] for the City of Boston, in order to get the amusement license. [redacted] was allegedly paid $25,000 for okaying the transfer of a license of the Casino Burlesque Theater from one location to another in Boston when the building it occupied was torn down for redevelopment. [redacted] originally granted the license for the transfer but Mayor Collins of Boston, upon his return from Europe and because of pressure from the Catholic newspaper, "The Pilot," rescinded the license.

Jerry Angiulo indicated that if the license for the amusement center was granted, [redacted] would probably have to be placed on the payroll of this company.

On August 19, 1963, another informant advised that Joseph Krikorian was still attempting to effect an additional 42 days of racing for the Berkshire Downs Race Track through State Senator John Powers and Speaker of the House John Thompson of Ludlow, Massachusetts.

Krikorian was allegedly having opposition from a [redacted] for the Wonderland Dog Track in Revere, Massachusetts. Patriarca subsequently sent word to Joseph Lombardo to contact [redacted] who, in turn, was to contact [redacted] and persuade him to cease opposing the additional race track dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track. [redacted] for the Wonderland Dog Track.

On September 17, 1963, an informant advised that Theodore Fucillo, Boston, Massachusetts, was to contact Michael Iopresti, former State Senator from East Boston, Massachusetts, on behalf of Patriarca in order to obtain employment for [redacted] Patriarca [redacted]

On September 30, 1963, informant advised that Nicholas Bianco of Brooklyn, New York, was made a member of the family and was ordered to act as temporary head of the Gallo family in Brooklyn, New York. This was the result of efforts by Raymond Patriarca to effect a peace in the Brooklyn area among the families there. Bianco is originally from Providence, Rhode Island and a close friend of Patriarca.

After Bianco was made a member and placed in temporary charge of this family, he attempted to have other individuals under his jurisdiction made members of the family. Bianco was advised by Patriarca that the books were closed at the present time and, therefore, he could not make any of his group members of the family. Nick was concerned because of the fact that these individuals who operated under the Gallo brothers previously would be coerced by the Gallos when they are released from jail to return to the Gallo mob. Bianco was further of the opinion that if they were then actual members of the family there would be no doubt that they would remain under Bianco's temporary command.

Bianco was also advised by Patriarca, according to this informant, that in the event the Gallos are released from prison and there is trouble, the Gallos would be murdered.

On September 30, 1963, another informant advised that Patriarca has intentions of making an additional two individuals members of his family when the books open up again.

Another informant advised on October 3, 1963 that Patriarca is interested in a singer, name unknown to the informant, and that he allegedly has 50 percent of the singer. Raymond was attempting to obtain contracts for this individual at the Frolics in Revere, Massachusetts and further contemplated requesting Tommy Ryan of New York to assist this singer.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

On October 8, 1963, another informant advised that [redacted] was in the loan-shark business with [redacted] and Amato Santaniello. They originally borrowed $15,000 from Jerry Angiulo to enter the loan-shark business. Amato borrowed $5,000 of this $15,000 and has not returned any of this money, nor has he paid interest on same. Subsequently, [redacted] obtained an additional $10,000 from [redacted] noted Boston sports bookmaker. At this time he returned the $10,000, which [redacted] had furnished him to Angiulo and told Angiulo that the $10,000 represented the profits in the loan-shark business. Angiulo did not believe this story but was of the opinion that [redacted] actually had another backer.

In an effort to resolve the argument, Patriarca was contacted and the above story was related to him. According to the informant, Patriarca subsequently forced [redacted] to admit the above facts. [redacted] was warned by Patriarca never to do such a thing again. Arrangements were subsequently made that Santaniello was not to be paid from this loan-shark operation but that all of Santaniello's profits were to be paid to Angiulo for repayment of the $5,000 loan of Santaniello.

On the same date the informant advised that Jerry Angiulo had furnished $1,000 to Mayor Collins' 1963 mayoralty campaign fund. He furnished this to Joseph Lombardo of Boston, Massachusetts, and instructed Lombardo to make sure that Collins knew where the money came from. Later, Angiulo ascertained that [redacted] of Boston, Massachusetts was also collecting money for Collins and had raised $1,000. He became suspicious that the thousand dollars that [redacted] raised was, in fact, the thousand dollars that he, Angiulo, had furnished to Lombardo. With the permission of Patriarca, he contemplated questioning Lombardo to find out who Lombardo had given the thousand dollars to. Informant did not know the result of this contact.

On October 8, 1963, another informant advised that Patriarca had granted permission to Jerry Angiulo to kill [redacted] of Boston, Massachusetts. Informant did not know the reason for this proposed killing.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

On October 16, 1963, informant advised that Patriarca intended to sue Colonel Walter E. Stone of the Rhode Island State Police for remarks he made in the State Grand Jury which occurred on October 10, 1963.

Rebosa airtel, 10/31/63.

The following information was furnished by BS 837-C*.

On 10/31/63, UNMAN told PATRIARCA that he had a mysterious telephone call. As a result of this call he was of the opinion that his phone had been tapped. UNMAN was involved in bookmaking but the informant did not have details concerning this. PATRIARCA uses a public telephone booth when it is necessary to make important phone calls.

Another UNMAN requested PATRIARCA's help in a case involving an unknown individual who is facing a jail sentence for a crime committed by him. The defendant still has $18,000 from the result of the crime. PATRIARCA will assist this individual, providing he gets half of the money or $9,000. He did not indicate in what way he would help the defendant. UNMAN would contact him later when he discussed the details with the defendant.

On 11/1/63, no pertinent information was developed.

On 11/4/63, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, Providence, R. I., discussed his Internal Revenue case with PATRIARCA. No pertinent information was developed.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., still owes the Cranston Loan Co. a substantial amount of money. [redacted] former partner [redacted] is afraid that he will lose his collateral on a loan that [redacted] has outstanding.

PATRIARCA was not sympathetic and told [redacted] not to worry about [redacted] but let him lose his money.

[redacted] requested RAYMOND to speak to [redacted] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, R. I., about the loan with the Cranston Loan Co.; however, PATRIARCA advised he could not do this under the present circumstances. RAYMOND stated that he has not made any money in legitimate businesses in the past.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN (aka JOE KIRK) contacted PATRIARCA. KRIKORIAN was not too enthused about taking over [redacted] gambling business in Baltimore, Md. while [redacted] was in prison. According to the informant, KIRK did not believe that there would be sufficient money in the enterprise; and, further, that he did not like the idea of giving up the business when [redacted] is released from prison. He did mention that the number play in Baltimore is extremely good, as in Washington, D. C. Informant was unable to ascertain all details concerning this operation in Baltimore.

KIRK and PATRIARCA are disgusted with the operation of the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Mass. It appeared that the Berkshire Downs Race Track is going into bankruptcy.

UNMAN, who formerly ran the fights in Providence, R. I., had previously contacted Col. WALTER E. STONE prior to his testimony before the Senate Crime Commission in Washington, D. C. He warned STONE not to go out on a limb and to be very general in his statements before this Crime Committee.

STONE apparently did not take this man's advice and, consequently, made a fool out of himself with his testimony concerning PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA, however, cleared himself to a great extent at the State Grand Jury, Providence, R. I. on 10/24, 25/63.

PATRIARCA claims that 99% of STONE's testimony was untrue. PATRIARCA denied ever being dishonest with his friends and thought that probably STONE, when he testified concerning PATRIARCA's dishonesty among his friends, was trying to get him, PATRIARCA, knocked off.

PATRIARCA is aware of the possibility that some of the young punks coming up might figure PATRIARCA at one time was a stool pidgeon and, therefore, kill him.

PATRIARCA does not intend to testify before the Federal Grand Jury at Providence, R. I., which is to be held in the near future. He intends to force USA PETTINE to prove everything. PATRIARCA believes that Col. WALTER E. STONE must have been brain-washed by the AG, ROBERT KENNEDY, to have testified in the manner that he did for the Senate Crime Commission.

UNMAN gave RAYMOND $9,750 and stated that he wanted to incorporate his business with [] (LNU). It appeared that UNMAN told RAYMOND about some hot coats that were available. It appeared to the informant that [] who is [] lives in Milford or Millbury, Mass. and [] a shoe factory there. [] is probably the individual who is selling the coats.

RAYMOND spoke highly of [] who was shot during an attempted bank holdup in Chelsea, Mass.

UNMAN told RAYMOND that [] Springfield, Mass., had sent an individual from Rye, N. Y. to UNMAN to purchase the coats. He sold him three coats for $1,000 and the coats were valued at $5,000. The man from Rye has not, as yet, paid the $1,000. PATRIARCA told UNMAN to contact SAM CUFARI and NICK CAMMEROTA of Springfield and have them put the pressure on [] to collect the $1,000.

[] (LNU) of Revere, Mass. told PATRIARCA that there were two liquor licenses held by LOUIS FOX (noted Boston Philanthropist) prior to the time he died. BS 837-0* advised on 10/29/63 that PATRIARCA discussed the results of the State Grand Jury, which both he and Col. WALTER E. STONE testified to the previous week.

UNMAN told RAYMOND that WALTER STONE had contacted [redacted] of the Howe Cigarette Service Co., Pawtucket, R. I., in an effort to have [redacted] testify before this Grand Jury against PATRIARCA. [redacted] who had previously testified, apparently before the Senate Investigating Committee in the early 1950's against PATRIARCA, told STONE that he did not desire to get involved in the matter. UNMAN said that he would attempt to ascertain through his contacts what other individuals STONE contacted and requested their appearance before the State Grand Jury.

On 10/30/63, THEODORE FUCCILLO told PATRIARCA that they have a "beef" with [redacted] This "beef" concerned [redacted] charging too much money for defending an unknown client who is going to plead guilty.

FUCCILLO stated that they were contemplating buying 400 acres of land in Milton, Mass. for development purposes. The asking price for this land is $1,200,000. FUCCILLO had already contacted one individual who was willing to purchase 100 acres of this land. He contemplates further conferences with the owner of the land.

UNMAN told PATRIARCA that the only thing they should be concerned with concerning STONE's testimony before the Grand Jury was "the bulldozer." RAYMOND could not understand why they should be concerned about this. The informant stated that the name [redacted] (PH) was mentioned, but he, the informant, did not think that PATRIARCA was too concerned with the facts surrounding "the bulldozer."

PATRIARCA told this individual that the union should demand an apology for statements made by STONE in his testimony before the Senate Crime Committee.

UNMAN stated that one of the members of the union stood up at the last meeting on behalf of PATRIARCA.

Another UNMAN, who, according to the informant, is in the glass installation business, desired to borrow $50,000 from RAYMOND to start a new company. RAYMOND made an appointment with him for Monday at the office of his Attorney, SAUL FRIEDMAN where further discussion will take place on this matter. It would appear that RAYMOND was interested in investing money in this business.

Another UNMAN told PATRIARCA of his efforts in attempting to line up an individual (not mentioned to the informant) for a "hit." It appeared to the informant that this individual was located in Rhode Island, and UNMAN attempted to grab him at a crap game. However, because there were so many individuals at this crap game UNMAN decided against grabbing him at this location. He waited outside in the cold for a considerable length of time but was unable to effect the "hit."

It appeared to the informant that the man who was to be hit has several brothers who are with the intended victim most of the time, making it difficult for UNMAN to grab him.

PATRIARCA was cleared by the State Grand Jury who issued a report reflecting that no evidence was presented to this Grand Jury reflecting that there was any organized crime in the State of Rhode Island, although some small gambling did occur there.

HENRY TAMELLEO advised that he talked to [redacted] (INU) who was having difficulty with [redacted] goes with a [redacted] (INU) and also another millionaire on the Cape. [redacted] has in her possession 6 1/2% of the stock of the track (probably Berkshire Downs Race Track).

TAMELLEO cautioned [redacted] not to mention anyone's name if interviewed by law enforcement officials. [redacted] told him that as far as he was concerned he would mention no one else's name. However, because of his divorce action with his wife he, TAMELLEO, should be concerned with her. TAMELLEO then contacted the wife and told the wife that she should not mention anyone's name. It appeared that [redacted] (noted Boston Philanthropist) is involved with [redacted] and [redacted] in the stock of this track. However, the informant did not know the details of same.

HENRY TAMELLEO then discusses VALACHI's whereabouts with PATRIARCA in a whispered tone. The name of [redacted] who is presently serving a federal sentence in connection with narcotics and also [redacted] (probably [redacted]) are mentioned. The Raymond Street Jail in New York is mentioned.

They discussed VALACHI's being taken out of the Federal Penitentiary and brought to New York, and another unknown individual who is in the Lewisburg, Pa. Penitentiary.

Informant was unable to ascertain the full details of this matter.

PATRIARCA made a statement that "the guy they are talking about would 'talk like a song bird'."

When ANGIULO called [] the name for the first time he put his hands to []'head, at which time [] stated he was so nervous he was going to kill ANGIULO. PATRIARCA told him that he should have killed him at this time and, that if he is ever called the obscene name again by ANGIULO, that he, [] has the right to kill ANGIULO on the spot and no questions would be asked by PATRIARCA.

They discussed the finances of the IMCC.

RAYMOND told them that if [] wanted to buy out JERRY ANGIULO's half, dollar for dollar (which amounts to approximately $56,000), he could do so and sufficient time will be given to [] to raise the money.

PATRIARCA told them that he has one-third interest in this Club and that part of the money that JERRY put in was money borrowed by PATRIARCA from ANGIULO.

[] also indicated that SAM CUFARI has been contacted by ANGIULO and ANGIULO is saying things that are causing CUFARI to become antagonistic towards []

During the conversation with [] UNMAN came in, told RAYMOND that there was a telephone call for him at DePaula's (PH). RAYMOND left the room and returned approximately five minutes later. PATRIARCA stated that he "took the ball away from [] as soon as he appeared before the Grand Jury." He pointed out to the Grand Jury that he would not have appeared there if he was a single man, but in order to clear his name, not for himself but for his wife [] he decided that he, himself, would be the only one that could clear his name. He had diabetes and also a heart condition which could result in his death in a matter of two days, two months, or two years. Because of this, he has vowed to himself that he would clear his name only for the fact of his wife []

He told them that [] recently because of the newspaper publicity, and that his wife was dying of cancer.

He told the Grand Jury that VALACHI had been interviewed by Federal authorities for a period of eight months and indicated that they had, somewhat, brainwashed VALACHI into saying what they wanted him to say.

He denied ever hearing of Cosa Nostra and denied being tied up with any organization such as La Cosa Nostra, Mafia, or any similar group. When asked about ANGIULO, he stated that SANTANIELLO had introduced him to ANGIULO and that ANGIULO, who owns a hospital in Boston, Mass., had obtained the services of [] renowned Surgeon, for an operation on his wife. If he had attempted to obtain the services of [] through regular channels it would have taken at least a year to obtain an appointment with []. He, therefore, feels extremely close to ANGIULO for saving his wife's life for he felt if a year had elapsed, his wife would have been dead.

He told the Grand Jury that STONE was a good police officer; however, in this case he had based his testimony on hearsay only. He told the Grand Jury that ROBERT KENNEDY did not like him and that STONE was the victim of ROBERT KENNEDY and the newspapers.

On 10/28/63, JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, told SAUL FRIEDMAN that he desired the interest on the money (apparently that which he and PATRIARCA invested in the Berkshire Downs Race Track). According to KIRK, this race track

He believes that he can make $4,000 to $5,000 per week, which he would split with PATRIARCA. KIRK will keep PATRIARCA advised of the situation and contact him when he returns from Baltimore.

On 11/12/63, BS 837-C* advised that [] (LNU)
(probably of Rhode Island) told RAYMOND that he had $1,174 coming to him, and RAYMOND, in turn, owed him $1,200. The $1,174 was monies derived from a booking operation operated by []

It appeared that [] was having trouble with the lay-off of numbers, as he told PATRIARCA that he had made numerous calls to the variety store and other locations but was unable to get an answer. According to [] the reason for the non-activity at the lay-off numbers was because of the pressure of local police.

PATRIARCA stated that he would obtain for him a number which would be for the lay-off center of JERRY ANGIULO's at Boston. He pointed out that this number very seldom changes and that he would have no trouble if he used this number.

UNMAN mentioned that some unknown individual had a cousin who was supposed to have a connection. Informant was unable to ascertain the significance of this.

This UNMAN also said that [] who is incarcerated at Walpole State Prison, Walpole, Mass., had sent word that he had wanted to see UNMAN. UNMAN was to see [] this date.

He asked PATRIARCA the name of the lawyer that [] has got in Boston handling the [] PATRIARCA called SAUL FRIEDMAN and, upon learning same, told UNMAN it was []

When talking to FRIEDMAN, PATRIARCA told him that the insurance deal sounds good to him. Informant was unable to ascertain details concerning this.

Another UNMAN entered (who could possibly be LOUIS TAGLIANETTI). LOUIS stated that a fellow walked into JERRY's place with [] about four days previous. This guy, who was later identified as [] (PH) or [] (PH), was from New York and told JERRY that he was a member of La Cosa Nostra by introducing himself as "a friend of yours." This was done in the presence of [] JERRY did not know whether to punch this individual or whether he was, in fact, a member, so he listened to his story. [] or [] then stated that [] is a pretty square guy and that he, [] was going into business and that he, [], would cause no trouble to the friends of his in Boston. He was going to take up residence there and conduct his business (which was probably shylocking) in partnership with [] He requested

[] be left alone. JERRY listened to his story and then denied he ever heard of such a thing because of the fact that he did not know whether this individual was a "stoolie" or a legitimate member.

UNMAN also said that there were rumors around about [] (LNU) and that JERRY had gotten a call from somebody concerning [] and he, UNMAN, was checking out same. No further details were mentioned to the informant.

RAYMOND stated that he had received a call from [] from Bridgeport, Conn. who said that [] from New Jersey was coming in the following day. He was wondering whether [] from New Jersey was going to ask him about []

Subsequently, [] (PH) and [] both apparently from the New York area, came in. RAYMOND explained to them the above story and stated that [] was in with the [] from New York. They had been grabbing bookmakers sometime ago and [] was marked to be killed - but this has not, as yet, been accomplished.

It appeared that [] (PH) or [] (PH), when he introduced himself to JERRY, said that he was a friend of [] and [] was described as a short, fat fellow from the [] area of New York; that he was a nobody but did have a [] (PH), who was a member of La Cosa Nostra.

[] was further described by PATRIARCA as being "a rat []" and one who deals in narcotics and not to be trusted under any condition.

[] stated that several months ago he came to Boston with [] to obtain a legitimate loan for property in New Jersey. At this time [] had asked [] about JERRY ANGIULO, whom he thought was a friend of the individuals who could negotiate the loan for them.

According to [] the loan never went through; however, [] drove them up to Boston on this occasion, which was about two months ago. [] stated that they call [] " but his name is the same as []

RAYMOND continued, that they have been having trouble with the Irish fellows a long time and "they have already taken care of three or four of them and [redacted] we have been after him for a long time."

[redacted] further explained that [redacted] or [redacted] (PH) did a bit in Atlanta and, while there, got friendly with the Irish fellows from the New York waterfront. He had, on occasions, tried to bring them over to his [redacted] (PH) but [redacted] would not accept them.

[redacted] stated he stays in a bar every day owned by a "friend of ours," some fellow named [redacted] and [redacted] are very close. [redacted] has a fuel office upstairs over the bar and that is where [redacted] stays every day.

[redacted] had told [redacted] that some of the Irish guys used to come there with [redacted] but when [redacted] commenced hanging around there, they left.

RAYMOND, on attempting to identify [redacted] in his own mind, asked whether he used to hang around the New York market district where he, RAYMOND, [redacted] and [redacted] (PH) operated. [redacted] replied, "No"; that he came from Brooklyn and they later put him in New York.

During the meet, JERRY ANGIULO called and was told by RAYMOND that that fellow (referring to [redacted]) is a nobody but that he, RAYMOND, will take care of the situation and instructed JERRY to do nothing.

He instructed [redacted] to get a hold of [redacted] in New York and have [redacted] tell [redacted] to either get [redacted] or [redacted] (PH) out of Boston or he, RAYMOND, would do it. He indicated that if it were not for [redacted] being [redacted] of his, [redacted] would probably receive worse treatment.

[] stated that he learned from [] (LNU), who apparently has something to do with the Copa Night Club in NYC, that a fellow was coming into town from Montreal and was going to contact him; subsequently, an individual named [] contacted him and he, [] brought him to [] room at the Hotel of the Americas because he did not believe he had the connections he claimed to have had. [] indicated he knew and was friendly with dozens of individuals (apparently belonging to La Cosa Nostra).

[] left him at the Hotel Americana and, upon returning home, learned that [] had gone to the Copa in an effort to see [] immediately proceeded to the Copa and, upon arrival there, [] had left. Thereafter, [] left instructions that if [] ever came into NYC again that nobody was to have anything to do with him.

When referring to the VALACHI testimony, [] stated that "Every school boy knows more about it (referring to Cosa Nostra) than we do because of television and radio newscasts. All the kids have got an education in this now and it's real bad," according to []

On 11/13/63, UNMAN discussed his gambling operation with PATRIARCA but informant was unable to ascertain details of same.

JOE KIRK advised that Berkshire Downs is going into bankruptcy and that, as a result, [] of the Suffolk Downs Race Track, Boston, will probably wind up with 90 days of racing a year.

JOE stated that an individual who was formerly a Tax Assessor in Brookline, Mass. and apparently is presently connected with the Massachusetts State Racing Commission, had put his neck out for JOE KIRK and SAM (probably referring to SAM CUFARI) in connection with their Berkshire Downs Race Track.

Another individual introduced [] to RAYMOND and stated that [] had sent them up. It appeared that [] was in the [] business in Newark, N. J.

[] (PH) is giving [] a considerable amount of trouble, particularly in the [] end of the business. [] requests that RAYMOND intercede for him to get a better rate from [] on the []. [] said that [] had told him that PATRIARCA had loaned considerable money to [] from time to time. RAY said that he did not know [] but it must have been his brother JOE PATRIARCA, as he, JOE, used to fool around the market and he did loan money to some people in the market.

RAYMOND attempted to contact JOE by phone but he had left his place of business. [] further mentioned that [] originally was from Providence, R. I. but does not reside there any more. [] does reside in Providence.

[] has the [] business in Virginia and Florida, as well as New Jersey and New York.

RAYMOND asks [] whether he has any telephone numbers where he could reach [] to which [] replied in the negative.

While awaiting for JOE to return the call, UNMAN told RAYMOND that he is also in the vending machine business.

The three individuals left and proceeded to the Old Canteen Restaurant, Providence, R. I., where they were to meet JOE PATRIARCA to continue their discussions. Prior to the time they left, RAYMOND stated that if his brother did not know [] " he, himself, would call [] in and straighten him out as to the rate to be charged to []

On 11/12/63, efforts were made to identify [redacted] and [redacted] at Providence, R. I. with negative results.

A surveillance was conducted at the airport in an effort to identify them as there are indications they might take a plane to New York, with negative results.

On 11/13/63, a surveillance at the Old Canteen Restaurant reflected the following out-of-state cars in the parking lot:

A late model Cadillac bearing New York registration [redacted]

A small, compact car, make unknown, bearing New York registration [redacted]

NYO is requested to identify owners of the above-mentioned cars.

Reurairtel, 9/4/63.

Reairtel concerns the defeat of a bill before the Legislature of the State of Massachusetts granting an additional 42 days of racing to the Berkshire Downs Race Track at Hancock, Mass. Following this defeat, the Massachusetts State Senate President, JOHN E. POWERS, according to responsible sources, stated he would make every effort to revive Governor PEABODY's racing reform proposals which were before the Senate Ways and Means Committee for study and, if successful, he predicted that the same recommendations would be made by this committee.

Investigation of Massachusetts State House contacts and other public sources were discreetly made in an effort to identify [] who was associated, according to BS 837-C*, with POWERS and Massachusetts Senator FLEMMING of Worcester, Mass. However, his identity could not be established through these sources.

Inasmuch as the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Mass., is presently under bankruptcy proceedings, no further dissemination of this information is being made.

It is to be noted that on 12/12/62 Attorney General EDWARD W. BROOKE, Boston, Mass., was informed that PATRIARCA was financially interested in the Berkshire Downs Race Track, and also, that Senate Leader JOHN E. POWERS had planned to contact SALVATORE RIZZO, President and General Manager of the Berkshire Downs Race Track in NYC.

[] indicated that JERRY had met [] [] Revere, Mass., in the parking lot of the General Edwards Inn recently for the purpose of taking over Revere, Mass. from LOUIS FOX who had recently died.

JERRY was of the opinion after the meet that he had a good chance of taking over the city of Revere; however, [] told him that when [] returned, he indicated displeasure with ANGIULO and said that he was getting "too big too fast." [] also indicated some displeasure with PATRIARCA. ANGIULO indicated that he is still attempting to take over the city of Revere.

ANGIULO went into a very lengthy discourse as to his argument with [] in Worcester, Mass., after which PATRIARCA called in both [] and []. At this point [] briefly told his version of the incident, whereby ANGIULO called [] an obscene name - not once, but three times. At the end of his discourse PATRIARCA gave ANGIULO the floor. He then entered into a somewhat lengthier defense of his actions and stated that he does not recall using the obscene language against [] not once, twice or three times, and that if he did use the name it certainly was not used in the literal meaning of the word.

At the end of his discourse, ANGIULO became very subdued and apologized to both [] and [] "from the bottom of his heart" and stated that he would "put this word out of his vocabulary." Immediately thereafter a three-way conversation took place between [] and ANGIULO. Shortly thereafter, RAYMOND shouted to stop all the talk and instructed them that because ANGIULO had apologized from the bottom of his heart; that [] and [] accepted the apology; there is to be no more talk whatsoever concerning this incident, and that it is to remain in the room without any further discussion of same. He said that he accepted the apology of ANGIULO and "that ends it."

PATRIARCA then said that they would now enter into the discussion of the Indian Meadow Country Club. A lengthy discussion followed, the result of which [] was to attempt to raise $200,000 so that he could reimburse JERRY in the amount he has invested, namely $110,000 (part of which is RAYMOND's) and also to pay off outstanding debts.

In this way [] would own 100% of the Club with [] RAYMOND told [] that he should do this in the next month or so so that ANGIULO would be able to obtain the return on his investment.

The incident of SAM CUFARI was brought up and it appeared that CUFARI had a member of his party request [] for permission to go into the kitchen to make Marinara sauce for SAM CUFARI. [] was quite reluctant to allow this, as the Chef he had was temperamental and he did not want to lose his services; however, he finally relented and allowed the individual to make the Marinara sauce.

During the same night there was a party of several people. CUFARI had taken his girl friend to the affair, as did several other guests. They had not paid the necessary $5 for the women as they were not invited until the last minute.

[] instructed the hostess to collect $5 from each male who was accompanied by a female, with the exception of [] and [] who happened to come in during the party. [] sat with CUFARI. The hostess asked CUFARI for the $5 for his girl friend and told [] that he was a guest of [] CUFARI apparently became incensed at not being shown the "proper respect" in that somebody would dare to ask him for $5 for his girl friend and, at the same time, not ask [] and []. After hearing the story PATRIARCA issued instructions to [] and [] that they were to tell CUFARI that he was in error in acting the way he did, and further pointed out that [] should attempt to have these individuals not hang around the Indian Meadow Country Club.

On 11/15/63, UNMAN told PATRIARCA that RAYMOND PETTINE, USA, Providence, R. I., is being considered by the powers to be for Governor of the State of Rhode Island. There was a general discussion as to who they should make their donations to, and there was mention of [] and [] being the []. No decision was made by either PATRIARCA or UNMAN as to the amount or to whom they should furnish this money for the Governorship race.

RAY indicated that he is being surveilled constantly and, therefore, meets individuals in a restaurant where he can discuss his business with them without being observed by law enforcement agencies.

On 11/18/63, UNMAN contacted PATRIARCA in an effort to identify an individual whose name was found in his brother's pocket when he, the brother, died. The note found in the pocket indicated this man owed the deceased $1,000 and the brother was attempting to collect it. PATRIARCA did not know this individual.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., advised that he was going to meet with the people in Boston, one of whose name was [redacted] (PH), concerning the proceeds of a "joint." In 1958 or 1959 this "joint" was going into bankruptcy and the investors had to raise $30,000 to avoid bankruptcy, which they did, at "300 a point." The "joint" probably costs $250,000, and there was a figure of $130,995 and a figure of $131,250 mentioned, the difference being noted as $255 of the last two figures. It appeared that there was some argument over the amount of money being returned to the investors as [redacted] (LNU) had $8,880 due him but he did not put in his original $6,000, nor the $900 for the three points in 1958 or 1959. He, therefore, will not even get the difference, which is $2,410. "DOC" also has 10 points and (FNU) [redacted] has an undisclosed amount of points.

At one point [redacted] made reference to it as the [redacted] deal and stated that [redacted] did not take any money out but had the money in a New York bank under a lawyer's trust.

[redacted] (PH) was also mentioned as having a piece of this business.

[redacted] is going to New York to see an individual relative to this unknown business.

Re: Boston airtel, November 19, 1963.

BS 837 C* advised as follows:

On November 19, 1963, unman gave PATRIARCA $1,600., apparently in reference to a gambling venture.

Another unman borrowed $5,000. from PATRIARCA.

Another unman discussed his appeal regarding his recent conviction of a still in New Haven, Connecticut, nothing pertinent mentioned by this unman.

An employee of [redacted] Providence, R. I., advised PATRIARCA that [redacted] is in the hospital with [redacted]. He asked PATRIARCA's advice as to how to collect a $3,000. debt owed by an individual who purchased a car at [redacted] and refused to make payments. A salesman, who had worked for [redacted] and had been fired, wanted $1,000. to testify against the individual who did not pay his $3,000. debt to [redacted]. PATRIARCA instructed the individual to give him $1,000. to be held in escrow so that the salesman would testify correctly against the person who failed to pay the debt. If the testimony was satisfactory, PATRIARCA would then turn over to him the $1,000.

JOSEPH DEL GROSSO, Massachusetts State Representative from Revere, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA concerning a liquor license that is open in Revere, Mass. He sought PATRIARCA's intercession in assisting him to obtain this liquor license. DEL GROSSO had contacted HARRY DELLA RUSSO, Massachusetts State Senator, but DELLA RUSSO would not assist him. DEL GROSSO pointed out that many years ago he assisted [redacted] in beating his case for rape when [redacted] was a patrolman. DEL GROSSO, who was then in politics, went to LARRY CHILDS, then the Mayor of the City of [redacted].

Revere and brother of the present Chief of Police in Revere and made a deal with him that [redacted], present [redacted] Revere Police Department, would be reinstated as a patrolman. As [redacted] was advanced in the Police Department, he, DEL GROSSO, assisted him each time. He was instrumental in obtaining the position of [redacted] and was very close to him until three years ago when there was an argument. Since that time, [redacted] has not spoken to DEL GROSSO.

DEL GROSSO pointed out that they, referring to the powers to be at Revere, have 300 telephones used for bookmaking and for each telephone they obtain $125. per month, which total amounts to a slush fund of $37,500. per month. DEL GROSSO pointed out to PATRIARCA that he has never received a penny from the slush fund, even for his various campaigns.

DEL GROSSO pointed out that on one occasion they nominated him for a position in Revere and not until after the election when he lost, did he find out that he was only a patsy to defeat an individual named [redacted] who opposed him and HARRY DELLA RUSSO.

DEL GROSSO's man is [redacted] (LNU).

DEL GROSSO pointed out that he wanted to fire [redacted] several years before he was actually fired in order to put in [redacted] whom they could get to; however, they did not follow his advice. They left [redacted] in that position for several years.

DEL GROSSO desired that PATRIARCA join his side in order to take over all the rackets in Revere since Louis FOX's death and pointed out that now is the time to act. He further added that [redacted] PETER JORDAN, is presently Mayor of the City of Revere and that he, DEL GROSSO, thinks that JORDAN will consult him for advice in his future activities as mayor.

After PATRIARCA listened to DEL GROSSO, he stated he would like very much to help DEL GROSSO but in his present position he would be unable to do so. However, if DEL GROSSO ever wanted him to do a favor, he, PATRIARCA, could contact CHICK DELLA RUSSO and probably have the favor performed.

On November 20, 1963, [] (LNU) contacted PATRIARCA. [] apparently was in some difficulty in laying off bets on horses and numbers. PATRIARCA suggested that he lay off his bets to [] presumed to be a bookmaker in Providence, R. I. According to PATRIARCA, [] takes any kind of lay off betting. According to PATRIARCA, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI has his own numbers but does not take lay off action. An individual, (FNU) [] was doing all right in his booking operation until approximately one year ago and since that time he has failed considerably.

On the same date, [] (ph) AND [] (LNU) contacted PATRIARCA. [] indicated he was [] of LOUIS FOX, noted Boston philanthropist who recently died of a heart attack. FOX allegedly controlled all rackets in the City of Revere, Mass. [] felt that he, as [] to FOX, should have his operation but apparently was being opposed by [] (LNU) who appeared to have also worked for FOX in this operation. [] was soliciting PATRIARCA's backing in this venture, as he felt that with his, [] knowledge of the operation and PATRIARCA's backing, they could take over FOX's operation, presumably in Revere.

At the present time [] does not know whether FOX has left any money in his will to him, [] but he has [] (ph) money. He added he felt that if he were associated with PATRIARCA, he would be 100 per cent protected. FOX left [] a note in the amount of $29,500, and added that [] owes him $5,300, from various ventures, such as bingo games, etc. [] desires from [] at this time $12,000, to start, $10,000, to go to the L and M contract (ph) and $2,000, for the convention in Chicago next week. In addition, there may be $5,000, that will be coming up for [] (ph).

[] said that whatever is in the pot after he takes his weekly salary, "we split down the middle." There are three or four spots that he has already; [] and he has been going to OTTAWA (ph). [] said that OTTAWA was always good money and should make more when they get tied up with [] (ph). If [] tries to push [] around, PATRIARCA said he would stop him.

PATRIARCA pointed out that he has got a piece of this business with [] (LNU) and that he will control the operation. He pointed out that LOUIS FOX did him a lot of favors during his, FOX's, lifetime and mentioned specifically FOX's allowance of his, PATRIARCA's, crap game to be operated in Revere for many years.

[] gets $2,000. salary for [] and the rest will be put in the pot. [] said there are some individuals, such as [] (ph), who have "a $5,000. privileged minimum in some games" possibly a crap game. PATRIARCA specifically pointed out that they will tell [] that he has a piece of the business and further, that whatever money [] gambles will not be taken from the pot but will be taken from his share.

[] mentioned that FOX owned 25 per cent of all the equipment there, but he did not know whether FOX had this fact in writing. According to [] the name of the corporation is Butts, Inc. and FOX's family agreed to give [] 100 per cent of the deal.

[] further stated he met [] in Brockton last week regarding the New York situation. PATRIARCA told him not to worry as he, PATRIARCA, will take care of the situation in New York.

Reurairtels, 10/10/63 and 11/14/63, respectively.

Reairtel, 10/10/63, suggests that Boston should devise an approach to [redacted] in order to develop his co-operation against ANGIULO and PATRIARCA, inasmuch as [redacted] is in danger of death because of a dispute with ANGIULO.

It is believed from observation and conversations with [redacted] in addition to his past history of criminal activity, that he is a highly emotional, unstable individual and, therefore, could not be contacted to develop his discreet co-operation against ANGIULO and PATRIARCA.

As reflected recently in information received by BS 837-C*, [redacted] brought another individual from NYC to see ANGIULO. The individual from New York told ANGIULO that he was a member of La Cosa Nostra and indicated that he should not bother [redacted] any more; that he was to be a partner with the New York individual in a loan-shark operation.

Informant further reported that the individual from New York was not, in fact, a member of La Cosa Nostra but was only a cousin of an individual who was a member. This necessitated a trip by [] and [] (LNU) to PATRIARCA who ordered that the New York man leave Boston immediately. This apparently was done.

The above indicates the unstable character and untrustworthiness of []. He, therefore, will not be contacted in an effort to discreetly develop his co-operation. Information was later received from BS 837-C* which reflected that [] and [] met GENNARO J. ANGIULO and RAYMOND PATRIARCA at Providence, R. I. At this time ANGIULO profusely apologized to [] and it appears that at this time there was no indication that [] would carry out his threat against ANGIULO.

Therefore, the above is not being disseminated to Police Commissioner EDMUND L. MC NAMARA of the Boston PD.

We have received information indicating the possibility that Gennaro Angiulo, underboss of the Boston "family" of La Cosa Nostra, has been [redacted] with the permission of the boss, Raymond Patriarca.

In the morning hours of 11/9/63 Angiulo's car was found riddled with bullets in the vicinity of his apartment in Boston, Massachusetts. The highly confidential source giving direct coverage of Angiulo has since furnished information indicating that Angiulo professes ignorance of the shooting. He is shown to have left his car at 3:30 a.m. the morning in which the shooting took place and the car had not been shot at at that time. It is possible the shooting was done by some person who mistakenly believed Angiulo was still in the car or done as a warning.

The highly confidential source directly covering Patriarca in Providence, Rhode Island, has advised that on the day before the shooting, [redacted] complained to Patriarca that Angiulo on the previous night had visited [redacted] in the company of others and verbally abused him, calling him an obscene name on four different occasions during an argument over the [redacted] a joint enterprise of [redacted] and Angiulo. [redacted] told Patriarca that he was about to kill Angiulo for this insult but that had restrained himself because of the possibility that such action would indicate disrespect for Patriarca. In reply Patriarca told [redacted] that he should have killed Angiulo at the time the name was called and if Angiulo ever called [redacted] the obscene name again [redacted] had the right to kill Angiulo on the spot and no questions would be asked by Patriarca. The shooting of Angiulo's car occurred the following morning. We have had recent indications of a growing coolness in attitude by Patriarca toward Angiulo.

ACTION:

Immediate dissemination is not being made of the information concerning the possible intended murder of Gennaro Angiulo the fact that our only information in this regard comes from very sensitive valuable sources. However, the Boston Office has been instructed to remain alert for opportunity to furnish the information to Boston Police Commissioner Edmund L. McNamara, former SA, if such dissemination can be made with complete security to the highly confidential sources.

Memorandum of 11/14/63 set forth information received from a highly confidential source (HCS) concerning a quarrel that had occurred between Gennaro Angiulo, Boston hoodlum, and [redacted] Worcester hoodlum, in which Angiulo called [redacted] a foul name. As a result of this, [redacted] complained to Patriarca, New England La Cosa Nostra "boss", who gave his tacit approval for [redacted] to kill Angiulo because of the insult. The HCS reported that Patriarca told [redacted] that he should have killed Angiulo at the time the foul name was called.

Thereafter, information was received indicating that possibly an attempt had been made on Angiulo's life. The Boston Office was instructed to remain alert for a possible lead to disseminate the information to Boston Police Commissioner, Edmund McNamara in a manner consistent with the security of the HCS.

The Boston HCS has now advised that Patriarca called [redacted] and Angiulo together and instructed them to make peace following an extremely humble apology given [redacted] by Angiulo. Patriarca instructed that there be no further enmity between the two men and said that he, himself, would adjudicate all differences surrounding the [redacted] of the [redacted] Massachusetts. It was a business quarrel concerning this joint enterprise of [redacted] and Angiulo which gave rise to the quarrel between the two men.

ACTION:

In view of the fact that peace has been made between [redacted] and Angiulo, and Patriarca is handling the matter which gave rise to the quarrel, the Boston Office has advised that no dissemination of this matter will be made to Commissioner McNamara. Of course, should there be any indication of future disputes between these individuals, appropriate dissemination will be made to the Boston Police Department.

BS 837-C* advised on 11/26/63 that [] (LNU) discusses a ticket business with PATRIARCA. Informant had no indication as to what type of business this was. [] had been in New York concerning this business but the informant had no further information concerning same.

[] (LNU) discusses with PATRIARCA the sale by another unknown individual "up there" who could possibly sell 100 tickets. This could refer to a football ticket, but the informant could ascertain no specific information concerning same.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka Joe Kirk, Providence, R. I., stated that the Berkshire Downs Race Track will be auctioned off in the near future. There was mention of a $25,000 mortgage which they held and which RAYMOND desires to maintain instead of giving it to the "New York Group."

GENNARO J. ANGIULO told RAYMOND that [redacted] of Boston, Mass. has between $200,000 and $300,000 on the street. ANGIULO has already obtained through various intermediaries the sum of $32,000 from [redacted] for which he is paying interest. He intends to increase this as much as he can without [redacted] becoming aware of the actual recipient of the loan. At this time ANGIULO will tell [redacted] that they do not intend to pay the loan back and also refuse to pay the interest. ANGIULO is attempting to find out where [redacted] obtained all this money.

He received permission from PATRIARCA to use MAXIE BAER (True Name ANTHONY CATALDO of Revere, Mass.), who is a friend of [redacted] to entice him to a location where ANGIULO could question him. The reason for this questioning will be two-fold - one, to find out where he obtained such a large amount of money, and secondly, question him concerning his, [redacted] apparent surveillance of ANGIULO in Boston recently.

After [redacted] was observed by ANGIULO, he was approached by [redacted] thereafter, [redacted] proceeded to a nearby restaurant where he talked to three or four different individuals for a period of 10 minutes, and ANGIULO desires to know the identity of these individuals. He has an opinion that [redacted] may be responsible for the recent shooting up of his automobile.

ANGIULO stated that JOSEPH MODICA, aka Pappino, has failed to pay the $25 per month for the special fund created by RAYMOND PATRIARCA for the use of all members in the event they need money for attorneys' fees or for health reasons. He received permission from RAYMOND to "put it on PAPPINO" for this money.

It appears that BUTSY MORELLI of Providence, R. I. is in the hospital for cancer of the throat. He has asked for money from this group, although he, himself, has never paid into it. RAYMOND decides to furnish him some money from his own resources and also to collect from different individuals, only in Providence, R. I., who were friendly with MORELLI.

It appeared that JOE BURNS and [] have not, as yet, paid. JERRY has made arrangements to take JERRY NOYES (True Name SELVITELLA) and his brother, HENRY SELVITELLA's dues from their business. JERRY further stated that he obtained [] dues from [] without [] knowledge of what the money was for.

PATRIARCA was very perturbed that these individuals have refused to pay $25 per month, and he intends to call all of them in, who have not paid, and obtain the money directly from them.

JERRY advised that [] and [] of the American Finance Co. have "gotten away with murder" in respect to finances. They apparently owe ANGIULO a substantial amount of money and have made no effort to pay same back. He states that when he gets the opportunity he is going to "rob" [] and [] as it is the only thing they understand.

ANGIULO is very antagonistic toward PAPPINO, not only because he refused to pay the dues, but also at one time he sent [] to JERRY in order for JERRY to intercede for him with Senator FRANK FOSTER of Boston, Mass., in an attempt to have FOSTER vote against the taxi bill at Logan International Airport. ANGIULO refused to seek FOSTER's intercession.

Concerning the Revere, Mass. situation, ANGIULO stated that [] intends to take over the interests of LOUIS FOX in that city. He has made statements that JERRY is getting too big too fast, and he, [] desires all of FOX's interests, both legitimate and illegitimate.

JERRY ANGIULO has been warned by a Detective, name unknown, to stay out of Revere and not to try to come in and take over. It appeared that ANGIULO was obtaining some of his information through [] (LNU).

JERRY stated that [] intends to resign from the [] when he takes over FOX's position. JERRY is of the opinion that if the right person is elected Mayor in the city of Revere, he will make every effort to have [] where he can do no harm.

JERRY mentions that he could obtain a new will for the family of LOUIS FOX, as he has done on three occasions already for people within his own family. According to JERRY, he has established a contact in the Probate Section of the State Government where, for a payment of $500, he can have a will pre-dated.

JERRY also states that he has heard of a scheme ~~in~~ which he is looking into whereby he could obtain a loan for $32,000 from the Bank of Nassau, a British possession. According to JERRY, instead of receiving $32,000 he would receive $30,000 - the $2,000 being immediately taken out for interest. He suggests to RAYMOND that if 10 or 12 people get together and effect the loan from the Bank of Nassau, they could show $300,000 to $500,000 of legitimate money. According to JERRY, the advantage of this loan is that, according to his sources, the Bank of Nassau at the end of three years will not proceed legally to collect the $30,000 if it has not been paid, but "just write it off the books."

To obtain this loan, they would have to go from Miami to Bermuda and register. He did not state how long he would have to remain in Bermuda to obtain this loan but pointed out that if they cannot pay at the end of three years; when they receive a demand notice, the bank would write it off as a bad debt. JERRY intends to look into this phase.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] is going to trial next week and that he has attempted to reach two Judges - without success - because of the Federal intercession with District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE of Suffolk County.

ANGIULO mentions that a [redacted] (PH), of Worcester, Mass. has asked, through channels, for help in obtaining her medical license back, which she lost several years ago. PATRIARCA stated that he knew the Doctor well, and that JERRY should make every effort to assist the Doctor in obtaining the license.

It appeared that [redacted] was suing this woman for money owed to his deceased father and threatened to take the woman to court to collect the debt. PATRIARCA said that he would talk to [redacted] to make sure that he does not take the woman to court to collect the debt.

JERRY stated that Boston Police Comsr. EDMUND MC NAMARA and the Feds were looking over a map of Division 1, Boston, Mass. (the location where ANGIULO is believed to have his principal booking offices). He obtained this information from an individual at police headquarters who saw the map in the Commissioner's office after they had been reviewing same. There were no notations on the map or circles which would indicate exactly what part they were interested in, but the source told JERRY he would attempt to keep him advised as to MC NAMARA's activities. JERRY identifies the source as [] (LNU).

JERRY stated he started a rumor about two months ago reflecting that MC NAMARA is going to resign his position as Police Commissioner and take over as head of the Boston Redevelopment Commission. He stated that this rumor has now come back to him, and that there is much talk in the city of Boston on this possibility. JERRY stated that he remembered the words that RAYMOND PATRIARCA told him several years ago, namely, "Don't abuse it, use it." He believes that the rumor will become so widely circulated that there is a distinct possibility MC NAMARA will resign to accept a better paying position only because of the rumor he started.

RAYMOND spoke of the joint in NYC, which is to be auctioned off on December 2nd. RAYMOND has $100,000 in this joint and hopes to get some of his money back.

In the conversation with ANGIULO, PATRIARCA stated that [] was made a member before PETER LIMONE.

On 11/28/63, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI discussed his business concerning the sale of watches with PATRIARCA - none of which is pertinent.

During the discussion, RAYMOND mentioned that money was needed for "BUTSY" MORELLI who is presently in the hospital with cancer. RAYMOND said that [] (PH), [] who is associated with the Horseman's Benevolent Association, and [] were not paying the $25 a month for the fund. RAYMOND issues instructions to collect from all members. He said that JERRY is holding the money obtained from members in Boston, and that [] is holding the money from the members in Rhode Island. It was not clear whether the members are of this Association, or whether they are, in fact, members of Cosa Nostra.

TAGLIANETTI mentioned that [] who is a [] (probably from the Rhode Island area) has not paid any of the principal from the loan he obtained from TAGLIANETTI but is only paying heavy interest. RAYMOND stated that TAGLIANETTI should inform him that he must pay some of the principal because [] is a heavy bettor and might lose everything and they, then, might not be able to obtain the principal.

RAYMOND told TAGLIANETTI that the situation in New York is that there is no boss there at the present time and that he, probably referring to NICK BIANCO, and three other guys are forming a commission to rule this family. He mentioned them as [] (PH), [] (PH), [] (PH), and (FNU) [] (PH). He later added that it looked like [] and [] will be the bosses. If they get into any difficulty which they cannot settle, they are to either go to TOMMY RYAN (EBOLI) or THOMAS LUCHESE, who will settle the dispute or difficulty for them.

[] intends to expand this ticket business. He desired to get the "OK" from PATRIARCA for a loan of $5,000 from an unidentified individual. PATRIARCA suggested to him that he borrow the $5,000 from GENNARO J. ANGIULO of Boston, Mass., for which ANGIULO only gets 1% a week. [] at the present time owes PATRIARCA $18,000, for which he is paying interest.

UNMAN told PATRIARCA that [] (probably [] of Providence, R. I.) told him of a big crap game on Broadway, Providence, R. I. PATRIARCA was not involved in this crap game but told UNMAN that there was $50,000 to $60,000 involved and furnished him an "OK." to rob the crap game. This crap game is held once a year, but the informant did not know the exact address of same.

UNMAN, whom the informant identified as only [] or [] (LNU) and whom he described as a heavy gambler or race track tout, contacted PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA is of the opinion that ROBERT KENNEDY is through as Attorney General, and that he probably will not get HOPFA as "HOPFA is too smart for him." He hopes that PRESIDENT JOHNSON will not offer him the nomination to the Vice Presidency.

PATRIARCA is of the opinion that the FBI might have shot up JERRY ANGIULO's car recently in order to obtain a reason to talk to JERRY.

[] or [] (LNU) reports approximately $15,000 or $18,000 a year from race track winnings but is still having a problem to "get show money."

JERRY ANGIULO was able to show $150,000 during the recent past by using [] as a front. It appeared that [] mother and father had recently died, and he requested [] to state to IRS that they had $75,000 a piece in cash, which they left to [] (It should be noted that [] for ANGIULO in the Indian Meadow Country Club in Westboro, Mass.)

92-118

On 12/3/63, [] (LNU) contacted PATRIARCA that date in relation to their [] in Las Vegas, Nev. It appeared that [] PATRIARCA in this ownership. They have three points in the [], which is the operating company for the []. They also have a piece of the corporation which holds the real estate of the [], but the informant was unable to determine the exact amount.

[] gave RAYMOND over $2,000 from a gambling operation. He stated that the hits on the number last Saturday were very high; subsequently, they did not do as well as expected. He mentioned the figures as 158 of Providence. He mentioned that we win 1920; [] 641; [] 2200; [] 9,000. Informant was not able to ascertain the exact figures. He also mentioned that [] was the only one not making any money. [] made 500 last week.

[] gave a check to [] of Pawtucket, R. I. in the amount of $25,000. This check was probably in connection with their Las Vegas interest.

[] had recently met [] (LNU) at the lawyer's office in connection with an argument he had with [] (PH). This concerned a "joint" in Las Vegas, and there was an argument as to the amount of money being split up. It appeared that [] was the person complaining about not getting his proper share and this related to the [] the Dunes Hotel (probably the real estate of same).

[] of Boston, Mass. had apparently received a payment of $6,000 in connection with this operation.

[] again mentioned that he received a check in the amount of $25,616 made out to him, and that he hoped that he would not get in trouble on same. He gave it to [] (LNU) for deposit. PATRIARCA had a thousand dollars coming from this, in addition to another thousand dollars which he will receive at the end of the month from the Dunes deal.

According to [] the [] is close to being the best money maker in Las Vegas. He stated that he met [] going to New York on a plane and attempted to meet him later in New York but was unsuccessful because he was tied up in a land deal at Cape Canaveral. He later learned that [] met [] and the collector in New York for the [] who he did not mention. The collector in New York had a long list of prospective purchasers of points in the []. He mentioned that he could have bought five points some time ago for $23,000, and they are now worth over $100,000. [] points out that he is in error on this, as each point is worth $70,000 or $80,000.

[] talked about a note which, on paper, carried 5% interest but in actuality was only 4%. The interest on this, which they receive, amounts to $72,000, and he had to give the proper shares to [] and []

There appears to be some difficulty in connection with this interest, and [] requested PATRIARCA's advice as to how he should handle it as [] was complaining he did not receive his proper share. He exhibited a letter which he wrote to [] in connection with this investment dated 3/15/57 in which he, [] tells [] that the letter is to inform him that the $20,000 at 8% or eight points in the [], which he had furnished him, should be split up as follows: - five points in the [] for [] as he had furnished the $12,500 of the $20,000, and the remaining three points or $7,500 was ours (referring to PATRIARCA and [] RAYMOND asks whether this was the first time that he, [] had tried to straighten this situation out, to which [] replied in the negative. He, [] obtained RAYMOND's permission to attack the guy (probably [] legally, and they expect to bring it to court. [] intends to fly out to Las Vegas and sit down with [] (PH) and [] (PH), the two guys who made the joint a success.

It appeared that [] and [] put up $1 million and now [] of the place. [] asked RAYMOND if he knew anyone in St. Louis, and whether there was a boss there. RAYMOND replied there was a boss there but he did not know him personally, nor could he recall his name.

RAYMOND instructs [] to contact [] and arrange a meet in New York between RAYMOND, [] and []. He pointed out that [] knows [] and knows who's who out there.

PATRIARCA is "very close to []" who is an underboss now. He knows all about Las Vegas. He assumed that [] would get a hold of [] (true name [] of NYC) to attend the above meet.

[] also mentioned another financial joint they are interested in in which they paid $12,500 a month rent, but the informant did not know the details of this investment.

[] has an interest in 420 acres of land at Cape Canaveral, Fla. Sixty acres of this 420 have already been sold for $803,000. He believes the property to be worth well over $2 million. In connection with this land, he has spent over $14,000 to attorneys both in New York and Florida and had other legitimate expenses in connection with the attempted sale of this property. It appears that PATRIARCA has a piece of this investment.

The wife of one of the original owners of this land failed to sign the deeds. [] is concerned that the deed is not valid because of this and is attempting to obtain her signature on the deed.

[] who has an interest in this land and who used to be in the coin machine business, is causing trouble for [] stating that he, [] is not accounting for his expenses. According to the informant, DICK WALLACE of Bridgeport or New Haven has an interest in this land and is close to another investor named [] (LNU). RAYMOND explained that WALLACE was very close to [] (PH) and that he, PATRIARCA, knows WALLACE is very good.

[] (PH) also is causing trouble in that he wanted more than a minority share. He held 25% of this investment. [] will not give him more than 25%, although he, [] raised $700,000 through the Continental Trust whose main offices are in Massachusetts and who have branch offices in Florida. According to [] there was a payoff at the Continental Trust Co. to obtain this $700,000, the payoff being five lots at Cape Canaveral worth $6,000 a piece to the individual who "OK'd" the loan.

[] is going to Miami in connection with this investment and desires to bring [] (INU) with him when he meets []

They intend to make a boss of this family after the first of the year and, according to PATRIARCA, a fellow named [redacted] (PH), who is described as a nice guy and has never mixed one way or the other, is a good business man, sensible, and has been a soldier for some time, will probably be the next boss of this family.

PATRIARCA said that ANGIULO had given $1,000 to LOMBARDO of Boston for the campaign of former Mayor JOHN F. COLLINS through [redacted] of the North End section of Boston. [redacted] State Representative JO JO LANGONE of the North End section, and he allegedly is the one collecting for the COLLINS campaign fund. RAYMOND stated that they should have given the money to PIEMONTE as he will do something for you.

[redacted] had given PIEMONTE $500 for the last campaign and a thousand dollars for the campaign prior to that. Neither [redacted] nor [redacted] have seen [redacted] for a couple of years. [redacted] stated that he is not going to the race track as often as he did and inquired of the health of [redacted] of Providence, R. I., and was told that the end is near for [redacted].

[redacted] stated that when ARTHUR POLATTA, former East Boston, Mass. bookmaker, died, "we" gave a piece to [redacted] or [redacted]. There was mention of $600 and the fact that [redacted] receives a 10% cut of the business now as he runs same. He has to give another 10% to another individual.

He pointed out that GABRIEL PIEMONTE, present Boston City Councilman and defeated candidate for the Mayor of Boston, came to him recently and said he was going to Europe and needed some money.

Informant did not know whether [redacted] gave him money or not.

On 12/6/63, there was no information of value developed by the informant.

On 12/9/63, several UNMEN at different times furnished monies, amount not known by the informant, to PATRIARCA.

Several unknown individuals discussed a failure by a bookmaker to pay off 25 different hits on a number during the recent past. It appeared that [] (LNU) took the numbers from the bookmaker, whose name was probably [] (PH). [] had received all of these numbers from the colored section of the city. It was not known by the informant whether this was in Providence, R. I. or in some other city. When the 25 colored people requested payment for the hit, [] refused to pay them in that [] did not turn either the money or the hits in but had left town.

[] (LNU), together with [] went down to the colored section of town in order to straighten the situation out, but the colored representative of the individuals who hit for $26 on a number refused to accept any explanations from them concerning the reason they failed to collect on their hit.

PATRIARCA advised that he would settle this matter when [] returned from a "wake" in New York, as he is the one who will pay the money as he is owner of "50%." It appears that [] is taking the layoff action on these bets.

[] and [] were concerned because they did not think they would be able to pacify the individuals who hit the number and pointed out to RAYMOND that they argued very little as they were in the Negro's house and wanted to avoid any trouble there.

BS 837-C* advised on 12/10/63 that [redacted] was still interested in the sale of tickets in the Rhode Island area.

[redacted] and RAYMOND were involved in a dispute to settle a possible swindle in a numbers hit.

It appeared that a 72-year old colored bookmaker had put in numbers to [redacted] for approximately six months.
Sometime last week he put in the numbers, as he claims, at 1:30 p.m. but, instead of delivering them himself, he sent a girl friend with the numbers, and they arrived at the destination of [redacted] at approximately 4 o'clock, at which time the number was already out. In the package were 26 hits on the number.

ANGIULO is a member of La Cosa Nostra, because his friends will be able to tell JERRY to "lay off" [redacted] in connection with the loan-sharking operation. ANGIULO was attempting to find out who [redacted] contact was who could tell JERRY to "lay off." Both RAYMOND and JERRY decided that it is JOE MODICA (aka PAPPINO) who apparently is not in a position to tell JERRY to lay off [redacted]

PATRIARCA made arrangements to see PAPPINO the following day.

Concerning the Indian Meadow Country Club, ANGIULO stated that [redacted] will lose the Club through bankruptcy. He instructed [redacted] to go to the Anglo-American Bank of Bermuda and borrow the money previously mentioned, in the amount of $32,500, from which he would receive $30,000. The extra $500 would be for the expenses of the contact man who would obtain the loan.

As noted before, JERRY stated that this is possible inasmuch as this bank would write the loan off as a default, after putting a little pressure on the borrower.

JERRY stated that he heard that [redacted] and all the Irishmen in Boston had a big meet at Burke's Tavern, Dorchester, Mass., recently. [redacted] was also allegedly there.

ANGIULO is of the opinion that [redacted] and [redacted] [redacted] have made peace; however, from investigation by ANGIULO he determined that the [redacted] group in Somerville, Mass. are still carrying weapons, which would indicate that the peace has not been effected. The reason for this meet was that the Irishmen feel that a lot of things were taken away from them, apparently by the Italian group, and that they, the Irishmen, want these things back.

ANGIULO called in EDWARD "WIMPY" BENNETT who denied knowing about the meet and described [redacted] as "a little crazy." "WIMPY" did say that these guys are all captains without a ship and they have no sailors to run the organization. He described EDWARD MC LAUGHLIN as having a good head, but the others would not follow his ideas.

JERRY is attempting to ascertain who the bartenders are at Burke's Tavern so that he would be able to find out if such a meet did take place and the reason therefor.

JERRY stated that an individual, [REDACTED] (PH), is flashing $100 bills in Boston, stating he is a nephew of RAYMOND PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA was not sure whether he was related to him.

JERRY also mentioned that his new phone number for bookmaking operations was "AT 4-1790."

On 12/3/63, [REDACTED] discussed the "Ottawa" business with PATRIARCA. It appeared that [REDACTED] is having trouble and that the president of the company will not allow [REDACTED] to take over the Ottawa operation this year.

[REDACTED] is attempting to make connections so that they, including PATRIARCA, will be able to take over the Ottawa operation and have it run by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] also stated that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is having a difficult time with LOUIS FOX's operations on the beach. RAYMOND stated that they are not as lucrative as they originally thought. FOX left [REDACTED] all his money, with the exception of the beach property and because of the fact that he did not like the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] he left them nothing.

An UNMAN talked to RAYMOND about a holdup (location not known) of a "joint" which has at least a million dollars there. The custodian checks cars in the vicinity but, from observations, apparently only checks approximately two out of five cars. UNMAN stated that if they get their man inside, he will be able to determine when the custodian is playing cards or not looking for the cars as they approach. When this happens, they will go in. RAYMOND instructed that they will have to get the guys off the streets in five minutes, as when law enforcement comes in, they will get the story and put the alarm out within five or six minutes, therefore making it necessary to have the participants off the streets.

RAYMOND also suggests to have the [] kid go in as he is tall, and UNMAN should not be seen because of his unusual size and walk.

Informant advised that the individual who accompanied UNMAN is probably [] of Providence, R. I.

Informant was unable to ascertain details concerning this proposed holdup.

10 Police at Party After Tip on Holdup

There were 10 policemen on hand Wednesday night to assure the safety of the members, guests and their money at the annual Monte Carlo party of the Aurora Civic Association at 239 Broadway, Providence.

Col. Howard A. Franklin said the four uniformed policemen outside the club and six detectives mingling inside were there due to a tip from a "reliable source" that there might be a holdup.

He was not so much concerned with the money involved in the raffling of turkeys and an automobile during the evening, he said, as he was over the fact that "I presumed there would be a number of guests with a great deal of money on their persons."

The Aurora club includes many well-to-do and prominent civic, professional and business leaders.

Edward J. Capuano, president of the club, asked if the number of policemen present was because of fear of a holdup, said he could not make a statement without consulting his board of directors, which he said he would do.

But he added that "it is not uncommon" to have some police protection, on the night of the annual raffle.

Col. Franklin said he had "no knowledge of any illegal gambling" at the Monte Carlo affair.

He said that police frequently are furnished and that police have tips all the time of possible holdups at such affairs.

A circumstance that is reported to have made some policemen unhappy is that the four uniformed men, working in off-duty hours, were paid $16 each for being outside the club to spot any holdup. But the six detectives assigned to blend with the rafflers got no extra pay.

Explaining this situation, Col. Franklin said today that the department maintains a roster of uniformed men available for extra duty for extra pay.

They are paid by the organization using them on off-duty hours for special services, and most men are anxious to be on the roster, he said.

Their outside compensation is fixed at $10 for the first four hours, and $3 an hour thereafter, he said, so the compensation to the uniformed men at the Aurora club raffle was $16 for working from 6 p.m. to midnight.

He said detectives' city pay is six per cent above that of uniformed men to compensate them for work beyond the normal 40-hour week. Detectives, he noted, more frequently are called on to work more than 40 hours.

He said he had checked with Vincent A. Ragosta, assistant city solicitor, about legality of raffles such as that at the Aurora club and had been informed that if the affair was for charity and on an annual basis, it was proper.

Mr. Ragosta confirmed that such an opinion with respect to organizations qualified for exemptions under the state's gambling and lottery laws had been prepared by him for police guidance last summer.

He said when Col. Franklin telephoned him in advance of the Aurora club party, the police superintendent told him a request for police had been made by Mr. Capuano.

An unknown individual [redacted] used Patriarca on 12/2/63 that [redacted] (probably [redacted] of Providence, Rhode Island) told the unknown man of a big charity crap game on Broadway in Providence, Rhode Island. Patriarca said that he was not involved in this game, but said that there was $50,000 to $60,000 involved and furnished to the unknown man an "okay" to rob the game. The game is allegedly held once a year.

Boston has now advised that this game is scheduled for tonight, 12/9/63. Information concerning the possible holdup has been disseminated to the Providence, Rhode Island, Police Department.

On 12/16-17/63, Departmental Attorney [redacted] and USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE, Providence, R.I., discussed with SA [redacted] the possibility of obtaining perjury counts against subject in the forthcoming Grand Jury proceedings to be commenced in Rhode Island on 1/6/64.

They felt that possibly surveillances of subject would be the basis of questions put forth to him if he was called to testify before this Grand Jury, however, after reviewing reports in this matter, they decided that that will be of no advantage at this time in obtaining possible perjury indictments against subject.

They said they would keep this matter in abeyance and may possibly use such a technique at a later date, and if they so decide, their decision will be made known to this office.

JOE KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, and PATRIARCA discussed the Berkshire Downs Race Track. It appears that PATRIARCA has not obtained his $215,000 that he has invested in same, and he blamed the other fellows, not identified, for not keeping their mouths shut.

RAYMOND instructs KIRK to tell [redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, to tell Sports Service, who had a large mortgage on this track, to "OK" an additional mortgage for $215,000, which money would be repaid to PATRIARCA.

On 1/6/64, JOE KIRK again discussed the race track. It appears that [redacted] of western Massachusetts indicates that he desires to take over the Berkshire Downs Race Track but will not do so until he is assured by PATRIARCA that there will be no pressure on him from other individuals. PATRIARCA assured KIRK that either he (PATRIARCA) or TOMMY BROWN (true name LUCHESE) of New York would go along with [redacted] and not exert any pressure whatsoever. It appears that SAM RIZZO, former General Manager of the track, also desires to take over the track. PATRIARCA prefers [redacted] to RIZZO, as he believes he will then be able to get his money back.

An individual who described himself as a fight promoter from Boston, Mass. told RAYMOND that he is interested in opening up a promotion center and also a club and pool room on Causeway Street, Boston, Mass. The promotion center would be his office to promote fights in Boston and Providence. He told PATRIARCA that he has a kid that is booking $4,000 to $5,000 per month on the street in the North Station section of Boston. He asked RAYMOND if he, RAYMOND, wanted to take the lay-off action and RAYMOND told him to contact JERRY ANGIULO who would accept same for RAYMOND.

After discussing the above promotion center, UNMAN told RAYMOND that he has an 18 year-old fighter from Boston, Mass. who appears to have excellent potential. He mentioned other fighters, whom the informant was not able to identify. He is attempting to obtain a fight between [redacted] and [redacted] in Boston, Mass. He told RAYMOND that the guy who owns the two magazines, UNMAN and PATRIARCA, will have an equal interest in any fights that are promoted by this individual.

BS 837-C* continues to regularly furnish excellent information regarding the activities of Raymond Patriarca, New England underworld leader, as well as information concerning his associates. This installation has furnished extremely valuable information concerning La Cosa Nostra and has identified members of this organization. During the past ninety days, source has furnished such information as the following:

Contacts of Jerry Angiulo, well-known Boston racket figure with Patriarca, at which times discussions took place concerning Angiulo's activities in Boston. Reported that [] offered Patriarca one third interest in any fights that he promotes in Boston or Providence. [] reportedly hopes to match [] the welterweight champion, for a Boston fight in the near future. Sources reported that Jerry Angiulo has 50% interest in a crap game operated by [] in Boston. Angiulo also obtained permission from Patriarca to set up additional crap games in the Boston area and take 50% each game.

This is one of the most productive misurs being operated in connection with the Criminal Intelligence Program and in view of its past performance an excellent potential to continue to furnish significant information. Recommend Boston Office be authorized to continue it for a 90-day period.

(A) On 1/2/64, the informant reported that District Court [redacted] of western Massachusetts indicated a desire to JOSEPH KRIKORIAN to take over the ownership of the Berkshire Downs Race Track which PATRIARCA has a financial interest in. He desired that no pressure be exerted on him by PATRIARCA or other individuals. PATRIARCA assured [redacted] through KRIKORIAN, that neither he nor TOM LUCHESE of New York would exert any pressure on him, whatsoever.

On the same date, [redacted] former Boston Fighter, furnished PATRIARCA a one-third interest in any fights that he promoted in the Boston, Mass. or Providence, R. I. area. He hopes to obtain the services of [redacted] for a fight in Boston in the near future.

This informant, during the past 90 days, has furnished substantial information on gambling and shylocking in the Massachusetts and Rhode Island areas, which information is set out in Bufile 92-2961 entitled, "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, AR."

On 1/7/64, this informant reported that ANGIULO took 50% of a small crap game operated by a small-time hoodlum, [redacted] Boston, Mass. He obtained permission from RAYMOND to set up additional crap games in the Boston area and take 50% of each game, in that they are not able, at the present time, to obtain permission for their large game. They feel that the sum of the profits that they get from each of the small games will not total the profits of a large game, but at least will be some income for the group.

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystallize information which may lead to prosecution.

Re Boston airtel dated August 23, 1963.

A misur survey has been conducted in connection with the office of SAUL FRIEDMAN, Room 709 Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R. I., and it has been determined that full security cannot be assured at this time.

Because of a series of local thefts in the building, it is presently required that all individuals entering the building during odd hours identify themselves and sign in at the guard desk at which a guard is constantly posted. In addition, another guard is on roving patrol within the building at all times.

It was further determined that FRIEDMAN recently contacted the Telephone Company at Providence, R. I., requesting a survey of all his telephone line and facilities in Room 709 at the Industrial Bank Building.

In addition observation has developed that FRIEDMAN's office is not located near an adjacent outside wall, but in the center of the space he rents.

Should it develop that the security aspect changes, Boston will notify the Bureau and request additional authority.

Re: Boston airtel dated 1/9/64.

BS 837-C* advised the following on dates indicated:

On 1/9/64 NICK BIANCO of New York told PATRIARCA that TOMMY LUCHESE had told their faction not to carry guns. However, NICK and his associates indicated they were carrying guns but kept the guns empty with bullets in another pocket, thereby eliminating a possibility of violation of the New York State laws concerning firearms. NICK desired to make sure that LUCHESE had instructed the members of the other faction also not to carry guns. BIANCO desired that PATRIARCA contact LUCHESE and make sure that they have a representative in the group which were controlling the GALLO PROFACI family in New York. PATRIARCA stated that he had talked with LUCHESE when he was last in New York and LUCHESE indicated to him that he had nothing to gain, apparently referring to his (LUCHESE's) attempts to settle the GALLO PROFACI feud.

PATRIARCA told NICK that he would make sure that NICK has a representative in this group. RAYMOND said that he would go to New York any time but prior to the time he goes he will contact SAM CUFARI of Springfield, Mass. "because he's in with those people" and let him get a hold of [redacted] and set up a meet for PATRIARCA.

TOMMY LUCHESE and PATRIARCA agree that THOMAS RYAN, true name EBOLI, is an honest fellow but they believe [redacted] is always "out looking for a buck". RAYMOND cautioned NICK to have his men watch out for themselves and don't do anything until they hear from him.

TEDDY FUCILLO of Boston, Mass. just arrived from a vacation in Florida where he met FRANK FERRARA. FERRARA told him that everything was "red hot" down there and that they had sentenced [redacted] to a year in jail. It is to be noted that [redacted] was recently sentenced in the U. S. District Court, Boston, Mass., to a year imprisonment in connection with a contempt of court proceedings regarding his testimony before the U. S. Grand Jury investigating the case entitled, [redacted] Boston file 165-1; Bureau file 165-12.

According to FUCILLO, [redacted] (probably [redacted] of Boston, Mass. had just taken the 11:25 a.m. plane apparently from Boston to Chicago to see HOFFA. [redacted] is "trying to do something with HOFFA".

PATRIARCA instructed FUCILLO to contact [redacted] of Revere, Mass. concerning PATRIARCA's possible purchase of the cigarette vending machine business of the late LOUIS FOX of Revere, Mass. FOX's sister was advised by an attorney, [redacted] (ph), to go to the FBI and complain that PATRIARCA was attempting to "mug" in on the cigarette business formerly owned by LOUIS FOX. RAYMOND, through LOUIS FOX's former business associate, [redacted] contacted an individual whom PATRIARCA described as an ex-FBI man but in actuality is an [redacted] man named [redacted] an attorney from Boston, Mass. [redacted] told [redacted] that PATRIARCA would never attempt to "mug" in on her cigarette vending machine business but in actuality he desired to pay a fair price for same as he heard it was for sale. Because of this, [redacted] did not contact the FBI. He desired that FUCILLO contact [redacted] and advise him of the above and the fact that he actually does desire to pay this business for a fair market value. It was PATRIARCA's opinion that [redacted] Revere, Mass. PD, who is attempting to take over LOUIS FOX's interests, was responsible for the attorney so advising LOUIS FOX's sister.

FUCILLO stated that [redacted] a gambling casino in Nassau on 1/23/64. FRANK FERRARA desired to have RAYMOND's okay for a job at this gambling casino. FERRARA is acquainted with [redacted] (LNU) who, together with [redacted] (ph), are the individuals who [redacted] casino for [redacted] with a [redacted] who is [redacted]. RAYMOND instructed FUCILLO to advise FERRARA that he should go to Nassau and tell them that he has the okay of PATRIARCA to work in this establishment. FERRARA was cautioned not to use the telephone in connection with getting the okay from PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA stated that he will furnish this okay for FERRARA with the stipulation that the gambling casino will not loan FERRARA any money whatsoever. PATRIARCA described [redacted] as a big bookie and that [redacted] of Providence, R.I. is acquainted with him [redacted].

FERRARA was attempting to sell a "hot" fur coat allegedly valued at $3,000.00 to FUCILLO for $500.00. FUCILLO did not purchase same. FERRARA told FUCILLO that he had 475 bonds left which were worth over $400,000.00. These bonds are apparently the Canadian bonds stolen in 1958 from various banks in Canada and for which FERRARA was sentenced in the U. S. District Court, New Haven, Connecticut, for possession of some of these bonds in the case entitled, [redacted] ET AL; ITSP - MT", Boston file 87-4123; Bureau file 87-39433.

FERRARA indicated to FUCILLO that he has been unable to peddle them yet as the FBI has been to see him and told him that they know he has the bonds but he won't be able to spend any of the money. He, therefore, is hesitant to sell them at this time.

FUCILLO and FERRARA met two guys from New Jersey, not identified, who "pulled" the [redacted] jewel robbery. According to FERRARA, they grabbed a 15 carat diamond and wanted $10,000.00 for it. However, because of the unusual design they have been unable to sell same. FUCILLO said they should have grabbed the small box which contained several valuable stones worth about $200,000.00.

At this point, FUCILLO asked PATRIARCA whether he obtained the diamond for [redacted] of Somerville, Mass. who is going to give same to [redacted] for a present. RAYMOND said he had not as yet but some kids are going down to Florida and probably would be able to make a score. He did not identify these kids.

[redacted] aka [redacted] from East Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA a few days before Christmas. The meet took place at an unknown restaurant and the reason for the meet was unknown to the informant.

[redacted] told PATRIARCA that [redacted] aka [redacted] of Boston, Mass., had sent a message to PATRIARCA through his [redacted] and that she desired to see PATRIARCA to furnish him a very important message. PATRIARCA stated that he would contact her that night at her home.

On 1/10/64 HENRY TAMELEO of Providence, R. I., advised that [redacted] of Boston, Mass., owes JOE MODICO of Boston, Mass., the sum of $32,000 which he had borrowed for loan sharking purposes. [redacted] has also borrowed loan shark monies from GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO of Boston, Mass., and from the crowd in New Jersey. MODICO wants the return of his $32,000 which [redacted] has not got at the present time. He desires that pressure be put on [redacted] through PATRIARCA for the return of this money. PATRIARCA had talked to ANGIULO about this matter, at which time ANGIULO indicated that he, too, wanted his money back. He was instructed by PATRIARCA not to give [redacted] any more money but to attempt to collect the amount [redacted] owes him. According to TAMELEO, ANGIULO had recently furnished [redacted] additional money for loan shark purposes. PATRIARCA appeared a little angry that ANGIULO would not follow his instructions and said that he would discuss the matter with ANGIULO the following week.

On 1/13/64 [redacted] stated that he has lottery tickets printed up for ten months in advance. The cost of printing these tickets, both material and labor, amounts to approximately $400 per week and he is attempting to increase his lottery business in other cities. He stated that he can deliver a three months' supply of these tickets to agents at one time and, thus, decrease the possibility of detection by law enforcement officials.

[] (INU) and [] (INU) are opening a club in Providence, R.I., which club is to be incorporated by Attorney [] of Providence, R.I. The Chief of Police desires a substantial contribution for the Relief Association. Informant did not know whether PATRIARCA has an interest in this club.

On 1/14/64 BS 837-C* advised that [redacted] of Providence, R.I. settled his accounting with PATRIARCA. The informant was unable to state what this accounting concerned but did state that [redacted] requested that PATRIARCA start off the new year with $8,000.00 in his book as the first entry which PATRIARCA did. This could either pertain to the lottery business [redacted] or the D & H Wrecking Co., which PATRIARCA allegedly has an interest in.

[redacted] mentioned that [redacted] (ph), who is associated with [redacted] in Cranston, R.I., does "a lot of dealing with bookmakers". He charges more interest to these bookmakers than the bank records actually reflect. [redacted] also loans [redacted] monies for loans to his company.

After the truck was stolen the Springfield group bought the trailer from the city of Boston to Springfield, Mass., at which time they ascertained that the contents were children's underwear instead of men's white shirts.

In view of the fact that the price for the load was $21,000 originally, they complained to HANNON and [redacted] and the price was lowered to $14,000. They still desire to bring the load back to the original thieves; however, PINKY (believed to be COSMO PANARELLI of Worcester, Mass.) located a buyer in the New York area and made an agreement to purchase same for $14,000, giving them $4,000 in cash and $10,000 to be paid after the load was sold.

The load subsequently was recovered by the FBI in New Jersey and the $10,000 has never been paid. HANNON and [redacted] were complaining to ANGIULO that they should receive the $10,000 because they were not responsible for the load being recovered. ANGIULO made inquiry of SAM GUFARI of Springfield, Mass. and ascertained that SAM had nothing to do with the load. However, he is going to New York to ascertain what the circumstances were concerning the recovery of the load and try to straighten the matter out with [redacted] and HANNON.

Concerning the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Mass., ANGIULO received permission from RAYMOND to do whatever he wants in connection with the financing or sale of the club. It is ANGIULO's intention to either sell the Club for at least $400,000 or to have [redacted] go into bankruptcy with the second mortgage and thereby "clean out everybody after the second mortgage and repurchase the Club at an auction sale."

ANGIULO gave PATRIARCA the sum of $2,164 from Milford; $635 from TOM; $576 from DON; and $469 from [redacted] operation.

He mentioned that [redacted], who is in the dress business in Boston, intends to go into the shylock business.

BS 92-118

[] stated that he is trying to get [] (probably [] Boston attorney) to contact FRANK GILES, Commissioner of Public Safety, Boston, Mass., for permission to open up a crap game. He pointed out that an individual named [] has been running the crap game in Dorchester, Mass. on a very small basis.

ANGIULO sent PETER LIMONE to [] and took 50% of the profits and, thereafter, put one of his men at the game to watch the operation. He has now decided that if they open three or four small games, such as this, they will be able to derive an income of $400 to $500 from each game per week. If and when they obtain the permission to open the big crap game, they will then close these small games down and only operate the big crap game.

He pointed out that after they took over 50% of [] operation, Sgt. [] of the Boston PD contacted him and attempted to persuade him not to bother []. He added that anyone who runs a crap game in Boston has to be "paying off" to the local Precincts.

ANGIULO stated that [] is now with [] Boston, Mass. RAY said that KAPLAN was a right guy and was never any bother to him. He said that [] broke up with [] over a financial dispute.

ANGIULO is scheduled to appear before a Federal Judge January 10 next in connection with the production of his records of the Huntington Realty Trust Co., Boston, Mass. ANGIULO is going to inform the court that no other records exist other than the 1963 records, and he believes he will not be held in "contempt of court" until they can prove that prior records do exist.

He stated that he had sold a quarter of a million dollars worth of real estate before 9/63 and had the records removed or buried in the local Registrar's Office so that IRS cannot locate them.

(FNU) [] and UNMAN, who is a representative of [] aka [] of NYC, contacted PATRIARCA on 1/7/64 relative to the "World of Mirth" shows which was owned by the late LOUIS FOX of Revere, Mass., together with [] as it will be recalled that PATRIARCA had furnished the sum of $10,000 or $12,000 to [] several weeks ago for the purpose of opening up the shows and, at that time, it appeared that PATRIARCA was to have a piece of this show.

[] who is one of [] of the show, apparently indicated to [] recently that he is in the "World of Mirth" shows with RAYMOND. [] apparently owns a part of this show and sent UNMAN to RAYMOND to find out exactly what the situation is in regard to the money furnished by PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA stated that it was only a loan to [] and that he does not have a piece of same.

It appeared that LOUIS FOX has been trying for years to get an individual whom he described as 81 years old, bearing the name of BERGER (PH), out of the carnival; however, he was never able to do so. They feel that [] and [] may be able to build the show up to what it was worth several years ago.

PATRIARCA mentioned that [] recently obtained a liquor license in Revere, Mass. under someone else's name and that the second license was issued to a friend of LOUIS FOX. Through RAYMOND's intercession he instructed that the liquor license be issued to this person as it was promised to him by LOUIS FOX. It appeared that [] also of Revere, Mass. was attempting to obtain the license for a relative.

During the conversation with [] he mentioned that [] an ex-FBI man (It should be noted that [] is an attorney in Boston, Mass., not an ex-FBI agent but []), was returning Saturday to New York and that he would contact him concerning the "World of Mirth" shows. It appeared that [] was an attorney for the "World of Mirth" shows.

On 1/8/64, [redacted] Providence, R. I., discussed their interest in the [redacted]. This interest amounts to three points and is divided between PATRIARCA, [redacted] and [redacted] of Providence, R. I.

The [redacted] was recently taken over by new management and there is nothing on record which proves they own the three points which originally was worth $27,000. RAYMOND instructs [redacted] to go to Las Vegas and discuss the matter with the new owners. He was to be accompanied by [redacted]. [redacted] gave him a thousand dollars "for December"; Two thousand dollars from [redacted] and $2,075 for numbers. He also stated that in 1961 and 1962 they made $58,081 in numbers which has not been divided, as yet. PATRIARCA owns 1/3 of this operation.

Concerning the Cape Canaveral real estate property, [redacted] stated that Section C of the property is now in his name with a $50,000 mortgage. He stated the property is worth $150,000 and that he recently paid the tax stamps on same. It appeared that RAYMOND has an interest in this inasmuch as he told [redacted] to straighten the matter out concerning all sections, namely A, B, C and D, and then he would be in a position to discuss the matter with him.

In talking to [redacted] RAYMOND stated that a representative of [redacted] and [redacted] who was a partner of LOUIS FOX, had been in the previous day complaining about a loan which he had made to one of the principals through JOHNNY CANDELMO of Providence, R. I. He told [redacted] that he owns 10% of the "World of Mirth" shows.

He pointed out that LOUIS FOX had 300 slot machines in storage in the Dominican Republic. These machines were apparently outlawed during the past year or so, but new legislation will allow the use of slot machines in hotels and restaurants. At this point [redacted] indicated a desire to take these machines over from [redacted] or whoever represented LOUIS FOX, as he has the proper connections.

In your contacts with BS 837-C* remain alert to identify the former Agent, if any, mentioned as possibly being of assistance to Patriarca and [redacted] in connection with slot machines owned by the late Louis Fox in the Dominican Republic.

Inasmuch as Patriarca and [redacted] casually mentioned the name of [redacted] as a former Agent, you should also be alert, to determine if [redacted] has any questionable association with these two individuals or any other hoodlum characters. From the mention of [redacted] as being from New Hampshire, it appears quite likely that this is a reference to former SA [redacted] who is well known to your office. Rebosairtel, 1/16/64.

On 1/16/64, BS 837-C* advised that [redacted] advised PATRIARCA that he has the dump situation straightened out as he found a dump in Johnston, R. I.

[redacted] stated that USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE of Providence, R. I. "is a no good _____" because of his questioning of Chief EDWARD PARKER of the Pawtucket, R. I. PD and Chief JACK DI STEFANO of North Providence, R. I. PD. According to [redacted] USA PETTINE questioned PARKER and DI STEFANO about their investments and accused them of cutting up various contracts and having financial investments in different bars within their cities. He also accused DI STEFANO with being friendly with JOSEPH PATRIARCA, to which DI STEFANO admitted; knowing JOSEPH PATRIARCA and having brought him drinks on several occasions. He claimed that JOSEPH PATRIARCA was a legitimate business man.

On 1/20/64, [] told PATRIARCA that he picked up an individual at the airport. He described this individual as being Jewish and who has just finished completing the building of a motel and a Howard Johnson's restaurant which he is attempting to sell. This individual is interested in re-investing his money and [] showed him several places, including a bowling alley allegedly owned by [] of Providence, R. I. The Jewish individual expressed interest in the Vermont race track [] suggested the Berkshire Downs Race Track as being a better buy and stated that it would cost approximately $500,000. The Jewish individual expressed interest in this and indicated that he would contact him at a later date.

PATRIARCA indicated that he had issued instructions to [] to obtain all the stock of the Berkshire Downs Race Track when he bought same from Attorney [] of NYC. Atty. [] had purchased this track at auction in the latter part of 12/63 and recently sold same, according to newspaper articles, to [] and SALVATORE RIZZO, formerly Managing Director of the track. PATRIARCA indicated that he could not, as yet, obtain his money out of the track but hoped to recover some of his money in the event the track is sold.

PATRIARCA also advised that he put $100,000 of his own money in with [] in another track (probably the Taunton Dog Track) which [] PATRIARCA advised that he put this money in eight or 10 years ago and has not obtained any interest from same.

[] was warned by PATRIARCA that when he goes into the restaurant he is not to talk as they have a mike in there and they are able to hear everything. [] said that he has to go into the restaurant to collect money but that he would be careful not to say anything that would incriminate them.

[] advised that their numbers have lost over $1500 each week for the past three weeks, although [] and [] have had winning weeks. [] could not understand this but assured PATRIARCA that no one was beating them for the money. [] stated that he had read where ROBERT KENNEDY was going to step down from the Attorney General's Office but "that [] JOHNSON" asked him to stay on.

An UNMAN who appeared to be an officer of the Massachusetts Sons of Italy requested RAYMOND to intercede for him in obtaining a name entertainer for the 50th Anniversary of the Sons of Italy banquet to be held at the Boston Garden in 10/64. He suggested the name of CONNIE FRANCIS. PATRIARCA advised that he would attempt to obtain the services of a name performer for UNMAN and that he would notify him through [] (probably [])

UNMAN was having trouble with the motel he operates with his brother. It appeared that his brother's wife was causing trouble regarding the financial aspects of the motel. [] recently opened the [] (probably of Shrewsbury, Mass.) and they have several mortgages totalling over $210,000. He desired that RAYMOND arrange to have a bank or finance company arrange to take over the full $210,000 and pay same off in 10 years instead of within two years. PATRIARCA advised him that [] whom he described but did not name, is in that business and that he would contact him to find out whether he, [] would take over the $210,000 mortgage. He will then have [] contact UNMAN directly.

ANTI-RACKETEERING

On October 31, 1963, a confidential source advised that Raymond Patriarca made an agreement with an individual whereby he, Patriarca, would furnish assistance to a defendant in a criminal case who was facing a jail sentence. For this assistance, Patriarca would receive half of the proceeds of the crime the defendant committed.

Another source, on November 8, 1963, advised that [redacted] and [redacted], both of Worcester, Massachusetts, appeared at Patriarca's place of business on that date and complained to Patriarca that Gennaro J. Angiulo of Boston, Massachusetts had called [redacted] a vile name. Angiulo reportedly was arguing with [redacted] concerning the operation of the Indian Meadow Country Club at Westboro, Massachusetts, when he called him the vile name.

Angiulo, later, on the same date, joined the above individuals and profusely apologized to [redacted] and [redacted] for calling [redacted] this name.

According to this source, [redacted] agreed to buy out Angiulo's and Patriarca's interest in this Club before the end of 1963.

Another source advised on November 12, 1963 that an individual named [redacted] from the New York-New Jersey area, brought [redacted] of Boston, Massachusetts to Gennaro Angiulo of Boston. [redacted] told Angiulo that [redacted] was working for him and that he was in partnership with [redacted] apparently in a loan-shark operation.

During the course of the conversation, [redacted] claimed to be a member of La Cosa Nostra. The source stated that [redacted] was interceding for [redacted] in that [redacted] was marked for assassination by the Angiulo group.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

As a result of this, Patriarca contacted Jimmy Carlo of New York who was an [redacted] Carlo ultimately told [redacted] to get out of Boston and not return to Boston unless he has specific clearance with Carlo. According to the source, [redacted] was not a member of La Cosa Nostra but [redacted] Jimmy Carlo, was.

Another source advised that [redacted] who is in the [redacted] Newark, New Jersey, contacted Patriarca in an effort to have Patriarca intercede for him for a better rate from [redacted] of New York. Source did not know whether this pertained to the cost of [redacted] bought by [redacted] from [redacted] or not.

Another source advised on November 12, 1963 that Raymond Patriarca has a financial interest in a booking operation of an individual named [redacted] whom the source could not further describe.

On November 15, 1963, another source advised that [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island, was experiencing some difficulty with a business, believed to be in Las Vegas, Nevada, of which he, Raymond, had a piece.

On November 14, 1963, source advised that Gennaro J. Angiulo of Boston, Massachusetts and Raymond Patriarca were attempting to take over the city of Revere, Massachusetts after Louis Fox's death. Their opposition to this is [redacted] who allegedly was a close associate of Louis Fox, who formerly had control of Revere.

In connection with the Revere situation, Joseph Del. Grosso, Massachusetts State Representative from Revere, Massachusetts, contacted Patriarca on November 19, 1963. According to the source, the reason for Del Grosso's visit was to obtain Patriarca's intercession in assisting him to obtain a liquor license at Revere, Massachusetts. Source later reported that Del Grosso was not successful in obtaining his liquor license as one of the two licenses went to an individual who was promised the license by the late Louis Fox, and the other went to a "straw" of [redacted]. The license was furnished to the individual to whom it was promised by Louis Fox because of the intercession of Raymond Patriarca.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

It should be noted that Patriarca told Del Grosso that he would be unable to assist him because of his present position.

The same source stated that [redacted] of the late Louis Fox, also asked Raymond's intercession to assist him [redacted] in obtaining the control of the "World of Mirth" Shows which Fox owned. For this assistance Patriarca allegedly received a percentage of the carnival.

Another source advised on November 19, 1963 that [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island automobile dealer, was incapacitated, during which time Patriarca furnished instructions to the employees of [redacted] regarding his business.

It should be noted there previously has been an allegation that Patriarca is financially interested in this automobile business.

On November 28, 1963, another source advised that Raymond Patriarca was disturbed and that several individuals, such as [redacted] who is associated with the Horsemen's Benevolent Association; Dana Ricci, Providence, Rhode Island; Joseph Anselmo, Arlington, Massachusetts; [redacted] and [redacted] and others who are not paying the $25 a month toward the Fund to assist members in time of need. At this time, Frank "Butsy" Morelli is suffering in the hospital from cancer and needs funds. Raymond is of the opinion that even though Morelli has never contributed to this Fund, he is still entitled to receive assistance therefrom.

On November 26, 1963, another source advised that Gennaro J. Angiulo of Boston, Massachusetts was having difficulty with [redacted]. It appeared that Angiulo observed [redacted] surveilling him and thus received permission from Patriarca to use Anthony Cataldo of Revere, Massachusetts to entice [redacted] to a location where Angiulo could question him.

Another source advised on December 3, 1963 that [redacted] has an interest in 420 acres of land at Cape Kennedy, Florida. According to the source, he is of the opinion that Patriarca also has a portion of this investment.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

The same source advised that [] in connection with the interest he has, in probably [] in Las Vegas, Nevada, with [] of Pawtucket, Rhode Island and Raymond Patriarca, contacted Patriarca on December 3, 1963. [] allegedly owed Patriarca $2,000 for his piece of the interest they have in []. There appeared to be some difficulty in connection with the interest which probably amounts to three points. The property was sold to new owners and there is a question as to whether the three points owned by [] Patriarca and [] are a matter of record.

Another source advised on December 2, 1963 that [] of Providence, Rhode Island operates a lottery business. This is a large lottery and, according to the source, Patriarca has an interest in same.

On December 5, 1963, another source advised that [] also known as [] contacted Patriarca at Providence, Rhode Island. [] had given ex-City Councillor Gabriel Piemonte of Boston, Massachusetts $500 in the last campaign and recently [] requested additional monies from [] for his trip to Europe. Source did not know whether [] furnished [] any money.

On December 20, 1963, another source advised that Patriarca is interested in obtaining a car agency, which he believed to be the Cadillac-Olds of Boston, Massachusetts.

On January 6, 1964, a source advised that Patriarca agreed not to cause [] of Springfield, Massachusetts any pressure in the event he, [] takes over the management of the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Massachusetts.

On the same date source advised that [] Boston Fight Promotor, is attempting to obtain a fight between [] and [] in Boston, Massachusetts. If he is successful in this venture, Patriarca will have an interest in the promotional setup.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA

Another source advised that on January 9, 1964 Nick Bianco of Brooklyn, New York contacted Patriarca of Providence, Rhode Island relative to the Gallo-Profaci family in New York. It will be recalled that Bianco was named interim head of this family but, according to the information from the source, he was recently replaced by a nine-man commission.

On the same date the source advised that Patriarca agreed to furnish an okay for Frank Ferrara of Miami Beach, Florida in order that he may gain employment in a gambling casino in Nassau. This casino is managed by [redacted] who [redacted] for Meyer Lansky.

BS 837-C* advised on 1/21/64 that LOUIS TAGLIANETTI told PATRIARCA that an unnamed cigarette company is being investigated by IRS and are checking particularly those cigarettes sold to PATRIARCA's firm in an effort to obtain evidence against PATRIARCA. records were all the loans furnished to various salesmen, as well as a list of "good" accounts which are used for selling additional merchandise. [redacted] requested that PATRIARCA assist him in obtaining the records from the person who stole them.

[redacted] the Frolics nightclub, Revere, Mass., and [redacted] State Representative HARRY DELLA RUSSO, contacted PATRIARCA with another individual not known to the informant. They discussed the cigarette business owned by the late LOUIS FOX, Boston Philanthropist, and the person who formerly controlled legitimate and illegitimate activity in Revere, Mass. PATRIARCA questioned [redacted] as to how the story originated reflecting that PATRIARCA was trying to "muscle in" on this cigarette business. He told [redacted] that [redacted] a former partner of FOX, told him the story and that he obtained it through [redacted]. PATRIARCA is of the opinion that maybe the FBI is setting a trap to have PATRIARCA buy this business, and they, in turn, would obtain evidence that he "muscle in" on same.

[redacted] explained that he had talked to [redacted] the [redacted] and said that he had heard the cigarette business was for sale and that in the event she desired to sell same, he has a person who is interested in buying, providing it was the right price.

PATRIARCA indicated that because of the fact that he thought it might be a trap, he is no longer interested in obtaining same.

[redacted] then explained that his ballroom had burnt down several months ago and with the ballroom he had a liquor license.

The new Mayor, PETER JORDAN, and his [redacted] [redacted] have indicated that they will attempt to rescind this license that [redacted] is carrying in his pocket at the present time because he is unable to find a location for same. He asks and receives permission from RAYMOND PATRIARCA that in the event the above two individuals do attempt to take the license back, that he could take some action against them.

The action he desires to take is to go into all the Jewish bookmakers in Revere, Mass., pull their phones out of the walls and tell them to get out of the city of Revere and not to come back. He explained that JORDAN, [redacted] and two other Jews, one of whom is [redacted] from Shirley Ave, Revere, have raised the price on phones for bookmakers in the Revere area from $125 per month to $150 per month.

[redacted] mentioned above, and two other Jewish fellows are the ones who are the collection agents for picking up the $150. RAYMOND stated that these individuals "must be nuts" with the amount of heat that is on Revere. He told [redacted] not to let them get away with it and that he can do anything he wanted to, providing he does not hurt "our fellows."

[redacted] explained that [redacted] is "sick over the situation," as he has apparently lost control of the gambling setup in Revere and that this setup was taken over by PETER JORDAN and [redacted]. However, he stated that [redacted] was the person responsible for it, but that City Councillor FIORE and [redacted] dropped [redacted] and went with JORDAN.

"TEDDY" FUCILLO advised RAYMOND that he had contacted [redacted] relative to obtaining a position in the casino for FRANK FERRARA. [redacted] called [redacted] who [redacted] Singapore and who originally is from Providence, R. I. They indicated to FUCILLO that they do not desire to employ FERRARA because of his past criminal record. He pointed out that as a practice they do not employ people with criminal records in the casino. He also pointed out that most of the employees are Puerto Ricans.

FUCILLO did not think that they would be able to obtain employment at the casino for FRANKIE FERRARA of Miami, Fla. However, he suggested that PATRIARCA contact [redacted] (true name [redacted] of New York) to obtain this employment. PATRIARCA told FUCILLO to call [redacted] at the Singapore and tell him that because of the heat in the New England area, he is unable to make a phone call to him or to travel to Miami to "OK" FERRARA. However, he expects to be in a position to contact [redacted] in NYC in the next few weeks and at this time he would explain the situation to [redacted] [redacted] would then contact [redacted] relative to this situation.

FUCILLO stated that [redacted] Boston, Mass., obtained a letter from JIMMY HOFFA but the informant did not know what this letter concerned.

[redacted] of Waterville, Me., was described by FUCILLO as being a phony; however, he had recently settled the strike at the Federal Liquors, Inc., Boston, Mass. through [redacted] and [redacted] of the Teamsters Union Local 25, Boston, Mass. This strike has been in effect for several months.

FUCILLO stated that he has tentatively made arrangements to operate a crap game in the vicinity of T Wharf, Boston, Mass. He expects to operate this game in the apartments which have been vacated for redevelopment.

During the conversation with FUCILLO concerning [redacted] PATRIARCA made the statement, "As long as [redacted] knows he has an obligation to us, it's OK." Informant did not know what this concerned.

THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE INFORMANT'S POSITION NECESSITATES THAT EVERY EFFORT BE EXERCISED TO MAINTAIN HIS SECURITY.

The following investigation was conducted by the Pittsburgh Division as a result of Boston Airtel to the Director dated 10/1/63 and Bureau Airtel to Pittsburgh dated 10/4/63 entitled "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka., AR," Bufile 92-2961, Boston file 92-118, Pittsburgh file 92-448. This information revealed that [redacted] D & H Building Wreckers, Inc., of Johnston, R. I., was in trouble with his taxes and intended to burn [redacted] records in Pittsburgh as this would not appear suspicious.

The following information was furnished by the Pittsburgh Division on 10/10/63:

The "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," 10/7/63, reflected that the site of [redacted] operations had been on fire which began about 9 p.m. Sunday, 10/6/63.

On 10/9/63 [redacted] Building Inspection Office, Pittsburgh, Penna., advised SA [redacted] that he had followed very closely the operations of [redacted] of Johnston, R. I., in wrecking the old Rosenbaum Department Store Building. [redacted] said [redacted] was D & H Building Wreckers who were being paid $25,000 per week by the Tenney Corporation of New York City to raze the building. Sometime in the Spring of 1963, [redacted] got into trouble with the IRS because of his failure to properly handle withholding taxes. This affected [redacted] entire operation which included one job in Pittsburgh and five in the Rhode Island area. In order to keep going at Pittsburgh and to divest [redacted] of a receivership which was brought about in Rhode Island, [redacted] a paper Pennsylvania corporation known as Sixth Wrecking Company, which was a change in name only. This operation continued with Tenney under the same agreement until early October 1963. At this time, Tenney dismissed [redacted] and hired a separate outfit to take over, the American Demolition Company. [redacted] said the only office used by [redacted] was located at 540 Liberty Avenue, which was within the site of the wrecking operations. [redacted] said he had been told that the fire which occurred Sunday evening was within this office and destroyed office records and probably was arson. [redacted] received this information from his [redacted] on the job. [redacted] [redacted] said he was certain [redacted] was in receivership in Rhode Island, not Pennsylvania, and that his primary legal problem was with the IRS at Rhode Island. [redacted] said his information is primarily hearsay and requested that his identity be kept confidential if the information was used in any way. Referral/Consult

On 10/9/63 Sergeants [redacted] and [redacted] Arson Investigators, City of Pittsburgh, were advised there was good reason to believe [redacted] may be behind the fire at the Rosenbaum Building, Pittsburgh, the previous Sunday evening and that it could involve a problem he had with IRS. They were furnished the identity of [redacted] [redacted] as a person who could provide information. [redacted] and [redacted] have previously been known to be most cooperative in matters of mutual interest. They pointed out that they have already become interested in the fire of 10/6/63 and would now investigate it thoroughly and would not make any statement which would show their interest began with the FBI. They were advised that IRS would possibly be interested in the results of their investigation.

On November 15, 1963, and December 3, 9 and 19, 1963, BS T-1 advised RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA continues to hang out at 158 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, and continues to live at 165 Lancaster Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

On November 15, 1963, and December 9, 19 and 31, 1963, BS T-2 furnished substantially the same information as that furnished by BS T-1.

On September 24, 1963, BS T-3 advised that everyone in Boston, except JOSEPH LOMBARDO, takes orders from GENNARO J. ANGIULO. Informant believes that this includes in some instances people like ABE SARKIS, who controls gambling in part of the South End Section of Boston; [redacted]

[redacted] and [redacted] who operates around the [redacted] Boston.

ANGIULO is universally hated but because of his connection with RAYMOND PATRIARCA he is a powerful man. ANGIULO reportedly obtained this influence by paying large sums of money. Both PATRIARCA and ANGIULO have invested money in real estate and business enterprises. ANGIULO allegedly owns fifty acres of shoreline at Manomet, Massachusetts, among other things.

This is a news item out of Washington, D. C. and states:

"JOSEPH VALACHI, exposé of the underworld, moved into New England in his testimony late yesterday. According to the United Press International, there was this exchange:

"Q. - This morning I asked if you met a man named PATRIARCA. What was his first name?

"A. - RAYMOND ... I met him there (In Boston) while I was racing. I had some horses there . . . and took them back and forth at New England tracks.

"Q. - Was he part of the syndicate in Boston?

"A. - Yes he was.

"Q. - Were you introduced to him as a member of Cosa Nostra?

"A. - Yes.

"Q. - You have no doubt that he was a member of Cosa Nostra?

"A. - 100 per cent.

"At no time did VALACHI give the home address of the person he was discussing."

The "Providence Journal," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, dated October 16, 1963, on page 1, carried an article captioned, "TEXT OF COL. STONE'S STATEMENT TO PROBERS."

This article is a Journal-Bulletin Washington Bureau dispatch and is as follows:

"Washington - This is the text of the prepared statement of Col. Walter E. Stone, superintendent of the Rhode Island state police, given to the U. S. Senate investigating subcommittee yesterday:

"I am Walter E. Stone, colonel and superintendent of the Rhode Island state police and retired chief of the Providence police department. I am 52 years old and reside at 55 Gallatin St., Providence, R. I.

"Like other witnesses appearing before this honorable committee, I, too, am firmly convinced that a structure of organized crimes does exist in America.

"Several weeks ago the local and out-of-state newspapers named Raymond L. Patriarca as one of the 12 top heads of organized crime in the United States today.

I would now like to go into detail and give this committee the criminal background on this ex-convict.

"Raymond Loreda Patriarca, age 55, lives with his family in Providence, R. I. To the Rhode Island State Police and the Providence police department this man is the controlling force behind organized crime in Rhode Island and New England.

"Raymond Loreda Patriarca was born on March 17, 1908, in Worcester, Mass. His criminal career began as a bodyguard for bootleggers in the early Twenties when he quickly gained a reputation for being a strong-arm man. That this man was without honor 'even among his fellow thieves' was indicated early in his 'career' by the fact that he was known to set up hi-jacking of the very shipments of alcohol he was hired to guard.

"His past police record began while in his teens in 1926 and includes arrest for hi-jacking, jail escape, violations of the gambling laws, violations of the Mann Act for which he served a federal sentence, safe-cracking, armed robbery, adultery, motor vehicle code offenses, carrying of firearms, conspiracy, assault, auto theft, and accessory before the fact. Murder - two counts.

"(At this point Colonel Stone, in response to a question by Senator McClellan, said that the FBI records show five convictions of Patriarca.)

"He is a shrewd, scheming individual as well versed in the ways of crime today as he was in yesteryear. He is as ruthless in the Sixties as he was in the Thirties.

"Behind the front of his business enterprises, Patriarca, through his lieutenants, is still involved in one of his old specialties, that of strong-arming. Now it's being done for unions in the New England area instead of for his fellow-gangsters during Prohibition.

"(Again Senator McClellan interrupted with a question.

"(The Chairman: Being done for unions? What do you mean by that?

"(Mr. Stone: By that I mean, Mr. Chairman, that if there is trouble in the union and they are looking for goons or strong-arm people to move in, that Patriarca would supply them.

"(The Chairman: He is not a union leader as such?

"(Mr. Stone: That is right, sir, he is not a union leader.

"(The Chairman: But he is called in. They make his services frequently available to unions?

"(Mr. Stone: He will supply strong-arm people to straighten out situations.)

"He has the controlling interest on lotteries, bookmaking, dice games and the provision of wire service in this area. Moreover, he settles any disputes within the organization working this section, sometimes using force or intimidation to accomplish his designs. He is known to be connected with other racketeers operating not only in New England, particularly in Boston and Worcester, but also in Broward County, Fla.

"The following is a partial list of his known criminal associates, all with previous arrests by local and federal authorities, and individuals who comprise a tight-knit organization in New England and "elsewhere. There are many more of lesser note who also are allied with Patriarca in one way or another. His fold of friends presently, or in the past, includes the following from Rhode Island:

"Dominic 'Terry' Biafore,
Americo 'Pat the Barber' Bucci,
John Candelmo, Alphonse 'Fobey' Capalbo,
Frank Forti, Albert 'Keystone' Lepore,
Antonio 'Tony Holmes' Lopreato, Frank
'Butsey' Morelli, Francis 'Joe' Patriarca (brother), Santino 'Sandy' Ruggerio, and his brother Richard 'Rex' Ruggerio, Giuseppe 'Blondy' Simonelli, Louis 'The Fox' Taglianett, Henry Tamelleo, Alfredo
'The Blind Pig' Rossi, Albert 'Albro' Vitale.
From Boston, there is Frank Ferrara and Michael 'Mickey the Wise Guy' Rocco. From New York is Frank Costello. Another associate of Raymond Patriarca was Frank Iacone of Worcester, now deceased.

"Raymond Patriarca is no stranger to murder having been indicted by a Rhode Island grand jury for his part in the 1930 Easter Saturday attempt to free two vicious criminals from a Rhode Island prison which resulted in the death of four people. Patriarca was a part of the conspiracy involved in setting the stage for the attempted prison break.

"One may ask how this man Patriarca came to attain control of the rackets with its goons and its far-reaching effects. He first came into power in the early forties when he took over the rackets in southern New England from Frank 'Butsey' Morelli, then the number one man, who was on the apparent downgrade at the time.

"One of Patriarca's first acts after taking over the rackets was to take control of the wire service in southern New England. He raised the fees for its services. This pushed a lot of people out of the bookie business and left the gravy for Patriarca and his mobsters. One of the men who dared challenge Patriarca was Carlton O'Brien, an ex-convict and strong-arm man in his own right. Carlton O'Brien ran several bookie places in and around Rhode Island and he refused to go along with paying the raised wire service ante. He set up his own wire service in an adjoining state where he bootlegged this service into his own bookie parlors and also furnished other bookie services who refused to pay the heavy rate put on by Patriarca.

"This brought on trouble. O'Brien's bookies were held up, bookie parlors wrecked and telephone lines pulled out, bookmakers slugged and robbed. In 1951, O'Brien, while walking into his home early one morning, which is located in a respectable neighborhood outside of Providence, was gunned down from ambush with a shotgun. This is one of the unsolved gangland murders. Police officials feel this slaying was a reprisal for his defiance of Patriarca.

"There is little doubt that Raymond Patriarca, like his racketeers in organized crime today, is using profits gained from illegal enterprises to infiltrate legitimate businesses mostly on a 'silent partner' basis.

"In any analysis of the past criminal cases involving Raymond Patriarca one is certain to find indications that witnesses who have made damaging testimony against "this man have through fear repudiated said testimony. Rhode Island law enforcement officers feel that such withdrawal of testimony was motivated out of the fear witnesses had of reprisals. The threat of reprisal action is not only directed toward the law-abiding who would make damaging testimony. There is cause for peace officers to believe that reprisals in all forms, including murder itself, have been carried out against those criminals in all echelons of the organization.

"In the year 1956, Raymond Patriarca, with his brother, 'Joe,' strong-armed their way into the cigarette vending machine business. Trucks were hi-jacked and equipment destroyed and with the fear of reprisal the owners of legitimate businesses that were affected kept their mouths shut. Also during the year 1956 Raymond Patriarca stated, 'I am going to put out 500 machines before I'm through and there is nothing that anyone can do about it.'

"Patriarca, through his goons, threatened the legitimate cafe and store owners into renting his cigarette machines and juke boxes. Failure to comply with these hoodlums' requests resulted in the wrecking of the store, fixtures and bodily harm.

"(The chairman interrupted.

"(The chairman: Let me ask you: Would none of them testify against him when he came and made those threats?

"(Mr. Stone: No, they wouldn't, Mr. Chairman.

"(The chairman: Do you mean legitimate business people, law-abiding citizens in legitimate businesses, were thus coerced and intimidated?

"(Mr. Stone: I mean exactly that, sir.

"(The chairman: And they will not testify?

"(Mr. Stone: No, sir; they would not.

"(The chairman: What reason do they give you?

"(Mr. Stone: Through fear of this man or his henchmen.

"(The chairman: Do they feel like the law enforcement agencies are presently unable to cope with that situation, and would you say they are unable to cope with it, and, thus, this man can operate in this fashion almost with impunity?

"(Mr. Stone: Certainly if we had the cooperation of the citizen, we could cope with the situation, but when you don't have it, certainly you can't.

"(The chairman: But you do have a situation where if the citizen cooperates with you, he makes himself or exposes himself to great bodily injury and possibly death?

"(Mr. Stone: He does, sir; yes, he does.

"(The chairman: That is one of the difficult problems. I don't know what law could be enacted that will solve that, but that is one of the very difficult, almost insurmountable, handicaps in law enforcement, where you are dealing with a gang that is dedicated to terror and violence and so forth in perpetrating that.

"(Mr. Stone: I would say, Mr. Chairman, it is the main obstacle as far as law enforcement is concerned, where you do not get the cooperation from the victims.)

CAR:po'b

"Raymond Patriarca is known to be linked very closely to gaming czar Frank Costello. This affiliation comes from their activities, which also include the late John P. 'Big Jack' Letendre of Woonsocket and Florida, in the operation of a gambling joint in Florida. 'Big Jack' Letendre later was murdered in the city of Woonsocket, R. I. and police theorized that this slaying was a result of a squabble within the underworld.

"Another one of the rackets that Patriarca worked was the so-called 'past-posting.' This is the placing of a wager on a horse race that has been run and a winner has been determined. These risky but profitable activities were carried on by the goons of Patriarca throughout the East. Winnings were shared by Patriarca and his hoodlums, with Patriarca realizing a large margin of the winnings. Very active in this operation of 'past-posting' was George 'Tiger' Balletto and Michael 'Mike' Mandella. As a reward for their endeavors Balletto was shot to death in the Bella Napoli Cafe in the Federal Hill section of Providence in front of twenty-two witnesses, most of them with a criminal record.

"The assassin of George 'Tiger' Balletto was John 'Jackie' Nazarian, one of the most vicious and feared gunmen on the East Coast. This 'trigger-man' was one of Patriarca's enforcers. Very reliable police information has it that Nazarian had been used in gangland slayings outside of Rhode Island. It is also a positive fact that this gunman was responsible for two of the gangland slayings in Rhode Island that have occurred in the past few years. One of the 22 witnesses of the Balletto murder, Eddie Hannan, an ex-boxer, was strangled to death by Nazarian, who left his body in a dump in the Federal Hill section of Providence with baling wire around his neck.

"This indicated that he was going to be a damaging witness in the Balletto murder. Patriarca had to have an 'animal' like Nazarian in his fold for obvious reasons, although he lived in fear that he was not immune to being a victim of 'Jackie,' who was known as a 'mad dog.'

"Just mentioning the name of Nazarian brought fear to the underworld as well as the average citizen. Michael Mandella received the same fate as his cohort Balletto when his bullet-riddled body was discovered on the outskirts of Providence. This gangland slaying is still unsolved. John 'Jackie' Nazarian, who was Raymond Patriarca's chief torpedo man, was slain while walking the streets of Federal Hill last year, a short distance from Raymond Patriarca's hangout.

"(The Chairman: Have you solved that crime?

"(Mr. Stone: There were two indictments on it, Mr. Chairman. There was one trial. The man charged with the murder was acquitted.)

"In recent years another racket has flourished, 'boosting.' 'Boosting,' as it is known, is a professional operation by trained goons who are specialized in the fleecing of department stores of millions of dollars in merchandise annually. They invade these department stores in teams, consisting of a pitchman, blocker, bag man and roller. With this combination they have been known to steal in excess of one hundred suits a day. To show you the extent of their operation, one team has been arrested in Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island. The men engaged in this lucrative operation leave Rhode Island and travel throughout the greater part of the United States as far as California.

"These groups of boosters out of Rhode Island are considered one of the best in the country. They no longer travel only by car, but use every mode of transportation. They ship the merchandise directly to the 'fence' by rail, air, boat or any other conceivable way. Where does all of this stolen merchandise go? To the 'fence'! In Providence and Pawtucket R. I. we have two of the biggest in the country. They are - Alfredo 'The Blind Pig' Rossi and Albert 'Albro' Vitale. They are known associates of Raymond Patriarca.

"It is a known fact that a good police officer has to have information. There was one time when we could depend upon an informer but today the informer is not around, he is a rare guy. They fear reprisal and also they are afraid of some of the court's decisions, when you have to expose them. What is the result? No informers. They want to give you something but they won't. The only way we get information now is by an anonymous letter or an anonymous telephone call. So it is almost a must that legislation be enacted to allow law enforcement officials to wiretap. We should do everything we can to put a crimp in the rackets. I positively agree with the United States Attorney General, Robert F. Kennedy, on his views regarding organized crime and the necessity for legalized wiretapping.

"Because of the antiquated search and seizure law in the State of Rhode Island the racketeer is almost encouraged to engage in bookmaking activities, within the confines of this state. The law practically gives the 'bookie' a license to operate.

"There have recently been held discussions with the United States Attorney for the District of Rhode Island, Raymond J. Pettine, the governor of Rhode Island, John H. Chafee and myself about a federal grand jury investigation of the gambling rackets and organized crime in our state. We anticipate a cooperative effort involving the state police, the United States attorney's office and are hopeful that something along these lines can be worked out shortly.

"Some time ago at a meeting of the New England State Police Administrators Conference (NESPAC), I proposed the establishment of a central criminal investigative and intelligence office for the coordination and evaluation of information about the movements of criminals and the activities of the organized racketeers.

"It is a joint effort by the state police of the six New England states. My proposal was based on the fact that at the time there was no central location in New England where information of this kind could be evaluated and coordinated properly. The entire operation will undoubtedly become the basis for an indispensable type of information needed to combat organized crime. There will be a master intelligence file which will permit interested state police agencies to become acquainted with and follow the entire careers and activities of lawbreakers. I am very happy to announce at this time that these proposals to the parent groups of NESPAC administrators have already started to become a reality.

"My own personal feelings are that one of the reasons why organized crime is on the increase is because the underworld has taken advantage of the internal problems within police departments throughout the United States.

"These internal problems are low salaries, low morale, union consciousness, moonlighting and lack of trained personnel.

"If all police departments would set their standards on the high level as that of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, under the leadership of America's most outstanding police official, J. Edgar Hoover, and his dedicated agents, crime would be on the decrease. This is shown by the remarkable record established throughout the years by this great organization. I personally feel that if this honorable committee were to ask any of the 12 so-called 'Cosa Nostra' leaders who they fear, and respect most, I am sure their answer would be J. Edgar Hoover and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

"At this time I wish to thank the members of this honorable committee for affording me the opportunity to come here to testify today. I am sure that the knowledge gained at these hearings will deal a serious blow to organized crime throughout the country.

"The Chairman: Thank you very much, Colonel Stone. I am quite interested in the last statement that you just made.

"Would you amplify it or comment upon it? You say you think the knowledge gained at these hearings will deal a serious blow to organized crime. Tell us how you think it will be effective.

"Mr. Stoner: There isn't any question in my mind, Mr. Chairman, that it will, because if you go back to the 1951-1952 hearings of the late Senator Kefauver, I, as a policeman, know for a positive fact "that crime for three or four years was almost at a standstill. I base my feelings on the former hearings.

BS 92-118
CAR:po'b

"The Chairman: In other words, you feel there will be a retardation in their progress?

"Mr. Stone: I certainly do. I think this is the greatest thing that can happen to law enforcement, to have those like myself to come here and have a chance to talk, and not only the chance to talk but to realize that we have such senators as yourself and other senators behind us.

"The Chairman: Do you feel this causes the confirmed criminal, those engaged in syndicated crime, do you feel that it puts a public spotlight on them that makes it more difficult for them to operate for a period of time?

"Mr. Stone: I am sure it does. I am sure there will be many people who will walk out of these organizations since these hearings have taken place. Not only that, but I think we are getting a lot more support from the public than we ordinarily would have, had these hearings not been held.

"The Chairman: In other words, you think the hearings kind of stimulate an interest among the public, with the average citizen coming to a realization that these things are happening in his country and wants to try to do something to help, and he feels like he has an obligation to do something?

"Mr. Stone: I am positive they do, Mr. Chairman, because everybody has been listening to the hearings. I know for a positive fact that it is going to help law

The "Boston Globe," a daily newspaper in Boston, Massachusetts, dated October 16, 1963, on page 11, carried an article concerning the testimony of Superintendent JOHN T. HOWLAND of the Boston Police Department before United States Senator JOHN MC CLELLAN at Washington, D. C. concerning organized crime. This article is captioned, "AT THE TOP IS PATRIARCA. ANGIULO RUNS HUE GAMING."

"Following is Supt. John T. Howland's testimony:

"I am chief of the Bureau of Inspectional Services of the Boston Police Dept.

"Information developed by the Intelligence Division of the Boston Police Department confirms the statement made by Commissioner McNamara that the so-called boss of the rackets in Boston is one Raymond Patriarca of Providence, R. I. We have prepared this chart which we believe fairly accurately shows the chain of command among those persons I will refer to.

"At the top is Raymond Patriarca. It is our conclusion that he is the dominating influence in all forms of gaming activity, loan sharking and other illegal affairs within the City of Boston. At the present time we do not have any information that he is involved in any illegal drug traffic or in the labor rackets in our city.

"Some . . . on this chart who formerly exercised considerable influence may appear to be semi-retired.

"Among the older bosses:

"Philip Buccola now resides in Italy. We believe that he was head man prior to Patriarca in the organization. His present influence, if any, is unknown. He visits Boston periodically with his wife for "medical treatment. He associated with Lucky Luciano until Luciano's death in 1962.

"Present at the Apalachan meeting in New York, one Frank Cucchiara operates a cheese company in Boston. Our best description of this man is that he is old, sickly and semi-retired. Since the Apalachan meeting, Cucchiara appears to be relegated to a position of little importance. His present connection with the criminal element is that of financier and, to some degree, advisor.

"Joseph Lombardo is the operator of a large Italian restaurant in Boston; it is a popular eating establishment well-known for its cuisine. He does not take any outward active part in the rackets although two of the corporate members of the restaurant are known bookmakers. He is shown unusual respect by persons connected with the syndicate and other members of the criminal elements, many of whom frequent his restaurant.

"Henry Selvitelli (Henry Noyes) is a leading figure in the rackets and has been for many years. He was closely associated with Cucchiara and Lombardo in the past. He recently sold a large cleaning establishment which he operated in the city for several years. He is old, sickly and supposed to be retired. Although he is believed to have participated in crimes of violence years ago, with Lombardo and Cucchiara, he does not appear to demand the same degree of respect. There is little indication that he is consulted to any extent.

"Michael Rocco: Although in his late 60's he is still active in the organization. He controls the gaming activity in one section of the city.

"Anthony Sandrelli (Tony Canadian): His main source of income has been derived from the illegal sales of alcoholic beverages. He operated a well-known after hours restaurant in the city. His establishments have been raided on a number of occasions by the police. The restaurant license was revoked recently for violation of the liquors laws.

"Gennaro (Jerry) Angiulo: The oldest of six brothers who are all involved in controlling the largest single gaming operation within and without the City of Boston.

"Our information is that the business offices of the gaming activity of this group are outside the City of Boston. From information received we know that Jerry is in constant contact with Raymond Patriarca in Providence, R. I.

"They are reputed to have invested considerable capital in loan shark operations. They have recently ventured into the lucrative cigarette vending business. All the brothers are incorporated in a realty firm that controls a number of business establishments. They also operate a night club in the downtown section of the city.

"Other members of the organization are involved in loan shark operations and gaming but have no open or visible connections with illegal activities::

"They are Peter Limone, Paul Intiso, Nicola Giso, Ralph LaMattina, Alexander Rizzo and Teddy Fucillo.

"John Guglielmo (Johnny Williams), a very important man during the period that Buccola was the boss. From 1956 to the time of the Castro revolution he was in Cuba where he was connected with the Tropicana, an establishment that (was) reputed as the world's largest night club. Upon his return to Boston he still retained prominence within the syndicate but not to the degree he formerly possessed. However, he demands considerable respect and is frequently consulted by lesser figures within the organization.

"Samuel Gramito: a convicted gunman. He holds a minor post in the syndicate. He is regarded as a sound man by the organization for his many talents.

"Larry Zannino (Larry Baiona) is a favorite of Raymond Patriarca. He was formerly the right hand man of Anthony Santaniello, now deceased (1960). At the present time, Zannino is in State's Prison serving a term for extortion. For income, he operated bar-boot games (a dice game) and had night club for a front.

"Leo Santaniello: He has been involved in the rackets for many years. He too is serving time for complicity in the same extortion case as Larry Zannino. He is reported to have incurred the displeasure of Raymond Patriarca for his behavior during the extortion case. . ."

"He filed the suit in Boston, Oct. 1, asserting an article published in the Traveler Aug. 8 falsely stated he was king of Cosa Nostra in New England.

The "Providence Journal," a daily newspaper in Providence, Rhode Island, dated October 18, 1963, on page one, carried an article, captioned, "PATRIARCA DENIES STONE'S CHARGES."

The article is summarized as follows:

RAYMOND PATRIARCA issued through his lawyer a categorical denial of facts relating to him as related by Colonel WALTER E. STONE, Rhode Island State Police Superintendent to a Senate investigating subcommittee.

He asked the public to withhold judgment on him and virtually challenged Colonel STONE to prove the statements that he made to the subcommittee.

Copies of PATRIARCA's signed statement were given to newsmen at the office of CHARLES A. CURRAN, a Providence Attorney.

The statement by RAYMOND PATRIARCA is as follows:

"I deny categorically and comprehensively all the testimony given recently by one Valachi before the Senate McClellan Subcommittee. Valachi lied when he said that I met him. I never saw or talked to the creature. I never heard of any organization known as Cosa Nostra nor am I connected in any way with any national or state crime organization.

"It was not brought out before that committee that the Philadelphia Inquirer, a newspaper with a large circulation in the northeastern section of the United States, reported that Valachi is a mentally ill man; that he received psychiatric treatment at the Atlanta Penitentiary and that the psychiatric "report by the prison authorities would corroborate my statement. Furthermore that newspaper reported that there is a history of insanity in Valachi's family.

"His whole testimony against me is based upon opinion and hearsay evidence which would not be competent evidence in any court. Not one Senator on that sub-committee attempted to cross-examine him. The fact of the matter is that he has been under the control of the Federal authorities for the last 18 months and has been coached and rehearsed in executive sessions for his recent public appearances. Such hearings have no place in a free country like America. It smacks more of the legal practices under the Nazi regime in Germany and the present Communist regime in Russia.

"A person would have to be very credulous to believe that a small group of Italians are the overlords of all crime in the United States. This admitted murderer testified that only people with exclusively Italian blood could belong to the alleged organization.

"Now we come to Col. Stone's hearsay and opinion testimony which has been reported fully in the Providence Journal and Evening Bulletin editions of yesterday. Col. Stone couldn't connect any non-Italians connected with crime in Rhode Island, he would be showing that there were other crime syndicates headed by people other than Italians. In order to make his testimony consistent and to correspond with that of Valachi, he had to restrict the crime lords to only those of full Italian blood. Does the dear Colonel intimate that all crime in Rhode Island is overseered by a few Italians?

"In 1958 I was called before this same Committee and even though encouraged to plead my constitutional protection against self-incrimination, I refused so to do. I answered every question put to me and you can be certain that the facts elicited from my testimony were thoroughly investigated by the FBI. If there had been any falsity in my testimony the United States Government would have filed a charge of perjury against me.

"Again, in August of 1961 I appeared before that Committee and was ready to testify but was excused. The day I left Washington in August of 1961, Col. Stone testified under oath and said nothing detrimental about me. If the secret executive hearing given to Col. Stone were now made public, it would disclose that Col. Stone admitted that he couldn't validly testify to any connection of Raymond Patriarca to any crime syndicate. In fact Col. Stone said at that secret executive session that he was not going to stick his neck out.

"Mr. Stone says that he has had me under intensive investigation for the past 29 years. He claims that I am the overlord of crime in New England and more particularly in Rhode Island.

* * * *

"If his statement is true, then it reflects upon his competence as a responsible police official. If I am responsible for all the crime in Rhode Island, why hasn't Col. Stone presented some evidence against me to a Rhode Island grand jury, or, if I have violated Federal law, evidence to a Federal grand jury. He evidently has a low opinion of the quality of police enforcement

BS 92-118
CAR:po'b

"in Rhode Island. Evidently I have a higher opinion of the state and local police forces' ability than he has.

"The truth of the matter is that there has been no credible evidence gathered against me because of the fact that I am engaged in legitimate business and not in any criminal endeavors, nor am I using any gains from my few private enterprises to aid and abet any criminal enterprise.

"The brave Colonel has charged that I have been furnishing strong-arm goons to labor unions in Rhode Island, more particularly to Local 271 of the Laborers Union. After an angry denial of the charge by Paul De Falco, business agent of that local, Col. Stone modified the statement, which to me amounts to a repudiation of his own testimony.

"Further, the irresponsible Colonel intimates that Gilbane Building Construction Company, a reputable construction company in Rhode Island, was violating the Taft-Hartley law in that its officers were allowing the Union to do the hiring for that company in violation of that law. His charge that Mr. Gilbane or any officer of his corporation hired goons supplied by Mr. Patriarca is a vicious and libelous statement for which the Colonel owes Mr. Gilbane a public apology and he should be gracious enough to furnish it.

"He said that I am 'no stranger to murder.' I certainly am a stranger to murder. I never killed anybody, never ordered anybody to be killed, and I am not "connected and have never been connected with any organization that would be interested in killing anybody. Mr. Stone and his unsupported and libelous accusations to the contrary, notwithstanding.

CAR:po'b

"I would welcome the impaneling of a state or federal grand jury to investigate my activities.

"The vicious innuendo by the good Col. Stone infers that I was responsible in a nebulous way for the killing of one Carlton O'Brien. I deny this and I deplore the killing of Mr. O'Brien as any decent person would. I trust that Mr. Stone also deplores the killing of Mr. O'Brien. In fact after that crime was committed I was never even questioned about it by any member of any police force, including Mr. Stone. If there was any suspicion that I was involved, the police forces investigating the crime, whose efficiency I recognize in opposition to Mr. Stone, certainly would have brought me in for questioning.

"I am and have been for a long time engaged in the cigarette vending machine business. My brother Joseph has never been connected with me in any way in that business. I have never used any strongarm methods in getting customers and Mr. Stone knows that. My cigarette vending machine business was investigated by Mr. Rapucci, a special agent of the FBI, and I assume that he found nothing illegal in the conduct of my business; otherwise some criminal action would have been taken against me.

"The Colonel's statement that I have been and am now linked in any way with one Frank Costello is (incorrect). In fact I never met the man and don't know him.

"Another one of the dear Colonel's wild accusations is that one 'Jackie' Nazarian was an enforcer for me and that he killed Tiger Balletto. I deny that false accusation.

"Mr. Nazarian had nothing to do with me, nor I with him at any time during my life. Evidently Mr. Stone conveniently forgot to testify that 12 of his good peers in Rhode Island acquitted Mr. Nazarian of that crime despite the testimony of two phoney witnesses produced by the State. He also conveniently forgot to testify that he headed up the investigation of that murder and its prosecution. One of these witnesses was a Mrs. Madden who was under the control of the police and segregated by the police for two or three weeks before the trial and testified that she was an eye witness to the killing at a time when the records of St. Joseph's Hospital showed that she was a patient at that hospital.

"His charge that I have been engaged in the dishonest practice of placing wagers on horses after the winners have been determined is a product of a fantastic mind. I have never been and am not now engaged in any criminal or illegal practice. As I said before, I am engaged in a few legitimate private enterprises.

"The dear Colonel says that 'this man was without honor even among his fellow thieves.' I have not committed any crime

"since 1938 and have conducted myself honorably among my fellow men in Rhode Island and elsewhere since that time. I say now and I have said before that I deplore my conduct which resulted in my few convictions prior to 1938. Even when I was not living honestly I considered myself honorable because I never double-crossed any one as alleged by Mr. Stone. Will Mr. Stone give one example of where I have ever doublecrossed anyone.

"Is Colonel Stone an honorable man when he goes before a congressional sub-committee under the cloak of privilege against libel and vomits his unfounded and unsupported accusations against me? His conduct in testifying as he did is not that of an honorable man. If this gentleman is not cowardly and is the fearless police official he pretends to be, then I dare him to make the statements about me in a place where he cannot resort to the protection of a privilege against libel or slander.

"Because of the length of this statement, in the event that I have omitted my denial of any allegations of Col. Stone against me in the foregoing paragraphs, I again categorically deny all of his testimony which charges me with criminal involvement or criminal associations.

"For the dear Colonel's benefit I now inform him that I have filed and there is now pending in the Federal District Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts in Boston a libel action against the Boston Herald-Traveler Corporation for reporting in its paper the unfounded charges made by

"Valachi, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post in August of this year and which have now been reiterated by the dear Colonel.

"As the Colonel well knows, truth is always a good defense to an action of libel if made without malice. I assume that the Colonel professes to be a man unmotivated by malice and a seeker after the truth. If this be true I now suggest that he voluntarily offer his services to the defendant in my libel action whereby he will have the opportunity of testifying under oath in a court of law his unfounded charges against me and at the same time give me the opportunity, through my counsel, to submit him to a detailed and rigid cross-examination. I challenge him so to do in the interest of fair play. I ask the public to suspend its judgment of me based upon the opinion and incompetent evidence offered by Colonel Stone and await the judgment of a jury of his peers in the Federal District Court in Boston.

"Signed Raymond Patriarca

BS T-4 advised that based upon investigation by the New York State Liquor Authority and the Erie County Alcohol Beverage Control Board, no information indicating JOHN C. MONTANA is an owner of any stock of affiliated with the operations of Sportservice Corporation has been developed. BS T-4 pointed out that around June of 1961 a corporation known as Consolidated Bowling Corporation filed a preliminary prospectus with the Securities and Exchange Commission indicating that 250,000 shares of common stock would be placed on the market after the approval of the Securities and Exchange Commission is secured.

At about 11:02 a.m., December 13, 1963, SA's [redacted] and [redacted], observed HENRY TAMELEO parked opposite the Union Station, Providence, Rhode Island, in a late model Cadillac, white, bearing Rhode Island registration RE-422. The motor to this car was running and it appeared that he was waiting for someone at this station. Shortly thereafter, an Italian-appearing man, white, male, age about 50 to 60 years old, large nose and wearing glasses and a black overcoat and soft hat came out of this station and got into the car being driven by TAMELEO.

Both occupants of this car drive around the area reaching LaSalle Square when they returned to the same area via Mason Street, Providence, Rhode Island.

The car, Rhode Island registration RE-422, was again observed parked in the yard of ALFRED ROSSI, 53 Clym Street, Providence, Rhode Island. At the same time, a late model Pontiac, Rhode Island registration 9929 which is owned by PATRIARCA's wife, HELEN, was also observed in this yard, along with Rhode Island registration X-6, which is owned by ALFRED ROSSI.

At about 1:57 p.m., RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed leaving from the front door of 53 Clym Street, Providence, Rhode Island, and was observed getting into a dark green colored pickup-type truck which had an enclosed body. This truck departed and drove to Admiral Street, Providence, where PATRIARCA alighted and used a public telephone at a gas station at 222 Admiral Street, Providence.

At about 2:17 p.m., JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE were observed leaving 53 Clym Street, Providence. They were observed carrying clothing and were observed getting into a late model Cadillac bearing Massachusetts registration X73-095. ANGIULO was driving and LIMONE sat in the passenger side of this car and it was observed heading towards Admiral Street, Providence.

64 FEB 4 1964

When the load was delivered [] and [] ascertained it was not shirts and shorts but Carter's underwear, which was stolen from the Akers Motor Lines, Inc., South Boston, Mass., 9/28 - 10/1/63. These facts are set out in case entitled, [], aka; ET AL, TPIS," Bufile 15-49661, New York file 15-31155.

HANNON and [] then agreed to sell the load to [] and [] and [] for the sum of $14,000, $4,000 of which was to be paid at that time and which was actually paid at this time. The remaining $10,000 was to be paid when the load was sold, it being noted that [] and HANNON had assumed that the load was already sold. Several days passed, during which time HANNON and [] attempted to obtain the $10,000 without success. [] then heard that they were retailing the underwear in the Springfield, Mass. area and called one of the three individuals [] or [] and said that they were coming up to take inventory of what was left in the load, as they wanted to make sure of their $10,000.

It was not clear to the informant whether they actually did go up to Springfield at this time.

At this point, SAM CUFARI was contacted by [] or [] or [] and told of the above facts, which was the first time that he "got in on the deal."

In order to get rid of the load, he sent "PINKY" (probably "PINKY" PANARELLI) to New York to contact [] on [] "who is a friend of ours." [] called in a fellow named [] an Italian but "not a friend of ours." [] agreed to move the stuff and makes an agreement with "PINKY" whereby "PINKY" would deliver the load to [] and his boys would pick up the stuff, deliver it, and return the empty truck, to []

[] agreed to buy this load for $25,000. The day that the above deal was made between SHEPHARD and [] called Springfield requesting the $10,000. Either [] or [] or [] who talked to GEORGE, told him that it was sold and they would get the money the following day.

[] and [] hired two trucks in Springfield, as one was not big enough to hold the entire load.

"PINKY" went direct to [], after getting two individuals from Springfield, Mass. to drive the two trucks to []. When the trucks arrived, "PINKY" was there, as well as [] and the two individuals to whom [] turned over the two trucks. The two individuals left [] and said they would be back in two hours. After six hours had passed and the trucks had not returned, "PINKY" asked [] what the story was. [] stated that he would attempt to find out what happened to the trucks and merchandise, and the following day "PINKY" returned to Worcester. He called SAM CUFARI and told him that he has got to go down there and straighten the matter out, as they could not find the trucks or the merchandise.

In the meantime, [] called the kids (referring to [] and [] and [] and again requested the $10,000 owed to them. They "blabbed on the phone to PINKY" and told him that the stuff went to New York and "got swindled." [] then demanded his money saying he did not care what happened to the load; that they had bought the load from him, and they owed the $10,000. They contacted SAM CUFARI, Springfield, Mass., who went to New York, as did "PINKY."

They received a call telling them to go to Union City, N. J., at which time "PINKY" called Springfield and had the kid from Springfield go directly to Union City. The kid, upon arrival at Union City, went to the address they gave him and could not locate the truck. He called

"PINKY" and told him the truck was not at that location in Union City, at which time "PINKY" told him to return home.

One hour later they found out that the police officials had recovered the truck, as it was parked there for over two days.

The truck, according to ANGIULO, was empty, with the exception of one broken carton. They then ascertained that the carton came from the load stolen in Boston and started to check. They arrested the fellow who took the truck from [redacted] in New York and "he opened up on everybody."

According to ANGIULO, the story then came out that [redacted] made arrangements with [redacted] and [redacted] made arrangements with these guys to pick the load up at [redacted]. When they picked the load up they actually hijacked same.

According to ANGIULO, CUFARI again gets in the picture and, after listening to the whole story, goes to New York and tells SAM that if those guys get away with hijacking this load, there will be real trouble.

SAM, when he was in New York, saw [redacted] and TOMMY RYAN and had a good talk with him. RYAN mentioned that he was pretty sure there was a beef from another section of New York and if these are the same guys, "Rest assure we will probably have to go all the way with the s.o.b.'s."

Both RYAN and [redacted] agreed that [redacted] should pay the $25,000 to "PINKY." CUFARI reported that [redacted] and TOMMY RYAN were trying to locate the trailer but the FBI got it before they were able to locate same.

In the meantime, according to ANGIULO, the FBI talked to the guy in Springfield for several hours. ANGIULO did not know the outcome of this interview.

Es 12-117

It was ANGIULO's opinion that [] and [] and [] should pay $10,000 to [] and HAROLD HANNON because they sold the load in good faith.

ANGIULO advised that HANNON went to New York and found out the story, as mentioned above, which apparently coincided with the story SAM CUFARI told JERRY. HANNON and [] desired that JERRY talk to RAYMOND in order for RAYMOND to straighten the matter out.

RAYMOND also felt that the three individuals in Springfield, namely, [] and [] and [] should pay HANNON and [] the $10,000, and further, that he is going to New York in two weeks and wants a meeting with [] and them "to find out who is responsible for the payment of this load.

From the facts he has received thus far, he feels that [] should pay "PINKY" the $25,000, as he does not want to leave the impression in New York that the fellows from New England are suckers in any way. He, thus, is going to demand the payment of $25,000.

[] at the present time, swears he had nothing to do with the hijacking and is on the lam from the FBI.

During this discussion, ANGIULO stated that the driver from Springfield was promised $2,000 by [] and [] and [] for taking the load to NYC.

No further information obtained by the informant.

JERRY ANGIULO said that "we sent him $500 a piece from the five of us in the North End" which, of course, amounted to $2,500. He explained to ROCCO that he was in East Boston alone and he should send $1,000 to [redacted] ROCCO, thereafter, did send him the $1,000 and [redacted] kept it.

According to ANGIULO, [redacted] contacted [redacted] (true name [redacted]) of the [redacted] South End, Boston, Mass. [redacted] told [redacted] that they were going to allow four after-hours joints to run in the city of Boston--one in the North End; one in the South End; one in the West End; and one in South Boston and, inasmuch as his Club seats 250 people, they decided that they would allow him to run after hours if he so desired.

[redacted] told [redacted] that it was OK "But, before we start, you know JERRY ANGIULO." JERRY said that he severely criticized [redacted] for mentioning his name and told him to keep his mouth shut and not to tell anybody that he, [redacted] was with ANGIULO and owes him a lot of money.

[redacted] asked [redacted] when he made the above statement, "What do you mean by that?" [redacted] at this point, realized he was wrong in mentioning ANGIULO's name and replied to [redacted] "Well, he is with SAM (GRANITO) in the Coliseum," an after-hours establishment in the North End section of Boston operated by SAMUEL GRANITO, NICOLO GISO, and others. [redacted] replied that the Coliseum is going to continue to run as an after-hours joint.

[redacted] had with him at the time he saw [redacted] [redacted] (last name not mentioned) who was described as "the Massachusetts Port Authority guy." [redacted] would handle all the collections from [redacted] to [redacted] and would take care of everybody from top to bottom. [redacted] said that he could run as an after-hours establishment for $3,500 per month.

When [] contacted JERRY and told him of the above, JERRY told him that when [] returns he should tell him that they will give the upstairs office $1,000, Station 4 they would take care of themselves, which would be another $500 or $600 a month and, as far as the rest of them are concerned, "We will take care of them - homicide and so forth and everything else but the Vice Squad. The thousand dollars we give them will be for the Mayor's Office, them and the Vice Squad; that is all that we will give them, as we will take care of the rest."

JERRY said that [] had an appointment to talk to them but they received a call from [] that the State Police were intown and they would have to hold off for awhile. At the present time JERRY told PATRIARCA that he does not know what this payment will amount to.

On 1/27/64, Boston Police Comsr. EDMUND L. MC NAMARA advised that he had received a communication from District Attorney [] Suffolk County, Boston, which was critical of the Boston PD because of the after-hours establishments in operation in the city of Boston. He thereupon called [] into his office and was critical of him for allowing this situation to exist and ordered that a conference be held with all Captains, ordering them to take all necessary action on after-hours establishments in the city of Boston. Further, he scheduled for transfer Capt. [] Division 2, Boston PD, because necessary action was not taken against the after-hours establishment, the Executive Suite, located within the confines of Division 2. This transfer is to be effective 1/28/64.

It should be noted that Deputy Supt. JOHN HOWLAND (NA) has suggested that the Vice Squad of the Boston PD be removed from the supervision of [] who is considered as the [] MC NAMARA, and be placed under his, HOWLAND's, supervision. HOWLAND has pointed out that in most large PD's the Vice Squad is not supervised by the individual in [] position.

[] in his conference with all Captains of the PD, indicated to the Captains that the above suggestion by HOWLAND was responsible for the orders concerning after-hours establishments and did not mention the letter from []

It should be noted that no information regarding the above has been disseminated to Comsr. MC NAMARA at this time but, UACB 2/5/64, the information concerning [redacted] will be disseminated to MC NAMARA in such a manner that it will not expose the source of same.

[] also told [] and [] that several names of individuals associated with PATRIARCA, including [] were on the payroll of an engineering company in Boston, Mass., for $150 per week. RAYMOND PATRIARCA pointed out that [] was an engineer and it was logical for him to be employed by that company as an engineer.

PATRIARCA stated that [] was a psycho and had been trying to shake down FURCOLO for years. He stated that FURCOLO is a very nice guy according to information he has received, but not too smart. FURCOLO's father, according to RAYMOND PATRIARCA, was a "nut" and had to leave Boston as he was trying to shake down bookies and everyone else.

PATRIARCA stated that [] has the Berkshire Downs Race Track now. SAM asked whether he could rent the horse barns from [] when they are not in use. PATRIARCA pointed out that [] is in Florida but will be back next week and that he will ask [].

UNMAN told PATRIARCA that [] (Providence, R. I.) was recently involved with the law in that [] was arrested for stolen furs. PATRIARCA stated that he has been doing it for years and both agreed that [] is not too smart. PATRIARCA pointed out that he had a meeting with some fellows from Boston not too long ago and that the FBI was surveilling [] house. He called [] and so informed him but [] would not believe PATRIARCA.

JOSEPH PATRIARCA discussed his IRS case with RAYMOND. SAUL FRIEDMAN is attorney for JOSEPH PATRIARCA.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, aka LOUIE THE FOX, Providence, R. I., is infuriated with an unknown individual who owed him $150 and refused to pay same. TAGLIANETTI stated that he was so mad that he tried to cut UNMAN's throat but he was unable to get the knife from his pocket. It appeared that UNMAN had a crap game operating and was told to cease by PATRIARCA. He opened the game again with permission of PATRIARCA for one night a week. It appeared that subsequently the unknown individual commenced operating more than one night a week. TAGLIANETTI described the unknown individual as one who was at one time arrested for murder. He also described him as being very arrogant and not showing the proper respect.

TAGLIANETTI pleaded with PATRIARCA to "be with those guys when they kill him." PATRIARCA refused this and stated that he should not have known that the contract was out. TAGLIANETTI later asks that RAYMOND PATRIARCA furnish him the contract to kill this individual. PATRIARCA replied that the contract has already been let out to fellows from Boston and refused to allow TAGLIANETTI to become involved in the hit.

The unidentified individual who is to be killed may possibly be [redacted] Providence hoodlum who had been arrested for the murder of JACKIE NAZARIAN approximately a year ago. However, the informant was unable to positively identify this individual.

On 2/4/64 the informant advised that PATRIARCA discusses the IRS investigation of [redacted] in connection with the Sherwood Manufacturing Company, Providence, R. I. Nothing pertinent developed by the informant.

[redacted] and HAROLD HANNON were dropped off in the vicinity of Coin-O-Matic, Providence, by PETER LIMONE and thereafter walked a short distance to this location where they contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

HANNON and [redacted] asked for and received permission from RAYMOND PATRIARCA to kill an individual not identified to the informant. PATRIARCA furnished the permission "as long as they received clearance from ABE SARKIS and [redacted]" both prominent Boston bookmakers. PATRIARCA instructed HANNON and [redacted] to contact SARKIS and [redacted] upon their return to Boston, tell them that they came down to see PATRIARCA and that PATRIARCA gave them the OK to kill the individual, not identified. They were to further tell SARKIS and [] that PATRIARCA suggested that they give them expense money immediately inasmuch as they are going to drop everything else and concentrate their full time on this and they would need "front money."

PATRIARCA also stated "it's going to be a steady job and tell them to give you the expense money until you get everything organized and get the score." [] stated that it sounded like the best thing they ever had and that they would be able to derive a regular income from it. PATRIARCA warned them that the individual they were going to kill was no sucker and was very shrewd and warned them to be careful. [] stated that he had never seen the individual, but that they would work on this assignment until completed. [] further stated that when they get him they will "sneak him" and further that ABE SARKIS knows all the guys.

Reference is made to Boston Airtel dated 1/29/64 which sets out information to the effect that JERRY ANGIULO had stated that [] and HANNON were planning to ask permission of PATRIARCA to grab [] a large bookmaker from the Dorchester-Milton, Mass., area.

Therefore, the individual mentioned above might possibly be [] but the informant was unable to positively state that this was the individual referred to by [] and HANNON.

[] then told PATRIARCA of his efforts to kill [] of Somerville, Mass., for the past several months without success. PATRIARCA told them that they should forget [] for the time being and work on the other killing as [] knows he is marked for a hit and will take every precaution, whereas the other individual does not realize he is going to be killed. PATRIARCA stated that he heard [] had teamed up with [] and [] stated that they are attempting to ascertain the details concerning this. [] also pointed out that they are considering killing an individual close to [] so that his close associates will become fearful and dis-associate themselves with [] PATRIARCA immediately told them that they are not to kill anyone other than []

PATRIARCA told [] that the trucker (indicating that he did not know this individual by name) sent word down that [] desired to know whether PATRIARCA was involved in his dispute with [] When [] interjected that the name of the trucker was [] of Somerville, Mass., PATRIARCA agreed stating he was a nice fellow. PATRIARCA sent word back to [] through [] that he was not involved with this dispute and wished [] luck; further, that if [] wanted to come down and see him it would be OK. [] declined to contact PATRIARCA relying on the word of []

PATRIARCA told [] that he instructed JERRY ANGIULO of Boston, Mass., to tell SAM CUFARI of Springfield, Mass., to get up the two thousand dollars from that Greek or Syrian. [] replied he is a Greek from Springfield, Mass. This probably concerns the theft of Carter's Underwear from Akers Motor Transportation Company.

PETER LIMONE told PATRIARCA that JERRY ANGIULO went to Florida and would be back in a day or so and that the purpose of the trip was to get a hold of [] (probably [] of Miami). This was in relation to a money transaction, the details of which were not ascertained by the informant.

PATRIARCA advised LIMONE that he would take care of the situation concerning JOSEPH MODICO of Boston, Mass., when he goes to New Jersey in the near future.

The informant was unable to obtain further details concerning same.

HENRY TAMELEO told PATRIARCA that he was approached by an individual, probably JOSEPH MODICO, in connection with a loan. It appeared that MODICO was requested to loan SAL RIZZO, former owner of the Berkshire Downs Race Track, the sum of $20,000. PATRIARCA stated that he thought RIZZO was broke and described him as a real con man. HENRY TAMELEO told MODICO that TOMMY LUCHESE of New York was involved in the Berkshire Downs Race Track and that prior to the time he stuck his nose into the deal, he, TAMELEO, would clear with PATRIARCA as to what action MODICO should take. MODICO did not know whether RIZZO wanted to borrow the money or just use it as show money. PATRIARCA told TAMELEO "that my two people are SAUL (FRIEDMAN) and [redacted] and they went for three hundred 'G's.'" TAMELEO replied, "How about the other guy, did he blow two hundred?" PATRIARCA replied, "He was using TOMMY (probably LUCHESE) and TOMMY is out now and doesn't want anything to do with it."

PATRIARCA then explained that he, probably RIZZO, made a deal with [redacted] signed a mortgage with [redacted] but they don't trust him, meaning [redacted]. If RIZZO does not come up with the money in 30 days and take the note back from [redacted] will get the track. If [redacted] gets the track, PATRIARCA will have a better chance to recoup some of his losses. Because of this, TAMELEO told MODICO to lay off and not to have anything to do with RIZZO or anybody else trying to borrow money for the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

PATRIARCA further explained that "SINATRA and these guys" did not lose any money, that RIZZO was taken by the politicians for a lot of money in his effort to obtain additional racing dates. TAMELEO explained that [redacted] Berkshire Downs Race Track, had made several calls to MODICO's place of business during the past six or seven months when TAMELEO was present. On each occasion, he had a different "proposition," none of which was thought to be any good by TAMELEO.

Concerning the information of the possible killing of [] by [] and HAROLD HANNON, it is felt that this information can be disseminated to Capt. JOHN MORIARTY, Chief, Criminal Intelligence Bureau, Massachusetts State Police, and to [] himself, without endangering the source of the information.

It is to be noted, however, that the information will be furnished to them on a limited basis so that it will not jeopardize the source.

It also should be noted that, by airtel dated 1/29/64 and instant airtel, PATRIARCA made unusual security arrangements for the appearance of HANNON and [] at his place of business. Because of these security arrangements and the fact that PATRIARCA observed a surveillance several months ago when he met HANNON and [] no arrangements were made to surveill either HANNON or [] arriving, or departing from, Coin-O-Matic in order not to jeopardize the informant.

Concerning the information regarding WILLIAM MARFEO of Providence, R. I., it is felt that the informant could not positively identify this individual as the one marked for killing. In addition, this individual is regarded as very arrogant and, if the information was furnished to him or the Providence, R. I. PD, this office feels that the security of the informant would be jeopardized to a great extent. Therefore, this information is not being disseminated.

The dissemination of this information to [] and Capt. MORIARTY will be furnished them, UACB, on 2/12/64.

PETER LIMONE, an associate of ANGIULO's, advised that "PINKY" (possibly COSMO "PINKY" PANARELLI of Worcester, Mass.) was in Florida and that he had approached a friend of PETER LIMONE's to put up $5,000 on hot horses. "PINKY" called LIMONE and told him of the above, to which LIMONE told him that the fellow was a friend of his and unless it was legitimate, to lay off the individual. "PINKY" indicated it was legitimate, but LIMONE had doubts as to this legitimacy. He asked RAYMOND if it was alright for him to tip his friend off and advise him to stay away from "PINKY". RAYMOND gave his permission and stated that "PINKY" should not attempt to swindle any friends of theirs.

Informant advised that [] or [] who used to be in the cigarette vending machine business in Boston, had talked to [] of Revere, Mass. and SAM GRANITO. He requested that SAM GRANITO contact RAYMOND to get permission to go into the cigarette vending machine business in Boston. PETER LIMONE told SAM that he knew RAYMOND's feelings on this matter and that he, RAYMOND, wanted nothing to do with it. It was not clear to the informant whether these vending machines are part of those owned by the late LOUIS FOX.

RAYMOND explains again to ANGIULO that the cigarette vending machine business of LOUIS FOX was being operated by [] who was left all his money. This business is being operated by []

[] had made inquiry for RAYMOND to determine whether the business was going to be sold and stated that a friend of his would be interested in buying either 50% of the business or the whole business.

RAYMOND was later informed that [] was advised by her lawyer that PATRIARCA was to "muscle in" on the cigarette vending machine business and intended to report it to the FBI. However, another attorney, named [] of Boston, Mass., told her that RAYMOND would not do such a thing.

Further inquiry of [] reflected that PATRIARCA was interested in buying this business at a legitimate price.

PATRIARCA blamed PHIL GALLO for starting the rumor that he, PATRIARCA, was to "muscle in" on the business.

ANGIULO advised that [redacted] has been sick for several days and that he, ANGIULO, was unable to talk to him concerning whether or not he, [redacted] was interested in anything in Revere with [redacted] who is the [redacted] Revere, Mass. PD. ANGIULO, however, did send a message to [redacted] through [redacted] and, as yet, he has not received an answer to same.

[redacted] who was recently convicted for "assault and battery of a teen-ager" in Revere, Mass. and is presently serving a one-year sentence in the House of Correction, Deer Island, Boston, Mass., sent word to [redacted] JERRY, that an individual was being sent in to [redacted] with a bug on him in order to obtain evidence against [redacted] for loan-sharking.

ANGIULO did not receive the message, which was delivered by a discharged inmate, until the early afternoon, at which time the plant was already in effect.

He described to PATRIARCA the details concerning the individual appearing in [redacted] place of business with a radio transmitter on his person and the conversation that took place thereafter. The individual apparently became nervous and [redacted] noticing this, grabbed the individual, at which time the transmitter dropped from his person. [redacted] picked it up, gave it to an associate of his, and chased the individual upstairs. The associate threw the transmitter on the marquis of the LaSalle Hotel, Boston.

In order to recover the transmitter, the arresting officers of the Boston PD told [redacted] it was federal property. He thereupon called his associate and ascertained it was on the roof of the LaSalle Hotel, where it was recovered by the Boston PD.

PATRIARCA questioned ANGIULO as to whether or not there would be any possibility of District Attorney [redacted] obtaining any evidence which would link [redacted] with ANGIULO in the shylocking business. PATRIARCA pointed out they may have had "bugs" in the room by which they could obtain conversations between ANGIULO and [redacted]. ANGIULO assured him that no such conversation ever took place outside of his own office.

ANGIULO advised that District Attorney [redacted] Suffolk County, Boston, contacted EDMUND L. MC NAMARA, Boston Police Commissioner, and told him that there are many after-hours joints running in the city of Boston. Because of this, MC NAMARA put on a special squad and no joints are running at the present time after hours.

ANGIULO stated that MC NAMARA put [redacted] on the street to close up these joints. He pointed out that if [redacted] remains on the street it would be too much competition for these joints to run after hours and that they might as well close up.

NICHOLAS CAMARATA, Springfield, Mass., recently appeared at the Coliseum Restaurant accompanied by GENNARO J. ANGIULO. They were met at the door by [redacted] who showed the proper respect to CAMARATA and told him that he would be over for a drink later with him. After some time had past, [redacted] walked by their table, at which time CAMARATA called [redacted] and said, "Are you going to have a drink with us?", to which [redacted] replied, he "would be right back." [redacted] never returned for the drink with CAMARATA; whereupon CAMARATA became very indignant that [redacted] did not show the proper respect to CAMARATA while in the Coliseum Restaurant.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that he should have had a drink with CAMARATA but that it was not a serious thing and they might as well forget it.

[redacted] contacted MAXIE (probably CATALDO of Revere, Mass.) in an effort to obtain the locations for all the Jewish joints in Revere so that he could pull the Jewish bookmakers phones out and tell them to stay out of Revere. MAXIE did not want to furnish this information until he was re-assured by ANGIULO that [redacted] has the backing of PATRIARCA for his actions.

JOSEPH ANSEIMO, Revere, Mass., never returned to see ANGIULO concerning the joint that he was interested in purchasing from [redacted] nor has he sent any word back concerning the cutting of half numbers in the numbers racket by [redacted] or [redacted] ANGIULO will contact [redacted] in the near future.

Judge BROGNA, Superior Court Justice, State of Massachusetts, has contacted ANGIULO, but the informant was unable to ascertain the reason therefor. It appeared that BROGNA has been sitting in New Bedford, Mass. during the recent past.

PETER LIMONE asked PATRIARCA whether he knew [redacted] (phonetic), to which PATRIARCA replied in the affirmative. LIMONE explained that he told [redacted] the right thing; that he had only seen it done once, and he was ^{not} going to chance doing it by himself. What he intended to do was to make a meet with [redacted] and tell him that he had the dynamite and all he wanted was the caps and some other material, which the informant did not ascertain.

PATRIARCA at this point stated he had put him off for awhile, probably for a couple of months. LIMONE was to make a meet with [redacted] and have him come to Boston, pointing out that he did not want to go to his place as the State Police went up there recently when [redacted] (phonetic), the kid they used to use in the crap games, burnt the house down. When questioned by the State Police he was working for [redacted] At this time they wanted to know from [redacted] what he uses to make all the stuff, and they checked him out a little.

As far as PETER knew, the first couple of things he had to do was to put the cap on, tie the sticks together good and wrap them, and the only thing that puzzled him was the manner in which to attach the wires. He said that he wanted to watch him (probably referring to [redacted]) before he tried it himself. RAYMOND said that someone else is taking a look at that thing, but if they don't do it, he, PETER, can make arrangements but that he should wait for word from RAYMOND.

ANGIULO then stated that this kid [redacted] (last name not mentioned) had a fellow in Wakefield, Mass. who asked [redacted] to go out there and learn about this stuff. ANGIULO pointed out that it would be a good thing to send [redacted] out there "for future reference," because if he learns the stuff right, they could use him later on.

This individual in Wakefield has a press which presses together junk cars into a very small size. He pointed out that [redacted] car was put in the press and it came out about the size of a desk. They agreed that they will push [redacted] into accepting the invitation from this individual in Wakefield, Mass. to learn about it (probably referring to dynamiting, as they described the individual from Wakefield as a demolition expert).

During the course of the conversation PETER asked RAYMOND whether or not it was a car, to which RAYMOND replied in the affirmative. However, from the experience of the informant, it appeared from the tone of his answer that RAYMOND was not necessarily sincere in the fact that it was a bombing of a car.

ANGIULO stated that he has made a move for the Indian Meadow Golf Club; that he has sent [redacted] to Miami and he has sent him with $30,000 to pay [redacted] as he had to get this out of the way fast.

Before he sent him down he gave him $30,000, but the informant did not know whether this $30,000 was the same as the $30,000 which was to be paid to [redacted]

After giving him the $30,000, he made [] get up an additional $2,500 and put him on a plane to Miami. He made the connection with [] or [] who works in a bank and who is "our connection." [] transacted the 32,000. [] returned with a check drawn on the Annual (phonetic) Bank of Bermuda for $30,000, which he gave to ANGIULO for payment of a loan (probably on the Huntington Realty Trust Co.). Later, ANGIULO received a receipt with a number on the receipt for [] to the effect that he borrowed $30,000 from the afore-mentioned bank. This was done through [] in Miami.

ANGIULO cautioned [] that if the Feds ever question him concerning this he is to say that he borrowed this money through an individual not known to him in Florida and that he is paying the loan back.

ANGIULO stated that [] from Framingham, Mass. wants to buy the Indian Meadow Country Club for $750,000. [] owns 150 acres of land in Concord, Mass., which he will apply towards the $750,000 if ANGIULO accepts the offer. He also has another prospective buyer, JIMMY, THE GREEK, a millionaire who recently gave $250,000 to an island in Greece which was in financial trouble.

JIMMY, THE GREEK offered ^{to buy} 50% of the Indian Meadow Country Club stock for $350,000 and assumes half of the liabilities, the total of which amounted to $250,000. He thinks that the offer by JIMMY, THE GREEK is a much better deal as he pointed out that one of four sites being considered for the building of NASA in Boston is only four miles from the Indian Meadow Country Club. If NASA selects this site, the value of the land will increase tremendously and they still will own half of the land.

ANGIULO, in order to pay off necessary debts such as Federal taxes and Massachusetts taxes, had to loan Indian Meadow Country Club $50,000 which he put in the Club through an account in the First National Bank under the name of [] doing business as the Indian Meadow Country Club. [] became []

[redacted] of this Club and thus has control of the funds.

[redacted] and [redacted] had to turn their stock over to ANGIULO as a pledge for the $50,000. He has a security agreement with them from the [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] to the effect that if they are not able to pay off the $50,000, ANGIULO can foreclose and obtain the control of the Club. He thus is of the opinion that they will not be able to obtain the $50,000, and he will foreclose on same and gain control of the Club.

ANGIULO also advised that JOSEPH MODICA, aka PAPPINO, has inquired to ascertain who would be in a position to can six or eight million dollars worth of fish per year. He is associated with a Boston lawyer in this venture. The name of [redacted] was mentioned, but the informant could not ascertain the significance of same.

ANGIULO mentioned [redacted] name, who has a [redacted] in Watertown, Mass. He pointed out if anyone contacts [redacted] it should be he, ANGIULO; as he is more friendly with him than the others.

The individual who has the fish has a brother who is in the fish business in Gloucester, Mass., and they intend to bring him in on the business with him.

Another one mentioned by ANGIULO is [redacted] (phonetic), who has a business (probably a fishing business) in Presque Isle, Me. Nothing definite was heard by the informant as to the further progress on this matter.

PETER LIMONE stated that he had bought 65 gallons of alcohol from [redacted] and, in addition to an unknown amount of money, he gave him seven or eight bags of sugar.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON desired to see PATRIARCA personally. After considerable discussion, it was finally agreed by PATRIARCA and ANGIULO that the best way for HANNON and [redacted] to contact PATRIARCA in order to avoid detection by law enforcement would be as follows:

LIMONE will call them and tell them to meet LIMONE at 10:00 a.m. on a certain date. LIMONE will pick them up and, after driving in the vicinity of Boston for a short period of time, will proceed to Providence, R. I. and make sure that they are not surveilled. He will approach PATRIARCA's place of business and let HANNON and [redacted] out of the car near the alleyway.

They can proceed through the alleyway into PATRIARCA's place of business. LIMONE will proceed to the Canteen Restaurant where he will park the borrowed car and wait until he hears from PATRIARCA. At this time he will return to the vicinity of PATRIARCA's place of business and pick up [redacted] and HANNON.

RAYMOND is continually cautioning both ANGIULO and LIMONE that they are not to be surveilled or observed contacting him.

of the room when he got there. KRIKORIAN then talked about a gadget by which the law could overhear conversations in a house by merely switching a button which connected with a mike in the telephone and stated that they could thereby hear all conversations in the house. RAYMOND replied, "I think they have had one in my house for years; that is why I don't bring anyone there."

It is to be noted that RAYMOND did not appear overly concerned with this information.

RAYMOND also asked whether [] had a connection in IRS, to which KRIKORIAN replied in the affirmative. He explained that [] has a fellow who will stick his neck out because [] has bought him a brand new car. RAYMOND then spoke of the investigation by IRS of his brother, JOSEPH PATRIARCA, and indicated to KRIKORIAN that he would speak to [] about this IRS fellow.

This information is not being disseminated to IRS at this time because of the security of the informant.

[] (LNU), claimed to have had her car stolen that day and the car contained jewelry and clothes. JOSEPH KRIKORIAN arranged to obtain predated valuations of the jewelry from the Strand Jewelry Co., Providence, R. I., so that she may be reimbursed by the insurance company.

On 1/28/64, RAYMOND made an appointment to see an individual (probably [] of Springfield, Mass.) through UNMAN. Specific time and place not obtained by the informant.

JOSEPH PATRIARCA, brother of RAYMOND, discusses with him his problems with IRS. It appears that he stated he won a considerable amount of money on race track winnings and also stated on his return that he had lost a substantial amount. IRS will not allow the losses without substantial proof. It appears that JOSEPH might have to reimburse the government in the amount of approximately $25,000.

[redacted] indicates that he has not ascertained who started the fire in his building recently but believes it to be an [redacted] named [redacted] (phonetic) who is supposed to be excellent as an arsonist.

It appears that the State Police were waiting for the thieves to appear at the home of a coin collector who resided in Centerdale, R. I. and [redacted] R. I. PATRIARCA ascertained that the Police were there and tipped off many of the criminal element in the Rhode Island area through HENRY TAMELEO.

An "Italian kid," name unknown, who is in the rare coin collection business, allegedly fingered this job for the thieves. A "Jewish kid" who is also in the rare coin business, is connected in some way with this "Italian kid" and apparently has made a large amount of money in dealing in rare coins that are stolen.

[redacted] pointed out that in the Grand Jury in Delaware the witnesses did not co-operate with the government; however, those appearing in Providence are co-operating.

They stated that the lawyer he has hired in New Haven is acquainted with the Attorney General of the State of Connecticut. The Attorney General has told [redacted] that the State has nothing on him regarding his recent arrest in New Haven, but that he feels the Federal Government will prosecute him inasmuch as he went interstate.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, Providence, R. I., told PATRIARCA that [redacted] (possibly [redacted]) Grand Jury and that the witnesses are [redacted] and desired instructions as to how he should answer this question. PATRIARCA told TAGLIANETTI to have [redacted] say that [redacted]

[redacted] TAGLIANETTI stated that [redacted] It appeared that [redacted] played numbers and horses with [redacted] and on one occasion, when he won, [redacted] sent [redacted] from Rhode Island to Seekonk, Mass. to pay the hit.

HENRY apparently won $3,900 at one time and [redacted] did not pay the hit; consequently, [redacted] reported same to law enforcement officials.

PATRIARCA advised that Chief PARKER, Pawtucket, [redacted] was called to testify by USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE. [redacted] thought that it was a routine questioning, but when PETTINE questioned him before the Grand Jury he asked [redacted]

PATRIARCA did not indicate how [] answered these questions but said that he almost "punched [] in the nose" because of the questions he asked. He also questioned []

It is to be noted that [] allegedly had an []

GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE of Boston contacted PATRIARCA. ANGIULO told him that [] contacted a venereal disease in Florida and that he, ANGIULO, had arranged to have the boy treated by a doctor in Boston.

Concerning JOSEPH ANSELMO, aka JOE BURNS, of Boston, Mass., JERRY stated that the kid, whom he referred to as [], wanted to sell his business and other property. BURNS offered to buy the place for $140,000, with $8,000 as a down payment. [] refused same and BURNS desired to know from JERRY whether he could assist him in the purchase of this, as he knew that [] was financially obligated to JERRY.

JERRY went to [] and ascertained that he desired $140,000 for the business and property, $40,000 of which is to be used for a down payment. Of the $40,000, $20,000 would go to GENNARO J. ANGIULO "under the table" for repayment of a loan by []. He told the above to BURNS; however, BURNS has not recontacted him regarding this purchase.

ANGIULO also stated that JOE BURNS [] of Chelsea, Mass., had declared that he no longer would have any half numbers in his numbers pool operation.

JERRY stated that as RAYMOND would recall, when they had the meet in the hotel between JOE BURNS, JERRY ANGIULO, PATRIARCA and [] had stated that he has his own horse business which he backs himself, but that all numbers go to JERRY ANGIULO.

BS 92-118

Therefore, ANGIULO was desirous of knowing why [] dispensed with any half numbers. JOE BURNS told him that he would find out with []

At a later contact with BURNS, ANGIULO was told that [] stated that when he, [] was away, [] cut his half numbers from approximately 30 to 10. He, therefore, took away a lot of business from [] Consequently, [] declared no half numbers in an attempt to get his business back from []

ANGIULO could not understand this because [] did not have the authority to reduce the half number hits without clearing with JERRY first. He thereupon received permission from PATRIARCA to grab [] to find out what the exact details of their numbers business are.

During the conversation with ANSELMO, he was told that [] Assistant District Attorney, Suffolk County, under [] and the individual who has charge of the Grand Jury presentations in this county, had told ANSELMO that for $10,000 he could have "fixed" [] case for which he was recently convicted and sentenced to one year in jail. This case concerned an "assault and battery" on a teenager.

ANGIULO advised that he attempted in all ways to fix this case but was unable to do so because of [] and that he, himself, had talked to [] and [] had told him that he was afraid to do anything in the Grand Jury because of the fact that [] wanted this case prosecuted in the correct manner and further stated that if anyone attempts to have the witnesses change their stories in any way, he, [] would personally see that the witnesses would be prosecuted for perjury. Because of this, they were afraid to fix the case.

They discussed the case involving the theft of Carter's underwear from Akers Motor Lines, Inc., which occurred in Boston on 9/28/63. This information was set out in a separate memorandum.

ANGIULO stated that they intend to open up the various small crap games in the Boston area in the near future.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that "the old man" came to him and told him that he heard a whisper that there was friction between the new Mayor of Revere, Mass. and [redacted] Revere, Mass. PD. He instructed ANGIULO to tell RAYMOND this fact.

ANGIULO also added that he got word that [redacted] was seen talking to [redacted] PATRIARCA explained that [redacted] of Revere, Mass. was in the preceding day and that all the Jews are running the city of Revere and they are using Jewish bag men. Further, that they are trying to steal a pocket liquor license that ANSELMO had and that they are raising the rate for telephones used by bookmakers in the Revere area from $125 to $150 per month.

JERRY stated that he thinks the city of Revere will wind up between PATRIARCA, ANGIULO and SAMMY (probably GRANITO) in relation to "whacking the phones up." He added that [redacted] is out to bury everybody and take over the city.

PATRIARCA told him to go to [redacted] and tell him to get a hold of SAM to find out whether [redacted] or SAM have been doing anything with [redacted] as he, RAYMOND PATRIARCA, is going to make a move there and he is going to be with [redacted]. If they are doing anything in the city PATRIARCA instructs that they come down and see him and explain their situation.

[redacted] and HAROLD HANNON asked ANGIULO for permission to grab [redacted] in the Dorchester-Milton, Mass. area. They desire that ANGIULO talk to PATRIARCA before they make the move. PATRIARCA advised that he wanted to see them before they make the move, but emphatically cautioned ANGIULO that no telephone calls be made and that [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON be picked up by ANGIULO on the morning of the meet and put on the 10:00 a.m. train to Providence, R. I. They would be met in Providence by emissaries of PATRIARCA and brought to the office of SAUL FRIEDMAN who is PATRIARCA's attorney. PATRIARCA will meet them there and discuss the situation.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] has the [redacted] and the [redacted] and that they have been watching [redacted] very closely. He states that [redacted] is strictly a ladies man.

It appears that [redacted] owes over $30,000 to some Jew. JERRY spoke of getting some girl to go away with him for three weeks, during which time his book would go down and they would be able to put him out of business.

[redacted] discussed in detail his appearance before the Honorable Judge ANDREW CAFFEY.

[redacted] was to [redacted] Nothing pertinent was heard by the informant.

Another individual entered who was acquainted with ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE, told PATRIARCA that the President of the company had died but that the other guy still wants to go along with it, apparently referring to arson of a company plant. They had $1 million worth of insurance on the building. This individual had accepted the arson job from the ex-president of the company and stated that the new guy still wants to go through with the arson. However, it appears that they are having a difficult time raising the necessary $50,000, which would be half of the payment for the arson job, figuring on 10% of the total value of insurance.

JERRY and PATRIARCA instructed UNMAN to accept $25,000, if he was not able to obtain $50,000, and to receive the remaining $75,000 when the building was burned.

They discussed ways and means by which the company can raise the money and JERRY suggested that they sell some of the stock in the company to raise the funds and give them the necessary cash. UNMAN stated that they desired to give them stock, but RAYMOND pointed out that the stock would be worthless if the building is burnt down.

A company referred to as the Goddard Industries of Worcester, Mass. was mentioned but it was not clear to the informant whether this company is the company involved. The President of the company was 52 years old when he died and they are in some type of ballbearing business and associated with the piggy-back franchise for the railroads.

UNMAN will contact the head of this company and attempt to effect proper arrangements.

This is not being disseminated at this time; however, investigation will be conducted to ascertain the identity of the company involved. When this is completed, the facts will be disseminated to [redacted] Massachusetts State Police.

ANGIULO asked PATRIARCA if he knew [redacted] (apparently referring to [redacted] who is connected with the case entitled, "SPORTSDAY WEEKLY, ITWI," Bosfile 165-1). PATRIARCA did not know him personally but knew of his connection with Sportsday Weekly, and also a [redacted] both of whom are appearing before the Federal Grand Jury in connection with this case.

[redacted] former AUSA, has been assigned by the court to defend [redacted] and he wanted to know from ANGIULO whether [redacted] knew [redacted] as he did not want to be placed in an embarrassing position if this were the case.

[redacted] has denied to [redacted] that he knows. PATRIARCA advised ANGIULO to contact [redacted] to ascertain the answer to this question and also instruct [redacted] to have the kids associated with Sportsday Weekly to hire their own lawyers and not have court-appointed attorneys.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] went to Miami, Fla. and saw [redacted] who is connected with a bank in Miami (probably called the Bank of Miami). Through [redacted] he arranged to obtain a loan of $32,500 from a bank in the Bahamas. [redacted] obtained this amount for [redacted] and gave him $30,000, the remaining portion to be held by the bank in the Bahamas for interest payments for three years.

JERRY was very enthusiastic concerning the obtaining of this loan by [] and stated that he is going to send other individuals from Boston to [] to arrange for similar loans.

He pointed out that he will send individuals down to Miami who, at the end of three years, will not have any assets in their name and, therefore, forfeit the loan to the bank. According to ANGIULO, the bank will not press payment and only write it off as a bad loan.

PATRIARCA could not understand this and said that if the Bank of Miami goes to the Bank of Bermuda and tells them to write the loan off as a bad debt, that they would do same, as he believed they would have to have some type of collateral.

ANGIULO stated that it was not the case and that if the fellows that he sends down are successful, that he and RAYMOND should do the same thing on a bigger scale. RAYMOND still could not understand this and pointed out that the banking commissioners would pick these bad loans up in the ordinary course of their audits; however, ANGIULO was positive that there is no collateral issued by []

On 1/24/64, two individuals from Worcester, Mass. contacted PATRIARCA, one of whom was []. The other individual was not known to the informant. They discussed the truck driver who transported the Carter's underwear load to New York who desired to be paid off, but the informant was not able to obtain the details of same.

PATRIARCA told [] that [] of Boston, Mass. had shot someone in the Joahina Hotel, Miami, Fla. This created a lot of heat in the vicinity of the Joahina Hotel.

They also discussed a business in which [] had a small piece of in Worcester, Mass., but the informant was unable to determine the details of same.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., told PATRIARCA that a police officer had told him that they were staking out a house which was owned by a dealer in rare coins. PATRIARCA stated that he would contact HENRY TAMELEO and tell him of the above and that if he, TAMELEO, was not involved, he would attempt to get word to the individuals who planned to rob this house.

HENRY TAMELEO was told of the above by PATRIARCA and he denied knowing anything about it; however, he would contact individuals, such as [redacted] from [redacted], and others, who might be involved, and warn them not to go near the house as it was under surveillance by the PD.

Miami will immediately attempt to identify [redacted] who is connected with a bank in Miami and attempt to ascertain circumstances surrounding the loan of $32,500, made to [redacted] of Worcester, Mass. through [redacted] with a bank in Bermuda.

It should be noted that on one occasion informant reflected that the loan was made through a bank in Bermuda and another through a bank in the Bahamas.

RAYMOND stated that many times SAL wanted to cash a check with RAYMOND, but he would not cash it.

According to KIRK, he believes that the Berkshire Downs Race Track will make $2 million a year once the various court actions are settled. He said that in three years the referendum concerning racing in Berkshire County will again appear on the ballot. RAYMOND stated that if they are able to promote a good image through a good Manager of the track and furnish many jobs to the inhabitants of Berkshire Downs, they will be able to cultivate their good will and probably again vote for racing in that county.

KIRK stated that Dr. FURCOLO, father of the former Governor of Massachusetts, has a chance of obtaining an interest in this track in that if [] is found guilty of stealing and selling stock belonging to Dr. FURCOLO, the court may rule that the stock actually still belongs to Dr. FURCOLO.

PATRIARCA and KIRK discussed in detail the operation of this track, expenses, etc., and concluded that if the track is operated properly, they would be able to show a substantial profit and pay off all debts incurred.

Another UNMAN enters and joined in the discussion of this track. He asked RAYMOND whether there were any other tracks for sale in this vicinity. PATRIARCA replied the place where the Maine State Fair is held yearly is up for sale and that FRANK (possibly FERRARA of Miami Beach) and JERRY (possibly ANGIULO of Boston, Mass.) have a piece of this track. TEDDY FUCILLO did, at one time, have a piece of the track but has since sold same.

PATRIARCA stated that they should no longer deal with the politicians in Massachusetts in an attempt to get additional days of racing; that the number of days they have, namely 24 plus six for the Franklin Fair, is sufficient to operate the track at a profit.

If they continue to contact politicians, the money they spend to obtain additional dates will not compensate for the profit if additional dates are obtained.

He said that the only politicians they should go after would be the Senator in Pittsfield, Mass. and [redacted] (phonetic), the fellow who has caused all this trouble.

PATRIARCA instructed KIRK to contact [redacted] and obtain $1,500 from him to pay the bondsman and the attorney that represented KIRK.

Another UNMAN told PATRIARCA that they have decided to get the fellow in the joint; that it would only take 15 or 20 seconds and that they could have a car parked outside for the getaway. (This appeared to be either a stickup or a killing, referred to in reairtel. However, the informant was unable to obtain details concerning same.)

On 2/11/64, [redacted] who was recently arrested by State authorities in connection with receiving furs stolen in the Miami, Fla. area, contacted PATRIARCA.

[redacted] was of the opinion that an individual in Florida was the cause of the arrest; however, PATRIARCA stated that undoubtedly it was a phone tap inasmuch as he, [redacted] called HENRY (probably TAMELLEO) and RAYMOND in connection with the furs and that because of the conversation he had on the phone, law enforcement was able to obtain sufficient information to cause the arrest of [redacted] who was arrested by Rhode Island State Police in possession of some of the furs.

[redacted] stated that he told [redacted] to pack the stuff, ship it (apparently to Rhode Island) and bring the receipt.

There was mention of [redacted] or [redacted], but the informant was unable to ascertain the details concerning this individual.

[redacted] apparently ascertained that there was one fur piece missing and he took the package "to the Dunes" and gave it to [redacted] (phonetic). He instructed [redacted] to go to the airport and mail it. He said that AL did not know that the package contained "swag." [redacted] said that [redacted] sent the package in his true name.

It appeared that [] who is from Brooklyn and also involved in the theft, is probably the finger man and told [] himself that he, at one time, was called "a stoolie." [] said that he thought there might be something to this but had no logical reason for suspecting same.

Another individual, who is involved, had been convicted in Chicago and Detroit for stealing mink coats; but he did not identify this individual. He then mentioned that [] (probably referring to [] and [] were in [] together.

He intends to obtain the services of CHARLES CURRAN, Attorney, Providence, R. I., who is flying to Miami 2/16 or 17 next. CURRAN is to contact an un-named individual concerning [] arrest.

It appears that [] has a fake bill of sale from an individual, probably [] to the effect that he purchased these minks legitimately and that he, [] had a bill of sale for same.

He said that the furs were stolen in three different breaks on the West Coast (probably of Florida). [] is going back to Florida Monday next but requested PATRIARCA to contact CURRAN, which PATRIARCA did, and arranged to meet him 2/12/64 concerning this matter.

[] paid $2,700 for the furs.

[] and PATRIARCA discussed the various searches of [] home, [] home, and [] personal business and stated all were illegal, with the exception of [] place of business.

[] Providence, R. I., discussed various bookmakers by nickname in the amount they won or lost in the previous month. He furnished PATRIARCA an unknown amount of money from this operation.

[] discussed his recent fire at the American Distributors Co., Providence, R. I. and the problems he is having in collecting insurance for the fire.

BS 92-118

He suggested that PATRIARCA go into the coin collection business; as from information he has received it is a very lucrative type of business. PATRIARCA did not indicate whether he was interested in this.

On 2/12/64, [] Providence, R. I., talked at length regarding his business ventures which are not pertinent to this investigation.

JOSEPH KIRK and another individual, unknown to the informant, discussed the Berkshire Downs Race Track. PATRIARCA said that [] (LNU) originally put up $140,000 in "cash bonds" and that SAUL FRIEDMAN has paid the necessary interest on this.

KIRK explained that they took in $54,000 in parking fees alone last year; that they received $27,000; and that SAM RIZZO took the other $27,000. They all agreed that if [] had operated the track it would be a success.

RAYMOND indicated that SAL RIZZO is not going to run the track if he has anything to say about it; and further, that he, RAYMOND, has put in over $200,000 of his own money; has not received any interest therefrom, and will attempt to keep RIZZO from managing his track.

UNMAN, who was described as [] of The Beefer (phonetic) Macaroni Co. (probably of Boston, Mass.) requested PATRIARCA to intercede for him in collecting $1,200 from [] (phonetic) of the Laurano Sauce Co., Prairie Ave, Providence, R. I.

PATRIARCA said he would send for [] and contact UNMAN concerning the results of this contact.

KIRK learned from Atty. [redacted] Department of the Treasury, Washington, D. C., who apparently was a witness in this case, that Massachusetts Attorney General EDWARD W. BROOKE is to be indicted in the near future by Federal authorities for "income tax evasion" amounting to $100,000.

[] told PATRIARCA that he knows a kid who is interested in sticking up a market proprietor, location unknown to informant. The robbery would net approximately $15,000. [] was not interested but thought that PATRIARCA might have an acquaintance who would assist this individual in the robbery. PATRIARCA made no comment.

This same acquaintance of [] has in his possession eight bank books of an 80 year-old woman whose husband is a doctor and who, in three or four weeks, will vacation in Arizona. The bank books are from various banks in New York. [] stated that the individual was interested in obtaining a female con woman who could go to New York and be able to withdraw small sums of money from these accounts, posing as the 80 year-old woman. PATRIARCA suggested to him that he should have the con woman request checks drawn to an investment house and thereafter buy stocks with this check. Immediately thereafter, she could sell the stocks for cash. If she continued this practice on a small scale at the beginning, she would be able to obtain the confidence of the teller at the bank, and after a few transactions she would be able to withdraw cash and subsequently be able to withdraw all the money from the eight accounts. The informant had no details concerning the identity of this woman, nor the identity of the individual who is in possession of these bank books.

[] also stated that [] from [] desired to borrow money from PATRIARCA. [] would not OK him for the loan as he does not believe he is a responsible person.

TEDDY FUCILLO, Boston, Mass., advised PATRIARCA of the investigation into the GRANCRETE CORPORATION of Boston, Mass., by the FBI and the Massachusetts Crime Commission. Nothing pertinent was developed by the informant.

FUCILLO stated that he made inquiry concerning FRANK FERRARA's request to obtain employment in the casino, as mentioned in the past by BS 837-C*. FUCILLO stated that the OK from PATRIARCA for FERRARA's job at the casino would have to be made directly to [redacted] (true name [redacted] New York City). FUCILLO does not believe FERRARA will get the job as he has a criminal record. FUCILLO has told FERRARA that he will not get the job because of the criminal record.

PATRIARCA is expecting an individual (identity unknown to informant) who is a contractor from New York to contact him in Providence, R. I. It appears that there is a dispute with the "Irish fellows" in Boston. PATRIARCA expects to meet this individual at the Biltmore Hotel in Providence, date not mentioned to informant.

[redacted] Revere, Mass., advised PATRIARCA that his two licenses were taken away from him by the present city officials of Revere. [redacted] of Revere, is also having trouble with these individuals and intends to take the matter to court. PATRIARCA instructed [redacted] that he should do nothing at the present time and let [redacted] take the ball and take these individuals to court. When they start battling each other, [redacted] and PATRIARCA will make their move. He advised [redacted] to "play smart and let them push each other around," and he, PATRIARCA, will decide when they will step in.

On 2/6/64 the informant advised that [redacted] of Portland, Maine, contacted PATRIARCA, accompanied by TEDDY FUCILLO. They are working on a loan for their building in the Maine area. This building is a warehouse, and if it is leased to various tenants, they will be able to make a substantial amount of money. Informant stated that it appears that PATRIARCA has a definite financial interest in the HUB ELECTRIC COMPANY of Charlestown, Mass. [redacted] is fronting for PATRIARCA and negotiated all contracts they have at this plant. He stated that last year was their greatest production year but that they lost $4,600. They make starters and investigation by [redacted] reflects that the production line records reflect that ten thousand starters are made; however, only eight thousand are recorded at the end of the production line. [redacted] stated that this resulted in a loss of two thousand starters and is the difference between a profit and loss.

[redacted] stated that he approached [redacted] (ph), who apparently is the boss at HUB ELECTRIC COMPANY, and requested that he take a cut in salary. [redacted] refused. PATRIARCA gave [redacted] permission to tell another individual, not identified, that it would be OK by PATRIARCA to fire [redacted] told PATRIARCA that he had picked up an electric company in Cumberland (location not stated).

[redacted] requested PATRIARCA to contact [redacted] of the Operating Engineers, who PATRIARCA said was a friend of his. It appeared that [redacted] is attempting to gain control of the pension plan of the health and welfare funds of the Operating Engineers, which funds are now being controlled by the Old Colony Trust Company in Boston, Mass. The Old Colony Trust Company charges $30,000 a year for the supervision of this fund. [redacted] needs the vote of [redacted] and others to manage this fund. PATRIARCA agreed to contact [redacted] on behalf of [redacted].

[redacted] will also contact [redacted] from Connecticut on behalf of [redacted] also stated that he has contacted SAUL FRIEDMAN in connection with the operation of HUB ELECTRIC COMPANY, and it appeared to the informant that probably FRIEDMAN is an officer in that company as he obtains a yearly salary from same. [redacted] suggested to PATRIARCA that he assist both TEDDY FUCILLO and himself in obtaining key positions within various unions. It is his opinion that the era of making money with the unions by use of force is over. If he and FUCILLO are able to obtain key positions in the union within five years, they could borrow money from the various unions to acquire loans to buy property throughout New England and erect buildings thereon. They could pay off the loans to the unions by leasing the space and wind up having the building paid for at the end of 15 to 20 years. He pointed out that the Jews are controlling the unions now by this method, and they are the only ones able to obtain huge loans from the unions, particularly through the efforts of HOFFA.

On 2/7/64 the informant advised that JOE MODICA, of Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA. Through his association with [redacted] the Berkshire Downs Race Track, he obtained a phoney mortgage with [redacted] of the COMMUNITY FINANCE COMPANY of Lowell, Mass., for [redacted] when he needed same to purchase the Berkshire Downs Race Track in December 1963. PATRIARCA told him that he should not trust SALVATORE RIZZO, former owner of the track, as he is a con artist. It appeared that RIZZO is attempting to interest MODICA in purchasing one-half interest in the Berkshire Downs Race Track and desires to meet MODICA in the near future.

MODICA knew that THOMAS LUCHESE of New York was financially interested in this track. PATRIARCA issued instructions that when he meets RIZZO he, PATRIARCA, wants to be there. PATRIARCA also indicated that LUCHESE should be there and made arrangements for LUCHESE to contact him, PATRIARCA, through SAUL FRIEDMAN, who would then arrange to hire a room at the Old Colony Motel outside of Rhode Island for this meet. The date of this meet was not specified to the informant.

PATRIARCA advised that he has lost $300,000 in the Berkshire Downs Race Track venture, and further, that [redacted] has a note from RIZZO which will expire in 30 days. If the note is not paid off, [redacted] will own the track. [redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, R. I.)

MODICA also advised that he is interested in an oil deal whereby he would make 2¢ a bottle. There was mention of a fifty million dollar ($50,000,000) appropriation in connection with this oil deal, but the informant was not able to ascertain the details of same. The informant, however, was of the impression that it had something to do with the canning of fish, which was mentioned previously, as the name of [redacted] of Watertown, Mass., was mentioned.

MODICA stated that [redacted] contacted [redacted] (ph) a Jewish fellow in the electronics business, in connection with a business deal. [redacted] told him to see [redacted] [redacted] indicating that [redacted] was "his man."

GENNARO "JERRY" ANGIULO advised that he contacted [redacted] in Miami, Florida. [redacted] was unable to pay the thirty thousand he owed JERRY. JERRY pointed out that he came down with $65,000 which he had to convert to legitimate money, and that he should do the same in order to pay off the thirty thousand dollars. "He should file an application with the Bermuda Bank, who then sends you a deposit slip for $30,000 and gives you the right to draw on it. When you want to draw on it, they draw it out from a Nova Scotian bank, which is an English possession." [redacted] then stated, "Well, they then have the note on you." ANGIULO replied, "You have a deposit slip showing that you have on deposit $30,000 with the Anglo-American Bank, and that the Nova Scotian bank has lent you the $30,000. The slip that you have, all you have to do is sign it, which is for you, not the Federal Government; you sign it and they eradicate the loan." This indicates that through [redacted] (ph), who is later described as the [redacted] of a bank in Miami, Florida, he would be able to obtain from [redacted] a $30,000 paper loan.

*Angiulo's Associate

ANGIULO also explained that he heard that [redacted] ANGIULO's associate, had borrowed on several occasions a large amount of shylock money from [redacted] (ph) in New York; that the last loan to [redacted] from [redacted] amounted to $25,000. [redacted] only reimbursed [redacted] $10,000, leaving a balance of $15,000. ANGIULO also heard that [redacted] had told [redacted] to forget the $15,000 balance for the time being and that if he ever came into any money he could repay it, but that he, [redacted] would not put any pressure on him to collect the loan. It occurred to ANGIULO after questioning [redacted] about this loan that [redacted] is in some way connected with [redacted] of the bank. JERRY makes the statement, "Imagine those guys (referring to someone in New York) having control of a bank with two million dollars in assets."

ANGIULO told [redacted] that if he was not able to get up the $30,000 in cash that he, ANGIULO, would personally bring down $30,000 from Boston, introduce him to [redacted] and negotiate the loan so that he, [redacted] can legitimately return the $30,000 to ANGIULO. He also mentioned that [redacted] used to be with [redacted]

According to ANGIULO, JOE BURNS is interested in purchasing the Peppermint Lounge in Boston, Mass., with [redacted] JERRY advised against this.

JERRY ANGIULO believes that WIMMY BENNETT and his crowd had something to do with the shooting of GEORGE ROONEY, local Boston hoodlum, on 2/6/64; however, he had no details concerning same.

PATRIARCA stated that he gave permission to [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON to whack [redacted] Milton, Mass., bookmaker. It appeared to the informant that the reason for this was that ABE SARKIS and [redacted] Boston bookmakers, had got together with eighteen other individuals in the bookmaking business and desired to cut down the numbers, in reference to the makeup by 10%. HANNON and [redacted] were to organize the bookmakers so that the 10% reduction can be placed in effect. [redacted] and SARKIS will collect from the eighteen other bookmakers and furnish HANNON, [redacted] and a third individual (identity unknown) $100 per week. PATRIARCA stated that SARKIS and [redacted] had talked this over with [redacted] ANGIULO received permission from PATRIARCA to check the story relative to [redacted] through SAM GRANITO. ANGIULO was concerned as to whether or not it might affect his booking business, and PATRIARCA assured him that they were not interested in ANGIULO's operation.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] had a contact who was a former Assistant Attorney General in the State of Massachusetts with whom he is very friendly. This former Assistant Attorney General is also close to [redacted] Suffolk County, Boston, Mass. [redacted] will contact this former Assistant Attorney General to intercede for the ANGIULOS with [redacted] particularly in connection with the present loan shark investigation of [redacted] Boston shylock operator who is connected with ANGIULO.

MIAMI OFFICE will conduct complete background investigation of [] or [] a bank in Miami, and ascertain whether the hoodlum element from NYC exercise any control in this bank.

On 2/18/64, BS 837-C* advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA at Providence, R. I.

ANGIULO stated that he had contacted SAM GRANITO relative to the "hit on [redacted]". GRANITO apparently was in contact with [redacted] WHO, at first, denied that he knew anything concerning the "hit on [redacted]" but later did indicate that he, [redacted] ABE SARKIS and [redacted] Boston bookmakers, did discuss the killing of [redacted] in order to take over his, [redacted] booking business.

[redacted] claimed he was unaware that SARKIS had hired [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON to kill [redacted]

PATRIARCA advised that this could be possible inasmuch as there was a discussion between the three individuals and that SARKIS was probably of the opinion that there was a definite decision among the three to "hit [redacted]"; however, no firm decision was actually made.

GRANITO was to contact PATRIARCA in the next few days to explain to him [redacted] implication in this "hit."

ANGIULO also advised that [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON went to Florida in order to obtain funds from [redacted] and ABE SARKIS who, allegedly, were in Florida vacationing.

ANGIULO has set up three games in the Boston area: one in the South End section, one in Dorchester, and one in East Boston, Mass. Each of these games are actually operated by other individuals who have had a small game going in that particular section.

During the last week MIKE ROCCO, aka "MICKEY, THE WISE GUY," of East Boston, Mass., called PETER LIMONE and complained about he and ANGIULO moving into East Boston to run a game.

LIMONE explained that they had contacted PATRIARCA and that PATRIARCA had furnished them permission to operate on a very limited scale in various sections of Boston inasmuch as they cannot obtain the permission to operate one large game. It appeared that they are operating these games on a "sneak" basis, although they are paying off the "night guys" in these Divisions in the amount of $200 a month.

The individual operating the East Boston game is PAUL's (probably INTISO) [redacted] JERRY said that PAUL came to him and said that the kid was in to shylocks for $30,000 and asked JERRY to help him. The kid was operating in East Boston for years in a small club and had a good blackjack game going there seven nights a week. He also took action on sports and had "the law straightened out himself."

Because of PAUL's request, JERRY contacted the kid, took 50% of his profits from his action, and now not only operates a blackjack game but a crap game and a barboot game.

He explained that ROCCO has complained that he feels that JERRY ANGIULO has no right in East Boston without his, ROCCO's, knowledge and desired that the game be closed. It was not clear to the informant whether the game was actually closed, but RAYMOND told them that if it is closed at the present time, leave it closed until he can contact ROCCO and straighten the situation out. If it is not closed, it should remain open until such time when ROCCO returns from vacation and the matter can be straightened out.

According to JERRY, ROCCO complained to the Captain of the Division and the Captain does not want the game to run. JERRY stated he would sit down with MIKE when he returns and straighten this situation out.

During the conversation concerning [redacted] trip to Florida, LIMONE advised that he received the information "from the kid we got that delivers the stuff for [redacted]". His name was [redacted] and was described as "a big loud mouth."

[redacted] Boston, Mass., was recently indicted by the Suffolk County Grand Jury. ANGIULO has obtained the list of prospective jurors and indicated he will try to fix this case.

PETER LIMONE is holding $1,000 worth of hot clothing for [redacted] (INU) and will attempt to sell same.

[redacted] aka [redacted] has contacted "the kid" (probably [redacted] of Boston) and told him he had a house robbery lined up for him in which the proceeds should be $40,000 to $50,000 in cash and diamonds.

It will be recalled that [redacted] was involved in the theft of jade from Falmouth Foreside, Me., which this office recovered in Boston.

[redacted] desires that [redacted] and his accomplice, after completing the robbery, leave the cash and jewels in the custody of [redacted] in Maine and then to travel to Boston. Thus, in the event they are stopped en route from Maine to Boston, they will possess none of the fruits of the crime and will be released.

Because of the fact that [redacted] did not furnish them any money for burning the place down in Maine and for completing another score, the kid has decided to rob the house (location not identified) with one other accomplice. This accomplice will hold the occupants of the house as hostages in the house for at least 1½ hours to furnish sufficient time for the kid to bring the loot from Maine to Boston. The accomplice will then leave the house and travel to Boston. In the event he is stopped, he will not be in possession of any of the loot and will, therefore, be released.

AMATO SANTANIELLO recently had a heart attack. About six weeks ago he went to the crap game in New York and won $17,000 the first night. He took $5,000 in cash from his winnings and furnished another $1,000 from the winnings to another individual at the game. The following night he returned to the game and lost not only his $11,000 he won the previous night, but an additional $3,500. Since that time the New York individuals are looking for SANTANIELLO to collect the $3,500.

In relation to the monies being collected by PATRIARCA and ANGIULO to be used by members of the group for legal fees, sickness, etc., in the event it is necessary, ANGIULO pointed out that the only individual they have not collected from is JOE MODICA. He owes $225 as of February.

PATRIARCA pointed out that the fund is approximately one year old and each member should have furnished the sum of $25 per month or $300 for the year, and instructed ANGIULO to collect same from MODICA.

In relation to the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Mass., ANGIULO stated that he had furnished $50,000 as a third mortgage to this Club. He asked [redacted], Worcester, Mass., [redacted] the Club, what the total bills were. He received a list indicating the total bills outstanding was $65,000. However, upon checking same, it was ascertained that the actual bills were $110,000. ANGIULO heard that three creditors were planning to force this Club into bankruptcy. He contacted bankruptcy lawyers [redacted] of Boston, Mass., Attorney [redacted] also of Boston, and Attorney [redacted] of Worcester, Mass., in connection with filing bankruptcy proceedings for this Club.

It is ANGIULO's intention to have [redacted] approach all creditors and attempt to pay them 20% on the bills owed to them and continue the business at Indian Meadow Country Club. If this is not successful, they will file under Chapter 11 and attempt to re-organize the Club.

ANGIULO has had the property assessed for $375,000 as being the fair market value. The total amount of money owed to him and to SBA and other mortgagees amounts to $400,000.

ANGIULO, when he furnished the third mortgage of $50,000, obtained agreements from [redacted] and [redacted] both of Worcester, Mass., in which they pledged their stock to ANGIULO. If the loan of $50,000 is not paid within four months, ANGIULO will foreclose on the loan.

JERRY has received advice from attorneys that they should close the Club and requested permission from PATRIARCA to close same until it is re-organized. PATRIARCA told him to call [redacted] and tell him that he should close the Club and, in any event, open up only for luncheons.

ANGIULO stated that the games mentioned above, namely East Boston, Dorchester, and South End sections of Boston, won the following:

East Boston	$7,800
Dorchester	3,200
South End game lost	1,100

At this time ANGIULO furnished PATRIARCA an undisclosed amount of money.

BS 92-118

ANGIULO stated that the office which was raided by the Massachusetts State Police was [redacted] office, formerly of East Boston, Mass. [redacted] this office for MIKE ROCCO, and this office only handles horse action and not numbers.

[redacted] recently contacted ANGIULO and requested a $5,000 loan, which ANGIULO refused. [redacted] who was a large sports bookmaker in the Boston area, had, at one time, approached ANGIULO and asked him if he could change 580-$1,000 bills which he had in his possession. ANGIULO bought seven or eight of the $1,000 bills and, during the recent contact, he asked [redacted] what he, [redacted] did with the remainder of the 580-$1,000 bills. [redacted] told him he made a connection in the bank and subsequently changed them for smaller bills. [redacted] told him that [redacted] wanted him to retire and go to Italy and reside there for the rest of their lives. He did not take this advice and subsequently lost all of this money in his operation.

ANGIULO indicated that this money was obtained from [redacted] gambling operation. [redacted] indicated that he had furnished a substantial amount of money throughout the years to MIKE ROCCO of East Boston, but that recently MIKE had also refused to loan him any money.

Informant also advised that SAM CUFARI is not yet back from Florida. PATRIARCA instructed him to make sure that [redacted] and HANNON are paid for the load of Carter's underwear they stole and turned over to acquaintances of CUFARI's in Springfield, Mass.

THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE INFORMANT'S POSITION NECESSITATES THAT EVERY EFFORT BE EXERCISED TO MAINTAIN HIS SECURITY.

On 2/26/64, Departmental Attorney [redacted] advised that Atty. [redacted] for the "Boston Herald-Traveler," had contacted USA W. ARTHUR GARRITY, JR. at Boston, Mass. in connection with PATRIARCA's suit against this newspaper. This libel suit by PATRIARCA was filed 10/1/63 against the Boston Herald-Traveler Corp. PATRIARCA claimed that an article published in the "Boston Traveler," 8/8/63, contained a false statement that he was king of Cosa Nostra in New England. He is seeking $5 million damage in Rhode Island and $5 million damage in Massachusetts.

[redacted] contacted [redacted] yesterday concerning this matter.

[redacted] informed him that the suit is to commence 4/6/64 and that he intends to obtain a deposition from PATRIARCA. He requested information from [redacted] concerning the activities of PATRIARCA so that he might utilize same in the questioning of PATRIARCA. [redacted] advised that he would refer him to the identities of PATRIARCA's associates, as contained in various newspaper articles concerning La Cosa Nostra. c

[redacted] was also of the opinion that information concerning the various meetings of PATRIARCA with other known hoodlums might not only be of benefit to the "Boston Herald-Traveler," but also might result in a perjury charge of PATRIARCA, as when the deposition is obtained, he, PATRIARCA, will be under oath.

[redacted] is underling of Patriarca, boss of La Cosa Nostra in New England. This same source advised on 2/3/64 that Patriarca had ordered an unidentified gambling figure in Providence to be killed. The person having the "contract" was not identified but Boston Office deduced likelihood that person to be killed was William Marfeo who, together with [redacted] believed to be killers of Providence hoodlum, Jackie Nazarian, in 1962. [redacted] tried and acquitted for Nazarian's murder in Providence in February, 1963. Information furnished by source 2/3/64 disseminated to local authorities and apparently [redacted] or prospective victim being watched by police.

appear, as HENRY TAMELLEO was allegedly supposed to have straightened this matter out. RAYMOND indicates he knew nothing concerning same.

On 2/17/64, NICK BIANCO of NYC contacted PATRIARCA. He advised that all the "canos" were at the wake and mentioned the name of [redacted] and others (which were not noted by the informant)..

NICK explained that one of the guys with PROFACI got married and that he, NICK, went to the wedding. He said that things are much better now, and he was treated with respect.

RAYMOND asked whether anyone had been named as boss, and NICK replied that nobody has been appointed yet. He explained that several individuals are campaigning in an effort to obtain the position of boss in the GALLO-PROFACI family, including four Captains. One of the individuals by the name of JOE (probably COLUMBO)(Phonetic), was one of the individuals campaigning for this position in the family.

Some unknown individual questioned NICK as to the campaigning by these individuals, stating that he did not think it was the correct procedure. NICK replied that he was never told by TOMMY or anyone else that you could not do it, and, therefore, assumed it was OK to campaign.

RAYMOND explained that the commission would decide who would be boss of the family and that he, BIANCO, should be a politician and contact TOMMY RYAN and ask RYAN whom he would desire to be appointed boss. Upon ascertaining the identity of this individual, he, NICK, should back RYAN and promote this particular individual for boss. NICK mentioned JOE COLUMBO as being a good candidate for the position, and PATRIARCA agreed that he would be more inclined towards JOE than anyone else he knew of.

Informant advised that PATRIARCA requested NICK to pick up an item, probably guns, and send them to Providence. BIANCO said that he would go to Broadway and pick them up and forward them to Providence. NICK, at this time, said that he had a .38 sub-nose revolver in his possession.

PATRIARCA asked him to leave this gun in the barber shop before he leaves Providence.

NICK stated that one of the individuals in New York (name not obtained by the informant, but probably referring to the wedding mentioned above) was angry because not many of the members of the family showed up. He said that LOUIS's (LNU) mother died about three days after the wedding and everyone showed up. RAYMOND stated that under the conditions existing today it is not necessary for members to show up at a wedding; however, they should show up at a wake for the family of a member.

BIANCO advised that he has the franchise for juke boxes with motion pictures attached above the juke box.

[redacted] of Newark has 10 of these machines in operation, and NICK has 500 to place in locations this year, and 5,000 next year. He is also involved in the production "for adults only" moving pictures which are being made for $60,000 per picture, and he intends to distribute them.

[redacted] entered, and there was mention of the fact that NICK did not have to get the piece as he, [redacted] had obtained one.

BIANCO asked when the election of the boss of the GALLO-PROFACI family would be voted upon, to which PATRIARCA replied, "You'll know when the time comes."

BIANCO also advised that he has got a good connection with the top INS official and described him as "the top man in the whole city." He stated that this

BS 92-118

INS official is related to [] in that he is an uncle of []. He suggested to PATRIARCA that if he is desirous of using this connection at any time, he, BIANCO, would make the contact.

BIANCO explained that there was some talk about the former boss of the family obtaining money from "all the working stiff's."

RAYMOND pointed out that the boss should never take money from his members, but he should be in a position to help them.

A verbatim transcript of BIANCO's contact with PATRIARCA will be made and furnished the Bureau and the NYO..

ANGIULO, aka, AR," and Miami airtel to Bureau dated 2/14/64 entitled, "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, AR; GENNARO J. ANGIULO, aka, AR."

The following is a verbatim transcript of conversation between GENNARO J. ANGIULO, aka, and RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, which occurred on 2/10/64, according to BS 837-C*.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that [redacted] of Miami, Fla. was complaining to him during his recent visit to Miami concerning the attempt by [redacted] an ANGIULO associate, to collect a loan in the amount of approximately $30,000 which is owed by [redacted] in the name of the realty company which [redacted] Johina Hotel to the Huntington Realty Trust Co., which is owned by ANGIULO. ANGIULO explained that [redacted] was acting under orders of ANGIULO and that he, [redacted] knew nothing concerning the loan, with the exception of the fact that [redacted] did owe ANGIULO $30,000. He thereupon attempted to persuade [redacted] to obtain a paper loan from a bank in Miami, which is believed to be the Bank of Miami Beach, Miami Beach, Fla., in order to repay the above-mentioned loan.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA the following conversation he had with [redacted]

JERRY: "These people that are doing this (apparently referring to [redacted] of NYC) are with your own family because I'll tell you, I found out [redacted] (PH) is made, [redacted] is made." [redacted] replied, 'Gee, I don't know.'

JERRY continues, "Look, I just came down here with $65,000. I don't like to give up my money either but on account of things that happened, this money has got to be made legitimate. Right now the thing is for you

"to fill out an application, to take it to a Bermuda bank; the Bermuda bank, in turn, gives you a deposit of $30,000 and gives you the right to draw on it. Now you decree that you want to draw on it. They draw it out of a bank in Nova Scotia which is an English possession. You draw the money. He [] says, 'Gee, I don't understand it. Now these guys got a note on you and how do you know if something happens, they want to collect the note.'

"I (JERRY ANGIULO) say, 'Hey [] I just told you they send you a deposit slip and the deposit slip tells right on it that you got 30,000 on deposit in the Anglo-American Bank; that the Nova Scotian bank lent you 30,000; the slip you got in your hand, all you have to do is sign it, which is for you, not the Federal Government. Sign it, send it back and they eradicate the loan. If you want a little further than that, why do you have to have any OK to begin with. []

[] the bank to begin with.
[] and [] (both PH) are with him.
[] All
you've got to do is speak to the right person.
(a few inaudible words mentioned).

"I will give you an OK. It's like you and I talking. He [] says, 'Well, that's a little different,' so he started to talk to me (JERRY ANGIULO) and says, 'I'd like to buy the hotel (Johina) and did you see [] because I told him you were intown. I (still [] told [] and he wants you (ANGIULO) to explain it to him.' I (ANGIULO) said 'OK.' I (ANGIULO) said, 'Now look! If you haven't got 30,000 in cash let me know. I'll come down with it and give it to you. Transact it. They cash the

" 'check and they give it back to me. It doesn't make any difference.' So he [] says. 'Things are a little rough now. I'll [] explain it to [] and [] because they got the hotel.' I'll (ANGIULO) tell you what to do and you just tell me it's OK, I'll make the arrangements and I'll come down myself.

"Do you follow me, RAYMOND?"

RAYMOND: "Yes."

JERRY: "I'll go for 2500 myself just as long as I get him off the books. I feel it is better to get it down as long as I get it off the books. I'm not worried about the 2500. I talked to [] [] said I don't know [] that good, but he must have a ton of money."

RAYMOND: "Is he (meaning [] with him?"

JERRY: "I don't want to push him to find out who he is under, but let me tell you something - these guys wound up with the Bank of Miami. The Bank of Miami has two million in assets. I says to him [], 'Hey, the guy's from your own family. All you got to do is go to New York and talk to him (meaning []). All he's got to do is call [] and give you a first mortgage on the hotel to buy it from the Judge. At least you know (At this point PATRIARCA interrupts).

RAYMOND: (Exact words not obtained by informant, but PATRIARCA mentions something about having a lot of money loaned out this way.)

BS 92-118
BS 92-446

JERRY: "Let me tell you about this mob. This Jew, [] was with [] once."

JERRY then explains that [] had borrowed on several occasions shylock money from [] in New York; that the last loan to [] from [] amounted to $25,000. [] reimbursed [] $15,000, leaving a balance of $10,000.

[] allegedly called [] in and told him that he has made a ton of money on him and that he has a balance now of only $10,000. He further told him that when he is able to get this money he can send it to him, but that he would not put any pressure on him to collect the money, nor would he "beef" to other people about it in an effort to collect same. JERRY agrees that if this happened with us (meaning PATRIARCA and ANGIULO) that they, too, would also not press the individual to collect the outstanding debt, particularly when they had made a substantial amount of money on various loans to the individual.

JERRY then continued as follows:

"I asked SAM (probably referring to SAM CUFARI of Springfield, Mass.) if the guy [] was made. SAM didn't know. [] is in the same family as [] but I don't know who he is under. That's where we left it off. I've got to wait for this money, the $65,000, to come through that we just transacted. When it comes back, I'll take the same money and go down there and I know I've got to sit there because [] doesn't understand it too good. So, now in a week of 10 days I'll go down there and say to him, 'You and you come with me, go to this guy. You do this ! Both of you borrow in your own names, then you cash it, then you put it in Rapalo, Inc. (PH). Then you give me a check for 29,500. That's for the loan on the books. The $500 is for the interest. Better still, when it comes through in the seven days, give me two certified checks

BS 92-118

" 'from the corporation, one for 29,000 and one for 500 for the interest and that's the end of the mortgage. This way you know you can eradicate it.' "

No further conversation was had relative to these loans.

From the above, in addition to referenced communications, it appears that the bank in Miami, which is probably the Bank of Miami Beach, is using its facilities through its [redacted] to obtain paper mortgages or loans to the racketeering element.

It will be recalled that [redacted] of Worcester, Mass. had effected a paper loan in this manner in the amount of $30,000 during the recent past.

Inquiry of The First National Bank of Boston, Mass., reflects that there is a bank named The Bank of Nova Scotia, with several branches in the Bahamas, and that possibly they have a branch bank located in Bermuda. This inquiry further reflected that many new banks are being formed in the Bahamas, a list of which is not available at this time.

The Miami Office is requested to review their case entitled, [redacted] Martin O. San Zamft, [redacted] Bank of Miami Beach, Miami Beach, Florida, [redacted], for all information concerning the Bank of Miami Beach.

It is to be noted that a [redacted] is believed presently to be [redacted] in the Bank of Miami Beach and that a [redacted] is associated with [redacted] in some way in this bank.

The Miami Office, at Miami Beach, Fla., will consider the possibility of ascertaining further details, through proper liaison inquiry with Legal Attaches in Bermuda and/or the Bahamas, concerning the afore-mentioned loans to [] and ANGIULO, which loans were probably made in the name of the Huntington Realty Trust Co. of Boston, Mass. and []

In the event the details of these loans are obtained, will also inquire as to all other loans to other top hoodlum figures.

Will also consider the possibility of utilizing the services of co-operative State or Federal bank examiners to ascertain details concerning these loans.

On 2/25/64, [] advised that he was contacted by GENNARO J. ANGIULO. ANGIULO told him [] he, ANGIULO, had a deal in Bermuda by which you could bring the hot money down, for example, $40,000, and, in return, receive $37,000 in cash. According to ANGIULO, he would receive a note of a loan for the $37,000 and also a release of this note to protect himself in the event the loan was recalled.

ANGIULO did not furnish any further information to the informant but told him that the source would be available to him if he so desired.

On 2/21/64, dissemination of information concerning payoffs to top Deputy [redacted] and others by members of the hoodlum element was made to Boston Police Commissioner EDMUND L. MC NAMARA in such a manner that it will not expose the source.

Comsr. MC NAMARA confidentially advised that, at the same time, he had received the information from District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE, Suffolk County, Boston, that after-hours establishments were operating, as set forth in Bosairtel to Bureau, 1/28/64. He also had received some rumors that some police officers were authorizing or tolerating these conditions. He said the information furnished to him concerning [redacted] is the first time the name of [redacted] has been specifically furnished as the individual who might be responsible for these conditions.

MC NAMARA said that when he received the information from District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE, he called together the police officials and demanded that if any such conditions existed, they be eliminated immediately. He specifically assigned Lt. [redacted] of the Boston PD, to personally check those locations complained of and, as a result of investigation by Det. Lt. [redacted] a complaint has been filed with the Boston Licensing Board against the Coliseum Restaurant, which had been operating as an after-hours establishment. Further, a police detail has been assigned to this establishment each night and is still in effect.

Det. Lt. [REDACTED] is regarded by this office as "being above reproach."

Comsr. MC NAMARA stated that on the basis of the material made available to him at this time, he does not have a sufficient basis to take administrative action against [REDACTED], but that in the re-organization of the Department in connection with the plan as outlined by the IACP, he will endeavor to place the control of vice under the direct command of [REDACTED] (NA). He said that in the event evidence can be developed against any police official sufficient for Grand Jury presentation, this action will be taken and indictments obtained, and these officials prosecuted.

Comsr. MC NAMARA said District Attorney GARRETT BYRNE has assured him that he will follow through with the prosecution of any police official concerning whom evidence is developed.

MC NAMARA was very appreciative of the information furnished him and requested that all additional information concerning corruption within his PD be furnished him orally, as soon as possible.

Informants of this office have advised that the after-hours establishments within the City of Boston have ceased their illegal sale of alcoholic beverages.

This situation will be followed closely and the Bureau will be kept advised of developments.

GRANITO stated that he contacted [] and [] denied knowing anything about the proposed hit. GRANITO mentioned that in order to contact [] he had to meet him at 2:30 or 3 o'clock in the morning, as [] did not want to be observed by authorities contacting anyone.

[] according to GRANITO, did not know anything about the hit.

[] recalled that the complaint concerning the numbers has been going on for several months, and that he recalled that he had sat in on a meeting during which time ABE SARKIS was critical of the manner in which [] was operating. GRANITO concluded that, because of SARKIS's criticism of the operation, he probably hired [] without [] or [] knowledge. When GRANITO finally did contact SARKIS, he admitted that he contracted with [] for the hit but denied ever mentioning to [] that [] or [] knew anything about it or were connected in any way.

PATRIARCA advised that if [] does complete the hit, they (referring to SARKIS and his associates) are going to live up to the deal whereby [] and HANNON will be able to get a week's pay from the operation.

GRANITO was unable to answer this question but stated that it is a dangerous situation in that [] frequently gets drunk and might attempt to shake down [] and SARKIS, as he has no respect for anybody.

PATRIARCA said that he is going to send word to [] that whatever he does with SARKIS is strictly between himself and SARKIS and that any promise of a week's pay should be straightened out with SARKIS prior to the time they hit []

PATRIARCA mentioned that [] (PH) recently visited PATRIARCA from New York and told him that everyone in New York has taken the 5th Amendment, and JOE BRUNO has appealed his case to the Supreme Court.

They also discussed Attorney [redacted] and were very complimentary of him [redacted] in that he "goes all the way."

GRANITO stated that [redacted] blew $30,000 in his business down there (probably in Florida) and that he was disgusted and wanted to sell same.

When discussing the general situation in New York, and particularly referring to FRANK COSTELLO, PATRIARCA praised COSTELLO in that when he was marked for a hit he did not run, nor did he ask for protection from the police, but stood his ground and finally "came through." He pointed out that he had recently beaten his deportation case.

RAYMOND then made the statement that "I have called every shot in New York for the last 18 years. I've been with them since 1929."

GRANITO replied, "That's right. The only guy that knows them is a guy like you that's been in trouble with them."

Informant was of the opinion that RAYMOND took credit for making several decisions concerning top echelon problems in the New York area during the past 18 years.

GRANITO advised that [redacted] requested him (SAM) to collect money owed to [redacted] from two different individuals, which GRANITO did. [redacted] was having trouble with one of these individuals and desired GRANITO to make arrangements to see PATRIARCA. GRANITO sent him to JERRY and allegedly received permission, but because the situation was straightened out, [redacted] did not desire to then contact PATRIARCA.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that there was an excellent article on the Cosa Nostra in the "New Yorker" magazine in issues dated February 9, 15 and 22, 1964.

SAM advised that [redacted] the Stork Club in Charlestown, Mass., sent his "kindest regards" to PATRIARCA.

GRANITO explained that local law enforcement has closed down all after-hours drinking establishments. GRANITO, who has an interest in the Coliseum Restaurant, an after-hours drinking establishment, stated that prior to this recent pressure on after-hours places, he tipped off [redacted] whenever he could as to the presence of law enforcement, and [redacted] did the same for GRANITO.

PATRIARCA, when [redacted] name was mentioned, indicated that he knew [redacted] and was very favorable towards him.

GRANITO met [redacted] local Boston bookmaker. [redacted] told him that he thinks the IRS will eventually gather sufficient evidence to convict him on income tax violations.

According to GRANITO, ABE SARKIS is also in trouble with IRS. He said that SARKIS has gotten in on a lot of swindles and never keeps [redacted] informed of same. When he, SARKIS, gets in trouble in these swindles he comes to GRANITO in an attempt to straighten the matter out. GRANITO always tells him to contact [redacted] and tell him of the particular situation, but has found out that SARKIS never tells [redacted] the truth concerning any particular situation.

PATRIARCA advised that [redacted] Revere, Mass., is positively no good and even worse than he first thought he was. He said the biggest mistake he ever made was to meet him on one occasion (but did not go into details of same).

The bookmaking activity in Revere is "very tight," according to GRANITO. Law enforcement is putting the pressure on all gamblers in Revere; however, "MAXIE" (probably CATALDO) is OK. [redacted] is alright. [redacted] is being checked by the Massachusetts Crime Commission for being on the payroll.

but he is doing alright. According to GRANITO, the Jews have taken over Revere. PATRIARCA then stated that he told [] that he should not buck the present regime, because, if he did, he would probably lose everything that he now has going for him, and that he should play a "waiting game."

RAYMOND heard that [] might be indicted.

GRANITO pointed out that [] (LNU) is the "bag man" for [] and that he has over $25,000 in banks which the Internal Revenue are checking. IRS hopes to get sufficient evidence against [] and have him testify against []

GRANITO also pointed out that if they (meaning IRS) are able to get [] (PH), they might be able to get [] (He did not indicate who [] was.)

GRANITO also advised IRS is investigating [] the Wonderland Dog Track. GRANITO described him as a millionaire and did not indicate he was mixed up in the rackets in any manner.

TED FUCILLO, Boston, Mass., furnished PATRIARCA an unknown amount of money. They discussed the IRS investigation of FUCILLO. FUCILLO is concerned about money he has invested for life insurance policies - one totalling $50,000 and the other totalling $25,000. The $50,000 policy is made out in the name of []. He also has another one, amount unknown, in the name of []. He pointed out that he has prepaid $80,000 on the above policies, the face value of which is $100,000.

RAYMOND explained that until ROBERT KENNEDY became Attorney General, the insurance companies would not release the names of persons holding policies or the amount of money paid on these policies; however, KENNEDY had the law changed, and they now furnish all such information.

[] Providence, R. I. hoodlum, discussed various problems they were having in their efforts to kill an individual (not mentioned, but believed to be WILLIAM MARFEO.)

He stated that he and LOUIS TAGLIANETTI have set up plans whereby they will kill this individual Friday, 2/28/64, in the Federal Hill section of Providence, R. I. The hit was planned for the back of a pool room in which there are no exits, except a small window. TAGLIANETTI was to carry a shotgun and in the event the victim was able to get by [redacted] on his way to the front door, TAGLIANETTI would be in a position to kill him with the shotgun.

The above information was furnished to Col. HOWARD A. FRANKLIN (NA), Chief of Police, Providence, R. I., in such a manner that it would not jeopardize the source.

It should be noted that on Friday, 2/28/64, a heavy snowstorm fell in the Providence area during the evening. This snowstorm could possibly be the reason for the above hit not being carried out.

[redacted] also advised he received word from [redacted] of Charlestown, Mass., who is serving time for an armed robbery in the Rhode Island State Penitentiary, that he, [redacted] desires to see "The Greek" and, further, that this matter was extremely important.

RAYMOND stated that [redacted] is a friend of JERRY ANGIULO's and that he, RAYMOND, would get word to [redacted] through JERRY. [redacted] could be [redacted] convicted bank robbery from Lexington, Mass.)

Rebosaairtel, 3/10/64.

On 3/10/64, JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, Providence, R. I., discussed the Berkshire Downs Race Track with PATRIARCA, but the informant, BS 837-C*, was unable to ascertain the details concerning this.

There were comments to the effect that SAM RIZZO withdrew $2,000 - $3,000 from the bank account and was using same and, further, that [redacted] Providence, R. I., wanted complete control of the track.

On 3/11-12/64, PATRIARCA was at his place of business, but no significant developments occurred.

THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE INFORMANT'S POSITION NECESSITATES THAT EVERY EFFORT BE EXERCISED TO MAINTAIN HIS SECURITY.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

SAUL FRIEDMAN, an attorney at Providence, Rhode Island, who is in the law firm of Curran and Friedman, Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R. I., is the attorney for RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA and has been for several years. It appears from investigation and from contacts with BS 837-C* that PATRIARCA has FRIEDMAN handle all of his legal work; that FRIEDMAN also handles all business deals and financial ventures for PATRIARCA; and whenever anyone comes to PATRIARCA in order to have the latter invest money or discuss a possible business venture, PATRIARCA refers them to his attorney, SAUL FRIEDMAN, who will listen to the proposition and then discuss it with PATRIARCA.

It appears from investigation and from BS 837-C* that SAUL FRIEDMAN would be the person who is aware of PATRIARCA's complete business transactions, both legal and illegal, and may be the person who would be in a position to furnish information as to where PATRIARCA would have his money.

SAUL FRIEDMAN has a suite of offices within the area covered by Room 709 Industrial Bank Building, Providence, R.I. In addition to FRIEDMAN and CURRAN, four other attorneys, [redacted] and Associates - Accountants and [redacted] the Northwest Finance Co. maintain office space within the suite.

CHARLES CURRAN has been constantly mentioned by BS 837-C* in regard to defending hoodlums in the Rhode Island area who are associates of PATRIARCA and recommended to him by PATRIARCA. It should be recalled CURRAN was the attorney who defended [redacted] on a charge of murder, the victim being JACKIE NAZARIAN, a local Providence hoodlum. Concerning this, BS 837-C* advised during the trial that many efforts were made by PATRIARCA and his Information has also been developed that whenever THOMAS LUCHESE, New York Top Hoodlum, desires to contact PATRIARCA, LUCHESE calls PATRIARCA's attorney and the latter lets PATRIARCA know the time and place LUCHESE wants to meet him in New York, Providence, Rhode Island or elsewhere. In view of this, it would appear that SAUL FRIEDMAN and CHARLES CURRAN are acting as criminal associates of PATRIARCA.

It is requested that Bureau authority be granted to conduct a survey to install misurs in the offices of FRIEDMAN and CURRAN and if full security can be assured installation be made at the time of the survey in order that the number of entries be kept to a minimum in the interests of security.

Our Boston Office has requested authority to conduct a survey and, if feasible, install a microphone surveillance (misur) in the Providence, Rhode Island office of Saul Friedman, who is the attorney of the notorious New England racket leader Raymond Patriarca.

Friedman and his partner, Charles Curran, have a long-time affiliation with the leaders of organized criminal activity in New England. Our sources have reported that whenever Thomas Luchese, notorious New York underworld figure, desires to contact Patriarca, he does so through Friedman, who in turn advises Patriarca.

BS 837-C*, one of our most productive sensitive sources, has revealed that Friedman is aware of all of Patriarca's business transactions, both legal and illegal. Patriarca is known to have referred many individuals suggesting financial dealings with him to Friedman to discuss the matter.

At the present time there are no Federal charges pending against Patriarca, although Internal Revenue Service is also conducting an investigation of his activity.

ACTION

The establishment of a misur in the office of Friedman would have an extraordinary potential to furnish us with a keen insight into many facets of racketeering activity in New England, including additional information regarding the underworld's corruption of public officials and close ties with political leaders. In the event Boston can effect this coverage, careful consideration would have to be given to the problem of dissemination. This will be met by not disseminating any portion of the information the source provides, if such dissemination would, in any way, compromise our source.

Attached for your approval is an appropriate letter authorizing Boston to make the installation, provided full security assured.

Another UNMAN desired to borrow $10,000 from PATRIARCA to be used in his business. PATRIARCA told him that he would have to talk the matter over with his associate, [redacted] and would let UNMAN know his decision at a later date.

On 3/18/64, informant advised that UNMAN told PATRIARCA that they got nailed by the law and UNMAN blamed the stupid bartenders for this alleged bookie raid in Rhode Island. One of the kids got $1,000 fine. UNMAN now allegedly desires to break up the partnership with the kid that got nailed and requests instructions from PATRIARCA as to the proper way to dissolve their partnership. (Apparently, the kid who was fined wants to take the fine out of the business, and UNMAN is against this.) PATRIARCA instructs UNMAN that if he can afford it, pay the $1,000 fine for the kid to avoid hard feelings. PATRIARCA and UNMAN are very critical of the kid's lawyer because of the kid getting a $1,000 fine, and this being his first offense and a clean record. PATRIARCA further stated that CURRAN can go into Court for $250, with two and three-time losers, and get them off with only $100 fines.

Another UNMAN discusses with PATRIARCA a business enterprise (the nature of which was unknown to the informant) in which [redacted] (possibly [redacted] Milford, Mass.) has 50%; RAYMOND has 25%; and himself, 25%. [redacted] was also implicated in this enterprise, but the informant did not know to what extent.

HENRY TAMELEO and [redacted] discuss with PATRIARCA a $3,000 debt owed by another individual, possibly one [redacted] (LNU). HENRY says he and [redacted] have 25% a piece. [redacted] stated that he met [redacted] at the Maridor Restaurant (Framingham, Mass.) and gave him the $450. However, [redacted] still owes [redacted] some money, and [redacted] said he is going to push him for this money. TAMELEO further stated that he talked to [redacted] about this money matter in his car at the Biltmore. Allegedly, [redacted] gets money from a deal [redacted] and TAMELEO are involved in, but [redacted] always complains he is not getting his proper share.

TAMELEO also referred to JOHNNY CANDELMO as a "hungry guy" when it comes to money.

It appeared that TAMELEO and [] were arguing relative to money owed to each of them; however, informant did not know the details of same.

TAMELEO told [] and PATRIARCA that when he was with [] in Woonsocket (R. I.) TAMELEO claimed he was giving [] $1,000 per month. [] stated that "they" just opened up a high class joint in [] a place where all the fighters go, and indicated that [] owns either 15% or 50% of this joint.

Also, on 3/18/64, BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA indicated that he might go to Pennsylvania, the exact time and place not known to informant. No further information obtained by the informant relative to this possible travel by PATRIARCA.

New York, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh Offices alerted to possible travel of PATRIARCA to Pennsylvania by separate communication.

According to above informant, PATRIARCA still in Providence, R. I. as of 3/19/64.

No attempt should be made to establish misur coverage in the office of Saul Friedman, Room 709, Industrial Bank Building, Providence, Rhode Island, without specific Bureau authority.

When you determine that establishment of a misur at this location is warranted, promptly submit your recommendations.

Closely follow this matter, particularly with respect to the security of BS S37-C* and keep Bureau advised of all developments.

NOTE: Bulet 3/3/64 authorized BSO to install misur in the office of the subject's hoodlum attorney, Saul Friedman. Through a misur in subject's office, it was determined that the subject had a discussion concerning the possibility of locating misurs. In view of this development BS discontinued completion of installing misur in Friedman's office. BS reports that efforts will be made to reinstall source in Friedman's office when circumstances indicate this is desirable. It is recommended that BS not be given blanket authority to install this misur but to resubmit their recommendations when circumstances justify this action.

GENNARO J. ANGIULO, Boston, Massachusetts, accompanied by PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA. JERRY stated that he went to Florida recently and contacted [] in an effort to obtain the $29,500 loan to ANGIULO. ANGIULO took $30,000 in cash with him and upon arrival there gave this cash to the two kids at the Johanina Hotel as he did not want to be caught with same. He saw [] the following day and was ready to "transact" this money through [] in the Bank of Miami Beach. [] however, was not agreeable to do this and pointed out to ANGIULO that it was his understanding that both he, [] and JERRY would go to [] in NYC in order to raise money and "transact" same through [] to purchase the Johanina Hotel. [] further was of the opinion that the $29,500 would remain in that portion to purchase the hotel. ANGIULO told [] that this was not the agreement; that he was to get his $29,500 back. To settle the issue they contacted a Jewish lawyer and accountant which [] employs and who are former IRS employees. At this conference, ANGIULO ascertained that the $29,500 loan that he made through the Huntington Realty Company at Boston, Massachusetts, to the Rapata, Inc., which owns the Johanina Hotel, was turned over to [] (LNU) and []. This made it impossible for ANGIULO to sue or foreclose on the Rapata, Inc., in order to recover his loan. This is not in agreement with information furnished by ANGIULO to IRS and he believes it might get him in trouble. He thereupon his attempting to make arrangements with PATRIARCA, [] and [] to return the $29,500 as of 1962.

While in Florida, ANGIULO saw []. He contacted [] through [] and met him at a restaurant. [] stated that the heat in Miami is tremendous and if he is able to obtain sufficient money, he will leave the country. On a confidential basis he told ANGIULO that a lot of legitimate "suckers" are turning, apparently referring to legitimate businessmen who are testifying for the Government. He warned PATRIARCA through ANGIULO that if he ever did anything in Florida that he should be very careful as some of the legitimate people are "ratting" on them. [] stated that a guy he cannot understand is []. [] is not a friend of theirs and he is no good. It appeared that some individual, probably [] and an individual named [] (PH) contacted PATRIARCA during the recent past and PATRIARCA was checking these individual out as they were acquaintances of []. [] explained that [] could probably have him in "jeopardy". He explained that he came into Miami Beach as a man of wealth. After three or four months of checking, he ascertained he was not worth three dollars. He realized that the individual presented "a hell of a front" and decided to use him in the future if a situation arose. Shortly thereafter, a situation did arise concerning the purchase of a motel. [] used [] or [] (Informant was unable to ascertain which individual) as a front to borrow from the Teamsters Union and "to give it to these people". [] was to receive $6,000 to arrange this loan and [] was to receive an additional $2,000. He had to pull teeth to get the $6,000 and he is still owed $2,000.

[] had trouble with [] and then the third guy, [] (PH) got in the deal to "claim" the [] so that he could get a divorce. According to ANGIULO, it all wound up in a regemen(PH). [] explained that this situation could put him behind bars. He warned RAYMOND to be careful of the individual and JERRY told him they would have nothing to do with him.

ANGIULO stated that [] sent the "kid" to see [] at Wagon Wheels. He was supposed to return at 2:00 am. [] called [] They waited until 4:00 am at Wagon Wheels but the "kid" did not return. ANGIULO stated that [] has $2,000 still coming to him from the theft of Carters underwear in September, 1963, from the individual in Springfield. PATRIARCA told JERRY that he had told SAM CUFARI that he, PATRIARCA, had given [] the $2,000 and that the individuals in Springfield now owe PATRIARCA the $2,000. CUFARI said he would make arrangements to have the $2,000 paid to PATRIARCA in small amounts to which PATRIARCA was agreeable. ANGIULO said that he would probably furnish [] with money as he is on the "lamb" and expects to be contacted by him for this money as he will be in need of same.

ANGIULO spoke of a theft of a trailer load of Gillette razor blades but the Informant was unable to ascertain the details of same.

PATRIARCA spoke of a [] from Chelsea, Massachusetts, a junk dealer, and it appeared that [] was involved in purchasing stolen material, but the Informant was unable to ascertain the details of same.

JERRY ANGIULO was critical of [] for going to JOE BURNS in order to make arrangements to meet ANGIULO. This concerned a purchase of a building by ANGIULO from [] apparently was questioned by IRS concerning this.

ANGIULO was asked and received permission from PATRIARCA to arrange for a conference between MICHAEL ROCCO of East Boston and JOE BURNS of Chelsea, Mass., and discuss the payment of half numbers in the numbers business. It appeared that JOE BURNS has continued to pay the full amount on all numbers and that the other group in Boston and East Boston are still paying on some half numbers. PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to tell BURNS that he wants them to get together and agree to the half numbers and not have one undercut the other.

[] Boston, Massachusetts, desires to contact PATRIARCA in Providence. PATRIARCA stated it apparently is in relation to a barboot game [] wants to operate which RAYMOND refuses to furnish permission. If it is on any other matter, PATRIARCA will allow [] to visit him.

ANGIULO asked PATRIARCA what is going on in New York. PATRIARCA replied that the first time he went down there was in regard to the new boss in Brooklyn and the second time [] wanted to see him about that guy []. He stated there was a lot of trouble in New York but did not go into detail.

ANGIULO mentioned that SAMMY GRANITO was trying to make those two "kids" whom he described as "good kids" but "the effort is not there". RAYMOND stated that these two "kids" had a contract for a long time and has yet have not fulfilled the contract. The name of [] probably referring to [] of Somerville, Massachusetts, was mentioned but the Informant was unable to ascertain details of same.

ANGIULO stated that [] and [] are very close to [] and are going on several scores. He stated that "WHIMPY" BENNETT told ANGIULO that this group desired to take MYER LANSKY in a hotel. ANGIULO told them that if they did take MYER LANSKY they would be killed and subsequently these individuals backed away from MYER LANSKY.

There is mention of a big card game in Rhode Island but the Informant did not ascertain the details.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to tell [] to send down more money as he only paid $1,500 last year.

ANGIULO complained about the heat of various investigations and said that the only good thing is "that we have not lost one of the locals - not one of them".

PETER LIMONE stated that Sgt. [] (PH) apparently on the Rhode Island State Police, told him that anytime he could do a favor to contact him and furnish his address to LIMONE. Lt. [] told them about ways of beating a lie detector test.

ANGIULO stated that [] (LNU), [] was talking to his, [] who are very friendly. [] told him not to trust [] as he, [] hates ANGIULO. [] told [] that last month [] gave her $4,500 for the month and [] expressed surprise at this amount, at which time [] stated that this amount is a nominal month and in some months she is furnished a lot more money from [] Upon questioning by [] [] stated that she keeps the money in the doctor's safe. ANGIULO stated that [] is married to a doctor who was at one time charged with rape. This doctor lives on [] Lynn, Mass., and JERRY ANGIULO is checking same in an effort to line it up for a score.

ANGIULO asked PATRIARCA whether "SONNY" McDONOUGH of the Governor's Council, had contacted Mass. Parole Board [] in connection with [] forthcoming parole. PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to contact FEUCILEON and have FEUCILEON contact McDONOUGH in connectin with same..

ANGIULO advised that he is attempting to make arrangements to obtain the numbers business in the Boston Boat Yard, Quincy, Mass. The Informant advised that no pertinent activity took place on March 20 or March 21, 1964.

PATRIARCA, during the conversation, pointed out that the FBI were not allowed to harass people the way they had formerly done because of a recent Federal Court decision in Chicago restricting the surveillance by the FBI to one automobile.

On 3/27/64, GENNARO J. ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that [redacted] went to SBA and took out an assignment on the first mortgage of the [redacted]. He was able to do this, being the [redacted] of the note. JERRY mentioned several plans in which they can operate the IMCC, one of which was to lease the club to [redacted] or [redacted] at the rate of $1,000 per week. JERRY was of the opinion that they would be lucky to get their original investment out of the club.

GENNARO ANGIULO advised that he was talking to "SAMMY" (probably GRANITO) about the swindle in which [redacted] Boston hoodlum, swindled [redacted] notorious Boston bookmaker, out of a large sum of money by promising him a considerable amount of "hot" liquor.

RAYMOND told ANGIULO to tell "PUNCHY" MC LAUGHLIN to contact [redacted] and have him return the money to [redacted].

ANGIULO stated that he is still trying to contact JOE BURNS in relation to the half numbers mentioned previously.

It will be recalled that JOE BURNS apparently pays the full amount on all numbers hit by number pool players. ANGIULO has always had several numbers on which he would only pay half of the "hit."

ANGIULO is very adamant in straightening this situation out so that BURNS will also maintain a list of the same half numbers as he (ANGIULO).

In view of possibility the subject will have a check made in an effort to determine if there is microphone coverage of his office, you must be continually alert to detect any action which could jeopardize the security of BS 837-C*. If you determine such a check is contemplated, the power for BS 837-C* should be turned off.

Any information regarding the identity of the individual making a check should be promptly furnished to the Bureau.

The Bureau must be kept currently advised of any developments in this matter.

NOTE: This matter has been discussed with [redacted] of the Electronics Section of the Laboratory. BS 837-C* is a most valuable misur reporting on the activities of the subject who is a leading hoodlum in New England. Information has been received that he may have a check made to determine if there is misur coverage in his office. Rebulet dated 3/3/64.

On 3/15/64, a survey was conducted on the offices of SAUL FRIEDMAN, Room 709, Industrial Bank Bldg., Providence, R. I. At this time an installation was partially made and was to be completed on 3/22/64.

On 3/19/64, BS 837-C* advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO of Boston, Mass. was at PATRIARCA's place of business and discussed various items. After approximately one hour of conversation, PATRIARCA asked ANGIULO, "Somebody was telling me you got a guy that can tell whether a joint was bugged or not?" ANGIULO replied he had some equipment but did not know how it worked, and asked the question, "Why?"

PATRIARCA replied that he wanted his office checked out.

ANGIULO explained that SAM (probably CURARE of Springfield, Mass.) knew the individual who was a "specialist" from New York in this type of work. Thereafter, arrangements were made for JERRY to contact SAM and tell SAM to contact PATRIARCA.

During this conversation it was apparent that ANGIULO was only concerned with an installation which operates on batteries and transmits by air waves, without additional wires attached.

According to JERRY, the "specialist" from New York is the individual who found a "gaff" in a telephone in some guy's house. From the results of a machine used, he ascertained that "there was something there," and, from further inspection, found a fourth wire coming out of the telephone which eventually led to the mike.

In view of the fact that PATRIARCA had discussed various items of a confidential nature with ANGIULO and others prior to the time he asked JERRY of the identity of the electronics specialist, it is believed that he, PATRIARCA, was not concerned particularly with his own office but that of another location. Further, since the installation of BS 837 C*, there has been no concern on the part of PATRIARCA relative to the possible monitoring device located in his office.

It will be recalled that on several occasions that PATRIARCA, in an attempt to ascertain how certain facts have become known to law enforcement, has always determined in his mind that it was because of a telephone tap on another phone or loose talk by those involved. This is the first occasion in which PATRIARCA showed a definite interest and initiated the conversation concerning the hiring of an electronics specialist.

Experience by BS 837 C* reflects that PATRIARCA does not furnish full details of any interest he may have to anyone but the individual directly involved. If he wants to ascertain information from one person, he inquires only for the type of information he so desires and does not furnish the true reason to the person he inquired of.

BS 92-118 sub 2

After a thorough discussion of PATRIARCA's contemplated action, it was deemed advisable to remove that part of the installation in FRIEDMAN's office. This was done on the possibility that if PATRIARCA does have a specialist come to Providence, he may have him do all the locations where PATRIARCA has an interest which might include FRIEDMAN's. Therefore, until more information is forthcoming from BS 837 C* and so not to eliminate a future possibility on FRIEDMAN, the part installation was removed on March 22, 1964. However, efforts will be made to re-install this source when information from BS 837 C* so dictates.

This occurred several months ago, and the representative of the bank, [redacted] made no mention of same until recently. At this time, [redacted] the IMCC, paid the bank a large sum of money for the mortgage payment. During his conversation with [redacted] told him of the above. BS 92-118

In general conversation with [] also told [] of the assignment of creditors of the IMCC. Immediately after [] left, [] called SBA and told them of the assignment of creditors. This being in violation of the SBA rules and regulations, they foreclosed the mortgage.

[] upon recontact, was told that the SBA would reconsider negotiations if the assignment to creditors is successful. In any event, ANGIULO is of the opinion that renegotiations will not be successful to obtain the first mortgage of $160,000 of the IMCC and he, therefore, would have to pay off this amount to SBA.

ANGIULO also has to obtain an additional $17,000 or $18,000 to pay off the assignment to creditors, making a total of $177,000 which he would have "to get up." He intends to do this by sending [] to Florida and arrange to obtain a paper loan of $60,000 through [] of the Bank of Miami Beach. In addition, he will request [] of Miami to pay the $30,000 he, [] owes the Huntington Realty Trust Co. He has an additional $40,000 or $50,000 which he can use as legitimate money. This will make a total of $130,000 or $140,000, which he can then use to pay off the SBA mortgage. In addition, he can borrow approximately $20,000 in the Boston area on paper.

He then will take ownership of the Club, inasmuch as the stock of [] and [], both of Worcester, Mass., has been assigned to him, ANGIULO, in the event they are unable to repay their loans.

During this conversation, ANGIULO stated that he ascertained that [] has an application for a $400,000 loan through [] at the Bank of Miami Beach for the purchase of the Joahnina Hotel. This loan, apparently, is also a "paper loan."

According to ANGIULO, [] probably got the "OK" from [] of NYC.

ANGIULO also obtained permission from PATRIARCA to contact [] in the event [] does not pay him the $30,000.

ANGIULO was advised by PATRIARCA that [] (probably referring to Attorney [] of Providence, R. I.) has a connection with SBA and would probably be in a position to use this connection for renegotiation of a loan by the IMCC. ANGIULO also, during the conversation, was very critical of [] and told RAYMOND that "he never tells the truth." RAYMOND said that if [] does visit him he will tell him that ANGIULO has his "OK" to do what he is planning to accomplish in connection with the IMCC.

AMATO SANTANIELLO, who recently died, was receiving $100 per week from a crap game in the vicinity of Boston. He owed $16,000 in loan shark money, which was being taken from the crap game and paid off to ANGIULO and others who were owed money by AMATO.

[] inquired of ANGIULO as to AMATO's interest in the crap game. JERRY practically threw him out when he made this inquiry. He received permission from RAYMOND to continue taking $100 per week from the crap game until the debt is paid, at which time RAYMOND will decide as to who will get this money.

[] of Providence, R. I. was asked by PATRIARCA whether he intended to move on a score, as ANGIULO had received word concerning same. [] pointed out that [] from Hartford, Conn. introduced [] (probably [] of Boston, Mass.) to []. According to PATRIARCA, [] is "not worth 20¢." JERRY cautioned [] to not rely on [] as he has no judgment and cannot be trusted.

Informant was unable to ascertain any details concerning this score.

JERRY is of the opinion that [] of the Pan American Finance Co., 85 State St., Boston, Mass., is "mixed up a lot in narcotics."

[redacted] of Springfield, Mass., contacted LARRY BAIONE at Massachusetts State Prison. LARRY told him that [redacted] who was very friendly with [redacted] of Boston, Mass., had stated that [redacted] was the individual who was responsible for the shooting up of ANGIULO's car several months ago. ANGIULO and PATRIARCA are of the opinion that [redacted] would be "too smart" for this." However, ANGIULO was to contact [redacted] who was, in turn, to recontact BAIONE in jail to ascertain from [redacted] who was also incarcerated, more details concerning this story.

[redacted] (PH), a Florist from Dorchester, Mass., had contacted an individual in Providence, R. I., requesting that he assist him in keeping an individual (believed to be [redacted]) off his back. It appeared that [redacted] had borrowed money from [redacted] and [redacted] was pressing him for same. PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to find out who [redacted] was and, if he was OK, to contact [redacted] and instruct him to cease bothering [redacted]

ANGIULO also asked concerning a person named [redacted] (PH), who was in some difficulty, which the informant did not know. [redacted] claimed that he was friendly with [redacted] and furnished the following numbers for [redacted] through whom ANGIULO could check to find out that he, [redacted] was "OK."

Plaza 8-2974
Tampa, Florida [redacted]

[redacted] also claimed to be friendly with [redacted] and [redacted] from Miami. [redacted] is also with [redacted] and [redacted]

ANGIULO stated that he was going to check with [redacted] at Miami, and if he is unable to find out from [redacted] whether [redacted] is "OK," he would then contact [redacted] directly and ask permission from RAYMOND to do this.

PATRIARCA did furnish him his "OK."

During this time PETER LIMONE pointed out that the last number JERRY received for [redacted] to contact [redacted] was for a phone booth and that it was "a clean phone." LIMONE did not think that the above two numbers were the same as the "clean phone."

On 3/5/64, the informant advised that LOUIS TAGLIANETTI was arrested by [redacted] for "carrying a concealed weapon" which was a tear-gas gun advertised in numerous magazines. The gun is used mainly for the use of females who, if and when accosted, would shoot the gun to ward off attackers. TAGLIANETTI claimed that the gun would not fire any bullets; however, [redacted] arrested him and he is presently on bail.

On 3/6/64, the informant advised that Mrs. PATRIARCA was passing blood and believed by RAYMOND PATRIARCA to be in serious condition.

On 3/9/64, informant advised that an individual, believed to be NICK BIANCO of NYC, contacted PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA told him that he, NICK, and his people are for COLUMBO (ph); further, that they are 99% for COLUMBO, and this was out up last night (referring to 3/8/64).

According to the informant, he is of the opinion that this referred to the coming election of a new boss of the GALLO family in Brooklyn, N. Y.

PATRIARCA stated that everyone was satisfied with BIANCO and his fellows.

NICK stated that they will probably do it the same way as the last time - at the restaurant; that it would be simple if he wants a cup of coffee.

RAYMOND indicated that there be coffee one place and a banquet at another place.

BS 92-118

BIANCO stated he has two appointments before he returns, where he will bring back $1,000. Informant did not know the details of the above.

Additional information concerning the above is being forwarded separately to New York.

[redacted] has heard many rumors in the Miami business community that new owners of the Bank of Miami Beach are connected with hoodlum element and are in the bank primarily for the purpose of making illegal loans to people with whom they are connected in New York and Philadelphia.

He described the two principals in the new ownership as follows:

1. [redacted] Long Island, owner of the [redacted], N. Y.

2. [redacted] Long Island, N. Y.,

[redacted] New York. [redacted] and [redacted] are apparently both connected with M. M. Trading Corporation and the Rialto Cafe, both of which are located at 150 West 49th Street.

He advised that it is also strongly rumored that [redacted] former employee of [redacted] who is functioning in the bank as [redacted] is still connected with [redacted] and [redacted] at the bank in spite of his statements to the contrary.

[redacted] states he has had recent contact with both [redacted] and [redacted] and in general conversation has confirmed in his own mind that the rumors concerning them are true.

He characterized [redacted] in

It is noted that the above-mentioned Miami case has been completed and will be presented to the USA, Miami,

Reference your airtel 3/26/64,

In paragraph 1, page 8 of referenced communication, mention is made of a material used by ice cream manufacturers which can be used in arson. This material allegedly is not extinguishable by water but in fact creates more fire when water is spread on it.

The information is not sufficient for the FBI Laboratory to identify the material. It is possible that the material is a flammable organic liquid used in the processing of ice cream, for example, in refrigeration equipment. Almost all organic liquids are flammable. Many are flammable even if diluted with an equal or greater than equal volume of water. Any flammable organic liquids purchased in relatively large quantities by ice cream plants could be considered as possibilities.

Discreet inquiry at reliable ice cream manufacturing plants may furnish some suggestions which will permit evaluation of the information in referenced communication.

According to GRANITO, [] is the "hottest individual in town" and probably one of the most hated.

[] went to see [] Boston hoodlum, at Wagon Wheels, Route 1, Danvers, Mass. The kid (possibly referring to HAROLD HANNON) went in to see [] and left [] in the parking area. [] told him to come back in a couple of hours. [] then called [] who immediately proceeded to Wagon Wheels. They waited for [] to return from 2:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m., and when he did not return, they left.

GRANITO did not indicate when this incident occurred, nor did he indicate if he had any further information concerning the present whereabouts of []. Both GRANITO and PATRIARCA were very complimentary of []. According to GRANITO, [] "pushed himself in" on Wagon Wheels.

The previous week, JOE BURNS (True Name JOSEPH ANSELMO of Arlington, Mass.) apparently had "a beef" with GRANITO concerning the numbers business. BURNS claimed that he did not know that SAM was with [] (probably []). [] has been working in his (probably BURNS's) office four or five years and took numbers on the side. In the last eight or nine months he has been laying off numbers, which he picked up on the side, to SAM GRANITO through []. BURNS wanted this stopped. The outcome of this "beef" was not known to the informant.

GRANITO spoke of the two kids, who apparently are the same two that were referred to previously by GENNARO J. ANGIULO. These kids are extremely friendly with GRANITO, and GRANITO allegedly desires to make them members of La Cosa Nostra. One of the individuals is JOE from East Boston, Mass. These two kids have a contract to kill one of the [].

PATRIARCA made reference to this on 3/19/64, stating that he furnished them the contract and could not understand why they had not gotten [].

GRANITO furnished PATRIARCA the details concerning the arrest of [] by IRS. They both agreed that it involved entrapment and feel that [] will beat the case.

GRANITO also referred to [] as [] and PATRIARCA stated that [] from Providence, R. I. was working for [] but did not furnish any details concerning same.

TEDDY FUCILLO, Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA.

FUCILLO stated that FRANK FERRARA (formerly of Boston, Mass., but now of Miami Beach) has left Florida. It appeared that he had a stamp of some type made up, by the use of which he swindled some people out of $80,000. [] was swindled for $2,500, and [] guy was swindled for $18,000.

It appeared that by the use of this stamp FERRARA was able to take out a mortgage on the Flag Company where he probably was employed.

ITSP

FERRARA's house is to be auctioned off. PATRIARCA is interested in this house in Florida. He told FUCILLO to ask [] whether he would take $20,000 for same and assume the present mortgage.

NICK BIANCO, NYC, advised that everyone in New York is now happy with JOE COLUMBO. JOE COLUMBO is desirous of making a meet with RAYMOND, but PATRIARCA did not indicate whether he would meet COLUMBO in the near future. BIANCO explained to PATRIARCA that "they have a case going" in which several New York Policemen testified. Most of the evidence was obtained by legal wiretap; however, the wiretap was maintained over the period allowed by the court order of 60 days, and they believed that the case will be thrown out of court. Another case concerned the subpoena of many individuals who plotted the death of 18 "guys."

NICK also spoke of a murder trial of an individual who was killed with a woman in the car, and who was a witness to same. NICK was asked to help the defendants in this case by making sure the woman in her testimony would not hurt the defendants. NICK explained that she was a high-strung woman and that he could not guarantee what she would say on the witness stand. In order to make efforts "to bag this case," he made an appointment to contact [] (LNU), but [] did not show up. Informant was of the opinion that NICK, through other individuals, contacted this woman but they were unable to "be responsible for her."

NICK advised that [] (PH), "the cap with TOMMY," sent his regards to RAYMOND. NICK explained that he has only met him once or twice, but that he, [] knew him. He described [] as the guy who took three or four issues to the GALLOS and settled them.

NICK pointed out that there have been 100 "beefs" against the GALLOS and not one of them have stood up, as yet.

HENRY TAMELEO entered and BIANCO explained the legal wiretap mentioned above. He said the cross-examination of the Police involved reflected they had an instrument in the cellar of the house that was monitored and that the cops who were working the plant were 10 blocks away. He mentioned the name of [] as giving a statement to the cops when he was shot. He further explained that "We got an attorney, [] representing the defendants." [] has a young Harvard lawyer who has "all the conspiratorial aspects on his fingertips and is regarded as excellent."

NICK asked RAYMOND why he did not contact him when he, RAYMOND, was in New York.

RAYMOND explained that he was there on a Sunday and the following Saturday. He said he saw TOMMY RYAN and that he went to the Commodore Hotel and, after conducting his business, took the late afternoon train to Providence, arriving at 8:15 p.m. He told BIANCO that the reason he did not contact anyone is that he does not want anyone to know when he goes to New York.

BIANCO spoke of a woman on Wall Street, NYC, who likes NICK and "wants to get friendly with him." He spoke of opening a bank in the New York area through a friend who has a charter for a bank.

He pointed out that the longshoremen, even though they make $8,000 to $15,000 a year, are unable to obtain legitimate loans from banks. He is of the opinion that he will be able to furnish these loans to the Longshoremen, through the bank. He described it as a "million dollar business."

NICK has told "the guys" that after the case is over everyone will be off the street, lay low, and forget about it. NICK is living on the 5th floor on President Street.

[] (LNU) told NICK that he desired to contact PATRIARCA at Providence. NICK told him not to. However, upon pressure by [] NICK told him to forget the past and if he so desired, to go to Providence.

[] (LNU) discussed various horse betting at Lincoln Downs, Lincoln, R. I. The name of WILLIE MARFEO who was mentioned is a bookmaker at the track. Informant was unable to ascertain the details concerning same.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, advised that he (name not mentioned) was blaming [] for a contact not being signed. [] was trying to get the individuals together in order to have this contract signed.

According to KIRK, SAM (probably RIZZO of NYC) borrowed $50,000 from [] Informant was unable to ascertain further details concerning this.

UNMAN discussed with RAYMOND his efforts to fix horse racing at Lincoln Downs. They had one individual, apparently a jockey, lined up who desired $5,000 to fix the race. UNMAN stated he was going to give him $1,000 before the race and $4,000 after the race if the fix was successful.

The name of [] was mentioned, but the informant was unable to ascertain any further details.

[] Providence, R. I., advised PATRIARCA that he just returned from Florida. He was at Sunshine Park and took bets at the track. [] was accompanied by [] of Providence, R. I. On the first Saturday that [] and [] were there taking bets they were approached by [] who questioned [] and asked for identification. They placed a surveillance on [] which limited his actions as a bookmaker at the track. That night he contacted [] who is also employed by the Track Police. He gave him $500 not to bother him while engaged in bookmaking at the track.

[] told him that they were looking for two people from New England, one of whom was [] who were booking at various tracks throughout the country. He said that [] thought that [] was [] and this was the reason for the surveillance.

Because of this, [] called [] (LNU) who flew down to Sunshine Park and engaged himself as a bookmaker on behalf of [] turned over to [] three of his customers, one [] who is [] Tropical Park, and two other very large bettors. [] and [] made a substantial amount of money on the bets of these three individuals for a few days. Because of the "heat" generated by the Track Police in their efforts to locate [] bookmaking was at a minimum and thus caused [] and [] to leave.

[] told [] later that "The G" is looking for []. Apparently [] was tipped off and upon entering the track left immediately. [] said that the Chicago mob was working the track and apparently was not being bothered.

[] PATRIARCA advised that he was surprised that [] would not have bookmakers at the track, as he was always the leading bookmaker there.

[] replied that he believed he did have some agents working for him but was not sure.

[] and PATRIARCA both were of the opinion that somebody from Boston "ratted" on [] but were unable to identify the informant.

[] explained that he is going to Grosinger's in New York this week end in connection with the Florida deal. He and his partner have spent $12,000 in lawyers' fees and if they are able to untangle the legal aspects of the case, the land would be extremely valuable. PATRIARCA has half of [] interests in this matter. (This apparently refers to land allegedly owned by [] area in Florida.)

[] advised that he is being evicted from his office in that the landlord is unable to obtain insurance for the property because of a recent fire there.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., explained in detail his idea of making money at various arson jobs. He stated that he has ascertained that a material used by ice cream manufacturers can be used on an arson job. This material, which apparently is a liquid, when placed throughout a building, is not extinguishable by water but, in fact, creates more fire when water is spread on it.

He spoke of a motel in the Rhode Island area which can be obtained for $40,000. This motel is old, and he was contemplating purchasing this motel through a front man, "throw some paint on it," and rent it for the next Summer season. At the end of the season they would show a fictitious profit and, on the basis of this, decide to open up a first-class restaurant in the motel. They would then buy cheap furniture and cheap equipment from the warehouse of Paramount Supply Co. In turn, they would receive an invoice reflecting that they had purchased furniture and restaurant equipment in the amount of $50,000 or $60,000. While getting ready for the Summer season of 1965 they would burn the place after insuring it heavily and collect on this insurance.

RAYMOND suggested to [redacted] that he not take any action on his plan because he felt that they would be able to obtain more money in the burning of the Indian Meadow Country Club (IMCC), Westboro, Mass..

*Can we

PATRIARCA explained to [redacted] that JERRY ANGIULO of Boston owns the IMCC through a front; that it is three years old and is having financial trouble. They could use the invoices for Paramount Supply Co. to build up the value of the IMCC, after which they would set the same on fire and be able to obtain an extremely large amount of money from the insurance company.

[redacted] also advised that he has a friend who is a Senior Custodian of the School Departments in Boston. Further, that the Superintendent of all Police buildings in Boston had recently died and the Mayor's office is appointing another individual. They have set the qualifications for this job so high that the friend of [redacted] is one of very few who will fulfill the requirements; however, he has no political connections.

RAYMOND advised that he would contact ANGIULO who, in turn, would contact Representative JOJO LANGONE from the North End section of Boston and request LANGONE to contact Mayor COLLINS of Boston in behalf of this individual. The individual's name is believed, by the informant, to be [] introduced an individual named [] (INU) to PATRIARCA. [] had sold a coat to [] who works for [] for the sum of $1,300. [] owes [] an additional $1,300 for bets (apparently on sporting events). PATRIARCA stated that he would contact [] and force [] to reimburse HARRY the $2,700.

[] Providence, R. I., borrowed $300 from PATRIARCA. [] had made inquiry concerning a hotel for sale in Rhode Island and ascertained that the price was $42,000. [] stated he would be able to boost the value of this hotel to approximately $150,000 to $160,000 by phony purchases and invoices of materials spent to remodel the hotel.

He then contemplated insuring the hotel in this amount and setting the place afire. At this point his problem is to obtain a person who can show an investment of $80,000 or $90,000 to cover the purchase of the hotel and the fictitious purchase of furniture and other items to be used ostensibly to remodel the hotel. He stated that he would keep PATRIARCA advised of the developments.

[] (INU) discussed in detail the recent Circuit Court of Appeals rulings relative to the ATU case of [] and others in Connecticut. Neither [] nor PATRIARCA could understand how the individuals, who were observed in the still, could only be charged with "Conspiracy" as ordered by the Circuit Court of Appeals.

UNMAN was contacted by [] and requested to testify on behalf of [] in his [] trial concerning federal gambling violations. It appeared this UNMAN met the informant in the IRS case and [] desired that he testify concerning meeting the undercover agent. (The facts concerning this alleged testimony were not known to the informant.)

[] advised that the track police had grabbed him in Florida and ordered him off the track, as well as other New England individuals, such as [] and [] According to [] an unknown informant tipped off [] the track, to the effect that the above individuals were New England bookmakers operating at the track. He went to the track police, the [] He apparently surmised that [] knew what was going on and told him to order these men off the track.

[] and [] (PH), both sent their regards to PATRIARCA from Florida. According to [] JERRY ANGIULO was accompanied by [] and DANNY KAYE one evening in Florida.

[] according to BS 837-C*, is a member of La Cosa Nostra and assigned to the PATRIARCA family.

Immigration and Naturalization Service have been investigating [] in connection with his birthdate and birthplace; however, [] would furnish them no information concerning same.

[] stated that the Feds were in and out of the Dream Bar of the Joahnino Hotel every day. According to [] was taking bets at the track from SILVERMAN, who owns the Tropical Race Track, and won quite a bit of money from SILVERMAN.

HENRY TAMELEO, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI and [] discussed past posting in Providence, R. I.

It appeared that [] had an individual named [] who parks his car just outside the gate of the race track. As the first, third and sixth race finished, [] stands by the television set inside the track and immediately tells [] who jumps in his car, drives to a nearby gas station and attempts to past post the bookmaker by phone. They have been somewhat successful in this venture but not as successful as they could be.

On 4/3/64, no information of value was obtained from BS 837-C*.

On 4/6/64, PATRIARCA was at his place of business only for a short time. At one point, when he was not present, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI advised that a [] of the Rhode Island State Police had approached him and told him that he heard WILLIE MARFEO was to be killed by LOUIS. LOUIS, of course, denied same and asked him where he got his information.

[] stated that he had a stoolie on the corner for three or four years and he has always been reliable.

TAGLIANETTI offered [] $200 for the identity of the informant.

[] refused to identify informant.

The basis of the action, according to [] was that MARFEO slugged LOUIS in the mouth, which LOUIS denied. Later, [] contacted LOUIS again and asked him to search his house. TAGLIANETTI at first refused, but then asked what he was looking for. [] stated that he was looking for ammunition; whereupon, TAGLIANETTI permitted him to search the house. When permission was granted, [] did not search the house.

TAGLIANETTI thought that the stoolie may be a woman, but is not sure of this. [] told TAGLIANETTI to make sure that when MARFEO was killed that the body is not dumped in Rhode Island.

TAGLIANETTI is of the opinion that MARFEO and [] should "disappear" and, therefore, there would be little, if any, investigation.

On 4/7/64, an unknown man asked RAYMOND about the pardon for an older man whose wife was []

PATRIARCA had contacted [] in an effort to inquire about this parole, and [] a noted [] told PATRIARCA that the time is not "right" to obtain a pardon because of numerous investigations by the Massachusetts Crime Commission. Further, that Gov. PEABODY, who is backed by BOBBY KENNEDY, would not pardon any well known individual such as this man.

UNMAN requested that he be permitted to contact [] and PATRIARCA stated he would arrange for this meet.

After some discussion, they mutually agreed that the meet should be with [] who is a close associate of [] and who would be in a better position to understand all the facts concerning this case.

It is possible that the individual they are referring to who has offered $3,500 for the parole is [] subject, as there was mention that he would not be out until he was 75 years old under normal conditions. Further, [] name is [] and it is known that he is a very close associate of [] having worked for [] for several years during the bootleg era. [] is also a close friend of RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

On 4/8, 9, 10/64, considerable discussion took place concerning a WILLIE (LNU) who is offering chances at $1 each for a colored TV set. During the argument WILLIE mentioned that $450 was stolen from him in a crap game. It appeared that the crap game was rigged and that the individuals who beat WILLIE for $450 were [redacted] of [redacted] and [redacted] (LNU), all of Providence, R. I.

At this time WILLIE allegedly struck TAGLIANETTI, and LOUIS wanted to kill him.

On 4/8, 9, 10/64, numerous discussions concerning this incident took place between PATRIARCA, [redacted] and UNMAN. R.D.

On 4/10/64, PATRIARCA ordered that WILLIE be paid back $150 through TAMELEO. TAMELEO gave WILLIE the $150 on 4/10/64 and, at first, WILLIE refused to accept same, but finally agreed to take the $150 and forget the incident.

[redacted] promised PATRIARCA that he would not get excited and kill LOUIS. PATRIARCA made [redacted] promise "on his word of honor" that he would control his temper and not do anything to LOUIS.

On 4/9/64, JOSEPH ~~MODICA~~ of Boston, Mass. told PATRIARCA that he has an appointment with the man who [redacted] [redacted]. (location unknown). It appeared that MODICA was interested in purchasing an interest in same.

MODICA discussed the position that [redacted] Boston hoodlum, is presently in. It appeared that [redacted] had borrowed over $50,000 from MODICA and there is a question in MODICA's mind as to whether [redacted] is in a position, since he is under indictment for loan sharking, to repay the $50,000. MASS.

According to TAMELEO, [redacted] has spent the $ 50,000 on a parking lot and is renovating "the joint."

[redacted] also owes money to JERRY ~~ANGIULO~~, as he had borrowed money from JERRY for loan-sharking purposes. MASS.

BS 92-118

[] is not in a position, because of the indictment, to force the individuals who had borrowed money on a loan shark basis, to repay same.

PATRIARCA stated that ANGIULO should ascertain the identities of the people who owe money to [] and attempt to effect the repayment of the loan by them.

MODICA will not receive any of this money until ANGIULO has been paid his amount in full. If any money is left over, MODICA will obtain this portion as against the $50,000 [] borrowed from him.

Arrangements were made to contact MODICA at a restaurant on Route 1 (the time unknown to the informant). MODICA was to be accompanied by another individual named JOE (probably either JOE LOMBARDI or JOE ANSELMO, both of Boston). PATRIARCA cautioned MODICA that he is not to tell anyone of the proposed meet and that when the meet is to take effect he (MODICA) will call RAYMOND and indicate that he would be there on the day he desires the meet to be made. RAYMOND will then meet him at the restaurant at 4:00 p.m. on the day of the meet.

MODICA suggested that they meet at his house. PATRIARCA refused stating that he is under surveillance and on occasions has used a truck to meet someone for the meet. He would much prefer to meet MODICA in New York, as he believes it is much safer.

Reairtel refers in part to information developed from BS 837-C* regarding one "John Forti or Poto" from Florida who has recently been in close association with Joe Anselmo, well-known Boston racket figure who answers to Patriarca. It would appear that an attempt is being made to arrange to have this individual transferred (in Cosa Nostra) to the Boston area where he will answer to Anselmo.

From the discussion of the above-mentioned individual and description of his activities and associates, it is believed that Patriarca is referring to John James Biele, aka, Johnny Poto, a member of Cosa Nostra in the Vito Genovese "family" who for a number of years has resided in Florida. Biele is the subject of Miami case entitled, "John James Biele, aka, AR," Miami file 92-479.

Miami should furnish pertinent background information regarding Biele to Boston in view of his current activity in the Boston Division and of the possibility that he may be locating in Boston permanently.

UNMAN has to return to the hospital for treatments and he has two phones set up and also has a guy that will replace him when he is away. He furnished the telephone number 865-9157 to PATRIARCA.

Two individuals contacted PATRIARCA from the Connecticut area. They discussed the ATU case which occurred several months ago in New Haven, Conn. This case involved EDDIE ROMANO and others from the Providence area.

They discussed in detail the trouble they were having with attorneys and during the course of the conversation mentioned several individuals in the Connecticut area who were apparently involved in this case. They could not understand the recent decision by the U. S. Court of Appeals and mentioned that an individual who obtained the Liquor Commission in the Connecticut area was an associate of theirs. There was indication of a payoff to a Judge and they are contemplating threatening to expose him.

This information is being furnished the New Haven Office by separate letter in order that they might obtain more details from same.

On the same date, [] (LNU) was told by PATRIARCA to tell SAM CUFARI not to send that fellow to him, as he is going to have a local fellow check to ascertain whether his phones are tapped. [] stated that SAM didn't know the individual from New York but had heard of him.

PATRIARCA also sent a message to CUFARI that the fellow whom they talked about in New York was in to see PATRIARCA last week. (This apparently referred to JOHNNY FORET or FOTO, as explained below)

On 4/2/64, MIKE ROCCO and GENNARO J. ANGIULO, both of Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA. Informant stated that ANGIULO complained that for the first time since he has been in the business he lost $21,000 on the numbers last month.

RAYMOND explained that JOE BURNS (True Name JOSEPH ANSELMO) contacted him the previous night. He was accompanied by JOHN FORTI or POTO from Florida. FORTI is staying with [redacted] who lives in Lexington, Mass.

It appeared that FORTI was supposed to come down with [redacted] who is very friendly with HELEN PATRIARCA, wife of RAYMOND, prior to the time the FORTIS went to Hot Springs and Arizona. When he appeared without [redacted] PATRIARCA was very surprised. He made arrangements to take them to the race track and, fortunately, there were not too many people there.

BURNS told PATRIARCA that some Jew (whose name PATRIARCA did not know), whom [redacted] has "something to do with," cuts "everything down the middle." (This apparently referred to the Jew who takes action not only on sports bookmaking, but also numbers and horses.) He worked on a 50% margin with the agents.

BURNS desired that he lay off his numbers to this Jew. PATRIARCA, in no uncertain terms, told him that months ago when BURNS was in trouble with the numbers in Chelsea, Mass., GENNARO ANGIULO took this action with the stipulation that if BURNS ever wanted the action back, he would be so entitled to same.

When BURNS did desire the action back, ANGIULO returned it to him. He said that now that the business is profitable he (BURNS) desires to give the layoff to the Jew.

PATRIARCA told BURNS that under no condition would he permit BURNS or anyone else to lay off the numbers to the Jew. He indicated it was their business, and they will not give it up to anyone without some trouble.

BURNS complained that JERRY's man, [redacted] Chelsea, Mass., was the individual putting out a list cutting down the half numbers in the number pool. JERRY claimed that [redacted] does not run a number business as such; that any numbers he has picked up are turned over to JERRY and have been for the last 20 years.

According to ANGIULO's investigation, [redacted] the number pool business, in Chelsea, for BURNS, is the individual who actually cuts the half numbers to all full numbers.

ANGIULO explained that the only operators in Chelsea in the numbers are [redacted] and [redacted] (PH). He has checked the three and found out that [redacted] is responsible for the cut of the half numbers.

ROCCO claimed that because of the Jew, he now has to pay 660 to 1, whereas before he was playing 600 to 1. They all agreed that this is cutting into their business and that they should straighten it out with BURNS.

PATRIARCA told ROCCO that FRANK FERRARA is in trouble again financially in that he borrowed money on his house in Florida with phony stamps.

ROCCO stated that [redacted] Revere, Mass., contacted him on that morning to get his money but said nothing of the IRS investigation on TEDDY FUCILLO. It appeared that [redacted] present [redacted] Boston, Mass., also talked to MIKE the previous morning. He told MIKE that [redacted] put some money in an Italian bank "for the old man." (The "old man" probably refers to PHIL BUCCOLO, predecessor of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, now residing in Italy.)

MIKE ROCCO claimed that the FBI had tipped off the track police concerning [redacted] and [redacted] in Florida and both of them were thrown off the track. They thus were unable to conduct their booking business.

ROCCO stated that the sale of the Suffolk Downs Race Track might result in a big scandal. There was mention of [redacted] not selling these shares to the New York group who purchased the track.

It appeared that ROCCO thought there would be some scandal relative to the sale of this track caused by the actual owners of the stock. (It appeared he was probably referring to BUCCOLO, who allegedly owns stock in this track.)

BURNS, when speaking to PATRIARCA, told him of a [] who has sports action. [] has taken five or six pinches on horses and it cost him $3,800.

It appeared that [] and [] are probably booking together. They wanted to lay off to JERRY, changed their minds on one or two occasions within a day, and JERRY feels that they are now laying off to the Jew, mentioned above.

JERRY ANGIULO stated that things are going to get tougher.

He pointed out that [] has numerous taps in the City of Boston; that he has a brand new fellow who went to FBI School for three months in order to learn wire tapping. This fellow has now taken over [] operation in relation to wire tapping and "really knows his stuff." He thought the name was [] but was not sure.

It should be pointed out here that the individual ANGIULO is referring to is a Boston Policeman, formerly assigned to the Robbery Squad, and presently assigned to [] in the District Attorney's Office. [] never attended any training sessions by the FBI.

In connection with the above dispute on half numbers, ROCCO stated that JOE LOMBARDI desired to see PATRIARCA. Arrangements were made to see him at 10:00 a.m. at the Howard Johnson's restaurant in Attleboro, Mass. on 4/6/64.

A surveillance of this establishment failed to disclose any meet of PATRIARCA or LOMBARDI.

Concerning JOHNNY FORTI, RAYMOND explained that he has a lease on the Peppermint Lounge in Florida and he desired [] (PH) to run a restaurant he proposed to build in the lounge for him. He stated that he and [] are very close.

According to PATRIARCA, the story on FORTI "goes way back." He explained that MIKE COPPOLA and [] have always been jealous of each other. MIKE COPPOLA "owned JOHNNY FORTI."

JOHNNY moved pretty good. After some time, MIKE COPPOLA owed JOHNNY a lot of money and he asked [redacted] to get him out of Florida, as he was causing some trouble. They took one fellow in from Chicago. JOHNNY tried to make arrangements to sit down with the proper people to iron this out but was not successful and now they apparently told JOHNNY to get out of Florida. He has come to Boston where he has been driven around by [redacted] (LNU) (probably [redacted]) and is very close to JOE BURNS.

JOE BURNS has asked RAYMOND for permission to take JOHNNY under his wing in Boston.

PATRIARCA told him that proper arrangements would have to be made and it would take some time before this can be accomplished; however, he will make efforts to have him transferred under BURNS. BURNS also wants permission to make [redacted] (probably [redacted]), who has been driving JOHNNY around Boston.

RAYMOND pointed out that the books all over the country have been closed and they have been closed in Boston. Therefore, he will not be able to make [redacted] at this time. When the books do open up and everything is checked out on [redacted] and he proved satisfactory, with everyone else, he would consider making him a member of La Cosa Nostra.

A verbatim transcript concerning this will be made and forwarded to the NYO.

PATRIARCA advised that a former romantic acquaintance of his, [redacted] East Boston, Mass., wrote him a letter and wanted to meet him (apparently to help [redacted] who has a small trucking business in Boston, Mass.). PATRIARCA will meet her at 1:00 p.m., 4/6/64 at the Canteen Restaurant, Providence, R. I.

ANGIULO stated that GEORGE WILSON, Head of IRS, went to Washington last week to request a transfer from the Boston area because of the fact that he received no co-operation from the Federal District Courts. He pointed out that after two years of laborious work on [redacted] Boston bookmaker, his efforts were thrown out of Court by Judge WYZANSKI on a technicality. This necessitates re-doing the investigation on [redacted]

He further stated that it appeared that the ANGIULOS would beat their case concerning income tax violation now pending before the Federal Courts in Boston.

This information was received from ANGIULO by a source (not identified) within IRS.

ROCCO stated that the law in East Boston told him to cease operating a crap game there. This crap game, allegedly, according to the law, was backed by ANGIULO. He promised the law that he would not allow any games run by ANGIULO or any other top figure to be operated in East Boston, Mass. The crap games in Boston, according to ANGIULO, are not making sufficient money.

RAY indicated that he likes JOE BURNS, pointing out that he must not be too bad a guy as he saved [redacted] when he was in trouble. (The details of this were not learned by the informant.) RAY stated that he couldn't do too good as "He's got all bums with him," and thus is not able to make a lot of money.

JOE BURNS's brother, TOMMY, is not much good, according to ANGIULO. He just borrowed $350 from ANGIULO to pay his rent. (It was not clear to the informant whether TOMMY was a member of La Cosa Nostra.)

ANGIULO spoke in detail concerning his present hearings relating to IRS case on the Huntington Realty Trust Co., which he and [redacted] and various decisions made in connection with this case.

ANGIULO advised he had called in [redacted] and told him to try to sell the Indian Meadow Country Club for $550,000. If he is able to do this, ANGIULO will furnish him a $150,000 loan to be used as a second mortgage and, in that way, he, [redacted] if successful, would be able to own 100% of the Club. ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that if

ADMINISTRATIVE:

This case has been afforded close continuous investigative attention and the Bureau has been notified of all pertinent developments during the course of this investigation.

Careful consideration has been given to all sources concealed and "T" symbols were utilized only in those instances wherein it was necessary to conceal the identity of the source.

Boston Airtel to the Bureau dated 11/14/63 in captioned matter made reference to a [redacted] (LNU) from New Jersey, who was scheduled to visit subject, and a [redacted] reportedly in the wholesale produce business in Newark, N. J., who was having trouble with [redacted] [redacted] (ph).

The Newark Division on 1/28/64 and 1/13/64 advised that a check through office indices and inquiry has been unable to identify persons named in above-mentioned Boston Airtel to Bureau of 11/14/63.

The Newark Division also advised that inquiry among sources familiar with produce dealers in the Newark market area has failed to identify [redacted]

On 1/15-16/64 SA [redacted] contacted former CI [redacted] who is familiar with some of subject's interests in New Jersey. [redacted] could furnish no information concerning [redacted] dispute.

During the period of February 1964 to April 3, 1964, spot checks were maintained in the vicinity of 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, R. I., which spot checks failed to develop any information of value to this investigation.

Cover Page G of the report of SA [redacted] dated 1/24/64 at Boston, entitled "RAYMOND E. S. PATRIARCA," mentioned an investigation conducted by the New Haven Division concerning one [redacted]

On 1/13/64 the New Haven Division furnished additional information concerning [redacted] which is as follows:

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]

On 1/8/64 Lt. [redacted] Connecticut State Police, Colchester, Connecticut, advised that [redacted] the Dragway, Inc., East Haddam, Connecticut, for three or four years for about six months a year. [redacted] is from around Hartford, Connecticut, and does not live in East Haddam.

At one time there was a rumor that he was in financial straits but it now appears that he is faring better. Lt. [redacted] said that [redacted] is about 35 years of age. His last known residence address was [redacted] Hartford, Connecticut. There is no record of [redacted] with the Connecticut State Bureau of Identification.

On 1/9/64 [redacted] Credit Bureau, New London, Connecticut, advised she could locate no record for MARATTA.

On 12/13/63 [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that [redacted] and HAROLD HANNON of Boston, Mass., were bitterly disappointed in the fact that they did not [redacted]

BS 92-118

Informant advised that [] blames RAYMOND PATRIARCA for this as it was PATRIARCA's contact that was supposed to have disposed of the goods, and the load was recovered before the transaction could be completed.

On 2/13/64 [] again told SA [] that [] and HAROLD HANNON were able to have RAYMOND PATRIARCA [] and HANNON will receive money due them for the sale of this merchandise. Informant also stated that some friends of PATRIARCA allegedly are going to collect this money from the individuals who were caught by the FBI in New York.

The above-mentioned matter refers to the case entitled, "UNSUB; Carter Underwear, Akers Motor Transportation Co. 9/28/63-10/1/63, TFIS." []

[] Scarsdale, Mass. The New York Division also advised that [] was served with a subpoena on 2/4/64 to a FGJ in the SDNY, along with a number of others who are believed []

At the time of the service of the subpoena, [] stated to Agents that he was desirous of avoiding giving testimony and would be willing to speak to Agents Jersey City, N.J. and would furnish any information requested.

[] accompanied Agents to the New York Office where it was explained Agents had no control over the issuance of subpoenas, but would make any information furnished available to the U. S. Attorney, who would then make a decision.

R.I. Genpare Angiulo
On 1/28/64 BS T-1 advised that at about 12 noon, this date, JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE, Boston hoodlums, visited with RAYMOND PATRIARCA at 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, R. I.

95 Prince St.

Boston, Mass.

BS 92-118

Informant was unable to obtain all details concerning this meeting, but he did hear a discussion concerning gambling matters in the Boston, Mass., area and that they were trying to straighten out some gambling problem in the Boston area.

Informant also heard talk about a stolen shipment; that the shipment had been located by the FBI; and that they were trying to figure out how the FBI got the shipment. There was some talk about PATRIARCA getting this matter straightened out and that PATRIARCA would discuss the matter with two individuals from Boston, Mass.

Informant said there was also some discussion about two men coming to see PATRIARCA from Boston, and there was a great deal of discussion to how they should come to see PATRIARCA without being detected by the FBI.

On 1/24/64 BS T-1 advised ^{see Patriarca} he met with RAYMOND PATRIARCA at which time PATRIARCA [redacted] that [redacted] by the Federal Grand Jury at Providence, R. I., for a [redacted]

PATRIARCA, after hearing this news, became infuriated and was very upset over the incident. Informant said PATRIARCA did nothing that day except accept condolences from his associates [redacted]

On 1/31/64 and 2/10/64, BS T-1 advised PATRIARCA mentioned that he is very lawful in his activities and personal matters as he is aware of the fact the FBI is constantly watching him, and he does not want to become involved in anything at this time as he does not want to be brought before the Federal Grand Jury that is presently sitting at Providence, R. I.

On 3/27/64 BS T-1 advised [redacted]

[redacted] of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, R. I., and has not developed any information concerning any illegal activities on the part of PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA continues to have close friends as visitors, but at no time is anyone allowed to enter PATRIARCA's office when the door is closed or if he is having a conference, unless the person is specifically invited into the office by PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA does not allow many people to hang around 168 Atwells Avenue as there has been too much loose talk around and he is afraid that someone would furnish information concerning him to the FBI.

Informant said JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE, Boston hoodlums, had visited with PATRIARCA on 3/27/64, but informant was unable to obtain the purpose of this visit as he was not invited into the office of PATRIARCA. Informant is making every effort to be an invited member to these conferences.

On 3/31/64 BS T-1 advised no information has been developed concerning RAYMOND PATRIARCA.

On 1/23, 24, 31/64 and 2/10/64 and 3/27, 31/64, BS T-1 advised that the crap game previously mentioned at Fall River or New Bedford, Mass., has not materialized as yet. Informant understands that [redacted]

On 2/20/64 BS T-2 advised that JERRY ANGIULO, Boston hoodlum, visited RAYMOND PATRIARCA, at Providence, R. I., on 2/18/64. This visit took place at 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, R. I.

Informant was unable to furnish any information concerning this meeting; however, he has heard rumors that the meeting may have dealt with gambling activities in the Boston, Mass., area as informant has heard that ANGIULO is the contact man for PATRIARCA in the Boston area.

On 3/17, 26/64 BS T-2 advised he has maintained contact with RAYMOND PATRIARCA at 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, but he has not obtained any information that he is involved in any illegal activities.

Informant said PATRIARCA mentioned he is aware of the FBI investigation being conducted concerning him and he is very careful about his activities and associates and does not associate with many people. PATRIARCA also mentioned he is trying to weed out any undesirable associates as he is afraid that some of his so-called associates talk too much and he is attempting to avoid all loose talk which may eventually get into the possession of the FBI.

Date 2/5/64

Salvatore A. Rizzo was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to consult with an attorney.

Rizzo stated he currently resides at 15 Parkfield Road, Scarsdale, New York.

Rizzo stated that from the mid 1940's until 1960 he was principally occupied as a real estate and building developer in Dade County, Florida. He stated that he was considered to be a successful builder there and that in about 1960 he ceased his activities in that area as the housing situation there had become saturated and the market had fallen off.

He stated that while in Florida he became acquainted with [redacted] who owns and operates the [redacted] in Rhode Island, and that through [redacted] he became interested in a new track which was started in approximately 1960 known as the Hancock Raceway, Incorporated at Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

Rizzo advised that in approximately December of 1960 he purchased 50 shares of Class A voting stock in the Hancock Raceway from [redacted] of Springfield, Massachusetts, and 50 shares of Class B non-voting stock from [redacted]. He stated he paid approximately $150,000 for the 100 shares of stock. He stated that at the time he made the purchase there were 100 shares of Class A stock outstanding and 150 shares of Class B stock outstanding. He pointed out that these stock transfers are all on file with the Attorney General's Office in the State of Massachusetts.

Rizzo stated that at this time [redacted] had control of the other 50 shares of Class A stock through a trust indenture. He stated he did not know who the actual stockholders were who were represented by [redacted] but was aware that a [redacted] of the [redacted]

On 2/4/64 at New York Office File # NY 92-788
by SA [redacted] VMC Date dictated 2/5/64

NY 92-788

Construction firm in Providence, Rhode Island, owned several shares as did a [redacted] who resides in Connecticut.

Rizzo stated that immediately after he purchased the stock from [redacted] a [redacted] from Pittsfield, Massachusetts, instituted a suit alleging that a portion of the shares of stock which he, Rizzo, had purchased from [redacted] actually belonged to him. He stated [redacted] did hold some Class B stock, but alleged that the stock he had should have been Class A stock rather than Class B. He stated with regard to this that he settled with [redacted] out of court in July, 1962, and at that time actually received the certificates in his name from [redacted].

Rizzo continued that by late 1962 he had, through [redacted] acquired the other 50 shares of stock, which were held in a trust indenture for [redacted] from the various stockholders, which [redacted] represented. He paid approximately $300,000 for these remaining 50 shares and therefore in late 1962 controlled all of the outstanding shares of voting stock in the track.

Rizzo stated that at the time the track was being built there was a $340,000 first mortgage on the track held by Sports Service, Incorporated of Buffalo, New York, which Rizzo advised is a firm [redacted]. He stated that Sports Service had loaned the track the money in return for the concessions at the stand. He pointed out that under the terms of this mortgage the track was to repay to Sports Service $85,000 each year on the principal plus meeting the interest payments, and that the mortgage was to be repaid in a period of 4 years. Rizzo advised that the track did not make the $85,000 payment to Sports Service in 1962 or in 1963, partially due to poor attendance and partially to various legal actions filed against him and the track in the State of Massachusetts during these years. He stated that in late 1963, Sports Service filed to foreclose on the mortgage and in December of 1963, the track was sold at an auction to [redacted] for $400,000. He stated that [redacted] made a down payment of $25,000 at the time he submitted the high bid for the track. Rizzo stated that prior to this time he had been under the opinion that [redacted] was a man of wealth, but recently found out that this apparently was not true. He stated that when [redacted] submitted the bid [] told him that he needed to borrow some money to make the $25,000 down payment and [] arranged with []

[] Bronx, New York, to loan [] $5,000 so [] could make the $25,000 down payment. He stated that [] did not know at the time he wrote the check to whom it was to be made payable and actually made the check payable to S. A. Rizzo. Rizzo stated that he merely endorsed the check and turned it over to []

Rizzo pointed out that while [] is [] [] he is in no way connected with the [] [] He stated that he knows and recognizes the names [] and "Little Augie" Pisano, but does not know them personally nor does he know if they are associated with the Star Lathing Company.

Rizzo stated that he has a written agreement with [] to the effect that if the track is successful and if any profits are made over and above that which is to be paid to creditors of the track, that such profits will be turned over to him in return for his previous investment in the track. He stated that it is also his opinion that he will be named General Manager of the track by []

Rizzo pointed out as an example of his legal problems in Massachusetts the fact that Doctor Furcolo, whom he described as the father of a former Governor of the State of Massachusetts, had accused [] of selling stock which actually belonged to him in the same manner as [] had done, and that the matter was tried before Judge Frank E. Smith in Massachusetts, who after hearing testimony ruled that neither Doctor Furcolo nor [] had purchased the 50 shares of stock supposedly held by [] and they had not taken any affirmative actions regarding the stock and therefore the stock did not actually belong to either Furcolo or [] but actually still belonged to Hancock Raceway, Incorporated. Rizzo stated that he therefore intends to institute suit against [] to recover the $150,000 he originally paid for the 50 shares of stock in 1961.

Rizzo stated that he feels at the current time he has approximately $700,000 due him from the track and that of this $700,000 he supplied out of his personal funds at least $400,000 to $500,000, which is the money he is concerned with in connection with his written agreement with [redacted]

When asked to explain where the remaining money came from to make up the difference between the $400,000 to $500,000 and $700,000 figure he mentioned, he stated that he has been constantly throughout the past few years juggling money. He stated that on one occasion he sold 5 shares of Class A stock to singer Frank Sinatra, which he later bought back from Sinatra with money he had obtained from other sources. He also stated that he sold 5 shares to an individual named [redacted] which he subsequently also bought back. He stated he is constantly switching funds back and forth in an attempt to keep the track operating and as one creditor demands his money he would borrow from another to pay the first. Rizzo pointed out that the Attorney General of the State of Massachusetts has Photostats of all his transactions and all his money dealings with the track as does an unknown Internal Revenue Agent in Providence, Rhode Island, who interviewed him at length some time ago and also obtained Photostats of his records pertaining to the track.

Rizzo was specifically asked if he was acquainted with Raymond Patriarca and while he stated he has heard the name; he denied knowing or having ever met Patriarca to his knowledge. He stated he was asked a similar question by the Massachusetts Gambling Commission organized under a representative Crawford, and that he testified before this commission under oath in early 1963 he did not know Patriarca and had to his knowledge not met him.

Rizzo blamed all of his troubles with the track on a Pittsfield, Massachusetts newspaper, "The Berkshire Eagle", and stated it was his opinion that one of the [redacted] was very much against the track openly, but that he felt that [redacted] was actually upset because he was never allowed to buy into the track, and he felt that this was the source of all his troubles with the track in the State of Massachusetts.

Salvatore A. Rizzo was advised that he did not have to make a statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also advised of his right to consult with an attorney.

Salvatore A. Rizzo stated that when he was General Manager and Owner of the Berkshire Downs Race in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, he resided at the Edgewood Motel, Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

Rizzo was questioned concerning any relationship between himself and either Sol Friedman or Raymond Patriarca and stated that he owed Friedman and currently owes him $214,000. He stated he was aware that Friedman was the attorney for Raymond Patriarca. He stated he spent the money owed to Friedman in the following manner:

Rizzo stated that as he had previously related he purchased 50 shares of voting stock in the track from [redacted] in Pittsfield and 10 shares from a man named [redacted] who resided in Connecticut. He stated this gave him a total of 60 shares of the 100 voting shares issued for the track.

Rizzo stated that he then contacted [redacted] true name [redacted] and since [redacted] controlled the voting interests in the 40 shares of stock asked him to determine if the actual owners of the 40 shares of stock would sell out to him. He stated that [redacted] told him this could be arranged and in order to obtain the 40 shares he paid $55,000 in cash to [redacted] in Providence, Rhode Island, for their portion of the 40 shares and executed a $214,000 personal note to Sol Friedman for his interest in the 40 shares of stock. He pointed out that Friedman, [redacted] had on a personal note borrowed $150,000 from Sports Service, Incorporated, in Buffalo and that he also assumed this personal note as a portion of the purchase price of the 40 shares. He stated that therefore the 40 shares cost him a total of $419,000, which was made up from the $55,000 cash payment, the $214,000 note to Friedman, and the assumption of the $150,000 note in favor of Sports Service.

On 2/5/64 at New York Office File # NY
by SA [redacted] vnc Date dictated 2/6/64

Rizzo stated that since the note held by Friedman is a personal one, he is still obligated to pay this note and to date he has paid nothing off on this note.

Rizzo pointed out that he never actually obtained possession of the 40 shares of stock. He stated he was given a trust agreement and that he was able to exercise the voting rights of the 40 shares of stock, but that [] told him the 40 shares of stock were actually in a safety deposit box in a bank in Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and since there was a restraining order at the bank as a result of law suits, [] could not obtain the actual stock certificates.

Rizzo stated that on the initial purchase of 50 shares of voting stock, which he obtained from [] this deal was actually set up for him by [] and a man known to him as Joe Krikorian of Providence, Rhode Island.

Rizzo again denied knowing or having ever met Raymond Patriarca, but stated that he was well acquainted with Sol Friedman whom he knows to be Patriarca's attorney, and stated that he knows of Patriarca's reputation as the racket kingpin in the New England area.

Date 2/17/64

SALVATORE ALOYSIUS RIZZO was advised as to the identities of the interviewing agents; that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law; and that he had the right to consult with an attorney before making any statement.

SALVATORE A. RIZZO stated he resides at 19 Parkfield Road, Scarsdale, New York.

A photograph of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA of Providence, Rhode Island was exhibited to RIZZO. He advised that he never met PATRIARCA in Providence, Rhode Island or any other location. When specifically asked whether he met PATRIARCA on October 5, 1962 at the Edgebrook Motel, Lenox, Massachusetts, he denied same.

RIZZO pointed out that he resided at the Edgebrook Motel, Lenox, Massachusetts, at that time when he was General Manager and owner of the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Pittsfield, Massachusetts, and on several occasions met individuals who were directors of the track at this motel. This included SAUL FRIEDMAN of Providence, Rhode Island.

In connection with his efforts to obtain additional racing dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track, he advised he has met Senate President JOHN E. POWERS, Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He said that he has met him on several occasions in Boston and once in New York. POWERS, he stated, was the sponsor of a bill which would increase the racing dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track from 24 to 42 days of racing. However, he was unsuccessful in obtaining the additional racing dates.

RIZZO advised that when he visited [redacted] who [redacted] The Bronx, New York, at which time he loaned [redacted] $5,000 in order that [redacted] might make the downpayment for purchase at auction of the Berkshire Downs Race Track, he did not observe any other individuals present at the Star Lathing Company.

On 2/11/64 at FBI, New York Office File # Boston 92-118

by SA's [redacted] and [redacted] Date dictated 2/14/64

He does not visit [] frequently, but never recalls observing any group of individuals at this company when he did visit [].

In relation to his visits to Providence, Rhode Island, RIZZO admitted that he had visited Providence on several occasions. On some of these occasions he flew in to Providence by chartered plane for the express purpose of contacting either [] or SAUL FRIEDMAN in connection with the operation of the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

He again denied having seen or having met PATRIARCA on these occasions.

RIZZO advised that at the present time he is attempting to obtain a co-signer of a note in the amount of $375,000 from the Sports Service, Inc., Buffalo, New York. He pointed out that in order to purchase this track at auction, [] had to obtain a co-signer for the note and arrange with [] to sign this note, which will expire on February 14, 1964. He thus is endeavoring to obtain the signature of a responsible party to take over this note of $375,000.

The following is a description of RIZZO, as obtained through interview and observation:

DATE: 4/22/64

FROM : SAC, BOSTON (92-118) (P)

AR
(OO: BOSTON)

Rebulet to Bureau dated 2/26/64 in the case entitled, "HUB ELECTRIC MFG. CO., INC., FAG" (Bosfile 46-4348) (Bufile 46-49916).

A Fraud Against the Government case was opened on Hub Electric Mfg. Co., Inc. based on information from BS 837-C* to the effect that this company was one in which RAYMOND PATRIARCA had a definite financial interest; further, that [redacted] had indicated that he was fronting for PATRIARCA and had received permission from PATRIARCA to file the [redacted]

Background information developed on Hub indicated that it had obtained a Small Business Administration (SBA) loan, but the loan was paid off in 1963 after the company was acquired by Certified Pharmacal Corp., Boston, Mass.

Inquiry at SBA, Boston, Mass., disclosed that Hub, on 7/12/61, had applied for an SBA loan in the amount of $125,000, which amount was reduced to $120,000, and then disbursed on 10/2/61 by the U. S. Trust Co., Boston, Mass., the participating bank. This loan was a five-year loan, due 10/2/67, with payments of $1,667 monthly, and both SBA and the U. S. Trust Co. had 50% of the loan.

A review of the loan application and SBA's file did not disclose any possibility of developing an FAG violation with respect to this SBA loan and did not appear to offer the possibilities found in the case entitled, "INDIAN MEADOW COUNTRY CLUB, INC.; ET AL, FAG - CONSPIRACY" (Bosfile 46-3729, Bufile 46-47415).

This file did disclose, however, that the personal guarantor of Hub's SBA loan was the [redacted] Newton, Mass. Management was indicated as consisting of [redacted] who had a one-third common stock ownership and 50% voting stock ownership; [redacted] who had no stock ownership; and SAUL FRIEDMAN, who owned two-thirds of the common stock and 50% of the voting stock.

The application was signed by [redacted] as [redacted] of Hub.

Background information regarding [redacted] indicated that he was born in Providence, R. I. in 1916; was married and in the auto business, and associated with Don's Motor Sales, Inc., Providence after military service. He left Providence in 1956; was [redacted] a manufacturer of dictating machines in Chicago; and left Chicago in 1956 when he bought into the Hub Electric Mfg. Co., Inc.

Background information regarding FRIEDMAN in the SBA files indicated that he was a company attorney; was in his 50's, and married; born on 8/2/15 in Rock Island, Ill., and since 1949 had resided at 115 Betsy Williams Drive, Cranston, R. I. His employment was indicated as an Attorney, self employed, in Room 709 of the Industrial Bank Bldg., Providence, R. I.

It was indicated, further, that FRIEDMAN passed the Rhode Island bar exam in 1938 after graduating from Boston University the same year. He entered military service in 1941 and retired as a Second Lieutenant of the Military Police Corps in 1944. He served as a Probate Judge in the City of Cranston from 1/59 to 1/61.

It was also found in the SBA file that the balance of Hub's loan was paid in full on 7/10/63. Further, that the accountant utilized in connection with the preparation of statements for the SBA loan was [redacted] born in Rhode Island in 1917, unmarried, and is a Public Accountant in Providence, R. I.

It was also indicated that [] along with [] and FRIEDMAN, all were [] of Hub.

During the course of the review of Hub's SBA file, [] a loan specialist at SBA, Boston, stated that he knows SAUL FRIEDMAN and is presently dealing with him in FRIEDMAN's capacity as an Attorney and Receiver for the R & A Shoe Co., Providence, R. I., which company is presently in State Receivership and which defaulted on an SBA loan.

He said that FRIEDMAN has mentioned that he, FRIEDMAN, was active in the Warwick Music Theater, Warwick, R. I. and also had an interest and/or connection with a musical theater which recently opened in about January or February, 1964 in Phoenix, Ariz.; further, that FRIEDMAN mentioned an interest in the Berkshire Downs Race Track located in Pittsfield, Mass., in which track PATRIARCA is believed to have an interest.

[] mentioned that SAUL FRIEDMAN said that he and former Massachusetts Senate President JOHN E. POWERS were good friends and this was mentioned in connection with discussions of the Berkshire Downs. He said also that FRIEDMAN mentioned to him that SBA had helped Hub, in which company he had a part interest, but Hub recently had been taken over by Certified Pharmacal Corp., Boston, Mass., and FRIEDMAN indicated, further, that he also had an interest in that company.

[] mentioned that FRIEDMAN touted him onto the stock of Certified Pharmacal Corp., and this stock supposedly has risen from $2-$3 a share in 1/63 to its present price of about $16. [] said, further, that Certified Pharmacal Corp. has no SBA loan at the present time, nor does it have any applications pending. [] stated that any inquiry regarding interests of SAUL FRIEDMAN in companies which have SBA loans should best be directed to [] of SBA's branch office, 57 Eddy Street in Providence, R. I.

It should be noted that [] mentioned that FRIEDMAN told him that he knew []

Based on the above, there are certain interviews on which leads are set out below which are necessary to establish either PATRIARCA's or FRIEDMAN's interest in Hub and/or Certified Pharmacal Corp., as well as any other companies they may have interests in. Therefore, because of the fact that there appears to be no potential FAG violation which can be pursued, it is believed that PATRIARCA's and FRIEDMAN's interests in these companies can best be handled in the main PATRIARCA case and, therefore, the FAG case on Hub Electric Mfg. Co., Inc. is being closed and the balance of the investigation will be handled in the case entitled, "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, AR," Bosfile 92-118, Bufile 92-2961.

Informant also furnished considerable information, on various dates, concerning the activities of GENNARO J. ANGIULO in connection with the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Mass. of which ANGIULO allegedly owns 50%.

Informant furnished information on 1/31/64 that HAROLD HANNON and [redacted] were responsible for a theft of $70,000 worth of Carter's Underwear which was stolen from the Akers Transportation Co. on 9/10/63.

Informant also furnished various information concerning the daily activities of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, top hoodlum of the Boston Office.

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts areas, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The informant has furnished various information confirming this fact, and his continuation will serve to crystallize information which may lead to prosecution.

GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA was scheduled to go to New York on 4/15/64; however, [] called relative to an operation on PATRIARCA's wife and it was necessary to go to Boston to contact []. He did, however, go to New York on Thursday, 4/16/64, in order to see [] probably []. The purpose of the trip was to obtain permission to transfer JOHNNY FOTO (possibly JOHN JAMES BIELE) to the Boston family under JOE BURNS. [] was away and he contacted [] (LNU) relative to this.

PATRIARCA pointed out that it was a big responsibility to take this fellow, but at the present time there appeared to be no objections to same.

ANGIULO inquired as to whether or not JERRY would have to contact VITO (possibly GENOVESE) in order to "OK" this transfer. RAYMOND replied, "No!" and indicated that JERRY has the power without contacting VITO.

Recently, PATRIARCA was picked up at Howard Johnson's in Dedham, Mass. by JOE MODICA (aka Pappino) of Boston, Mass. PAPPINO drove PATRIARCA to PAPPINO's house where he met TOMMY BROWN. MODICA claims to have a connection with the Attorney General's office in Washington, D. C. ANGIULO claimed that [] who is presently incarcerated in the Suffolk County House of Correction, Deer Island, Mass., has been receiving very good information lately and that he told him that three brand new guys came in from Washington (apparently in connection with ANGIULO's IRS investigation).

ANGIULO stated he was contacted by PAPPINO two weeks ago and claimed to have a good connection in Washington, D. C. He desired to meet ANGIULO and bring him to this connection who, at that time, was at his (PAPPINO'S) home. PAPPINO picked up ANGIULO and drove him to his home on a Sunday evening where he met an individual named [] or [] (PH). According to PAPPINO, this individual is attempting to fix an investigation concerning [] of Pan American Finance Co., who has swindled close to $100,000 "with automobiles." (This apparently refers to a case entitled, "[redacted] LYNN, MASS.; [redacted] FRA," Bosfile [redacted])

PATRIARCA stated that he knew all about the swindle but furnished no additional information to the informant.

ANGIULO explained that he was of the opinion that no one wanted to be put "in the middle" in connection with attempting to fix the IRS case, but added that if he "didn't try, he would be stupid" so he went along with PAPPINO.

RAYMOND pointed out that he has to understand that the administration (meaning the Attorney General's administration) is going out "and they are looking to take some money." JERRY replied, "It's too steep for me but I'll try."

ANGIULO stated that he felt [redacted] but and put a few problems to him relative to his IRS case. [redacted] told him the only way to do this was to get his case to Washington and skip any Circuit Court of Appeals' appeal.

ANGIULO told [redacted] that the main problem is the two people working on this case who are dedicated; namely, [redacted] and [redacted], and if it was not for them, he would not have the tax problem.

(ANGIULO was referring to [redacted] IRS agent who is handling the ANGIULO investigation, and either Agent [redacted] of the IRS, or SA DENNIS M. CONDON of the FBI.)

ANGIULO said that it was important to him to know whether Judge CAFFREY's recent rulings in his court case would be upheld; but, more important to him, would be to ascertain exactly what power [redacted] has; to test him. ANGIULO told [redacted] that the first thing he desired done was to have [redacted] and [redacted] transferred. He pointed out that for seven or nine months they have not accomplished much, and, for this reason, they should be transferred to other investigations.

ANGIULO stated that he told [] "in plain English - What are you talking about - money?"

At this point, [] allegedly talked about his work in the Tidelands Oil, TOMMY BROWN, oil residue, etc. ANGIULO listened to him and then "put it to him to have [] and [] transferred." He gave [] "names and serial numbers of [] and []

[] said that he would have them transferred and pointed out that when he returns to Washington [] desired that his case be taken directly to Washington; that ANGIULO get in touch with MODICA to have ANGIULO's attorney get in touch with [] in Washington, and he would tell them what lawyer's office in Washington to go to.

It should be pointed out that ANGIULO was skeptical of the influence that [] may have, and he will not know the amount of influence he has until such time as the transfer of [] and [] are effected.

ANGIULO stated that he contacted a businessman (identity not known to the informant) who is well connected with the administration. He asked this individual who was not a politician, but who moves around in Washington "pretty good," whether Judge ANDREW CAFFREY, USDC, Boston, who is assigned to ANGIULO's IRS case, is a "Government Judge." Within a few days this individual told ANGIULO that Judge CAFFREY is a Government Judge; that he will give ANGIULO no breaks whatsoever; and, further, there was some manipulation in the USA's office to have CAFFREY assigned to ANGIULO's case.

ANGIULO and PATRIARCA discussed the [] loan sharking case in Boston, Mass.

It appeared that JOE ANSELMO (aka Joe Burns, Boston) was attempting to force [] to return some of the money loaned to him by [] of Revere, Mass. He asked ANGIULO to intercede for him with [] ANGIULO is in a peculiar position in that he was the individual who requested

[] to borrow $32,000 from [] and turn same over to ANGIULO with the idea in mind never to return the $32,000.

He requested advice from PATRIARCA as to what action he should take. PATRIARCA told him to first have [] contact [] who is now with JOE BURNS. [] should tell [] that he has no money and that any money derived from his investments is used for his day-to-day living. Further, that he has an obligation to ANGIULO, and that he has to pay that obligation off, first. When this obligation is taken care of, he will then attempt to repay the loan to []

ANGIULO is also to contact [] and tell him that he is financing the costs of [] trial and that when the case is completed, he will take all monies from [] operation until such time as his, ANGIULO's, loan is repaid. ANGIULO is also to tell BURNS of the above and state that these instructions came from PATRIARCA so that there will be no more talk concerning this situation.

At this point, an individual named [] entered to say, "Hello." ANGIULO indicated that [] was running for Lieutenant Governor of Rhode Island. He was instructed by PATRIARCA to stay away from PATRIARCA's place of business until the elections are over.

PATRIARCA had furnished instructions to take up a collection for a wedding of one of the members (of the Cosa Nostra. The identity of this individual was not known to the informant.)

It appeared that NICK GISO had sent the envelope for collection to JOE BURNS, through RONNIE CASSESSA of Boston, Mass. BURNS did not, at first, take up a collection of his group, stating that the envelope should not have come through RONNIE CASSESSA, a non-member.

PATRIARCA apparently requested the envelope and SAM GRANITO went to BURNS and told him to take up the collection immediately. He obtained $25 from [] $20 from PETER DI CARLO, and $15 from [] (PH).

PATRIARCA had been told by JOSEPH MODICA that SALVATORE RIZZO and TOMMY BROWN (TOMMY LUCHESE of NYC) had given Atty. Gen'l. BROOKE $7,500 in connection with the Berkshire Downs Race Track investigation by the Attorney General's office in Massachusetts. BROOKE, according to MODICA, was instrumental in curtailing the activities of the Grand Jury in investigating this race track.

At the present time, BROOKE is looking for another $5,000 (probably to be used for his election campaign).

PAPPINO also told PATRIARCA that he "fits in" very well with ROBERT W. MAC DONALD, recently appointed Commissioner of Public Safety, Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

According to PAPPINO, MAC DONALD has eaten at his summer home on the Cape and he has been out on boating trips with him. PAPPINO allegedly made the statement that he can control the State Police as far as running crap games is concerned because of the above connection. MAC DONALD allegedly has already called MODICA "to do some kind of business."

PATRIARCA instructed ANGIULO to see PAPPINO relative to his association with MAC DONALD.

ANGIULO stated that an individual named [redacted] was interested in buying the Indian Meadow Country Club (IMCC), according to his attorney handling the foreclosure aspect of the IMCC. [redacted] is allegedly from Providence, R. I.

PATRIARCA made inquiry as to which [redacted] might be interested in this club. He stated that it might be [redacted] of his friend, THOMAS PAOLINO, Rhode Island Supreme Court Judge.

ANGIULO has been to the SBA in connection with the first mortgage of the IMCC. He showed them two releases he had obtained from [redacted] when he obtained the original stock owned by [redacted] SBA had notified [redacted] being the [redacted] of the note amounting to $160,000.

ANGIULO claims they were in error in not first notifying him. He showed the agreements he had with [redacted]

SBA then admitted that he, ANGIULO, should have been notified. Subsequently, ANGIULO obtained additional releases from [redacted] and it is now necessary for him to raise $160,000 to take over the first mortgage held by SBA.

When his attorney contacted [redacted] he, [redacted] wanted a release from his assignees which was to be the [redacted] company under the name of the Huntington Realty Trust Co. [redacted] wanted a complete release, including exoneration from any dealings he might have had since the inception of the club. ANGIULO told him he could not give him that type of release as his actions, prior to the time ANGIULO invested in the club, are subject to the regulations of SBA, and that if he wanted to get complete exoneration, it would have to be from SBA (This apparently referred to a possible fraud on the part of [redacted] in his initial application for an SBA loan for the IMCC).

ANGIULO has checked into the possibility of fixing his IRS case, in the Circuit Court of Appeals. He has ascertained that the Circuit Court of Appeals is made up of three Judges:

Judge BAILEY ALDRICH

Judge WOODEURY of Vermont

Judge HARRIGAN from Rhode Island

He has ascertained that nobody can approach ALDRICH, but thought that an approach could be made to [redacted] of New Hampshire, as BRIDGES was instrumental in the appointment of WOODEURY to the Circuit Court of Appeals.

BS 92-118

He further ascertained that HARTIGAN was a very fair Judge and inquired of PATRIARCA as to who might know HARTIGAN.

PATRIARCA replied that [redacted] a Doctor, knows him and considers him a good fellow. (However, no indication was made to the informant that an approach would be made to Judge HARTIGAN.)

ANGIULO further stated that they are attempting to make a deal with VINNIE BROGNA to have [redacted] loan sharking case in Suffolk Superior Court assigned "to the right Judge." (VINNIE BROGNA is probably Superior Court Justice VINCENT BROGNA, or [redacted])

No dissemination is being made at this time concerning the allegations relative to Attorney General EDWARD W. BROOKE of Massachusetts and Public Safety Commissioner ROBERT W. MAC DONALD, as both PATRIARCA and ANGIULO stated that MODICA, who made the statements, is a "boaster" and they do not believe him at this time. In the event that the information is verified, further consideration for dissemination will be made.

In the event the Bureau is aware of the identity of [redacted] (PH), information should be furnished the Boston Office.

PETER LIMONE knew an individual (identity unknown) who is attempting to obtain admission to Springfield College. RAYMOND suggested that he contact [redacted] (possibly [redacted]) who is with SAM (CUFARI), as he had a contact at Springfield College. [redacted] was described as a big, tall kid.

On 4/21/64, [redacted] (INU) requested permission from RAYMOND to operate the Green Ticket Lottery. RAYMOND told him that he will look into the matter and let him know in a couple of weeks. He also tells him that he has to have the "OK from the law" to operate a lottery or any gambling enterprise because, "if you have not got the law today, you can't stay in the gaming business."

SAM GRANITO of Revere, Mass. contacted PATRIARCA.

According to the informant, GRANITO desired to contact PATRIARCA in connection with JOE BURNS. JOE BURNS has been running around with six or seven wise guys and he, BURNS, is opening up a club in a store a couple of blocks from the fire station, near his, BURNS's, business. BURNS inquired of GRANITO what he thought of ROMEO MARTIN without telling him the reason for the question.

SAM indicated that he did not know MARTIN too well, after which he was asked whether he, SAM, had any objections to MARTIN being made a member of Cosa Nostra.

SAM replied in the negative.

RAYMOND stated that the first time he saw JOE BURNS in approximately three years was recently. At that time he proposed RONNIE CASSESSA and ROMEO MARTIN.

PATRIARCA was angry and so told BURNS, in that he did not propose the names properly.

According to PATRIARCA, if anyone desires to propose a name for membership, they must first check with all members in the particular locality, such as Boston. When no objections are received from all other members he then, and only then, comes to PATRIARCA with the proposal.

He told BURNS that he must contact all members in Boston, and if he receives no objection from them, he then can propose the names to PATRIARCA. He further told BURNS that the membership is still closed, and there is no indication as to when it will be re-opened.

RAYMOND further stated that BURNS, when he came to Providence, had [redacted] with him. [redacted] was supposed to come back with [redacted] who was very friendly with PATRIARCA's wife, HELEN, but never showed up.

After eating at PATRIARCA's house, they went to the Canteen and saw JOE BURNS. JOE BURNS at this time was with RONNIE CASSESSA, whom RAYMOND described as a "very quiet, respectable individual who did not say three words." Other than this meet, he did not know CASSESSA.

RAYMOND added that someone who is very quiet is either a fool or very smart.

It appeared that ROMEO MARTIN had indicated to BURNS that RAYMOND was friendly with him when both were in prison. RAYMOND stated that he may have been in prison with him, but the only ones he was friendly with were [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted] a kid from the North End.

PETER LIMONE told PATRIARCA that ROMEO MARTIN is not too good a kid.

JOE BURNS is apparently looking ahead and trying to build up his group with a lot of young fellows. RAYMOND stated that BURNS has "a lot of idiots around him." SAM indicated that he has two kids in mind when the opportunity presents itself (one of whom was [redacted] and the other he did not identify) but did not go into further detail.

It appeared that GRANITO has been looking for the [redacted] (PH) kid, but he has not been around for six or seven weeks. He had everything lined up through [redacted] but the kid "slipped through their fingers" (informant did not know any further details concerning this).

[redacted] called SAM the other night. He has been in New York and heard that JERRY was in trouble with IRS. [redacted] said that he is broke and is having his own problems in New York.

SAM stated that [redacted] was very favorably disposed toward PATRIARCA, as he said he gave him "a fair shake."

SAM stated that he grabbed [redacted] and [redacted] for [redacted] and obtained money owed to [redacted] for him. He stated that [redacted] was in Boston with "FAT TONY" SALERNO recently.

BS 92-118

[redacted] received the "OK" to have [redacted] (PH) go to work for [redacted] used to be with [redacted] and [redacted] was attempting to get a job for [redacted] through [redacted] in New York. [redacted] was to contact [redacted] in order to get a job for [redacted] in the stadium in New York.

When [redacted] heard that [redacted] was available, he contacted [redacted] and now [redacted] desires to obtain the services of [redacted]. However, before GRANITO put the "OK" for [redacted] to work for [redacted] he wanted permission from PATRIARCA, and received same.

According to SAM, [redacted] saw ABE SARKIS and ABE "stopped four weeks ago" (Informant did not know the significance of this remark).

When discussing the Boston members, RAYMOND made the comment that there was "a lot of garbage in Boston." SAM agreed and said that the outsiders would be shocked at the garbage in Boston.

RAYMOND remarked, "I have a hold of the reigns but I don't know where the horse is going."

On the same date, TEDDY FUCILLO, Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA. FUCILLO was attempting to place a New York representative of dresses in the Lawrence, Mass. area. However, he ascertained that things are real rough in Lawrence and that he should not locate there. (This individual apparently is friendly with PATRIARCA and has several dress shops in NYC.)

FUCILLO attended a dinner at SARDO CAMPO's banana place, Commercial Wharf, Boston. The affair took place in the loft and in attendance were ex-Gov. FOSTER PURCOLO, Comsr. GEORGE F. MC GRATH of the Massachusetts penal system, and an Italian member of the penal system by the name of [redacted] (PH), and "SONNY" MC DONOUGH, of the Governor's Council.

FUCILLO approached [redacted] to assist [redacted] in obtaining the parole from the Massachusetts Prison. [redacted] stated he had been approached before and wanted no part of it. FUCILLO then talked to Comsr. MC GRATH and he agreed to do something for him inasmuch as he has only four months to go and he is a sick man. MC GRATH requested to have [] contact him the following Tuesday to remind him to attempt to effect the parole of []

FUCILLO also stated that "SONNY" MC DONOUGH had talked to EDDIE MC CORMACK, former Attorney General in the State of Massachusetts, in an attempt to assist in the release of [] from the Suffolk County House of Correction. (There was no indication to the informant whether MC CORMACK will assist in the release of []

Re: Airtel 4/23/64, entitled "Raymond Patriarca, aka."

AD.

Appropriate officials of the Department have been contacted regarding Angiulo's meeting with one [redacted] or [redacted] (phonetic), as set forth in reairtel, and the identities of Department and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) personnel handling organized crime matters in New England have been discreetly reviewed. No Departmental, or IRS employee, in this category, having a name closely approximating [redacted] or [redacted] (phonetic), as received by BS 837-C*, has been noted. You should maintain close contact with the above source and other logical sources for any additional information pertinent to this matter, and advise the Bureau if, from review of data from BS 837-C*, it was your impression that [redacted] was a Federal employee, or possibly an individual not directly connected with the Government, who claimed ability to influence the activities of IRS and/or Departmental personnel handling Angiulo's tax case.

NOTE: BS received information from BS 837-C*, covering Patriarca, regarding a discussion between Angiulo and Patriarca concerning an individual with whom Angiulo met for the purpose of discussing his IRS case. This individual, whose name was received by the above source phonetically as [redacted] or [redacted] reportedly claimed to Angiulo that he could intercede on Angiulo's behalf with IRS and/or the Department in Angiulo's pending IRS case.

Upon his return to the Washington, D. C., area, [redacted] Departmental Attorney assigned to organized crime matters in New England was contacted, together with [redacted] of the Department, and a discreet check was made of the identities of IRS and Departmental personnel assigned this type work in New England. No employee with a name similar to that received by the above-mentioned source was noted.

It will be recalled that [] purchased liquor at wholesale and sold same to [] of Chelsea, Mass. on a promise of receiving more. [] and CUCCHIARA gave [] additional money, but the liquor was never delivered.

Massachusetts Comsr. of Corrections, MC GRATH, has advised that "He is doing something" in order to effect the release of [] from the Massachusetts Correctional Institution, Walpole, Mass. [] will do everything he can to effect this release.

FUCILLO stated that everything is "tightened up" in regard to HOFFA.

[] of Boston had called [] who is in Chicago. [] told [] that HOFFA was going to trial that day and that because of the investigations relative to HOFFA, he, HOFFA, was unable to do anything at this time.

[] is [] and is to open up a dine and dance place in Maine called [] This nightclub is in the vicinity of Colby College, and they expect to do a large business.

[] of Boston, Mass. and Maine has obtained the public relations accounts of Slumberland Mattress Co. and the Federal Wine and Liquor. In the event they are able to obtain one or two more accounts, this business will be very successful.

PATRIARCA asked FUCILLO about [] who has the trucks "at the Gateway." According to TEDDY, the kid was alright. TEDDY apparently, from previous instructions of PATRIARCA, had inquired relative to this situation. He found out from [] that an individual named [] or [] from New York, who is in with [] has the lobster business tied up between Boston and New York. [] who was very friendly with [] of [] Trucking Co., has given him the contract.

[redacted] is in partnership with [redacted] Boston hoodlum who is allegedly marked for assassination by the [redacted]

There was mention of a [redacted] of Miami, Fla. who is in the [redacted] business with [redacted] and this operation is very big, according to PATRIARCA.

According to PATRIARCA, they (probably referring to [redacted]) are going to buy two 40-foot boats, and further, that [redacted] of the Neptune Oil Co., Boston, Mass., supplies the fishing boats with oil.

PATRIARCA stated that the [redacted] thing appears good and asked that TEDDY look into this operation and ascertain the details of same.

ALFRED ROSSI and [redacted] contacted PATRIARCA. It appeared that [redacted] was sent to Florida to purchase four pieces of fur from [redacted]. He purchased same for the total of $224.87, of which the sales tax was $5.97. This apparently is in connection with the theft of furs by ALFREDO ROSSI for which he (ROSSI) is presently under federal indictment in Providence, R. I. for receiving.

It appears that ROSSI's attorney will use these furs in an effort to confuse the witness who is to identify the furs that have been stolen in Florida. The address that [redacted] furnished when he purchased these furs and received a bill of sale for same was [redacted] New York, N. Y. [redacted] has apparently identified 30 of the fur pieces originally stolen.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., is levelling land owned by PATRIARCA on Samuel Gordon Road, near the ocean (probably in Cranston, R. I.). [redacted] is selling 10,000 lottery tickets at the present time, having increased this number from 7-10 during the past month. He apparently is having some problem in the issuance of these tickets and is thinking of raising the price of same from 65¢ to 75¢. It has cost him over $1,500 in fines during the recent past, in addition to defense attorneys' fees which have amounted to a substantial sum.

CHARLIE CURRAN, Attorney, who handles the defense of these cases has increased his price from $200 to $400. PATRIARCA suggested that he make a deal with CURRAN to handle all of them for $250 per client.

On 4/30/64 and 5/1/64 no pertinent activity took place.

On 5/4/64, JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, advised that [] had received the papers through the efforts of Judge BARRY of Springfield, Mass., but had to pay $1,500 to BARRY for the papers.

Informant was unable to ascertain the details of the papers but stated they referred to the papers concerning the Berkshire Downs Race Track, Hancock, Mass. [] has recently received authority from the Massachusetts Racing Commission to run flat racing at Berkshire Downs, and this increases the value of the track, according to KIRK.

[] of [] is giving [] a bad time. According to PATRIARCA, both [] and [] when the Berkshire Downs was originally formed, received $50,000 in cash from [] the electrician, and he [] was to receive some shares in the Berkshire Downs Race Track. However, [] and [] kept the money and never turned over any stock to []. [] went to SAUL FRIEDMAN and FRIEDMAN told him not to mention the fact that he had given $50,000 to [] and [] as IRS officials knew about same and were inquiring as to this payment.

[] noted Boston Philanthropist, desires to place [] (LNU) in the Berkshire Downs Race Track and thus is interested in obtaining a portion of the track. PATRIARCA said that it would be a good thing if [] did obtain a portion of the track and suggested that 50% of the track be sold to []. He stated [] has the connections whereby they can obtain more racing dates and increase the value of the track.

KIRK had contacted [] Rockingham Race Track, and also [] the Suffolk Downs Race Track. He is attempting to persuade both

BS 92-118

[] and [] of the Lincoln Downs Race Track, to take six less days of racing and have a portion of these days assigned to the Berkshire Downs. According to [] (probably referring to []) is the cause of most of the trouble (apparently referring to racing dates).

KIRK had ascertained that [] had told [] that "the boys" are interested in Berkshire Downs Race Track. [] denied same.

KIRK did not want to threaten [] but stated that if he did not go along with their ideas concerning racing dates his totalizator board would be blown up at Rockingham Park.

[] had inquired of JOE KIRK as to what Cadillac agency PATRIARCA was interested in, as [] the Massachusetts Crime Commission, had told [] that PATRIARCA had a connection with a Cadillac agency. PATRIARCA, according to the informant, stated that it probably referred to [] the Seacrest Motor Co. in Lynn, Mass.

Informant also advised that Mrs. HELEN PATRIARCA, wife of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, is in very serious condition at the New England Baptist Hospital. She took a turn for the worse, 4/30/64, and is not expected to live. According to the Doctors, PATRIARCA will not be allowed to take her home but might be allowed to transfer her to a Providence hospital for convenience.

A copy of this communication is being forwarded the Albany Division in view of the fact that a surveillance conducted by the Boston Office on 4/30/64 in the case entitled, []; ET AL. AR," reflected that [] and [] were at the premises of the Neptune Oil Co., which is [] mentioned herein. This information was set out in Eosairtel to Albany dated 4/30/64.

In the recent past, "PINKY" asked SAM CUFARI whether he could take over the business again, and cut out [redacted]

CUFARI ruled that "PINKY" was to take over this business which would result in the remainder of the group not receiving any remuneration from same.

According to [redacted] "They all make a living on this venture." [redacted] thought that the decision by CUFARI was wrong, but that he did not know whether PATRIARCA had any jurisdiction in the matter.

PATRIARCA answered that if it is bad business, it's everybody's business, and issued instructions for SAM CUFARI not to bother the present setup until he has a conference with PATRIARCA and irons the matter out. He said that CUFARI had no right to change the setup in Worcester unless they had a meeting, and it was to everybody's benefit to change the setup.

When [redacted] was made by RAYMOND, he "threw in" "PINKY", as well, and if it was not for him(RAYMOND), "PINKY" would not be a member today. RAYMOND further pointed out that originally this operation was theirs but they gave SAM a piece of the operation, and SAM apparently turns part of the proceeds over to New York.

PATRIARCA was critical in that "PINKY" brought a load of hot merchandise (probably referring to the Carter's Underwear stolen from the Akers Motor Transportation Co. on 9/9-10/63) where the load was taken by some wise guys in New York.

The Irish kid (meaning [redacted]) wanted to kill "PINKY." However, PATRIARCA interceded and attempted to get some money to settle the issue from "PINKY."

[redacted] also mentioned that [redacted] who was known as the [redacted] formerly of Milford, Mass., now of Worcester, Mass., had contacted him recently. [redacted] wanted to borrow $5,000 to put out as loan-shark money in Boston.

RAYMOND told [] to tell [] not to do it because the wise guys in Boston would steal the money.

PATRIARCA meets ANGIULO every day at the hospital where his wife is a patient and eats dinner with PATRIARCA in the hospital cafeteria.

[] inquired of a [] (PH) who [] in Cambridge, Mass. The reason was not stated by [] PATRIARCA did not know [] but stated that [] is [] of the hotels in the Boston area.

One UNMAN from Brooklyn, N. Y. and another UNMAN contacted PATRIARCA. The individual from Brooklyn has not seen RAYMOND in five years. He attempted to sell RAYMOND a franchise for selling World's Fair Tickets in the Rhode Island area. This booklet containing the tickets is backed by [] and [] New York Giants.

The tickets save $78 in World's Fair admissions, plus an additional $122 for admissions and food at certain restaurants and nightclubs in the New York area. The tickets are bought by the Brooklyn individual for $4 and sell for not less than $7.50. PATRIARCA made no commitment relative to this offer.

The Brooklyn individual also advised that he is attempting to obtain a large, nice apartment in the vicinity of the World's Fair and lease it under somebody else's name and have it available for the boys when they visit or bring their families to New York.

RAYMOND indicated that he might be interested in this apartment during the latter part of August if same is available.

PATRIARCA's wife is still a patient at the New England Baptist Hospital and he visits her every day.

The Bureau agrees that the situation involving the obtaining of "paper loans" by Angiulo and others offers excellent potential, not only for improved intelligence coverage of these hoodlums' financial transactions, but for possible Federal Reserve Act violations. However, Bureau authority is not necessary to enable a field office to work closely with FDIC and/or IRS. Based on your analysis of data received from your sources regarding this situation, Boston should set out specific leads to cause the establishment of necessary coverage to enable the monitoring of appropriate records, particularly in Miami.

Boston and interested offices should afford this line of investigation preferred attention and keep the Bureau advised of significant developments.

NOTE: Information has been developed from highly confidential coverage of Patriarca and Angiulo regarding sizeable loans which Angiulo and his associates are obtaining through a contact with a banking official in Miami, Florida. It would appear from discussions regarding this scheme that there is an element of fraud involved in these transactions, and Boston and Miami Offices have been making inquiries regarding the exact manner in which these loans are obtained and repaid.

to the loan going through a Bank of Nova Scotia and a bank in the Bahamas. The Bank of Miami Beach, according to this source, is apparently [redacted] a New York hoodlum.

It is felt that the above transactions present a possibility of obtaining possible prosecutive violations under the Federal Reserve Act against members of La : Cosa Nostra, namely, ANGIULO, [redacted] and possibly others.

In view of this, the Bureau should authorize the Miami Division to set up some sort of a working arrangement with FDIC and/or IRS and review the results of the examinations apparently conducted recently by these two agencies.

It is felt that the Miami agents can set up a close working arrangement with the FDIC that more current information can be developed in connection with recent loans of ANGIULO and [redacted] as detailed in reference communication.

It is felt that this situation at the Bank of Miami Beach, if properly exploited, could develop a great deal of intelligence information regarding these financial transactions of the Top Hoodlums, as well as develop additional prosecutive violations under the Federal Reserve Act.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., furnished an unknown amount of money to PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA informed [redacted] that the job he [redacted] was seeking for his friend as a Janitor in Boston could not be obtained, as Mayor COLLINS of Boston had already promised it to someone.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., furnished an unknown amount of money to PATRIARCA for their numbers operation in Rhode Island. [redacted] explained that a hit had been made on number 325 the previous week. A play of $17.10 had been made on this number, which necessitated a payoff of $7,942. [redacted] requested that RAYMOND loan him $5,000, as he only had $2,492. PATRIARCA advised that he would furnish the $5,000 on Tuesday, 5/12/64.

[redacted] explained that he is sending [redacted] to Chicago to pick up $35,000 from the bible manufacturer, for whom [redacted]

[redacted] is very skeptical over the hit on number 325 mentioned above. He investigated same and brought in the agent [redacted] [redacted] explained the $17.10 was bet by various members of one family, and that if they had looked at the previous receipts they would have observed that numerous amounts have been bet each day on number 325.

[redacted] did not know whether to believe [redacted] PATRIARCA called in [redacted] and questioned him concerning this hit. After [redacted] left, PATRIARCA was of the opinion that [redacted] could have slipped in the bet and ordered that [redacted] investigate the matter further.

PATRIARCA pointed out that the Office Manager should never accept a total of more than $8 on any one number and had previously issued orders relative to this. [redacted] explained that the Office Manager was a new employee and apparently did not understand this maximum bet.

Concerning the land deal in Florida, [redacted] intends to go to New York in the near future. He requests that the next time RAYMOND goes to New York to see [redacted] of New Jersey, he would appreciate it if PATRIARCA would ask [redacted] certain questions relative to their alleged ownership of the [redacted] in Las Vegas, Nev. BS 92-118

[] would be in a position to assist them in obtaining the return of their original investment.

PATRIARCA indicated that when he is going to New York, [] can furnish him a list of questions, and he would propose same to []

It appears that [] feels that they still own three points (apparently referring to himself, PATRIARCA, and [] of Providence, R. I.) Because they did not obtain a signed paper when they released their interest, they are unable to obtain the return of their investment. According to [] at the time of the sale they were supposed to receive 4% of $600,000 for five years, which would be a total of $72,000.

According to [] the crux of the argument is the long period of time that [] and PATRIARCA waited to claim their partial ownership of the []

"LOUIS. THE FOX" TAGLIANETTI of Providence, R. I. had met [] (mentioned previously as a member of Cosa Nostra and associated with the race track element).

[] "had a hot horse" going in the last race on Thursday or Friday of last week, 5/7 or 8/64 (probably at Lincoln Downs). [] called him, gave him the name of the horse which he, in turn, gave to [] (LNU). Prior to the time [] went to the track at 7:00 p.m. he contacted TAGLIANETTI at his home and asked whether or not he, TAGLIANETTI, wanted to place a bet on same. TAGLIANETTI gave him $20, and the horse paid $920 to win, which was a net profit of $72 to TAGLIANETTI.

TAGLIANETTI stated to PATRIARCA that everyone in Providence thinks that he bet $3,000 on the horse, and he wanted to explain to RAYMOND that he only had a $20 bet on same.

According to [] the horse named [], owned by [] won the last race on 5/8/64 and paid $9.20.

In the meantime he would contact SIMONELLI and arrange with SIMONELLI to straighten out the situation.

JOE KIRK has not heard from SAM RIZZO in quite some time.

According to KIRK, [] has a couple of more weeks to go at Berkshire Downs and he is hopeful of obtaining some money from the present meet.

BS 92-118

PATRIARCA pointed out that he did not want to hear of Berkshire Downs again because every time he talks about it he gets sick at the amount of money that he has lost, "not only for himself, but for his friends."

PATRIARCA would be much happier if he could arrange to return the investment of [redacted] in this track, but it will probably be 10 years before this can be done.

He pointed out that the next time he enters into a venture like this, he would not listen to anyone else but "leave it to his own brains," so that if he does lose money, he will not feel so bad. He became very angry, and stated that he's thinking of taking the little guy and throwing him in the backseat and find out what happened at this track.

According to [redacted] of Rockingham Park gave JOHN THOMPSON, Speaker of the Massachusetts House, a payoff of $40,000 to have additional racing dates for Berkshire Downs voted down. [redacted] Green Mountain track is very close to Berkshire Downs and [redacted] did not want additional racing dates in that vicinity.

KIRK was present with SAM RIZZO several months ago when he offered JOHN POWERS, former Majority House Leader, Massachusetts Senate, a bribe of $25,000 to obtain these dates. He feels that [redacted] offer of $40,000 to THOMPSON was the reason that POWERS did not accept the $25,000 offer.

KIRK asked PATRIARCA to contact TOMMY LUCHESE, aka TOMMY BROWN of NYC, in order to get a job in the Las Vegas gambling casinos. PATRIARCA indicated that he received a call 10 days ago from SAUL FRIEDMAN stating that the boys in New York wanted to see him in New York. PATRIARCA could not go to New York because of his wife's illness, but he expects that he will go in the near future. He instructed FRIEDMAN to return the call and tell the boys in New York that he would not be down until later.

PATRIARCA suggested to KRIKORIAN that he work in some casino in another country, as there are a lot of them

Re Boston telephone call to NY 5/21/64.
 5/21/64,

Subject arrived NYC 2:40 pm/aboard New Haven Railroad Train, "The Senator", without luggage, accompanied by Boston agent. NYO agents instituted fisur at station. Subject proceeded via tax/to Park Sheraton Hotel, Broadway and 56th St., NYC, where he walked through lobby and out several times, then walked on Broadway. Subject entered Patsy's Restaurant, 236 West 56th St., NYC, at 4:00 pm. NYO agents determined subject was not in main area of restaurant, but apparently in private dining room on second floor.

At approximately 7:00 pm, THOMAS LUCHESE, subject of NY 92-665, Bufile 92-2878, observed departing Patsy's Restaurant followed within a few minutes by subject and unknown male described as white male, 45-50, 5'10", 190 lbs., dark hair, prominent nose.

For information of Bureau, Boston advised PATRIARCA was possibly to meet with LUCHESE, MIKE MIRANDA and PINKY (LNU).

MIRANDA not observed departing restaurant or in restaurant later. Unknown male who departed restaurant bears resemblance to photo of COSMO J. "PINKY" PANARELLI, subject Boston 92-593, NY 92-2284.

Requested Boston furnish any available profile photos of PANARELLI to NY for Special Agents to view.

Fisur discontinued after subject's departure from restaurant in order to maintain security of Boston source.

According to FUCILLO, [] contacted the telephone operator who was furnishing free long-distance calls to him in connection with the Sportsday Weekly and told her to stop several weeks before the investigation started.

[] and [] contacted PATRIARCA in connection with a swindle perpetrated by [] and []. It appears that a friend of [] was heavily in debt and, prior to the time he either went into bankruptcy or settled all his debts, he wanted to pay the $5,700 owed to []. He went to his lawyer and gave him the $5,700 to pay []. In some manner, unknown to the informant, [] and [] through an individual named [] swindled the lawyer out of some of the $5,700 which resulted in [] collecting only $1,000.

[] and [] questioned [] and [] but they denied making over $1,200 on the deal. Inasmuch as [] was a good friend of [] and because he had done the group in Worcester, Mass. favors in the past, [] felt that he should obtain the $5,700.

SAM CUFARI was supposed to come into Worcester to settle the issue. PATRIARCA issued orders for [] to tell CUFARI that [] is to obtain the full payment of $5,700 and that [] and [] should pay it back immediately. If the money is not available to them, it should come out of the booking business in the Worcester area. If SAM does not go along with PATRIARCA's orders, he (PATRIARCA) will bring the situation to the attention of New York.

PATRIARCA was aware of the possibility that [] and [] "might buy CUFARI off" and, if he does so, "he (PATRIARCA) will step in."

PATRIARCA indicated he was going to New York to see TOMMY BROWN (True Name Luchese) and MIKE MIRANDA. The reason for his contact with BROWN concerned the Berkshire Downs Race Track. The reason for the contact with MIRANDA was unknown to the informant.

BS 92-118

ANGIULO advised that he could not locate the [redacted] that they apparently had talked about before. It was not [redacted] of East Boston, Mass., or JOE DE ANGELIS of Revere, Mass.

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] Boston hoodlum, had contacted him relative to five shares of capital voting stock of [redacted], which was made out to "Credit Swiss" and a bank number following this. According to [redacted] this stock is worth $265,000 and was taken in a robbery in NYC.

[redacted] also mentioned at this time that the same individuals from New York had in their possession eight or nine months ago 50 $10,000-bills and desired to get rid of them. ANGIULO expressed an interest in the $10,000-bills but, as yet, has not heard from [redacted] as to whether they still had same. He asked [redacted] if the stock was taken in the same burglary or robbery as was the currency. [redacted] replied that he did not know, but the same individuals offered both currency and securities to him. The only information he had was that the robbery of the currency was from a bookmaker. PATRIARCA could not understand how a bookmaker would have in his possession $10,000-bills, as they are most difficult to get rid of.

In connection with this, HENRY TAMELEO was later called in and he had a photostat of the above-named stock. He was to contact a friend of his who is a stock broker in the Boston area to ascertain the true value of the stock and whether or not they would be able to sell same.

A [redacted] from New York who claimed to be close to TOMMY BROWN contacted ANGIULO recently. [redacted] is [redacted] (a former Boston fighter) [redacted] According to PATRIARCA, "He's RIZZO's kid." The guy that is with TOMMY BROWN." He described him as 45 or 46; bald; big frame; and more of a Jewish than an Italian look.

According to RAYMOND, [redacted] is a member of La Cosa Nostra.

Informant was of the opinion that [redacted] true name was [redacted] is with [redacted] who used to be with [redacted] (LNU). [redacted] owes $12,000 to [redacted] and, for the past four or five years, has never attempted to repay any of this loan.

[] wanted to make sure that [] is telling the truth when he says that [] owes the $12,000, as [] is [] man."

JERRY told him that he brought [] from New York for the express purpose of using him here and at the present time he has lost approximately $170,000 with [] Further, that [] is in bad shape financially and would not be able to repay any part of this loan until such time as they are able to get $170,000 out of []

[] gave [] a number which hit and paid only $20,400 on the hit. [] brought the money to ANGIULO for the hit. He claimed to be a partner of [] [] pays "8 and 5" and the payoff should have been $24,800. He intends to talk to [] in order to get the additional $4,400.

ANGIULO lost a substantial amount of money recently when the number 7-6-9 came out. He lays off $7,000 a month to BURNS and ascertained that BURNS paid the full amount on number 7-6-9; whereas he (ANGIULO) only pays half.

ANGIULO pointed out to PATRIARCA that because of this undercutting in the numbers business he is losing a substantial amount of business. PATRIARCA told him that he should have the meeting with JOE BURNS now and not wait for JOHNNY FOTO (true name JOHNNY BIELES) to come back.

ANGIULO stated that [] of Revere, Mass. is hanging around with [] of Revere, Mass. [] is running around with four Irishmen and they are all carrying pistols. PATRIARCA stated "that is [] problem and let him handle it." If it were not for the pleas of different individuals (names not mentioned), [] would be dead now, as he (PATRIARCA) thought that he should have been killed, but only because of the pleas, the order was not given out by PATRIARCA. Informant did not know what the reason for the "beef" against [] was.

They discussed the killing of former MDC Patrolman RUSSELL C. NICHOLSON. RAYMOND stated that it could not have been [] who did it because [] could not get that close to NICHOLSON. They decided it must have been set up by []

JERRY pointed out that [redacted] of East Boston, Mass., who was involved in the trailer (probably referring to the theft of Carter's Underwear from the Akers Motor Transportation Co. in 9/63), was friendly with [redacted]. They spoke of another individual who was with [redacted] for five or six years and who came from the West End section of Boston. This kid is an Irishman.

[redacted] ANGIULO stated that [redacted] killed [redacted] (This does not coincide with information furnished by Boston informants, although [redacted] EDWARD "PUNCHIE" MC LAUGHLIN, was allegedly present at the time [redacted] was killed).

PETER LIMONE stated he contacted [redacted] of East Boston and said that he got that thing straightened out. RAYMOND pointed out that they might be able to use the trucks at the garage at a future date.

PATRIARCA mentioned that [redacted] (LNU) made a lot of money in Vermont and [redacted] for a couple of million dollars. He suggested that JERRY might contact FUCILLO to use [redacted] for defense in his income tax problems.

According to PATRIARCA, TEDDY is showing $60,000 through [redacted].

ANGIULO stated that they opened up the crap game in the South End section of Boston and had to pay some law off.

JERRY ANGIULO, when he contacted TOMMY BROWN recently, asked if he knew JERRY RYAN. The answer was unknown to the informant, but it appears that [redacted] owes $30,000 to this guy (probably referring to [redacted]).

LUCHESE told ANGIULO that [redacted] made a couple of good scores recently; however, by the time ANGIULO contacted [redacted] it was too late as he had paid off all of his debts, except that owed [redacted], and had no money left.

ANGIULO has paid off the Indian Meadow Country Club first mortgage of $160,000 and also owns the third mortgage of $50,000. According to ANGIULO, they have $337,000 in the Club at the time, of which PATRIARCA owns $55,000 or $56,000.

SAM was instructed to tell [] to leave his car at the Stage Coach Grill and walk to RICCI's house. He (PATRIARCA) would travel to RICCI's house in a truck (apparently owned by the National Cigarette Vending Machine Co.).

According to PATRIARCA, JOHNNY FOTO, aka BIELES, is still in hot water.

FOTO apparently went to the hospital to see [] (probably [] and told [] to forget about it. The informant did not know to what this referred.

During the conversation PATRIARCA requested GRANITO to tell him (not known to the informant) the following story: That VINCENT MAURO (of NYC) was furnishing information to the Feds and that NICK (probably BIANCO of Brooklyn, N. Y.) had ascertained this information from an individual who was in charge of the confidential files. GRANITO pointed out that [] had received a 20-year sentence (apparently in connection with the narcotics violation) and VINNIE MAURO had received 12 years. GRANITO stated that VINNIE MAURO was very close to the family but indicated he was not a member. MAURO apparently has some information on various members of La Cosa Nostra.

[] (INU) complained to PATRIARCA that some young juvenile delinquents were causing trouble at his restaurant and broke a window. He requested PATRIARCA's assistance in obtaining payment for the window and to have the young juveniles leave him alone. PATRIARCA advised that he would make sure that the payment is made and he would have no further trouble with these young juveniles.

[] mentioned that a kid from Boston was going "to jump a bank" (location and time not indicated). [] did not identify the kid from Boston but did indicate the bank had to be taken within 45 seconds. The possibility existed that they would have to get a garage in the vicinity of the bank and abandon the getaway car in the garage, leaving the guns and equipment there until they could be retrieved at a later time.

It should be noted that just prior to this conversation PATRIARCA described an unknown man (probably JERRY ANGLULO) as being "a friend of ours," which would indicate that [] is also a member of La Cosa Nostra.

TELEPHONE [REDACTED]
INFORMATION CONCERNING

[REDACTED] telephonically contacted Bureau at 3:15 A.M. 6-3-64 and spoke with SA Troy Coleman, Mid-Night Supervisor, Special Investigative Division. [REDACTED] stated that he desired to do something about the "local Mafia" and asked that he be contacted by an Agent. [REDACTED] said that he had information concerning the "local Mafia" and would like to help the FBI. He commented that approximately two months previously, he had [REDACTED] during altercation.

[REDACTED] said he had been drinking but stated he was well aware of what he was doing. He described himself as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] Providence, Rhode Island. He said he had tried to contact the Providence Agency and failing this he desired to call Washington.

OBSERVATIONS:

Bureau files contain no information identifiable with [REDACTED]. He volunteered that he had been drinking, however, this was not discernible in his speech or conversation. He refused to be more specific than this memorandum shows, however, Bureau files show that Raymond L. S. Patriarca is a well-known underworld character in Rhode Island and the subject of a current anti-racketeering investigation in which Boston is office of origin. (BS 92-118)

ACTION:

That the Boston Office be instructed unless that office has additional information which would preclude contacting [REDACTED] be discretely contacted and interviewed on the basis of his telephone contact with the Bureau.

An individual giving the name of [redacted] telephonically contacted the Bureau at 3:15 AM 6/3/64 calling long distance from Rhode Island. He gave his address as [redacted] Rhode Island, telephone [redacted] and describes his employment as [redacted] and [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island. He said that immediately prior to calling the Bureau he had attempted to contact the Providence Resident Agency.

[redacted] stated his reason for calling was that he had information concerning the "local Mafia" and would like to help the FBI. He claimed that approximately two months previously he had [redacted] during an altercation. E

When he called, [redacted] volunteered that he had been drinking. However, his speech was clear and his comments coherent.

In the absence of information available to your office making contact with [redacted] inadvisable, he should be discreetly contacted and interviewed for any information he has in his possession which would be of interest.

PATRIARCA told him that he intended to check the veracity of his statements. At this time UNMAN told PATRIARCA that he purchased [redacted] he sold from [redacted] (PH), aka [redacted] (PH). PATRIARCA again told UNMAN that if he was not telling the truth he would be harmed physically.

[redacted] is apparently attempting to line up an individual for the beating. The individual was, according to [redacted] observed in car [redacted] (registered to [redacted] Providence, R. I.). Informant did not know the reason for the proposed beating but did state that it had something to do with [redacted] (LNU) and [redacted] (LNU).

Concerning the proposed bank robbery at an unknown location, [redacted] stated that the kid who gave them the steer to the bank said that the bags of money were no longer kept in the same place. [redacted] although not involved directly, told the individuals who were supposed to take the bank that they should have taken it when they first received the information. One of these individuals told [redacted] that he is going into the bank to check and ascertain whether the bags of money are still there awaiting the armored car which arrives at the bank at 11:45 a.m. each day.

No further information was obtained relative to this proposed bank robbery.

On 6/3/64, the informant advised that [redacted] had reached an agreement with four of the five companies in their attempt to control the bid for a construction project. This project involves four separate contracts for four different parts of the project. The construction companies involved are [redacted] (PH) Construction Co., and the [redacted] Construction Co. A company controlled by an individual named [redacted] would be the only company that can underbid them. [redacted] had talked to [redacted] and [redacted] called a meeting to be held, at a date and place unknown to the informant, whereby PATRIARCA could talk to the contractors and make sure that they agreed to submit rigged bids. Their agreement would be to split the work up among the contractors, even though all do not succeed in obtaining the bid.

On 6/6/64, SA JEROME N. BOWERS, on a confidential basis, contacted Special Agent [redacted] International Narcotics Section, Federal Bureau of Narcotics, New York, concerning VINCENT MAURO and was advised that MAURO was definitely not furnishing information to the Federal Bureau of Narcotics. He stated that the Federal Bureau of Narcotics had received information approximately nine months ago to the effect that MAURO was furnishing information to "a Federal agency", and that within the past few days the rumor has come up again. [redacted] stated that in connection with these rumors, he contacted [redacted] for the Federal Bureau of Narcotics in New York, who denied that MAURO was furnishing any information to the Federal Bureau of Narcotics.

[redacted] stated he felt possibly that the rumors about MAURO furnishing information might have been started by underworld figures themselves in an attempt to identify their own associates who might be informants themselves.

In addition, Detective [redacted] NYCPD, advised SA [redacted] that no member of the GALLO group, including NICHOLAS BIANCO, has ever had any contact with any law enforcement agencies, local, State or Federal. It is noted that the NYCPD has numerous highly confidential sources and informants who furnish information concerning the GALLO group.

In view of the fact that the NYO has never received any information which would indicate that MAURO was furnishing information, or NICHOLAS BIANCO in a position to obtain any information, the NYO feels that information in referenced airtel is either speculation on the part of the underworld or an attempt on the part of the underworld figures to identify or frighten informants within their ranks by indicating they have access to the confidential files of a Federal agency.

On 6/5/64, NICK BIANCO of Brooklyn, N. Y. contacted PATRIARCA. He stated that [redacted] AND JOE COLOMBO sent their regards to RAYMOND. PATRIARCA mentioned an individual who was "on the lam" and is now residing at the [redacted] (place not mentioned but possibly New York). This individual is "on the lam" but the informant did not know the reason therefor. He instructed BIANCO to attempt to locate the individual at this hotel, but warned him not to let the individual see him and pointed out that he is a very cagey individual. BIANCO had been to New Jersey and discussed the matter "on the fish" but nothing could be done at this time.

PATRIARCA suggested that NICK contact [redacted] who has a place in Fiverton, R. I. and have him call the individual (identity unknown) and set up a meet in Connecticut.

NICK stated that he had an offer to buy World's Fair booklets for $2, providing he buys 3,000 of these booklets. PATRIARCA advised him to contact JERRY ANGIULO of Boston, Mass. in this regard.

NICK stated that a couple of fellows in New York who are in the alcohol market need a contact for purchasing sugar and asked RAYMOND whether he had any source. PATRIARCA pointed out that the "heat is on" in this area and that at the present time he had no source. He suggested that NICK contact an individual (whose name the informant could not obtain). PATRIARCA pointed out that the alcohol market is very profitable at the present time. He stated that only a year ago a gallon of alcohol was sold at a price of $5-$6. Today, the price on a gallon of alcohol is between $8 and $10. PATRIARCA said that he would attempt to line three or four fellows up in order to buy sugar and would recontact BIANCO at a later date to advise him what progress has been made in this regard.

BIANCO further stated that "they" want us to plead on a charge of conspiracy to commit murder in New York; however, "they" will not go along with the offer to plea. He believes that they will probably lie in jail for awhile, but it will be knocked out in Washington when it is appealed there.

PATRIARCA stated that he is looking for an individual who has good credit, who would be interested in purchasing the Berkshire Downs Race Track. [redacted] holds a $140,000 note and Sports Service of Buffalo, N. Y. holds a $375,000 note. If the individual is of good credit whereby he could show sufficient capital, he could take the track over with no money down.

According to PATRIARCA, [redacted] is calling "all the shots" at Suffolk Downs, which he learned during his recent visit to New York.

Concerning the Berkshire Downs Race Track, the sum of $200,000 was paid under the table in New York to straighten out the financial conditions of Berkshire Downs Race Track.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, Providence, R. I., and PATRIARCA discussed the Berkshire Downs Race Track. PATRIARCA does not want [redacted] operating the track as PATRIARCA and his associates would then have no way of getting their money out.

PATRIARCA stated that if the right people took over the track he thinks they should be able to make money.

BS 92-118

HENRY TAMELEO of Providence, R. I. contacted PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA got in late the previous evening from New York. He expects a phone call tonight from SAM CUFARI (the reason was unknown to the informant).

TAMELEO advised he had talked to [] and also JOE BURNS. JOE BURNS attempted to make an issue out of the "beef" mentioned in reairtel in front of RONNIE CASSESSA. RAYMOND made the remark that [] did not get along with anyone and, because of this, put him under the jurisdiction of GENNARO ANGIULO, whom he thinks will be able to handle []

[] discussed the murder of a small time Providence hoodlum named PALERMO the night previous. PALERMO had $800 of [] money "on the street" as loan shark money and now [] will not be able to be repaid.

It appeared that unknown individuals beat PALERMO to death when he (PALERMO) attempted to obtain payment from them for loan shark money.

On 6/12/64 PATRIARCA did not appear at his place of business.

On 6/15/64, UNMAN talked to PATRIARCA and attempted to obtain the release of [] by his first wife. This individual was a 17 year-old boy who was arrested for stealing two cars. His wife went to State Senator HOGAN, Lynn, Mass., after which they decided to leave the boy in jail for two or three days to teach him a lesson. The individual asked advice of PATRIARCA as to what to do for the boy as he knew that PATRIARCA had a teenage son.

PATRIARCA suggested to them that they scare the boy and leave him in jail for two or three days and then "fix it" so that the Judge will give the boy an ultimatum - either go in the Navy or to Prison. If the boy does not want to go into the Navy then the Judge will give him a suspended sentence. He suggested this arrangement could be made through GENNARO J. ANGIULO, Boston, Mass., who knows all the Judges - whose good, who can be reached, and so forth, and also the names of the attorneys who are friendly with all of the Judges in the Boston area. He pointed out that ANGIULO has bookmakers all over Massachusetts and thus is in a position to know this information.

Another UNMAN requests the backing of PATRIARCA for Attorney [redacted] who is running for the [redacted] of Rhode Island. PATRIARCA stated that [redacted] has started his campaign too late, and that JIM KIERNAN, the Democratic Majority Leader of Rhode Island in the House of Representatives is committed to [redacted] PATRIARCA was apologetic that he could not help.

[redacted] on Reservoir Ave near the Donut Shop, Providence, R. I., stated that he had been talking to [redacted] (PH). [redacted] before he was released from the Rhode Island State Prison, had been taken from this prison to USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE's office. PETTINE told [redacted] that he wanted to get RAYMOND PATRIARCA and was willing to finance [redacted] and furnish all protection needed by [redacted]

[redacted] apparently told PETTINE that he was willing to help. On the way back to the prison a Deputy [redacted] (PH) asked [redacted] why PETTINE wanted to see him. [redacted] told [redacted] the above story. [redacted] told [redacted] to keep his nose clean in order to live.

[redacted] later told [redacted] the above story.

[redacted] said that [redacted] requested that he [redacted] intercede for him with PATRIARCA to tell him the above story. A meeting was set up for PATRIARCA to see [redacted] first at [redacted] but later during the conversation, PATRIARCA decided that the meeting should take place at his (PATRIARCA's) place of business because if anything happened to [redacted] no one could ever say PATRIARCA went looking for [redacted]

According to [redacted] was to be wired and attempt to have PATRIARCA set him up in a still. PATRIARCA thought this was a stupid move but decided to see [redacted] as [redacted] had volunteered the information.

PETTINE was supposed to pay [redacted] $75 a month. An appointment between [redacted] and PATRIARCA was made for 6/18/64.

PATRIARCA discussed the above with [redacted] [redacted] stated that [redacted] was a first class stool pigeon, but RAYMOND said, "He was already for him."

HENRY TAMELEO, Providence, R. I., was told by PATRIARCA that he went to New York on 6/12/64.

BS 92-118

He did not indicate in what manner he travelled, but did return to Providence Saturday at 5:30 a.m. via train.

TAMELEO asked him how he got from New Jersey. PATRIARCA stated that he took a taxi from New Jersey to New York and it cost him $12 or $15.

According to BS 837-C*, the meet concerned JOHNNY BIELE, who has recently taken up residence in Boston, Mass. JOHNNY opened up the Peppermint Lounge, Miami, Fla., without the permission of the bosses of his family and, instead of offering pieces of the Peppermint Lounge to them, he offered it to [redacted] and [redacted] and members of other families.

MIKE "was hurt" when this happened. Subsequently, when he got in trouble and was possibly going to the "can," he got some Jew to help him. JOHNNY's man had a falling out with the Jewish guy who was MIKE's man. MIKE at this time sent for JOHNNY and told him for the time being "don't touch this guy" (meaning the Jew).

JOHNNY apparently told someone (unknown) and the story came back to MIKE, and he was extremely angry.

According to PATRIARCA, someone got in trouble with [redacted] and [redacted] because of this. According to PATRIARCA, he is going to bring him (probably referring to JOHNNY) to Providence in order to see his reaction and they thought it was a good idea. PATRIARCA also stated that MIKE is getting to be a very big man (This could possibly refer to MIKE GENOVESE).

CASSESSA was recontacted by TAMELEO and advised that he did give $12,000 to [redacted] and, further, made the statement that "he had hoped that [redacted] was not in trouble because he liked to be with him."

PATRIARCA made the comment, "This kid (meaning CASSESSA) is going from the frying pan into the fire talking in that manner."

RAYMOND was of the opinion that CASSESSA would not lie about giving this money to [redacted].

BURNS apparently was of the opinion that CASSESSA was working for him and that he should have gotten the money from the proceeds of the ~~bank~~ robbery.

After listening to the details, PATRIARCA expected TAMELEO to tell BURNS that the kid can go with anyone he wants at this time. He was further critical of BURNS for opening a club in the North End section of Boston and stated that he should have stayed in the Chinese restaurant where he was making a good living.

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that JOE BONANNO was told to come in because there was some trouble in his family. He never showed up for the meeting, and subsequently he was given an ultimatum, either to come in or resign as boss of the family. Later they found out that BONANNO made his son the boss of the family.

No further information relative to this was obtained by the informant.

UNMAN advised that he is opening up a crap game in the Fall River-New Bedford, Mass. area. (UNMAN may be FOLEY CAPALEO of Providence, R. I.)

According to UNMAN, they have a contact in a motel in the Massachusetts area whereby they have filled out registration cards which will show that they have been a resident of the motel for the past six months. In this way, if they are arrested for gambling there would be no way to prove that they travelled interstate to conduct the crap game.

PATRIARCA told UNMAN that USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE of Providence, R. I. is going to declare himself a candidate for the Governorship of Rhode Island on 6/25/64. This information was ascertained from his attorney, SAUL FRIEDMAN.

On 6/9/64, informant advised that PATRIARCA was not at his place of business.

On 6/10/64, informant advised that PATRIARCA travelled from Providence, R. I. to New York by the NY, NH&HR. A Boston agent surveilled PATRIARCA to New York.

The NYO was notified and requested to maintain a surveillance of PATRIARCA in New York.

THE SENSITIVE NATURE OF THE INFORMANT'S POSITION NECESSITATES THAT EVERY EFFORT BE EXERCISED TO MAINTAIN HIS SECURITY.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

ReBairtel 6/13/64.

On page 5, an individual by the name of "Mike" is mentioned in the discussion concerning the affairs of John Biolo. Reairtel indicates that the "Mike" referred to could possibly be Michael Genovese.

From the facts contained on page 5 of reairtel, it appears quite likely that the "Mike" referred to in connection with the affairs of Biolo is Michael "Trigger Mike" Coppola.

Reurairtel 6/11/64 captioned, "Raymond L. S. Patriarca, AR."

It is noted that subject, a boss of a family and a La Cosa Nostra commission member met at Patsy's Restaurant, 236 West 56th Street, with Patriarca, also a boss of a family and commission member. From the best available information, it appears that Patsy's Restaurant is a common meeting place for top hoodlums, particularly leading members of La Cosa Nostra.

Briefly summarized, Patriarca, Luchese, Thomas Eboli, and other important hoodlums are known to have met at the restaurant in the past. Also, information furnished recently by former [redacted] mentions hoodlum meetings at the restaurant.

In view of the above, you should make concentrated efforts to determine the feasibility of highly confidential source coverage of Patsy's Restaurant in the event it can be determined that there is an appropriate location within the building for such coverage. Also, develop background information concerning the ownership and management of Patsy's Restaurant. Keep the Bureau advised as to your progress in this matter.

A surveillance was instituted in the vicinity of Worcester, Mass., at which time PATRIARCA was observed being driven by an unknown man. He proceeded to Houghton Street, Worcester, at which time the surveillance was discontinued in order to maintain security of the informant.

In view of the fact that PATRIARCA was supposed to meet an individual from New York, efforts were made to locate a New York car in the vicinity of PATRIARCA's associates in Worcester. A late model Cadillac with New York registration [redacted] was observed parked near the East Side Package Store operated by [redacted] an associate of PATRIARCA.

On 6/19/64, "PETEY" BARNES contacted PATRIARCA. "PETEY" BARNES stated he was 55 years old and was "pinched in the basketball scandal there." When he was pinched, he requested somebody to come up with $10,000 bail.

BARNES stated that if his horse wins another stake race the horse will be worth $25,000.

On 6/19/64, PATRIARCA had received information from "PETEY" BARNES that BARNES's horse, Al's Reward, was a good bet in the 9th race at Suffolk Downs on that date. He informed many people of this. Al's Reward ran out of the money.

PATRIARCA explained to BARNES that "JOHNNY" FOTO (true name JOHNNY BIELES, formerly of Miami, Fla.) has been transferred to Boston where he is living with [redacted] BARNES stated he has not seen FOTO for over 20 years.

[redacted] (INU) of Duddle's Auto Co. owes [redacted] (INU) a large sum of money. He received PATRIARCA's "OK" to put the squeeze on [redacted] in order to have the loan repaid.

On 6/19/64, HENRY TAMELEO advised that an individual (whose name the informant could not obtain) was attempting to sell the proceeds from the burglary of the home of [redacted] in Newton, Mass. of approximately $40,000 of jewelry and other articles, which burglary occurred on 6/17/64.

TAMELEO had contacted UNMAN who wants $10,000 for a 13KT stone. According to TAMELEO, this stone is not worth over $8,000. There is also a Hamilton watch and a necklace, double pear shaped, and also a silver service.

PATRIARCA was not interested in the 13KT stone at that price.

TAMELEO is attempting to ascertain the amount that UNMAN was asking for other articles stolen.

TAMELEO also advised that JOE BURNS told him to tell PATRIARCA that he (BURNS) is going away for seven or eight days.

PATRIARCA made the statement that he is probably going to see his "compare" concerning PATRIARCA's re-assigning [redacted] to ANGIULO.

During the above meet, TAMELEO stated that "He's got a guy in New York to whom he sells jewelry, and he gives more than his old contact, [redacted] PH)." .

Concerning the [redacted] certificates, TAMELEO stated that [redacted] still is in control of the certificates, and if he does not stop fooling around, they will be worth nothing.

PATRIARCA stated that [redacted] IRS case had been thrown out of court this date and that the accountant, who is involved in the same case concerning the Sherwood Mfg. Co., was fined $1,500.

Another UNMAN advised that he had been down to the Everglades (apparently near a dog track) and efforts by him, [redacted] and [redacted] to give a pill to a dog in a kennel were unsuccessful.

He stated that one night they went to the kennel and had to walk three miles through the Everglades. When they approached the kennel they were shot at by either the owner of the dogs or a Police Officer in a truck. [redacted] when a posse was formed, joined the posse and no one realized he was the individual whom they were seeking. [redacted] was back at the motel.

UNMAN, after being shot at several times, walked three miles through the swamps to reach the road and when he reached there, the Sheriff had a posse waiting for him. He hid until seven o'clock in the morning, at which time he heard the Sheriff say that their relief was due in 20 minutes, and inasmuch as the subjects were not around, they could leave. The Sheriff and the posse left, at which time UNMAN hitchhiked a ride and finally returned to his motel. The three individuals immediately left the area and proceeded to Providence, R. I.

According to UNMAN, law enforcement must have been notified because they were "ready for them" at the kennel.

PATRIARCA made the statement that [] (PH) must be the stoolie as there had been rumors to that effect.

RAYMOND told UNMAN that his wife HELEN has an appointment in Boston for a physical examination on Wednesday, 6/24/64. PATRIARCA will be unable to accompany her, as he has to be in New York on that date for a two o'clock appointment.

It will be recalled that on 6/11/64, BS 837-C* advised that PATRIARCA, when visiting NYC, employs the following procedure upon arriving there:

He arranges that he arrives in New York at least one hour before any scheduled appointment.

He walks from the station and takes an isolated cab to the vicinity of the Park-Sheraton Hotel. He enters the hotel and goes into the men's room for a few minutes. He then leaves the hotel by a door different from the one he entered. He then re-enters the hotel and goes in to the ground floor bar of the hotel.

He then leaves and walks to the Edison Hotel where he enters the lobby and sits there for a few minutes to insure he is not followed. He leaves this hotel by a door different from the one he entered.

He then walks to his appointment if at all possible, otherwise he takes a cab.

BS 92-118

On his visit to New York on 6/10/64 the subject expressed some concern to other members that they might have been followed but was assured by them that they avoid taking cabs and usually travel to their appointment by bus.

Subject expressed confidence that he was not followed either in Providence, R. I. when he departed, or in NYC when he arrived there. He pointed out that he is continually alert for surveillances.

New York Office notified of proposed trip by PATRIARCA.

Efforts will be made to discreetly surveil PATRIARCA from Providence on 6/24/64.

New York will ascertain the owner of N. Y. registration [] and conduct credit, criminal and indices check concerning the owner. Will also review indices in an effort to identify PETER BARNES who allegedly was arrested for the basketball scandal and held in $10,000 bail.

It will be recalled that "PETEY" BARNES is a member of La Cosa Nostra and apparently the owner of a race horse.

[] then stated, "Well, they then have the note on you."

ANGIULO replied, "You have a deposit slip showing that you have on deposit $30,000 with the Anglo-American Bank, and that the Nova Scotian bank has lent you the $30,000. The slip that you have, all you have to do is sign it, which is for you, not the Federal Government; you sign it and they eradicate the loan." This indicates that through [] PE who is later described as [] bank in Miami, Fla., he would be able to obtain from [] a $30,000 paper loan.

ANGIULO also explained that he heard that [] ANGIULO's associate, had borrowed on several occasions a large amount of shylock money from [] (PI in New York; that the last loan to [] from [] amounted to $25,000. [] only reimbursed [] $10,000, leaving a balance of $15,000. ANGIULO also heard that [] had told [] to forget the $15,000 balance for the time being and that if he ever came into any money he could repay it, but that he, [] would not put any pressure on him to collect the loan. It occurred to ANGIULO after questioning [] about this loan that [] is in some way connected with [] close friend, [] JERRY makes the statement, "Imagine those guys (referring to someone in New York) having control of a bank with $2 million in assets."

ANGIULO told [] that if he was not able to get up the $30,000 in cash that he, ANGIULO, would personally bring down $30,000 from Boston, introduce him to [] and negotiate the loan so that he, [] can legitimately return the $30,000 to ANGIULO. He also mentioned that [] used to be with []

The Miami Office has advised as follows:

For the information of Bureau and Boston, the FDIC Regional Office covering the State of Florida is located in Atlanta, Ga. FDIC does, however, maintain a small staff of examiners whose headquarters is located in North Miami, Fla.

FDIC Examiners in Greater Miami area have always been co-operative in referring FRA matters to the Miami Office when noted during an examination; however, experience has shown that specific requests of FDIC over and above their normal examinations must be made through the FDIC Regional Office in Atlanta.

As a matter of suggestion, Boston may desire to furnish the Atlanta Office background information regarding this matter with emphasis on the monitoring of loans made at the bank of Miami Beach.

The Atlanta Office, through established sources at FDIC, might be able to have instructions forwarded to the FDIC in Miami to monitor such loans at the Bank of Miami Beach.

On 5/8/64, [redacted] made available the following information to SA [redacted]

Records of those loans made by the Bank of Miami Beach from the year of 1957 to the present date which are recorded in the Dade County Courthouse, Dade County, Fla., failed to reveal any loans made to GENNARO J. Miami indices are negative on the above individuals.

[redacted] has also advised that [redacted] is known as a "real wheeler and dealer," and the growth of the Bank's assets has been phenomenal [redacted]

BS 92-118
BS 92-446

By rebuairtel, the Bureau advised as follows:

The Bureau agrees that the situation involving the obtaining of "paper loans" by ANGIULO and others offers excellent potential, not only for improved intelligence coverage of these hoodlums' financial transactions, but for possible Federal Reserve Act violations. However, Bureau authority is not necessary to enable a field office to work closely with FDIC and/or IRS. Based on your analysis of data received from your sources regarding this situation, Boston should set out specific leads to cause the establishment of necessary coverage to enable the monitoring of appropriate records, particularly in Miami.

Atlanta contact FDIC to determine if steps can be taken through FDIC at North Miami to monitor such loans.

Miami maintain contact with FDIC at North Miami and explore means of developing this situation.

Miami contact IRS in an effort to develop additional details on hoodlum loans through the Bank of Miami Beach.

Boston Office will discuss this matter with IRS, Boston, in view of pending tax investigation of ANGIULO.

BS 837-C* advised on 6/16/64 that PATRIARCA was to meet JERRY ANGIULO at the Old Canteen Restaurant at 2:00 p.m.

On 6/17/64, UNMEN and RAYMOND discussed a party (presumably the wedding of [redacted] at which 130 people will attend, including JOHNNY BIELE, aka JOHNNY FOTO and [redacted] from Springfield).

Two UNMEN (one of whom is probably DANNY RAYMONDI from Providence, R. I.) reported to RAYMOND to the effect that they had just finished their surveillance of an individual who lives near the PD in Warwick, R. I. and works in Newport, R. I. His movements were explained to PATRIARCA and various methods of stopping this individual and assaulting him were proposed by the UNMEN and the difficulties they might encounter at different locations.

After listening to their proposals, PATRIARCA suggested to them that the assault take place at the individual's apartment when he returns from work; that they should get him as he is going into the apartment; split his head open and break his legs. The reason for this was not mentioned to the informant; however, there was a statement that the NLRB boys are all around Newport. //

The two UNMEN had contacted [] (LNU) who drove the proposed victim to work every day and [] had agreed to set the individual up at a diner where he could be assaulted; however, this was voted against because of the possibility of witnesses.

The names of Eaton Street and River Avenue were mentioned, but the informant did not know the significance of same.

Efforts are being made to identify the victim in the above assault by the Boston Office.

Another UNMAN contacted PATRIARCA and there was a discussion concerning the unpaid loan of $300 by an individual not known to the informant. During the conversation UNMAN mentioned that [] and the kid that is with him in the crap game in New Bedford, Mass., is the individual who owes the $300.

UNMAN apparently went to HENRY TAMELEO in an effort to obtain this loan from "the kid" mentioned above, but HENRY TAMELEO told him that he was interested in the game in New Bedford and, in effect; to leave the kid alone for the time being. UNMAN went to New Bedford and attended the game, but no location was mentioned.

[] Providence, R. I., desires to sell three of his trucks to PATRIARCA who, in turn, will lease them back to [] for $100 a week. (This apparently would be beneficial to PATRIARCA in connection with his income tax).

PATRIARCA also told UNMAN that he is attempting to set up an appointment through SAUL FRIEDMAN, his Attorney, with [redacted], Quincy, Mass. contractor, who has telephone number PR 3-8840, in connection with the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

It should be noted that [redacted] has a [redacted] in the Green Mountain Race Track located in Vermont and that this track has racing dates which are in conflict with the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

PATRIARCA apparently is attempting to persuade [redacted] to change the dates of the Green Mountain Race Track so that they will not conflict with those of the Berkshire Downs Race Track. No place or time was mentioned to the informant.

PATRIARCA and UNMAN discussed [redacted] who, it will be recalled, allegedly agreed to become an informant for USA RAYMOND J. PETTINE of Providence, R. I. in an effort to set up PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA warned UNMAN that [redacted] is a "pink" and to stay away from him.

Informant reported that PATRIARCA indicated he either told or planned to tell [redacted] to accept payment from PETTINE for a period of four or five months and then tell PETTINE that PATRIARCA "is clean" and is not violating any laws. //

HENRY TAMELEO, Providence, R. I., advised that [] called him up from down there (probably referring to New York). There apparently was a dispute over a swindle (possibly in a card game).

According to BS 837-C*, [] (LNU) beat [] (PH) for a substantial amount of money and sent $2,600 to []. HENRY TAMELEO also got a portion of the swindle.

When [] found out that [] was "set up," he asked TAMELEO to contact [] and obtain some of the $2,600 which he had sent to him. TAMELEO did call [] and tried to get some money for him; however, [] said, "They're my people. He (referring to []) is not getting anything."

PATRIARCA was very angry that anyone else would go into New Bedford and pointed out that that is []. (It should be noted that [] is a [] in southeastern Massachusetts, and it is believed that PATRIARCA has a "piece" of [].

PATRIARCA was also very angry at TAMELEO because he did not know anything about this and ordered that TAMELEO should keep him advised of any such dealings.

JOE KRIKORIAN (aka JOE KIRK) discussed the possible purchase of Berkshire Downs for the sum of $200,000 for [] (PH) who has a finance company. After a lengthy discussion, it was decided by PATRIARCA that [] could purchase 70% of the track for $200,000, and that the other 30% would be divided between KIRK and PATRIARCA.

Two UNMEN advised that [] and [] who live on Federal Hill are on the payroll of the federal authorities. PATRIARCA warned them to stay away from the [].

Another UNMAN complained that Attorney [] of Providence, R. I. was charging him an excessive amount of money for defending him at his trial. He has decided that he wants another attorney, but [] refuses to release him.

TAMELEO told [redacted] to leave this individual alone and stop bothering him.

TAMELEO advised that [redacted] (PH) became a partner of [redacted] in Maine and another individual who owns a horse by the name of [redacted]. They each put up $7,000 and bought horses in Argentina. They intend to bring them back and race them in local tracks. TAMELEO told [redacted] not to give any tips on these horses (as, apparently, one of the horses he now owns was considered a "hot" horse on a particular day). [redacted] apparently gave it to his friends and the horse paid less than 2-1. It should have been at least a 20-1 shot.)

TAMELEO also advised that [redacted] an individual who operates a [redacted] in the market district of Boston, is a loan shark and loans up to $10,000 to various individuals.

Patriarca was advised that TAMELEO contacted JERRY ANGIULO who told him that [redacted] is not with him (JERRY). [redacted] has been using Patriarca's name, stating that he is in the loan shark business with Patriarca. TAMELEO received permission to set this individual up for RICHARD CASTUCCI. CASTUCCI will borrow small sums from [redacted] and pay same promptly until such time as he is able to get the loan of about $10,000, at which time he, with permission from Patriarca, will refuse to pay the loan to [redacted]

On 6/29/64, BS 837-C* advised that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, Providence, R. I., had an appointment that day with [redacted] in connection with the sale of the Berkshire Downs Race Track. He discussed various financing arrangements in connection with the sale of this track with PATRIARCA.

Informant stated that [redacted] has indicated a desire to purchase this track and place it in the name of a relative.

ANGIULO stated that he had obtained a booklet printed by the government relative to his case. The booklet was Volume II and contained 136 pages. This volume reflected investigation by IRS where they contacted 62 "joints" in an effort to ascertain why ANGIULO furnished checks to them. He added that "with this connection," (not mentioning what the connection was), he hoped to obtain Volume I, which would contain additional information of value to him.

[redacted] of Boston has been surveilled by the Massachusetts State Police in connection with his possession of [redacted] certificates. [redacted] contacted ANGIULO and told him of this surveillance. JERRY questioned him closely as to how the information leaked out that he was in possession of the [redacted]. He came to the conclusion that [redacted] who was arrested recently by the FBI on a UFAP process and was wanted for two murders in New York, originally had the stocks and gave same to [redacted] to sell.

It appeared that [redacted] admitted calling his partner in New York concerning these stocks and JERRY was of the opinion that the law had a tap on the phone which [redacted] used.

[redacted] had previously admitted to ANGIULO that he was a partner of [redacted] in the bookmaking business. ANGIULO or one of his associates hit the number recently for $24,420, which number was placed with [redacted] paid $20,000. ANGIULO requested [redacted] to tell [redacted] to "get up" the remaining $4,420. [redacted] stated that he would give ANGIULO his half, or $2,110, but that [redacted] was a "headstrong Jew" and probably would not get up the remaining $2,110.

JERRY told [redacted] that he did not want the $2,110, but he wanted the full amount of $4,420, and if [redacted] did not get up his portion, he would not accept the $2,110 from [redacted]. He has not heard from [redacted] whether [redacted] will pay ANGIULO. ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that in the event he does not pay off, he (JERRY) will make sure that [redacted] agents will not work for him any longer.

ANGIULO stated that the Indian Meadow Golf Club is still losing money. He was very upset with [redacted] in view of the fact that additional bills from the State and Federal agencies have been presented. ANGIULO did not know the money was owed prior to this time. He is trying to make arrangements to sell the first mortgage back to the [redacted] in addition to half of the second mortgage and the third mortgage. [redacted] has expressed an interest in same. The details have not, as yet, been worked out.

ANGIULO questioned PATRIARCA as to whether or not he recalled a [redacted] from New York (PH). He explained that [redacted] and [redacted] (PH) have $20,000 in bonds and have been around recently. JERRY asked SAM GRANITO to check in New York concerning the background of [redacted] and found out that there were indications that [redacted] had, at one time, opened up on someone from New York. [redacted] is apparently using PATRIARCA's name as an acquaintance, and PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to stay away from him.

PETER LIMONE, PATRIARCA, ANGIULO, and UNMAN discussed gambling techniques and dice games. It appeared that LIMONE was operating a game (location unknown) and that he was using rigged dice.

ANGIULO stated that he heard that the law knew that [redacted] was implicated in the robbery of the Mayor of Miami Beach. This robbery netted over $40,000 in cash, in addition to other articles. One individual was allegedly arrested and opened up on [redacted]

An individual by the name of [redacted] (PH) was allegedly in on the robbery, in addition to three fellows from Chicago who worked for [redacted]. According to ANGIULO, the Mayor did not report the robbery but did call in certain members of the Vice Squad to investigate same.

In connection with the [redacted] investigation (subject of Bosfile [redacted] entitled, [redacted] aka - FUGITIVE, [redacted] UFAP-MURDER, TEN MOST WANTED FUGITIVE PROGRAM), ANGIULO stated that HAROLD HANNON had approached PETER LIMONE recently in reference to the possible surrender of [redacted] to authorities.

LIMONE contacted ANGIULO and told him of the above. ANGIULO contacted Boston Bondsman [] and asked him if he would bail [] in the event he surrendered. [] stated he would, but there is always a question of whether a person charged with the type of crime [] is, would be subject to bail.

He then asked [] if he could find out whether the bond would be a matter for the District Attorney or the District Court in which the warrant had been issued. [] stated that he was sure that this matter, from his experience, was a District Court matter, inasmuch as there had been no indictment returned, as yet, by the Suffolk County Grand Jury against []

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he issued one condition whereby [] should surrender and that is that he not surrender to the FBI. No reason was given for this condition.

ANGIULO said that their "connection" in the Roxbury (Mass.) District Court is an attorney named [] and both PATRIARCA and ANGIULO agreed that if HANNON desired to avail himself of the services of [] they would recommend it, but that HANNON would have to make all negotiations on his own and they would not become involved.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that when he was in New York recently he made arrangements with individuals, whose names were not heard by the informant, that they would get up $25,000 to be furnished to the Springfield group in connection with the theft of Carters underwear taken from Akers Transportation Co. in 9/63.

It will be recalled that [] and others allegedly stole this load and sold same to the Springfield group under the direction of SAM CUFARI who, in turn, negotiated with individuals in New York. Prior to the time they were paid for the load, it was recovered by the FBI. [] has been attempting to obtain money from the Springfield group but has only obtained approximately $4,000.

No further details concerning the payment of this money to the Springfield group and/or [] is known to the informant.

During the conversation, PETER LIMONE stated that [] was in trouble in New Mexico; that he got "in a beef down there and they had to straighten it out." LIMONE received this information from the kid who used to be in the West End. LIMONE also stated that HENRY REDDINGTON of Weymouth, Mass. "had [] for four weeks and then "let him go."

In connection with money owed by [] (PH), ANGIULO stated that [] borrowed money from another source (probably [] (LNU)). This money was loaned actually by [] with the knowledge of NICK GISO. [] used to book numbers, sports and horses and MAXIE (probably MAXIE CATALDO of Revere, Mass.) attempted to take him over as a bookmaker six or seven months ago. [] contacted [] (PH) and [] and arrangements were made for [] to work for them.

It appeared that the money originally loaned to [] was OK'd by [] ANGIULO became extremely angry because [] and [] were "his boys" and that they could not possibly give an OK for a large amount of money to be loaned from somebody else.

GISO was called in by ANGIULO and criticized for allowing [] to give the OK for this loan as he (GISO) knew that [] "belonged to him" and, therefore, cannot give the OK for a loan by another individual.

During the conversation concerning [] PETER LIMONE stated that HENRY REDDINGTON had [] put away and also had [] (LNU).

On 6/30/64, [] Providence, R. I., discussed various contracts he was attempting to obtain for his contracting business.

[] told PATRIARCA he is not dropping it there and did actually go further with it. [] claimed that [] insisted that no interest be paid on the money; that he [] could do what he wanted to do in regard to this, but it would be to no avail.

[] stated that he expected a call from Attorney [] who was also part of the deal. He [] subsequently made a lot of calls and has decided that he is thinking over "shaking" [] down for $90,000. He said that actually it would not be a shakedown because [] does owe this money to [] and his associates. [] subsequently indicated to [] that he [] would reimburse [] for his interest in Las Vegas.

[] then decided that if he collected any money from [] he would retain the amount that is legitimately his, and if any is left over he would divide it between [] (of Providence, R. [] told PATRIARCA that he has been the only individual who has attempted to obtain money from [] and that he thinks that he should first take his total investment from the money received from [] and then divide the rest between [] and his associates. He said [] is a "cheap guy" and that he does not see why he should spend time and money to collect his own debt and give part of it to []

Attorney [] represents the Boston Herald-Traveler Corp. and has recently taken depositions from PATRIARCA concerning his income from various sources. PATRIARCA is of the opinion that they will subpoena all of the individuals who furnished him money as income and will also subpoena JOSEPH VALACHI and WALTER E. STONE, Head of the Rhode Island State Police.

PATRIARCA indicated that he is desirous of "going all the way" with this suit. He has heard through CHARLES IANELLO, Massachusetts Representative of Roxbury, Mass., that the Boston Herald-Traveler indicated they might subpoena all the top hoodlums throughout the country in an effort to establish PATRIARCA's connection with them. PATRIARCA believes that IANELLO, who was friendly with [] is putting out "a feeler" in an attempt to ascertain whether PATRIARCA will drop his suit when other top hoodlums are subpoenaed.

PATRIARCA indicated he would not drop his suit under any condition.

ANGIULO has recently talked to JOSEPH MODICA (aka JOE PAPPINO).

According to ANGIULO, [] in the American Finance Co. HENRY TAMELEO of Providence, R. I. allegedly had a piece of the American Finance Co.

MODICA contacted ANGIULO in connection with a loan to [] of Dorchester, Mass. It appeared that MODICA loaned [] $11,000 which he [] was to put on the street as loan shark money.

[] was a partner of [] but, according to MODICA, he [] took $4,000 of the $11,000 for his own use. PAPPINO was attempting to force [] to repay the $4,000.

ANGIULO told MODICA that he could not force [] to repay the loan in a short period, as he is "a friend of ours" and this would put him out of business.

BS 92-118

MODICA was given permission by ANGIULO to obtain the repayment of the loan from [] and [] over a period of approximately one year.

According to BS 837-C*, MODICA is in the bookmaking business with [] and another individual, and they "back" all their bets.

-- MICHAEL ROCCO, East Boston, Mass., according to BS 837-C*, told [] (PH) to bring $2,000 to him for "a tax."

[] was in partnership with [] and did not know that the payment of $2,000 was made to ROCCO. When he learned of same, he asked what the tax was and it appeared that ROCCO "shook [] down" for the $2,000, claiming that he had made book in his (ROCCO's) territory.

PATRIARCA advised that it is too bad they did not get $5,000, as they are not with us.

ANGIULO advised that [] had repaid the loan, mentioned previously.

Concerning the Indian Meadow Country Club (IMCC), ANGIULO stated that fresh capital is needed to pay off the debts. They have agreed with all creditors to accept 20% of the amount owed. Five corporations refused to accept this condition, and have filed suit against the IMCC. Their bills amount to approximately $15,000 and must be paid off before the place can be sold.

According to ANGIULO, he has built [redacted] net worth up to $180,000, and [redacted] up to $800,000. He pointed out that neither one of them are worth a quarter. He is attempting to have [redacted] and [redacted] obtain a mortgage from the bank, based on their net worth statements.

On 7/10/64, LOUIS TAGLIANETTI stated that [redacted] desired more money. PATRIARCA refused to furnish same. RAY advised TAGLIANETTI that he was meeting an individual at the Biltmore Hotel whom the informant believed to be JOE BURNS.

No further information was developed.

BS 837-C* advised that THEODORE FUCILLO, Boston, Mass., advised the informant that [redacted] won his appeal relative to his conviction on an ATU case in Maine. FUCILLO was of the opinion that [redacted] will again be tried, but PATRIARCA advised they have no case as the Maine witness had committed suicide.

According to FUCILLO, [redacted] is "fooling around" with [redacted] the Teamsters Union who resides in Boston, Mass. [redacted] is attempting to get a union in the General Dynamics Shipyard in Quincy, Mass. [redacted] has given $50,000 to [redacted] and [redacted] has been promised another $50,000 by JAMES HOFFA. [redacted] is doing "all the leg work" for HOFFA. [redacted] was also with [redacted] that morning in New Bedford (Mass.) in connection with their plant, "The Diamond Aspirin" and a cold storage plant.

FUCILLO further stated that there was a bookmaker at the Marshall Spinning Mills who did very well. He was put out of the plant, and [] has the connections to get him back in the plant.

PATRIARCA attempted to ascertain from FUCILLO who this bookmaker was turning in to, but FUCILLO did not know. PATRIARCA stated that [] should only get him back in the plant provided that "we get a percentage."

In connection with FRANK FERRARA, formerly of Miami, Fla., informant advised that [] of Somerville, Mass. had received a telephone call from FERRARA recently.

[] did not know the location from which FERRARA was calling.

[] FERRARA's property by paying notes on mortgages, is in a good position, according to PATRIARCA, in that he will probably be able to own the property in a short time because of FERRARA's failure to pay the notes.

According to FUCILLO, Mayor PETER JORDAN is now the "head" of Revere. [] at the present time has little or no influence in Revere, Mass.

PATRIARCA indicated that they should have thrown [] out a long time ago. According to FUCILLO, he is of the opinion that SAM GRANITO of Boston, Mass. should sell the Coliseum restaurant; as Police Comsr. EDMUND L. MC NAMARA is not going to allow them to operate after hours. Because of this, the Coliseum has been a "losing proposition."

FUCILLO attempted to persuade PATRIARCA to take a vacation with his wife. PATRIARCA tentatively agreed to take a trip to Maine in the near future.

FUCILLO pointed out that he has an Italian fellow, [] (phonetic) [] PATRIARCA can stay at this motel without registering. FUCILLO stated a couple of New York fellows have stayed at this motel without registering in the recent past. (He did not identify the New York individuals.)

BS 92-118

Informant also advised that unknown individuals broke into a summer cottage (probably [redacted]) [redacted] PATRIARCA was of the opinion it was the act of either some kids or the Rhode Island State Police in order to harass him.

On 7/16/64, UNMAN paid RAYMOND $234 as his interest in the crap game in Rhode Island. This crap game was recently raided by the Rhode Island State Police on 7/15/64. It was being operated by [redacted] (INU) and [redacted].

On 7/17/64, HENRY TAMELIO advised PATRIARCA that DANA RICCI had died and furnished details of the wake and funeral.

[redacted] LOUIS TAGLIANETTI is attempting to collect for the [redacted] DANA RICCI from various members of La Cosa Nostra (the identities of whom are not known to the informant).

[redacted] (INU) was approached by a woman who resides on Lancaster Ave, Providence, R. I. The woman desired that [redacted] get permission to operate a crap game in her house which has a finished cellar. The woman stated that she has four or five high-class girls available, and it is to be a crap game attended by only wealthy people, such as doctors, lawyers, etc.

PATRIARCA advised [redacted] to furnish the woman a crap table and obtain the services of [redacted] (PH) to operate the game. PATRIARCA will receive 10% or 15% of the profits.

TAMELEO also contacted [] He discussed with [] the possibility of running a game in a club (location unknown). They could use the kid [] (PH). The game would not start until about 9/15/64 and is to be a card game operated in a club (possibly on [] in Boston). TAMELEO suggested that they use [] (LNU) in the game. PATRIARCA and TAMELEO agreed.

TAMELEO also discussed at length the reason JOHN BIELE refused to go to Providence to report the [] story to RAYMOND. When asked by JOE BURNS to do so, he told JOE BURNS he would not contact RAYMOND, but told BURNS it was his duty to so advise PATRIARCA.

They discussed the [] JOE BURNS feud, and HENRY TAMELEO described it as a "bitter situation that has to be fixed, otherwise there has to be trouble."

It will be recalled that [] was under the supervision of JOE BURNS ANSELMO until recently, when he was re-assigned in La Cosa Nostra under the jurisdiction of JERRY ANGIULO.

BS 92-118

According to PATRIARCA, FOMBY CAPALBO did not go to DANA RICCI's wake and furnished no money to assist [redacted]

TAMELEO advised that he attempted to contact "WIMPY" (BENNETT) but was unable to locate him. It appeared that he desired to ask him about the recent double murder of PAUL COLICCI and VINCENT BISESI. PATRIARCA stated that it is probably a good thing that he had not contacted "WIMPY" as "What we don't know about we are not responsible for."

According to TAMELEO, the Boston Police were looking for ROMEO MARTIN as they had received a report that he had been killed. They contacted RONNIE CASSESSA who produced MARTIN at a local precinct station to prove that he was still alive.

[redacted] or [redacted] contacted PATRIARCA concerning the game on [redacted] (town unknown). He had recently recontacted the woman whom he described as [redacted] and she had a husband who was very thin. [redacted] lives in a house which is to be used for the game which has a swimming pool and a high fence around the property.

[redacted] asked for a 35%-50% cut on the game and [redacted] stated that it was too big a percentage. She finally settled for 25% of the profits.

[redacted] indicated that she should only get 15%. In order to make up the difference, PATRIARCA suggested that each employee take out $200 from the game once it begins to operate. In this way, [redacted] would not know that [redacted] and his associates are getting actually a greater percentage than agreed to.

The dice table is to be brought in to the house a week before the game.

Informant advised that tickets were being sold, the details of which the informant was unable to ascertain.

On 7/24/64, [redacted] (INU), who had been a member of the Rhode Island State Police for 10 years and who was presently operating an investigative agency with [redacted] (INU), contacted PATRIARCA.

BS 92-118

[] stated that he had a contact for placing cigarette vending machines in the University of Rhode Island and other State institutions and desires to know whether PATRIARCA was interested in obtaining the business.

PATRIARCA stated he was very glad to accept the business, but no details were furnished regarding same.

Sgt [] and two Police Officers of the Providence, R. I. PD contacted PATRIARCA relative to the recent murders of PAUL COLICCI and VINCENT BISESI.

PATRIARCA stated that he thought COLICCI was "a little soft in the head" and had tried to shake down many people when he was in jail. However, since he had been released he had apparently attempted to lead a good life.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI was questioned by Capt. [] Providence PD, about the COLICCI and BISESI murders.

According to TAGLIANETTI, he furnished no information to []

According to PATRIARCA, he (PATRIARCA) was also questioned by the police, and he "really told them off and practically threw them out of his office."

It should be noted that PATRIARCA was very affable to Sgt. [] and the two Police Officers.

On 7/27/64, there were further discussions with various individuals concerning the COLICCI-BISESI murders. From all indications from BS 837-C*, PATRIARCA gave no indication to informant that he was responsible for same, nor did he know who was.

BS 92-118

On 7/21/64, HENRY TAMELEO contacted PATRIARCA and was later joined by GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LAMONE of Boston, Mass. concerning the following:

JOE ANSEIMO, aka JOE BURNS, recently contacted PATRIARCA and told him that an individual named [] had furnished money to NICK GISO and [] to []. After considerable discussion, it appeared that PATRIARCA was angry at ANGIULO because he (ANGIULO) did not inform PATRIARCA of the above when he first heard of it.

ANGIULO explained that he did not so inform PATRIARCA because he wanted to "investigate the allegation first." He contacted [] at the Coliseum restaurant to determine whether [] was a moron.

He went into great detail explaining that [] told him that [] and [] (Boston, Mass. PD Detectives) met one night outside the Coliseum restaurant. They told [] that with his connections and associations he should become a member of La Cosa Nostra.

At this time NICK GISO was present. [] asked NICK if there was any possibility of his obtaining membership, to which GISO replied in the affirmative, saying that [] and [] were good fellows and that he [] has come along to the extent of being ready for La Cosa Nostra.

According to JERRY, [] is not only a moron, but also an imbecile, because shortly after the conversation, he stood up before 130 people at the Coliseum and did the twist alone. At this time ANGIULO still wanted to obtain more facts and brought him down to his club and gave him five more drinks. [] did not change his story even after the fifth drink.

ANGIULO later found out that [] had "$7,000 in loan shark money on the street" and that he had apparently furnished this money to GISO and [] after the discussion concerning his membership in La Cosa Nostra.

PATRIARCA became incensed, pointing out that even though the thing did start out as a joke, any individual who is a member should not have become involved in this joke in any manner whatsoever.

BS 92-118

ANGIULO, in his so-called investigation, contacted JOE LOMBARDO, who also was extremely angry because ANGIULO was conducting investigation concerning members not within his jurisdiction. He pointed out to LOMBARDO that [redacted] is now under his jurisdiction, but LOMBARDO insisted that he should have been present because of the fact that GISO is under his jurisdiction.

"RONNY" CASSESSA was involved inasmuch as he was present when the joke started. He told JOHN BIELE, aka JOHNNY FOTO, who discussed the matter with JOE BURNS. After discussing the matter with JOE BURNS, he (BURNS) thought it must be important enough to bring it to the attention of PATRIARCA - which he did.

FOTO also made a complaint through BURNS to PATRIARCA that ANGIULO did not treat him properly when he (ANGIULO) questioned FOTO about the incident.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that he was an intelligent individual, but there is one thing he would have to learn in order to get ahead in the organization, and that is "not act as a JIMMY CAGNEY" but be able "to give an individual hell in the same tone of voice as he did if he praised him." He told ANGIULO that if he was able to accomplish this knack he would go "a long way" in the organization.

PATRIARCA was also perturbed because he thought JOE BURNS or [redacted] would repeat this story to their friends in New York.

PATRIARCA instructed that the money be returned to [redacted] but that no member should contact [redacted] or have anything to do with the return of the money. He instructed that they use [redacted] who is a "hanger-on" at the club and who apparently was present when the joke started.

ANGIULO advised that he is still attempting to obtain money from JOE MODICA, and he recently instructed MODICA to pay SANTANIELLO $1,200 to pay hospital bills.

[redacted] according to TAMELEO, has made a bad investment involving $700,000, but the informant did not know details of same.

BS 92-118

TAMELEO stated that he, [] and [] (LNU) went to Atlantic City last year in [] car to open up a business, which he, HENRY and PATRIARCA were supposed to obtain a piece of.

It appeared that the business either did not open or that [] has made no profit on same as they have not received any monies from same.

Concerning the American Finance Co., Boston, Mass., HENRY stated that the fellows from New York have checked the books and ascertained that there was no money and, therefore, the finance company had to go out of business.

U.S.A. BS T-6, on June 11, 1964, advised that Patriarca still has an interest in the gambling operation of [redacted]. According to this informant, Patriarca, through Joseph Krikorian, is still attempting to sell his interest in the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

BS T-5 advised on June 19, 1964 that [redacted] of Boston, Massachusetts had been re-assigned in La Cosa Nostra from the supervision of Joseph Anselmo to that of Gennaro J. Angiulo. According to the informant, [redacted]

[redacted] The informant had no additional details. When Anselmo learned that [redacted] had obtained part of the proceeds of this, he was very critical of him - after which a severe argument took place between the two. Because of this, Patriarca transferred him to Gennaro J. Angiulo.

On June 19, 1964, BS T-6 advised that John Biele, former owner of the Peppermint Lounge, Miami Beach, Florida, [redacted] in La Cosa Nostra to Boston, Massachusetts under the supervision of Gennaro J. Angiulo. Patriarca [redacted]

On June 26, 1964, BS T-1 advised that Patriarca had received a telephone call [redacted] from an unknown individual in New York. [redacted]

The informant did not know the reason for this trip.

BS T-5 advised on July 1, 1964 that "Johnny" Candelmo of Rhode Island is the representative of Raymond Patriarca's interest in the World of Mirth Shows. This show was formerly owned by Louis Fox of Revere, Massachusetts who died several months ago.

ADMINISTRATIVE

This case has been afforded close, continuous investigative attention and the Bureau has been notified of all pertinent developments during the course of this investigation.

Careful consideration has been given to all sources concealed and "T" symbols were utilized only in those instances wherein it was necessary to conceal the identity of the source.

Reference is made to Bosairtel to Bureau dated 5/22/64 concerning the possible theft of American Telephone and Telegraph (AT&T) Company stock.

On 5/27/64, the NYO furnished the following information:

Contact with source at AT&T, NYC, reflected that no five shares of AT&T stock would have a total value of $265,000, but that someone could have in their possession five certificates representing AT&T stock holdings having a value of $265,000. Source advised that the certificate number must be obtained to determine if a loss has occurred.

AT&T source also advised that a Swiss bank, known as Credit Suisse with office at 26 Pine Street, NYC, is a holder of, in their own right and in nominee name of, a considerable amount of AT&T stock, which holdings would easily exceed $250,000.

For the information of Boston and Bureau, Bureau refer to NY teletype to Bureau, 4/2/64, captioned, "UNSUB, Theft of 1900 Shares of AT&T Stock, 4/2/64, from U. S. Mail, Pier 92, Manhattan, N. Y., POSTAL MATTER." There was a loss on 4/2/64 of one bag of registered mail consigned to Zurich, Switzerland, which was to have been delivered aboard the "SS QUEEN ELIZABETH." Contained in the bag were 1900 shares of AT&T stock consigned to JULIUS BARR & Co., Zurich, Switzerland, valued at $247,000. Among the stolen stock were 152 certificates representing 10 shares each of AT&T stock, certificates numbered 65T194406 through 65T194557, and 76 certificates representing five shares each of AT&T stock, certificates numbered 64T194330 through 64T194405, all of which were unregistered certificates made out in the name of Credit Suisse.

This matter is being investigated by U. S. Postal authorities, and the NYO is following only to protect the Bureau's interests.

On 6/5/64, the NYO advised that the AT&T stocks would not be negotiable in the strict sense of the word; however, an endorsement could easily be forged to negotiate them and they could also be utilized as security for a loan.

The Boston Division has previously requested the Miami Division to discreetly check with the FDIC at Miami, Fla. for any possible loans made through the Bank of Miami Beach for subject, GENNARO J. ANGIULO, [redacted] or [redacted]

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

On 5/28/64, the Miami Division furnished the following information:

The FDIC Regional Office covering the State of Florida is located in Atlanta, Ga. FDIC does, however, maintain a small staff of examiners whose headquarters is located in North Miami, Fla.

On 5/8/64, [redacted] made available the following information to SA [redacted]

Records of those loans made by the Bank of Miami Beach from the year 1957 to the present date, which are recorded in the Dade County Courthouse, Dade County, Fla., failed to reveal any loans made to RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, GENNARO J. ANGIULO, [redacted]

Since [redacted] the Board of the Bank of Miami Beach, in 1/64, the only three recipients of such recorded loans have been [redacted] and [redacted] Miami indices negative on these individuals.

[redacted] has also advised that [redacted] is known as a "real wheeler and dealer" and the growth of the Bank's assets has been phenomenal since [redacted]

During the course of investigation into the affairs of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, it has been established that his attorney, SAUL FRIEDMAN, with an office in the Industrial National Bank Building, Providence, R. I., and residence 116 Betsy Williams Drive, Cranston, R. I., had an interest in a musical theater of some type which opened in Phoenix, Ariz. in about January or February, 1964. This opening was of substantial proportions and FRIEDMAN is believed to have attended this opening.

For the information of the Phoenix Office, SAUL FRIEDMAN has been an attorney since 1938 in Providence, R. I. and is a Probate Judge in the City of Cranston, R. I. He was born 8/2/15 at Rock Island, Ill.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

FRIEDMAN has represented PATRIARCA, who is the top Cosa Nostra member in New England, for a number of years and it is believed that he "fronts" for PATRIARCA in a number of business ventures.

Reference is made to Bosairtel to Bureau dated 6/4/64. Reairtel mentioned that on 6/3/64 [] discussed an agreement with four or five companies in their attempt to control the bid of a construction project. The names of SANTI RUGGERIO, [] and H&B Construction Co. were mentioned. There was also a discussion as to a possible meeting with RAYMOND PATRIARCA, date and place unknown.

In view of the above, on 6/4/64, SA's [] and CHARLES A. REPPUCCI, at 10:25 a.m., proceeded to the area of 140 Longwood Ave, Providence, R. I., the residence of SANTINO RUGGERIO. It was noted that parked in front of this residence was a late model green Cadillac bearing R. I. registration []. Parked across the street from this residence was a late model white Chrysler, New Yorker, bearing R. I. registration NG-810. Parked in the driveway was a late model black Oldsmobile bearing R. I. registration [].

A surveillance was maintained at this residence and at 11:16 a.m. a male was observed leaving 140 Longwood Ave and he was observed entering the late model white Chrysler bearing R. I. registration NG-810. This man was [] who is known to SA [].

At about 11:17 a.m. a male was observed leaving this same address and was observed entering the late model green Cadillac. This car left the area.

At about 11:32 a.m., RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed in the area of 140 Longwood Ave, Providence, and was observed on the side area of the house. It appeared that PATRIARCA got into a late model black Chevrolet that was being driven by another unknown male and that this car then left the area.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

On 6/4/64, a check of the Rhode Island Registry of Motor Vehicles, State Office Building, Providence, R. I., contained the following information:

1. R.-I. registration NG-810, issued to Hi-Lo Construction Company, 89 Celia Street, Johnston, R. I., for a 1963 Chrysler, white, for [redacted]

It is noted that 89 Celia Street, Johnston, is the former address for the D&H Building Wrecker, Inc., of which [redacted] and which company is now in bankruptcy.

2. R. I. registration [redacted] issued to [redacted]
[redacted] Providence, R. I., for a 1960 Cadillac, green.
3. R. I. registration [redacted] issued to [redacted]
[redacted] Providence, R. I., for a 1959 Oldsmobile, white.

It is also noted that a late model Oldsmobile bearing R. I. registration 9955 was in the garage at this address. A check of the Rhode Island Registry of Motor Vehicles, Providence, R. I., revealed this plate is issued to SANTINO RUGGERIO, 140 Longwood Ave, Providence, R. I., for a 1964 Oldsmobile, black, coupe.

A surveillance log for 6/4/64 is being maintained in the appropriate section of this file.

For the information of the Bureau, SA [redacted] surveilled RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA at 11:04 a.m. from Union Station, Providence, R. I., to Pennsylvania Station, NYC, where the surveillance was taken over by agents of the NYO.

A surveillance log is being maintained in the appropriate section of this file.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

During the period of this investigation, spot checks were made in the vicinity of 168 Atwells Ave, Providence, R. I., the hangout for subject, and no pertinent information was developed.

On 4/30; 5/5, 7, 11, 28; and 6/8/64, BS T-2 advised that the crap game previously mentioned at Fall River or New Bedford, Mass. has not materialized as yet. Informant understands that the "OK" for this game has been obtained from the local authorities.

Informant said he will keep abreast of this situation and will keep this office advised of additional developments.

[redacted] Liquidation Section,
Small Business Administration (SBA), 470 Atlantic Avenue,
Boston, Massachusetts, made available SBA's loan file on Hub Electric Manufacturing Company, Inc.

A review of SBA's loan file on Hub Electric Manufacturing Company, Inc. disclosed that Hub on July 12, 1961, filed an application at SBA, Boston, Massachusetts, for a loan in the total amount of $125,000.00. This loan amount was subsequently reduced to $120,000.00 and disbursed on October 2, 1961. The loan was a participating loan with the United States Trust Company, Boston, Massachusetts, with 50 per cent of the loan purchased back by SBA and the remaining 50 per cent carried by the United States Trust Company. This loan was under SBA's Early Maturities Plan in which payments in this instance amounting to $1,677.00 monthly were to be credited to the banks' 50 per cent share of the loan first. This loan was a 6 year loan due October 2, 1967, but was paid in full on July 11, 1963.

In Hub's Loan Application the address of the plant was indicated as 523 Medford Street, Charlestown, Massachusetts; and the purpose of the loan was indicated to pay off back loans in the amount of $60,000.00 to pay off other loans in the amount of $25,500.00; the balance of $39,500.00 was to be used to reduce Accounts Payable and to provide working capital.

The Loan Application was signed for Hub Electric Manufacturing Company by [redacted] President, Treasurer and clerk. Guarantors on the loan are shown as [redacted] Newton, Massachusetts. Also in the application the Management of Hub was indicated as consisting of [redacted] President and Treasurer and who owned [redacted] of the common stock and [redacted] per cent of the voting stock; also [redacted] and his ownership in the company was shown as zero.

On 4/10/64 at Boston, Massachusetts File # BS 92-118
by SA [redacted] mod Date dictated 4/13/64

FRIEDMAN's position in the company was not indicated but he was shown as owning 2/3 of the common stock and 50 per cent of the voting stock. The names of [] and [] along with information as to their capacity in the company and ownership therein was typed on the application while the name of FRIEDMAN and other information concerning his ownership was handwritten in ink.

A Dun & Bradstreet report contained in SEA's file under the date of January 3, 1961, showed that Hub Electric Manufacturing Co., Inc., was incorporated in Rhode Island on March 22, 1956, with an authorized capital of 200 shares in no par common stock and with outstanding stock of 200 shares issued and paid in at $85,000.00.

Also in the Dun & Bradstreet report officers of Hub were indicated as [] President and SAUL FRIEDMAN, Treasurer and clerk. Directors were indicated as [] a Providence accountant.

The Dun & Bradstreet report showed that [] was born in [] was married and was associated with a car dealer named Don's Motor Sales, in Providence after military service.

He left Providence in 1945 and from then until 1956 was Vice President of Magnedisc Corporation, a manufacturer of dictaphones in Chicago. Further, he returned to Rhode Island in 1956 when he purchased Hub. Also contained in SEA's file was Form 4 captioned "Statement of Personal History" undated but signed SAUL FRIEDMAN. This form showed that FRIEDMAN was born August 2, 1915 at Rock Island, Illinois, and owned stock in Hub amounting to 2/3 and 50 per cent voting stock. His address during the past 10 years from 1949 was 115 Betsey Williams Drive, Cranston, Rhode Island. His employment from 1938 to the present is indicated as being self-employed, 709 Industrial Bank Building, Providence, Rhode Island.

3/

A notation on this Form indicated that FRIEDMAN showed he passed the Rhode Island bar as an attorney in November, 1938 after graduating from Boston University the same year. He entered military service in 1941 and retired as a Second Lieutenant in 1944. He served as a Probate Judge in the city of Cranston, Rhode Island from January, 1959 to January 1961 and was practicing law at the present time.

A notation in SBA's file indicated that FRIEDMAN refused to give his personal guaranty to Hub's loan and he also refused to submit a personal financial statement during SBA's pre-award investigation. FRIEDMAN assigned his 50 per cent stock interest in the company to one of the other principals [redacted] Jefferson Boulevard, Warwick, Rhode Island, was furnished the identity of the interviewing agents and also was told that he did not have to make any statement; that he had the right to talk to a lawyer before making any statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law.

He said his primary interest is [redacted]
[redacted] have had for a number of years, which company is a large and successful business. [redacted] has known [redacted]
[redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island for a number of years. Sometime ago, [redacted] was interested in organizing a race track in the western part of Massachusetts and at that time [redacted] asked him if he would be interested in investing money in a new track that would be operated by [redacted]. He said that since [redacted] has had a great deal of success [redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, both [redacted] invested $25,000 each in the Berkshire Downs Race Track in Massachusetts.

He said he knew nothing about this track and left everything in the hands of [redacted] was supposed to have all of the stock in trust. At that time the grandstands were not up and his company obtained the contract to build the grandstand, which it did and for which he obtained the money agreed upon to erect such stands. This money was put into the Campanella and Cardi Construction Company and had nothing to do with their financial interest in the track.

He said he does not know RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and has never met him. He also said that on the two or three occasions that he was at Berkshire Downs Race Track he never did see PATRIARCA there nor was he ever introduced to him.

On 5/22/64 at Cranston, Rhode Island File # Boston 92-118
by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] Date dictated 5/28/64

BS 92-118

He said that he knows of JOE KIRK of Providence, Rhode Island and has heard, through [redacted] that JOE KIRK has been at Berkshire Downs Race Track. However, he said that to his knowledge KIRK does not have any financial interest in the track.

He said that since [redacted] had all of the stock in trust he would be the person who would know the identity of the investors at this track and the amounts of stock issued to those individuals. He said he has no information concerning this matter and left everything in the hands of [redacted] is the person that has had the experience in the operations of a race track.

Sometime later, a person known as SALVATORE RIZZO of New York desired to purchase this track. Arrangements were made through [redacted] to sell it to him, which was done. At that time, RIZZO also assumed the note of Sports Service, stating that he would pay Sports Service the money owed. Sports Service at that time agreed to such an arrangement but did not release [redacted] from responsibility in the event that RIZZO did not make good on the note.

When the sale of the track was completed to RIZZO, [redacted] received some money back on his original investment. He said he could not recall the exact amount he received but stated that he did not get all of his $25,000 investment back. At that time he felt certain that he had no other connections with the track and he was happy to get out without sustaining a sizeable loss on his original investment.

It was after he sold out his interests that FRANK SINATRA and DEAN MARTIN, Hollywood celebrities, were brought into the organization as directors at the track.

He said that at that time there were also other investors from the Massachusetts area in the track, the names of whom he did not know except that he had heard that [] had the stock and was holding it in trust for everyone.

Also, at that time, there were no concessions at the track and [] had obtained the services of Sports Service of New York State to operate the concessions and in return for this concession, Sports Service loaned the track a certain sum of money. In order to obtain this loan, [] had to have someone besides himself sign the note from Sports Service. [] to sign the note with him, which they did.

He said the track has never been a paying proposition; that there has been a great deal of litigation over this track; that the track has been fighting for additional racing dates which it has not been able to obtain and he also felt that some politicians from Massachusetts had obtained stock in the track without investing too much money, if any at all. However, he had no specifics concerning this.

He said that when he and his partner, [] had each invested $25,000.00 they were made directors of this track but he said he has not been at the track on more than two or three occasions. He said that he did not think he had attended more than two directors' meetings and these meetings had nothing to do with the identity of the stockholders or who had invested money in this track.

Sometime later, he learned that SAUL FRIEDMAN, an attorney from Providence, Rhode Island, had invested money in this track. He was of the opinion that the money invested by FRIEDMAN was not actually FRIEDMAN's money but was money of outside interests, but he was not certain of this. He also was unable to furnish any information as to whose money it would be if it was not FRIEDMAN's money. He said he has never taken an active interest or an active participation in the affairs of this track. However, he has never heard that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA had any interest or control in it.

Sometime in the latter part of 1963, when Berkshire Downs was in financial difficulties, Sports Service of New York sued [redacted] and [redacted] and the [redacted] on the basis that the note signed by these three individuals, in the past, had not been paid by SALVATORE RIZZO and since the track appeared to be in financial difficulties Sports Service would not relinquish its right to sue them as the original signors of the note.

He said that in December, 1963 the track was sold through the efforts of the State Court at Springfield, Massachusetts; that the highest bidder was a Mr. [redacted] of New York

When [redacted] bought the track, [redacted] then stepped in and took over ownership of the track in that [redacted] has not assumed the payment of the note to Sports Service of New York.

He said that this was done in order to protect himself and in the hopes of the person who takes over the track will assume and pay the note due to Sports Service of New York.

He said he knows JOSEPH KRIKORIAN of Providence, Rhode Island, having met him at Berkshire Downs Race Track in Massachusetts and knowing him as a friend of [redacted] He said KIRK does not have any financial interest in this track and to his knowledge, KIRK has no control or influence in it.

He also said he has never seen RAYMOND PATRIARCA at the track and has never heard that PATRIARCA had any money invested in it or that he exercised any control or influence at the track.

The 1964 New England Telephone & Telegraph Company directory for Greater Springfield, Massachusetts indicates that telephone number 525-2266 is listed to FRANK G. HAMMOND, 7 North Park Place, East Longmeadow, Massachusetts.

On April 28, 1964, [redacted] Credit Bureau of Greater Springfield, 276 Bridge Street, Springfield, Massachusetts, advised that her records indicate that FRANK G. HAMMOND, 7 North Park Place, East Longmeadow, Massachusetts, wife, [redacted] is employed by [redacted] Springfield, Massachusetts. She advised that on August 13, 1954, HAMMOND retired as the Manager of the Western Union Telegraph Company, Springfield, Massachusetts, after 36 years of service in Hartford, Connecticut; Portland, Maine; Bridgeport, Connecticut; Providence, Rhode Island; and Boston, Massachusetts. She advised that he has a good credit rating.

On April 28, 1964, [redacted] Probation Office, District Court, Springfield, Massachusetts, advised that there was no arrest record identifiable with FRANK G. HAMMOND, 7 North Park Place, East Longmeadow, Massachusetts.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, 48 Montgomery Avenue, Warwick, Rhode Island, and owner of the New England Imports Company, Pocasset Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, furnished the following information:

He said that he continues to operate the New England Imports Company at Pocasset Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island and that business is not too good in that he sells to hustlers who do not pay their bills on time, and that he has to chase these individuals for his money. He did not identify these individuals. He said he sells imported watches and costume jewelry to the hustlers and that they sell this merchandise on the road, some of them traveling throughout the country selling this merchandise. He said that he ships his merchandise COD to the hustlers.

He said that he recently received a postponement on his pending trial in the U.S. District Court, Providence, Rhode Island for violation of the tax laws and that this postponement was due to ill health. He stated that he has a very serious stomach ailment and also has a very bad heart. He also stated that he is about 62 years of age.

He also stated that DANA RICCI, close friend to RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA and himself, is presently in the hospital suffering from incurable cancer, that this cancer has spread throughout his chest and throat, and that RICCI is not expected to live through June, 1964. He said that they have placed a tube and a plastic bag on RICCI'S right side so that they can drain some of the water from his chest area.

He stated that he continues to visit with RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA, that he has been a close friend to PATRIARCA for many years, and that he continues to be employed by PATRIARCA as salesman in the National Cigarette Service which is operated by PATRIARCA.

He stated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA can always be located at his place of business, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, however, he refused to discuss RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA.

BS. 92-118

On May 21, 1964, RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed by a Bureau agent boarding the 11:04 a.m. train at Union Station, Providence, Rhode Island. He was observed arriving at Pennsylvania Station, New York City, at about 2:40 p.m., May 21, 1964, at which point Bureau agents at New York City observed PATRIARCA there.

At 2:43 p.m., on May 21, 1964, RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at the platform of track number 10, Pennsylvania Railroad Station, departing from New Haven Railroad train "The Senator." PATRIARCA proceeded from the station to a New York taxicab, New York license Q-16854, which took him directly to the 56th Street entrance of the Park Shreston Hotel located at 56th Street and 7th Avenue, New York City. PATRIARCA proceeded into the hotel lobby by the 56th Street entrance, walked through the lobby, and was observed departing the lobby by the 7th Avenue entrance. Special Agents of the New York Office then observed him walk to 55th Street and re-enter the hotel lobby by that entrance. He emerged from the same entrance approximately 7 minutes later.

Agents then observed PATRIARCA proceed West on 55th Street to Broadway where he very deliberately and casually walked slowly down Broadway to 50th Street where he crossed to the other side of the street and proceeded back up Broadway to the vicinity of 56th Street and Broadway. He loitered at the intersection for approximately 10 minutes and then proceeded half a block West on 56th Street where he entered Patsy's Restaurant, 236 West 56th Street at approximately 3:50 p.m.

At 6:57 p.m., Special Agents of the New York Office observed THOMAS LUCHESE depart from the front entrance of Patsy's and proceed to 56th Street and Broadway. At 7:08 p.m. RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA and an unknown male emerged from Patsy's Restaurant and also proceeded to 56th Street and Broadway. The two men spoke for a few minutes at the corner and PATRIARCA then took a taxicab away from the area. The unknown individual who accompanied PATRIARCA was described as a white male, age 45-50 years, 5 feet 10 inches, 190 pounds, with black hair and a prominent nose.

On June 10, 1964, RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed by a Bureau agent boarding the 11:04 a.m. train at Union Station, Providence, Rhode Island.

He was observed arriving at Pennsylvania Station, New York City, at about 2:40 p.m., June 10, 1964, at which point Bureau agents at New York City observed PATRIARCA there.

RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed by Special Agents of the New York Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on the platform at Track number 11, Pennsylvania Railroad Station, at approximately 2:45 p.m., June 10, 1964, departing from New Haven Railroad train number 173. PATRIARCA proceeded from Pennsylvania Railroad Station via New York taxicab, License number O-23966, to the vicinity of 56th Street and Broadway where he entered the Park Sheraton Hotel. After walking through the lobby of the hotel PATRIARCA proceeded to stroll casually down Broadway to 48th Street. PATRIARCA then returned to the intersection of 56th Street and Broadway and at 3:50 p.m. entered Patsy's Restaurant, 236 West 56th Street, New York City.

Special Agents of the New York Office observed THOMAS LUCHESE entering Patsy's Restaurant, 236 West 56th Street, New York City, at 3:40 p.m.

Special Agents of the New York Office determined at 4:10 p.m. that neither PATRIARCA nor LUCHESE were on the main floor of the restaurant, however, it is noted that there are private dining rooms on the upper floors of the restaurant.

BS 837-C* advised on 7/30/64 that LOUIS TAGLIANETTI, Providence, R. I., was complaining to PATRIARCA concerning the actions of DANA RICCI's girl friend, [redacted]. They have obtained a job as waitress for [redacted] but she is still asking for more money.

HENRY TAMELEO indicated that he was attempting to dispose of some wigs. He attempted to sell same to a hairdresser, at which time he found out there was little or no market for same.

On 7/31/64, BS 837-C* was not available.

On 8/3/64, UNMAN stated that DANA RICCI's girl friend was still complaining about not receiving sufficient money from the estate of RICCI.

There was further discussion of the wigs, mentioned above, but the informant was unable to ascertain details of same.

DANNY (LNU) (possibly RAIMONDI) advised PATRIARCA that he had been "casing" the individual for over five hours on Saturday, 8/1/64, and that he intended to resume the surveillance on 8/4/64. He told him that JERRY (possibly ANGIULO) had furnished him the information and that the individual had driven a red Ford and parked it behind the Administration Building.

DANNY was, at that time, instructed by PATRIARCA to bring his car to be repaired, stating he thought there might be a mike in the car as the horn blew when he took a left-hand turn; directional signals were not operating correctly, and when he came out in the morning the dome light in his car was in operation when it should not have been.

He also told DANNY to have the mechanic check for any mike that might be in the car.

An unknown individual and PATRIARCA discussed the mayoralty candidates (apparently of Providence, R. I.). It appeared that PATRIARCA was attempting to request [redacted] to "pull out of the race," but [redacted] would not talk to him.

He instructed UNMAN to contact [redacted] and attempt to persuade him to pull out of the mayoralty race "in a nice way."

PATRIARCA had been requested to force [redacted] out of the race by [redacted] from Rhode Island.

[redacted] of Revere, Mass.) contacted PATRIARCA and was questioned by him concerning the red Ford, mentioned above, by DANNY. PATRIARCA then contacted DANNY and asked him to return to the office where DANNY, [redacted] and PATRIARCA discussed the beating of [redacted]

[redacted], of Nantasket Beach, Mass., suggested that DANNY and his associate (possibly [redacted] but not ANGIULO) "hit [redacted]" at Wayland Park, Fitchburg, Mass., on 8/5/64.

PATRIARCA asked if anyone would be with [redacted] at that time, and [redacted] replied, "Possibly there would be."

PATRIARCA ruled out the "hit" at Wayland Park and suggested that they do it in the vicinity of Paragon Park, as they would only need four or five minutes "to break his legs and split his head open."

[redacted] suggested that they use [redacted] as a finger man, as they pointed out that [redacted] is in Nantasket.

They ruled this out, as they did not want anyone else to know the details.

They went into detail concerning [redacted] movements, but did not indicate the reason for the beating.

On 8/4/64, the above information was furnished anonymously to Det. [redacted] Metropolitan District Police, by a female stenographer of the Boston Office in such a manner that it would not compromise the informant.

It should be noted that the Metropolitan District Police have jurisdiction over Nantasket Beach and Paragon Park.

[redacted] further stated that one of his three places in Revere Beach, Mass. was hit by the State Troopers recently. (This apparently referred to his places of amusement, such as Fascination, Ski-Lo, etc.) The business was not in his name.

He pointed out that he attempted to get to Judge MAC LEOD in Chelsea, Mass. but "he could not be handled." He added that he was supposed to open in Indianapolis and that he has bought a van to carry all the "stock." (This "stock" could possibly refer to the equipment used in the games similar to Fascination, Ski-Lo, etc.)

JOSEPH ~~KRIKORIAN~~, Providence, R. I., discussed PATRIARCA's ownership of Berkshire Downs and suggested that he get out at any cost. N11

It should be noted that the newspaper articles reflected that Mr. CARNEY, who operated the Brockton Fair, had decided not to purchase any interest in Berkshire Downs because of the various complications.

It appears that JOSEPH KRIKORIAN would go to New York in the near future concerning the Berkshire Downs Race Track, but the informant was not sure whether PATRIARCA would accompany him. However, there was a discussion of train schedules and routes that could be used to go to New York by automobile.

PATRIARCA suggests that in order to avoid a surveillance he travels to the Massachusetts Turnpike; proceeds to Springfield, Mass., where he uses the cut-off to Hartford, Conn., and then to NYC. In this way he avoids a surveillance.

LOUIS ~~TAGLIANETTI~~, Providence, R. I., hoodlum, advised that [redacted] the Security Section, New England Telephone & Telegraph Co., visited him the previous evening at his home, accompanied by one of his associates. [redacted] told TAGLIANETTI that [redacted] of the Rhode Island State Police went to the telephone company in Boston in an effort to have [redacted] an associate of [redacted] fired. C

[redacted] until this time, thought that [redacted] was a good fellow, but knows now that he "can't be trusted."

He pointed out that [redacted] also caused trouble to [redacted] who is believed to be a relative of CARLTON O'BRIEN's, former Providence gambler who was killed during the BRINKS investigation. [redacted] was a friend of [redacted]. It appears that [redacted] was attempting to develop TAGLIANETTI as an informant. B

When asked by TAGLIANETTI whether any telephone taps were being put on his or PATRIARCA's phone, [redacted] explained that he would not be in a position to know this information, as the Police can tap a phone from a box three or four miles away from the location of the phone, without the knowledge of the telephone company.

(It is apparent that PATRIARCA is referring to the beating of [redacted], Nantasket Beach, Mass.) He told DANNY to give the other kid [redacted] $200 for his services.

[redacted] According to this informant, while RAIMONDI and [redacted] were "casing" the area in order to grab an individual believed to be [redacted] in Nantasket Beach, they were stopped by the local police. RAIMONDI furnished identification to the effect that he was employed by the B. J. CAPALDI Construction Co. and that they were only taking a ride in the area.

On the basis of the inquiry by the Police Officer, RAIMONDI stated he was not going to carry out the slugging unless ordered to do so by PATRIARCA.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI advised PATRIARCA substantially the same information as set out in reairtel concerning the conversation he had with [redacted] Security Officer, NEWBT, Boston, Mass. PATRIARCA is of the opinion that [redacted] is a "no good [redacted]" and to be very careful of him." He stated that the only reason he is visiting TAGLIANETTI is to obtain the information when TAGLIANETTI "lets something slip."

RAYMOND PATRIARCA is of the opinion that [redacted] still works for the FBI and he only uses the phone company as a "front."

TAGLIANETTI explained that he was on his guard and that [redacted] will not be able to obtain any information from him.

[redacted] Providence, R. I. contractor, discusses his contracting business with PATRIARCA. He received the "OK" from PATRIARCA to contact [redacted] the Union, in order to straighten out a "beef" between one of his employees named [redacted] and another individual (not known to the informant.)..

HENRY TAMELEO advised that his wife received a phone call from an individual who refused to identify himself but who asked for TAMELEO. When informed that TAMELEO was not in, he stated to the wife to relay the following information to HENRY:

This information reflected that the caller was at the U. S. Marshal's Office and overheard a conversation to the effect that they were obtaining search warrants for PATRIARCA's house and TAMELEO's house. When his wife told him of this he immediately returned home and put some dirty shirts in a paper bag and proceeded to a cleaning establishment. He thought that the caller was actually a government agent who wanted to find out what he would do in the event he heard that a search warrant was actually in effect.

JERRY ANGIULO joined TAMELEO and PATRIARCA. ANGIULO has been subpoenaed by USA [redacted] Boston, Mass., in regard to the Indian Meadow Country Club at Westboro, Mass. He is to appear before the U. S. Federal Grand Jury on 8/5/64, at which time he will take the 5th Amendment.

Concerning ANGIULO's IRS case, he stated that he wished Judge [redacted] (U. S. Court of Appeals) could be reached.

PATRIARCA stated the only one who could possibly reach [redacted] but he is now a drunk and a narcotic addict and he, therefore, could not use him.

JERRY intends to hire the services of [redacted] Boston Attorney who has connections in Washington, D. C. [redacted] according to PATRIARCA, also has an office in Washington, D. C. and is on JIMMY HOFFA's staff.

ANGIULO believes that if they get a very capable lawyer to argue his case before the U. S. Court of Appeals he would be successful in delaying prosecutive action beyond October. In the event this is accomplished, the Statute of Limitations will preclude IRS from another tax year which, according to ANGIULO, is "very important to him."

ANGIULO has also contacted [redacted] but believes that he is a psycho and will not, at this time, utilize his services.

There appeared to be an argument that developed between JERRY ANGIULO and JOSEPH ANSELMO, both capo regimes under RAYMOND PATRIARCA. It concerned a burglary of several expensive wigs from a shop (probably in the vicinity of Boston which was owned by a millionaire woman). The burglary was completed by [redacted] and a woman who worked in the wig establishment. [redacted] was friendly with [redacted] and RONNY CASSESSA and, apparently, between the three they sold the most expensive wigs, which were taken in the burglary.

The woman had recontacted [] and asked that the wigs be returned to her as she and [] are going in the wig business.

[] refused to return the wigs to her, pointing out that most of them were of little value.

[] HENRY TAMELEO was thereafter contacted and he instructed [] to burn these wigs, pointing out that the woman is dangerous and might blow the lid off if caught with the remaining wigs.

JERRY became involved in an argument with ANSELMO because [] is now under his direct supervision.

According to the informant, ANGIULO called in [] and asked him the details surrounding the theft and his contacts with ANSELMO. ANSELMO had told ANGIULO that [] apparently has been out of line in recent weeks, particularly after the above transactions.

ANSELMO complained that prior to this transaction [] wife and ANSELMO's wife were in daily telephonic contact with each other. Since that time, [] wife has not contacted ANSELMO's wife. He is, therefore, of the opinion that [] told his wife, and brother not to have anything to do with ANSELMO.

According to the informant, ANGIULO told [] that he apparently did tell his wife, which is a direct violation of his oath. He read the oath again to [] twice and pointed out that he should well know from the oath that "Our people come before your family" and made [] repeat it several times. He instructed [] to order his wife to call ANSELMO's wife and resume their friendship and, if this was not done, it would be an indication that [] had, in fact, furnished his wife some information concerning his allegiance and association with ANSELMO.

ANGIULO was complaining that he has had to contact [] every three or four days in order to keep him in line, and that he does not know what is going to happen if this continues. He warned [] that he must act in accordance with the rules of "the organization" and that he (ANGIULO) should not be "on [redacted] back all the time."

ANGIULO also advised that SAM CUFARI contacted him recently and told him that [redacted] (IRS) had told SAM that IRS was checking on SAM's girl friend and that they had traced a call to the girl friend (This probably refers to the information set out in Boston letterhead memorandum dated 7/13/64 entitled, "SALVATORE LOUIS CUFARI, AR," Bufile 92-2946, Bosfile 92-125, which reflected that a call was placed from CUFARI's girl friend's house to [redacted] in Somerville, Mass.) This information is not being disseminated at this time in order to protect the source.

After a lengthy discussion, PATRIARCA told ANGIULO to tell CUFARI to make sure that the girl, when questioned by IRS, have an attorney present and take the 5th Amendment.

According to ANGIULO, [redacted] the Bronze Door, a restaurant in Boston, Mass. ANGIULO is attempting to acquire same.

ANGIULO is still having difficulty with the Indian Meadow Country Club and has been told by an accountant that [redacted] is losing $200 a day on the restaurant alone.

ANGIULO presented a number of possibilities by which they probably could sell the club and obtain their original investment from the club. No definite course of action was stated by ANGIULO. He did state, however, that he is going "to back away from the [redacted] Boston, Mass.) but furnished no details concerning same.

ANGIULO complained that the numbers business has been extremely poor in recent months. He mentioned Worcester is behind $19,100, and other names (which the informant was unable to ascertain) all of whom were behind in a substantial amount of money.

PATRIARCA pointed out that the Providence operation has also lost a substantial amount of money in recent months, mostly on numbers.

BS 92-118

On 8/5/64, informant advised that PATRIARCA would not be at his place of business on 8/6/64.

On 8/6/64, PCI [REDACTED] advised that PATRIARCA was leaving town on that day but had no details concerning his trip.

Efforts to surveil PATRIARCA on this date were made with negative results.

On 8/20/64, BS 837-C* advised that LOUIS TAGLIANETTI and HENRY TAMELEO contacted PATRIARCA. They complained that one [redacted] the wife of DANNY (LNU) now deceased, who was bothering them for money, intimated that she expected them to support her now that her husband had passed on.

Informant advised that they discussed a recent magazine article wherein California attorney, [redacted] was highly critical of Attorney General (AG) ROBERT KENNEDY. PATRIARCA said that [redacted] comments in regard to the AG agreed with the way that PATRIARCA sized him up years ago. PATRIARCA said that now that KENNEDY was stepping down as AG some of the heat would go off. They speculated that [redacted] Speaker JOHN McCORMACK, would replace KENNEDY as AG.

PATRIARCA made the comment that the State Police in R. I. have been noticeably quiet lately and the powers that be probably told them to do nothing until after election.

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO and TAGLIANETTI that PHILLIP CATALDO, brother of ANTHONY CATALDO, also known as MAXIE BEAR, had died after shooting himself.

BS 837-C* advised that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was contacted on that date by GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE.

On 8/24/64 the Informant advised that HENRY TAMELEO contacted PATRIARCA and mentioned the recent killings in Boston of HAROLD HANNON and WILFRED DELANEY. PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that GERRY ANGIULO had called him and told him that these people robbed a guy who is in the numbers game in Everett, Massachusetts and who is friendly with JOE LOMBARDI. PATRIARCA said that this numbers operator was good to these people and they got about $27,000 and put about $15,000 of it "on the street" (in the shylocking business). TAMELEO and PATRIARCA agreed that these people would rob their best friends.

PATRIARCA told TAMELEO that JOHN BIELE visited him on Friday and that RONNY CASSESSO and ROMEO were with him. ROMEO is believed to be ROMEO MARTIN well-known exconvict who has been hanging with CASSESSO.

FEDERAL RESERVE ACT - CONSPIRACY

Synopsis:

On 5/5/64, Subjects PAGE and DI CARLO appeared before USDC Judge FRANCIS W. DAY, Providence, R.I. PAGE and DI CARLO changed their pleas from not guilty to guilty on certain counts in the indictment returned against them. GIRAGOSIAN's trial was continued because his attorney was engaged at trial in another matter. Subject GIRAGOSIAN went on trial before Judge DAY, Providence, R.I. and on 6/24/64 he was found guilty on two counts in the indictment returned against him. On 8/24/64, PAGE and DI CARLO appeared before USDC Judge DAY and PAGE was sentenced to three years on Counts 1 and 3 to run concurrent and on Count 9, one year's probation to be served after completion of sentence. DI CARLO was sentenced to 18 months. GIRAGOSIAN made motion for a new trial and on 8/17/64 Judge DAY denied the motion, continued his sentencing to 9/18/64.

BS 29-879

DETAILS:

On May 5, 1964, Subjects HERBERT ASHTON PAGE, JR., JOSEPH DI CARLO and GEORGE GIRAGOSIAN appeared before U.S. District Court Judge FRANCIS W. DAY, Providence, Rhode Island. At that time, PAGE and DI CARLO changed their pleas from not guilty to guilty on certain counts in the indictment returned against them. PAGE pleaded guilty to counts #1, #3 and #9. DI CARLO pleaded guilty to count #9. Both were continued on $2,000.00 bond for sentencing on June 5, 1964.

GIRAGOSIAN's trial was temporarily continued for a later date due to the fact that his attorney was defending a person on trial for murder in the Superior Court in Rhode Island.

On June 5, 1964, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island, advised that the probation reports on PAGE and DI CARLO had not been completed and disposition had been continued until June 19, 1964.

On June 22, 23 and 24, 1964, jury trial of GIRAGOSIAN was held in the U.S. District Court, Providence, Rhode Island, before Judge FRANCIS W. DAY and GIRAGOSIAN was found guilty by the jury on the two counts in the indictment returned against him.

Judge DAY continued disposition of sentencing of GIRAGOSIAN until July 17, 1964. He also continued disposition of Subjects PAGE and DI CARLO until July 17, 1964.

On July 17, 1964, Judge DAY continued sentencing of all three Subjects until August 24, 1964.

On August 24, 1964, Assistant United States Attorney [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island, advised that Subject GIRAGOSIAN had made a motion for a new trial and on August 17, 1964, Judge DAY denied the motion and continued sentencing of GIRAGOSIAN until September 18, 1964.

BS 29-879

[redacted] advised that on this day, August 24, 1964, Judge DAY sentenced PAGE to three years on Counts #1 and #3 to run concurrent and on Count #9 placed him on one year's probation after the completion of sentence.

Judge DAY sentenced DI CARLO to eighteen months on Count #9.

Re: Boston airtel, August 25, 1964.

BS 837 C* advised on August 25, 1964, that PATRIARCA was contacted by [redacted] is an individual who operates [redacted] and was associated with LOUIS FOX and has a large amount of [redacted] to visit PATRIARCA to explain why he had not paid back the $5,000. which he had borrowed. He pointed out that he was having some hard luck and that PATRIARCA would be the first one paid when he started to make money in the [redacted] business. The informant believed that [redacted] obtained $5,000. from [redacted] another former associate of LOUIS FOX, and $5,000. from PATRIARCA through [redacted] gave PATRIARCA $1,000., which he said did not have to be considered as any payment toward the $5,000. that he owed. He obtained permission from PATRIARCA to go South and to continue to try to make some money in the [redacted] business.

On August 26, 1964, BS 837 C* advised that HENRY TAMBLEO told PATRIARCA that they might have an opportunity to handle some layoff money from an individual named [redacted] in Lowell, Massachusetts. They described Lowell as having some good barboot games and quite a bit of shylocking business. PATRIARCA and TAMBLEO made the comment that JERRY ANGIULO did not appear to be interested in Lowell.

PATRIARCA was contacted by GEMARCO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE. ANGIULO discussed with PATRIARCA the fact that many people were getting letters requesting that they appear and furnish depositions in regard to PATRIARCA's law suit against the Herald-Traveler Corporation. The discussion centered about whether they should reply to these letters for depositions or wait until subpoenas were issued.

ANGIULO, after contacting Attorney CHARLES CURRAN while in Rhode Island, returned and told PATRIARCA that it had been decided that the people who received letters requesting depositions would call up and say that they would not respond but would do so if they were subpoenaed. They spent some time discussing whether various individual who would be subpoenaed, such as JOE LOMBARDO, ANGIULO, [REDACTED] etc., should invoke the Fifth Amendment or answer particular questions. ANGIULO made the comment that if they had photographs of various meetings, the individuals testifying could not very well say that they had not seen PATRIARCA. ANGIULO pointed out that if they could answer a few questions, it might create a better impression than taking the Fifth Amendment but then the sixty-four dollar question would be "Are you a member of the Cosa Nostra?".

ANGIULO said that the names of the people requested to furnish depositions would indicate that the Herald-Traveler Corporation was getting cooperation from somewhere.

LIMONE told PATRIARCA that [REDACTED] are borrowing money from [REDACTED] LIMONE complained about the activities of [REDACTED] TAMELEO interjected that that he was making some money with [REDACTED] in connection with horse wagers. He pointed out that he had been with [REDACTED] telephoned jockey [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] told him that one of the horses he was riding that day could have won if [REDACTED] had given him the whip.

LIMONE told PATRIARCA that someone is putting a pretty good group together in that they are grabbing different guys getting out of jail and putting them to work. They are going to knock out the other group, one at a time.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO, according to informant, that he, PATRIARCA, gave a book to Attorney CHARLES CURRAN setting forth what VALACHI had to say in his testimony.

[] stated that the examiners could find nothing in the records in the Bank of Miami Beach to suspect any such activities.

In connection with the names listed above, the examiners could find no record of any transactions between the Bank of Miami Beach and any such individuals with the exception of the following:

The records of the Bank of Miami Beach reflect that [] Chestnut Hill, Mass., business address 261 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass., opened a commercial checking account in his own name on 2/4/64, and closed it on 5/25/64. The account was introduced by [] Bank references were given as First National Bank of Boston, and the State Street Bank of Boston. [] previously had loans at the Bank of Miami Beach, but as of the date of examination, all such loans had been paid or are not reflected as one of his Co-operate Interests. His Co-operate Interests were listed as follows:

Advertising Concepts, Inc., 8 Beacon St., Boston, Mass. This company opened a commercial checking account at the Bank of Miami Beach on 5/26/64. [] is the only authorized signature. The balance in this account, as of 7/20/64, was $471.65, and average balances for the month of July were $200 or less. This company owes the Bank of Miami Beach $22,728.82, unsecured, which is classified as doubtful.

Commercial Products, Inc., 261 Tremont St., Boston, Mass., opened a commercial checking account at the Bank of Miami Beach 9/5/63, and closed it on 5/25/64. Authorized signatures on this account were [] Bank references were given as the First National Bank of Boston.

AT 92-221 92-402

The above accounts, although [redacted] are closed or reflecting little activities, have been, in the past, suspected of kiting activities and are still under investigation by the receipt of necessary material from FDIC at Boston.

Part of the proceeds of the loan to Advertising Concepts, Inc., were used to cover substantial overdrafts of that company and its affiliated Commercial Products, Inc., and [redacted] personally. These overdrafts resulted from checks being returned from Massachusetts bank funds that had been allowed to be withdrawn.

The examination report reflects further that Internal Revenue, on 4/16/64, filed notice of levy for unpaid taxes in the amount of $2,344.45.

The examination report further reflected that [redacted] Miami, Fla., has two unsecured loans with the Bank of Miami Beach, totaling $2,225, and one FHA, Title One, installment loan, totaling $2,018.87. A deposit account was opened in the name of [redacted] with a balance of $48.16. [redacted] of the All-Florida Collection Agency.

The examination report reflects that [redacted] Miami Beach, Fla., opened a commercial checking account in his own name on 5/13/57, the balance on 7/20/64 being $73.25. He also has a special checking account in this bank with a balance of $27.20. He has a commercial loan of $1,771, secured by an assignment of a savings and loan share account. He also has an installment loan representing an FHA Title One loan for $15,318.59. He is also a joint-maker on a loan to Center Cut-rate Drugs, Inc., which is unsigned, and which has an outstanding balance due of $1,000.

The examination report further reflects that [redacted] Miami Beach, Fla., has an FHA Title One installment loan with a balance of $2,148.46, which is apparently secured by a first mortgage on real estate, and which is jointly signed with his wife, [redacted]

AT 92-221 92-402

[redacted] again advised that it is not feasible to monitor accounts at the Bank of Miami Beach, Fla., but stated in the event it becomes desirable in the future to again check the records or transactions with certain individuals, he will be glad to cooperate.

The fourth paragraph of page 2 of reairtel sets forth information concerning an association between Patriarca and [redacted] Rhode Island House of Representatives, which is stated to date back to a favor that [redacted] did for Patriarca in 1945.

The above-mentioned matter may refer to an incident concerning which information is set forth beginning on page 15 of report of [redacted] dated at Boston 12/27/57. This involves an indictment of several individuals, including Patriarca, on charges of murder, accessory, etc., arising out of the April 19, 1930, attempt to deliver two long-term prisoners from the Rhode Island State Prison. It is noted that one of the persons indicted for murder, John McLaughlin, was a member of the Armed Forces and his charges were reduced to manslaughter, after which he was released to military authorities. [redacted] may be the "soldier" Patriarca mentioned as having had his testimony fixed by [redacted] in order to benefit Patriarca.

If it is possible to do so discreetly, this matter should be inquired into further to obtain details of the assistance given by [redacted] to Patriarca in 1945, it being noted that Patriarca was arrested in 1944 and released in 1945 in connection with the 1930 attempted jail break.

Re: Boston airtel 9/1/64.

BS 837-C* advised on 9/1/64 that ALFREDO ROSSI contacted PATRIARCA on that date but the informant did not know the purpose of the contact.

An unman also contacted PATRIARCA and PATRIARCA told him that the state police were taking photographs of individuals leaving the Unman's place.

Another Unman contacted PATRIARCA and complained that he had not received the money that an individual owed him. PATRIARCA told the Unman that he had sent for this person twice and would now send [redacted] out to bring the individual in so that he could pay up.

In connection with an insurance policy that this Unman was writing, PATRIARCA told him that his new car was a 1964 Blue Pontiac, Grand Prix hardtop, SN 894L100185.

One [redacted] LNU, contacted PATRIARCA on 9/1/64 and PATRIARCA wanted to know from him if an interest charge of 1% a week on $10,000. would be too much. PATRIARCA said that loaning out money in this fashion would

On 9/2/64, BS 837-C* advised that "TEDDY" FUCILLO contacted RAYMOND PATRIARCA. They discussed RAYMOND PATRIARCA's suit against the Herald-Traveler Corporation. FUCILLO made the comment that if they all invoke the Fifth Amendment it would make RAYMOND PATRIARCA look bad.

PATRIARCA said that he felt that, where possible, they should answer the questions if they could. As an example, PATRIARCA pointed out that [] could answer questions as he has not seen PATRIARCA for years. [] could also say that as far as introducing PATRIARCA to [] it could not be so because he [] did not even know []; therefore, he could not introduce him to PATRIARCA.

FUCILLO made the comment that FRANK GUCCILIARA would say simply that he knew PATRIARCA's father and that RAYMOND himself was a good boy.

FUCILLO made reference to the fact that [] is in New York. He made a comment that some company which has over 500 employees is moving their plant to New York, and [] is attempting to accomplish something in connection with this move.

On 9/3/64, BS 837-C* advised that an unknown male contacted PATRIARCA in an effort to get him interested in manufacturing some plastic product. UNMAN asked PATRIARCA if he could borrow $1,000 on Smith Street, and PATRIARCA replied that they have $80,000 on the street, "won't lend anything and are calling everything in.

After this refusal, the UNMAN made the comment to PATRIARCA that he did not believe that RAYMOND liked him any more. This UNMAN mentioned to PATRIARCA that "TEDDY" FUCILLO and [] would handle the selling of this plastic product.

In response to a suggestion from PATRIARCA, UNMAN said that "TEDDY" FUCILLO was too cheap to loan him any money.

On 9/4/64, GENNARO J. ANGIULO, Boston, Mass., advised PATRIARCA that he heard from [] who, in turn, was told by [] of the Massachusetts State Police, that an individual named [] was talking to the FBI.

It should be noted that a [] had requested an interview by the FBI while confined to the Norfolk County House of Correction on 7/8/64.

[] was interviewed but did not furnish any information of particular value.

It was noted that PATRIARCA instructed ANGIULO to tell anyone concerned with [] to stay away from him.

BS 92-118

ANGIULO also advised that the Massachusetts State Police had interrogated him concerning an individual named PERRY who was recently killed in an airplane crash on Martha's Vineyard. PERRY allegedly had a $5,000 check in his possession at the time of his death. The check was made payable to JERRY ANJULO.

According to JERRY, he did not know PERRY and could offer no explanation to PATRIARCA for this check, with the exception that it might be for an individual whose true name is ANJULO.

Later, ANGIULO did offer an explanation to the effect that some kid from the North End (identity not mentioned) had possibly forged PERRY's name to the check and was shaking PERRY down in some manner unknown to ANGIULO.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., was questioned in the presence of ANGIULO as to whether he knew [redacted]. [redacted] advised that he knew [redacted] and that recently [redacted] sent word to [redacted] through ALFREDO ROSSI's [redacted] that he needed money to make parole.

According to [redacted] is a "stand-up Irishman" and did not believe he would even talk to the FBI.

JERRY discussed in detail PATRIARCA's suit against the Boston Herald-Traveler. He advised PATRIARCA that all individuals subpoenaed should take the Fifth Amendment.

PATRIARCA explained that if [] was using [] money, it actually was JERRY ANGIULO's money, as ANGIULO has loaned a substantial amount of money to [] at 1% a month.

HENRY TAMELEO was called in by PATRIARCA, and he explained that approximately 10 days ago the man who was to purchase the business was told to get up $15,000 and bring it to a location.

TAMELEO had a couple of individuals (identities not known to the informant) there to rob the UNMAN of the $15,000 before the sale was consummated, but purchaser never appeared.

TAMELEO stated he did not think UNMAN was capable of raising this amount of money and assumed that the deal was off.

According to UNMAN, the proposed purchaser had stated that he had OK'd all of the loans for the $10,000, which is presently on the street. However, TAMELEO pointed out that [] from Lowell (probably []) had OK'd $2,700 of the $10,000 that he (TAMELEO) knows of.

TAMELEO was talking to [] the other night in Lowell and, during the course of the conversation, [] explained that he had OK'd three different loans totalling $2,700.

PATRIARCA stated that if the individual had the money he could purchase this loan shark operation providing, of course, that he pay 50% of the profits to TAMELEO.

On 9/9/64, HENRY TAMELEO explained to PATRIARCA that he was in Boston the previous day and that there was a "beef" concerning [] and "RONNIE" CASSESSA.

[] has charged that CASSESSA owes [] $1,900. "RONNIE" claims that he has paid him $400 or $500, leaving a balance of $1,400 or $1,500.

According to TAMELEO, there appeared to be dissension between [] and JOE BURNS. It was TAMELEO's thoughts that [] was antagonistic towards BURNS because CASSESSA formerly worked for him and now is working under the direction of JOE BURNS.

BS 92-118

TAMELEO stated that ANGIULO was to hold court concerning this matter and have BURNS, [] and CASSESSA present.

There was a lengthy discussion concerning "RONNIE" CASSESSA, between PATRIARCA and TAMELEO.

PATRIARCA criticized BURNS and [] and others (not mentioned) who have never praised CASSESSA for the work he has done.

PATRIARCA pointed out that the only thing he hears lately of CASSESSA is the fact that he is no good, but he (PATRIARCA) because of conversation with PETER LIMONE, thinks that the stories concerning CASSESSA emanate from [] because of jealousy.

TAMELEO further explained that while on Hanover Street, Boston, the day previous he met "JOHNNY" FOTO (true name JOHN BIELE). At the same time, [] and JOE LOMBARDI were walking up Hanover Street. FOTO desired to shake LOMBARDI's hand because he had not seen him for many years.

According to TAMELEO, the reason why [] and LOMBARDI were walking up the street is that [] had complained to LOMBARDI that the husband of an unknown girl had complained to [] that "RONNIE" was molesting his wife. They immediately called CASSESSA into the back room, and CASSESSA denied the allegations, pointing out that he dates the girl's aunt.

Subsequent investigation shows that [] (LNU) had dated the girl prior to her marriage. They called the girl and the husband in and both denied that they had made any such allegation to []

PATRIARCA was then of the opinion, as was TAMELEO, that [] is instigating "beefs" against "RONNIE" CASSESSA.

On July 16, 1964, BS-837-C mentioned that a person named [] (LNU) was approached by a woman who resides on Lancaster Avenue, city or state not mentioned. This woman desired to have [] obtain permission to operate a crap game in her house which has a finished cellar and that the crap game would be attended by only wealthy people, such as doctors, lawyers, etc.

On July 23, 1964, BS-837-C* advised that the woman mentioned above was named [] and she had a husband who was very thin. [] lives in a house which is to be used for the proposed crap game, and, this house has a swimming pool and a high fence around the property. [] asked for 35 to 50% of the profits and a person named [] said the percentage was too high and that if the game was to operate she would have to settle for 25% of the profits.

Since the above date, BS-837-C* has not obtained any additional information concerning [] (LNU) nor has informant developed any information that this game is in operation.

On August 2, 10, 17, 1964 and September 2, 4, 1964, [] advised he has not obtained any information concerning a proposed crap game emanating through RAYMOND L.S. PATRIARCA. Informant said PATRIARCA resides at 165 Lancaster Street, Providence, Rhode Island which is not a very long street. Informant said PATRIARCA knows he is constantly under investigation by the FBI and would never allow a crap game on his street.

[] was complaining that they furnished him no help in obtaining stands at Ottawa, Canada. They pointed out that they have been in Presque Isle, Me. and other cities in the New England area, as well as Indianapolis, Allentown and, in the near future, they are going to Columbia (probably South Carolina).

An agreement was reached whereby either [] or CANDELMO will spend the week in Columbia, S. C. and be in a position to obtain the necessary funds from [] at the completion of the fair.

They also decided to attempt to obtain the money legally by hiring an attorney in Columbia and file a lien against [] in an effort to obtain the money.

CANDELMO told PATRIARCA that the FBI was inquiring as to his interest in the World of Mirth Shows at Indianapolis.

PATRIARCA stated that the information would be easy to obtain in that the individual who was questioned (identity unknown) could say he was friendly with [] (PATRIARCA's [] the Coin-O-Matic Co., which is a cigarette vending machine business in Providence, R. I.) The individual could also state that he knew PATRIARCA's family when they resided in Worcester, Mass. and deny that PATRIARCA has any financial interest in the show.

CANDELMO also checked the [] story.

It will be recalled that this same informant furnished information that [] was to be assaulted and have his legs broken by representatives of RAYMOND PATRIARCA. (The reason is unknown).

The Boston Office disseminated information anonymously to the Metropolitan District Commission Police and told them that [] was to be held up.

BS 92-118

CANDELMINO stated that information he had received indicated that [] was to be held up, and the reason for so many police in the vicinity was because of this information, and it had nothing to do with the actual assault.

They suspected [] of Revere, Mass. as being the tipster of the assault, but CANDELMINO stated that [] did not even know the Metropolitan District Commission and State Police were "covering []" so, therefore, in CANDELMINO's opinion he was not the informant. They reached no conclusion as to who the informant might have been.

HENRY TAMELEO and an individual believed to be "RONNIE" CASSESSA discussed a "beef" against ROMEO MARTIN.

According to "RONNIE," they went down to Miami where they rented a house for $600. The other individual with him was arrested and "RONNIE" CASSESSA went to the Judge at his house the night before the case was to be tried in court and paid him off with the last thousand dollars in his possession. This Judge was the same Judge that he faced a year previous.

At that time [] was staying at the Deauville Hotel. When they made the score [] was not present and, therefore, it did not appear to "RONNIE" that they should split the profits of the robbery or burglary with []

"RONNIE" complained to PATRIARCA that after he gave "JOHNNY" (LNU) $4,000 at the Peppermint Lounge, [] asked "JOHNNY" (probably JOHN BIELE) to keep "RONNIE" out of the Peppermint Lounge as "he may be trouble."

FOTO told [] that up until that time "RONNIE" had not caused any trouble and that he (FOTO) would not keep him out of the Peppermint Lounge.

"RONNIE" complained that [] did not contribute to the rental of the apartment totalling $600, nor did he contribute to the thousand dollar payoff to the Judge, which he (RONNIE) paid, himself.

BS 92-118

Inasmuch as PATRIARCA had an appointment at the Doctor's he suggested that they return later in the afternoon. However, the informant stated they did not re-appear at PATRIARCA's place of business.

On 9/11/64 no pertinent activity took place.

On 9/14/64, informant advised that "DANNY" (probably RAIMONDI) was to receive a trunk full of clothes from an unknown individual which he was to sell to various individuals in Providence. Informant did not have any further details concerning this.

ADMINISTRATIVE:

This case has been afforded close, continuous investigative attention, and the Bureau has been advised of all pertinent developments during the course of this investigation.

Careful consideration has been given to all sources concealed and "T" symbols were utilized only in those instances wherein it was necessary to conceal the identity of the source.

Information in this report is dated prior to the referenced report, as it was received subsequent to the dictation of that report.

In reference to Boston airtel to the Bureau, dated June 24, 1964, the Atlanta Division, on July 7, 1964, furnished the following information:

Referral/Direct

On 6/25/64, the New York Office furnished the following information in reference to Boston to New York, dated 6/23/64, and Boston telephone call to New York, 6/24/64, which requested that New York be alert for the presence of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA in that area.

Spot checks of Park Sheraton Hotel, Edison Hotel, Patsy's Restaurant and Broadway between 47th and 57th Streets, on 6/24/64, by Special Agents of the New York Office were negative. Subject was not observed at all on 6/24/64 by New York Agents, and no information has been received to indicate that subject was in New York on 6/24/64.

Detective [redacted] New York City Police Department, advised he ascertained through members of the Central Intelligence Bureau, New York City Police Department, that on 6/18/64, [redacted] JERRY ANGIULO, and [redacted] (phonetic) were in New York, apparently

On 7/31/64, the Miami Division furnished the following information:

[] IRS, Miami, Florida, advised SA [] on 7/30/64, that his investigation thus far at Bank of Miami Beach, has failed to disclose any loans to persons of known hoodlum background. He said FDIC examiners are currently at the Bank of Miami Beach. [] said he will continue his investigation after examiners leave and would remain alert for any bank dealings with PATRIARCA, [] and their associates, and would notify this office of any pertinent findings.

[] FDIC, Miami, advised on 7/31/64, that so far no dealings have been noted at the Bank of Miami Beach with PATRIARCA, [] and their associates. He said he would attempt to ascertain the names of any banks in the Bahamas and Nova Scotia where [] carries on business. He said examination at the bank has been underway for only a week and would probably continue for an additional three weeks.

PCI [] on 8/18/64, advised that on this date LOUIS TAGLIANETTI of Providence, R.I., and [] Providence, R.I., were meeting with RAYMOND PATRIARCA at 168 Atwells Ave., Providence, R.I.. Informant was unable to ascertain the reason for this meeting.

Informant also advised that NICK BIANCO of Brooklyn, New York, has been in the Providence, Rhode Island area and has stopped to see PATRIARCA. Informant did not know the purpose of BIANCO'S visit with PATRIARCA, however, informant said that BIANCO'S parents reside in Providence, R.I.

Informant said he believes BIANCO is a runner for PATRIARCA between Providence, R.I. and Brooklyn, New York.

BS 92-118

Informant also mentioned that DANIEL RAIMONDI told him that [redacted] (phonetic), also known as [redacted] are supposed to knock off "WILLIE" MARFEO, a local Providence hoodlum. Informant is of the opinion that MARFEO has welched on a bet or that he is getting out of line, and for that reason he is a marked man.

b7C

Informant also said that [redacted] RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, Rhode Island, when DANIEL RAIMONDI and a [redacted] (phonetic) came in, and in front of PATRIARCA, [redacted] hit RAIMONDI in the mouth and used foul language; PATRIARCA had to break up the fight, and he took each one outside the store and talked to them. RAIMONDI said that PATRIARCA had told RAIMONDI to take the punch and swallow his pride. Informant felt that RAIMONDI or [redacted] will shoot each other because their reputations are at stake.

PCI [redacted] was contacted at the [redacted] Hotel, Boston, Massachusetts, and furnished the following information:

b7D

[redacted] said that he is quite familiar with the operations of Hub Electric Manufacturing Company, knows the [redacted] very well, and also knows [redacted] Certified Pharmacal Corp., [redacted] He noted the Hub Electric Manufacturing Company is an operating division of Certified Pharmacal Corp. as it was acquired by Certified Pharmacal Corp. on July 1, 1963.

BS 92-118

[redacted] said that seven or eight years ago [redacted] a Providence accountant, and SAUL FRIEDMAN, PATRIARCA's attorney, bought Hub Electric Manufacturing Company and each of those three invested one-third in the company. [redacted] thought that the total acquisition price was about $225,000.00. At the time of acquisition, an agreement was entered into wherein [redacted] would be President and receive a salary of $20,000 a year and [redacted] who would handle the accounting for the company, would be paid $2,000.00 and FRIEDMAN would receive the same amount and he would act as the company's attorney.

He said that [redacted] became familiar with the operations of Hub Electric Manufacturing Company as he was [redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted] said that as of July 1, 1963, Hub was acquired by Certified Pharmacal Corp. and a total of 60,000 shares of Certified Pharmacal Corp. stock were issued to [redacted] and FRIEDMAN for all the assets of Hub. [redacted] said that of the 60,000 shares, 2,500 shares ended up with a broker that handled the transaction and the remaining 57,500 shares were split three ways among [redacted] and FRIEDMAN. He said that this stock of Certified Pharmacal Corp. is unregistered stock and cannot be negotiated or sold until July, 1965; further, that the total acquisition cost was about $300,000 or 60,000 shares at $5.00 per share. He said this has been a very profitable venture for [redacted] and FRIEDMAN as Certified Pharmacal Corp. stock is now $10.00 a share and has been as high as $15.00 or $16.00 a share.

BS 92-118

[redacted] said he knows [redacted] of Certified Pharmacal Corp. very well and knows that [redacted] has a criminal conviction behind him. [redacted] was subject of a Boston TGP case - 52-1785.) He said [redacted] is very careful in his dealings and has told [redacted] that he would like to be the first ex-con ever to head a company that would be listed on the big board in New York City. He said [redacted] knows that the Securities and Exchange Commission will really look into his background when Certified Pharmacal Corp. attempts to be registered on the big board and for that reason, he is very circumspect in all his dealings.

[redacted] said that [redacted] who is [redacted] [redacted] has remarked to him as to where FRIEDMAN and [redacted] obtained the funds with which to make their original investment in Hub Electric Manufacturing Company and [redacted] believed that PATRIARCA backed them in this venture.

[redacted]
[redacted] Boston. He said FUCILLO sees PATRIARCA occasionally, usually on a Wednesday, in Providence and on a number of occasions TEDDY has asked him about Hub Electric Manufacturing Company, and particularly what profit the company is making and how [redacted] is running Certified Pharmacal Corp. He said because of these inquiries by FUCILLO, he believes that PATRIARCA definitely has an interest in this company, probably through FRIEDMAN.

[redacted] said also that through SAUL FRIEDMAN, he, concerned. [] said this is another indication that RAYMOND has had a falling out with FRIEDMAN. He said one of the reasons for this falling out is the fact that FRIEDMAN is not cutting RAYMOND in on some of his more profitable enterprises, one of which is the Music Theater in Arizona and another profitable venture is an oil well being operated by a group of men in Marion, Ohio. He said FRIEDMAN, along with this group in Marion, Ohio, which includes a Providence man by the name of [] the Rumford Iron or Rumford Steel Company, has apparently brought in an oil well and it has become a very profitable venture and, according to TEDDY FUCCILLO, RAYMOND is mad because he didn't get in on this deal through FRIEDMAN.

[] said also that FRIEDMAN mentioned to him once that he only puts RAYMOND in on the sure things and does not bring him in on the speculative deals.

[] said further that FUCCILLO continues to meet occasionally at [] FRANK CUCCHIARA, SAM GRANITO and occasionally JERRY ANGIULO will drop by. He said also that in talking to FUCCILLO recently, FUCCILLO told him that sometime in the future when RAYMOND is gone one of the next big bosses for New England could well be one [] (LNU) or possibly [] (LNU). He said he gathered from what FUCCILLO said that this was sometime in the not immediate future.

[] said he would attempt to find out the company name under which this oil venture is being operated in Marion, Ohio. After this has been obtained, a lead will be directed to the Cleveland Office for investigation concerning this particular group.

[] said also that FUCCILLO has asked [] a few occasions to [] RAYMOND in Providence and he said that he would take FUCCILLO up on his offer and if he can work it out, [] FUCCILLO to RAYMOND's office on FUCCILLO's next visit there.

The PCI case on [redacted] is being reopened as it is believed that [redacted] can be a productive source insofar as PATRIARCA is concerned. b6 b7C b7D

Also leads to contact [redacted] [redacted] are not being covered at this time as it is believed that any interest FRIEDMAN and/or PATRIARCA have in Hub Electric Manufacturing Company and its holding company, Certified Pharmacal Corp., can best be handled through [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

The following investigation was conducted in an effort to determine the manner in which [redacted] a New York lawyer, arranged a $20,000.00 loan [redacted] to be used toward the purchase of the [redacted] Berkshire Downs, in the western part of Massachusetts.

On August 27, 1964, PCI [redacted] advised SA [redacted] that he first met [redacted] a New York attorney, about six years ago at Miami Beach. [redacted] tried to interest him at the time in investing in [redacted] Over the years, [redacted] has also advised him to buy certain over the counter stocks, but none of these investments have ever materialized into anything worthwhile. He believes that [redacted] has some connection with [redacted]

He understands that [redacted] is having trouble with the New York Bar Association, but he does not know the nature of this trouble. He does not know too many of [redacted] associates, and does not know if he is anyway connected with PATRIARCA.

At about 1:50 p.m., a late model Grand Prix, color black or dark blue, Rhode Island registration 9929 registered to RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, was observed on Route 146 at the Millbury-Worcester line, proceeding toward Worcester. The car was occupied by the driver, who was hatless (further description not obtainable) and RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA.

The car proceeded to Worcester via Millbury Street; Providence Street; right, on Dorchester Street, and left, on Houghton Street, where the rear brake light was observed indicating a possible right turn on Palm Street, or that the car was stopping on Houghton Street, about six houses up on the right from Dorchester Street.

Shortly afterwards, the following cars were observed on Shrewsbury Street:

Late model Cadillac, New York registration 3V885, parked near the Boulevard Diner, about 50 yards from the East Side Package Store, operated by [redacted] Car unoccupied.

Ford or Falcon Wagon, Rhode Island registration 49532, parked near the East Side Package Store. Unoccupied.

Late Model Cadillac Sedan, Massachusetts registration 551-887, parked at curb outside the East Side Package Store. Unoccupied.

Late model Cadillac, Convertible, Massachusetts registration E6561, parked outside the East Side Package Store. Unoccupied.

[redacted] Boulevard, Warwick, Rhode Island, was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent; that he did not have to make any statement; that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law and that he had the right to talk to an attorney before making any statement.

He said that he has been in the [redacted] business all of his life and that he has a very profitable business with his partner, [redacted]. He said his life's work is centered around this [redacted] business and that he has no interest or desire to operate a race track.

He said he has been socially acquainted with [redacted] Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, Rhode Island for many years; that their wives have been very close and it was through [redacted] that he and his partner, [redacted] became interested in the Hancock Raceway in the Western part of Massachusetts.

He said that a group of individuals from the Pittsfield area had started a race track about three years ago; that the track was not running; that they wanted to obtain the services of a man that had experience in the operation of a race track. At this time, this group contacted [redacted] and wanted to know if he would invest some money into this track; that he would operate same and was guaranteed to hold all of the stock in trust for a period of ten years, which would give him the control needed to operate the track without interference from outside people who had stock in the track.

Also, at that time, the group from Pittsfield, Massachusetts were without funds and had made numerous promises to [redacted] about raising money for the track, which promises they did not fulfill as they did not put up the money that they stated they could raise.

[redacted] being friendly with [redacted] approached [redacted] and told him that he [redacted] the Hancock Race Track; that it was in the organizational stage and he wanted [redacted] to invest money into this track as it appeared that he could put this track on a paying basis like his operation at Lincoln Downs Race Track at Lincoln, Rhode Island.

[redacted] said he talked to his partner, [redacted] told him of the proposition presented by [redacted] and they both agreed to put money into this race track with [redacted]. This was considered a side venture in the hopes of making money.

He said that the stands were not built at that time; that his company erected the grandstand section and did other small work at the track, which [redacted] received payment as this was done by [redacted].

He said he also obtained the services of other contractors, such as electrical work, which was done by Coken Electric Company of Providence, Rhode Island, which is a large electrical contractor and who is well known to [redacted].

He said he has never taken an active part in the operation of this race track as he is too busy in his own line of work. He said he attended about two or three Board of Directors meetings, which were not of much importance and that [redacted] has always been the person actively engaged in this operation and who is supposed to look out for his interest and the interest of [redacted].

He said that later he heard that SAUL FRIEDMAN, an attorney in Providence, Rhode Island, had invested money into this track, however, he never asked [redacted] about this as the track always needed additional capital and he left all decisions up to [redacted] as he was operating the track for all of the stockholders.

3.

In regard to the investment of FRANK SINATRA and DEAN MARTIN, Hollywood celebrities, [] stated he has no idea how they got into the organization of the track; that he never asked [] about it and the next thing he knew they were no longer stockholders of the track. He said he never met SINATRA or MARTIN and would not have any idea if they ever came to the track and he had no idea how much money they invested in the track.

He said that sometime later, SALVATORE RIZZO of Scarsdale, New York, and a person known to [] wanted to buy the track, the amount not recalled by []. At that time, [] had enough of this track and told [] to sell the track as he wanted to get his money out of it as he did not feel that this was a good investment and that [] also wanted to get his money out of this venture.

When SALVATORE RIZZO bought the track, the track was indebted to Sports Service of New York in the amount of approximately $150,000.00. Sports Service would not allow RIZZO to assume the note of $150,000.00 and held [] to the note and which they could not assign to RIZZO.

RIZZO then became the owner of the track and [] was the [] in that RIZZO had not come up with the necessary cash to actually purchase the track and for that reason [] was left at the track to protect the interests of the stockholders.

When RIZZO did not make any payments to Sports Service of New York on the $150,000.00 note, Sports Service then attached the personal property of [] along with all the assets of their company, []

[] said that they were attached because they were the only persons that had money and also because their signatures appeared on this note.

h.

[] said that the track was receiving bad publicity that there was a trial in the western part of Massachusetts wherein [] of former Massachusetts Governor [] had accused a man named [] of stealing his stock and that there were charges and counter-charges which did not help the track in its operations and in trying to get started. For the above reasons, the capital originally invested was being depleted and the track was finally sold through the courts around December 23, 1963. He said that a person named [] bought the track, through the courts, however, he does not know [] and has never met this person. He said that even though [] bought this track, [] was dealing with SALVATORE RIZZO and he always felt that RIZZO had bought the track, however, he said he is not certain of this fact.

He said that whoever bought the track had not come up with the money agreed to with the court and for that reason he, his partner, [] have stepped in and taken over ownership of the track until the agreed price of the track is paid to them.

He said that, to the best of his knowledge, he has a one-third interest in the track with [] and that no one else has any interest or control in this track at this time.

He said he is trying to get out of this track; that he expects to lose about $50,000.00 in this venture and that when someone comes up with the purchase price of the track, he has told [] to sell it.

He said he has never met RAYMOND PATRIARCA; that he does not know this person and has never seen him at this track when he [] was there.

He also said he has never attended any meeting when SAUL FRIEDMAN was present and he has never seen FRIEDMAN at this track.

He said he would not know the names of any of the stockholders as [] had those names and had the stock in trust for those people and that [] would have to furnish that type of information.

BS 92-118

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted]

On August 26, 1964 Trooper [redacted] Rehoboth, Massachusetts Barracks, Massachusetts State Police, advised that a few months ago he interviewed FRANK CAMUSO, 230 Healey Street, Fall River, Massachusetts, in connection with some non-specific allegations regarding crime in Fall River and the inefficiency of that city's police department. No investigation was conducted, to his knowledge, because of the complete vagueness of the allegations. Sometime subsequent to this interview CAMUSO contacted [redacted] and alleged that two unidentified men had approached him and told him he was "talking too much". No specific threats were made and CAMUSO had no knowledge of who might have sent these individuals or whose interest they represented and further CAMUSO had no means of identifying these individuals. The belief that they might have been sent by RAYMOND PATRIARCA was merely an unfounded conclusion on CAMUSO's part. [redacted] never heard anything further concerning this matter and CAMUSO has made no further effort to contact him.

On July 27, 1964 Lts. [redacted] Fall River, Massachusetts Police Department, advised that FRANK CAMUSO of 230 Healey Street was well known to this agency as a completely unreliable and unstable individual whose adult criminal record goes back to 1925 and continued to his last arrest for bribery on August 3, 1962. Convictions consist of breaking and entering, larceny, receiving stolen property, accosting females, procuring to burn auto and numerous conspiracy and accessory before the fact charges. Particularly at the time of his bribery arrest in 1962, CAMUSO openly vowed to "get" the Fall River Police Department and since then CAMUSO has brought all types of unfounded complaints in this connection to the attention of the Massachusetts State Police, the District Attorney and anyone else who would listen to him.

Both officers stated it was their honest opinion that any claim by CAMUSO that he was threatened was made out of "whole cloth" in order to get further sympathy for his cause. Even if it were true that CAMUSO was threatened, he has made so many enemies and is involved in so many petty illegal activities that literally anyone in Fall River could have made the threat. Both officers consider it extremely unlikely that RAYMOND PATRIARCA would be responsible for threatening CAMUSO since they are convinced that CAMUSO is not "big" enough to even come to PATRIARCA's attention.

The following description of CAMUSO appears in the files of the Fall River Police Department:

Name: FRANK CAMUSO
Race: White
Sex: Male
Nationality: United States
Born: 7/1/08, Fall River, Mass.
Height: 5'6"
Build: Stocky
Eyes: Brown
Hair: Brown
Complexion: Medium
Parents: MICHAEL and MARY CAMUSO
Wife:
Occupation: Gas station attendant
Residence: 230 Healey St., Fall River, Mass.

On September 1, 1964 the Indianapolis Office furnished the following information:

On August 14, 1964 Indiana State Fair Board, Indianapolis, Indiana, advised that the names and RAYMOND PATRIARCA were unknown to her but that possibly they would have concessions at the State Fair in which case they would lease their space from the Gooding Amusement Company of Columbus, Ohio. She said that the Fair would begin August 29, 1964.

BS 92-118

On August 31, 1964 [] Manager, Gooding Amusement Company, Columbus, Ohio, was contacted at the Indiana State Fair in Indianapolis, Indiana by SA [] said that [] of Roxbury, Massachusetts had six stands in operation at the Indiana State Fair. They were described as follows:

A 24 punk rack described as a game in which cats are knocked off their bases with balls.

Two string games in which strings are pulled for a prize.

A pop man in which a ball is thrown at a man and when the target is hit the man falls into the water.

A cork gallery.

One over and under game in which balls are rolled into holes and the prize depends upon the score.

[] said that none of the games operated by [] were gambling type games or games in which money was given for prizes inasmuch as the Gooding Amusement Company does not allow this type of operation when they lease the concessions. He said [] was paying $30 a foot for his concessions and he was accompanied by one [] who allegedly is also from the same area in Massachusetts. [] is the national dealer for a ride known as the Himalya.

On September 1, 1964 [] telephonically advised that he had just learned that [] was leaving to run concessions at a fair at Topsfield, Massachusetts which was to begin September 2, 1964.

Buairtel to Boston 9/22/64.

Information obtained from BS 837-C* in referenced airtel dated 8/27/64 sets forth a contact between JOHN CANDELMO, [redacted] and RAYMOND PATRIARCA on 8/25/64, wherein [redacted] explained why he had not repaid $5000.00 owed to PATRIARCA and GAVE PATRIARCA $1000.00 which he said did not have to be considered as any payment toward the $5000.00 owed. Informant reported the meeting was very friendly.

Information obtained from BS 837-C* and set forth in referenced airtel dated 9/15/64 indicates no plans to use threat, violence, or intimidation to collect any money from [redacted] in Columbia, S. C., but to have CANDELMO, [redacted] on the scene to get necessary funds from [redacted] at completion of fair.

In view of the foregoing and the sensitive nature of informant's position as well as his extreme value, it is not felt that investigation should be conducted to attempt to develop an ITAR-Extortion violation with ReBuairtel dated 9/22/64.

For the Bureau's information, Indianapolis is not presently conducting any investigation concerning the World of Mirth Shows. On 8/31/64, inquiry was made of the Gooding Amusement Company of Columbus, Ohio, which was in charge of the leasing of midway space at the Indiana State Fair. This was prompted by [redacted] statements in the presence of BS 837-C* that he was moving the "stock" to Indianapolis and planned to open in Indianapolis.

Inquiry of the Gooding Amusement Company on 8/31/64, reflected that [redacted] of Revere, Massachusetts, had six stands in operation at the Indiana State Fair, none of which were gambling games. [redacted] left Indianapolis on 9/1/64, to run concessions at a fair at Topsfield, Massachusetts, which was to open 9/2/64.

PATRIARCA was unknown to [redacted] Gooding Amusement Company, when the show was in Indianapolis.

No further investigation being conducted since no indication [redacted] or PATRIARCA had other than a temporary interest in Indiana during the Indiana State Fair which closed 9/10/64.

Luchese is "commission" member of La Cosa Nostra. Eboli represents Vito Genovese, a "commission" member presently incarcerated. Raymond Patriarca is believed to be "commission" member from New England area. These meetings probably relate to current dispute between the "commission" and Joe Bonanno, "commission" member who has refused to subject himself and his "family" to the discipline of the "commission." Discussions are currently being held to determine what action should be taken concerning Bonanno. These discussions may result in the execution of Bonanno and gangland war between Bonanno "family" and other "families" in the New York - New Jersey area.

BS 837-C* advised on 9/24/64 that RAYMOND PATRIARCA was contacted by ALFREDO ROSSI. ROSSI told PATRIARCA about some trouble that he was having with an UNMAN. PATRIARCA advised that he would grab the individual and put him in his place.

Informant advised that GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA on 9/24/64.

They told PATRIARCA that there was a story around about [] (LNU) who was propositioned by RONALD CASSESSA to run a crap game.

ANGIULO said that he subsequently learned that it was a card game that was involved.

BS 92-118

PATRIARCA indicated that this was probably another story started by [redacted] to cause trouble for CASSESSA, and he did not approve. PATRIARCA said that just because CASSESSA got away from [redacted], for whom he did a lot, [redacted] was now trying to knock him all the time and he thought that CASSESSA was a pretty good kid.

ANGIULO mentioned that [redacted] had told him that Governor's Counsellor PATRICK "SONNY" MC DONOUGH was trying to raise some campaign money for [redacted] candidate for Governor in Massachusetts. PATRIARCA thought that this might be a scheme for someone to make some money and he said that no campaign money would be given to [redacted] unless it was given to him in person.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that some young kid came to him because he was having a problem with MIKE ROCCO and [redacted]. The young kid had owned a cafe and signed some kind of a contract for $5,000 with PAPPAS Liquor Co. The business was sold to one [redacted] from Rhode Island. Thereafter, MIKE ROCCO and [redacted] came to this kid looking to collect [redacted] $5,000.

PATRIARCA said that he did not know why ROCCO would do any favors collecting money for [redacted] would never do anything for him.

LIMONE told PATRIARCA that a kid called [redacted] (PH) was up to LIMONE's club. [redacted] had previously told LIMONE that he had done a score with [redacted] but on this visit he told LIMONE that he had not done a score with [redacted] but was trying to get in touch with [redacted]. He said that he had been up to Somerville on the hill and someone connected with [redacted] told him to get off the Hill and stay off.

LIMONE told PATRIARCA that [redacted] told him that [redacted] had "whacked out the DERMODY kid" and that [redacted] had pulled DERMODY over the side of the road in Watertown (Mass.) and shot him.

LIMONE told PATRIARCA that he told [redacted] that these guys had good reason to "whack out" DERMODY inasmuch as he had shot a kid by the name of ROBINSON, a friend of [redacted] in Somerville.

ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that [redacted] and six or seven other Irishmen hang around a bar in Somerville, all armed with the weapons in full view and the law never bothers them.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO in a discussion that heard TOMMY BROWN own 40% of the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

ANGIULO was highly critical of PINKY PANARELLI from Worcester, Mass. and complained that he loaned PANARELLI $4,500 and PANARELLI now intimates that ANGIULO told him to forget the repayment as it was a Christmas present.

PATRIARCA said that he would iron this matter out with SAM CUFARI.

ANGIULO was critical to PATRIARCA of the testimony of JOE LOMBARDI and JOE BURNS in connection with PATRIARCA's suit against the Herald-Traveler Corp. He said that the lawyer asked them if they were going to take the 5th Amendment to every question after they had invoked it to a few questions. They responded that they were going to invoke the 5th Amendment.

He said that this was incorrect and when the question was asked about whether they were going to invoke the 5th Amendment they should have responded by saying that they refused to answer and again invoke the 5th Amendment.

PATRIARCA made the comment that his mother's sister had died in Worcester and he was going to go up to the wake Friday.

ANGIULO and PATRIARCA again discussed the coming campaign for Governor and ANGIULO made the comment that [redacted] as opposed to VOLPE would be the lesser of two evils.

BS 92-118

In a discussion of the Indian Meadow Golf Course and Country Club, ANGIULO told PATRIARCA that he sent Attorney [redacted] to Westboro, Mass. to help [redacted] before the counsel in getting a change of setup for the club.

On 9/25/64, BS 837-C* advised that PATRIARCA was contacted by SAMUEL GRANITO.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that [redacted] is acting up and has not been paying lately. He said that [redacted] has for a partner one [redacted]. He made the comment that [redacted] is operating out of a grocery store on [redacted] Ave near [redacted], Boston, with one [redacted] and that he is going to grab them.

Informant got the impression that they were not paying money that was supposed to be paid.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that he [redacted] and [redacted] took care of PAUL COLICCI and VINCENT BISEISI. He said that the two kids, referring to [redacted] did a good job and would have done well even if he had not been there.

GRANITO made the comment that the police had questioned him as to his whereabouts on 7/19/64. He said that they were unable to "bury them" so they went toward the Cape and got rid of the car.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that he has a good silencer for his gun for which "he paid three fifty" and he has some new pistols. They are very light and hold five shells.

PATRIARCA told GRANITO that he was giving him $150 to give to each one of the kids and tell them it was a gift from him.

In connection with the pistols, he told PATRIARCA that [redacted] got them for him in Arizona. He said he also got a .22 automatic.

BS 92-118

GRANITO mentioned to PATRIARCA a "beef" between RONNIE CASSESSA and [REDACTED]

PATRIARCA made the comment that [REDACTED] was using RONNIE for a sucker and he did not blame CASSESSA for getting away from [REDACTED]

PATRIARCA made the additional comment that JOE LOMBARDI is in charge of everybody there and that JERRY ANGIULO better hold [REDACTED] under the gun and keep him under the gun.

In passing, GRANITO made the comment that Det. [REDACTED] who was up at the Coliseum Restaurant from time to time, is a "dirty no good (obscenities).

GRANITO said that one [REDACTED] had been to see him on a number of occasions and he has since learned that [REDACTED] had nothing to do with the recent killings in Boston. He said that [REDACTED] had been to see him to square away some "beef" with GENNARO J. ANGIULO, and that [REDACTED] had figured in some bank scores years ago. He said that "WIMPY" BENNETT had told him that this kid [REDACTED] was not involved in any of the recent killings.

GRANITO mentioned EDWARD MC LAUGHLIN and said that MC LAUGHLIN had obtained $3,400 from some score which "WIMPY" BENNETT had set up.

GRANITO went to BENNETT and told him not to collect the other $1,800 that was due from the score, and BENNETT did not like it.

GRANITO said that LIMONE had made the comment that he was getting information from TEDDY DEEGAN, an associate of [REDACTED] and PATRIARCA said that he (GRANITO) should be getting the information from these Irishmen as they could not fool him and would have more respect for him.

GRANITO told PATRIARCA that "WIMPY" BENNETT has a couple of bad kids hanging with him who have no brains, and he mentioned the name [REDACTED] (It is believed this referred to [REDACTED])

GRANITO discussed with PATRIARCA the possibility of contributing to the campaign funds of [redacted] and PATRIARCA said no money should be given unless it was given directly to [redacted]

GRANITO made the comment that all of the cops who are on details at the Coliseum Restaurant are getting paid off. He made the comment that [redacted] from Division 1 told him that the Police Commissioner does not care if all of these hoods kill themselves off. He said that the police detail that is assigned to the Coliseum is up there to see who goes in and out and to take license plate-numbers from cars, and they are not there to stop the after-hours drinking.

GRANITO said that [redacted] from the Stork Club sends his best regards to PATRIARCA, and he told PATRIARCA that he and [redacted] get along very well. [redacted] at one time, had asked him to tell [redacted] to stay out of the Stork Club as he was causing trouble.

PATRIARCA was contacted on 9/25/64 by TEDDY FUCILLO. FUCILLO told PATRIARCA that [redacted] formerly of the [redacted] was collecting a lot of money for the campaign fund of [redacted] candidate for Governor of Massachusetts. PATRIARCA again said that if any campaign funds were contributed to [redacted] they should make sure that it was done in person with [redacted] so that it would not be a case of someone swindling them out of the money.

It is pointed out that the informant provided no information indicating that [redacted] had approached any of PATRIARCA's associates or underlings for any campaign contributions and it appeared that this was something being initiated by them.

Informant reported that PATRIARCA contacted his wife and made plans to go up to his aunt's wake in Worcester later that day.

PATRIARCA pointed out that in connection with his suit against the Herald-Traveler Corp. he has a real bombshell in that he was in jail at the time it is alleged that he met JOSEPH VALACHI.

ES 92-118

BS 837-C* advised on 9/29/64 that PATRIARCA was contacted by [redacted]. In the course of the conversation, [redacted] told PATRIARCA that he was going to buy a nice piece of property, renovate it, fill it with tires and junk, insure it with the Maryland Casualty Company of Pittsburgh, and burn the building for insurance.

On 9/29/64, PATRIARCA was contacted by HENRY TAMELEO and one [redacted] according to the informant, was in a position to obtain $250,000 worth of stolen bonds from someone who had gone to Europe and the theft would not be known for a couple of months.

--Informant thought there would be two types of bonds involved - one might have the words "Suburban Water" in the title, and the other could be a school bond.

TAMELEO said he would make some inquiries and, by Monday, would let the individual know if he could handle them.

TAMELEO said they could probably be sold in New York for about 25% of their value and in Boston for about 15% of their value.

It is felt that the informant will be in a position to obtain more specific information in this matter in the near future.

PATRIARCA made a comment that he read where the FBI got the kid that ROMEO had hidden out. (This pertains to [redacted] Escaped Federal Prisoner, who was apprehended in the early morning hours of 9/29/64, and ROMEO MARTIN, who was supposed to be hiding [redacted] is subject of case entitled, "[redacted] BFP-ASSAULT ON A FEDERAL OFFICER, Bosfile 76-1307.)

PATRIARCA said that ROMEO MARTIN had talked to PETER LIMONE about hiding [redacted] out, and RAYMOND said that he had given the "OK" for ROMEO MARTIN to do this since [redacted] was a friend of ROMEO's.

PATRIARCA said that as a result of hiding out [redacted] ROMEO brought a lot of "heat" on himself, and the club where they hang out at 433 Hanover Street, Boston, was raided.

Informant advised on 9/28/64 that PATRIARCA said that on Friday, 9/25/64, he went to his aunt's wake in Worcester, Mass. and was in Providence on Saturday, 9/26/64.

On 10/2/64, BS 837-C* advised that UNMAN, probably from Milford, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA. UNMAN has a small crap game apparently in the vicinity of Milford, Mass., and also takes action on football games and numbers. He has been held up on one occasion, and the police have knocked him over on another, leaving the impression that some competitor was trying to knock him out of business. He laid off the numbers to [redacted] in Worcester, Mass.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/15/64 that GENNARO J. ANGIULO contacted PATRIARCA. ANGIULO discussed his IRS investigation and stated that he would go to the Supreme Court if necessary to win the case. He made mention of the fact that he could get help in connection with this case, he thought, through [redacted] Rockingham Race Track, Rockingham, New Hampshire. He stated that Senator [redacted] of Rhode Island would be of no help to him in this connection.

ANGIULO stated that he has approximately $80,000.00 invested in a manufacturing plant, location not known to the informant. This plant straightens and re-chromes used automobile bumpers. In order to obtain show money for this venture, he, on paper, borrowed $71,000.00 from a finance company, identity unknown to informant. PATRIARCA contacted a few unknown individuals in an attempt to get ANGIULO business in the Rhode Island area.

In connection with the Indian Meadow Country Club, Westboro, Massachusetts, JERRY stated he is losing approximately $1,200 per week. [redacted] of Worcester, Massachusetts, [redacted] this club, apparently pays little, if any, attention to the restaurant part of this business. ANGIULO was very critical of [redacted] in [redacted] this establishment. ANGIULO is considering placing his [redacted] in charge of the golf course and dispensing with the services of [redacted]

ANGIULO stated he is having a problem with [redacted] Coliseum Restaurant, he borrowed $3,000.00, which he was to use for the original investment in the opening of the club. Recently, ANGIULO was told by [redacted] that he desired to sell his interest in this club for $13,000.00. ANGIULO contacted SAM GRANTO, who also owns one-third interest. The other one-third interest is owned by NICK GISO. ANGIULO ascertained that [redacted] did not use the $3,000.00 for the original investment in the club. In addition, he has borrowed several thousand dollars from JOE MODICO and WIMPY BENNETT at 2% a week. [redacted] has been repaying the loans to MODICO and BENNETT and has failed to pay any money to ANGIULO. Because of this, ANGIULO asked for and received permission from PATRIARCA to take [redacted] interest in the Coliseum (an after-hours joint) from [redacted] claims that he has spent all of his money on hospital and doctors' bills because of his illness. JERRY ANGIULO also pointed out that TEDDY PUCCILLO is interested in purchasing [redacted] interest. ANGIULO stated that [redacted] is "into MODICO" for so much money that he will never be able to repay same.

JERRY stated that MODICO was with [redacted] at Giro's Restaurant recently. When he entered the restaurant, he observed MODICO and [redacted] in a "close" conversation with JOSEPH LOMBARDO. ANGIULO was attempting to ascertain what was being discussed but was unable to do so.

ANGIULO discussed [redacted] and guns in which the firing pin had been taken out. PETER LIMONE stated that he took two of these guns from a kid to test them and found that they were inoperable. There was a lengthy discussion as to who might be responsible for same and they were of the opinion that either the Postal Inspectors observed them in the mails or that [redacted] was some way involved, possibly as an informant.

PETER LIMONE stated that [redacted] is an individual whom they can't control. [redacted] came to his club recently and LIMONE asked him to leave because of the heat that was on [redacted] at the time. [redacted] denied any heat being on him from the police, but LIMONE insisted that he leave his, LIMONE's, club. [redacted] advised LIMONE that he was asked to kidnap [redacted] principal suspect in MAILROB. However, he was afraid to kidnap [redacted] because he thought he was being set up.

[redacted] also inquired about EDWARD DEEGAN, close associate of [redacted] who was recently murdered. LIMONE told [redacted] that DEEGAN does not come to the club. Immediately after [redacted] left, he called DEEGAN and told him that [redacted] was looking for him, allegedly for a $300.00 loan which DEEGAN owes [redacted]. DEEGAN denied any such loan. Therefore, they were of the opinion that [redacted] was out to kill DEEGAN.

ANGIULO indicated that they had attempted to give money to [redacted] of Massachusetts. However, [redacted] indicated that he knew where the money was coming from and did not want any part of it. ANGIULO is attempting to furnish the money to [redacted] without his knowledge through [redacted] and Judge [redacted] of the Dorchester District Court. There was also mention of SONNY McDONOUGH of the Governor's Council bringing the money to [redacted].

In connection with his IRS case, ANGIULO stated that [redacted] (possibly [redacted] of IRS) was "backing away". He explained that SAM CUFARI had told him that [redacted] would not do the favor even though $10,000.00 was offered, inasmuch as it was too hot.

On 10/16/64 UNMAN and PATRIARCA discussed the attempted bombing of the car of his local book-maker named [redacted]. UNMAN was attempting to ascertain from PATRIARCA who was responsible for the dynamite being placed in the car. After several possibilities, PATRIARCA stated that he knew nothing concerning this but suggested that it was possibly the FBI, pointing out that [redacted] was a witness to some crime unknown to the informant. In order to scare him, the FBI placed the stick of dynamite in the car and did not attach same, knowing that he would not be injured. The pressure then would be on [redacted] to talk to the FBI because of the fear for his life. UNMAN agreed that this was a definite possibility and went so far as to say possibly it was not a stick of dynamite but a stick containing foreign matter but did look like dynamite.

PATRIARCA recently received a subpoena to make his records of the National Cigarette Vending Machine business available in the LOUIS TAGLIANETTI IRS case.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/19/64 that UNMAN explained to RAYMOND that he (UNMAN) was trying to line up some man for a hit and the difficulties which have arisen concerning this. (This possibly deals with the attempted killing of WILLIE MARFEO, Providence, R. I., which information has previously been disseminated. PATRIARCA has been subpoenaed to testify in this case inasmuch as TAGLIANETTI claims that he received a salary from the National Cigarette Vending Machine Co. which is owned by PATRIARCA.

USA [redacted] Providence, R. I., is attempting to force TAGLIANETTI to plead guilty to an income tax violation.

PATRIARCA was extremely angry in that all his witnesses in the libel case between the Boston Herald Traveler and PATRIARCA were held in contempt for taking the 5th Amendment. They were also ordered to pay all lawyers fees in connection with this hearing. In the event he is questioned about the Mafia or La Cosa Nostra he is going to reply that the only Mafia he ever heard of is the Irish Mafia that the KENNEDYS are in charge of. PATRIARCA will deny knowing of Cosa Nostra until VALACHI mentioned it at recent hearings.

TAGLIANETTI is considering feigning a heart attack in order to postpone his tax case.

On 10/20/64, JOE MODICA advised that [redacted] (LNU) is in bad shape financially. JOE inquired of [redacted] (apparently in connection with the Berkshire Downs Race Track). [redacted] appeared before the Crime Commission sometime ago. JOE then discussed the racing dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track and both he and PATRIARCA were very disturbed that [redacted] Green Mountain, might ask for the same racing dates as Berkshire Downs. PATRIARCA stated that the track lost $185,000 this year.

MODICA was concerned that PATRIARCA might be of the opinion that he (MODICA) was trying to "horn in" on the Hancock Race Track. He explained how SAM RIZZO borrowed the $5,000 to assist him in purchasing the Hancock Raceway at auction. He stated that RIZZO is not off the hook for the $5,000 and that he is still trying to obtain same.

PATRIARCA told MODICA that the word had come down that no one was to do any business with any of BONANNO's group because of the fact that he (BONANNO) failed to show up at a commission hearing when ordered to do so.

BS 92-118

NICK BIANCO, Brooklyn, N. Y., told RAYMOND that concerning "that thing" in Jersey he left Tuesday and did not expect to return until Thursday. He met [redacted] and [redacted] and NICK looked around "for that guy." NICK was of the opinion that he was going to live with them (probably meaning [redacted] and his group) for a few days. He [redacted] showed us where the guy lived and told [redacted] to go back to Brooklyn and wait for his call.

PATRIARCA mentioned that [redacted] helped a lot of the individuals in New Jersey.

NICK stated that [redacted] called him yesterday and said that he was talking to [redacted] (LNU). He told [redacted] that he was "pretty successful" and told him [redacted] "what had to be told." [redacted] said that it was a telephone conversation and he was not able to fully comprehend the message but was of the opinion that everything was going along satisfactorily. [redacted] told him to wait for a call from him.

PATRIARCA mentioned that [redacted] was in Jersey and he (possibly referring to the victim) "hides in the joints."

NICK left and returned later the same day and continued the conversation relative to the Jersey thing. He stated that he was with [redacted]

[redacted] for four or five hours. NICK explained to COCO who the guy was and they searched all the joints.

He told RAYMOND the guy had a light blue car, registration OL 591. He then added that the 591 was possibly a combination of the numbers 591 and further added that the initials of the guy were backwards, and then added, "RC."

(victim)
NICK stated that he hung around with [redacted] kid whom PATRIARCA described as a redhead or blond kid. [redacted] is a couple of years older than NICK, but the informant had no further description of either the victim or those associated with him.

BS 92-118

PATRIARCA mentioned that the kids were on the junk but the informant was not sure whether he was referring to [redacted] that hangs around with him.

NICK was thinking of approaching the [redacted] but was afraid of scaring him.

NICK further advised of a situation that occurred a short time ago. It appeared that the Feds left and the cops came in - "right into the house." They told [redacted] that "if you run, we'll put you in for a material witness" and demanded a $200 payoff, which [redacted] gave them. They ordered [redacted] to stay in the house. A short time thereafter [redacted] (LNU), who is very close to [redacted] came walking down the street. He apparently was confronted by the police with shotguns and, after being observed by [redacted] the cops were convinced that he was "OK."

NICK stated that those guys have 20 guys who "write for them" and they (meaning the police and Feds) have very good information. They figured out that the information is coming from somebody who is very close to [redacted] (LNU).

They keep knocking the [redacted] thing.

RAY stated that [redacted] whom he described as the guy with [redacted] called him a few weeks ago and said that [redacted] wanted to see PATRIARCA on Thursday, but PATRIARCA was unable to make the trip. He told [redacted] to call [redacted] Friday if [redacted] wanted to see him on Friday or thereafter. He has not received a call from JOEY since that time.

NICK stated that he met [redacted] JOE on the street the other day and JOE told them that BONANNO's group was pulling away from him (BONANNO).

He stated that [redacted] (PH), who is with BONANNO, "turned in the other thing" with 63 or 65 guys and they expect more.

[redacted] the one in jail, was described as the muscle man for [redacted] (PH). It appeared to the informant that [redacted] is the top guy of the BONANNO group in Canada. [redacted] according to NICK, side

took his/(probably BONANNO's) and "does not want to know anything."
Everyone else is coming along and the number is now up to approximately 150 (who have apparently defected from BONANNO).

NICK made the statement that [] had the smallest group, namely 120. According to PATRIARCA, BONANNO has a lot of old people on account of his (BONANNO's) father. The individual who started the ball rolling in connection with the defection from BONANNO was []. He went to JOE BONANNO and said to him, "Why don't you straighten this out?" and when BONANNO did not comply with the orders, apparently from the commission, he was the first to defect and they all followed.

PATRIARCA asked whether the Sheikh had straightened that thing out and NICK replied in the affirmative. NICK stated that he is going to move into a hotel in [] neighborhood until he can get an apartment.

NICK stated that he has two kids shylocking, one of whom is pretty good. He described one of these kids as the [] kid who lost his brother and is considered by NICK to be a good worker.

PATRIARCA mentioned that JOHNNY WILLIAMS is [] compare and further that he (PATRIARCA) made [] and turned him over to the JERSEY group. According to NICK, [] hangs around at the bowling alley on Bloomfield Ave. The guy that owns the joint (probably meaning the bowling alley) was recently arrested for counterfeiting and all the guys that hang in there are bank robbers.

On 10/9/64, HENRY TAMELEO, Providence, R. I., told RAYMOND that he knew nothing about the attempted bombing the night previous.

This bombing concerned the placing of a stick of dynamite on the car of [redacted] a known gambler in Rhode Island. The car commenced skipping and [redacted] took it to a mechanic. A loose stick of dynamite was found on the engine of the car with one of the wires slightly detached from the ground connection.

PATRIARCA questioned TAMELEO concerning his whereabouts but appeared satisfied that TAMELEO knew nothing about it.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., told PATRIARCA that the new paint on the motor kept the dynamite from going off, but it was not clear to the informant whether [redacted] was one of those involved in the attempted bombing.

[redacted] is a close friend of WILLIE MARFEO, whom [redacted] has made efforts to kill.

The information concerning previous attempts on the life of MARFEO has been disseminated to the Providence PD.

A police officer, identity unknown, asked RAY if he would be available to appear at headquarters to answer some questions about the bombing. The police officer stated that inasmuch as no one was around, he wanted to tell RAYMOND that "he (the police officer) personally respects him and is sure that he is not responsible for the violence on Federal Hill."

RAYMOND stated he was available any time and apparently went down to Police Headquarters that afternoon to answer questions concerning the attempted bombing.

[redacted] also mentioned to PATRIARCA that they expect a war to break out in Rhode Island and was apparently quoting another man (identity unknown to the informant).

BS 92-118

An individual (unknown to the informant) is trying to obtain RAY's position in Providence as he is getting old. RAYMOND said that his wife is scared and made him put his car in the garage last night.

[] said that this man accused him [] of wanting to take over all the rackets in Rhode Island.

No pertinent information was furnished by the informant on 10/12/64 as it was a State holiday in Rhode Island.

A review of material furnished by BS 837-C* on 9/29/64 was made by SA [redacted]

This information reflected that [redacted] of Providence, R. I. was contemplating the purchase of a piece of property, location unknown, which he would renovate and fill with tires and junk and thereafter insure it with the Maryland Casualty Co. of Pittsburgh. Later, he would burn the building for insurance.

It is the opinion of the reviewing agent that [redacted] has not made any definite plans as to the piece of property he will purchase, nor whether, in fact, he actually intends to go through with the plan.

Because of the above, it is felt that this information should not be disseminated until more definite information is obtained by the informant.

was no longer a Boss or Commission Member. They also put out the word that nobody is to have any business dealings or association with any members of the BONANNO group.

A week later, PATRIARCA received another call from New York to attend another meeting. However, prior to the time he left Providence, this meeting was cancelled for some unknown reason. It was PATRIARCA's opinion that BONANNO was not killed by any member of the opposing faction. He pointed out that, if the opposing faction wanted him killed, they would have done so at the time they grabbed him on Park Avenue, as is the case in most killings of this type, particularly when there are witnesses, such as the lawyer, around.

He pointed out that they were taking a chance in kidnapping BONANNO and killing him later and could not see why it would serve any purpose to kidnap him first. Because of this, he believes that BONANNO is still alive and that he, BONANNO, engineered the alleged kidnapping. He pointed out that he is not sure of this, but it is only his opinion.

RAYMOND stated that he spoke to the group in New York in behalf of RAIMONDI and told them that, because his son is "with him", meaning PATRIARCA, they should not cause him, RAIMONDI, any harm. RAIMONDI pointed out that [redacted] (ph) was thrown out, apparently by the BONANNO group. RAIMONDI is a member of the BONANNO family.

PATRIARCA further pointed out that, when BONANNO did not appear before the Commission when requested on eight or nine different occasions, he was given one additional chance. Instead of BONANNO himself appearing, his son appeared, but they told him that they did not want to talk to the son, but the father. RAYMOND explained that about one-half of BONANNO's group have turned themselves in to the Commission. He pointed out that even BONANNO's relation by marriage who was on the Commission voted to throw BONANNO out of Cosa Nostra. This Commission Member was described as being from Detroit.

RAYMONDI mentioned the name of [] and stated that [] was going "there" Thursday again. Informant did not know the significance of this statement.

RAYMOND pointed out that the Soldiers of BONANNO are regarded as being with BONANNO until they declare themselves otherwise to the Commission. RAYMOND pointed out that he wanted no fighting among this group and stated that BONANNO was the cause of his own downfall, because he was so greedy.

RAYMONDI then mentioned that he at one time was very wealthy and, because of his habit of helping friends financially, he has lost most of his money. He pointed out that at one time an individual, name not mentioned, was given an order to kill somebody. While completing the murder, he was observed by a witness. Later, on another job, probably murder, he was picked up and identified by the witness in the first murder. A payoff of $5,000.00 was necessary to "square the rap away." $5,000.00 was furnished to a Lt. [] (ph) for this purpose and the charge was dropped. The individual was released and the following day he also was murdered. This resulted in the loss of $5,000.00 to RAYMONDI.

The main purpose of RAYMONDI's visit to PATRIARCA was to force his son, DANNY RAYMONDI, of Providence, R.I., to call his mother twice a week and send her $10.00 a week, as she is very sick. PATRIARCA said that he would make RAYMONDI telephone the mother twice and visit her at least once every two weeks and send her $10.00 per week.

On 10/27/64 [] and PATRIARCA discussed the Berkshire Downs Race Track. This track lost $140,000.00 last year and [] requested PATRIARCA's intervention with [] Rockingham Race Track, Salem, N.H., and the Green Mountain Race Track in Vermont. The reason was to make sure that [] would not request the same racing dates at Green Mountain Race Track as those requested by Berkshire Downs Race Track.

According to [REDACTED], who has a financial interest in Berkshire Downs Race Track does not desire to sell his interest. The Berkshire Downs Race Track now owes $12,000.00 to various horse men and $5,400.00 to someone else. They have reduced the mortgage by $50,000.00. $11,000.00 of the money in Berkshire Downs belongs to Campanella & Gardi Construction Company. PATRIARCA advised that he would have [REDACTED] contacted in order to eliminate any conflict in racing dates.

The files of the Boston Office reflect that DANIEL RAIMONDI, aka Daniel Lytwyn, is the son of NELLIE RAIMONDI, nee LYTWYN, who in 1959 resided with DANNY's step-father, (FNU) RAIMONDI, with a married daughter, [REDACTED] [REDACTED], Brooklyn, New York.

Rebosairtel, 10/6/64.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/6/64 that [redacted] Providence, R. I., and PATRIARCA discussed [redacted] business dealings in connection with his construction business.

JOSEPH KRIKORIAN, aka JOE KIRK, Providence, R. I., told PATRIARCA that the racing dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track have to be filed before 1/29/65 in order for them to receive any dates. He desired that PATRIARCA ascertain through his connections from [redacted] the Green Mountain Race Track in Vermont, as to the dates that [redacted] is going to request. When they ascertain this information, the Berkshire Downs Race Track will request dates that will not conflict with Green Mountain.

During the discussion, KIRK advised PATRIARCA that the Berkshire Downs Race Track was losing approximately $18,000 a day during the season and that the Green Mountain Race Track was also losing a substantial amount of money each day.

In connection with the Suffolk Downs Race Track at East Boston, Mass., PATRIARCA advised that [redacted] Sports Service, Inc. has bought a substantial amount of stock in this track. He has requested that a [redacted] run the concessions at the track; however, [redacted] another stockholder of the Suffolk Downs Race Track is interested in taking over the concessions and at the present time there is a dispute going on between [redacted] concerning the concession business.

According to PATRIARCA, [redacted] has talked to [redacted] the Horsemen's Benevolent Association and attempted to obtain permission from [redacted] to have the purses cut $100 a race.

[redacted] is also still interested in purchasing the Berkshire Downs Race Track.

SAM RIZZO of Scarsdale, N. Y. is backing out of the Berkshire Downs Race Track and KRIKORIAN requested PATRIARCA's assistance to obtain the repayment of a loan of $25,000 that RIZZO apparently made (The $25,000 probably is part of the money with which he purchased the Berkshire track at auction through an attorney in New York).

KRIKORIAN has talked to [redacted] about returning the $25,000. [redacted] replied that he could not do it at the present time; however, he would give them so much a month for three years for the repayment of this $25,000.

PATRIARCA suggested that he would repay the $25,000 "as he has a lot of money laying around" and "It's no good laying around" and he in turn will obtain a note from [redacted] for this sum.

PETER LIMONE of Boston, Mass. has made the connection for the individuals (probably in Hartford, Conn.) to purchase grapes direct from California, thereby eliminating the middleman. They will order 25-30 freight cars of grapes at $6,000-$7,000 a car.

There appeared to be an argument between [redacted] and an individual in the cleaning business who is a friend of [redacted]. The friend had bid on a contract to clean an establishment, believed to be the Suffolk Downs Race Track, on an annual basis.

The friend of [redacted] bid approximately $40,000 and [redacted] bid $45,000. [redacted] when he lost the bid, immediately contacted [redacted] and requested him to have the friend of [redacted] decline the bid.

The friend was legitimately in the cleaning business, and the two "connections" approached JERRY ANGIULO in his behalf.

PATRIARCA stated that inasmuch as the individual is in the legitimate cleaning business, no effort should be made on the part of ANGIULO or any of his associates to force the individual to cancel the bid, and that he is to further tell [redacted] that as far as PATRIARCA is concerned, the bid belongs to the legitimate bidder.

ANGIULO then went into a long discussion about the libel suit being brought by PATRIARCA against the "Boston Herald-Traveler" Corp.

It appeared that Attorney [redacted] former AUSA, does not agree with PATRIARCA's attorney relative to PATRIARCA's taking the stand in this civil case.

CHARLES CURRAN, PATRIARCA's attorney, has suggested that PATRIARCA take the stand, to which PATRIARCA agrees; however, [redacted] points out that because of the number of people subpoenaed in this case, either they or PATRIARCA could make a mistake in their testimony and thus form the basis for a perjury charge at a later date.

ANGIULO then discusses his own IRS investigation. He stated that IRS has contacted [redacted] (H) who is, or friendly to, the girl friend of SAM CUPART in Springfield, Mass. They questioned her relative to her phone calls to Jay's Lounge. She replied that she is friendly with [redacted]

BS 92-118

IRS immediately issued summonses to both [redacted] and [redacted]. At the present time, [redacted] has suggested that they take the 5th Amendment; however, SAM CUFARI has suggested that they not take the 5th because they have no pertinent information relative to ANGIULO.

ANGIULO is also at odds with CUFARI in that CUFARI is backing [redacted] and "PINKY" PANARELLI of Worcester, Mass. in connection with a $4,200 debt that PANARELLI owes ANGIULO.

PANARELLI claims that at Christmastime he mentioned the $4,200 debt to ANGIULO, and ANGIULO said, "Never mind repaying it, it's a Christmas present." Present there allegedly was [redacted] who agrees that the above incident happened. SAM CUFARI therefore states that "PINKY" does not owe the $4,200.

ANGIULO denied that he ever made such a statement.

Arrangements were made for PATRIARCA to go to Worcester some Sunday, exact date unknown, to settle the issue.

HENRY TAMELEO enters and PATRIARCA discusses the situation in New York concerning the BONANNO family. He told JERRY to instruct everyone not to do any business with any of the family members of BONANNO. He pointed out that BONANNO was asked to appear before "the commission" but failed to show up.

During the conversation, PATRIARCA advised that BONANNO has families in Arizona, California, and Montreal, Canada and made the statement that he was "trying to rule the world."

He mentioned that [redacted] another "commission" member who is described as an old timer, has two cousins on "the commission" and "They voted for him and they must be right." He described the two cousins as one being [redacted] father-in-law and the other a cousin.

When referring to the BONANNO family, he stated that they loved their boss and "Because he does not want to take it, that's the way a war starts." He said that BONANNO sent word that he could "take" JOE COLUMBO any day he wants to."

PATRIARCA also mentioned that BONANNO's father was boss before him (meaning BONANNO).

PATRIARCA stated, "I called every shot around New York for the last _____ years, even though I'm not over there very often."

A verbatim transcript will be forwarded to the Bureau and New York relative to the above.

ANGIULO stated that a kid who works under [] booking numbers at the North Station was hit for $1,800. The kid now is under [] but prior to the incarceration of LARRY ZANNINO the kid was under ZANNINO.

Inasmuch as ZANNINO is scheduled to be released in the near future, ANGIULO is of the opinion that an argument will ensue between [] and ZANNINO as to who has control of this kid.

PATRIARCA ruled that the kid should be returned to the control of ZANNINO when ZANNINO is released.

According to ANGIULO, JOSEPH MODICA has contacted SAM RIZZO in an attempt to get $5,000 from RIZZO which MODICA loaned him for the Berkshire Downs Race Track. RIZZO claimed that he had received the "OK" to borrow the money from TOMMY LUCHESE, aka TOMMY BROWN. MODICA has asked PATRIARCA's assistance in collecting this loan.

PATRIARCA became incensed and said the only reason MODICA granted the loan was that he thought he would be able to "get his foot in the door" and eventually be able to purchase the race track for a ridiculously low price.

He said that RIZZO has not got a dime and did not get the "OK" from BROWN to borrow the $5,000.

JERRY asked HENRY TAMELEO if he had any interest in [] of the International Cafe in Revere, Mass., to which HENRY replied in the negative. The reason for the question was not known to the informant.

BS 92-118

In connection with the football pool tickets, the individual who makes the line for these tickets is the individual who works in the office of "SONNY BOY" (RIZZO). It appeared that this particular ticket is being hit hard financially and they are blaming the individual who makes the line.

ANGIULO stated that NICK, who owns the Cliff Manor, "has got the stuff." The informant did not know the significance of this statement.

ANGIULO stated that they are going to make a substantial donation to [redacted] who is running for the Governorship of Massachusetts.

It appears that [redacted] does not desire such money, but they are going to make the contribution through "SONNY" MC DONOUGH, Governor's Council, Massachusetts.

ANGIULO will try to make arrangements that when the contribution is made either he or one of his representatives will be present in order to "substantiate the donation."

BS 92-118

On 10/7/64, the informant advised that [] intends to meet with "those guys" in New York, Chicago, or Vegas (apparently in relation to his alleged ownership of points in the Dunes in Las Vegas).

RAYMOND instructs him to get the points that are owed them.

[] agrees and said that he would get one point for himself, one point for PATRIARCA, and [] can have a half point a piece.

[] talked about another business deal which made $12,600 in eight weeks and, as yet, he has not obtained five cents from it. Informant did not know what type of business this was.

[] has attempted to ascertain from PATRIARCA who robbed the bookmaker in the shoe shine joint for $2,500, but [] has not, as yet, ascertained same.

RAYMOND explained in detail his method of travel to New York and said that none of the locals know him there as he has not been pinched there in 40 years; however, the FBI may know him.

To avoid being observed by the FBI he is very careful. He tries to arrive in New York an hour before his appointment and usually takes a cab up Eighth Avenue to a hotel. He hangs around the lobby and, after casing the lobby, takes an elevator to the 8th or 10th floor, walks down one flight, and returns to the lobby via the elevator. He then goes out of the hotel by the side door.

PATRIARCA does not drive because he is afraid of being stopped by the State Troopers.

He enters the Railroad Station at Providence via the back door and when he gets on the coach he makes sure that nobody suspicious is in the coach and stays in the same car to New York and does not even go to the diner.

Since the World's Fair has been in progress in New York he has been taking the 8th Avenue bus when he arrives at Penn. Station in preference to the cab.

BS 92-118

PATRIARCA asked [] whether SAM GIANCANA has any connections with the Dunes in Las Vegas.

[] did not think so but he knew at one time the guys from Chicago were shylocking at the Dunes.

[] was of the opinion that the guys from St. Louis have it, and described them as being three Jews - one being [] and another Jew from St. Louis. [] recalled that "they" (apparently meaning the Chicago mob) once tried to get a piece of the Dunes through an attorney. The attorney was subsequently beaten up by this mob and [] conjectures that they might have obtained a piece of the Dunes at this time. [] said he would find out from PATRIARCA whether or not GIANCANA has any interest in the Dunes.

For information of Boston and Newark, [redacted] advised on 10/29/64, that to his knowledge neither [redacted] nor NICHOLAS BIANCO have been seen or heard of in Brooklyn, and that most of the members of the [redacted] group are asking questions which indicate they do not know their whereabouts.

Detective [redacted] NYCPD, advised that at noon on 10/28/64, he observed [redacted] in Brooklyn driving a 1964 maroon Ford convertible bearing NJ license IZC161, which he stated was registered to [redacted] Leonia, NJ. [redacted] stated there were two other white male individuals in the car with [redacted] but in view of the fact that [redacted] is currently awaiting sentencing in Kings County Court, the NYCPD officers who are acquainted with [redacted] are under instructions not to speak to any members of the [redacted] group, and he was unable to identify the two unknown persons with [redacted] stated he could, however, recognize a photo of at least one of the unknown individuals.

TEDDY FUCCILLO advised that SAM GRANITO of Revere, Mass., was willing to pay $7,500 to [redacted] for his interest in the Coliseum Restaurant, an after-hours joint in Boston. According to FUCCILLO, the club is commencing to make money and they are starting to pay off their liquor bills.

[redacted] an associate of FUCCELLO's, has recently obtained a big engineering job from Governor [redacted] of Massachusetts. [redacted] throughout Massachusetts on behalf of Democratic nominee for Attorney General, HENNIGAN. HARRY DELLA RUSSO of Revere, Massachusetts, gave HENNIGAN $1,000.00 for his campaign expenses.

In connection with the Revere situation, FUCCELLO stated that they are voting to abolish the Plan E government in that city. If they are successful in abolishing this plan, HARRY DELLA RUSSO, presently State Senator, will run for Mayor of the City of Revere and, if elected, they will be "all set." [redacted] stated that Certified (Certified Pharmaceuticals, Inc.) is going pretty good. [redacted] is staying with [redacted] Certified, "all the time." Certified is earning 86¢, according to FUCCELLO. PATRIARCA appeared interested in this report and, therefore, he might possibly be financially interested in Certified.

On 10/22/64 UNMAN requested PATRIARCA to intercede for him in connection with a suit he has involving the Taunton Dog Track, Taunton, Mass. PATRIARCA stated that he would contact [redacted] for him but that he felt it would not be of benefit to him as UNMAN should deal directly with the insurance company representing the track.

On 10/23/64 UNMAN was told to call Newport, R.I., VIKING 7-6676, from the phone located in the back of the grocery store next door to PATRIARCA's place of business.

GEMMARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA. According to ANGIULO, he had a conference with his attorneys, [redacted] both former AUSA's, in connection with PATRIARCA's case against the Boston Herald-Traveler. [redacted] were attempting to ascertain from ANGIULO why PATRIARCA desires to continue this case. After much conversation, ANGIULO stated that the only reason PATRIARCA continues same is not for any monetary value but to force the Herald-Traveler to refrain from printing his name in their paper. PATRIARCA pointed out that his suit against the Providence Journal is effective in this way, in that, since he commenced the suit, they have not printed anything about him. He, therefore, will continue to stall this suit, providing the paper continues to refrain from printing his name.

It appeared that [] did not agree with PATRIARCA's attorney, CHARLIE CURRAN, in connection with his plan to put PATRIARCA on the stand. Both [] stated it is a dangerous practice and also a very dangerous practice to put any witnesses on the stand, such as other members of Cosa Nostra in the New England area. Depositions have been taken from other members of Cosa Nostra, as mentioned in the Senate Crime Committee Hearings. All of them have taken the Fifth Amendment in the depositions. ANGIULO and PATRIARCA are concerned that both JOE ANSELMO and JOSEPH LOMBARDO appeared at the USA's office in connection with these depositions without an attorney.

[] have advised that the government may place on the stand individuals who might testify, based on hearsay, on the power that PATRIARCA has in the New England area. This can only be done, according to the attorneys, in a libel suit and it is, therefore, very dangerous to proceed with this case. After considerable discussion, PATRIARCA was adamant in continuing the case, but only for the purpose of stopping any news releases.

ANGIULO paid Attorney [] $2,500.00 to represent [] the Horsemen's Benevolent Association. [] was recently arrested by INS and efforts are being made to deport him, based on several check-passing convictions. [] is attempting to have the head of INS agree that the check-passing convictions were a continuing thing and, in substance, only amounts to one conviction. If this is agreed, the government will have no basis on which to deport [] according to ANGIULO, is apparently friendly with the Head of INS in Boston.

In connection with ANGIULO's IRS investigation, he stated that he would need [REDACTED] (FNU) if the case goes to the Supreme Court.

In connection with the recent murders in Boston, ANGIULO was of the opinion that HAROLD HANNON should have killed [REDACTED] when he had him in the bar. However, [REDACTED] convinced HANNON that he was not there for the purpose of lining up HANNON for a kill.

According to LIMONE, EDDIE DEEGAN was at LIMONE's after-hours joint on the night of the killing of SACRAMONE. When DEEGAN left, he was wearing a gray suit. When he returned three or four hours later, he was wearing a blue suit, and LIMONE is of the opinion that the gray suit was covered with blood, necessitating the change of clothing.

ANGIULO, JOSEPH PATRIARCA and RAYMOND PATRIARCA discussed ANGIULO's new factory which reprocesses automobile bumpers. ANGIULO offered to JOSEPH PATRIARCA the Rhode Island territory as sales representative. JOSEPH PATRIARCA accepted same.

ANGIULO stated that he met Governor's Councillor SONNY McDONOUGH for the first time. He met McDONOUGH at [REDACTED] apartment the night of October 15, 1964. ANGIULO asked McDONOUGH what he is doing "with BELLOTTI", it being noted that McDONOUGH is assisting BELLOTTI to obtain the Massachusetts Governorship in the election of November 3rd next. McDONOUGH stated that BELLOTTI is "very weak." He explained that he, McDONOUGH, Judge JOHN FOX, former secretary to ex-Governor PAUL DEVER, and [REDACTED] (LNU) decided that they would attempt to knock out present Governor ENDICOTT PEABODY as Governor of Massachusetts in the primary election. In this manner, the KENNEDY family would be embarrassed and lose some prestige because they endorsed PEABODY as their candidate for Governor. BELLOTTI was successful over PEABODY in this election. ANGIULO stated that he realized BELLOTTI was "very weak" and asked McDONOUGH how BRUNO DI CECCO was made Judge. McDONOUGH explained that Judge EDDIE VIOLA of Cambridge, Mass., requested that DI CECCO be made a Judge; inasmuch as there was no opposition, McDONOUGH honored the request from VIOLA. ANGIULO then told McDONOUGH of the trouble he, ANGIULO, had with DI CECCO in connection with the Indian Meadow Country Club. McDONOUGH stated that, if he knew that situation beforehand, DI CECCO would never have been made a Judge. It should be noted that the Governor's Councillors have to approve all nominations for Judges in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ANGIULO stated that TEDDY ANZALONE, who is Deputy Secretary of State and connected with the BELLOTTI organization, raised $25,000.00 to $30,000.00 for campaign expenses. BELLOTTI apparently heard that ANZALONE was connected with JERRY ANGIULO and that he was an officer of one of ANGIULO's corporations. Immediately BELLOTTI went to JERRY TROY, District Judge, Dorchester, Massachusetts, and indicated to him that he did not desire the services of ANZALONE any longer because of this connection. Because of this, ANGIULO thinks that BELLOTTI is "very, very weak." In order to replace ANZALONE, a payment of $10,000.00 was paid to SONNY McDONOUGH to be furnished to BELLOTTI for his campaign expenses. McDONOUGH stated that BELLOTTI would absolutely refuse this donation if he knew it came from JERRY ANGIULO. Because of this, McDONOUGH will mention various names in the western part of the State as having furnished this money.

According to ANGIULO, - the only favors he desires for this payment are in connection with two pieces of legislation, the identities or circumstances of which are unknown to the informant. He also wants Captain [redacted]

[redacted] of the Massachusetts State Police, to be transferred to the Northampton Barracks. In this way, [redacted] would not be in a position to hurt ANGIULO's gambling operations.

ANGIULO then made arrangements for [redacted] a close associate of his and presently an attorney on the Industrial Accident Board of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, to be introduced to BELLOTTI by McDONOUGH. McDONOUGH did introduce [redacted] to BELLOTTI, stating that [redacted] has worked very hard in the campaign for BELLOTTI and has raised a substantial amount of money. BELLOTTI is unaware of [redacted] connection with ANGIULO. Arrangements were further made for McDONOUGH to deliver all messages through [redacted] to ANGIULO and vice versa.

ANGIULO asked McDONOUGH whether McCORMACK (EDWARD McCORMACK, former AG, State of Massachusetts, and nephew of Congressman JOHN W. McCORMACK) was going to take the AG's position in Washington. McDONOUGH "backed away" from this question, but it appeared that ANGIULO was very interested in McCORMACK's appointment to this position.

According to ANGIULO, McDONOUGH attempted to explain his connections with Senator MIKE COHEN (deceased), who was the "fixer" for the gambling element in Boston. ANGIULO would not listen to McDONOUGH and pointed out to him that every time COHEN was paid to do something, it was done and he did not care to hear whether McDONOUGH overcharged COHEN for these "fixes."

In connection with the Indian Meadow Country Club, ANGIULO stated that they are taking in more money since [redacted] has taken over operation of the club. They are still losing money there but, in the event business continues to pick up, they will maintain ownership of the club until they can sell same.

[redacted] individual in whose car a stick of dynamite was placed, attempted to ascertain from PATRIARCA what he knew concerning the attempted bombing. PATRIARCA denied any knowledge of same and made the comment to [redacted] after some arguing, whether she thought that he, PATRIARCA, was [redacted] [redacted] replied that she did not know herself but, if one would listen to her father, PATRIARCA must be considered more than [redacted]

Former Massachusetts State Police [redacted]
[redacted] asked PATRIARCA whether he had furnished
$250,000.00 to BELLOTTI. PATRIARCA denied same.

Rebosairtel, 10/29/64.

BS 837-C* advised on 10/28/64, SAMUEL GRANITO of Revere, Mass. contacted PATRIARCA. GRANITO advised that he had broken two of his ribs when he slipped while getting in the car.

He furnished PATRIARCA a sum of money and stated, "This is from [redacted]. 1200 for the month." The figure of 2300 was also mentioned, but the informant was unable to ascertain significance of same. GRANITO stated he took $100 out of the City Inspector's Office.

BS 92-118

It is possible that GRANITO actually was referring to money he was supposed to give to a City Inspector (city unknown) and that he withheld $100 from the payment. He also made the statement that sometimes he (identity unknown) gives it to [] who gives it to [] (true name []).

Both PATRIARCA and GRANITO agreed that [] is "no good."

It appeared that GRANITO is attempting to collect a bad debt for [] but the individual who owes the money is broke and SAM is unable to collect the debt. Both classified [] as "a liar."

GRANITO inquired as to what happened to JOE in New York.

PATRIARCA explained that he does not know positively but believed that JOE BONANNO had himself kidnaped in order to avoid trouble - not only with the Feds but with members of La Cosa Nostra. PATRIARCA advised that he would know the story Saturday because the kid is coming up.

It should be noted that BS 837-C* was contacted on Saturday, 10/31/64, but there was no indication that any individual came up from New York.

GRANITO discussed [] INS case. GRANITO is of the opinion that [] will be able to beat this deportation case.

The Berkshire Downs Race Track was discussed. PATRIARCA pointed out that they are losing a substantial amount of money at the track, and he is making efforts to persuade [] not to apply for the same racing dates at the neighboring track, namely, the Green Mountain Race Track in Vermont.

Concerning [] GRANITO is of the opinion that he is "all done." He desires that TEDDY FUCILLO who has offered to pay $7,500 for [] interest in the after hours joint, the Coliseum, Boston, Mass., be permitted to purchase same. GRANITO is of the opinion that FUCILLO would actually pay $10,000 for same and believes that FUCILLO would make a good partner. GRANITO stated that they are starting to make money in the Coliseum Restaurant and that the only concern they have is with the presence of Detectives [] of the Boston, Mass. PD.

According to GRANITO, [] (LNU) is on the payroll of []. GRANITO stated that this individual would be a good prospect for membership in La Cosa Nostra.

According to GRANITO, [] of Revere, Mass. had given the "OK" to GRANITO for the operation of a barboot game in Revere. PATRIARCA warned GRANITO to be careful of [] and not place too much trust in him.

GRANITO advised that [] has been released on parole and that [] will be released next month.

PATRIARCA asked GRANITO if he had heard from []. SAM replied in the negative but stated that [] was owed $1,200 by [].

EDWARD "WIMPY" BENNETT's name was mentioned in connection with the pistols sent from the Middle West by HENRY REDDINGTON, which pistols were of no value because their firing pins had been filed down.

PATRIARCA is of the opinion that it probably was caused by HENRY REDDINGTON, but warned GRANITO also to be careful of "WIMPY" BENNETT.

SAM exhibited to PATRIARCA a silencer he had purchased which was made in England. The silencer cost $300. GRANITO advised that he is having a few more made up by a friend of his.

PATRIARCA and GRANITO advised that after the elections the FBI and IRS will curtail their activities against members of La Cosa Nostra. They specifically pointed out that members of IRS are complaining because of the large amount of work being conducted on bookmaking cases and they are thus unable to take care of their other work which they consider more important. They also believe that the new Attorney General would curtail the activities of the FBI in their investigation of La Cosa Nostra and other hoodlum elements.

On 10/29/64, [redacted] discussed the financing of a building. This building is being erected apparently for the Draper Corp. PATRIARCA advised that he would contact [redacted] and would attempt to assist [redacted] in this regard.

On 10/30, 31/64, no pertinent activity took place.

On 11/2/64, [redacted] (INU) was involved in some type of racket involving cars, but the informant was unable to ascertain details of same.

PATRIARCA said that he had no objection.

BS 837-C* advised UNMAN visited PATRIARCA and advised that he had a large quantity of watchbands which he obtained from Speidel.

PATRIARCA indicated that he would like to have about a dozen of these bands to use as Christmas gifts.

There was a discussion about slugs for use in the telephones and UNMAN indicated he could buy them for about $2 for 200, and it actually costs about 20¢ a gross to make them.

PATRIARCA said that he was not interested in them himself, but that they had been finding a lot of slugs in cigarette vending machines around Pawtucket, R. I.

UNMAN said that he did not believe that the slugs he had would work in cigarette machines.

TAMELEO said that of course he denied any knowledge and explained to PATRIARCA that this was RONNIE's score (possibly RONNIE CASSESSA) and that RONNIE had sold the stuff back to []

TAMELEO indicated that SA [] had questioned him about the disappearance of JOE BONANNO, and TAMELEO said that he did not even know the man.

PATRIARCA then mentioned that he got word from New York that BONANNO went away by himself. |||

It should be noted that SA [] interviewed TAMELEO on 11/9/64 under the pretext purposes so that an up-to-date photograph of TAMELEO might be obtained.

BS 837-C* continues to consistently furnish excellent information regarding the activities of Raymond L. S. Patriarca, New England underworld leader, as well as information concerning his associates. This source has furnished extremely valuable information concerning La Cosa Nostra activities. It is one of the most productive misurs being handled in connection with the Criminal Intelligence Program.

During the past 90-day period this source has furnished information that [redacted] and Samuel Granito, La Cosa Nostra members, were responsible for the murder of two individuals. This source also provided information which enabled surveillance to be conducted of Patriarca's meeting in New York City with Thomas Luchese, a member of the "commission."

It is recommended that the Boston Office be authorized to maintain this source for an additional 90-day period.

(A) On September 25, 1964, the Informant furnished information which reflected that PAUL COLICCI and VINCENT BISEISI, who had been murdered a few weeks prior to this time were actually killed by [redacted] and SAMUEL GRANITO, La Cosa Nostra members. GRANITO stated that they were unable to bury the victims so they went to the Cape and got rid of the car.

PATRIARCA told GRANITO to give [redacted] $150 and to tell them it was a gift from PATRIARCA.

On September 29, 1964, the Informant advised that PATRIARCA was going to New York City. PATRIARCA on the basis on this information was surveilled to NYC and observed in the company of THOMAS LUCHESE, Commission member of LaCosa Nostra. Later the Informant advised that this meeting concerned the JOSEPH BONANNO incident.

On August 6, 1964, the Informant advised that PATRIARCA had instructed DANNY RAIMONDI and [redacted] both of Providence, Rhode Island, to beat up [redacted] of Paragon Park, Nantasket Beach, Massachusetts.

Based on this information, an anonymous call was placed to the MDC Police. Thereafter, they conducted a surveillance and stopped RAIMONDI and [redacted] for a traffic violation. PATRIARCA upon learning of this factor ordered RAIMONDI and [redacted] not to continue their efforts to beat up [redacted].

(B) The confidential source has indicated that RAYMOND PATRIARCA is the leader of the criminal element in the Rhode Island and Massachusetts area, and also has some control in Maine and New Hampshire. The Informant has furnished various information confirming this fact and his continuation will serve to crystallize information which may lead to prosecution.

With reference to the information appearing on page 3 of Boston airtel of 11/5/64 to the effect that a [redacted] had been contacted by the "Feds" as an informant, every reasonable effort should be made by the New York Office to identify this individual.

Boston should continue to remain alert to developing further information along this line and should immediately furnish to New York all pertinent information concerning Taglianetti which might assist New York in identifying his cousin.

It is suggested that New York carefully review the background of its criminal informants and potential criminal informants to determine if [redacted] might already have been contacted by the New York Office.

According to PATRIARCA, the horse business was good last month and that if it continues, [] and the others should obtain some money from the profits.

Upon inquiry by PATRIARCA, [] stated he does not look at the books from day to day. PATRIARCA instructed him that he should check these books to see what the operation actually is as far as profit and loss is concerned.

PATRIARCA agreed with [] should stay in the booking office as the operation does not merit the placing of another employee there. In the event that [] still desires to hire another employee, he no longer will be paid a weekly salary.

[] stated that former Massachusetts Senator [] Mass. District Court, had asked [] to ascertain from PATRIARCA whether former Sen. JOHN E. POWERS received a payoff of $40,000 in connection with his efforts to obtain additional racing dates for Berkshire Downs Race Track. He explained that [] did not want to cause any trouble but "wanted to know for his own personal knowledge."

PATRIARCA then explained that arrangements were made through JOHN POWERS, Senate Majority Leader, in connection with this piece of racing legislation, possibly for additional racing dates. POWERS pushed the bill and $225,000 was put in escrow which was to be paid to POWERS in the event the bill was successful.

Inasmuch as POWERS failed to get the bill through the Legislature, a sum of $225,000 was not paid to him. According to PATRIARCA, the only thing POWERS received from this was a few dinners from SAM RIZZO.

PATRIARCA stated that former State Police [] had contacted him relative to an alleged quarter of a million dollar payment to Democratic Candidate for the Governorship FRANCIS X. BELLOTTI by PATRIARCA and his associates.

BS 92-118

[] told PATRIARCA that he is very close to Republican candidate JOHN VOLPE (who was subsequently elected as the next Governor of Massachusetts) and VOLPE has promised him to be made the next Massachusetts State Police Commissioner.

PATRIARCA denied that he gave any money to Democratic candidate FRANCIS X. BELLONTE.

[] Providence, R. I., discussed various construction jobs and the election results in Rhode Island with PATRIARCA.

LOUIS TAGLIANETTI advised that he just returned from New York where he contacted a cousin (identity unknown) of his in Brooklyn. The cousin was contacted by the Feds and offered $150 a week to act as an informant for the express purpose of obtaining information on TAGLIANETTI and PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA told TAGLIANETTI to tell the cousin to take the $150 a week for as long as he can and furnish the Feds false information.

Our highly confidential source providing direct coverage of the activities of Patriarca of Providence, Rhode Island, New England's La Cosa Nostra "boss," continues to furnish an amazing amount and variety of criminal information. One day's business, consisting of a conference with [redacted] of Worcester, Massachusetts, highlights the scope of Patriarca's operations and power. Brief statements as to each item discussed are set out below:

1. [redacted] gave Patriarca an accounting of a bookmaking operation in Worcester and personnel problems involved in the operation. Patriarca issued to [redacted] instructions as to the continued use of the employees assigned.

2. In behalf of former Massachusetts State Senator [redacted] wanted to know if former Majority Leader of the Massachusetts State Senate, John E. Powers, received a payoff of $40,000 for his efforts in attempting to obtain additional racing dates for the Berkshire Downs Race Track, which is owned "behind the scenes" by Patriarca and other hoodlums. Patriarca explained that Senator Powers had been paid nothing but that $225,000 had been placed in "escrow" to be paid Powers on a C.O. D. basis had his legislative attempts been successful, which they were not.

3. Patriarca told [redacted] that former Massachusetts State Police [redacted] had contacted Patriarca in an effort to verify an allegation that Patriarca and his associates made a payment of a quarter of a million dollars to Democratic candidate for the Massachusetts Governorship, Francis X. Bellotti. According to Patriarca, [redacted] at the time he questioned Patriarca, told the latter that [redacted] is very close to the Republican candidate for Governor, John Volpe, who had promised to appoint [redacted] as the next Commissioner of State Police in the event Volpe was successful in the election.

The contact by [redacted] with Patriarca was prior to the recent election in which Volpe was the winner. As a matter of conjecture,

Re: Raymond L. S. Patriarca

[] could have been seeking information for Volpe to use in the campaign or, on the other hand, he combined his questions and his statements in order to subtly indicate to Patriarca that [] would be amenable to payoffs but at a high price in the event he became []. It is further noted that information developed during the course of the Top Hoodlum Program over the past several years has indicated Governor Volpe, during his previous term as Governor, was untouchable by the hoodlum element, which always supported his opposition. In the recent campaign, Patriarca and his associates were supporting Bellotti against Volpe but with indications that no direct contact had been effected with Bellotti. Patriarca once made the statement that he considered Bellotti as the "lesser of two evils."

4. Following the conference between [] and Patriarca, the latter was advised by one of his Providence, Rhode Island, subordinates Louis Taglianetti, [] in Brooklyn, New York, had been contacted by a Federal law enforcement agency and offered $150 a week to act as an informant. Neither the name of [] nor of the specific Federal agency was mentioned by Taglianetti. Patriarca said to tell [] to take the $150 a week for as long as he can and furnish false information.

Boston is being instructed to furnish its recommendations with regard to the dissemination of the information concerning former State Police [] to Governor-elect Volpe.

ACTION:

Boston and New York Offices are being instructed to make all possible inquiries, consistent with security of this valuable source, to identify [] who apparently is being instructed to "double" a Federal law enforcement agency while pretending to act as an informant.

BS 837-C* advised on 11/12/64 that HENRY TAMELEO was in conversation with RAYMOND PATRIARCA and mentioned a break on Newbury Street, Boston, Mass., where some furs were stolen. He told PATRIARCA that he went to Boston (reason not stated) and explained that he was fortunate that he did not drive because he was in front of Basin Street South talking with [redacted] (well known Boston hoodlum and close associate of EDWARD "WIMPY" BENNETT) when the police drove by and looked carefully out the car window. TAMELEO mentioned that the police subsequently searched a room above Luigi's Restaurant, which he indicated is owned by the same person who owns Basin Street South, and found a dead body of a woman.

TAMELEO said he expected to know more of the details by one o'clock that day.

[redacted] of Rhode Island advised that he has, at the present time, $250,000 worth of insurance on his property and is in the process of increasing this coverage to $500,000.

[redacted] has established a good credit rating with Dun & Bradstreet and is contemplating either fire or burglary of his property. When applying for additional insurance, he accepted the recommendations of the insurance company and has gone to the extent of even installing a central alarm system that goes directly to the Police Station.

[redacted] is contemplating accepting several diamonds from "[redacted]" on memo and removing them prior to the time of the incident. One piece, a platinum watch, allegedly is worth $14,000. He also intends to go to New York with "[redacted]" (PH) who will obtain merchandise on consignment and also allege that they are in the building at the time of the incident.

A lengthy discussion ensued and PATRIARCA and TAMELEO took the position that a burglary would be much better than arson, but [redacted] pointed out that he is experiencing difficulty with the insurance companies in getting the proper coverage on a burglary.

TAMELEO's point was that many things can go wrong in a fire, plus the fact that the property actually gets destroyed, and in the event something does go amiss, it gives investigators an opportunity to uncover evidence.

[redacted] agreed he was aware of all these things but felt that his arrangements for the arson would be sufficiently complete to avoid any difficulty along this line. He pointed out that the only people who knew about it were himself, "[redacted]" and "[redacted]" (PH). He said that the only reason he took "[redacted]" along was that "[redacted]" was going to take care of the law for $1,000, and "[redacted]" told him that the law would be the same as having a watchman.

It appeared from the conversation that PATRIARCA and TAMELEO were not familiar with the building and asked questions about what other people were in the area.

[] indicated that there was a [] where an individual [] but the proprietor left early in the afternoon and located next to the building was a gas company office.

The above information is not being disseminated at this time and efforts are being made to identify the location referred to by [].

It should be noted that there was an indication that [] would contact PATRIARCA prior to the time any final arrangements were made.

On 11/13/64, an UNMAN advised he had contacted [] of NYC who, according to PATRIARCA, is a close friend of his. [] introduced him to [] who allegedly has a piece of the [].

The reason for UNMAN contacting these individuals was to obtain a job for his sister in a club in Florida. PATRIARCA suggested that he contact his good friend [] who operates the [] that she is a close friend of PATRIARCA's. He further stated that if [] doubts his sister's acquaintance with PATRIARCA, that he is to instruct [] to call PATRIARCA direct. His sister's name is [] (PH).

According to PATRIARCA, [] is the "only one of the boys" who stays [] year round and that the others have individuals fronting for them.

Another UNMAN contacted PATRIARCA, after which PATRIARCA contacted TAMELEO and requested that he proceed directly to PATRIARCA's office as there were some people waiting for him. While waiting for TAMELEO, UNMAN stated that [] (probably the [] of Boston) was going to make that move. UNMAN did not explain what this move was.

UNMAN also mentioned that [] had a "beef" with [] but did not explain the circumstances.

When TAMELEO appeared, UNMAN stated that [] (possibly [] of NYC) was around Revere, Mass. attempting to sell razor blades, Sonya radios, and televisions and Westlocks.

It appeared that [] connection was [] (LNU) and that he [] is carrying the swag in and out of New York.

UNMAN had a package of razor blades with him. This package was described as holding 10 stainless steel blades but, according to TAMELEO, he also had blades in the amount of six per package.

According to TAMELEO, he called [] concerning the radios and TVs. The radios sell wholesale for $71.96, individually; $68.35, if you purchase over 10, and if over 100 are purchased, $64.

According to TAMELEO, [] (PH) attempted to sell the radios to TAMELEO for $20, but when he called [] the price was increased to $24 each.

TAMELEO was contemplating going to Bridgeport, Conn. to obtain two radios and two TV sets from [] so that he could peddle them in and around Providence. According to TAMELEO, they also have Westlocks, the wholesale value of which is $19,500 which they will sell for $6,500. When he talked to [] said he could buy these clocks for $6,000.

TAMELEO said that probably the only outlet he would have would be [] (PH).

According to TAMELEO, the radios are presently in Bridgeport, Conn., but they were probably stolen out of New York and Chicago as were the blades. Further, that [] (probably [] brother (whose name is [] (PH)) is the individual who has the Westlocks and 6,000 pens (further identity unknown)

[] was recently released from jail.

BS 92-118

It was not clear to the informant whether [] had available only the razor blades and [] had the connection for TVs, radios, Westlocks, and pens.

According to TAMELEO, they had available approximately 1400 radios and 100,000 blades.

On 11/16/64, no pertinent information was obtained from the informant.

BS 92-118

On 11/18/64, [redacted] Providence, R. I., discussed various contracts he obtained during the recent past with PATRIARCA. These contracts were awarded to [redacted] contracting company in which, the informant believes, PATRIARCA has a financial interest.

HENRY TAMELEO, Providence, R. I., was told by PATRIARCA that SAMMY GRANITO ran into [redacted] in New York the other day. [redacted] sent word to PATRIARCA that "the guy from Buffalo sends his regards to him."

GENNARO J. ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA. They discussed the libel suit PATRIARCA has instituted against the "Boston Herald-Traveler." PATRIARCA was adamant in that he was going to take the stand and relate anything about his own activities, but refuse to divulge any information concerning his associates.

He stated that his associates can take the 5th Amendment and that he felt the jury would understand his predicament and find in his favor.

[redacted] told [redacted] that his friend turned over [redacted] car the previous night.

During the conversation PATRIARCA stated that the Deputy Chief of Narragansett, R. I. was a good friend of his.

ANGIULO advised that he had a meeting with [redacted] "PINKY" PANARELLI, and SAM GUFARI at the Indian Meadow Country Club the previous Sunday.

ANGIULO claimed that "PINKY" owed him $4,200 and that [redacted] owed him an additional $1,000. [redacted] stated that he thought the debt was paid and related that approximately four or five years ago he and [redacted] "whacked out a guy" for some money. After "whacking the guy out," [redacted] told [redacted] to give his end to JERRY ANGIULO for repayment of a thousand dollar debt and up until this time he thought [redacted] had done so.

BS 92-118

[] under questioning by the group, admitted to them that he never did pay ANGIULO the thousand dollars.

Concerning "PINKY's" $4,200 debt, PINKY contended that he thought ANGIULO cancelled the debt as a Christmas present.

It was finally agreed that [] was to repay ANGIULO $800 and PINKY, $3,500, and further, that [] was to straighten out his own "beef" with [].

ANGIULO explained that last Sunday night SAM CUFARI came to his place of business with a group and entered the back door.

It should be noted that the nightclub is closed on Sunday nights but that ANGIULO happened to be there at that time.

CUFARI complained that he was not getting a sufficient amount of money out of Worcester, Mass.

PATRIARCA stated that he should be satisfied with 100% out of Springfield and 40% out of Worcester and that he would be paid for his end in Springfield once every two months.

CUFARI complained that he spent $5,000 recently in Hot Springs with a dame (It should be noted that CUFARI was recently married in Hot Springs but there was no indication that ANGIULO knew he was married). CUFARI told him that he was told, while in Hot Springs, that [] (Top 10 Fugitive) had showed up in Hot Springs.

SAM got the impression that this was six or seven months ago because of the fact that "the locals wanted no part of him," and he did not remain in Hot Springs for any length of time.

CUFARI explained that he was sent to Hot Springs through [] in New York (probably [] of New Jersey).

During the conversation PATRIARCA mentioned that "PINKY" PANARELLI has the sports office in Worcester, Mass. and should be making money.

ANGIULO stated that FRANK CUCCHIARA desired to come down and see PATRIARCA and his wife. RAYMOND made an appointment for the first of next week for CUCCHIARA.

ANGIULO stated that "TONY's" mother died (probably ANTHONY SANTANTIELLO - deceased). He told ANGIULO to tell [redacted] (LNU) to give TONY's [redacted] $250 from the $500 he receives every month from [redacted].

ANGIULO stated that [redacted] told him that he [redacted] was attempting to make arrangements to surrender [redacted] Top 10 Fugitive.

Concerning these arrangements, [redacted] County District Attorney, Boston, had apparently agreed to set bond in the amount of $35,000, which [redacted] feels he could raise.

ANGIULO told [redacted] to make sure he got a definite deal from [redacted] because he did not trust him and, further, to obtain the money for the bail from [redacted] prior to the time bail was produced.

PATRIARCA stated that "RONNIE" CASSESSA [redacted] contacted him recently concerning ROMEO MARTIN. MARTIN apparently had a score with "RONNIE" CASSESSA and they used [redacted] who hangs around Endicott Street. (Informant knew nothing further concerning CASSESSA.) PATRIARCA stated that JOHNNY FOTO has now returned to Miami, Fla.

PATRIARCA explained that [redacted] (LNU) told him that [redacted] and [redacted] (probably [redacted] of New York) were making $1,500 to $2,000 a month in stolen blades. He explained that "RONNIE" CASSESSA recently contacted him concerning this with [redacted]. [redacted] apparently had a connection but the connection was recently stabbed in the vicinity of Boston and he does not know whether the blades are still available.

ANGIULO mentioned that [redacted] of New Jersey had loaned [redacted] the sum of $2,000 in shylock money. A representative of [redacted] contacted ANGIULO. ANGIULO told him that [redacted] owes them shylock money and they are going to get their money first.

ANGIULO asked for and received permission from PATRIARCA to contact "SONNY" MC DONOUGH, Governor's Counsel, State of Massachusetts, in an effort to remove [redacted] of the Massachusetts State Police who is in charge of the [redacted] Unit at Massachusetts State Police Headquarters.

In this connection, [redacted] is in charge of all gambling.

ANGIULO explained that he was contacted by the [redacted] (an agent for ANGIULO) who is a [redacted] in the Massachusetts State Police. [redacted] told him that [redacted] had discussed in conferences the names of [redacted] JERRY ANGIULO, [redacted] and [redacted] as being the leading bookmakers in this area. He told ANGIULO that this man will create havoc among the gambling element unless he is curtailed and transferred from this unit.

In an effort to check [redacted] story, ANGIULO had his [redacted] contact former [redacted] of the Massachusetts State Police. [redacted] told [redacted] that the only reason [redacted] was originally made a [redacted] was because he [redacted] at the same time was made a [redacted] and in such a position he was able to "sit him down in the barracks." However, when GILES became Commissioner [redacted] did obtain a [redacted] rating and was transferred back to Headquarters where he assumed command of the [redacted] Unit. GILES refused to remove him to the Barracks detail in some remote spot in the State.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] should be removed from the position he is in and pointed out that if anyone contacted [redacted] directly he [redacted] would have no hesitancy in obtaining sufficient evidence for a bribe and reporting same to the Attorney General for prosecution.

ANGIULO stated that he intended to contact MC DONOUGH through "TEDDY" FUCILLO and attempt to effect the removal of [redacted].

BS 92-118

Informant advised on 11/18/64 that RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA told his top lieutenant in Boston, GENNARO J. ANGILO, that JOE BONANNO "took it on the lam himself" and further, that [redacted] is with him. He further stated that [redacted] (PH) and all the underbosses are meeting later this week to see what they want to do with the rest of BONANNO's family.

PATRIARCA made the comment that BONANNO put a great act on in front of the lawyers but "did put them on the spot." He indicated that the lawyers knew nothing concerning the alleged kidnaping.

[redacted] explained that [redacted] (INU) spends most of his time in New York and very seldom is in Bridgeport, Conn.

[redacted] sent for [redacted] some time ago and asked that they take over a joint (probably a gambling joint).

BS 92-118

At the time the newspapers were on strike and they could not obtain numbers, PICCOLO told them that he did not want any piece of the business and gave up his third interest.

[] (LNU) took over the business. Sometime thereafter a hit was made in the amount of $2,680, and neither [] had sufficient money to pay the hit.

[] then went to FRANK and asked him to loan him the money in order to pay the hit.

PICCOLO refused the loan.

It was then necessary for [] to go to someone outside "the family," as he described, a stranger, for money. In order to show good faith, he insisted that the lender hold the play that he was to receive in the future so that he would be assured of repayment of the loan. Before he actually borrowed the money he told PICCOLO about the situation, and PICCOLO agreed that it was alright to borrow the money under those conditions.

Four days after the borrowing of the money, [] ascertained that FRANK told a couple of individuals to pick up numbers from one of his agents. He also took two agents from [].

[] complained to FRANK and threatened to go to New York with the complaint. However, he was told to wait for [] of Ansonia, Conn. and explain the situation to him.

When [] returned to the Bridgeport, Conn. area he told [] the story.

During this time PICCOLO took [] play away from another location and also opened up a location only a block from one already being operated by [].

[] apparently suggested that they bring the "beef" to PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA, during the course of the conversation, told them that when [] (LNU) got out of jail he furnished [] with $2,000 from donations from the Boston group, and PICCOLO treated him like "a bum." PATRIARCA stated that he was the first one to state several years ago that "PICCOLO was no good."

There was mention by one of the individuals present that they should get rid of PICCOLO; however, later, PATRIARCA suggested that they bring PICCOLO to him in order that he might attempt to straighten out the situation.

PATRIARCA also mentioned that the few times they were in New York they were "beefing" about the activities of PICCOLO. They described PICCOLO as being money crazy.

PATRIARCA stated that he has obtained about $5,000 from PICCOLO in the nine years that he has had an interest in an operation in Bridgeport and that occasionally PICCOLO sends him $500.

PATRIARCA was critical of PICCOLO in that he did not furnish [] (INU's) wife any funds.

During the conversation PATRIARCA mentioned MIKE of Boston whom he was talking to (apparently on the telephone. Probably MIKE ROCCO who is a capo regime and underboss). He explained that [] who was also a capo from Providence, R. I., was sent by PATRIARCA to Boston.

It was not clear to the informant what the reason was but ROCCO had complained to PATRIARCA about [] for something he said in Boston.

HENRY TAMELEO of Providence, R. I. discussed his operation on "hot horses" with the individuals from Connecticut. He explained that he obtains "hot horses" from [] (INU) and that [] has given him some good prices on the horses. [] is in business with three other individuals, one of whom could be PICCOLO. They have three or four horses and the trainers are a Spanish individual named [] (PN), and [] (PH).

Last Saturday in the 10th race they had a horse named [] (PH) which paid $16, $8.20, and $3.40.

BS 92-118

HENRY TAMELEO explained that every day of the meet he goes to Simpson's Drug Store near the race track and arrives there about 45 minutes before post time. The information is furnished to him at that location, and he usually makes six or seven calls to New York and elsewhere concerning the "hot horses" which he gets from [] and another group in New York (identities unknown to the informant). He explained that they have several jockeys "in the bag," and that [] is one jockey that keeps his word, and when they furnish him a payoff of $400-$500 he pulls his horse real good.

The individuals from the Connecticut area gave two phone numbers where they could be reached - [] and [].

TAMELEO made arrangements to call them at these numbers in the event he gets good information on "hot horses."

He explained that the New York group, which furnishes him the information concerning these horses, usually pick the favorites which, of course, pay little money. The group in New York play $20,000 and $30,000 on these horses and subsequently make a substantial living.

PETER LIMONE of Boston, Mass. enters during the conversation and is introduced to the Connecticut group. They apparently have contacted PATRIARCA in regards to purchasing three or four cars.

LIMONE apparently furnishes his telephone number to the Connecticut group who said they would call him later in regards to this purchase.

NEW HAVEN will be furnished additional data concerning the above information and they will be requested to furnish this data to New York for translation.

GENNARO J. ANGIULO met the Connecticut group and appeared to have known two or three of them prior to this meet. After the Connecticut group left, he asked PATRIARCA whether [] had any connection with him (PATRIARCA). Upon receiving a reply in the negative, ANGIULO stated that he was "shooting off at the mouth in Boston."

PATRIARCA told JERRY to give him a beating.

ANGIULO discussed his actions concerning a subpoena relative to PATRIARCA's million dollar slander suit against the "Boston Herald-Traveler."

ANGIULO does not want to obey the summons in that he has furnished a deposition in which he took the 5th Amendment. He is afraid that if summonsed and all take the 5th Amendment, the jury might get the wrong attitude and find for the "Boston Herald-Traveler."

ANGIULO again discussed the [redacted] JOE ANSELMO feud. They both agree that [redacted] was probably responsible for the start of the feud, but JERRY thinks that under his group he can be "cured."

JERRY explained that another individual (identity unknown to the informant) wanted to kill "WIMPY" BENNETT and approached JERRY for permission to do so. The method of killing BENNETT was to put a poison pill in his coffee when sitting together.

ANGIULO thought the guy was crazy and ordered him not to kill anyone or he would be killed himself.

PETER LIMONE advised that he furnished two guns to EDWARD "TEDDY" DEEGAN, an associate of EDWARD "PUNCHY" MC LAUGHLIN, a few weeks ago. These guns LIMONE obtained from RONALD CASSESSA. Approximately a week after the guns were furnished to DEEGAN he called LIMONE and said that the guns were inoperable; whereupon LIMONE told him to get rid of both guns.

[redacted] of Boston, Mass. recently robbed [redacted] from Dorchester, Mass., who was in the shylock business.

[redacted] of Charlestown, Mass. called ANGIULO and told him that [redacted] was picked up carrying a gun. They surmised that [redacted] was carrying a gun in the vicinity of [redacted] club on Hanover Street, because he thought that [redacted] was at the club and he wanted to kill him, that he left that vicinity.

ANGIULO advised that both [redacted] are being sent back to prison for violation of parole, and both of these individuals were with the [redacted] group.

According to ANGIULO, [redacted] went to [redacted] of Newark, N. J., after which [redacted] sent word to ANGIULO that [redacted] had nothing to do with the killing of HAROLD HANNON or WILFRED DEIANEY whose bodies were found in Boston Harbor. He also claimed that [redacted] was not mixed up with [redacted]

ANGIULO apparently was of the opinion that [redacted] "sold [redacted] a bill of goods" relative to his connection with [redacted]

According to ANGIULO, [redacted] who is on the "junk," just returned from New Jersey accompanied by [redacted] of NYC. [redacted] went to [redacted] with whom he is extremely friendly, and borrowed $5,000 which they put on the streets of Boston as shylock money.

PATRIARCA was incensed at [redacted] for allowing money to be put on Boston's streets as loan shark money and said that he should know better.

According to ANGIULO, [redacted] the former bookmaker in Charlestown, Mass., is broke. He owes ANGIULO $10,000 and has told ANGIULO that when he obtains additional money he will pay the loan off.

PATRIARCA questioned ANGIULO as to whether he thought [redacted] was still out to kill [redacted] ANGIULO replied that he did not know.

They discussed the financial condition of the Indian Meadow Country Club (IMCC), Westboro, Mass., for a considerable length of time.

It appears that the club lost $4,000 in the restaurant during July and August, in which allegedly they would have their busiest months.

ANGIULO still desires to fire [redacted] of Worcester, Mass. [redacted] of the IMCC.

BS 92-118

PATRIARCA requested ANGIULO to obtain a forged marriage certificate from Boston, Mass. for an unknown individual. ANGIULO said that he would send same down to PATRIARCA within a week.

PATRIARCA told ANGIULO that the people who own the Bay State Macaroni Co. were playing horses with [] a bookmaker from Malden or Everett, Mass. They apparently had a horse or number and [] only paid off half of the hit.

JERRY stated he would contact [] and force him to pay the full amount on the hit.

ANGIULO stated that [] the World of Mirth shows is in debt in the amount of $100,000. He apparently has the same connection as ANGIULO and is attempting to borrow $200,000 through the Bank of Miami Beach. ANGIULO made the remark that they will send him the check from the Bahamas.

On 9/16/64, "DANNY" RAIMONDI and another unknown individual were discussing an unknown problem they had with a man in the shop.

PATRIARCA stated that they should be diplomatic and warn the individual the first time in a nice but firm language; in the event it happens a second time, they should "bang him in the head, but, in any event, be diplomatic."

PATRIARCA was disturbed concerning the story that his brother JOE was involved in stolen cars.

UNMAN, whose car was stolen, told PATRIARCA that [] makes $600 a week on cars and that the individuals he works with do not care for anyone. | ?

[] the Horsemen's Benevolent Protective Association, contacted PATRIARCA for advice. WHITE's daughter is married to [] local bookmaker in whose car a stick of dynamite was recently located.

[] daughter is scared to death and [] was requesting advice from PATRIARCA as to what they should do.

PATRIARCA told [] that he does not know who put the dynamite in the car, and he is sure that no one of importance in Providence did so. RAYMOND explained that the use of bombs or dynamite was outlawed 25 years ago, except in Union disputes where they are used when no innocent people are around to be injured.

According to PATRIARCA, [] has been doing a little shylocking and can expect to have some trouble in collecting money. RAYMOND states that it is his opinion that either a "sneak" or a "nut" was responsible for putting the dynamite in the car.

RAYMOND also guaranteed [] that no one from Connecticut wanted to hurt [] and gave his word that the dynamite did not come from Connecticut.

JOE PATRIARCA denied to RAYMOND that he was involved in hot cars, and RAYMOND PATRIARCA advised him that if he did engage in this he should immediately stop as he would get hurt.

BS 92-118

Another UNMAN states that he heard that JOE PATRIARCA, [redacted] are selling hot cars, but UNMAN had no substantiation of these facts.

On 10/14/64, PATRIARCA and UNMAN discussed the JOE BONANNO problem. PATRIARCA mentioned that BONANNO has organized families in Canada and California, and that the orders are to stay away from any of BONANNO's men and not to have any dealings whatsoever with them.

UNMAN, believed to be [redacted] contacted PATRIARCA. PATRIARCA was extremely critical of him, pointing out that he (PATRIARCA) had called his ([redacted]) wife and requested that [redacted] contact PATRIARCA.

It appeared that everyone in the city knew that PATRIARCA had ordered [redacted] explained that his wife had contacted several individuals upon receipt of the call in an effort to locate [redacted] and told these individuals in the event they see him to tell him to see PATRIARCA immediately.

[redacted] denied any knowledge of JOE PATRIARCA being involved in the stolen cars. He denied also that he was responsible for the theft of UNMAN's car, mentioned above.

UNMAN, whose car was stolen, is probably [redacted] (PH).

[redacted] stated that when [redacted] approached him he thought that he could contact individuals who were dealing in hot cars and have [redacted] car returned to him. He stated that [redacted] (all PH) are all good car thieves and are responsible for most of the thefts around Providence. These individuals deal with [redacted] who buys the parts of the stolen car from him.

[redacted] name was mentioned in connection with hot cars, but informant did not know details of same.

BS 92-118

[redacted] and PATRIARCA have a heated argument concerning the hot cars and particularly in reference to JOE PATRIARCA's name being brought into it. [redacted] vehemently denied that he was responsible for bringing JOE PATRIARCA's name into the hot car ring.

PATRIARCA threatened to kill [redacted] if he found out differently.

PATRIARCA advised that former Massachusetts State Police [] had contacted him in Providence at the request of Governor Elect JOHN A. VOLPE to ascertain whether he (PATRIARCA) had furnished a substantial sum of money to the campaign of VOLPE's opponent, FRANCIS X. BELLOTTI. PATRIARCA, according to this source, had not furnished a substantial amount of money to BELLOTTI.

PATRIARCA advised that JAMES POWERS, who was recently released from the Dedham County Jail. Dedham, Mass., had contacted [] PATRIARCA's associate in Providence, R. I., for some money.

According to PATRIARCA, [] Somerville, Mass. hoodlum, had arranged to get POWERS out of jail on bail. POWERS, through [] wanted to ascertain how [] "fits" with PATRIARCA.

PATRIARCA told him that he had no animosity towards [] and promised that he would assist neither side in his [] "war" against the [] brothers.

Informant further stated that this is not PATRIARCA's true feeling. He pointed out that because of his association with the [] brothers, he would favor the [] faction.

ANGIULO expressed concern that [] and his group were taking over the horses and numbers business in Somerville, Mass. which formerly was one of ANGIULO's locations.

PATRIARCA advised ANGIULO to "just sit back" for the present and see what happens. If [] comes on strong he indicated steps would be taken to curtail his progress.

PATRIARCA and ANGIULO discussed the financial condition of the Berkshire Downs Race Track in western Massachusetts. During the conversation, PATRIARCA again mentioned that $5,000 was paid to Massachusetts Attorney General EDWARD W. BROOKE to obtain the acquittal of PATRIARCA's associate, JOSEPH KRIKORIAN who was tried for "larceny" from the track.

ANGIULO stated that JOSEPH MODICA, Boston, Mass., is still in the process of formulating plans to steal a truck load of cigarettes.

No additional pertinent information was developed concerning this theft.

ANGIULO stated that "CHI CHI" (FRANK CUCCHIARA of Boston, Mass.) has not been able to control [redacted] (probably [redacted] of Boston, Mass.).

It appeared to the informant that ANGIULO had turned over a "patch" consisting of numbers and horse play to FRANK CUCCHIARA some time ago. This business grosses approximately $7,000 a week. CUCCHIARA has been complaining to ANGIULO that he has been unable to obtain a profit from this operation and desired a "$600 credit" from ANGIULO (apparently relating to the layoff numbers). ANGIULO gave him the "$600 credit" and CUCCHIARA now wants an additional credit, which ANGIULO has refused. PATRIARCA agreed that ANGIULO should refuse additional credit inasmuch as it would appear they are making a profit on the operation.

JERRY indicated that if CUCCHIARA continues to "beef" about the operation, he (ANGIULO) will assume control of it.

PATRIARCA stated that he has not, as yet, learned the exact details concerning JOE BONANNO but should know in the near future. |||

[redacted] (LNU), who has been arrested in New York, was being "milked" by a New York lawyer. RAYMOND instructed him to call [redacted] New York Bondsman, and request [redacted] to intercede for him with the lawyer. [redacted] was to call PATRIARCA if he had any doubts concerning [redacted] close association with PATRIARCA.

Re Boston airtel, 11/5/64, and Bureau airtel, 11/20/64.

A review of current PCIs and CTs of the NYO fails to indicate a contact with [redacted] to develop information concerning PATRIARCA.

Prior to receipt of Boston airtel, 11/5/64, [redacted] Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Narcotics, who has been of assistance to this office in the past, advised a NYO Agent that [redacted] a former PCI of the NYO, who has also acted as an informant for [redacted] was an agent with Alcohol and Tobacco Unit, was then in Providence, R.I. where he was attempting to uncover an ATU violation by PATRIARCA and his associates.

Based on the above conversation with [redacted] a strong possibility exists that [redacted] has been approached by ATU Agents.

Re NY airtel to Director, 12/1/64.

For information of Bureau and Boston, on 10/2/64, NY file [redacted] captioned "[redacted]" was opened when [redacted] a Brooklyn bar owner, was interviewed by SAS of NYO. A review of this file reflects that [redacted] denied having seen TAGLIANETTI since June, 1964, and talks to TAGLIANETTI only on holidays when they exchange greetings. [redacted] stated he has no knowledge of the activities or any income of TAGLIANETTI.

[redacted] who was raised in Brooklyn, NY, denied any specific association with criminals, but exhibited a cooperative attitude and indicated a willingness to assist the FBI. Although TAGLIANETTI's activities were discussed with PCI, at no time was the name of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA mentioned and [redacted]

In view of info developed by Boston and to protect Boston's source, the NYO will continue to contact [redacted] as a PCI, but will exercise extreme caution.

Re Boston Airtel 11/24/64.

BS 837-C* advised on 11/24/64 that UNMAN, who is in the real estate business, told PATRIARCA that he is considering the possibility of purchasing the R. I. Auditorium and the Rhode Island Reds Hockey Team and desires to know what PATRIARCA thinks of the venture. PATRIARCA told UNMAN that it would depend upon the price which UNMAN had not discussed with [redacted]. He told PATRIARCA that he would enter into discussions with [redacted] and talk to him later about this business deal.

On 11/25/64, the Informant advised that SAM GRANITO, Boston, Mass., contacted PATRIARCA. GRANITO was curious as to why JOE BONANNO "went away". PATRIARCA replied that after he sent GRANITO to apparently find out what the situation was in regards to BONANNO, he also sent word to New York to find out. The kid from New York came in and told him that he went away by himself. PATRIARCA guessed that the reason BONANNO went away by himself was that they threw him out of the commission in addition to not wanting to appear before the Grand Jury.

GRANITO had been to Bronx recently to attend a christening. He met [] (LNU) who sent his regards to RAYMOND. [] was a short, stocky guy "who's with TOMMY BROWN". [] has not seen PATRIARCA in a couple of years. GRANITO explained that [] had a little joint where they used to hang out and because of the pressure by the FEDS the landlord forced him out of this joint.

In regards to EDWARD "PUNCHY" McLAUGHLIN, GRANITO reported that he has a good chance to live after the recent murder attempt on his life at Brookline, Mass. RAYMOND explained that the assailants should have used Double 00 buckshot instead of bird shot as they apparently did. RAYMOND also added one of the hardest ways to kill an individual is to attack him from the outside while the supposed victim is inside the car.

RAYMOND explained that a couple of kids from Boston were in Providence the previous Saturday. One of these individuals was [] and he could have been the individual who stole the car used by the assailants at this time. RAYMOND instructed GRANITO not to fool around with either the [] group or the [] group. He said he intends to let them fight it out and he will step in when the fight is over. He explained that [] sent word through TEDDY PUCCILLO to PATRIARCA stating he wanted no trouble with the Italians. PATRIARCA in turn sent word to [] that as long as he did not bother RAYMOND's people he, RAYMOND, did not care what he did.

GRANITO told RAYMOND that he fixed the silencer for his gun. The individual who fixed the silencer for GRANITO told him if he ran steel wool through the barrel after it had been used, it would be impossible to identify a bullet emanating from this gun.

GRANITO also stated that [] does business with [] (LNU) who resides in Tucson, Arizona. [] was described as in his 60s and the individual who took [] of New York for a "bundle of money". [] apparently did time for this violation. [] is now building houses in the vicinity of Tucson, Arizona. According to SAMMY, he questioned [] about his purchase of the guns which he, [] had sent to Boston. [] explained that he got two guns from Albuquerque and two guns from Arizona and he, himself, packaged the guns and had no idea of how or why the firing pins were altered. It appeared that [] mentioned above, had some connection with the purchase of these guns but the Informant was not positive of this fact.

GRANITO stated that TOMMY CALLAHAN, a Boston hoodlum, is drinking heavily. Recently he had two New York individuals with him from the Teamsters Union in New York. SAMMY suggested that it would be possible for CALLAHAN to kill [redacted] as he "hates him".

On 11/27/64, Informant advised that NICK BIANCO of Brooklyn, New York, contacted PATRIARCA. NICK stated that the razor blades, which was previously mentioned to him by PATRIARCA, was not the same deal as the one in New York. The name of [redacted] was mentioned as selling some unknown goods for $6.00. NICK stated that the game that he had previously mentioned to PATRIARCA did not go off so that now he is on the payroll of [redacted] crap game. He explained to JOE (COLUMBO) that he wanted to pay for the money that he had taken. The significance of this was not known to the Informant. NICK stated that he had something good going which "figures about 30,000". It concerned a garbage contract in a shopping center. There was also a possibility of obtaining the garbage contract for the 6,800 houses located adjacent to the shopping center. It appears that some other company now has the garbage contract but he believes he can get it as he knows the builder of the homes who is also the owner of the shopping center. He told RAYMOND that he would speak to CARLO (GAMBINO) prior to the time he makes any overtures to obtain the garbage contract for the 6,800 homes.

He also stated that F.D. or F.P. (PH) were stripping cars and then using a crusher to destroy same in order that the owners of these cars could collect from an insurance company. NICK stated everything is closed in Brooklyn, N. Y.; that the crap games and night club have all been closed because of the heat from the local police. He stated that one game is to be opened on that night. No locations were mentioned.

On 11/30/64 [redacted] Providence, Rhode Island, settled a dispute between two individuals concerning a loan with PATRIARCA.

BS 92-118

Another UNMAN complained to RAYMOND that [redacted] [redacted] was to beat him up because of an argument between the two. PATRIARCA called [redacted] and told him to tell [redacted] to lay off UNMAN.

No further pertinent information of value obtained.

[redacted] Providence, R. I., then discussed the same gambling "beef" as set out below. During the discussion he stated that he was told that [redacted] got the green light to open up as a bookmaker in the Miami race tracks. [redacted] is presently in Rhode Island and indications are that he might return to Florida for the purpose of bookmaking at the horse tracks.

On 12/3/64 UNMAN and [redacted] (LNU) contacted PATRIARCA. [redacted] advised he had a complaint against [redacted] who is a bookmaker from New Bedford, Mass.

It appeared that [redacted] who has the reputation of being a swindler, contacted [redacted] and asked if he would take over two large bettors from Brockton, Mass. These bettors were allegedly a doctor and a dentist, but [redacted] refused to identify them to [redacted] apparently took the bets and relayed same to [redacted].

The first few days the doctor and dentist won some money which was paid off by [redacted] but the last few days of the previous week ~~was when~~ they lost $4,224 in their betting.

[redacted] when he made arrangements with [redacted] specifically pointed out that he [redacted] would be responsible for any bad debts incurred by these individuals.

[redacted] apparently contacted [redacted] and the Dentist and threatened them telephonically. The Dentist, in turn, called [redacted] and requested that he intercede on his behalf with [redacted].

[redacted] and told him to stay off the Doctor's back.

[redacted] added that the bets by the doctor and dentist were layed off to [redacted] who is in partnership with [redacted] and RAYMOND PATRIARCA in the booking business, according to BS 837-C*.

[] stated that he first heard of [] when he [] called [] (LNU), who is [] man in the office, and asked him about the bad debt. [] told him that he knew nothing about same.

JERRY ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE contacted PATRIARCA.

JERRY received permission from PATRIARCA to go to Miami Florida as he (JERRY) had been contacted by [redacted] from Florida who told ANGIULO that [redacted] (former [redacted] at the Kenmore Hospital which ANGIULO owns) and others received summonses from IRS.

JERRY intends to travel to Florida December 7 or 8, 1964 in order that he might sit down with [redacted] and others who received summonses from IRS, and their attorneys. He will advise them to take the 5th Amendment.

ANGIULO advised that recently PATRICK "SONNY" MC DONOUGH, Governor's Executive Council, State of Massachusetts, contacted him telephonically and told him that he wanted to meet him immediately.

ANGIULO met him at Gary's Restaurant, Scituate, Mass.

MC DONOUGH told ANGIULO that he would prefer, in the future, to contact ANGIULO directly and not use "TEDDY" FUCILLO as an intermediary.

ANGIULO told MC DONOUGH that FUCILLO was a long-time friend and asked the reason for MC DONOUGH's request.

MC DONOUGH stated that FUCILLO was a nice fellow but he does not use common sense. He pointed out that FUCILLO made arrangements for him to meet PATRIARCA in the hospital parking lot a year or so ago and that the FBI had a picture of the meet between MC DONOUGH and PATRIARCA. MC DONOUGH stated he was interviewed by the FBI concerning this and told them that he had been accused of taking payoffs and that he, in fact, never took a payoff in his life.

He stated that MIKE COHEN (deceased), former "bag man" for the racketeering element in Boston, allegedly accepted a payoff from PATRIARCA for MC DONOUGH.

When MC DONOUGH learned of this, he desired to see PATRIARCA and point out to him that he never received any money from the alleged payoff to COHEN.

"SONNY" also told ANGIULO that he had arranged for Massachusetts State Police [redacted] to be transferred to the Northampton Police Barracks, which ANGIULO had previously requested through FUCILLO. He added that [redacted] who presently is assigned to the Massachusetts State Police Barracks at Logan Airport, will take [redacted] place as head of the [redacted] Unit, Criminal Information Bureau.

It should be noted that this Unit investigates organized crime and gambling.

MC DONOUGH assured ANGIULO that no money would be involved for this favor; however, ANGIULO suggested that Massachusetts State Police Commissioner MAC DONALD might need some money, but MC DONOUGH told him it was not necessary.

According to ANGIULO, MC DONOUGH "then hedged." He added that he had received promises that the above transfer will take place and he is "90% sure of it."

MC DONOUGH stated that he had great respect for PHIL BUCCOLLA, RAYMOND PATRIARCA's predecessor in New England. MC DONOUGH has heard that BUCCOLLA returns to this country from time to time and said, "I would give my right arm to see PHIL because there is no one like PHIL."

PATRIARCA expressed concern for, pointing out he should have immediately notified PATRIARCA when he was interviewed by the FBI concerning the meeting in the hospital parking lot. In this way PATRIARCA could have ascertained what he (MC DONOUGH) told the FBI and, if interviewed, PATRIARCA could substantiate same.

ANGIULO allegedly told MC DONOUGH that [redacted] is not only dangerous to the gamblers but also could be twice as dangerous to the politicians.

Information concerning MC DONOUGH or [redacted] is not being disseminated at this time as it might jeopardize the security of the informant.

BS 92-118

Informant advised that PATRIARCA mentioned an individual who had killed somebody at Walpole, and was recently released. (This apparently refers to [redacted] of Boston, Mass. The informant did not have any further facts concerning [redacted].)

Informant advised on 12/1/64 that GENNARO ANGIULO was recently contacted by EDWARD DEEGAN, an associate of the late HAROLD HANNON, and [redacted] who told ANGIULO that [redacted] wanted to contact ANGIULO, as he had an important message for him.

ANGIULO told DEEGAN that he did not desire to meet personally with [redacted] but made arrangements to have DEEGAN or [redacted] contact PETER LIMONE, ANGIULO's top lieutenant, at which time LIMONE would furnish a telephone number where either [redacted] would contact him.

Informant stated there was no mention of the telephone number that ANGIULO might furnish in connection with [redacted] message.

They discussed the recent shooting of EDWARD "PUNCHY" MC LAUGHLIN.

PATRIARCA was of the opinion that (FNU) POWERS, who was recently in Providence, was probably involved or had stolen the car used in the attempted murder of MC LAUGHLIN.

PATRIARCA advised that [redacted] sent an unknown individual who had been barred from the race tracks to him in order that he (PATRIARCA) might try to do something for him through [redacted] the Lincoln Downs Race Track, Lincoln, R. I.

RAYMOND then mentioned that [redacted] "wound up with the money" of the guy who was killed in Walpole.

UNMAN's name, who is attempting to be reinstated on the tracks, is probably [redacted] (LNU).

ADMINISTRATIVE

This case has been afforded close, continuous investigative attention, and the Bureau has been advised of all pertinent developments during the course of this investigation.

Careful consideration has been given to all sources concealed and "T" symbols were utilized only in those instances wherein it was necessary to conceal the identity of the source.

On 9/22/64, a confidential source advised that [redacted] is attending the University of Rhode Island at Kingston, R. I. and that PATRIARCA has rented a house for [redacted] on Elizabeth Street, possibly in Narragansett, R. I.

On 9/28/64, checks were made in Narragansett, R. I. and it was determined that there is an Elizabeth Street in Narragansett, R. I.

A check of this street revealed a late model red Falcon, bearing Rhode Island registration P91, was parked in front of a ranch house, yellow in color. This house did not have any number on it, but was a house located on the second street up from the motel, the Main Road at Scarborough Beach.

It is noted the Rhode Island registration plate P-91 is known to be on the late model red Falcon belonging to [redacted]

New York teletype to Bureau dated 9/24/64, entitled, "LA COSA NOSTRA, AR-CONSPIRACY," made reference to a very serious controversy involving the "Commission" and JOSEPH BONANNO and his "Family."

This teletype requested all offices discreetly ascertain whereabouts of all commission members in their territories and afford coverage through Friday night so the NYO can be immediately advised of any travel plans and mode of travel.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

On 9/24/64, coverage was maintained on RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, and he was in Providence, R. I. and, in fact, he had a meeting with "JERRY" ANGIULO and PETER LIMONE of Boston, Mass. HENRY TAMELEO was also with PATRIARCA during this meeting.

No information was developed, from all reliable sources, that this meeting had anything to do with BONANNO or the contemplated meeting. Rather it showed that PATRIARCA, on Friday evening, would be in Worcester, Mass. to attend the wake of his aunt and that possibly she would be buried on Saturday, 9/26/64.

On 9/25/64, sources advised that PATRIARCA was still at his place of business, 168 Atwells Avenue, Providence, R. I., but during the evening he would be in Worcester, Mass. with his wife, HELEN, to attend the wake of his aunt.

It was ascertained that Mrs. LENORA E. DI NUBLIA, widow of Mrs. CHARLES S. WHITE and aunt of RAYMOND PATRIARCA, who formerly resided at 10 Schussler Road, Worcester, would be buried from the Blessed Sacrament Church, Worcester, Mass., at 9:00 a.m., Saturday, 9/26/64.

Information was also developed from a highly confidential source that PATRIARCA planned to go to Worcester, Mass. during the p.m. of 9/25/64 with his wife, HELEN PATRIARCA, and it was also indicated that he would attend the funeral of his aunt on 9/26/64 at Worcester, Mass.

On 9/25/64, the above information was furnished to the Bureau and the NYO under the case entitled, "LA COSA NOSTRA, AR-CONSPIRACY" Bufile 92-6054, New York file 92-2300.

On the evening of 9/25/64, RAYMOND PATRIARCA was observed in Worcester, Mass. by Bureau Agents in attendance at the above-mentioned wake.

On Saturday, 9/26/64, RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA was observed at his place of business, 168 Atwells Ave, Providence, R. I.

ADMINISTRATIVE (Continued)

Surveillance log of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA on 9/30/64 is being maintained in the appropriate section of this file.

Surveillance from Providence, R. I. to New York was conducted by SA's [REDACTED]

Surveillance logs of PATRIARCA's surveillance at NYC is being maintained in New York file 92-788, entitled, "RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA, aka, AR."

On 10/24/64, the FBI Identification Division furnished a copy of RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA's arrest record under FBI #191 775, to the Bahamas Police Force, Post Office Box 458, Nassau, The Bahamas, Attention: Assistant Commissioner [REDACTED] as being identical with subject of inquiry dated 10/8/64, per FBI, Miami, Fla.

On 10/26/64, the Miami Division furnished the following information:

[REDACTED] Supervisor, Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Miami, Fla., advised SA [REDACTED] on 10/21/64 that his investigation at the Bank of Miami Beach has failed to disclose any loans by the Bank of Miami Beach to persons of known hoodlum backgrounds. He said that no dealings between the bank and RAYMOND PATRIARCA, or "JERRY" ANGIULO, or [REDACTED] were noted by IRS.

SAUL FRIEDMAN, Attorney, Room 709 Industrial National Bank Building, Providence, Rhode Island, was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and further told that he did not have to make any statement and that any statement he did make could be used against him in a court of law. He was also told that the interviewing agent is aware of the fact that he has represented RAYMOND L. S. PATRIARCA in the past and, for that reason, he did not have to make any statement concerning PATRIARCA.

Mr. FRIEDMAN stated that he is a practicing attorney in Rhode Island, is well acquainted with his right to be interviewed and stated he would have no hesitation in answering questions as to his connections with Berkshire Downs Race Track in the western part of Massachusetts.

He furnished the following information:
